An Act to continue for a limited Time an Act, made in the thirty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for establishing Regulations respecting Aliens arriving in this Kingdom, or resident therein, in certain Cases.—[22d June 1797.]

"Act 33 Geo. 3. c. 4. continued till July 1, 1799."

CAP. XCIII.

An Act to indemnify such Persons as have omitted to obtain their Certificates of Enrolment, Admission, or Registry, in the several Courts of this Kingdom.—[22d June 1797.]

25 Geo. 3. c. 80. recited.

'WHEREAS many Persons who by an Act, passed in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty certain Duties on Certificates to be taken out by Solicitors, Attornies, and others, practising in certain Courts of Justice in Great Britain; and certain other Duties with respect to Warrants, Mandates, and Authorities, to be entered or filed of Record, as therein mentioned,

'tioned, are required to take out Certificates of their Enrolment, Admiſſion, or Regiſtry, in the Courts 'therein mentioned, annually, ten Days at leaſt before the Expiration of the former Certificate, have 'neglected or omitted ſo to do, through Abſence or ſome unavoidable Accident, and without any Intention 'to defraud, and ſome Actions have been commenced and are depending, and other Actions are likely to 'be commenced againſt ſuch Perſons to recover the Penalties incurred by them:' For relieving ſuch Perſons, may it pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall be lawful for any Perſon who ſhall have neglected or omitted to take out his Certificate at the Time or in the Manner required by the ſaid Act, within three Calendar Months after the paſſing of this Act, to take out a Certificate, or to pay to the Receiver General of his Majeſty's Stamp Duties, or to ſome Officer appointed by him, ſuch Sum and Sums of Money which ſhall appear to be due in reſpect of the Duty impoſed by the ſaid Act; and after that Rate for ſuch Year or Years, or for ſuch Portion or Portions of Time greater or leſs than a Year, for or during which ſuch Perſon ſhall have neglected or omitted to take out his Certificate (the Amount of which Sum and Sums ſo to be paid ſhall be aſcertained and ſettled by the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Stamp Duties, or by ſome Perſon or Perſons to be appointed by them under their Hands, or the Hands of any three or more of them, who are hereby authorized and required to aſcertain and ſettle the ſame accordingly); and every ſuch Perſon ſhall, upon Payment of all ſuch Sum and Sums of Money, be and is hereby indemnified, freed, and diſcharged, from and againſt all Penalties, Forfeitures, Incapacities, and Diſabilities, incurred or to be incurred for or by reaſon of any Neglect or Omiſſion previous to the paſſing of this Act, of taking or obtaining a Certificate in the Manner preſcribed by the ſaid Act; and all Acts done by any ſuch Perſon ſhall be of the ſame Force and Validity as the ſame or any of them would have been if ſuch Perſon had obtained his Certificate according to the Directions of the ſaid Act; and that all Proceedings in any Action or Actions already commenced for any Neglect or Omiſſion of taking out or obtaining ſuch Certificate, ſhall, in the mean Time, be ſtaid, and ſhall not be further proceeded in after the ſaid Period of three Calendar Months, againſt any Perſon who ſhall have paid the Duty in the Manner before directed; and no Action or Actions ſhall be commenced or proſecuted for ſuch Neglect or Omiſſion, until after the Expiration of the ſaid three Calendar Months, and then only againſt ſuch Perſon or Perſons who ſhall neglect to comply with the Proviſions of this Act.

Perſons who have neglected to take out Certificates as required by recited Act, may take them out within three Months after paſſing this Act, and ſhall be indemnified.

Actions commenced for ſuch Neglect to be ſtaid, and not further proceeded in; and no Action to be commenced after the ſaid three Months, againſt Perſons paying the Duty.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, ſhall not be conſtrued to extend to indemnify any Perſon againſt whom final Judgment ſhall have been given on or before the firſt Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, in any Action in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record, for any Penalty or Penalties incurred by having neglected or omitted to obtain his Certificate according to the Directions of the ſaid Act.

Act not to indemnify Perſons againſt whom final Judgment ſhall have been given by June, 1, 1797.

III. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall be deemed, taken, and allowed to be a Public Act; and all Judges, Juſtices, and other Perſons, are hereby required to take Notice thereof as ſuch, without ſpecially pleading the ſame.

Public Act.

CAP. XCIV.

An Act to continue an Act, made in the thirty-firſt Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Pilchard Fiſhery, by allowing a further Bounty upon Pilchards taken, cured, and exported.—[22d June 1797.]

"31 Geo. 3. c. 45. continued to June 24, 1805."

CAP. XCV.

An Act to amend two Acts, made in the fourth Year of the Reign of Queen Anne, and the firſt Year of the Reign of King George the Firſt, for the Preſervation of Salmon and other Fiſh in the Rivers within the Counties of Southampton and Wilts.—[22d June 1797.]

'WHEREAS an Act was made in the fourth Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for the Encreaſe and better Preſervation of Salmon and other Fiſh in the Rivers within the Counties of Southampton and Wilts; which Act was altered and amended by another Act made in the firſt Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King George the Firſt, intituled, An Act for the better preventing freſh Fiſh taken by Foreigners being imported into this Kingdom, and for the better Preſervation of the Fry of Fiſh, and for the giving Leave to import Lobſters and Turbots in Foreign Bottoms, and for the better Preſervation of Salmon, within ſeveral Rivers in that Part of this Kingdom called England: And whereas the Periods limited by the ſaid laſt recited Act for taking Salmon, Salmon Peal, or Salmon Kind, or Bouges, (otherwiſe called Sea Trouts,) in the Rivers within the Counties of Southampton and Wilts, or offering the ſame to Sale, have been found very prejudicial to the Owners and Proprietors of the Fiſheries in the ſaid Counties, and further Proviſion is neceſſary for the better Preſervation of the Spawn, Fry, or Young Brood of Salmon, Salmon Peal, and Salmon Kind in the Rivers within the ſaid Counties:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent

4 Annæ, c. 27. and 1 Geo. 1. c. 28. recited.

So much of 1 Geo. 1 as restrains taking of Salmon, &c. between certain Periods repealed.

present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said last recited Act as restrains the taking of Salmon, Salmon Peal, or Salmon Kind, or the offering the same to Sale between the first Day of August and the twelfth Day of November, and the taking of Bouges between the eleventh Day of November and the thirtieth Day of June, in every Year, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Salmon, &c. may be taken between Jan. 1 and Sept. 12.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for such Owners and Proprietors, and every other Person or Persons entitled to fish in the Rivers within the said Counties, and their Servants and Agents, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, at any Time or Times from and after the passing of this Act, and until the twelfth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and at any Time or Times in any subsequent Year, between the first Day of January and the twelfth Day of September, to take, kill, or destroy any Salmon, Salmon Peal, or Salmon Kind, or any Bouges, or offer to Sale any of the said Fish so taken between the last mentioned Periods.

Preserving Salmon, &c. between Sept. 12 and Jan. 1.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no such Owner, Proprietor, or Person aforesaid, or any of his Servants or Agents, shall or may at any Time or Times between the twelfth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven and the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, and at any Time or Times in any subsequent Year between the twelfth Day of September and the first Day of January, take, kill, or destroy, or wilfully hurt any Salmon, Salmon Peal, or Salmon Kind, or any Bouges, by Hawks, Racks, Gins, Angles, or any other Devices whatsoever, or offer to Sale any of the said Fish so taken, under the like Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures as are mentioned and contained in the said first recited Act; any Thing in the said Acts, or either of them, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Preserving the Spawn of Salmon, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall take, kill, or destroy the Spawn, Fry, or Young Brood of any Salmon, Salmon Peal, or Salmon Kind, in any of the said Rivers, or in any Brook or Stream communicating with them, or either of them, or shall have in his, her, or their Custody or Possession any such Spawn, Fry, or Young Brood, at any Time between the tenth Day of March and the thirtieth Day of May in any Year, every such Person or Persons shall forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Shillings for every Parcel or Quantity of the Spawn, Fry, or Young Brood, of any such Fish so taken, killed, or destroyed, to be levied, recovered, and applied, in the like Manner as the Penalties and Forfeitures mentioned in the said recited Acts, or either of them, are directed to be levied, recovered, and applied.

For assigning Overseers to preserve the Fish.

V. 'And whereas by the said Act passed in the fourth Year of Queen Anne it was directed, that there 'should be assigned Overseers of that Statute by any two or more Justices of the Peace residing within five 'Miles of the respective Rivers within the said Counties of Southampton and Wilts: And whereas it would 'tend to the more effectual Preservation of the Fish within the said Rivers, if such Overseers were to be con-'stantly assigned:' Be it therefore enacted, That the Justices of the Peace for the said Counties respectively residing within five Miles of any of the said Rivers shall, and they are hereby directed and required, at any Quarter or Special Sessions of the Peace to be holden within six Months after the passing of this Act, to assign Overseers for the Purposes directed by the said recited Act; and shall once in every Year, at any such Quarter or Special Sessions on or before the first Day of November, assign the same or other Persons to be Overseers for the like Purposes, and such Persons so assigned shall execute, do, and perform, all the Powers and Authorities granted to the Overseers by the said recited Act; any Thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

For keeping open the Scuttle or Hatch for a longer Period.

VI. 'And whereas it was by the said Act enacted, That all Owners and Occupiers of Mills upon any 'of the Rivers in the said Counties should constantly keep open one Scuttle or Hatch of a Foot square in the 'Waste Hatch or Watercourse in the direct Stream wherein no Water Wheel should stand, sufficient for the 'Salmon to pass and repass freely up and down the said Rivers, from the eleventh Day of November to the 'one-and-thirtieth Day of May in every Year: And whereas it is expedient to extend the Time limited 'by the said recited Act for keeping open such Scuttle or Hatch:' Be it therefore enacted, That all Owners and Occupiers of Mills upon the said Rivers shall constantly keep open the said Scuttle or Hatch in the Manner directed by the said recited Act, from the eleventh Day of November to the eleventh Day of July in every Year, under the like Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as are contained in the said recited Act.

Public Act.

VII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken Notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons whomsoever, without specially pleading the same.

CAP. XCVI.

An Act for amending and rendering more effectual an Act, passed in the thirteenth Year of His late Majesty King George the First [a], intituled, An Act for the effectual draining and Preservation of Haddenham Level in the Isle of Ely; and for more effectually draining and preserving the Fen Lands and Low Grounds lying within the said Level.—[22d June 1797.]

CAP. XCVII.

An Act for carrying into Execution the Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation, concluded between His Majesty and the United States of America.—[4th July 1797.]

Treaty with America recited.

'WHEREAS a Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation, has been concluded between his Majesty and the United States of America: And whereas, by the eleventh Article of the said Treaty, 'it is agreed between his Majesty and the United States of America, that there should be a reciprocal and 'entirely perfect Liberty of Navigation and Commerce between their respective People, in the Manner, 'under the Limitations, and on the Conditions specified in the following Articles of the said Treaty: And 'whereas, by the fifteenth Article of the said Treaty, it is further agreed, that no other or higher Duties shall 'be paid by the Ships or Merchandize of the one Party, in the Ports of the other, than such as are paid by 'the like Vessels or Merchandize of all other Nations; nor shall any other or higher Duty be imposed in one 'Country, on the Importation of any Articles, the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture of the other, than are 'or shall be payable on the Importation of the like Articles, being of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture 'of any other Foreign Country; nor shall any Prohibition be imposed on the Exportation or Importation 'of any Articles, to or from the Territories of the two Parties respectively, which shall not equally extend 'to all other Nations:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to import into this Kingdom, directly from any of the Territories of the United States of America, in British-built Ships or Vessels, owned, navigated, and registered according to Law, or in Ships built in the Countries belonging to the United States of America, or any of them, or in Ships taken by any of the Ships or Vessels of War belonging to the Government, or any of the Inhabitants of the said United States, having Commissions or Letters of Marque and Reprisal from the Government of the said United States, and condemned as lawful Prize in any Court of Admiralty of the said United States, of which Condemnation Proof shall be given to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, or any four or more of them, in that Part of Great Britain called England, and any three or more of them, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and owned by the Subjects of the said United States, or any of them, and whereof the Master and Three-fourths of the Mariners at least are Subjects of the said United States, any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of the said United States, which are not prohibited by Law to be imported from Foreign Countries, and to enter and land such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, upon Payment of the Duties, and subject to the Conditions and Regulations hereinafter mentioned; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Goods may be imported from the United States of America into Great Britain, in British or American Ships, &c. under certain Regulations.

II. And be it further enacted, That all such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, imported into Great Britain, either in such Ships, or in British-built Ships, owned, navigated, and registered according to Law, (except such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize as are hereinafter particularly enumerated or described,) shall and may be entered and landed, upon Payment of such Duties of Customs and Excise, and no higher, as are payable on Goods, Wares, and Merchandize of the like Denomination or Description, upon their Importation into this Kingdom, in British-built Ships, from any other Foreign Country; and in Cases where different Duties are imposed upon Goods, Wares, and Merchandize of the like Denomination or Description, imported from different Foreign Countries, then upon Payment of the lowest Duties which by Law are required to be paid on the Importation, in British-built Ships, of any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, from any Foreign Country, according to the Schedule and Tables, marked A, D, and F, annexed to an Act passed in the twenty-seventh Year of his present Majesty's Reign*, intituled, An Act for repealing the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and for applying the said Duties, together with the other Duties composing the Public Revenue; for permitting the Importation of certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, the Produce or Manufacture of the European Dominions of the French King, into this Kingdom; and for applying certain unclaimed Monies, remaining in the Exchequer for the Payment of Annuities on Lives, to the Reduction of the National Debt; or by any other Laws in Force, passed subsequent to the said Act, touching the Duties contained in the said Schedule and Tables, marked A, D, and F, subject also, when imported in American Ships, to the countervailing Duties imposed by this Act †.

Goods so imported may be landed on Payment of the same Duties as those payable on like Goods imported in British Vessels from any other Foreign Country; or where those Duties are different, on Payment of the lowest.

† See post, § 11.

III. And, in order to encourage and promote the Trade from the United States to this Kingdom, be it further enacted, That any Pig Iron, Bar Iron, Pitch, Tar, Turpentine, Rosin, Pot Ash, Pearl Ash, Mahogany, Masts, Yards, and Bowsprits, being the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of the said United States, and all Staves, and unmanufactured Goods and Merchandize whatsoever, which are not prohibited by Law to be imported from any Foreign Country, being the Growth or Production of the said United States, shall or may be imported in British or American Ships, owned and navigated as hereinbefore required, upon Payment of such Duties of Customs and Excise as are payable on the like Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, when accompanied with the Certificates required by Law upon their Importation into this Kingdom, in British-built Ships, from any British Island or Plantation in America, notwithstanding such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, may not be accompanied with the Certificates heretofore required by Law, subject also, when imported in American Ships, to the countervailing Duties imposed by this Act.

American Pig Iron, &c. may be so imported on Payment of the same Duties as those payable on the like Goods imported in British Ships when accompanied with the requisite Certificates, though not so accompanied.

The Duties on Importation of Wheat, &c. to be ascertained according to the Prices in Table D, in 31 Geo. 3. c. 30.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That upon the Importation into Great Britain, from the said United States of America, of Wheat, Wheat Meal or Flour, Rye, Barley, Beer, or Bigg, Oats, Oatmeal, Peaſe, Beans, Indian Corn, and Maize, the Duties to be paid thereon reſpectively ſhall be regulated and aſcertained according to the Prices of Wheat, Rye, Barley, Beer, or Bigg, Peaſe, Beans, Oats, and Oatmeal, in the Manner ſet forth and ſpecified in the Table marked D, in an Act, paſſed in the thirty-firſt Year of his Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for regulating the Importation and Exportation of Corn, and the Payment of the Duty on Foreign Corn imported, and of the Bounty on Britiſh Corn exported; any Thing contained in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

American Oil, &c. may be imported on Payment of the ſame Duties as on Importation from Countries not belonging to his Majeſty, in Britiſh Veſſels.

V. And be it further enacted, That all Oil made from Fiſh, or Creatures living in the Sea, and Blubber, Whale Fins, and Spermaceti, being the Produce of the Fiſheries carried on by the People of the ſaid United States of America, may be imported from the Countries of the ſaid United States into this Kingdom, in Britiſh or American Ships, owned and navigated as hereinbefore required, upon Payment of ſuch Duties of Cuſtoms as are payable on the like Goods and Merchandize upon their Importation into this Kingdom, in Britiſh-built Ships, from Countries not under the Dominion of his Majeſty, ſubject alſo, when imported in American Ships, to the countervailing Duties impoſed by this Act.

American Tobacco may be ſo imported on Payment of the like Duties as from Britiſh Colonies in America by Britiſh Subjects; and Snuff, on the Payment of the like Duties as European Production, &c.

† Cap. 40.

VI. And be it further enacted, That any Tobacco, being the Growth or Production of any of the Territories of the ſaid United States of America, may be imported in Britiſh or American Ships, owned and navigated as hereinbefore required, upon Payment of the ſame Duties of Cuſtoms and Exciſe as Tobacco imported by Britiſh Subjects from any Britiſh Colony or Plantation in America, is or may hereafter be ſubject to; and that any Snuff, being the Production and Manufacture of any of the ſaid Territories, may be imported, in Manner beforementioned, upon Payment of ſuch Duties of Cuſtoms and Exciſe as Snuff, being the Production or Manufacture of Europe, imported from Europe, is or hereafter may be ſubject to; and may be warehouſed, and again exported; ſuch Tobacco and Snuff to be ſubject reſpectively nevertheleſs to all and ſingular the Regulations, Reſtrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, relating to the Importation and Exportation thereof, or in any other Reſpect relating thereto, of an Act, made and paſſed in the twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty*, intituled, An Act for repealing the Duties on Tobacco and Snuff, and for granting new Duties in lieu thereof; and another Act, paſſed in the thirtieth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign†, intituled, An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, 'An Act for 'repealing the Duties on Tobacco and Snuff, and for granting new Duties in lieu thereof'; or of any other Act ſince made relating thereto, ſubject alſo, when imported in American Ships, to the countervailing Duties impoſed by this Act: Provided always, that ſuch Tobacco ſhall be accompanied with a Manifeſt, as by Law required.

American Rice may be imported and warehouſed, on preſent Payment of 8 d. per Cwt.; and the Importer's Bond for Payment of the remaining Duty; and at London and certain other Ports without Payment of any Duty, under certain Conditions.

VII. And be it further enacted, That any Rice, being the Growth or Production of any of the Territories of the United States of America, which ſhall be imported directly from thence into any of the Ports of Great Britain, in Manner before mentioned, may, upon the Importer paying down, in Ready Money, the Duty of Eight-pence the Hundred Weight, being Part of the Duties now payable on the Importation of Rice, be landed and warehouſed, except as hereinafter provided, under the joint Locks of his Majeſty and the Importer, in ſuch Warehouſes as ſhall be approved of for that Purpoſe by the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, or any four or more of them, in that Part of Great Britain called England, or any three or more of them, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, or by the Collector and Comptroller of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms of the reſpective Ports into which ſuch Rice ſhall be imported, upon the Importer's own Bond for Payment of the Remainder of the Duties due and payable for ſuch Rice, within eighteen Months, according to the Net Weight and Quantity of ſuch Rice at the Time it ſhall be ſo landed: Provided always, that upon the Importation of any ſuch Rice into the Ports of London, Briſtol, Portſmouth, Cowes, Liverpool, Lancaſter, Falmouth, Poole, Whitehaven, Hull, Greenock, and Port Glaſgow, or either of them, in the Manner hereinbefore expreſſed, the Importer ſhall be at Liberty to enter and land the ſame, without Payment of any Duty whatever, upon Condition that ſuch Rice ſhall be warehouſed, under the joint Locks of his Majeſty and the Importers, in ſuch Warehouſe or Warehouſes as ſhall be approved of for that Purpoſe by the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, or any four or more of them, in that Part of Great Britain called England, or any three or more of them, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, or by the Collector and Comptroller of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms of the reſpective Ports where ſuch Rice ſhall be imported; and that every Expence attending ſuch warehouſing ſhall be borne by the ſaid Importers; and that ſuch Importer or Importers, or his or their known Servant, ſhall, from Time to Time, at all ſeaſonable Hours, as Occaſion may require, have free Acceſs to ſuch Warehouſes, in the Preſence of ſome proper Officer of the Cuſtoms, for the Purpoſe of ſkreening and ſhifting the Rice, to prevent it receiving Damage; and that if any Rice, which ſhall be ſo imported from the Territories of the ſaid United States into any of the Ports abovementioned reſpectively, and warehouſed as aforeſaid, ſhall be taken out of the Warehouſes, wherein the ſame ſhall be ſecured, under the joint Locks of his Majeſty and the Importers as aforeſaid, for Home Conſumption, the full Duties due and payable by Law, upon the Importation of ſuch Rice into this Kingdom for Home Conſumption, and alſo, when imported in American Ships, the countervailing Duty impoſed by this Act, ſhall, previouſly to its being taken out of ſuch Warehouſes, be paid to the Collector of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms at the Port where ſuch Rice ſhall be ſo warehouſed, but that ſuch Importer, if he intends to export ſuch Rice, ſhall have Liberty to export the ſame from ſuch Warehouſes reſpectively, under Importers may have Acceſs to Warehouſes.

Rice taken out of Warehouſes for Home Conſumption, to pay the full Duties;

but may be exported Duty-free, under the

the same Regulations under which such Rice might be exported by Law immediately before the passing of this Act, without Payment of any Duty whatever: Provided, that the Exportation of any such Rice, hereafter to be warehoused under the Authority of this Act, be made within the said Space of eighteen Months; but if not exported within that Period, that the full Duties payable by Law, and also, when imported in American Ships, the countervailing Duty imposed by this Act, shall be paid for the same, and not be afterwards drawn back; and that if any Rice, which shall have been imported into any Port of this Kingdom, not hereinbefore specially named, and shall have been warehoused upon the Importer's Bond, in Manner aforesaid, shall, within the Time hereinbefore mentioned, be taken out of the Warehouse wherein it shall have been so secured, to be exported directly from thence, the Bond entered into for the Payment of the said Duties thereon shall be discharged and cancelled by Debenture or Debentures, made out and passed in the usual Manner, for the Quantity or Quantities of Rice duly exported; and if any Rice imported into any Port of this Kingdom, not hereinbefore specially named, and warehoused in Manner aforesaid, shall be taken out of any such Warehouse for Home Consumption, the Remainder of the Duties due and payable by Law, and also, when imported in American Ships, the countervailing Duty by this Act imposed, shall, previously to its being taken out of such Warehouse, be paid to the Collector of his Majesty's Customs at the Port where such Rice shall be so warehoused: Provided, that if any Rice warehoused under the Authority of this Act shall remain in such Warehouse beyond the Period of eighteen Months, upon which the full Duties due and payable by Law shall not have been paid, then in such Case the same shall and may be sold for the Duties, in like Manner, and under the same Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions as any other Goods are now directed by Law to be sold for the Duties, and the Produce applied in like Manner as is directed by an Act, passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for encouraging the Tobacco Trade.

subsisting Regulations, within 18 Months.

Bonds for Duties on Rice imported at Ports not herein named, to be cancelled by Debentures, on taking it out of Warehouses for Exportation; but when taken out for Home Consumption, the Remainder of the Duties to be paid.

If Duties be not paid on warehoused Rice in 18 Months, it may be sold (as under Stat. 12 Ann. Stat. 2. c. 8.).

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the Importation of Rice and other Articles, without Payment of any Duty whatever, by virtue of an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to prohibit the Exportation of Corn, Meal, Flour, and Potatoes, and to permit the Importation of Corn and other Articles of Provision, for a limited Time, in any Ships whatever, without Payment of Duty, and in the Manner in the said Act mentioned, during the Continuance thereof.

Act not to prevent the Importation of Rice, &c. Duty-free, under 37 Geo. 3. c. 7.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, so imported from the United States of America, shall, upon the Exportation thereof to any Foreign Country, be entitled to the same Drawbacks as are or may hereafter be by Law allowed upon the Exportation of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize of the like Denomination and Description, when exported to any Foreign Country; and that there shall be allowed and paid the same Drawbacks and Bounties on Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, exported from this Kingdom to the Territories of the said United States, or any of them, as are or may hereafter be allowed by Law upon the Exportation of Goods, Wares, or Merchandize of the like Denomination or Description, to any of the Islands, Plantations, or Colonies, belonging to the Crown of Great Britain in America.

Goods imported from America, on Exportation to any Foreign Country, and Goods exported from Great Britain to America, to be entitled to Drawbacks and Bounties.

X. And be it further enacted, That there shall be allowed and paid the same Drawbacks upon the Exportation of any Sort of Foreign Hemp or Foreign Iron, exported from this Kingdom to any British Colony or Plantation in America, and to the Territories of the United States of America, or any of them, as are or may hereafter be allowed by Law upon the Exportation of the like Sort of Hemp or Iron to other Foreign Parts.

Drawback to be allowed on Exportation of Foreign Hemp and Iron to America.

XI. 'And whereas, by the said fifteenth Article of the Treaty before mentioned, the British Government 'reserves to itself the Right of imposing such Duty as may be adequate to countervail the Difference of 'Duty now payable on the Importation of European and Asiatic Goods, when imported into the United 'States in British or in American Vessels,' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the fifth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, to and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, on the Importation into this Kingdom of the Goods, Wares, and Merchandize hereinafter mentioned or described, being of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of any of the Territories of the United States of America, and imported directly from thence in American Ships or Vessels, owned and navigated as by this Act is required, the following additional Duties of Customs; that is to say, on the Importation of any such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize as aforesaid, (except Tobacco and other Articles, for which Provision is hereinafter made,) an additional Duty, at and after the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum on the Produce and Amount of the several Duties of Customs due and payable by Law on the Importation into this Kingdom of the like Goods or Merchandize, from any of the said United States, in British-built Ships or Vessels; on the Importation of any such Pig Iron, Bar Iron, Pot Ash, and Pearl Ash, in Manner aforesaid, an additional Duty, at and after the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum on the Produce and Amount of the several Duties of Customs due and payable by Law on the Importation into this Kingdom of any such Goods from any British Colony or Plantation in America, when not accompanied with the Certificates required by Law; on the Importation, in Manner aforesaid, of any such Pitch, Tar, Turpentine, Rosin, Mahogany, Masts, Yards, and Bowsprits, and unmanufactured Goods and Merchandize as aforesaid, (Wood, Staves, and Tobacco excepted,) an additional Duty at and after the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum on the Produce and Amount of the several Duties of Customs due and payable by Law on the Importation of any such Goods into this Kingdom from any British

From Jan. 5, 1798, certain additional Duties to be paid on Importation of Goods from the American States in American Vessels.

Colony or Plantation in America; on the Importation, in Manner aforesaid, of any such unmanufactured Wood and Staves, an additional Duty, at and after the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum on the Produce and Amount of the several Duties of Customs due and payable by Law on the Importation of any such Goods into this Kingdom from any Part of Europe, not within his Majesty's Dominions, in British-built Ships or Vessels; on the Importation, in Manner aforesaid, of any Oil made from Fish, or Creatures living in the Sea, and Blubber, Whale Fins, and Spermaceti, being the Produce of the Fisheries carried on by the People of the said United States, and imported directly from thence into this Kingdom in American Ships or Vessels, owned and navigated as by this Act is required, an additional Duty, at and after the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum on the Produce and Amount of the several Duties of Customs due and payable by Law on the Importation of any such Goods into this Kingdom from Countries not under the Dominion of his Majesty; on the Importation, in Manner aforesaid, of any such Tobacco so imported, an additional Duty of Customs, at and after the Rate of one Shilling and Sixpence for every hundred Pounds Weight of such Tobacco.

The additional Duty of 10 l. per Cent. not to extend to the Duties of 5 l. and 10 l. per Cent. granted by 37 Geo. 3 c. 15.

XII. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to charge or impose the Duty of ten Pounds per Centum by this Act imposed on certain Goods and Merchandize imported into this Kingdom from the said United States in American Ships, on the Produce or Amount of the respective Duties of five Pounds per Centum, and of ten Pounds per Centum, granted to his Majesty by an Act, made in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty certain Duties of Customs on Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, imported into, exported from, or brought and carried Coastwise within Great Britain, except Wine, and except Coals when brought or carried Coastwise; and for applying the Money to arise by virtue of an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, 'An Act for 'Reduction of the Drawbacks and Bounties now allowed on the Exportation of Sugar, towards defraying the 'increased Charge occasioned by any Loan granted, or Stock created, by any Act or Acts passed in the last Session 'of Parliament.'

If Goods be permitted to be warehoused without Payment of Duty, the additional Duty not to be payable till taken out for Home Consumption.

XIII. Provided always, That if any Goods or Merchandize so imported from the United States of America shall be permitted, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force at the Time of such Importation, to be secured in Warehouses, without the Payment of the Duties due on the Importation thereof, then and in such Case the additional Duties of Customs, by this Act imposed, shall not be payable unless and until such Goods shall be taken out of such Warehouse for the Purpose of being used or consumed in this Kingdom.

Act not to alter Duties payable to the City of London, &c.

XIV. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to repeal or anywise alter the Duties of Package, Scavage, Balliage, or Portage, or any other Duties payable to the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, or to the Lord Mayor of the said City for the Time being, or to any other City or Town Corporate, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, or to repeal or anywise alter any special Privilege or Exemption to which any Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, is or are now entitled by Law, but the same shall be continued as heretofore.

Duties to be under the Management of the respective Commissioners of Customs and Excise.

XV. And be it further enacted, That such of the Duties of Customs and Excise, by this Act imposed, as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called England, shall be under the Management of the respective Commissioners of the Customs and Excise in England for the Time being, and such thereof as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland shall be under the Management of the respective Commissioners of the Customs and Excise in Scotland for the Time being.

Duties and Drawbacks to be managed as former ones, and the Goods to be subject to the Conditions of Acts in force immediately before passing this Act.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Duties of Customs and Excise, and the Drawbacks of the Duties of Customs and Excise, upon, for, or in respect of the several Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, by this Act imposed and allowed, shall and may be respectively managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, answered, paid, recovered, and allowed, in such and the like Manner, and in or by any or either of the Means, Ways, or Methods, by which the former Duties of Customs and Excise, and Drawbacks of Duties of Customs and Excise, upon Goods, Wares, or Merchandize in general, and also by any or either of the special Means, Ways, or Methods respectively, by which the former Duties of Customs and Excise, and Drawbacks of Duties of Customs and Excise, upon Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, of the same Sorts or Kinds respectively, were or might be managed, ascertained, levied, raised, collected, answered, paid, recovered, and allowed, and the Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, so by this Act respectively made liable to the Payment of, or chargeable with Duties of Customs and Excise, or so entitled to Drawback of Duties of Customs and Excise, upon the Importation thereof into, or Exportation thereof from Great Britain, or on any other Account whatever, shall be, and the same are hereby made subject and liable to all and every the Conditions, Regulations, Rules, Restrictions, and Forfeitures, to which Goods, Wares, or Merchandize in general, and also all and every the special Conditions, Rules, Restrictions, Regulations, and Forfeitures respectively, to which the like Goods, Wares, or Merchandize respectively were subject and liable by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on and immediately before the passing of this Act respecting the Revenues of Customs and Excise, except where any Alteration is expressly made by this Act; and all and every Pain, Penalty, Fine, or Forfeiture of any Nature or Kind whatever, for any Offence whatever committed against or in Breach of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on and immediately before the passing of this Act, made for securing the Revenue of Customs and Excise, or for the Regulation or Improvement thereof, and the several Clauses, Powers, and Directions therein contained, (unless where expressly altered by this Act,) shall and are hereby directed and declared to extend to, and shall be respectively applied, practised, and put in Execution, for and in respect of the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and Drawbacks of Duties of Customs and Excise, hereby charged and allowed, in as full and ample Manner, to all Intents and Purposes whatever, as if all and every the said Acts, Clauses, Provisions, Powers, Directions, Fines, Pains, Penalties, or Forfeitures, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

From Jan. 5, 1798, 2 s. per Ton to be paid for American Vessels arriving within the Limits of any Port in Great Britain.

XVII. 'And whereas, by the said fifteenth Article of the Treaty before mentioned, it is further agreed, 'that the British Government does reserve to itself the Right of imposing on American Vessels entering into 'the British Ports in Europe, a Tonnage Duty equal to that which shall be payable by British Vessels in 'the Ports of America: And whereas it is thought expedient for the present to exercise the Power reserved 'in the said Article so far only as relates to imposing a Tonnage Duty on American Ships entering the 'Ports of his Majesty's Dominions in Europe, equal to the Excess of the Duty payable in the Ports of the 'United States by British Ships, beyond that which is payable by American Ships entering the same Ports;' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, a Tonnage Duty, at and after the Rate of two Shillings of good and lawful Money of Great Britain, for each and every Ton Burthen of every Ship or Vessel belonging to the Inhabitants of the United States of America, coming or arriving within the Limits of any Port of Great Britain, and that the Tonnage of every such Ship or Vessel shall, in case of any Doubt or Dispute as to the same, be ascertained by Admeasurement, in the Mode and Manner directed by an Act passed in the twenty-sixth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the further Increase and Encouragement of Shipping and Navigation *.

* Cap. 60. § 12, 13, 14.

Officers of the Customs may detain Vessels liable to the Duty, and if not paid in three Months they may be sold.

XVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Customs to stop and detain every Ship or Vessel liable to the Payment of the said Duty, until the said Duty is paid as aforesaid; and in case Payment thereof shall not be made for the Space of three Calendar Months after the Arrival of such Ship or Vessel at any Port in this Kingdom, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England and Scotland respectively, or any three or more of them, to cause such Ship or Vessel, and her Masts, Apparel, and Furniture, to be sold publicly to the best Bidder, and the Produce thereof to be applied, first, to the Charges that shall arise by such Detention and Sale, next, to the said Duty imposed by this Act, and the Overplus to be paid to the Proprietor of such Ship or Vessel, or other Person duly authorized by such Proprietor to receive the same.

Tonnage Duty to be paid to the Officer at the Port, &c.

XIX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Tonnage Duty hereby imposed shall be paid into the Hands of the proper Officer of his Majesty's Customs, at the respective Ports or Places where such Duty shall become due and payable, and such Duty shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England and Scotland respectively.

No Officer to receive any Entry Outwards until a Receipt be shewn him for the said Tonnage Duty.

XX. And, to the Intent that the said Duty may be answered and paid, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Officer of his Majesty's Customs whatever, or his Deputy or Clerk, at any of the said Ports or Places in Great Britain, where such Duty shall become due and payable, shall, from and after the said fifth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, take or receive any Entry Outwards, Cocquet, or Report Outwards, for any Ship or Vessel liable or subject to the said Duty, nor shall such Ship or Vessel be suffered or permitted to depart from any such Port or Place, until the said Duty shall be paid, pursuant to the Directions of this Act, to the respective Collectors or other principal Officers of his Majesty's Customs, authorized to receive the same, and until the respective Master or Owner of any such Ship or Vessel, subject to the Payment of such Duty, shall shew to such respective Officer a Receipt for the same.

Duties to be paid into the Exchequer, and carried to the Consolidated Fund.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies from Time to Time arising by the several new and additional Duties by this Act imposed as aforesaid, (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same respectively excepted,) shall, from Time to Time, be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, and the said Money so paid in as aforesaid shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund.

The United States may trade to the British Territories in the East Indies, agreeably to Article XIII. of the Treaty. [Navigation Act, 12 Geo. 2. c. 18. and the other Navigation Acts.]

XXII. 'And whereas, by the thirteenth Article of the said Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and Navigation, between his Britannic Majesty and the United States of America, it is, among other Things, pro-'vided, that the Vessels belonging to the Citizens of the United States of America shall be admitted and 'hospitably received in all the Sea Ports and Harbours of the British Territories in the East Indies, and 'that the Citizens of the said United States may freely carry on a Trade between the said Territories and the 'said United States in all Articles of which the Exportation or Importation respectively, to or from the said 'Territories, shall not be entirely prohibited; and it is further provided, that the said Trade shall be carried 'on under the Regulations contained in the said Article; and it is expressly agreed that the Vessels of the 'United States shall not carry any of the Articles exported by them from the said British Territories to any 'Port or Place, except to some Port or Place in America where the same shall be unladen, and that such 'Regulations shall be adopted by both Parties, as shall from Time to Time be found necessary to enforce 'the due and faithful Observance of the above recited Stipulation;' be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Ships belonging to the Citizens of the United States to carry on the said Trade to the British Territories in the East Indies, and to import into, and export from, the said Territories, all Articles, of which the Importation or Exportation respectively, to or from the said Territories, shall not be entirely prohibited, in the Manner, and with the Privileges and Advantages, and subject to the Restrictions and Regulations contained and expressed in the said thirteenth Article of the said Treaty of Amity, Commerce, and and Navigation, any Law to the contrary notwithstanding, and particularly notwithstanding any Provisions contained in an Act, passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the encouraging and increasing of Shipping and Navigation.

Acts done by the Subjects of the United States or of his Majesty, in pursuance of the said thirteenth Article, since the final Ratification of the Treaty, to be lawful.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That all Acts done, or Engagements entered into by the Subjects of the United States, or of his Majesty, in pursuance of the said thirteenth Article, shall be deemed and taken to be lawfully done, provided the same shall have been done or entered into since the final Ratification of the said Treaty, and provided the same might have been done and entered into agreeably to the said thirteenth Article, any Law to the contrary notwithstanding, and the same shall be deemed and taken to be, in all Respects, and to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if the same had been done, entered into, or had taken place subsequent to the passing of this Act, any Prohibition to the contrary notwithstanding; and no Penalty, Forfeiture, or Disability, of any Kind or Nature whatsoever, shal be incurred or sued for, for or on account of any such Acts or Engagements.

All Lands, &c. held in Great Britain or its Dependencies by American Citizens on Oct. 28, 1795, to be enjoyed agreeably to Article IX. of the Treaty.

XXIV. 'And whereas, by the ninth Article of the said Treaty, it was agreed that British Subjects, who 'then held Lands in the Territories of the said United States, and American Citizens, who then held Lands 'in the Dominions of his Majesty, should continue to hold them according to the Nature and Tenure of 'their respective States and Titles therein, and might grant, sell, or devise the same to whom they should 'please, in like Manner as if they were Natives, and that neither they nor their Heirs or Assigns should, 'so far as might respect the said Lands and the legal Remedies incident thereto, be regarded as Aliens;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in the Kingdom of Great Britain, or the Territories and Dependencies thereto belonging, which on the said twenty-eighth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five (being the Day of the Exchange of the Ratification of the said Treaty between his Majesty and the said United States) were held by American Citizens, shall be held and enjoyed, granted, sold, and devised, according to the Stipulations and Agreements contained in the said Article; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Act not to give any Right, except such as may be necessary for the Performance of the Stipulations of the said Article.

XXV. Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to give any Right, Title, or Privilege to any Person, not being a natural-born Subject of this Realm, which such Person would not have been entitled to if this Act had not been made, other than and except such Rights, Titles, and Privileges as shall be necessary for the true and faithful Performance of the Stipulations in the said Article contained, according to the true Intent and Meaning thereof, or to give to any Person, not being either a natural-born Subject of this Realm, or a Citizen of the said United States, any Right, Title, or Privilege, to which such Person would not have been entitled if this Act had not been made.

Regulations for carrying into Effect an Agreement in the Treaty mutually to deliver up Persons charged with Murder or Forgery.

XXVI. 'And whereas by the said Treaty it is further agreed, that his Majesty and the United States, 'on mutual Requisitions by them respectively, or by their respective Ministers or Officers authorized to 'make the same, will deliver up to Justice all Persons who, being charged with Murder or Forgery com-'mitted within the Jurisdiction of either, shall seek an Asylum within any of the Countries of the other, 'provided that this shall only be done on such Evidence of Criminality as, according to the Laws of the 'Place where the Fugitive or Person so charged shall be found, would justify his Apprehension and Com-'mitment for Trial, if the Offence had there been committed, and that the Expence of such Apprehension 'and Delivery shall be borne and defrayed by those who make the Requisition, and receive the Fugitive;' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case Requisition shall at any Time be made, in pursuance of and according to the said Article, for the Delivery of any Person charged with Murder or Forgery, committed within the Jurisdiction of the said United States, it shall be lawful for one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to signify that such Requisition has been so made, and to require all Justices of the Peace, and other Magistrates and Officers of Justice, to govern themselves accordingly, and to be aiding and assisting in apprehending the Person so charged, and committing such Person, for the Purpose of being delivered up to Justice, according to the Provisions in the said Article, and thereupon it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, or other Person having Power to commit for Trial Persons charged with Offences against the Laws of this Kingdom, to examine upon Oath any Persons or Person touching the Truth of such Charge, and upon such Evidence as, according to the Laws of this Kingdom, would justify the Apprehension and Commitment for Trial of the Person so charged, if the Offence wherewith he shall be so charged had been committed in this Kingdom, it shall be lawful for such Justice of the Peace, or other Person having Power to commit as aforesaid, to commit the Person so charged to his Majesty's Gaol, there to remain, until delivered pursuant to such Requisition as aforesaid, and thereupon it shall be lawful for one of his Majesty's Secretaries of State, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to order the Person so committed to be delivered to such Person or Persons as shall be authorized by the said United States to receive the Person so committed, and convey such Person to the Dominions of the said United States, to be tried for the Offence with which such Person shall be so charged; and if the Person so charged shall escape out of any Custody to which he shall be committed as aforesaid, it shall be lawful to retake such Person in the same Manner as any Person charged with any Offence against the Laws of this Kingdom may be retaken upon an Escape, so that such Person so charged as aforesaid may be effectually delivered up to Justice, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Article of the said Treaty.

Continuance of Act; during the Treaty.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in Force so long as the said Treaty between his Majesty and the United States of America shall continue in Force, and no longer.

CAP.

CAP. XCVIII.

An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, made in the thirty-first Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the due making of Bread, and to regulate the Price and Assize thereof, and to punish Persons who shall adulterate Meal, Flour, or Bread, so far as the same relates to the Assize and making of Bread to be sold in the City of London, and the Liberties thereof, and within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange.

'WHEREAS several of the Provisions and Regulations in the Statute made in the thirty-first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the due making of Bread, and to regulate the Price and Assize thereof, and to punish Persons who shall adulterate Meal, Flour, or Bread, have been found defective; and it is expedient that other Provisions and Regulations should be made, and further Powers granted, for carrying the Purposes of the said Act into Execution, so far as the same relate to the Assize and making of Bread to be sold in the City of London, and the Liberties thereof, and within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That each and every Corn Meter of the City of London, who is or hereafter shall be employed in working, or measuring and delivering out Wheat, within the said City, or the Liberties thereof, or the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, shall and is hereby required weekly, before the Hour of Twelve of the Clock at Noon of every Monday, to enter, or cause to be entered, in a Book to be for that Purpose provided by the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, and kept at the Corn Meter's Office of the said City, according to the Form hereinafter contained in that Behalf, a true and particular Account, in Writing, of all the Wheat worked and delivered by each and every such Corn Meter, in the Course of the preceding Week, from Ships or Vessels in the River Thames, or out of Warehouses or other Places within the said City, or Liberties thereof, or Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, to the respective Buyers of such Wheat, or their respective Servants or Agents, specifying from what Vessels, Warehouses, or other Places, the Wheat shall be worked, the Names and Additions of the respective Sellers and Buyers thereof, the respective Quantities, the Corn Meter's own Name, and the Names of the respective Lightermen or other Persons to whom the Wheat shall be delivered; and that the said Returns or Accounts, so to be entered in the said Book as before-mentioned, shall be entered, made, and kept in the following Form, or to the like Effect; (that is to say,)

V. And be it further enacted, That every Corn Factor or other Person, from whom any such Account of Wheat, as last before mentioned, is by this Act required and directed to be delivered to the said Meal Weighers, or other Persons, to be appointed as aforesaid, shall, within one Calendar Month next after the passing of this Act, or within one Calendar Month from the Time he shall begin to deal by Commission in the Sale of Wheat, take the following Oath, or (being one of the People called Quakers) affirm, as hereinafter mentioned; (that is to say,)

'I A. B. do swear [or, affirm], That the Accounts which I shall hereafter deliver or cause to be delivered 'to the Meal Weighers of the City of London, or to such other Persons as the Court of Mayor and Al-'dermen of the said City shall appoint to receive the same, of and concerning the Quantities and Prices of 'Wheat which henceforward shall be by or for me sold and delivered, shall, to the best of my Knowledge 'and Belief, and as far as the Sales and complete Deliveries will allow, contain the whole Quantity, and no 'more, of the Wheat bonâ fide sold and delivered by or for me, within the Period to which such Accounts 'shall respectively refer, with the Names and Occupations of the Buyers, and with the Prices thereof re-'spectively, and shall be, to the best of my Judgment, conformable in all other Respects to the Directions 'and true Intent and Meaning of an Act, passed in the thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Ma-'jesty, intituled, An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, made in the thirty-first Year of the Reign 'of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, "An Act for the due making of Bread, and to regulate "the Price and Assize thereof, and to punish Persons who shall adulterate Meal, Flour, or Bread," so far as the 'same relates to the Assize and making of Bread to be sold in the City of London, and the Liberties thereof, and 'within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange.'

Which Oath or Affirmation the Lord Mayor of the City of London for the Time being is hereby empowered and required to administer, and to grant a Certificate thereof, to be registered in the Town Clerk's Office of the said City; and every such Oath or Affirmation shall be so administered, certified, and registered, without any Fee or Reward to be demanded or paid for the same; and in case any Person shall carry on the Trade and Business of a Corn Factor without taking the said Oath, or affirming as aforesaid, conformably to the Directions of this Act, every such Person so offending shall, on being convicted of such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Penalty on any Person carrying on the Business of a Corn Factor, without taking such Oath, &c. 50*l.*

VI. And be it further enacted, That every Baker, and other Person making or who shall make Bread for Sale, within the City of London, or the Liberties thereof, or the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, shall and is hereby required to prepare and leave, or cause to be left, weekly, before the Hour of Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon of every Monday, at the Cocket Office in the Mansion House aforesaid, with the proper Officer there, a true and particular Account in Writing under his Hand, according to the Form hereinafter contained in that Behalf, of all such Meal and Flour for the Pur-pose of making Wheaten Bread, as shall have been bought by such Baker or other Person in the Course of the Week next preceding such Monday, and that every such Account hereby required to be made by any such Baker, or other Person making Bread for Sale, within the said City of London, or Liberties thereof, or Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, shall specify the Names of the re-spective Sellers of such Meal and Flour made of Wheat, the respective Quantities and Sorts thereof, and the several and respective Prices at which the same shall have been actually and bonâ fide sold, and shall be of the following Form, or to the like Effect; (that is to say,)

Bakers to leave at the Cocket Office every Monday, Accounts, in Writing, of all such Meal and Flour made of Wheat, as shall have been bought by them respectively, in the Week immediately preceding.

An ACCOUNT of all the MEAL and FLOUR (made of WHEAT) bought by A. B. of in the Parish of from Monday to Saturday both inclusive, for the Purpose of making Wheaten Bread, or fit for the same.

Form of Baker's Weekly Accounts.

Day of the Month.	Seller's Name.	Number of Sacks.	Sorts of Meal and Flour.	To what Purpose applicable.	Prices per Sack.	TOTAL.

At the Sale, or upon Delivery of Meal and Flour, a Bill of Parcels thereof to be delivered therewith.

Seller and Buyer, in Default thereof, to forfeit 40s.

VII. And, for better enabling the said Bakers or other Persons to prepare such Accounts of Meal and Flour as before directed, be it also enacted, That at the Sale, or upon every Delivery of Meal or Flour made of Wheat to any Baker or other Person making, or who shall make, Bread for Sale, within the said City, or the Liberties thereof, or the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, there shall also be delivered therewith a true and perfect Bill of Parcels, signed by the Seller or Sellers of such Meal or Flour, or his or their known Agent or Agents, setting forth the Names of the Seller or Sellers, and Buyer, of the Meal or Flour so delivered, with the real Quantities and Prices thereof, and also the Day of the Month on which the same shall be delivered; and in default thereof every Person, being a Seller of such Meal or Flour, or of any Part thereof, and not delivering, or causing to be delivered therewith, such true and perfect Bill of Parcels as aforesaid, shall, for every such Offence, upon being convicted thereof, forfeit and pay the Sum of forty Shillings; and every Person being a Buyer of such Meal or Flour, or of any Part thereof, and receiving or accepting the same without such true and perfect Bill of Parcels as aforesaid, shall, for every such Offence, upon being convicted thereof, forfeit and pay the Sum of forty Shillings.

The Prices of Meal and Flour to be fixed at the Time of Sale, and before Delivery; and any Person selling or buying in any other Manner to forfeit 20l.

VIII. 'And whereas it has frequently happened that large Quantities of Meal and Flour have been delivered to Buyers thereof, without any Price having been fixed or agreed on for the same at the Time of such Delivery, and sometimes it has been agreed that the Prices of Meal or Flour should, after Delivery thereof to the Buyer, be fixed according to the Price of Meal or Flour in some future Week, and inasmuch as by such Means this Act might be evaded, or the Execution thereof rendered difficult or imperfect,' be it therefore enacted, That the Prices of all the Meal and Flour made of Wheat, which shall henceforward be sold within the City of London, or the Liberties thereof, or the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, shall be agreed on and absolutely fixed at the Time of Sale, and before the Delivery thereof, and the Price or Prices of any such Meal or Flour as aforesaid, which shall hereafter be delivered to any Buyer or other Person, within the said City or Liberties, or Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, shall not, on any Account or Pretence whatsoever, be regulated by, or made to depend on the Price which Meal or Flour shall sell for at any Time or Times subsequent to such Delivery; and in case any Person or Persons shall sell or buy, or agree to sell or buy, within the said City or Liberties, or Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, any Meal or Flour made of Wheat, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the Provisions and Restrictions last hereinbefore contained, he or they so offending shall, for every such Offence, upon being convicted thereof, forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Pounds.

Bakers to take the Oath, or make the Affirmation following.

IX. And be it further enacted, That every Baker, or other Person making or who shall make Bread for Sale, within the City of London, or the Liberties thereof, or within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, shall, within one Calendar Month next after the passing of this Act, or within one Calendar Month from the Time when he shall begin to make Bread for Sale, within the Limits aforesaid, take the following Oath, or (being one of the People called Quakers) affirm as hereinafter mentioned; (that is to say,)

'I A. B. do swear [or, affirm], That the Accounts which I shall hereafter leave or cause to be left at the Cocket Office in the Mansion House, in the City of London, of and concerning the Meal or Flour (made of Wheat) which henceforward shall be bought by or for me, shall, to the best of my Knowledge and Belief, contain the whole Quantity, and no more, of the Meal or Flour (made of Wheat) bonâ fide bought by or for me, within the Period to which such Accounts shall respectively refer, with the Names of the Sellers, or Persons of whom the same shall be bought, and with the Prices respectively, and shall be, to the best of my Judgment, conformable in all other Respects to the Directions of an Act, passed in the thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, made in the thirty-first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, "An Act for the due making of Bread, and to regulate the Price and Assize thereof, and to punish Persons who shall adulterate Meal, Flour, or Bread," so far as the same relates to the Assize and making of Bread to be sold in the City of London, and the Liberties thereof, and within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange.'

Penalty on any Person making Bread for Sale without taking such Oath, &c. 5l.

Which Oath (or Affirmation) the Lord Mayor of the City of London for the Time being (whether such Baker shall reside within the said Lord Mayor's Jurisdiction or not) or any other Justice of the Peace within whose Jurisdiction such Baker shall reside, is hereby authorized and required to administer, upon being duly applied to for that Purpose, and to grant a Certificate thereof, to be registered in the Town Clerk's Office of the said City; and every such Oath or Affirmation shall be so administered, certified, and registered, without any Fee or Reward to be demanded or paid for the same; and in case any Person shall carry on the Trade and Business of a Baker, or shall make Bread for Sale, within the said City, or the Liberties thereof, or within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, without taking the said Oath, or affirming as aforesaid, conformably to the Directions of this Act, every such Person so offending shall, on being convicted of such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds.

A Return to be made by the Meal Weighters every Monday, of the Quantities, Sorts, and Prices, of all such Meal and Flour made of

X. And be it further enacted, That weekly, before Three of the Clock in the Afternoon of every Monday, a general Return or Account of the Quantities, Sorts, and Prices, of all such Meal and Flour made of Wheat, as shall have been bought by Bakers and other Persons making Bread for Sale, within the said City and Liberties, and Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, in the Course of the preceding Week, and mentioned in the said Accounts of Meal and Flour for that Week, together with the Average Price of such Meal or Flour, shall be prepared from and by Means of the same Accounts, in such Manner and Form as the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen shall from Time to Time direct, by the Meal Weighers of the City of London, or by such other Persons as the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen shall from Time to Time appoint; and shall also, before Five of the Clock in the Afternoon of every Monday as aforesaid, be entered by such Meal Weighers, or other Persons to be appointed as aforesaid, in Writing under their Hands, in some Book to be for that Purpose provided by the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the said City of London, and kept at the Town Clerk's Office in the said City.

Wheat, as shall be mentioned in the Bakers' Accounts for the preceding Weeks: and Average Price thereof.

XI. And, for the more effectually enabling the said Meal Weighers or other Persons to prepare and render correct such Returns or Accounts as aforesaid of Wheat, and of Meal and Flour made of Wheat, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; be it also enacted, That every Buyer or Seller of, or Dealer in Wheat, or Meal or Flour made of Wheat, within the City of London, or the Liberties thereof, or within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, shall and is hereby required, on reasonable Request to him or her made by any one or more of the Meal Weighers of the City of London, or of such other Persons who in pursuance of this Act shall be appointed as aforesaid, to return and certify, as hereby is directed, the Quantities and Prices of Wheat, or of Meal or Flour made of Wheat, to disclose and make known to such Meal Weighers, or one of them, or other Persons who shall be so appointed, and who shall request the same, the true and real Prices which any Quantities and Sorts of Wheat, or of Meal or Flour made of Wheat, which shall have been bought or sold within the said City, or Liberties thereof, or Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, at any Time or Times within the Space of fourteen Days then last past, by or for such Buyer or Seller of, or Dealer in Wheat, or Meal or Flour made of Wheat, shall have been actually and bonâ fide bought or sold at, with all the several Quantities and Sorts thereof, and the several apparent Purposes for which the same shall have been bought respectively, together with the Occupations of the Buyers.

Every Buyer or Seller of Wheat, or of Meal or Flour made of Wheat, upon Request, by the Meal Weighers, &c. to disclose the true Prices, &c.

XII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen, or for the Lord Mayor for the Time being, or for any of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace acting for such District, from Time to Time to order and direct every or any Baker, or other Person making or who shall make Bread for Sale, within the said City, or the Liberties thereof, or the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, and to whom, or at whose House or Shop any such Bill of Parcels as aforesaid of Meal or Flour made of Wheat shall have been actually delivered pursuant to this Act, at any seasonable Time or Times, within the Space of fourteen Days next after such Delivery, to produce, or cause to be produced, such Bill of Parcels to the said Court, or to the said Lord Mayor, or to the said Justices, or to the Meal Weighers of the said City, or any or either of them, or to such other Person or Persons as the said Court, or the said Lord Mayor, shall appoint to inspect the same; and that in every such Case, such Baker or other Persons to or for whom such Order shall be given or left, or his Servants or Agents, shall produce, or cause to be produced, such Bill of Parcels, pursuant to such Order, and the true Meaning of this Act; and in case any such Baker or other Person shall not, within seven Days after such Order shall be so given to, or left for him, produce, or cause to be produced, such Bill of Parcels accordingly, he or they so offending shall, for every such Offence, upon being convicted thereof, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds.

Power to the Court of Mayor and Aldermen, or Lord Mayor, or Justices, to order Bills of Parcels of Meal or Flour to be produced; and the same are to be produced accordingly.

Penalty in case of Default, 5*l*.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Weekly Returns or Accounts of Wheat, and of Meal and Flour made of Wheat, hereby directed to be made and given in as aforesaid, shall be in lieu and stead of so much only of the Weekly Return or Account, by the said recited Act directed to be given in and certified, of the Prices which the several Kinds of Grain, Meal, and Flour, shall sell for in the Markets or Places in London, where such Grain, Meal, and Flour shall be publicly sold, as relates to Wheat, and Meal and Flour made of Wheat; but nevertheless such last-mentioned Return or Account of other Grain than Wheat, and of other Meal and Flour, which shall be sold in London, shall be no longer considered as necessary to be given in and certified under the said recited Act, unless the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen, or the Lord Mayor of the said City of London for the Time being, shall at any Time or Times order the same to be given in and certified as such Act directs.

The Weekly Returns hereby directed, to be in lieu of so much only of the Weekly Returns required by the Act 51 Geo. 2. as relates to Wheat, and Meal and Flour made of Wheat.—Returns of other Grain discontinued.

XIV. And, for the more easily and effectually carrying of this Act into Execution, be it enacted, That in all Returns to be made pursuant to the Directions of this Act, the Quantities of Corn and Grain shall be computed by the Bushel of eight Gallons, commonly called or known by the Name of the The Winchester Bushel, and Flour shall be computed by the Sack, which shall contain five Bushels, or two hundred and eighty Pounds Weight.

Directions for computing the Quantities.

XV. And be it further enacted, That weekly, on every Tuesday, being the next Day after every Weekly Return or Account of Wheat for the Week next but one preceding shall be delivered or left by the said Meal Weighers, or other Persons as aforesaid, and being also the next Day after the said Returns of Accounts of Meal and Flour made of Wheat for the Week next preceding shall be delivered or left by the Bakers or other Persons making Bread for Sale, within the said City, or Liberties thereof, or Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, as before-mentioned, the Assize and Weight of all Bread to be made of the Flour or Meal of Wheat, and sold or exposed to Sale by any Person or Persons, within the City of London, and the Liberties thereof, and the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, (except as next hereinafter is excepted,) and the Prices to be paid for the same Bread respectively, shall from Time to Time be set by the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, if the said Court shall then sit, and if such Court shall not then sit, then by the Lord Mayor of the said City for the Time being, either from or according to what shall, by Means of the said Return or Account of Wheat, appear to be the then Average Price of Wheat fit for the making of Wheaten Bread, or from or according to

The Assize of Bread to be set every Tuesday by the Court of Mayor and Aldermen, or if such Court shall not sit, then by the Lord Mayor; either from the Price of Wheat, or from that of Flour; to what ſhall, by Means of the ſaid Returns or Accounts of Flour and Meal, appear to be the then Average Price of Flour and Meal fit for the making of Wheaten Bread, as near as poſſible, according to the Table hereinafter contained; and that the Aſſizes of Bread which ſhall be ſo reſpectively ſet, ſhall take place upon and from the Thurſday next enſuing, and be in Force for the ſaid City of London, and the Liberties thereof, and the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, (the City of Weſtminſter, and Liberties thereof, the Borough of Southwark, and the Weekly Bills of Mortality, in the County of Surrey, excepted,) until a new or other Aſſize of Bread, in London ſhall be ſet; and that after the fixing or ſetting of every ſuch Aſſize of Bread by the ſaid Court of Mayor and Aldermen, or by the Lord Mayor of the ſaid City for the Time being, when the ſaid Court ſhall not ſit, the Aſſize ſo from Time to Time ſet ſhall, with all convenient Speed after the ſetting thereof, be made public in ſuch Manner as the ſaid Court of Mayor and Aldermen ſhall order or direct; but before any Advance or Reduction ſhall in any Week be made in the Price of Bread by the ſaid Court of Mayor and Aldermen, or the Mayor of the ſaid City for the Time being, the Meal Weighers of the ſaid City for the Time being, or ſuch other Perſons as the ſaid Court of Mayor and Aldermen ſhall from Time to Time appoint to return the Quantities and Prices of Wheat, and of Meal and Flour made of Wheat, ſhall leave in Writing, at the Common Hall of the Company of Bakers, in the ſaid City of London, a Copy of the then laſt Returns of the Quantities and Prices of Wheat, and of Meal and Flour made of Wheat, which they ſhall make and enter in ſuch Book or Books to be provided and kept at the Town Clerk's Office as aforeſaid, ſome Time of the ſame Day on which ſuch Meal Weighers or other Perſons ſhall make ſuch Return and Entry as aforeſaid, to the Intent that the ſaid Company of Bakers may, the Morning of the next Day after every ſuch Return and Entry ſhall be made, and before any Aſſize ſhall be ſet, from Time to Time have an Opportunity to offer to the ſaid Court of Mayor and Aldermen, if ſuch Court ſhall then ſit, and if ſuch Court ſhall not then ſit, to the Lord Mayor of the ſaid City for the Time being, all ſuch Objections as the ſaid Company of Bakers ſhall have and think fit to offer againſt any Advance or Reduction being that Day made, in London, in the Price of Bread.

and to take place upon the Thurſday following, and be in force for the City of London, and the Liberties thereof, and Weekly Bills of Mortality, and within 10 Miles of the Royal Exchange, (Weſtminſter, and Southwark, and the Bills of Mortality in Surrey excepted,) and to be publiſhed forthwith.

Before any Advance, or Reduction, can be made, the Meal Weighers are to leave, at Bakers Hall, a Copy of the laſt Returns.

XVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That from Time to Time, when and ſo often as the ſaid Court of Mayor and Aldermen, or the Lord Mayor of the ſaid City for the Time being, ſhall ſet the Aſſize of Bread in Execution of this Act, the Aſſize and Weight of the Bread to which ſuch Aſſize ſhall relate, and the Prices to be paid for the ſame reſpectively, ſhall, as near as can, be ſet and aſcertained according to the following Table, inſtead of the Table directed to be made uſe of by the ſaid Act of the thirty-firſt Year of King George the Second:

The Aſſize and Price of Bread to be ſet according to the Table hereunto annexed.

To front P. 596. 37 GEO. III.

Sixpenny, Twelvepenny, and Eighteenpenny Loaves, not to be sold at the same Time as Pecks, Half-Pecks, and Quarterns.

XVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in any Place or Places within the City of London, or the Liberties thereof, or the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange aforesaid, where any Sixpenny, Twelvepenny, or Eighteenpenny Loaves, shall at any Time be ordered or allowed to be made or sold, no Peck, Half Peck, or Quartern Loaves, shall be permitted or allowed at the same Time to be there made or sold, lest any of those Sorts of Loaves might be sold designedly, or otherwise, for some other or others of them, to the Injury of unwary People; and every Person who shall offend herein shall, for every such Offence, upon being convicted thereof, forfeit a Sum not exceeding forty Shillings, nor less than twenty Shillings, as the Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, before who such Offender shall be convicted, shall from Time to Time think fit.

Any Corn Meter, Corn Factor, Baker, Meal Weigher, &c. who shall neglect his Duty, &c.

XVIII. And be it likewise enacted, That if any Corn Meter of the City of London, or any Corn Factor, Baker, or other Person, being or who shall be a Seller of Wheat, or Maker of Bread for Sale, within the City of London, or the Liberties thereof, or the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, or any Meal Weigher of the City of London, or other Person or Persons who, in pursuance of this Act, shall be appointed by the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the said City to certify and return the Quantities and Prices of Wheat, or of Meal and Flour made of Wheat, shall in anywise neglect, omit, or refuse to make, deliver, or leave any such Entry, Account, or Return, as is by this Act required or directed to be made, delivered, or left by him or them respectively, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, or shall designedly or knowingly make, deliver, or leave, or cause to be made, delivered, or left, any false Entry, Return, or Account, as and for any such Entry, Return, or Account, as is required by this Act, or if any Constable or other Peace Officer shall refuse or neglect to observe or obey any Warrant in Writing, which shall be delivered to him, under the Hand and Seal of any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, or to do any other Act requisite to be done by him or them for carrying this Act, or any of the Powers or Authorities hereby given, into Execution, then every Person so offending in any of the Premises, on being convicted of any such Offence, shall forfeit and pay, for every such Offence, any Sum not exceeding ten Pounds, as the Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, before whom any such Offender or Offenders shall be convicted, shall think fit and order, every Time he or they shall so offend, and be convicted of any such Offence.

Any Buyer, &c. who shall refuse to disclose true Prices,

XIX. And be it further enacted, That in case any Buyer or Seller of, or Dealer in Wheat, or Meal or Flour made of Wheat, within the said City or Liberties thereof, or Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, on reasonable Request to him or her made by any one or more of the Meal Weighers of the City of London, or by any one or more of such other Persons who, in pursuance of this Act, shall be appointed as aforesaid to return and certify, as hereby is directed, the Quantities and Prices of Wheat, or Meal and Flour made of Wheat, shall refuse to disclose and make known to such Meal Weighers, or either of them, or such other Person or Persons who shall be so appointed, and who shall request the same, the true and real Prices which any Quantities and Sorts of Wheat, or Meal or Flour made of Wheat, which shall have been bought or sold within the said City or Liberties thereof, or Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, at any Time or Times within the Space of fourteen Days then last past, by or for such Buyer or Seller of, or Dealer in Wheat, or Meal or Flour made of Wheat, shall have been actually and bonâ fide bought or sold at, with all the several Quantities and Sorts thereof, and the several apparent Purposes for which the same shall have been bought respectively, or shall knowingly give in to any such Meal Weigher or other Person, who shall be appointed in pursuance of this Act to return and certify, or receive the Quantities and Prices of Wheat, or of Meal or Flour made of Wheat, any false or untrue Price or Prices of any Wheat, or of Meal or Flour made of Wheat, bought or sold, or agreed so to be, or knowingly give any untrue Account of the Quantities or Sorts of such Wheat, or Meal or Flour made of Wheat, or of the apparent Purposes for which the same respectively shall have been bought, then and in every such Case, he, she, or they so offending, on being convicted of any such Offence by the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, or solemn Affirmation of any credible Witness or Witnesses, being a Quaker or Quakers, or on the Confession of the Party accused, shall forfeit any Sum not exceeding ten Pounds, as the Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, before whom any such Offender or Offenders shall be convicted, shall think fit and order, every Time he, she, or they shall so offend, and be convicted of any such Offence.

When any false Return shall be suspected to be made, the Court, &c. may summon any Person likely to give Information, &c.

XX. And be it further enacted, That if the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, or the Lord Mayor of the said City for the Time being, shall, at any Time within the Space of fourteen Days after any such Return or Account as aforesaid of Wheat, or of Meal or Flour, shall have been made, have Reason to believe that the same was not truly and bonâ fide made, then and in any such Case it shall be lawful for the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen, or the said Lord Mayor for the Time being, or of any of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace acting within the Limits hereinbefore mentioned, to summon before them or him any Person or Persons then residing within the Jurisdiction of the said Court, who shall have bought or sold, or there shall be Reason to believe have bought or sold, or agreed to buy or sell any Wheat, or Meal or Flour made of Wheat, within the said City, or Liberties thereof, or the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, or who shall be thought likely to give any Information concerning the Premises, and to examine such Person or Persons respectively upon Oath touching the Rates and Prices which the several Quantities and Sorts of Wheat, and Meal and Flour made of Wheat, or any of them, were then really and bonâ fide sold for, or bought at, or agreed so to be, by him, her, or them respectively, or by any other Person or Persons, at any Time or Times within the Space of fourteen Days preceding the summoning of him, her, or them so summoned respectively; and if any Person or Persons who shall be so summoned as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to appear on such Summons, (and Proof shall be made on Oath of such such Summons having been duly served upon him, her, or them for that Purpose,) or if any Person or Persons so summoned shall appear, and neglect or refuse to answer on Oath such lawful Questions touching the Premises as shall be proposed to him, her, or them, by the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen, or the said Lord Mayor for the Time being, or by the said Justice or Justices, without some just or reasonable Excuse, to be allowed of by such Court, or Lord Mayor, or Justice, he, she, or they so offending, on being convicted of any such Offence, either by the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, or his, her, or their own Confession, before the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen, or before the said Lord Mayor for the Time being, or such Justice, shall, on every such Conviction, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding ten Pounds, as such Court, or Lord Mayor, or Justice, shall think fit and order; and if any Person who shall be so examined on Oath, or in taking any other Oath directed to be taken by this Act, shall wilfully forswear him or herself, every such Person shall be subject and liable to be prosecuted as for Perjury, by Indictment or Information by due Course of Law, and if convicted shall be liable to the Penalties Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject and liable to.

Persons forswearing themselves, subject to be prosecuted for Perjury.

Bakers, &c. not to use Alum in making of Bread for Sale,

XXI. And be it further enacted, That no Baker, or other Person making or who shall make Bread for Sale, within the City of London, or the Liberties thereof, or the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, nor any Journeyman or other Servant of any such Baker or other Person as last-mentioned, shall at any Time or Times hereafter, in the making of Bread for Sale, put any Allum, or Preparation or Mixture in which Allum shall be an Ingredient, or any other Preparation or Mixture in lieu of Allum, into the Dough of such Bread, or in anywise use or cause to be used any Allum in the making of such Bread, on any Account, or under any Colour or Pretence whatsoever, upon Pain that every such Person, whether Master, or Journeyman, or other Person, who shall knowingly offend in the Premises, and shall be convicted of any such Offence, either by his, her, or their own Confession, or by the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, shall, on every such Conviction, forfeit and pay any Sum of Money not exceeding ten Pounds, nor less than five Pounds, or shall, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals of the Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, before whom such Offender shall be convicted, be apprehended and committed to the House of Correction, or some Prison of the County, City, Borough, or Place, where the Offence shall have been committed, or the Offender or Offenders shall be apprehended, there to remain and be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding six Calendar Months, nor less than two Calendar Months, from the Time of such Commitment, as any such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices shall think fit and order; and it shall be lawful for the Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, before whom any such Offender shall be convicted, and he and they is and are hereby required to cause the Offender's Name, Place of Abode, and Offence, to be published in some Newspaper which shall be printed or published in or near the City of London, or the Liberty of Westminster, and to defray the Expence of publishing the same out of the Money to be forfeited as last-mentioned, if any shall be so forfeited, and shall be paid or recovered.

on Pain of forfeiting not exceeding 10l. nor less than 5l. or of Imprisonment not exceeding six Months, nor less than two.

Wardmote Inquest may enter Bakers Shops, &c. to weigh and try Bread, and seize such as shall be found deficient, which shall be disposed of by the Magistrates.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the several Wardmote Inquests of the said City of London, from Time to Time, and at all seasonable Times in the Day Time, to enter into any House, Shop, Stall, Bakehouse, Warehouse, Outhouse, or other Place, of or belonging to any Baker or Seller of Bread, within their respective Wards, to view, weigh, and try all or any of the Loaves of Bread which shall be there exposed to or for Sale, and if any of the Loaves of Bread so exposed to or for Sale, or which shall be carrying or conveying to or for any Dealer therein, or Consumer thereof, shall be found to be wanting, either in the Goodness of the Stuff whereof the same shall be made, or to be deficient in the due baking or working thereof, or shall be wanting in the due Weight, (such Weight to be ascertained within twenty-four Hours after such Bread shall have been baked,) or shall not be truly marked according to the Directions of the Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty *, such Wardmote Inquest, or any four or more of the Persons composing the same, within their respective Wards, shall and may seize such Bread, and after Seizure thereof shall, with all convenient Speed, cause the same to be carried to any Magistrate or Magistrates of the said City of London, who shall and may dispose thereof as he or they in his or their Discretion shall think fit.

Penalty on obstructing Search or Seizure of Bread, from 5l. to 20s.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall wilfully obstruct or hinder any Search hereinbefore authorized to be made, or the Seizure of any Bread which shall be found upon any such Search, or the taking or carrying away the same, he, she, or they, so doing or offending shall, upon being convicted thereof in Manner as by the said last-mentioned Act is directed, forfeit and pay, for every Offence, any Sum not exceeding five Pounds, nor less than twenty Shillings, as the Magistrate or Magistrates before whom such Offender or Offenders shall be convicted shall think fit to order.

The Returns not to be inspected or made known, except to such Magistrates, Officers, &c. as such Returns are intended to be inspected and examined by, on Penalty from 10l. to 20l.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That no Corn Meter, Meal Weigher, or other Person who shall be employed or concerned in the preparing, making, or keeping, of any such General Returns of Wheat, or of Flour or Meal made of Wheat, as are by this Act required and directed to be made, shall, on any Account or Pretence whatsoever, cause or permit such Returns, or any of them, to be inspected by, or any of the Particulars thereof respectively to be made known to any Person or Persons without the Order of the Lord Mayor for the Time being of the City of London, for that Purpose first obtained, save and except only such Magistrates, Officers, and other Persons as such Returns are intended to be inspected and examined by from Time to Time, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, for the Purpose of carrying the same into Execution; and every Person who shall offend herein shall, for every such Offence, upon being convicted thereof, forfeit a Sum not exceeding twenty Pounds, nor less than ten Pounds, as the Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, before whom such Offender shall be convicted, shall from Time to Time think fit.

XXV. And

XXV. And be it also enacted, That the Clauses, Provisions, and Directions, contained in the said in Part recited Act of the thirty-first Year of King George the Second, for empowering Magistrates to hear and determine Offences against the said Act in a summary Way, and summon and examine Evidences, and convict Offenders, and for recovering Penalties and otherwise punishing Offenders, and for authorizing Persons thinking themselves aggrieved to appeal to the Justices at the General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and the Clauses and Directions in the same Act contained for protecting and indemnifying Magistrates and other Officers under the said Act, shall respectively extend and relate to this present Act, and, so far as the same are applicable to the Purposes of this Act, shall be exercised for putting this Act in Execution, and enforcing the Provisions and Directions thereof, in such and the same Manner as if the same several Clauses were herein contained, and at large re-enacted.

Certain Clauses, Provisions, and Directions, in the Act 31 Geo. 3. c. 29. extended to this Act.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That all Magistrates, and all other Persons whomsoever, shall be entitled to and have all such other the Privileges, Protections, and Indemnifications, in all Respects whatsoever, for what they shall lawfully do in putting this Act in Execution, as they are entitled to and have by the Laws already enacted and now in being relative to the making of Bread, and selling, or exposing the same to or for Sale, for putting the said Laws in Execution.

Privileges, Indemnities, &c. to Magistrates.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That no Certiorari, Letters of Advocation or of Suspension, shall be granted to remove any Conviction or other Proceedings had thereon in pursuance of this Act.

No Certiorari, &c. shall be granted to remove Proceedings under this Act.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it likewise enacted, That no Person shall be convicted of any Offence under this Act, unless the Prosecution in order for such Conviction shall be commenced within fourteen Days after the Offence committed; and that no Person who shall be prosecuted to Conviction for any Offence done or committed against this Act, shall be liable to be prosecuted for the same Offence under any other Law.

Limitation of Prosecutions. Offenders convicted not to be prosecuted for the same Offence under any other Law.

XXIX. And be it also enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act inflicted shall, when recovered or paid, go and be disposed of in Manner following; (that is to say,) one Moiety thereof, where any Offender or Offenders shall be convicted, either by his, her, or their Confession, or by the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, shall go and be paid to the Person or Persons who shall inform against and prosecute to Conviction any such Offender or Offenders, and the other Moiety thereof, or in case there be no such Person informing, then the Whole thereof, shall go and be paid or applied to or for the Use of the Poor of the Parish wherein such Offence shall be committed, or the Party convicted, as the Justice or Justices, before whom such Offender or Offenders shall be convicted, shall in his or their Discretion think fit.

Application of Penalties.

XXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, shall not extend to prejudice any Right or Custom of the City of London, or the Practice there used, or any Right or Custom of any Lord or Lords of any Leet, to set, enquire, and punish the Breach of Assize of Bread within their respective Leets, or Views of Frankpledge, or the Rights of any Clerk or Clerks of the Market in any Place.

Preservation of Rights.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Directions, Regulations, Powers, and Authorities of this Act shall commence and take place, and be had, done, executed, and performed, immediately from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, unless otherwise especially directed by this Act.

Commencement of this Act.

CAP. XCIX.

An Act to revive and continue the Bounties granted by an Act, made in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for encouraging the Fisheries carried on at Newfoundland and Parts adjacent, from Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions in Europe; to continue so much of an Act, made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, as permits the Importation and Exportation of certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, in Foreign Ships, into and from the Port of Saint John's in the Island of Antigua; and so much of an Act, made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, as permits Sir William Bishop, George Bishop, and Argles Bishop, to carry on the Manufacture of Maidstone Geneva; and also so much of an Act, made in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for better securing the Duties on Glass, as was to continue for a limited Time.

[4th July 1797.]

'WHEREAS the Laws hereinafter mentioned have, by Experience, been found useful and beneficial;' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Bounties granted by an Act, made in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to amend and render

CAP. CII.

An Act for granting to His Majesty additional Duties on Distilleries in the several Parts of the Highlands of Scotland herein particularly described, for a limited Time; and for regulating the Duties on Distilleries in the respective Districts in Scotland.

[19th July 1797.]

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament 'assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray your Majesty's Public Expences, and 'making Addition to the Public Revenue, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant to your 'Majesty, the additional Duties hereinafter mentioned; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it 'may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, to and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for and in respect of the several Matters and Things hereinafter mentioned, over and above all the Duties already imposed for or in respect thereof by any Act or Acts of Parliament, the further Duties of Excise hereinafter mentioned; that is to say,

The following additional Duties of Excise to be paid in Scotland:

For and upon all Licences which shall be granted by the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland, at any Time after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, for the erecting, keeping, and working, Stills in the Highlands of Scotland, within the Counties, Parts of Counties, and Limits, in a certain Act, passed in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the Regulation of Distilleries in Scotland, and the Exportation of British-made Spirits from England to Scotland, and from Scotland to England, for a limited Time, particularly specified and described, except such Part of the said Highlands of Scotland as lie within the Counties, Parts of Counties, and Places, hereinafter particularly specified and described, the additional Duties following; that is to say, upon every Gallon, English Wine Measure, of the cubical Content or Capacity of each and every such Still, (including the Head and every Part thereof, and of any Horn, Pipe, Tube, or other Apparatus therewith connected, under whatever Name or Denomination the same may be called or known, as high as the Steam can ascend,) which, from and after the said fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, shall be used or employed in distilling and drawing off Spirits from the Barley, Beer, or Bigg, of the Growth of the several and respective Counties, or Parts of Counties, mentioned in the said Act, except as aforesaid, the additional Composition, Licence Duty, or Sum, after the Rate of six Pounds and ten Shillings for one Year:

On Licences granted after July 5, 1797, for erecting Stills in the Highlands within the Limits specified in 33 Geo. 3. c. 61. (except as hereinafter described,) for each Gallon of the Contents, where Barley, &c. of the Growth within the said Limits is used, 6l. 10s. per Annum:

and for each Gallon distilled above a limited Quantity, 4s. 4d.

And for and upon all Spirits which shall be manufactured from such licensed Still, over and above the Quantity limited by this Act, an additional Duty of four Shillings and Four-pence for each Gallon of such Surplus Spirits, to be paid upon Demand by the Distiller thereof:

On Licences granted for Stills in the Parts hereinafter specified, for each Gallon of the Contents, where Barley, &c. of Growth within those Parts is used, 4l. per Ann.:

And for and upon all Licences which shall be granted after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, by the said Commissioners, for the erecting, keeping, and working, Stills in such Parts of the said Highlands as lie within the Counties, Parts of Counties, and Places, hereinafter particularly specified and described, the additional Duties following; (that is to say,) upon every Gallon, English Wine Measure, of the cubical Content or Capacity of each and every such Still, (including the Head and every Part thereof, and of any Horn, Pipe, Tube, or other Apparatus therewith connected, under whatever Name or Denomination the same may be called or known, as high as the Steam can ascend,) which, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, shall be used or employed in distilling and drawing off Spirits from the Barley, Beer, or Bigg, of the Growth of the several and respective Counties, or Parts of Counties, and Places, hereinafter particularly specified and described, the additional Composition, Licence Duty, or Sum, after the Rate of four Pounds for one Year:

and for each Gallon distilled above a limited Quantity, 2s. 8d.

And for and upon all Spirits which shall be manufactured from such licensed Still as last mentioned, over and above the annual Quantity limited by this Act, an additional Duty of two Shillings and Eight-pence for each Gallon of such Surplus Spirits, to be paid upon Demand by the Distiller thereof.

Powers of 33 Geo. 3 c. 61. and all other Acts relating to the Distilleries in Scotland, (except otherwise directed,) to extend to this Act.

II. And be it further enacted, That the several Duties by this Act imposed shall be raised, collected, recovered, secured, and paid, by such Persons, in such Manner, and by such Ways and Means, and under such Management, and under and subject to such Rules, Regulations, Conditions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, and with such Power of adjudging and mitigating Penalties and Forfeitures, and with and subject to such Powers, and to the like Allowances and Directions, and by such Methods, and in such Manner and Form, (except where otherwise expressly directed or provided by this Act,) as by the said Act, made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for the Regulation of Distilleries in Scotland, and the Exportation

Exportation of Britiſh-made Spirits from England to Scotland, and from Scotland to England, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force concerning Diſtilleries in Scotland, is directed or preſcribed; and that all the Proviſions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Powers, Authorities, Rules, Regulations, Conditions, and Directions, mentioned and contained in the ſaid Act or Acts reſpectively, (except as aforeſaid,) ſhall be practiſed and put in Execution for the raiſing, levying, recovering, ſecuring, or paying, the Duties by this Act impoſed in Manner in the ſaid Acts directed, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſame were particularly repeated and enacted in this Act.

Duties to be paid into the Exchequer, and carried to the Conſolidated Fund.

III. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies ariſing by the Duties by this Act impoſed, (the neceſſary Charges of raiſing and accounting for the ſame excepted,) ſhall, from Time to Time, be paid into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer at Weſtminſter, and the ſaid Monies ſo paid into the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer as aforeſaid, ſhall be carried to and made Part of the Conſolidated Fund.

Application of the Duties.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all the Monies ariſing or to ariſe by the ſaid Duties, or any of them, ſhall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue for the Purpoſe of defraying the increaſed Charge occaſioned by any Loan made, or Stock created or to be created by virtue of any Act or Acts paſſed, or to be paſſed, in this Seſſion of Parliament; and that the ſaid Monies ſhall, during the Continuance of this Act, be paid into the ſaid Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer at Weſtminſter, diſtinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenue; and that there ſhall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the ſaid Receipt a Book or Books, in which all the Monies ariſing from the ſaid Duties, and paid into the ſaid Receipt, ſhall, together with the Monies ariſing from any other Rates or Duties granted in this Seſſion of Parliament, for the Purpoſe of defraying ſuch increaſed Charge as aforeſaid, be entered ſeparate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, upon any Account whatever.

Duties, with others granted for the ſame Purpoſe, to be kept ſeparate.

Licences granted between Dec. 1, 1796, and July 5, 1797, to ceaſe from the latter Day, and on being delivered up by 25 July, a Proportion of the Duties to be returned, if the full Quantity of Spirits ſpecified in recited Act ſhall not have been diſtilled.

V. And be it further enacted, That all Licences granted ſince the firſt Day of December one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſix, or to be granted before the fifth Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, for the erecting, keeping, and working Stills, ſhall, from and after the ſaid fifth Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, ceaſe and determine, in and throughout all the Counties, and Parts of Counties and Diſtricts, in the ſaid Act of the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty particularly deſcribed and ſpecified as the Highlands of Scotland, ſave and except as to any Arrears of the ſaid Duties which may, on the ſaid fifth Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, remain in Arrear and unpaid, or to any Penalty or Forfeiture which may have been incurred on or before that Day; and all and every Perſon or Perſons ſo licenſed, who ſhall deliver up ſuch Licence to be vacated before or on the Expiration of twenty Days after the ſaid fifth Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, (provided ſuch Diſtiller or Diſtillers ſhall not have diſtilled the full Quantity of Spirits ſpecified in the ſaid Act of the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty,) ſhall, upon the Delivery of ſuch Licence as aforeſaid, be entitled to a Return of a Part of the Duty paid thereupon for the preſent Year, in proportion to the Period of the Year then unexpired.

Stills within certain Limits to be licenſed for a Year, from July 5, 1797, on Payment of 4*l.* additional Duty;

VI. And be it further enacted, That all Stills ſo to be licenſed to be ſet up in the Counties, Parts of Counties, and Places, hereinafter mentioned and deſcribed, that is to ſay, In any Place which lies to the Weſtward or Northward of a certain Line or Boundary, beginning at the Eaſt Point of Loch Grinan, and proceeding from thence to Loch Gilpin; from thence along the great Road on the Weſt Side of Loch Fine, to Inverary, and to the Head of Loch Fine; from thence along the high Road to Arrochar, in the County of Dunbarton, and from thence to Tarbet; from Tarbet in a ſuppoſed ſtraight Line Eaſtward, on the North Side of the Mountain called Benlomond, to the Village of Callendar of Monteith, in the County of Perth; from thence North-eaſtward to Crieff; from thence Northward, along the Road by Ambleree and Inver, to Dunkeld; from thence along the Foot and South Side of the Grampion Hills to Fetter Cairn, in the County of Kincardine; and from thence Northward, along the Road, by Cutties, Hilloch, Kincardine, O'Neal, Clatt, Huntley, and Keith, to Fochabars; and from thence Weſtward, by Elgin and Forres, to the Boat on the River Findhorn; and from thence down the ſaid River to the Sea of Findhorn, and any Place in or Part of the County of Elgin, which lies to the Southward of the ſaid Line from Fochabars to the Sea at Findhorn, ſhall be licenſed for the Term of one whole Year, from the ſaid fifth Day of July one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, on Payment of the Compoſition or Licence Duty, at and after the Rate of four Pounds, in Addition to the Duties already impoſed thereon by any Act or Acts in Force on and immediately before the paſſing of this Act, for each Gallon Engliſh Wine Meaſure of the Content or Capacity of ſuch Still; and all Stills ſo to be licenſed to be ſet up in any other Part of the ſaid Highlands of Scotland, as deſcribed in the ſaid Act of the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, except the Counties, Parts of Counties, and Places hereinbefore particularly ſpecified and deſcribed, ſhall be licenſed for the like Term as aforeſaid, on Payment of the Compoſition or Licence Duty, at and after the Rate of ſix Pounds and ten Shillings, in Addition to the ſaid Duties already impoſed thereon as aforeſaid.

and within any other Part of the Highlands, deſcribed in 33 Geo. 3. c. 61. on Payment of 6*l.* 10*s.* additional Duty, for each Gallon of their Contents.

If Act ſhall not continue in Force a Year, a Proportion of the Duty to be returned, &c.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if this Act ſhall not continue in Force during the whole Period of the Year for which ſuch Licences as aforeſaid ſhall be granted, every Diſtiller to be licenſed, ſhall be entitled to a Return of a Part of the Duty paid thereupon, in Proportion to the unexpired Period of the Year for which ſuch Licences ſhall be granted, remaining at the Expiration of this Act, provided ſuch Diſtiller ſhall not have diſtilled the full Quantity of Spirits ſpecified in this Act for which ſuch Licence Duty is hereby declared to be a Compoſition.

VIII. Provided

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Still within the Counties, Parts of Counties, or Places hereinbefore particularly described and specified, to be subject to the Duty at the Rate of four Pounds by this Act, shall be licensed to be set up or worked nearer than two English Statute Miles within the said Line or Boundary, nor within any Part or Place within the Counties of Elgin or Banff, not being distant from the nearest Part of the Sea Shore more than three English Statute Miles; and that no Still within any other Part of the said Highlands, as described in the said Act of the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, without the Counties, Parts of Counties, and Places hereinbefore particularly specified and described, shall be licensed to be set up or worked nearer than two English Statute Miles within and from the said Line or Boundary, as described in the said Act of the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty.

Limits within which Stills may be licensed.

IX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Still shall be licensed to be set up within the Counties, Parts of Counties, or Places hereinbefore particularly specified and described, for the distilling or drawing off Spirits from the Barley, Beer, or Bigg, of the Growth of any County or Place without the Line or Boundary hereinbefore particularly specified and described; and that no Still shall be licensed to be set up in any other Part of the said Highlands, without the Line and Boundary hereinbefore particularly specified and described, for the distilling or drawing off Spirits from the Barley, Beer, or Bigg, of the Growth of any County or Place not within the said Highlands, as described in the said Act of the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty; and if any licensed Distiller within the Counties, Parts of Counties, and Places hereinbefore particularly specified and described, shall import or bring, buy, receive, or use, for the Purpose of Distillation, any Barley, Beer, Malt, or Grain, not being the actual Growth and Produce of those Counties, or of those Parts and Places of Counties only which are hereinbefore particularly described and specified; or if any licensed Distiller in any other Part of the said Highlands of Scotland, not being within the Counties, Parts of Counties, or Places hereinbefore particularly specified and described, shall import or bring, buy, receive, or use, for the Purpose of Distillation, any Barley, Beer, Malt, or Grain, not being the actual Growth and Produce of the Counties, Parts of Counties, and Places only, which are by the said Act of the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty particularly specified and described as the Highlands of Scotland, every such Distiller shall forfeit twenty Shillings per Bushel for all such Grain or Malt, and also his or her current Licence, and Still and Utensils, and upon being convicted thereof shall be incapable of ever afterwards receiving another Licence as a Highland Distiller.

No Still to be licensed to distil from Barley, &c. but of the Growth of certain Limits.

Penalty on Distillers buying or using Barley, &c. not of the Growth of such Limits.

X. And be it further enacted, That no Spirits, the Manufacture of Stills licensed to be set up within any of the Counties, Parts of Counties, or Places hereinbefore particularly specified and described, shall be allowed to pass out of the said Limits with or without Permit, either by Land or Water, across the Line or Boundary hereinbefore specified, or from the Coasts or Ports of any of the Counties or Districts included within the said Line or Boundary, and that no Spirits, the Manufacture of Stills licensed to be set up within any other Part of the said Highlands without the said Counties, Part of Counties, and Places hereinbefore particularly specified and described, shall be allowed to pass out of the said Highlands, as described by the said Act of the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, with or without Permit, either by Land or Water, across the Line or Boundary in the said Act expressed, or from the Coasts or Ports of any of the Counties, Parts of Counties, or Places within the said Highlands, as described as last aforesaid; and that all Spirits distilled within the respective Limits in this Act, or in the said Act of the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty described, that shall be found passing to or in other Parts without those respective Limits, or from the Coasts of the said Kingdom, either with or without Permit, shall be liable to Seizure by any Officer or Officers of Customs or Excise in England or Scotland respectively, and shall be forfeited and lost, together with the Casks, Vessels, and other Packages, containing the same; and also the Vessels and Boats, Horses and other Cattle and Carriages made use of in the Removal or Conveyance thereof; and if any licensed Distiller shall send or carry, or knowingly permit or suffer to be sent or carried, from his or her Distillery or other Place, any Spirits distilled by him or her under such Licence, contrary to this Act, every such licensed Distiller shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Spirits passing out of certain Limits, to be forfeited, with the Vessels, &c.

XI. And be it further enacted, That when the additional Composition Duty, after the Rate of six Pounds and ten Shillings, imposed by this Act, shall be paid by a Still of forty Gallons, such Duty shall be held to be a Composition for the Duty on Dry Malt, to the Extent of five hundred Bolls Linlithgow Measure, or three thousand Bushels, and no more; and when the additional Composition Duty, after the Rate of four Pounds, imposed by this Act, shall be paid for a Still of forty Gallons, such Duty shall be held to be a Composition for the Duty on Dry Malt, to the Extent of four hundred and fifty Bolls Linlithgow Measure, or two thousand seven hundred Bushels, and no more; and where any such Composition Duty shall be paid for any Still of a lesser Size, the like Proportion shall be observed as to the Quantity of Malt for which such Duty shall be held to be a Composition; and that for all Malt which shall be used or made by any Distiller paying the Composition Duties last mentioned, there shall be paid by such Distiller the same Duties to which the entered Maltster shall be then liable by the Laws of Excise.

Quantity of Dry Malt for which the additional Duty shall be deemed a Composition, &c.

XII. And be it further enacted, That so much of two Acts, passed in the twenty-fifth and twenty-eighth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, as enacts, that every Officer of Excise who should in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland seize and bring to Condemnation any Still by those Acts made liable to Seizure and Forfeiture, (except in case of such Still or Stills being seized on the Discovery of any other Person in the Manner therein after specified,) should be entitled to a Reward of two Shillings and Sixpence Sterling for every Gallon of the Content or Capacity of such Still, including the Head thereof, to be paid out of his Majesty's Duties in Scotland, upon an Order from the said Commissioners of Excise, which Order the said Commissioners were thereby authorized and required to grant; provided nevertheless, that such Reward

should not exceed the Sum of twenty-one Pounds Sterling for any one Still so seized as aforesaid; and if any Person (not being an Officer of Excise) should make Discovery of any Still liable to Seizure and Forfeiture as aforesaid, so as that the same should be seized and condemned, such Person or Persons should be entitled to a Reward of one Shilling and Sixpence Sterling for every Gallon of the Capacity or Content of such Still, to be paid on the Condemnation thereof; provided also, that such Reward should not exceed the Sum of ten Pounds and ten Shillings for any one Still so forfeited as last aforesaid; and the Officers or Officer of Excise by whom the same should be seized should also be entitled to a Reward of one Shilling Sterling for every Gallon of the Content or Capacity of such Still, so that such last mentioned Reward should not for any one Still exceed the Sum of ten Pounds and ten Shillings Sterling, and that such several Rewards should be paid by Order of the said Commissioners of Excise as aforesaid; and if by Reason of the small Size of any such Still or Stills the said Commissioners of Excise should think any of the Rewards aforesaid insufficient, the said Commissioners should and they were thereby authorized to augment the same respectively, not exceeding the respective Sums aforesaid; and also so much of the said Acts as further enacts, that if any Officer of Excise should, for the Space of twenty-four Hours after he should have received Information of such Still being unlawfully erected, used, or kept, or of any Worts, Wash, Tilts, or Low Wines, prepared and intended to be unlawfully used in Distillation, wilfully neglect to seize the same respectively, every such Officer so offending should, upon Complaint made thereof, and Proof of the Fact to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland, be dismissed from his or their Office, and should never afterwards be capable of serving his Majesty in any Office or Place of Trust whatever, and should moreover forfeit and lose all such Salary as should be due to him at the Time of his Dismission; and in case the Person or Persons making such Complaint should be the same Person or Persons who gave the Information as aforesaid to the Officer or Officers so dismissed, such Person or Persons should be entitled to a Reward of one Shilling and Sixpence Sterling for every Gallon of the Contents or Capacity of the said Still or Stills, to be paid by the Order of the said Commissioners of Excise out of the Revenues of Excise; shall be and the same and every Part thereof are hereby repealed.

Continuance of Act.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the several Regulations and Provisions of this Act shall continue and be in force until one Month after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament.

CAP. CIII.

An Act to raise and embody a Militia Force in that Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland.—[19th July 1797.]

'WHEREAS it has been found, from Experience, that the well-ordering and disciplining the Militia in England and Wales, has essentially contributed to the Safety of the United Kingdom: And whereas it would further contribute to the same Purpose, and tend to repel any Attempt which the Enemies of this Country may make to effect a Descent upon this Kingdom, if a well ordered and disciplined Militia were established in that Part of the United Kingdom called Scotland: And whereas the Laws now in being for the Regulation of the Fencible Men, or Militia, in Scotland, are defective and ineffectual:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several Lieutenants whom his Majesty has already been pleased to constitute and appoint, or whom he hereafter may or shall from Time to Time be pleased to constitute and appoint, for the Counties, Stewartries, Cities, and Places, hereinafter mentioned, shall have full Power and Authority, and are hereby required to call together, array, and cause to be trained and exercised, such Persons, and in such Manner as is hereinafter directed; and the said Lieutenants, and such Persons as they have appointed, or shall from Time to Time appoint, their Deputy Lieutenants, and also such Persons as his Majesty shall from Time to Time appoint to serve as Colonels, Lieutenant Colonels, Majors, and such Officers as shall be appointed by the Lieutenants of the Counties and Stewartries pursuant to the Directions of this Act, qualified as hereinafter directed, shall have the Power and Authority to call out, train, discipline, and command, the Persons so to be armed and arrayed, according to the Rules, Orders, and Directions, hereinafter mentioned: Provided always, that the Lieutenant of every County, Stewartry, City, or Place, shall have the chief Command of the Militia thereof, whilst they remain within the said County, Stewartry, City, or Place, or whilst they remain separate and not incorporated into Battalions by his Majesty's Commands, as hereinafter directed.

The Lieutenants of Counties may call together, and cause to be trained, certain Persons; and they and the Deputy Lieutenants, and Officers, may discipline them.

Lieutenant to have the chief Command whilst the Militia remains within the County, or whilst not incorporated.

Mode of appointing the Officers to Companies, furnished by one or more than two Counties;

II. And be it further enacted, That when any County or Stewartry shall furnish Men sufficient for one or more complete Company or Companies, the Captains, Lieutenants, and Ensigns, of such Company or Companies shall be appointed by the Lieutenant of such County; and where the Men so furnished shall not be sufficient for a Company, the Lieutenant of the County furnishing the greatest Fractional Part of such Company shall appoint the Captain; the Lieutenant of the County furnishing the next most considerable Fractional Part shall appoint the Lieutenant; and the Lieutenant of the County furnishing the next most considerable Fractional Part shall appoint the Ensign.

and where furnished by two Counties.

III. And be it further enacted, That where the Men furnished by two Counties only are required to form one Company, or the Fractional Part of a Company, the Lieutenant of the County furnishing the largest Fractional Part of such Company shall appoint the Captain; and the Lieutenant of the other County shall appoint the Lieutenant and Ensign.

IV. And

IV. And be it further enacted, That his Majesty may from Time to Time signify his Pleasure to his Lieutenant, to displace any Deputy Lieutenant or Commissioned Officers in the Militia appointed by the Lieutenant, and thereupon the Lieutenant shall displace such Deputy Lieutenant or Officers accordingly. Lieutenant to displace his Deputies or Officers when his Majesty so pleases.

V. And be it further enacted, That his Majesty's Lieutenant for any County, Stewartry, or Place, may and shall appoint a Clerk for the General Meetings within such County, Stewartry, or Place, and may displace such Clerk if he shall think fit, and appoint another in his Room; and the Deputy Lieutenants, at their first Meeting within their respective Subdivisions or Districts, or the major Part of them present, may and shall appoint a Clerk for their Subdivision or District, and may, at any other Meeting within their Subdivision or District, displace such Clerk, if they, or the major Part of them present, shall think fit, and appoint another in his Room. Lieutenant to appoint a Clerk for General Meetings; and Deputy Lieutenants one for Districts.

VI. And be it further enacted, That when the Lieutenant of any County, Stewartry, City, or other Place, shall be out of the Kingdom of Great Britain, or when there shall be no Lieutenant, it shall be lawful for his Majesty to authorize any three Deputy Lieutenants of such County, Stewartry, City, or Place, to do all Acts, Matters, and Things, which might lawfully have been done by the said Lieutenant; and the same shall be good and valid in the Law as if done by the said Lieutenant himself. His Majesty may authorize three Deputies to act when the Lieutenant is out of the Kingdom, or when there shall be no Lieutenant.

VII. And be it further enacted, That no Commission of any Deputy Lieutenant, nor any Commission of any Officer of the Militia already granted, or to be granted by any Lieutenant, shall be vacated by reason of the Revocation, Expiration, or Discontinuance of the Commission by which any such Lieutenant was appointed. Revocation of the Lieutenant's Commission not to vacate those granted by him.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Officers so appointed for the Militia, to be armed and arrayed as hereinafter directed, shall rank with the Officers of such of his Majesty's Forces as are liable to serve out of Great Britain as youngest of their Rank. Rank of the Officers.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all Persons to be appointed Officers of Militia in pursuance of this Act (except within the City of Edinburgh and its Liberties) shall be qualified as follows; that is to say, every Person so to be appointed a Colonel or Lieutenant Colonel shall be possessed of an Estate in Property of four hundred Pounds Scots valued Rent in Scotland, or shall be Heir Apparent of some Person who shall be possessed of an Estate of four hundred Pounds Scots of valued Rent as aforesaid; and each Person so to be appointed a Major or Captain shall be in like Manner possessed of an Estate of three hundred Pounds Scots of valued Rent, or shall be Heir Apparent of some Person who shall be possessed of an Estate of three hundred Pounds Scots of valued Rent as aforesaid, or shall be a younger Son of some Person who shall be, or at the Time of his Death was, in like Manner possessed of an Estate of four hundred Pounds Scots of valued Rent as aforesaid, or shall be possessed of a Personal Estate alone to the Amount of two thousand Pounds Sterling, or shall be Son of some Person who shall be, or at the Time of his Death was, possessed of a Personal Estate alone to the Amount of two thousand Pounds Sterling; and that each Person so to be appointed a Lieutenant or Ensign shall be in like Manner possessed of an Estate of one hundred Pounds Scots of valued Rent, or shall be Son of some Person who shall be, or at the Time of his Death was, in like Manner possessed of an Estate of three hundred Pounds Scots of valued Rent as aforesaid, or shall be possessed of a Personal Estate alone to the Amount of one thousand Pounds Sterling, or shall be Son of some Person who shall be, or at the Time of his Death was possessed of a Personal Estate of one thousand Pounds Sterling: Provided always, that one Moiety of such Real Estates as aforesaid, required as Qualifications for each Colonel, Lieutenant Colonel, Major, Captain, Lieutenant, and Ensign respectively, shall be situate or arising within such respective County or Stewartry in which he shall be so appointed to serve. Qualification of Officers, except within Edinburgh and its Liberties.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if a sufficient Number of Lieutenants and Ensigns cannot be found, qualified as aforesaid, to accept of Commissions in the Militia to be raised, it shall be lawful for the said Lieutenants to appoint for that Service such a Number of the Officers in the Army, whether on Full or Half Pay, or of Persons who have had Commissions in any of his Majesty's Regular or Fencible Forces, or in any Volunteer Corps in Scotland, although not duly qualified as aforesaid, such Officers not to be appointed, on their first Appointment, to any higher Rank in the said Militia than they respectively have, or have had, in his Majesty's other Regular, Fencible, or Volunteer Forces. If qualified Persons cannot be found, Officers in the Army, &c. may be appointed Subalterns.

XI. And be it further enacted, That no Commissioned Officer shall act as such until he shall have left with the Clerk of the Peace of the County or Stewartry for which he shall be so appointed, a specific Description of his Qualification, as is hereinbefore required, in Writing, signed by himself; and such Clerk of the Peace shall enter the same upon a Roll to be kept for that Purpose; which Roll shall be open to the Inspection of every Person at common and usual Hours, without Fee, Gratuity, or Reward of any Kind. Officers before they act to leave their Qualifications with the Clerk of the Peace, to be entered on a Roll.

XII. And be it further enacted, That every Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenant of the several Counties and Stewartries, and of the City of Edinburgh, and every Commissioned Officer of the said Militia, shall, at some General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or before the Sheriff Depute or Substitute of the County for which they are appointed to serve, or before any of the Magistrates of Edinburgh, within six Calendar Months after he shall have accepted his Commission, take the following Oath: Lieutenants, Deputies, and Officers, to take within six Months, the following Oath.

'I A. B. do solemnly promise and swear, That I will be faithful and bear true Allegiance to his Majesty King George. So help me GOD.'

XIII. And

Penalty on Officers acting who are unqualified, or have not taken the Oath.

XIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person shall execute any of the Powers hereby conferred as Field Officers in the Militia, not being qualified as aforesaid, or who shall not take the Oath aforesaid, every such Person shall forfeit and pay the Sum of two hundred Pounds Sterling; and if any Person shall execute any of the Powers hereby conferred on Captains, not being qualified as aforesaid, and shall not take the Oath aforesaid, every such Person shall forfeit and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds Sterling, one Moiety whereof shall go to the Use of such Person or Persons who shall sue for the same, and the other Moiety to the Uses hereinafter directed; and in every Action, Suit, or Information, brought against any Person for acting as a Commissioned Officer in the said Militia, not being qualified as hereinbefore described, the Proof of his Qualification, or of his having taken the Oaths, shall be upon the Person against whom the said Action shall be brought: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall restrain or prevent any Peer of Scotland, or Heir Apparent of any such Peer, from being appointed or acting as a Commissioned Officer in the Militia, within the County, Stewartry, City, or Place, wherein such Peer, or Heir Apparent of such Peer, shall have some Place of Residence, although he may not have the Qualification hereinbefore required, or to oblige any Peer of this Realm, or any Heir Apparent of such Peer, who shall be appointed a Commissioned Officer as aforesaid, to leave with the Clerk of the Peace for the County, Stewartry, City, or Place, for which he shall be appointed, any Qualification in Writing as aforesaid, any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that any Officer may be promoted, on Account of Merit, in the said Militia, when called out and assembled by the Lieutenant of any County, Stewartry, City, or Place, from a lower to a higher Commission, notwithstanding he should not have the Qualification requisite for his Admission into such higher Rank of the Militia; and that it shall be lawful for his Majesty, in the Case hereinafter provided for, of judging it in his Wisdom expedient to incorporate together the Militia of several Counties, Stewartries, Cities, or Places, into one or more Battalions, to promote any Officers in the said different Militias to serve as Field Officers in such incorporated Battalions, on Account of Merit, though not having the Qualification necessary for such higher Rank.

Peers, or their Heirs Apparent, having a Place of Residence in the County, &c. may act without being qualified.

Officers may be promoted by the Lieutenant for their Merit, though not qualified.

His Majesty may incorporate the Militia of several Counties, and promote Officers to be Field Officers therein on Account of Merit—though not qualified.

Appointments in the Militia not to vacate Seats in Parliament.

XIV. Provided also, and be it enacted, That the Acceptance of an Appointment to be a Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenant, or of a Commission in the said Militia, shall not vacate the Seat of any Member returned to serve in Parliament, nor shall any such Acceptance or Appointment, or any such Commission, render any Person whatsoever ineligible to serve in Parliament; any Law, Usage, or Custom, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Number of the Private Militia Men.

XV. And be it further enacted, That the Number of private Men to be raised by virtue of this Act shall be six thousand, to be apportioned and divided over the several Counties, Stewartries, Cities, and Places, as his Majesty by Order in Council shall direct.

Method of carrying the Act into Execution.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the Method for carrying into Execution this Act, to be observed in the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, shall be as followeth; that is to say, his Majesty's Lieutenant for each County, Stewartry, City, or Place, together with any two or more Deputy Lieutenants, and on the Death or Removal, or in the Absence of his Majesty's Lieutenant, the Deputy Lieutenants, or any three or more of them, shall meet at some Burgh or principal Town of the County, Stewartry, or Place, for which they shall be commissioned, on the first Day of August, and shall at their first General Meeting appoint Subdivisions or Districts of the Deputy Lieutenants, within their respective Counties, Stewartries, Boroughs, and Places, and the Times and Places for their first Meetings, within the said Subdivisions or Districts respectively, and the Time and Place for a second General Meeting, and shall issue out their Orders to the Schoolmaster of each Parish, and to the Chief Constable, and where there is no Chief Constable to some other Officer of the several Districts, Parishes, or other Divisions, within their respective Counties, Stewartries, or Places, to require, by Orders under their Hands, the said Schoolmaster, Constable, or other Officer of each Parish or Place, within their respective Districts, Parishes, or other Divisions, to return to the Deputy Lieutenants, within their respective Subdivisions, at the Place and on the Day appointed at the said first General Meeting, fair and true Lists in Writing of all the Men usually and at that Time dwelling within their respective Parishes and Places, between the Ages of Nineteen and Twenty-three inclusive, distinguishing their respective Ranks and Occupations, and which of the Persons so returned labour under any Infirmities incapacitating them from serving as Militia Men, having first affixed a true Copy of such List on the Door of the Church belonging to such Parish or Place, on the Sunday Morning before they shall make such Return; and on the Day and at the Place so respectively appointed as aforesaid for the Returns of the Lists, the said Deputy Lieutenants, or any three or more of them, or any two Deputy Lieutenants together with any one Justice of the Peace, or any one Deputy Lieutenant together with any two Justices of the Peace and the Schoolmasters of the Parishes within the said Subdivision or District, or such of them as are able to attend, so assembled in their Subdivisions or Districts, shall (after hearing any Person who shall think himself aggrieved by having his Name inserted in such Lists, or by any others being omitted) direct such Lists to be amended, as the Case shall require, and also the Names of all Persons by this Act respectively excepted to be struck out of the said Lists, and shall appoint the Times and Places for their second Meetings, within their respective Subdivisions, and shall return to the second General Meeting all the Lists for the several Parishes and Places so amended, at which said second General Meeting his Majesty's Lieutenant, together with any two or more Deputy Lieutenants, or in the Absence of his Majesty's said Lieutenant, any three or more Deputy Lieutenants, shall order Copies to be made of all the said Lists, and such Copies to be returned to the Deputy Lieutenants at their second Meeting within their Subdivisions or Districts, wherein the Parishes and Places for which such Lists are made and returned are respectively situated.

Lieutenant to transmit to the Privy Council a List of the Men returned, to be divided over the Counties by Order in Council:

XVII. And be it further enacted, That the Lieutenant, or, failing of him, any three or more Deputy Lieutenants assembled at their second General Meeting, shall transmit to his Majesty's Privy Council an Account in Writing, signed by him or them, of the true State of the Number of Persons returned in the Lists aforesaid, on Receipt of which his Majesty, by Order in Council, shall forthwith apportion and divide over the several Counties, Stewartries, Cities, and Places, the Number of Militia to serve for such County, Stewartry, City, or Place, so as not to exceed the Number of six thousand Men over that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

On Receipt of such Order a Ballot to be had as herein directed.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Lieutenant, or, failing of him, any three or more Deputy Lieutenants, shall, upon Receipt of such Order in Council, containing an Apportionment of the Number of Men to be raised in each County, Stewartry, City, or Place, transmit a Copy of such Order to the Deputy Lieutenants, or any three or more of them, or any two Deputy Lieutenants, together with any one Justice of the Peace, or any one Deputy Lieutenant, together with two Justices of the Peace, assembled at their second Meetings with such Schoolmasters as are able to attend, who shall proceed to ballot in Manner following; videlicet, the Names of all the Militia Men in each Parish, written or printed on distinct Pieces of Paper, being all as near as may be of equal Size, and rolled up in the same Manner, shall be put into a Box or other Vessel, and shall there be shaken together, and then a Number of Names equal to the Number apportioned by the Order in Council aforesaid, shall be drawn out and opened by the Person presiding at the Meeting, which Names shall be entered in a Roll, and declared to be the Quota of Militia Men for the Parish, and shall, in like Manner, proceed to ballot for each Parish respectively within the said Subdivision or District; a Copy of which Roll or Rolls, subscribed by the Person presiding at the Meeting, shall within three Days thereafter be transmitted to the Lieutenant, or, failing him, to the Deputy Lieutenants authorized to act for him, and shall also be affixed by the Minister of each Parish to the Door of the Church the first Sunday thereafter.

Deputy Lieutenant to give Notice to the Persons ballotted to attend at a certain Time and Place.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That the Deputy Lieutenant of the said District, or other Person appointed by the Lord Lieutenant, shall give Notice in Writing by a Constable, or other Officer duly authorized by him, to the several Militia Men ballotted as aforesaid, by serving them personally, or by leaving the same at their usual Places of Abode, to attend at a certain Time and Place to be specified in the said Order; and also such Militia Men shall duly attend at the Time and Place so mentioned, and in Default thereof shall suffer the same Pains and Penalties as are in such Cases hereinafter directed and imposed.

Persons ballotted, or Substitutes, to take the following Oath,

XX. And be it further enacted, That every Person so chosen by Ballot, or approved as a Substitute as is hereinafter directed, shall take and subscribe the following Oath, to be administered by the Deputy Lieutenant, or other Person appointed by the Lord Lieutenant for that Purpose:

'I A. B. do sincerely promise and swear, That I will be faithful and bear true Allegiance to his Majesty King George, and that I will faithfully serve in the Militia, within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for the Defence of the same, during the present War, when called upon by his Majesty to do so, and for the Space of one Callendar Month after the End thereof.'

and to be inrolled.

And every such Person shall be enrolled (in a Roll to be then and there prepared for that Purpose) to serve in the Militia of such County, Stewartry, or City, as a private Militia Man, during the present War, and for the Space of one Calendar Month after the End thereof: Provided always, that if any Person so chosen by Ballot shall produce a Substitute able and fit for Service, and who shall be approved by the said Deputy Lieutenants, or any two or more of them, such Substitute, being unmarried, and having no Children born in lawful Wedlock, so produced and approved, shall be enrolled to serve in the Militia of such County, Stewartry, City, or Place; and such Substitute shall take the Oath before mentioned; and if any Person so chosen by Ballot, and who shall have been enrolled in the said Militia, shall at any Time during the Continuance of this Act produce for his Substitute any Person of the Description before mentioned, who shall be approved by the said Deputy Lieutenants, or any two or more of them, it shall and may be lawful for the Commanding Officer of such Militia to cause such Substitute to be enrolled in lieu of the Person so chosen by Ballot, which Enrolment shall be made in the Manner hereinbefore directed; and upon the Enrolment of such Substitute as aforesaid, the Person so chosen by Ballot shall be entitled to his immediate Discharge.

Persons ballotted may find Substitutes, who, (being unmarried,) if approved, shall be enrolled and sworn.

Persons ballotte, and not appearing, &c to forfeit 10 l.; and if not paid, may be compelled to serve.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person chosen by Ballot, according to the Directions of this Act, (not being one of the People called Quakers,) shall refuse or neglect to appear and take the said Oath, and serve in the Militia, or to provide a Substitute to be approved as aforesaid, who shall take the said Oath, and sign his Consent to serve as his Substitute, every such Person so refusing or neglecting shall forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds Sterling, and whenever any Ballot shall take place in the same Parish or Place, under the Authority of this Act, be liable to serve again, or provide a Substitute, and in Default of Payment of such Penalty, or for Want of sufficient Effects whereon to levy the same, the Name of such Person shall be entered upon the Roll for which he was ballotted, and shall be compelled to serve, in like Manner as any other Person who should be then ballotted for would be compellable to serve, and shall be subject to the same Punishments for afterwards absconding or deserting, as he would have been subject to in case he had appeared, and been duly sworn and enrolled as a Militia Man.

Allowance to be made the Officers who carry

XXII. And be it further enacted, That the Schoolmaster, or such Constables and other Officers in each Parish as are employed in carrying this Act into Execution, shall have such Allowance for their Trouble as the

the Sheriff Depute or Substitute of each County or Stewartry shall think reasonable, certifying the same to the Lieutenant of the County, or Deputy Lieutenants of the District.

Inhabitants of a Parish lying in two Counties, to serve in that wherein the Church is situate.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That where any Parish shall lie in two or more Counties or Stewartries, the Inhabitants of such Parish shall serve in the Militia of that County or Stewartry wherein the Church belonging to such Parish is situated, and that such Parish shall, for all the Purposes of this Act, be deemed Part of the County or Stewartry.

Lists for two Places may be added together.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Deputy Lieutenants, or any two or more of them, within their respective Districts, to add together, whenever they shall think necessary, the Lists for two or more Parishes, and proceed upon such Lists added together in like Manner as if they had been originally returned for one Parish or Place, so as to make the Choice of Militia Men by Ballot, within every such District, as equal and impartial as possible.

Certain Persons exempted from serving.

XXV. Provided always, That no Person serving as a Commissioned Officer in any Regiment, Troop or Company, in his Majesty's other Forces, or in any Corps of Volunteers raised by virtue of an Act, passed in the thirty-fourth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for encouraging and disciplining such Corps or Companies of Men as shall voluntarily enrol themselves for the Defence of their Counties, Towns, or Coasts, or for the general Defence of the Kingdom, during the present War, and who shall have been duly entered therein, on or before the passing of this Act, or in any one of his Majesty's Castles or Forts, nor any Non-commissioned Officer or Private Man serving in any of his Majesty's other Forces, or in any Volunteer or Yeomanry Corps, Troop, or Company whatever, provided he hath been duly entered therein on or before the passing of this Act, and provided he hath punctually attended at all such Times and Places as may have been agreed upon for the Exercise of such Corps, Troop, or Company, nor any of the Professors in any of the four Universities, nor any Minister, Clergyman, or Schoolmaster, nor any Constable or other Peace Officer, nor any Person being and having been, on or before the passing of this Act, an articled Clerk, Apprentice, Seaman, or Seafaring Man, nor any Man having more than two Children born in lawful Wedlock, shall be liable to serve personally, or provide a Substitute to serve, in the Militia to be raised by virtue of this Act; but no Person who has served in his Majesty's Forces, or in any other Volunteer Corps before mentioned, and hath been discharged, or quitted the same, shall by such Service be exempted from serving, or providing a Substitute to serve, in the Militia to be raised by virtue of this Act, if he shall be chosen by Ballot.

Regulations respecting Edinburgh and its Liberties.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That within the City and County of the City of Edinburgh and Liberties thereof, the Lieutenant thereof shall appoint Captains, Lieutenants, and Ensigns of Militia, whose Number and Rank shall be proportionable to the Number of Militia Men to be raised for the same; and all Powers and Provisions made by this Act, with respect to Counties and Stewartries, and the Modes and Times of summoning and ballotting the Militia thereof, and recording the Qualification of Officers, shall take place and be in force with respect to the said City and its Militia; and the registering of Qualifications, and the Value of the Qualifications of the Officers to serve in such Militia, shall be as follows; every Field Officer shall be either Proprietor or possessed of Houses and other Property, within the said City and Liberties thereof, of the Yearly Value of one hundred Pounds Sterling, or shall be possessed of a Personal Estate, or Funds alone, or Proprietor or possessed of Real and Personal Estate and Funds together, to the Amount and Value of two thousand Pounds Sterling; and every Captain shall be, in like Manner, Proprietor or possessed of Houses or other Property, within the said City and Liberties thereof, of the Yearly Value of fifty Pounds Sterling, or shall be possessed of a Personal Estate, or Funds alone, or Proprietor or possessed of Real and Personal Estate and Funds together, to the Amount or Value of one thousand Pounds Sterling; and every Subaltern shall, in like Manner, be Proprietor or possessed of Houses or other Property, within the said City and Liberties thereof, of the Yearly Value of fifteen Pounds Sterling, or shall be possessed of a Personal Estate, or Funds alone, or Proprietor or possessed of Real and Personal Estate and Funds together, to the Amount or Value of three hundred Pounds Sterling: Saving always and reserving to the Royal College of Surgeons in Edinburgh, all Rights, Immunities, Privileges, and Exemptions, of which the said College may have been and still are in the lawful Possession, and the Benefit of any Act or Acts of Parliament passed heretofore in their Favour.

His Majesty may form the Militia as he shall think expedient.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for his Majesty to form the said Militia into such Regiments and Battalions, and to join such Counties, Stewartries, Cities, and other Places, together for that Purpose, as he shall think expedient, and in the Manner best adapted for the Defence of the United Kingdom, and to be commanded by such Officers as his Majesty shall think fit to appoint, qualified as hereinbefore directed.

Deputy Lieutenants and Justices may require the Attendance of Constables, &c. and may commit or fine them for Neglect of Duty.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace within any Subdivision or District, or any two or more of them, one Deputy Lieutenant being one, from Time to Time to issue their Order or Warrant under their Hands and Seals, requiring the Attendance of the Constable, Borough Officer, or other Officer of any Parish or Place, within such Subdivision or District, at such Time and Place as in such Order or Warrant shall be expressed; and if any such Constable, Borough Officer, or other Officer, shall refuse or neglect to appear according to such Order or Warrant, or shall refuse or neglect to return any such List as before directed, or to comply with such Order or Directions as he shall from Time to Time receive from the said Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace, or any two or more of them, in pursuance of this Act, a Deputy Lieutenant always being one, or shall, in making such Return, be guilty of any Fraud, or wilful Partiality, or gross Neglect in his Duty, the said Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace, or any two or more of them, are hereby empowered and required to commit the Person so offending to the Common Gaol, there to be kept for the Space of one Calendar Month, or, at their Discretion, to fine such Person in any Sum not exceeding five Pounds Sterling, nor less than forty Shillings Sterling.

Volunteers may be accepted as the Quota of a County.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That, notwithstanding of this Act, if the Lieutenant, or any three Deputy Lieutenants, of any County, Stewartry, City, or Place, shall, within the Space of thirty Days from and after the first General Meeting appointed to be held under this Act, make a Return of a certain Number of able and sufficient Men, and out of such County, Stewartry, City, or Place, who are willing voluntarily to engage to serve together in a Company or Companies, Regiment, Battalion, or other Corps, under Officers appointed from such County, Stewartry, City, or Place, during the present War, and in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland only, then and in that Case such Volunteers shall be accepted in full or in Part of such Quota as would otherwise by this Act be imposed on such County, Stewartry, City, or Place.

Persons balloted must serve, though they remove from the Places for which chosen, &c.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That every Person chosen by Ballot to serve in the Militia, shall be liable to such Service although he may have removed from the Place where his Name was inserted in the List, provided he was residing in such Place at the Time when the List was, according to the Directions of this Act, prepared; and every Person liable to serve in the Militia, having more than one Place of Residence, shall serve for the County, Stewartry, City, or Place where his Name shall have been first inserted in such List as aforesaid; and the Clerk to the Subdivision or District Meeting, to which such List shall be returned, shall, if such Person requires the same, grant a Certificate, gratis, under his Hand, that such Person's Name was inserted in such List, and specifying the Time when such List was made and returned.

Substitutes may be provided for Quakers, and the Expence levied by Distress.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person, being one of the People called Quakers, shall be chosen by Lot to serve in the Militia, and shall refuse or neglect to appear, and to take the Oath aforesaid, and to serve in the said Militia, or to provide a Substitute, to be approved of as aforesaid, who shall take the said Oath, and subscribe his Consent to serve as the Substitute of such Quaker, then, and in every such Case, any three Deputy Lieutenants, or any two Deputy Lieutenants together with any one Justice of the Peace, or any one Deputy Lieutenant together with any two Justices of the Peace, shall, upon as reasonable Terms as may be, provide and hire a fit Person who shall take the said Oath, and subscribe his Consent to serve in the said Militia as the Substitute of such Quaker; and any three Deputy Lieutenants, or any two Deputy Lieutenants together with any one Justice of the Peace, or any one Deputy Lieutenant together with any two Justices of the Peace, are hereby empowered and required to levy, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Effects of such Quaker, by Warrant under the Hands of any three Deputy Lieutenants, or any two Deputy Lieutenants together with any one Justice of the Peace, or any Deputy Lieutenant together with two Justices of the Peace, such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be necessary to defray the Expences of providing and hiring such Person to serve in the Militia during the War, and for one Calendar Month thereafter, as the Substitute of such Quaker so refusing or neglecting as aforesaid, rendering the Overplus (if any) after deducting the Charges of such Distress and Sale, to such Quaker upon whom such Distress shall have been made as aforesaid; and in case any Measures shall be used in making such Distress as aforesaid, which may be by any such Quaker thought oppressive, it shall be lawful for such Quaker to complain thereof to the Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace at their next Meeting, who are hereby empowered and required to hear and finally determine the same.

Quakers thinking themselves oppressed may appeal.

Justices may determine Disputes between Servants enrolled as Militia Men and their Employers, respecting Wages.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That if any Servant whatever, hired by the Year or otherwise, shall be enrolled as a Militia Man, and any Dispute shall arise between his Master or Mistress, Employer or Employers, and such Servant, touching any Sum or Sums of Money due to such Servant for or on Account of his Service performed before the Time of such Swearing and Enrolment, or to such Time as, under the Condition of the said Swearing and Enrolment, he shall be obliged to quit the Service of his said Master or Mistress, Employer or Employers, by being called out to join the Militia in which he shall have been so sworn or enrolled, it shall and may be lawful, on Complaint made thereof, within three Months from the Time of quitting the said Service, to any Justice of the Peace for the County, Stewartry, City, or Place where such Master or Mistress, Employer or Employers, shall inhabit, for such Justice to hear and determine every such Complaint, and to examine upon Oath every such Servant, or any other Witness or Witnesses, touching the same, and to make such Order for the Payment of so much Wages to such Servant, in Proportion to the Service he has performed, as to such Justice shall seem just and reasonable, provided the Sum in Question do not exceed the Sum of twenty Pounds Sterling; and in case of Refusal or Non-payment of any Sum so ordered, by the Space of twenty-one Days next after such Determination, such Justice shall and may issue forth his and their Warrant to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Effects of such Master or Mistress, Employer or Employers, rendering the Overplus to the Owner or Owners, after Payment of the Charges of such Distress and Sale.

Substitutes who do not appear to be sworn, to return the Bounty Money, and forfeit not exceeding 20s. or be committed.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That any Person who shall receive Money from any other Person to serve as his Substitute in the Militia, and shall neglect to appear at the Meeting appointed as aforesaid for swearing the Militia Men, or before some one Deputy Lieutenant, in order to be sworn according to the Directions of this Act, every such Person so neglecting to appear and be sworn, such Neglect being proven before any two Deputy Lieutenants or Justices of the Peace, by the Oath of one credible Witness, shall be obliged to return the Money to the Person or Persons from whom he received it, it, and shall also forfeit and pay to such Person or Persons any Sum not exceeding twenty Shillings Sterling, at the Discretion of the Deputy Lieutenants or Justices of the Peace aforesaid; and if such Offender shall not immediately return the Money so by him received as aforesaid, and likewise pay the said Penalty, he shall be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, until the said Sum shall be returned.

Inlisting of a Militia Man into his Majesty's other Forces to be void.

Penalty on Men so offering to inlist, denying that they are Militia Men, &c.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That in case any Officer, Serjeant, or other Person, shall at any Time wilfully and knowingly inlist any Man to serve in his Majesty's other Forces, who at the Time of such inlisting shall be called out and serving in the Militia, embodied and incorporated as aforesaid by his Majesty's Order, every such inlisting shall be deemed null and void; and in case any Militia Man, at the Time of offering to inlist as aforesaid, shall deny to the Officer or Serjeant, or other Person recruiting for Men to inlist and serve in his Majesty's other Forces, that he is at the Time of his offering to inlist a Militia Man then actually called out and serving in the Militia embodied and incorporated as aforesaid, (which the said Officer, Serjeant, or other Person is hereby required to ask every Man offering to inlist in his Majesty's other Forces,) or shall offer himself to be enrolled and serve in any other Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company of Militia, every Militia Man so offending shall, on Conviction thereof, upon the Oath of one Witness, before any one Justice of the Peace, be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to remain, without Bail, for and during any Time not exceeding six Months, over and above any Penalty or Punishment to which such Person so offending is or shall be otherwise liable; and every Person so offending, from the Day on which his Engagement to serve in the Militia shall end, and not sooner, shall belong as a Soldier to such Corps of his Majesty's other Forces into which he shall have been so inlisted; and if any Officer, Serjeant, or other Person shall inlist any Man belonging to the Militia to serve in his Majesty's other Forces, knowing him to belong to the Militia, every such Officer, Serjeant, or other Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Pounds Sterling; and if any Person actually serving in any of his Majesty's other Forces, shall offer himself to serve and be enrolled as a Substitute in the Militia, every Person so offending shall forfeit and pay, to the Person informing of such Offence, the Sum of ten Pounds Sterling, or be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for any Time not exceeding three Months.

Penalty on Persons knowingly inlisting Militia Men into other Regiments, and on Soldiers offering to serve as Substitutes in the Militia.

Penalty on Persons ordering Serjeants, &c. of the Militia, to beat up for Volunteers; and on the Serjeants, &c. for refusing to declare who gave them Orders.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall give Orders to any Serjeant, Drummer, or other Person serving in the Militia, to beat up in any City, Town, or other Place, for Volunteers to serve in the Militia, the Person who shall give such Orders shall, upon Proof thereof, and upon such beating up as aforesaid, upon Oath before any Justice of the Peace, forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Pounds Sterling, one Moiety whereof shall be applied to the Use of the Person who shall make Information thereof before any Justice of the Peace; and if such Serjeant, Drummer, or other Person shall refuse to declare upon Oath before such Justice from whom he received such Orders, it shall be lawful for such Justice, and he is hereby required, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, to commit such Serjeant, Drummer, or other Person, to the House of Correction for any Time not exceeding three Months.

Copies of Rolls, signed at District Meetings, to be transmitted to the Clerk of the General Meeting.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Clerks of all Subdivision or District Meetings shall, within fourteen Days after every Subdivision or District Meeting, transmit to the Clerk of the General Meeting of the County, Stewartry, City, or Place, fair and true Copies of such Rolls as shall be signed at such Meeting.

Application of Penalties for refusing to serve, &c.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Money arising by Penalties incurred for refusing to serve in the Militia, or to find Substitutes to serve in their Room, shall be applied, by any two or more Deputy Lieutenants, within their respective Subdivision or Districts, in providing Substitutes for the Persons who shall have paid such Penalties, which Substitutes shall be sworn in and enrolled to serve for the same Term, and on the same Conditions as is hereinbefore provided in the Case of Substitutes provided by Persons chosen by Ballot; and if any Surplus shall remain, the same shall be paid to the Colonels or Commanding Officers of the respective Regiments, Battalions, or Independent Companies, in which such Persons ought to have served as Militia Men, and be applied as Part of the Regimental Stock.

County Lieutenants, &c. may administer Oaths.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases, in the Execution of this Act, when any Matter or Thing is directed to be inquired of or examined into upon the Oath of any Witness or Witnesses, before any Lieutenant of any County, Stewartry, City, or Place, or any Deputy Lieutenant or Lieutenants, or Justice or Justices of the Peace, any such Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenant or Lieutenants, or Justice or Justices of the Peace, is or are hereby authorized to administer such Oath to any Witness or Witnesses; and all other Oaths to be taken in pursuance of this Act shall and may be respectively administered by any Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenant.

The Militia, where sufficient, to be formed into Regiments or Battalions.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That in the several Counties, Stewartries, Cities, and Places, where the Number of Men is sufficient, the Militia shall be formed into Regiments consisting of not more than twelve, nor less than eight Companies, of eighty private Men to a Company at the most, and sixty private Men at the least; and the Field Officers of such Regiments shall be as follows; (that is to say,) one Colonel, one Lieutenant Colonel, and one Major; and where the Number of Militia Men shall amount to a Number under eight, and not less than five Companies, such Militia shall be formed into a Battalion, and the Field Officers of such Battalion shall be one Lieutenant Colonel and one Major only; and where the Number of private Men shall amount to any Number under five, and not less than three Companies, such Militia shall shall be formed into a Battalion with one Lieutenant Colonel or Major, and no other Field Officer; and in each Regiment or Battalion of Militia there shall be one Captain, one Lieutenant, and one Ensign to each Company: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for every Battalion, consisting of five Companies or upward, to have one Company of Grenadiers or Light Infantry, to which two Lieutenants shall be appointed instead of one Lieutenant and one Ensign; and it shall be lawful for every Regiment, consisting of eight Companies or upward, to have one Company of Grenadiers and one Company of Light Infantry; to each of which Companies two Lieutenants shall be appointed instead of one Lieutenant and one Ensign.

and where not, into Independent Companies; which his Majesty may form into a Battalion, or incorporate them with other Regiments.

XL. And be it further enacted, That in the several Counties, Stewartries, Cities, and Places, where the Number of Militia Men shall not be sufficient to form a Regiment or Battalion, according to the Intent and Meaning of this Act, the Militia of such Counties, Stewartries, Cities, and Places, shall be formed into Independent Companies, each Company to consist of eighty private Men at the most, and sixty private Men at the least, with one Captain, one Lieutenant, and one Ensign, to each Company; and that his Majesty may, whenever he thinks proper, join together any Number of such Independent Companies, and form a Battalion or Battalions, or may incorporate them with any other Regiment or Battalion of Militia, provided the Number of Companies in any such Regiment or Battalion be not thereby made to exceed the Number of Companies of which a Regiment or Battalion of Militia is hereinbefore directed to consist.

County Lieutenants may act as Commanding Officers of Regiments, &c.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant of any County, Stewartry, City, or Place, to act as Colonel or commanding Officer of any Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company of Militia for such County, Stewartry, City, or Place, for and during such Time as there shall not be any Colonel or Commanding Officer appointed to such Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company; but no such Lieutenant shall at any one Time act as Colonel or Commanding Officer to more than one Body of Militia, whether Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company; and where the Lieutenant of any County, Stewartry, City, or Place, shall take the Command of any Body of Militia, not being by this Act deemed a Regiment, he shall be entitled to the Rank of Colonel, except when the said Company shall be formed into Battalion as aforesaid, but shall receive no greater Pay than the proper Commanding Officer of such Body would be entitled to.

The senior Officer to be invested with the Powers of the Colonel during his Absence from Great Britain.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That when any Colonel or other Commanding Officer of any Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company, shall be absent from Great Britain, all the Powers by this Act given to such Colonel or other Commanding Officer shall be vested in, and lawfully may be exercised by, the next Officer in Command in such Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company, who shall be residing within Great Britain, until such Colonel or other Commanding Officer shall be returned to Great Britain, and shall have notified his Arrival to the Clerk of the Peace of the County, Stewartry, City, or Place, to which such Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company belongs, and the Clerk of the Peace is hereby required forthwith, upon Receipt of such Notification, to transmit an Account thereof to the Officer who shall have been next in Command as aforesaid; and all Acts, Matters, and Things, done by such Officer next in Command as aforesaid, in exercising the Powers given by this Act to Colonels and other Commanding Officers, shall be good and valid in the Law equally as if they had been done by the Colonel or Commanding Officer himself.

Adjutants to be appointed, who have served, or shall serve, in the Army, and who shall preserve their Rank.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That the Colonel of each Regiment or Battalion of Militia incorporated as aforesaid, shall appoint the Adjutant, who shall have served, or shall at the Time of such Appointment actually serve, in some of his Majesty's other Forces, and who, during his Service in the said Militia, shall preserve his Rank in the Army in the same Manner as if he had continued in that Service.

His Majesty may appoint Serjeants from the Army or Chelsea Hospital.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, may and shall appoint, according to the Proportion of one Serjeant to twenty private Men, two or more proper Persons to be Serjeants to every Company in the said Militia, out of and from his Majesty's other Forces, such Persons having served in the said Forces for the Space of three Years next preceding their Appointment to be Serjeants as aforesaid, or may appoint such other Persons to be Serjeants as aforesaid, as have formerly served for the Space of three Years in his Majesty's said Forces; and the Service in the Militia of such Persons so appointed out of his Majesty's said Forces shall entitle them to the Benefit of Chelsea Hospital, in the same Manner as if they had continued to serve in the said Forces; and every Person appointed to be a Serjeant as aforesaid, out of the Pensioners on the Establishment of Chelsea Hospital, shall be entitled to be put again upon the said Establishment, after he shall be discharged from the Service of the Militia, provided he brings a Certificate of his good Behaviour, under the Hand of the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the Regiment or Battalion in which he shall have served as aforesaid.

The Captain may appoint Drummers and Corporals to his Company, and, with the Approbation of the County Lieutenant, may fill up

XLV. And be it further enacted, That the Captain of every Company of Militia may and shall appoint two Persons to be Drummers to his Company, and may and shall appoint Corporals out of the private Men of his Company, in the Proportion of one Corporal to twenty private Men, and may displace such Drummers and Corporals respectively for Misbehaviour, and appoint others in their Room, from Time to Time, as he shall see Occasion, and may and shall appoint, with the Approbation of his Majesty's Lieutenant, Serjeants out of the private Men of his Company, to fill up the Vacancies of Serjeants as may happen therein; and every such Appointment shall be deemed an actual Discharge of the Person so appointed from serving serving in the Militia as a private Militia Man; and that it shall be lawful for the Colonel, or, in his Absence, for the Commanding Officer of any Battalion of Militia, to displace, upon the Application of the Captain, any Person so appointed a Serjeant out of the private Militia Men.

No Publican to be a Serjeant.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That no Person who shall keep any House of public Entertainment, or who shall sell any Ale, Wine, Brandy, or other Spirituous Liquors by Retail, shall be capable of being or continuing a Serjeant in the Militia.

Half Pay Officers serving as Subalterns, &c. may receive their Half Pay on taking the following Oath,

XLVII. And be it enacted, That no Officer who is entitled to Half Pay shall be deemed or taken to forfeit or quit such Half Pay, during the Time he shall serve as Lieutenant, Ensign, Adjutant, Battalion Clerk, Paymaster, Quartermaster, or Surgeon, in any Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company of Militia, but that the same shall nevertheless continue, and instead of the Oath directed by the Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, to be taken by such Officer, he shall take the following Oath:

'I A. B. do swear, That I had not, between the any Place or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under his Majesty, besides my Allowance of Half Pay as a reduced in late Regiment of save and except my Pay as Lieutenant, Ensign, Adjutant, Battalion Clerk, Paymaster, Quartermaster, or Surgeon, [as the Case may be,] for serving in a Regiment of Militia.'

And the taking of the said Oath shall, without taking any other Oath, be sufficient to entitle such Person to receive his Half Pay.

Serjeants of Chelsea Hospital may receive their Allowance with their Pay.

What Service in the Militia shall entitle to a Recommendation to the Chelsea Pension.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That any Person being a Serjeant on the Establishment of Chelsea Hospital, at the Allowance of Twelve-pence a Day, and being appointed to serve in the Militia, shall and may receive the said Allowance of Twelve-pence a Day, together with his Pay from the said Militia; and any Person who shall have faithfully served as a Serjeant in the Militia for fifteen Years, or as a Corporal or Drummer for twenty Years, and who shall be discharged on Account of Age or Infirmity, shall, on the Recommendation of the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company, to which he belongs, and the Lieutenant, and two or more Deputy Lieutenants of the County, Stewartry, City, or Place to which the said Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company belongs, or on the Death or Removal, or in the Absence of the said Lieutenant, by the Commanding Officer and three or more Deputy Lieutenants of such County, Stewartry, City, or Place, be entitled to Examination at the Chelsea Board, and be capable to be placed on the Pension of Five-pence per Day, if the said Board shall judge him deserving thereof: Provided, that no Person who shall be appointed a Serjeant in the Militia after the passing of this Act, shall be entitled to such Recompence, until he shall have served in the Militia, or in the Army and Militia, for twenty Years.

The Militia to be billetted, and Carriages provided on their March as for the Regular and Fencible Forces.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for all Justices of the Peace, Provost, or other Chief Magistrate of Towns, and all other Officers having Jurisdiction in such Matters, and they are hereby required to quarter and billet the Officers and private Men serving in the Militia, and whilst they shall continue to be embodied, in the same Way and Manner as his Majesty's Regular and Fencible Forces are in use to be billetted and quartered in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and shall likewise be provided with Carriages on their March in the same Manner as the said Regular and Fencible Forces are at present so furnished and provided in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; and all Justices of the Peace and other Magistrates are hereby required to be assisting therein, in the same Way and Manner as they are now in use to assist in providing Carriages and Horses for his Majesty's Forces upon their March.

If a Militia Man desert and does not return, or is not taken in three Months, another to be ballotted for.

If such Deserter returns, or is taken, he shall serve though another be ballotted.

L. And be it further enacted, That in case any Militia Man shall desert, or absent himself from his Duty, and shall not return or be taken within the Space of three Months from the Time of his so deserting or absenting himself, then, upon Certificate thereof from the Commanding Officer of the Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company, to the Deputy Lieutenants, at any of their Meetings for the Subdivision or District for which such Militia Man was enrolled, such Deputy Lieutenants, or any two or more of them, are hereby required to hold a Subdivision or District Meeting, and to proceed to ballot for another Person to serve and be returned to such Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company, in the Room of every such Militia Man; and in case such Militia Man shall at any Time return or be taken, he shall, notwithstanding any Person shall have been chosen in his Room, be compelled to serve in the same Manner, and for the same Term, as if no Person had been so chosen in his Room.

Muskets to be marked.

Penalty on Militia Men for selling, &c. Arms, Cloaths, or Accoutrements.

LI. And be it further enacted, That all Muskets delivered for the Service of the Militia shall be marked distinctly, in some visible Place, with the Letter (M), and the Name of the County, Stewartry, City, or Place, to which they belong; and in case any Militia Man shall sell, pawn, or lose, any of his Arms, Cloaths, or Accoutrements, or neglect or refuse to return the same in good Order to the Captain, or to the Person appointed to receive the same, every such Militia Man shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding three Pounds Sterling; and if such Militia Man shall not immediately pay such Penalty, the Justice of the Peace before whom he shall be convicted shall commit him to the House of Correction for any Time not exceeding three Months, or until he shall have paid the said Penalty.

Penalty for buying, &c. Arms, Cloaths, or Accoutrements.

LII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall knowingly and willingly buy, take in exchange, conceal, or otherwise receive any Arms, Cloaths, or Accoutrements, belonging unto any Militia Man, upon any Account or Pretence whatsoever, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, the Person so offending shall forfeit and pay, for every such Offence, the Sum of five Pounds Sterling; and if such Offender shall not immediately pay such Penalty, and shall not have sufficient Goods or Effects whereon to levy such Penalty, the Justice before whom he shall be convicted, shall commit him to the Common Gaol, there to remain, without Bail, for the Space of three Months, or shall cause such Offender to be publicly whipped, at the Discretion of such Justice.

Serjeants or Corporals may be reduced to Privates.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That any Serjeant or Corporal of the Militia may, by Sentence of a Court Martial, be reduced to the Condition of a Private Soldier of the Militia, to serve as such during the War.

His Majesty may order the Militia to be embodied, and put under the Command of General Officers, and led into any Part of Scotland for preventing Invasion, &c.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for his Majesty, by Order in Council, to embody and call out the said six thousand Men, and put them under the Command of such General Officers as he shall be pleased to appoint over them; and to direct them to be led by their respective Officers into any Parts of that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, for the preventing and repelling any Invasion, and for the Suppression of any Rebellion or Insurrection there; and the Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, and Private Men of the several Regiments, Battalions, and Independent Companies of the Militia, shall, from the Time of their being drawn out and embodied as aforesaid, and until they shall be returned again by his Majesty's Orders to their respective Parishes or Places of Abode, remain under the Command of such General Officers; and during such Time as aforesaid, all the Provisions contained in any Act of Parliament which shall be then in force for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, shall be in force with respect to the Militia, and shall extend to all the Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, and Private Men of the Militia, in all Cases whatsoever.

Militia not to be ordered out of Scotland.

LV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That neither the Whole, or any Part of the Militia directed by this Act to be raised and maintained, shall on any Account be carried or ordered to go out of that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

Non-commissioned Officers and Privates, (wounded in Service,) entitled to Chelsea Pension, and if married, may set up in any Part of Great Britain.

LVI. And be it enacted, That if any Non-commissioned Officer of the Militia, or private Militia Man, shall be maimed or wounded in actual Service, he shall be equally entitled to the Benefit of Chelsea Hospital with any Non commissioned Officer or private Soldier belonging to his Majesty's other Forces; and that every such Person, having served in the Militia when called out into actual Service, and being a married Man, may set up and exercise any Trade in any Town or Place within the Kingdom of Great Britain, without any Molestation for or by reason of the using such Trade, in like Manner as any Person who has served in his Majesty's Navy, or as a Soldier in his regular Land Forces, may do.

County Lieutenant to issue Orders to the Chief Constable for the Attendance of Militia Men.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That the Lieutenant of every County, Stewartry, City, and Place, or on the Death or Removal of any such Lieutenant, or in his Absence from his County, Stewartry, City, or Place, any three or more Deputy Lieutenants, to whom any such Order as aforesaid from his Majesty shall be directed, shall issue his or their Order to the Chief Constable of the several Divisions or Districts, with Directions to forward the same immediately to the Constables or other Officers of the several Parishes and Places within their respective Divisions and Districts, and such Constables or other Officers are hereby required, upon Receipt hereof, forthwith to cause Notice in Writing to be given to the several Militia Men, or left at their usual Places of Abode, within their respective Parishes or Places, to attend at the Time and Place mentioned in such Order; and if any Militia Men so ordered to be drawn out and embodied as aforesaid (not labouring under any Infirmity incapacitating him to serve as a Militia Man) shall not appear and march in pursuance of such Order, every such Militia Man shall be liable to be apprehended and punished as a Deserter, according to the Provisions of any Act which shall be then in Force for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters; and if any Person shall harbour and conceal any Militia Man, when ordered out into actual Service, knowing him to be a Militia Man, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds Sterling.

Men not attending may be apprehended as Deserters.

Penalty for harbouring Militia Men.

Colonel to appoint an Agent when the Militia is embodied, for whom he is to be responsible.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That when the Militia Men shall be drawn out and embodied for actual Service, and incorporated by Command of his Majesty as aforesaid into a Regiment, Battalion, or other Corps, and during the Time they shall continue so embodied and incorporated, the Colonel, or, where there is no Colonel, the Commanding Officer of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, so embodied or incorporated as aforesaid, shall and may appoint an Agent to such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, and shall take Security from such Agent; and such Colonel, and, where there is no Colonel, the Commanding Officer, shall be and is hereby made subject and liable to make good all Deficiencies that may happen from the said Agent, or from himself, upon Account of the Pay, Cloathing, or public Stock of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps.

When the Militia is ordered out, the Collector of the Cess to pay a Guinea for the Use of each Man to his Captain, to be laid out for his Use.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That when the Militia of any County, Stewartry, City, or Place, shall be ordered out into actual Service, the Collector of the Cess for such County, Stewartry, City, or Place shall and is hereby required forthwith to pay, to the Captain or other Commanding Officer of every Company of Militia so ordered out, the Sum of one Guinea for the Use of every private Militia Man belonging to his Company; and the said Collector of the Cess shall also pay to every Captain and Commanding Officer of a Company as aforesaid, the Sum of one Guinea for every Recruit, as early as may be after such Recruit shall have joined his Company, while out in actual Service as aforesaid; all which Money so paid by the said Collector of the Cess shall be allowed to him in his Account; and the Money so received by any Captain or other Commanding Officer (or so much thereof as such Captain or Commanding Officer shall think proper) shall be laid out in the Manner he shall think most advantageous for the respective Militia Men; and such Captain and Commanding Officer shall, before any Militia Man of his Company receives his Discharge, account to such Militia Man how the said Sum of one Guinea hath been applied and disposed of, and shall pay the Remainder of the Money, if any, to the said Militia Man.

LX. And

From the Day of assembling the Militia, the Officers and Privates entitled to the same Pay as the other Forces.

LX. And be it further enacted, That from the Day appointed by the Lieutenant of every County, Stewartry, City, or Place, or on the Death or Removal of any such Lieutenant, or in his Absence from his County, Stewartry, City, or Place, [by] any three or more Deputy Lieutenants for the assembling of the Militia as aforesaid, in pursuance of his Majesty's Orders in Council, the Officers and private Men of the Militia shall be entitled to the same Pay as the Officers and private Men of his Majesty's other Regiments of Foot receive, and no other.

Recovery and Application of Penalties, not particularly provided for.

LXI. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures by this Act imposed, the Manner of Recovery whereof is not in this Act particularly provided for, shall, on Proof upon Oath of the Offence before any Justice of the Peace of the County, Stewartry, or Place, where the Offence shall be committed, be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Effects, by Warrant under the Hand of such Justice, rendering the Overplus, if any, on Demand, after deducting the Charges of such Distress and Sale, to the Offender upon whom such Distress shall have been made; and where the Goods and Effects of such Offender shall not be sufficient to answer such Distress, such Justice is hereby required to commit such Offender to the Common Gaol of the County, Stewartry, City, or Place, where the Offence shall have been committed, for any Time not exceeding three Months; and all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, by this Act imposed, the Application whereof is not otherwise particularly provided for, shall be paid to the Clerk of the Regiment, Battalion, or other Bodies of Militia, or, where there is no Clerk, the Commanding Officer of such Regiment, Battalion, or other Bodies of Militia, of the respective Counties, Stewartries, Cities, or Places, and shall be made a common Stock in each County, Stewartry, City, or Place, wherein the same shall so arise, and the said Clerk shall give a particular Account thereof, as it shall arise, to any three Deputy Lieutenants, or to any two Deputy Lieutenants together with any one Justice of the Peace, or to any one Deputy Lieutenant together with any one Justice of the Peace, at their next Meeting within their several Subdivisions; and the said Deputy Lieutenants, or any three of them, or any two Deputy Lieutenants together with any one Justice of the Peace, or any one Deputy Lieutenant together with any two Justices of the Peace, shall cause Butts to be erected in some convenient Place or Places, and shall direct the Clerk of the Regiment or Battalion to buy and provide, with some Part of the Money so arising, a proper Quantity of Gunpowder and Ball, to be used at proper Times by the Militia Men in shooting at Marks, and to apply and dispose of such other Part of the Money aforesaid, as they shall think reasonable, in some Prize or Prizes, to be given to such Militia Man or Men as shall by the Commanding Officer then present be adjudged to be the best Marksman or Marksmen, and to apply the Residue thereof to other Contingencies relating to the Militia within such Division or District; and that in all Cases when any Person shall be committed to the County Gaol by virtue of this Act, he shall, during the Time of such Commitment, be kept to hard Labour in such County Gaol, or be fed upon Bread and Water.

Persons committed to Gaol to be kept to hard Labour, &c.

No Order of his Majesty's Lieutenants, &c. to be delayed by Advocation.

LXII. And be it further enacted, That no Order made by any of his Majesty's Lieutenants, or by any one or more Deputy Lieutenants, or by any two Deputy Lieutenants together with any one Justice of the Peace, or by any one Deputy Lieutenant together with any two Justices of the Peace, or by any Justice or Justices of the Peace, by virtue of this Act, shall be delayed or set aside by Advocation or Suspension.

On Death of Lieutenant, his Deputies to act.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That on the Death of any of his Majesty's Lieutenants, his Deputy Lieutenants shall continue to act and exercise all the Authorities by this Act committed to them, until his Majesty shall have appointed another Lieutenant, and until Commissions of Deputy Lieutenancy shall be by him issued.

Limitation of Actions.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Actions, Suit or Suits, shall be brought or commenced against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, such Action or Actions, Suit or Suits, shall be commenced within six Calendar Months after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be laid in the County or Place where such Action or Actions, Suit or Suits, did arise, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Actions, Suit or Suits, to be brought, may deny the Libel, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence; and if such Action or Actions, Suit or Suits, shall be brought after the Time for bringing the same, or if the Defendant or Defendants shall be assoilzied in such Action or Actions, or if the Pursuer or Pursuers shall be nonsuited, or discontinue his or their Action or Actions, Suit or Suits, after the Defendant shall have appeared, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have in other Cases to recover Costs by the Laws of Scotland.

Treble Costs.

His Majesty in Council may suspend the Execution of this Act.

LXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for his Majesty, by Order in Council, to suspend the Execution of this Act, either absolutely, or for any limited Time, and so from Time to Time as his Majesty shall see Occasion, and to order and direct that all Proceedings in the further Execution of this Act shall cease, either absolutely, or during such Time as in any such Order in Council shall be limited for that Purpose, and thereupon all such further Proceedings shall cease accordingly; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Continuance of Act.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be and continue in Force during the present War, and for the Space of one Calendar Month after the End thereof.

and returning them to the Commissioners.

* Cap. 69.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the first Assessment under this Act shall be made for three Quarters of a Year from the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven; and that, from and after the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, the Assessments under this Act shall be made for one whole Year from the fifth Day of April in each Year; and that the Duties so to be assessed shall be paid Quarterly, at the Times and in Manner following; that is to say, on the fifth Day of January, the fifth Day of April, the fifth Day of July, and the tenth Day of October, in every Year, by equal Portions, the first of the said Payments on the said Assessment for three Quarters of a Year, to be made on the tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven.

First Assessment to be for three Quarters, from July 5, 1797, and afterwards for a Year, and paid Quarterly.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the said several Rates and Duties by this Act imposed, shall severally and respectively be assessed, raised, levied, collected, and received, in such and the like Form and Manner, and with such Allowances, and under such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, and according to such Rules, Methods, and Directions, as are prescribed and appointed by any Act or Acts of Parliament for assessing, raising, levying, collecting, receiving, and paying, the Duties on Houses, Windows, or Lights, granted by the Acts of the sixth and twenty-fourth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, and the Duties on inhabited Houses granted by an Act of the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, or any other Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, or by any of them, so far as the same now remain in Force, and are applicable to the said several and respective Duties, or any of them, and are not altered by this Act; and that all and every the Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Exemptions, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, now in Force, contained in the said several Acts, or any of them, or any Act or Acts therein referred to, for the assessing, raising, levying, collecting, and paying, the Rates and Duties thereby granted, shall be in full Force, and be duly observed, practised, and put in Execution, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, for the assessing, raising, levying, collecting, and paying, the several Duties by this Act granted, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Exemptions, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

Duties to be assessed, &c. as other Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for Taxes.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Monies arising by the said Rates and Duties hereby imposed, (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted,) shall, from Time to Time, be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, and shall be carried to, and made Part of the Consolidated Fund.

Duties to be carried to the Consolidated Fund.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Monies arising, or to arise, of the said Duties by this Act imposed, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient, shall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue for the Purpose of defraying the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan raised, or Stock created, by virtue of any Act or Acts passed in this Session of Parliament; and that the said Monies shall, during the Space of ten Years next ensuing, be paid into the said Receipt distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenue; and that there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt during the said Period of ten Years, a Book or Books in which all the Monies arising from the said Duties, and paid into the said Receipt, shall, together with the Monies arising from any other Rates and Duties granted, or to be granted, in this Session of Parliament, for the Purpose of defraying such increased Charge as aforesaid, be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, upon any Account whatever.

Application of Duties, which, for ten Years, are to be kept, with others granted for the same Purpose, separate from all other Monies.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person who shall serve in any Volunteer Corps raised by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force, and shall provide a Horse, Mare, or Gelding, liable to the Duties by this Act imposed, for such Service, or who shall, at his or her Expence, furnish a Horse, Mare, or Gelding, liable to the said Duties, for any Person serving in any such Corps as aforesaid, shall be charged or chargeable for such Horse, Mare, or Gelding, with the additional Duties by this Act imposed, or the former Duties imposed by an Act, passed in the thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, (An Act for granting to his Majesty new Duties on certain Horses not charged with Duty by any other Act or Acts of Parliament, and on Mules).

Duties to be under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes.

III. And be it further enacted, That for the better assessing, levying, collecting, and paying, the beforementioned Duties by this Act imposed, the Commissioners authorized or appointed, or who shall be hereafter authorized or appointed, for putting in Execution the Acts relative to the present Duties on Houses and Windows or Lights, and inhabited Houses, or any other Duties placed under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, shall be Commissioners for executing this present Act with relation to the aforesaid Duties, and the Powers therein contained, in all and singular the Counties, Shires, Stewartries, Ridings, Divisions, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, Towns, and Places respectively, within the Kingdom of Great Britain; and that the several Surveyors, Inspectors, Assessors, and Collectors, respectively appointed to put in Execution the said several Acts before mentioned, or any of them, shall be Surveyors, Inspectors, Assessors, and Collectors, to put in Execution this present Act, according to the respective Powers and Authorities given to them by the said former Acts, or any of them; and the said Commissioners, and other the Persons aforesaid, being duly qualified to act in the Execution of the said several Acts before mentioned, relative to the said former Rates or Duties, or any of them, shall, and they are hereby respectively empowered and required to do all Things necessary for putting this Act in Execution, with relation to the Duties hereby imposed, in the like and in as full and ample a Manner as they, or any of them, are or is authorized to put in Execution the said former Acts relative to the said Rates and Duties, or any Matters or Things therein respectively contained.

From April 5, 1798, Duties imposed by this Act, and 36 Geo. 3. c. 15. may be assessed in one Sum.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, it shall and may be lawful to and for the several Assessors, in making the several Assessments of two Shillings and three Shillings under this present Act, and the Act of the thirty-sixth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, before mentioned, to make one Assessment at the Rate of five Shillings for each Horse, Mare, Gelding, or Mule, assessed by this Act, instead and in lieu of the said two several Assessments; and in making the several Assessments under this present Act of the additional Duty after the Rate of twenty Pounds per Centum, and of the Duties of ten Pounds per Centum, and of ten Pounds per Centum under the Act of the thirty-sixth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, before mentioned, to make one Assessment after the Rate of twenty Pounds upon the Amount of the said respective Duties, together with such other Duties as shall be included in the same Assessment, and to return the same to the respective Commissioners, in the Manner, and under the Regulations and Directions, prescribed by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament*, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty additional Duties on the Amount of certain Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes; and that the respective Collectors shall and may collect and receive the said Duties accordingly.

First Assessment to be made for three Quarters of a Year, from July 5, 1797, and afterwards for a Year, and to be paid Quarterly.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the first Assessment under this Act of the Duties hereby imposed, shall be made for three Quarters of a Year, from the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and afterwards the Assessment of the Duties charged by this Act shall be made for one Year, from the fifth Day of April in every Year; and that the Duties, so to be assessed under this Act, shall be paid Quarterly, at the Times and in Manner following; (that is to say,) on the fifth Day of January, the fifth Day of April, the fifth Day of July, and the tenth Day of October, in every Year, by equal Portions; the first of the said Payments on the said Assessment for three Quarters of a Year, to be made on the tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven.

Duties to be ascertained, &c. as former Duties.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the several Duties by this Act imposed shall and may be ascertained, managed, collected, paid, recovered, paid over, and accounted for, under such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, and according to such general Rules, Methods, and Directions, by which the Rates and Duties on Horses kept and used for the Purpose of riding, or for the Purpose of drawing, or by which the Rates and Duties granted by the said Act of the thirty-sixth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, before-mentioned, are or may be ascertained, managed, collected, paid, recovered, paid over, and accounted for, except as far as any of the said Rules, Methods, and Directions, are expressly varied by this Act; and all and every the Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relative to the said Rates and Duties, or any of them, now in Force, and not hereby otherwise provided, for the surcharging, recovering, paying, and accounting for the said Rates and Duties, by any of the said former Acts granted, as far as the same are applicable to the Duties by this Act imposed, shall be in full Force and duly observed, practised, and put in Execution, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, for surcharging, recovering, paying, and accounting for the Duties by this Act granted, as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, feitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all Monies arising by the said Duties (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted) shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, and shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund.

Duties to be carried to the Consolidated Fund.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Monies arising or to arise of the said Duties, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient, shall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue for the Purpose of defraying the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan raised or Stock created by virtue of any Act or Acts passed in this Session of Parliament, and that the said Monies shall, during the Space of ten Years next ensuing, be paid into the said Receipt distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenue; and that there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt, during the said Period of ten Years, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies arising from the said Duty, and paid into the said Receipt, shall, together with the Monies arising from any other Rates and Duties granted or to be granted in this Session of Parliament, for the Purpose of defraying such increased Charge as aforesaid, be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, upon any Account whatever.

Application of Duties, which, for ten Years, shall, with others granted for the same Purpose, be kept separate from all other Monies.

CAP. CVII.

An Act for granting to His Majesty additional Duties on Male Servants.

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament 'assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray your Majesty's Public Expences, and 'making an Addition to the Public Revenue, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto 'your Majesty the additional Duties hereinafter mentioned; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty that 'it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, the several Duties following; that is to say,

Additional Duties to be paid for Male Servants chargeable under 25 Geo. 3. c. 43.:

That every Person who shall retain or employ two Male Servants, and no more, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, for or in respect whereof any Rate or Duty is payable by virtue of an Act passed in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, shall be charged with an additional yearly Duty of ten Shillings for each of such Servants:

For two, 10s. each:

That every Person who shall retain or employ three such Male Servants, or four Male Servants, and no more, shall be charged with an additional yearly Duty of fifteen Shillings for each such Servant:

For three or four, 15s. each:

That every Person who shall retain or employ more than four such Male Servants, shall be charged with an additional yearly Duty of one Pound for each such Servant.

For more than four, 1l. each.

II. And be it enacted, That the said additional Rates and Duties hereby imposed shall be paid over and above and in addition to the Rates and Duties on Male Servants granted by an Act passed in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, or any other Act or Acts in Force on and immediately before the passing of this Act.

Duties to be in Addition to former Duties,

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Rates and Duties by this Act imposed shall respectively be subject and liable to an additional Duty, after the Rate of twenty Pounds per Centum per Annum, on the Produce and Amount contained in any Assessment thereof.

and liable to 20l. per Cent. on the Amount.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, for the better assessing, levying, collecting, and paying, the said additional Duties by this Act imposed, the Commissioners authorized or appointed, or who shall hereafter be appointed, for putting in Execution the several Acts relative to the present Duties on Male Servants, or any other Duties placed under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, shall be Commissioners for executing this present Act with relation to the aforesaid Duties, and the Powers herein contained, in all and singular the Counties, Shires, Stewartries, Ridings, Divisions, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, Towns, and Places respectively within the Kingdom of Great Britain; and that the several Surveyors, Inspectors, Assessors, and Collectors, respectively appointed, or who shall be appointed, shall be Surveyors, Inspectors, Assessors, and Collectors, to put in Execution this present Act, according to the respective Powers and Authorities given to them by the said former Acts, or any of them; and the said Commissioners and other the Persons aforesaid, being duly qualified to act in the Execution of the said several Acts as before mentioned, shall, and they are hereby respectively empowered and required to do all Things necessary for putting this Act in Execution with relation to the aforesaid Rates or Duties hereby imposed, in the like and in as full and ample a Manner as they or any of them are or is authorized to put in Execution the several Acts relative to the several Rates and Duties on Male Servants, or any Matters or Things therein respectively contained.

Commissioners for Taxes, &c. to put this Act in Execution.

V. And

Mode of making the Assessments of 20l. per Cent. and returning them to the Commissioners.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the several Assessors, in making the Assessments under this Act of the additional Duty after the Rate of twenty Pounds per Centum, to assess the Sum of twenty Pounds per Centum upon the Amount of all the former Rates and Duties contained in any Assessment whereon the Rates or Duties of twenty Pounds per Centum are imposed by any Act or Acts of Parliament, and the Rates and Duties imposed by this Act, in one Sum, and by one Assessment and Charge, instead of distinct Assessments and Charges, and to return the same to the respective Commissioners in the Manner and under the Regulations and Directions prescribed by an Act, passed in this present Session of Parliament*, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty additional Duties on the Amount of certain Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes; and that the respective Collectors shall and may collect and receive the said Rates and Duties accordingly.

First Assessment to be for three Quarters, from July 5, 1797, and afterwards for a Year, and to be paid Quarterly.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the first Assessment under this Act shall be made for three Quarters of a Year, from the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven; and that, from and after the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, the Assessments under this Act shall be made for one Year, from the fifth Day of April in each Year; and that the Duties so to be assessed shall be paid Quarterly, at the Times and in Manner following; (that is to say,) on the fifth Day of January, the fifth Day of April, the fifth Day of July, and the tenth Day of October, in every Year, by equal Portions; the first of the said Payments on the said Assessment for three Quarters of a Year to be made on the tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven.

Duties to be assessed, &c. as others under the Management of Commissioners for Taxes.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the said several Rates and Duties by this Act imposed shall severally and respectively be assessed, raised, levied, collected, and received, in such and the like Form and Manner, and with such Allowances, and under such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, Provisoes, and Exemptions, and according to such Rules, Methods, and Directions, as are prescribed and appointed by any Act or Acts of Parliament for assessing, raising, levying, collecting, receiving, and paying over, the Duties on Male Servants granted by the said Act of the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, or any other Rates and Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, or any of them, so far as the same now remain in Force and are applicable to the said several and respective Duties, or any of them, and are not altered by this Act; and that all and every the Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Exemptions, Clauses, Matters, and Things, now in Force, contained in the said several Acts, or any of them, or any Act or Acts therein referred to, for the assessing, raising, levying, surcharging, collecting, and paying over, the Rates and Duties thereby granted, shall be in full Force, and be duly observed, practised, and put in Execution, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, for the assessing, raising, levying, surcharging, collecting, and paying, the several additional Duties by this Act imposed, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Exemptions, Provisoes, Clauses, Matters, and Things, were particularly repeated and re-enacted by this Act.

Duties to be carried to the Consolidated Fund.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Monies arising by the said Rates and Duties hereby imposed, (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted,) shall, from Time to Time, be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, and shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund.

Application of Duties, which, for ten Years, are, with others granted for the same Purpose, to be kept separate from all other Monies.

IX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Monies arising or to arise of the said Duties by this Act imposed, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient, shall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue for the Purpose of defraying the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan raised or Stock created by virtue of any Act or Acts passed in this Session of Parliament, and that the said Monies shall, during the Space of ten Years next ensuing, be paid into the said Receipt, distinctly and apart from all the other Branches of the Public Revenue; and that there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt, during the said Period of ten Years, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies arising from the said Duties and paid into the said Receipt shall, together with the Monies arising from any other Rates and Duties granted, or to be granted, in this Session of Parliament, for the Purpose of defraying such increased Charge as aforesaid, be entered, separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, upon any Account whatever.

CAP. CVIII.

An Act for granting to His Majesty certain Duties on Clocks and Watches.

'Most Gracious Sovereign,

'WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament 'assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray your Majesty's Public Expences, and 'making a permanent Addition to the Public Revenue, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant 'unto your Majesty the Duties hereinafter mentioned; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it 'may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and and ninety-seven, there shall be charged, assessed, and paid, unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, the several Duties hereinafter mentioned; that is to say,

For every Clock, 5s.:

For and upon every Clock or Timekeeper, by whatever Name the same shall be called, which shall be used for the Purpose of a Clock, and placed in or upon any Dwelling House, or any Office or Building thereunto belonging, or any other Building whatever, whether private or public, belonging to any Person or Persons, or Company of Persons, or any Body Corporate or Politic, or Collegiate, or which shall be kept and used, by any Person or Persons in Great Britain, there shall be charged an Annual Duty of five Shillings:

For every Gold Watch, or enamelled on Gold, 10s.:

For and upon every Gold Watch, or Watch enamelled on Gold, or Gold Timekeeper used for the Purpose of a Watch, by whatever Name the same shall be called, which shall be kept, and worn, or used, by any Person or Persons in Great Britain, there shall be charged an Annual Duty of ten Shillings:

For every Silver or Metal Watch, 2s. 6d.

And for and upon every Silver or Metal Watch, or Silver or Metal Timekeeper used for the Purpose of a Watch, or any other Watch, or Timekeeper used for the like Purpose, not before charged, of whatever Materials the same shall be made, and by whatever Name the same shall be called, which shall be kept and worn, or used, by any Person, there shall be charged an Annual Duty of two Shillings and Sixpence:

The said several Duties to be paid by the respective Proprietors of such Clocks, Watches, and Timekeepers.

What Watches shall be deemed Gold.

II. And be it further enacted, That every Watch, of which the outer or the inner Case shall be made of Gold, or shall be enamelled on Gold, shall be charged with the Duty hereby imposed on Gold Watches.

Duties to be under the Management of the Commissioners of Taxes.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners authorized or appointed, or who shall be hereafter authorized or appointed, to put in Execution the Acts relative to any of the present Duties placed under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, shall be Commissioners for executing this present Act, and the Powers herein contained, with relation to the Duties hereby granted, as before mentioned, in all the Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Shires, Stewartries, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, Towns, and Places respectively, within the Kingdom of Great Britain; and that the several Surveyors, Inspectors, Assessors, and Collectors, respectively appointed or to be appointed to put in Execution the said Acts relative to the said present Duties under the Management of the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, or any of them, shall be Surveyors, Inspectors, Assessors, and Collectors, to put in Execution this present Act, with relation to the Duties hereby granted, as before mentioned, according to the Powers given to them respectively by the said Acts, or any of them, and not hereby altered, or according to the Powers given to them by this Act; and the said Commissioners, and other the Persons aforesaid, being respectively duly qualified to act in the Execution of any of the said Acts before mentioned, shall and they are hereby respectively empowered and required to do all Things necessary for putting this Act in Execution with relation to the said Duties hereby granted, as before mentioned, in the like and in as full and ample a Manner as they, or any of them, are or is authorized to put in Execution the said Acts relative to the said present Duties under the Management of the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, or any Matters or Things therein respectively contained.

Duties to be ascertained, &c. as other Duties under their Management.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the aforesaid Duties by this Act granted, shall and may be ascertained, managed, collected, recovered, paid over, and accounted for, under such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, and according to such Rules, Methods, Directions, and Provisions, by which the Rates and Duties now placed under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, or any of them, are or is, or may be ascertained, managed, collected, paid, recovered, paid over, and accounted for, except as far as any of the said Rules, Methods, Directions, and Provisions, are expressly varied by this Act; and all and every the Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, contained in any Act or Acts relative to the said Rates and Duties, or any of them, now in Force, for the surcharging, mitigating, recovering, paying, and accounting for the Rates and Duties by any former Acts granted, as far as the same are applicable to the aforesaid Duties granted by this Act, and not expressly varied, or otherwise provided for, shall be in full Force, and duly observed, practised, and put in Execution throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, for surcharging, mitigating, recovering, paying, and accounting for the aforesaid Duties granted by this Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

First Meeting of Commissioners,

V. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners hereby appointed to put in Execution this Act shall, in their respective Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Shires, Stewartries, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, Towns, and Places, for which they are or shall be appointed Commissioners respectively, meet for the first Time on or before the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, or on such other Day as the said Commissioners, or any two or more of them, shall think proper to appoint, not later than the fifteenth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and proceed in the Execution of this Act in such and the same Manner as is prescribed by any Act or Acts with respect to the Rates and Duties before mentioned, under the Management of the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes (except where any Alteration is made by this Act); and the said Commissioners shall, at such their Meeting, cause Notice to be given to the Persons appointed within their respective Districts or Divisions to be Assessors or Collectors under the said Acts before mentioned, or who shall give Notice to the Assessors of their Appointment.

any of them, that such Persons are also appointed respectively Assessors or Collectors of the Duties granted by this Act.

Assessors to leave Notice yearly at the Houses of Persons liable to the Duty.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the several Persons appointed Assessors for the present Year shall, within fourteen Days after Notice of their being appointed Assessors of the aforesaid Duties hereby granted, and the several Persons to be hereafter appointed Assessors shall, within fourteen Days after such their Appointment, yearly leave Notice in Writing at every Dwelling House within their respective Districts, in or upon which any Clock, Watch, or Timekeeper aforesaid shall be placed, kept and worn, or used, or in which any Person liable to be assessed to the aforesaid Duties hereby granted shall dwell.

Notice to require the Housekeepers to prepare Lists and Declarations in the Form contained in the annexed Schedule.

VII. And be it further enacted, That every Notice to be left as aforesaid at any Dwelling House, for the Occupier or Occupiers thereof, shall require such Occupier or Occupiers to prepare and produce, within the Space of fourteen Days next ensuing the Day of giving such Notice, a List or Declaration in Writing of all the Clocks and Timekeepers used for the Purpose of Clocks, and placed in or upon such Dwelling House, and belonging either to the Owner or Owners of such Dwelling House, or to such Occupier or Occupiers; and also of all Watches, and Timekeepers used for the Purpose of Watches, kept and worn, or used, by such Occupier or Occupiers; and another List in Writing, containing the Christian and Surnames of each and every Person dwelling in such Dwelling House, whether such Persons are liable to the aforesaid Duties by this Act granted or not, and whether such Person shall be one of such Occupier's Family, or an Inmate or Lodger in such Dwelling House; which List and Declaration shall be made out by such Occupier or Occupiers in the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed.

Housekeepers to make out List and sign Declaration in 14 Days after Notice, and to require all Persons within the House to declare the Number of Clocks and Watches for which they ought to be assessed, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That every such Occupier for whom any such Notice as aforesaid shall be left, shall be obliged, within fourteen Days after such Notice being left, to make out the List, and sign the Declaration before mentioned; and shall also, within the like Period, cause the Contents of the said Notice to be read over and made known to each and every Person dwelling in such Dwelling House, Office, or Building as aforesaid, liable to the aforesaid Duties; and shall require each and every such Person to declare to every such Occupier the exact Number of the Clocks, Watches, and Timekeepers, for which he or she ought to be assessed, and to give a Description thereof, in such Manner that the Duties payable for the same may be ascertained, or to declare that such Person has not kept and worn, or used, within the Time hereinafter specified, any such Clock, Watch, or Timekeeper; which Declarations the said Occupier or Occupiers shall cause to be entered in the List or Declaration to be delivered by him, her, or them, to the Assessor or Assessors, and shall require each and every such Person to write or cause to be written his or her Christian or Surname opposite the Entry of his or her Clocks, Watches, or Timekeepers, or his or her Declaration as aforesaid; and every such Person, being required thereunto as aforesaid by any such Occupier or Occupiers, shall be obliged to make such Declaration, and to attest the same in the Manner before directed, unless such Person shall be usually resident elsewhere, out of the District of such Assessor or Assessors where such Notice shall be left, and shall be liable to be assessed in such other Place, and shall declare the Place where he or she intends to be assessed to or pay, or has been assessed to or paid, the aforesaid Duties, which Declaration shall be entered on the Return to be made by such Occupier or Occupiers, and signed as aforesaid.

Lists for the first and second Times to contain the largest Number of Clocks and Watches liable to Duty between Aug. 1, 1797, and the Time of making them out, and afterwards during the Year ending April 5, preceding.

IX. And be it further enacted, That every such List or Declaration shall, for the first and second Times of the same being required under this Act, contain the greatest Number of Clocks, Watches, and Timekeepers liable to the aforesaid Duties hereby granted, which have been placed in or upon his or her Dwelling House, Offices, or Buildings as aforesaid, or kept and worn, or used, by the respective Persons specified in such List or Declaration as aforesaid, at any one Time between the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and the Day of making a Return thereof respectively, according to the Directions of this Act; and every such List or Declaration thereafter to be made shall contain the greatest Number of such Clocks, Watches, and Timekeepers, so placed as aforesaid, or kept and worn, or used, by such Persons respectively, during the Year ending on the fifth Day of April preceding the Day of making such Return; and each Person mentioned in the List and Declaration of such Occupier, shall be liable to be charged to the full Number of his or her Clocks, Watches, and Timekeepers, which shall or ought to be inserted in such List or Declaration.

Assessors may serve Notice on Persons not being Householders, requiring them to make out separate Lists, &c.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any such Assessor or Assessors, whenever he or they shall see Occasion, to serve a Notice personally upon, or leave the same at the House where any Person liable to any of the aforesaid Duties hereby granted, and not being the Occupier of such House as aforesaid, shall reside, requiring such Person to make out, sign, and deliver a separate List and Declaration of the Number of his or her Clocks, Watches, and Timekeepers in the Manner before directed; and every such Person shall, after such Notice so served or left, make out, sign, and deliver, a List and Declaration, within the Times respectively before limited, in such Form and Manner as is herein directed to be done by Occupiers of Dwelling Houses with respect to Clocks, Watches, and Timekeepers being their own Property respectively, or in Default thereof a separate Assessment shall be made upon such Person, in the Manner before directed with respect to such Occupiers as aforesaid; and every such Person shall be liable to be assessed in the District in which such List and Declaration shall be made, unless he or she shall add to such Return a Declaration of the particular Parish or Place of his or her usual Residence where such Person intends to pay, or has been assessed to or paid, the aforesaid Duties.

XI. And

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Occupier of any Dwelling House at which any such Notice shall be left, shall, for the Space of fourteen Days after such Notice, neglect or refuse to make out such Lists or Declarations, or either of them, or shall neglect or refuse, within the said Period of fourteen Days, to make known the Contents of such Notice to each and every Person dwelling in such Dwelling House, or to require and take the Lists or Declarations of every such Person willing to make the same, or to insert the same in the Declaration of such Occupier, in the Manner herein directed, or to deliver or cause to be delivered such List and Declaration to such Assessor or Assessors, duly filled up and signed as aforesaid, when he or they shall call for the same at such Dwelling House, at any Time after the Expiration of fourteen Days from the said Notice being left, and shall not leave such List and Declaration at the Place named in the said Notice, at the Place of Abode of one of the said Assessors, within fourteen Days after such Assessor or Assessors shall have so called for the same, then such Assessor or Assessors shall, from the best Information he or they can obtain, make an Assessment upon such Occupier for or in respect of every Clock, Watch, or Timekeeper, kept and worn, or used, by such Occupier, and upon every other Person dwelling in the Dwelling House of such Occupier, for or in respect of every Clock, Watch, or Timekeeper, kept and worn, or used, by such other Person; and every such Assessment so made upon the Occupier, shall be final and conclusive upon him or her, without Liberty of Appeal therefrom, unless such Occupier shall prove on such Appeal, as is hereinafter mentioned, that he or she was not at his or her Dwelling House at the Time of leaving the said Notice, nor between that Day and the Time limited for delivering such List and Declaration to the Assessor, or shall allege and prove such other Excuse as the Commissioners for executing this Act shall in their Judgment think reasonable and sufficient, and at the Time of such Appeal shall produce upon Oath a true and full List and Declaration, made and signed as herein required, of all Clocks, Watches, and Timekeepers, placed or being in or upon his or her Dwelling House, Offices, or Buildings aforesaid, or kept and worn, or used, by him or her, or any Person or Persons dwelling in any such Dwelling House, Office, or Building as aforesaid, to the best of the Knowledge or Belief of such Occupier; and every such Assessment so made upon any such other Person shall be final and conclusive upon him or her, without Liberty of Appeal therefrom, unless such other Person shall prove that the Contents of such Notice had not been made known to him or her, or that no List or Declaration had been required from him or her, or that such List or Declaration had been given, and neglected to be inserted in the List or Declaration of the Occupier, and at the Time of such Appeal shall produce, on Oath, a true and full List and Declaration, signed by him or her, of all Clocks, Watches, and Timepieces, kept and worn, or used, by him or her, within the Time for which such List and Declaration are required to be given.

If Housholders neglect to make out Lists, &c. the Assessors shall assess them from the best Information they can obtain, which shall be final, unless certain Particulars be proved.

XII. And be it further enacted, That such Assessors as aforesaid shall not be bound by such Lists and Declarations as shall be delivered to them respectively in pursuance of this Act, but that such Assessors, and also any Surveyor or Inspector of the Duties hereby imposed, shall be at Liberty, if he or they shall find, on due Examination, that any Clock, Watch, or Timekeeper, liable to any of the Duties by this Act imposed, is omitted in such List or Declaration, to surcharge the same, and make a true Assessment upon every Person liable as aforesaid within their respective Districts, of the real Number of such Clocks, Watches, and Timekeepers, liable to the said Duties, or any of them, subject to an Appeal, at such Times and in such Manner as is directed by the aforesaid Acts relative to the present Duties under the Management of the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, or any of them; and that in all such Cases such Surcharge shall be made after the Rate of Double the Duty for every Clock, Watch, or Timekeeper, so omitted; and the Assessor, Surveyor, or Inspector, so making such Surcharge, shall be and is hereby entitled to, and shall have and receive, for his own Use, one Moiety of the Sum charged by every Surcharge which may be justly made upon any such List and Declaration.

Assessors, &c. if they find Omissions in Lists, may make Surcharges after the Rate of Double the Duties; of which they shall receive a Moiety.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the first Assessment under this Act, of the said Duties hereby imposed, shall be made for three Quarters of a Year, from the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and afterwards shall be made for one whole Year, from the fifth Day of April in every Year.

First Assessment to be made for three Quarters, from July 5, 1797, and afterwards for a Year.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the aforesaid Duties hereby granted shall be paid Quarterly, at the Times and in the Manner following; that is to say, on the fifth Day of January, the fifth Day of April, the fifth Day of July, and the tenth Day of October, in every Year, by equal Portions; the first of the said Payments upon the said Assessment for three Quarters of a Year, to be made on the tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven.

Duties to be paid Quarterly.

XV. And be it further enacted, That in respect of every Clock, or Timekeeper used for the Purpose of a Clock, which shall be erected, placed, or be in or upon any Building belonging to any Company of Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, or Collegiate, a Notice shall annually, as aforesaid, be left with any known Officer of such Company, Body Politic or Corporate, or Collegiate, who shall certify the Contents thereof to his Superior or Superiors having the Care of such Clock, Timekeeper, or Building, or to whom such Clock, Timekeeper, or Building, shall belong; or if no such Officer shall be known to the Assessor or Assessors, then such Notice shall be affixed on the outer Door of such Building, which Notice so delivered or affixed shall be deemed good and sufficient Notice, and shall be as effectual to compel the Delivery of a List and Declaration of the Names and Descriptions of the Person or Persons chargeable with the Duty hereby imposed on such Clock or Timekeeper, as if the same had been personally served on such Person or Persons; and the Duty hereby imposed on such Clock or Timekeeper shall be paid by the Company, Body Politic or Corporate, or Collegiate, to whom such Clock, Timekeeper, or Building shall belong, and the Goods and Chattels of such Company, Body Politic or Corporate, or Collegiate, to whom such Clock or Timekeeper shall belong, shall be liable in Payment of the same, in like Manner as the Goods and Chattels of any Owner of any Clock charged with the said Duty by this Act is hereby, or by any Act or Acts herein referred to, made liable for Non-payment of the said Duty.

A Notice to be left with the Officer of Companies, &c. or affixed to the outer Door of the Building on which the Clock is erected, &c.

Penalty of 10l. for not delivering Lists and Declarations, &c.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That where any Occupier of any Dwelling House, or any Officer of any Company, Body Politic or Corporate, or Collegiate, or other Person liable under the Directions before contained to deliver such List and Declaration as aforesaid to the Assessor or Assessors, shall refuse or neglect, within the Time hereinbefore prescribed, to deliver or cause to be delivered, to such Assessor or Assessors, such List or Declaration specifying the Number of Clocks, Watches, and Timekeepers, used as aforesaid by such Occupier or Occupiers, and likewise of those belonging to all such Persons dwelling within such Dwelling House, Office, or Building, as shall have respectively made to such Occupier the Declaration hereinbefore required, or belonging to such Company, Body Politic or Corporate, or Collegiate; or if any Person or Persons dwelling in any Dwelling House, and liable, under the Directions of this Act, to give to the Occupier thereof such Declaration as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse, on Demand, to give such Declaration of the Number of his or her Clocks, Watches, and Timekeepers, or to declare that he, she, or they has or have used or worn none, to such Occupier, and to sign his or her Name to such Declaration, he or she so neglecting or refusing shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of ten Pounds.

After Oct. 10, 1797, a Penalty of 10l. for having Clocks or Watches, and not having declared the same.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, if any Person shall have, keep, and use, any Clock, or Timekeeper for the Purpose of a Clock, or keep and wear, or use, any Watch, or Timekeeper for the Purpose of a Watch, liable to any Duty by this Act imposed, without having declared the same in the Manner herein directed, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds.

The Duties on Clocks in or on Dwelling Houses not enjoyed by any particular Occupier to be charged upon the Landlords.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Pre-emption or Refusal of all Ships or Vessels of War already taken, or which shall hereafter be taken, from any of his Majesty's Enemies, during the present Hostilities, with their Tackle, Furniture, and Stores, shall be offered and tendered to the Principal Officers and Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy for the Time being, for and on Behalf of his Majesty; and that the Pre-emption or Refusal of the Guns, Arms, and Ordnance Stores, found on Board such Ships or Vessels, shall be offered and tendered to the Master General and Principal Officers of his Majesty's Ordnance for the Time being, for and on Behalf of his Majesty; and in case the said Principal Officers and Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy, and Master General and Principal Officers of his Majesty's Ordnance respectively, shall think fit to purchase such Ships or Vessels, Guns, Arms, and Ordnance Stores, or any of them, the same shall be paid for (on proper Title being being made thereto) by Bills or Debentures, in the Course of the Navy and Ordnance respectively, according to such Valuation as they the said Principal Officers and Commissioners of the Navy, and Master General and Principal Officers of the Ordnance respectively, shall adjudge to be fair and reasonable: But if within six Weeks after such respective Tenders, in case such Ship or Vessel shall be brought into any Port of this Kingdom, and within a reasonable Time after such respective Tenders, in case such Ship or Vessel shall be carried into any other Part of his Majesty's Dominions, the said Principal Officers and Commissioners of the Navy, and Master General and Principal Officers of the Ordnance respectively, shall refuse to purchase, contract, or bargain for, such Ships or Vessels, Guns, Arms, and Ordnance Stores, or any of them, then, and in such Case, they the said Principal Officers and Commissioners of the Navy, and Master General and Principal Officers of the Ordnance, or any three or more of them respectively, shall give a Certificate of such Tender and Refusal under their Hands, to the Captor or Captors of such Ship or Vessel, Guns, Arms, and Ordnance Stores, or to their Agent or Agents, which Certificate, as to the Tender and Refusal of such Ship or Vessel, shall be deemed a necessary Document, (over and besides what is already required by Law,) to entitle such Ship or Vessel to be considered as a British-built Ship or Vessel, and shall be produced to the proper Officer of his Majesty's Customs, before the Captor or Captors, or their Agents, shall obtain such Certificate of the Registry thereof, as is directed, with respect to Ships or Vessels condemned as Prize, by an Act of Parliament, made in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty *, intituled, An Act for the further Increase and Encouragement of Shipping and Navigation; and which Certificate, as to such Guns, Arms, and Ordnance Stores, shall be deemed a necessary Document to entitle such Captors, or their Agents, to sell and dispose thereof to any other Person or Persons; any Thing in the said recited Act, made in the twenty-sixth and thirty-third Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, or in this present Act, to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Recital of 33 Geo. 3. cap. 66. § 15. respecting Letters of Marque.

VII. 'And whereas, by the said recited Act, made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, it is enacted, that all and every Person or Persons who shall apply to the Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, for the Time being, in order to obtain any Commission or Letter of Marque, shall make every such Application in Writing, and therein set forth an exact Description of the Ship or Vessel for which such Commission or Letter of Marque is requested, specifying the Name and Burden of such Ship or Vessel, and other Particulars therein mentioned; and that every Commander of a Private Ship or Vessel of War, for which a Commission or Letter of Marque shall be granted in pursuance of the said Act, shall produce such Commission or Letter of Marque to the Collector, Customer, or Searcher, for the Time being, of his Majesty's Customs, residing at or belonging to the Port from whence such Ship or Vessel shall be first fitted out, or to the lawful Deputy or Deputies of such Collector, Customer, or Searcher; which said Collector, Customer, or Searcher, is thereby directed to examine such Ship or Vessel; and if the same shall be found to be of such Built and Burthen, and to be manned and armed according to the Tenor of the Description inserted in such Commission or Letter of Marque, to give a Certificate thereof in Writing to such Commander, which Certificate shall be deemed a necessary Clearance before such Ship or Vessel shall be permitted to sail from that Port; and it is also by the said recited Act provided, that the Burthen of such Ship or Vessel so to be certified shall be ascertained by the Certificate of Registry granted for such Ship or Vessel under and pursuant to the Directions of the before-mentioned Act, made in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, which Certificate shall be produced to the said Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, before the issuing of any Commission or Letter of Marque for such Ship or Vessel: And whereas it may be expedient in certain Cases to dispense with the Production to the Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, of the original Certificate of Registry granted under the before-mentioned Act, made in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, previous to the issuing of a Commission or Letter of Marque under the Provisions of this Act;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain for the Time being, on the Application of any Person or Persons for a Commission or Letter of Marque to be granted for any Ship or Vessel in pursuance of this Act, that a Commission or Letter of Marque hath been already granted for such Ship or Vessel in pursuance of the said former Act made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, and that such Ship or Vessel hath cleared out of Port conformably to the above recited Provisions contained in the said former Act, and that no Opportunity hath since occurred during the Time of such Ship or Vessel being in any Port of this Kingdom, for the Owners of such Ship or Vessel, or their Agents, to obtain a Commission or Letter of Marque for such Ship or Vessel in pursuance of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners for executing the said Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain for the Time being, to order a Commission or Letter of Marque to be issued under the Provisions of this Act, for any such Ship or Vessel, upon the Production to them of an authentic Copy of the before-mentioned Certificate of Registry under the Hand of the Collector, Comptroller, or other proper Officer of the Customs; and that no Commander of any Ship or Vessel, for which such Commission or Letter of Marque shall have been so issued as last mentioned, shall, by reason of his Departure with his Ship or Vessel from his Port of Clearance before such Commission or Letter of Marque hath been obtained, be subject or liable to any Penalty or Punishment whatsoever, nor shall such Commission or Letter of Marque by reason thereof be rendered null and void; any Thing in the said former Act, made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, or in this Act, contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Admiralty may grant Letters of Marque under this Act, for Vessels having them under recited Act, upon Production of an authentic Copy of Certificates of Registry, &c.

VIII. 'And

VIII. 'And whereas the Commanders of Ships and Vessels, having Commissions or Letters of Marque, 'are directed and enjoined by their Commissions, and the printed Instructions accompanying the same, to 'transmit Accounts of their Proceedings, and the Captures by them made, and of other Particulars therein 'mentioned, from Time to Time, to the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of 'Great Britain for the Time being, or their Secretary, and to keep a Correspondence with them by all 'Opportunities that shall present: And whereas such Directions and Injunctions have been very much, if 'not totally, disregarded on the Part of Commanders of Ships and Vessels having Commissions and Letters 'of Marque;' for Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Captain, Master, Commander, or Commanding Officer for the Time being, of every Ship or Vessel having a Commission or Letter of Marque for Reprizals against any of his Majesty's Enemies during the present Hostilities, shall, during every Voyage or Cruize to be taken by such Ship or Vessel after the passing of this Act, keep a regular Journal, containing a true and exact Account of his Daily Transactions and Proceedings with such Ship or Vessel, and the Crew thereof, the Ports or Places he shall put into, or cast Anchor at, the Time of his Stay there, and the Cause thereof, the Prizes he shall take, the Nature and probable Value of such Prizes, the Times and Places when and where taken, and how and in what Manner he shall dispose of the same, the Ships or Vessels he shall fall in with, the Times and Places when and where he shall meet with them, and his Observations and Remarks thereon; also of whatever else shall occur to him, or any of his Officers or Mariners, or to be discovered or found out by Examination or Conference with any Mariners or Passengers of or in any other Ships or Vessels, or by any other Ways or Means whatsoever touching or concerning the Fleets, Vessels, and Forces of the Enemy, their Ports and Places of Station and Destination, Strength, Numbers, Intents, and Designs; and such Captain, Master, Commander, or Commanding Officer for the Time being, shall immediately on his Arrival in any Port of this Kingdom, or of any other his Majesty's Dominions, from or during the Continuance of any Voyage or Cruize undertaken after the passing of this Act, produce his Commission for such Ship or Vessel, and deliver up such Journal so kept as aforesaid, signed with his proper Name and Hand Writing, to the Collector, Comptroller, or other Chief Officers of the Customs, at or nearest to such Port, the Truth of which Journal shall be verified by the Oath of such Captain, Master, Commander, or Commanding Officer for the Time being, before such Collector, Comptroller, or other Chief Officer; (which Oath the said Collector, Comptroller, or other Chief Officer, is hereby authorized and required to administer;) and such Collector, Comptroller, or other Chief Officer, shall immediately, on the said Arrival of such Ship or Vessel, order the Tide Surveyor, or other Water Guard Officer, to go on Board such Ship or Vessel, and muster and take an Account of her Officers and Men, and also of the Number and Nature of the Guns, and whatever else shall occur to him, on such Examination, material to be known by the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain for the Time being; the Particulars of all which, such Collector, Comptroller, or other Chief Officer, shall forthwith transmit to the said Commissioners, or their Secretary for the Time being, together with such Journal so as aforesaid delivered up for the Information of the said Commissioners; and that no Ship or Vessel, having such Commission or Letter of Marque, shall be permitted to sail out of Port again after such her Arrival until such Journal shall have been delivered up as aforesaid, and until such Captain, Master, Commander, or Commanding Officer, shall have obtained a Certificate under the Hand of such Collector, Comptroller, or other Chief Officer of the Customs, that such Ship or Vessel is manned and armed according to the Tenor and Description inscribed in such Commission or Letter of Marque as aforesaid, which Certificate such Collector, Comptroller, or other Officer of the Customs, is hereby authorized and required to give gratis, in case such Ship or Vessel shall be found to be manned and armed conformably to such Description as above mentioned, and on the Delivery of which Certificate, the former Certificate of the like Nature which shall have been granted in respect of such Ship or Vessel, shall be given up to the said Collector, Comptroller, or other Chief Officer of the Customs; and if any Collector, Comptroller, or other Officer of the Customs, shall wilfully and knowingly grant any false or fraudulent Certificate for any such Ship or Vessel, he shall, for such Offence, forfeit his said Office, and be for ever incapable of holding any Office under Government, and shall also forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be recovered, with full Costs of Suit, by any Person or Persons who will sue for the same, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record, in which no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, shall be allowed; and one Moiety of the said Penalty of one hundred Pounds, when recovered, shall be paid to the Informer or Informers, and the other Moiety to the Treasurer for the Time being of the Corporation for the Support of the sick, maimed, and disabled Seamen, and of the Widows and Children of such as shall be killed, slain, or drowned, in the Service of the Merchants, for the Use of such Corporation, or where such Forfeiture shall be incurred in any of the Out Ports in which a Corporation is established for the Purposes aforesaid, then one Moiety of such Penalty shall be paid to the Trustees for the Use of the Corporation so to be established.

The Commander of every Vessel having a Letter of Marque to keep a Journal containing certain Particulars, and on his Arrival at any Port, to deliver up the same to the Chief Officer of the Customs, who shall have the Crew mustered, &c. and transmit the Particulars, with the Journal, to the Admiralty.

No Letter of Marque to leave the Port till the Journal shall have been delivered, and a Certificate obtained that it is manned and armed agreeably to the Commission.

Application of the Forfeiture.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any such Ship or Vessel so having a Commission or Letter of Marque, shall, in the Course of her Voyage or Cruize, meet or fall in with any of his Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War, or Ships or Vessels in the Service of his Majesty's Revenue of Customs or Excise, the Captain, Master, Commander, or Commanding Officer of such Ship or Vessel having such Commission or Letter of Marque, shall and is hereby required to produce to the Captain or other Officer commanding such Ship or Vessel of War, or Revenue Ship or Vessel, the said Journal, so to be kept as aforesaid, and also his Commission for such Ship or Vessel, and the Certificate given by the Collector, Comptroller, or other Chief Officer of the Customs, at the Port from whence she shall have last sailed, of her Rules to be observed by Captains of Letters of Marque on meeting Ships of War or of the Revenue.

her being manned and armed agreeably to the Description above mentioned; and such Captain or Officer commanding such Ship or Vessel of War, or Revenue Ship or Vessel, shall and is hereby required to make a Memorandum in such Journal of the Day on which it was so produced to him, and shall subscribe his Name to such Memorandum; and in case such Ship or Vessel, on Board which such Journal is required to be kept as aforesaid, shall put into a Foreign Port where there is a British Consul, or other Chief British Officer, the Captain, Master, Commander, or Commanding Officer of such Ship or Vessel so having a Commission or Letter of Marque, shall and is hereby required to produce such Journal, and also his Commission, and the Certificate above mentioned, to such British Consul, or other Chief British Officer, who shall and is hereby required also to make a Memorandum in such Journal of the Day on which it was so produced to him, and shall, in like Manner, subscribe the same; and such Captain or Officer commanding such Ship or Vessel of War, or Revenue Ship or Vessel, and such British Consul, or other Chief British Officer at such Foreign Port respectively, shall and may, by themselves, or any Person or Persons authorized or deputed by them, go on Board such Ship or Vessel so having a Commission or Letter of Marque, and muster the Officers and Crew thereof, and examine the Guns, Arms, and Ammunition, on Board the same, and if the same shall not correspond with the Commission and Certificate above mentioned respectively, such Captain or Officer, or British Consul, or other Chief British Officer, shall forthwith so communicate the same to the Secretary for the Time being to the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, for the Information of the said Commissioners.

Captains of the King's Vessels to make a Memorandum of Production of Journals therein; as shall likewise British Consuls at Foreign Ports.

Such Captains and British Consuls at Foreign Ports, to muster the Crew, &c. of Letters of Marque.

X. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Captain, Master, Commander, or Commanding Officer of any such Ship or Vessel so having a Commission or Letter of Marque as aforesaid, shall neglect or omit to keep such Journal in Manner aforesaid, or shall wilfully make, or cause or procure to be made, any false or fraudulent Entries therein, or wilfully neglect to make, or subduct, expunge, obliterate, or erase when made, any material Transaction or Occurrence relative to the Proceedings of such Ship or Vessel wherein his Majesty's Interest is in any Manner concerned, or shall refuse to produce to the Captain or other Officer commanding any Ship or Vessel of War, or Revenue Ship or Vessel, which he shall meet or fall in with in the Course of his Voyage or Cruize, or to the British Consul, or Chief British Officer at such Foreign Port, such Journal so to be kept as aforesaid, or the Commission for such Ship or Vessel, or the Certificate of the Collector, Comptroller, or other Chief Officer of the Customs at the Port from whence he shall have last sailed as aforesaid, or shall refuse to permit such Captain or Officer commanding such Ship or Vessel of War, or Revenue Ship or Vessel, or such British Consul, or Chief British Officer at such Foreign Port, or the Person or Persons by them respectively authorized for that Purpose, to come on Board such Ship or Vessel for the Purpose of mustering her Officers and Crew, and examining her Guns, Arms, and Ammunition, or shall, after his Arrival in any Port as aforesaid, sail out again without having delivered, upon Oath, such Journal so kept and signed as aforesaid, and without having produced his Commission for such Ship or Vessel, and obtained such Certificate from the Collector, Comptroller, or Chief Officer of the Customs, as before mentioned, and also delivered up to him the Certificate which shall have been before granted in respect of such Ship or Vessel; then, and in either of the said Cases, the Commission or Commissions, and Letter or Letters of Marque, granted for such Ship or Vessel, shall be null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, and such Captain, Master, Commander, or Commanding Officer, shall forfeit, for every such Offence, the Sum of five hundred Pounds, one Moiety thereof to the Use of the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, and the other Moiety, together with full Costs of Suit, to the Use of such Person as shall discover and sue for the same, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Privilege, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, shall be allowed; and moreover, in case any Captain, Master, Commander, or Commanding Officer, shall take a false Oath on delivering up such Journal as aforesaid, he shall, on Conviction thereof, incur and suffer the like Pains and Penalties as are by Law inflicted upon Persons committing wilful and corrupt Perjury; and in case any of the Offences above mentioned shall be committed out of this Realm, the same may be alleged to have been committed, and may be laid, inquired of, tried, and determined in any County in England, in the same Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had been actually done or committed within the Body of such County.

Penalty on Captains for not keeping a Journal, making false Entries, or false Oath, or not observing any of the foregoing Rules; 500 l. and Punishment as Perjury.

XI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if the Captain, Master, acting Owner, or other Person having the Command of any Merchant Ship under Convoy, shall wilfully disobey Signals or Instructions, or any other lawful Commands of the Commander of the Convoy, or shall desert the Convoy, without Notice given, and Leave obtained for that Purpose, he shall be liable to be articled against in the Court of Instance in the High Court of Admiralty, at the Suit of the King in his Office of Admiralty, for Disobedience to the Orders of the Convoy, and, upon Conviction thereof, shall be fined, at the Discretion of the said Court, in any Sum not exceeding five hundred Pounds, and shall suffer such Imprisonment, not exceeding one Year, as the said Court shall adjudge.

Penalty on Commanders of Merchant Ships under Convoy for not obeying Signals, &c. not exceeding 500 l. and one Year's Imprisonment.

XII. 'And whereas by an Act, made and passed in the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his present 'Majesty, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Seamen, and the more speedy and effectual manning his 'Majesty's Navy, it is enacted, that the Flag Officers, Commanders, and other Officers, Seamen, Marines, 'and Soldiers, on Board every Ship and Vessel of War in his Majesty's Pay, should have the sole Interest 'and Property of and in all and every Ship, Vessel, Goods, and Merchandizes, which they had taken since 'the twenty-ninth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eight, or should thereafter take, 'during the Continuance of Hostilities against France, (being first finally adjudged lawful Prize,) to be di-'vided in such Proportions, and after such Manner as in his Majesty's Proclamation therein mentioned was

29 Geo 3. c. 67.

'directed, or as his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, should direct by Proclamation or Proclamations 'thereafter to be issued; and it is by the said Act directed, that after the Sale or Sales of any Prize or 'Prizes taken by any of his Majesty's Ships of War, public Notification should be given by the Agents 'appointed for the Receipt and Distribution of Prize and Bounty Money as therein mentioned, for the 'Payment of the several Shares to the Captors, in the Manner therein particularly set forth; after which 'Notification, if any Man's Share should remain in the Hands of the Agents appointed as aforesaid, either 'belonging to such Men as should be run from his Majesty's Service, or which should not be demanded 'within three Years, then such Share or Shares so remaining in the Agents Hands, or belonging to such 'Men as should run from his Majesty's Service, should go and be paid to the Use of Greenwich Hospital: 'And whereas by an Act, passed in the twentieth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An 20 Geo. 3. c. 23. 'Act to amend an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for the Encouragment of "Seamen, and the more speedy and effectual manning his Majesty's Navy, and for making further Provisions "for those Purposes;" and by another Act, made in the twenty-first Year of the Reign of his said present 'Majesty, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Seamen, and the more speedy and effectual manning 21 Geo. 3. c. 15, 'his Majesty's Navy, it was enacted, that the Flag Officers, Commanders, and other Officers, Seamen, and 'Marines, and Soldiers, on Board every Ship and Vessel of War in his Majesty's Pay, should have the sole 'Interest and Property of and in all and every Ship, Vessel, Goods, and Merchandizes, which they had 'taken since the respective Days in the said Acts respectively mentioned, or should thereafter take during 'the Continuance of Hostilities against Spain and the United Provinces respectively, (being adjudged lawful 'Prize,) to be divided in such Proportions, and after such Manner, as his Majesty had, by his several Pro-'clamations in the said Acts respectively mentioned, directed, or as his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, 'should think fit to order and direct by Proclamation or Proclamations thereafter to be issued for those Pur-'poses: And whereas by another Act, made in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, 'intituled, An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in the twentieth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, 35 Geo. 3. 'intituled, "An Act to amend an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the En-c. 121. recited. "couragement of Seamen, and the more speedy and effectual manning his Majesty's Navy, and for making "further Provisions for those Purposes;" and also an Act, made in the twenty-first Year of the Reign of his pre-'sent Majesty, intituled, "An Act for the Encouragement of Seamen, and the more speedy and effectual man-"ning his Majesty's Navy;" and for the better Encouragement of Seamen for his Majesty's Navy; after 'reciting the first-mentioned Act of the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, and that by 'the two last-mentioned Acts of the twentieth and twenty-first Years of the Reign of his said Majesty, 'certain Provisions were made for the Distribution and Payment of Prize and Bounty Money to arise from 'Spanish and Dutch Ships and Vessels to be captured by such Ships and Vessels as should be commissioned 'by Letters of Marque; but that no sufficient Provisions or Regulations were contained in the two last-'mentioned Acts respecting such Spanish and Dutch Ships and Vessels as should be captured by his Majesty's 'Ships and Vessels of War; it was therefore enacted, that all the Provisions and Regulations in the said two 'last-mentioned Acts should extend to all such Spanish and Dutch Prizes as were made by any of his 'Majesty's Ships and Vessels of War during the Hostilities therein mentioned, and that no Lapse of Time 'should incur or be pleadable in bar of the Demands which might thereafter be made by the Commissioners 'and Governors of the Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich, under and by virtue of the said Acts as 'thereby amended, but from the passing of that Act: And whereas, during the Continuance of the Hostilities 'mentioned in the three several first above recited Acts, divers Ships and Vessels, Goods, Merchandizes, 'Treasure, and Effects, of great Value, were captured by the conjoint Operation of his Majesty's Sea and 'Land Forces, and after final Condemnation as Prize, the Proceeds thereof were paid to the Agents for the 'Captors, to be distributed in such Proportions as were established in the Navy for the Distribution of 'Prizes, or as his Majesty should think proper to direct: And whereas Doubts have arisen whether the 'Shares belonging to such Men as should be run from his Majesty's Sea Service, or which should not be de-'manded within three Years, of and in such Proportions of the Proceeds last mentioned as were allotted to 'the Sea Forces employed in different Captures, should go and be paid to the Use of Greenwich Hospital, in 'the same Manner as the like Shares of the Proceeds of Prizes taken by his Majesty's Sea Forces alone are, 'by the said first recited Act, made in the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, and by the 'said two subsequent Acts of the twentieth and twenty-first Years of his said Majesty's Reign, as amended 'by the said last recited Act, made in the thirty-fifth Year of his said Majesty's Reign, directed to be paid:' To obviate which Doubts, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Shares belonging to such Men as shall be run from his Majesty's Sea Service of and in all such Parts and Proportions of the Proceeds of the Ships, Vessels, Treasure, Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, and Effects, taken during the Hostilities mentioned in the said three first above recited Acts, by the conjoint Operation of his Majesty's Sea and Land Forces, as shall have been decreed, granted, or allotted, to his Majesty's Sea Forces, employed in making Capture thereof, and also all such Shares of and in the said Parts and Proportions of the said Proceeds as have not been, or shall not be, demanded within three Years from the Times of the respective Notification of Distribution thereof, shall go and be paid to the Treasurer of the said Hospital at Greenwich, for the Use of the said Hospital; and that all and singular the Provisions and Regulations, Clauses, Provisoes, Restrictions, Pains, Penalties, Forfeitures, Matters, and Things whatsoever, contained in the said recited Act of the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, relating to the Notification of Payment and Distribution of the Proceeds of Prizes taken by his Majesty's Ships of War, and to the making up the Accounts thereof, and also to the Payment of the Shares of run Men and unclaimed Shares of such Proceeds to and to be paid for the Use of Greenwich Hospital, &c.

Shares of Prizes taken during the Hostilities, mentioned in the three first recited Acts, jointly by the Sea and Land Forces, belonging to Sailors who have run, and Shares not demanded within three Years from Notification of Distribution,

and to the Use of the said Hospital at Greenwich, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to all such Parts and Proportions of the Proceeds of Prizes taken during the Hostilities last above mentioned by the conjoint Operation of his Majesty's Sea and Land Forces, as shall have been so decreed, granted, or allotted to his Majesty's Sea Forces, as aforesaid; any Thing in the said recited Acts, or any of them, contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Limitation of Actions.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced against any Person or Persons for any Matter or Thing by him or them done or executed by virtue of or in pursuance of this Act, such Action or Suit shall be commenced within two Years next after the Matter or Thing done, and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit shall and may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereon, and that the same was done in pursuance of and by Authority of this Act; and if afterwards a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuited, or discontinue his or their Action or Prosecution, or Judgment shall be given against him or them upon Demurrer or otherwise, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs awarded to him or them against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

General Issue.

Treble Costs.

Continuance of Act.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall continue in Force during the present Hostilities with France, the United Provinces, and Spain respectively, (as far as the Matters and Things herein contained relate to or concern the said Hostilities respectively,) and no longer; save and except all such Matters and Things as shall be depending in Judgment in the High Court of Admiralty, or other Courts of Admiralty in his Majesty's Dominions abroad, or Court of Appeal, or in any Court of Record in Great Britain, or the Plantations, in consequence of the Capture or Captures made during the present Hostilities, or of any Offence committed contrary to this Act; in respect whereof this Act shall continue in full Force until such Matters, and every Thing dependent thereupon, shall be finally adjudged and determined.

CAP. CX.

An Act for granting to His Majesty additional Duties of Customs on certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, imported into, exported from, or carried Coastwise; and on Pepper to be used and consumed in, this Kingdom.—[19th July 1797.]

'Most gracious Sovereign,

'WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament 'assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray your Majesty's Public Expences, and 'making a permanent Addition to the Public Revenue, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and 'grant unto your Majesty the several additional Duties of Customs hereinafter mentioned; and do most 'humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the eighteenth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, over and above the Duties payable by Law, the following additional Duties of Customs, in ready Money, without any Discount or Abatement whatever; that is to say, For every Pound Weight of Pepper which shall have been, or shall be, lodged or secured in any Warehouse in this Kingdom, under his Majesty's Locks, an additional Duty of Threepence; and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity: Which said Duty shall be paid to the proper Officer of his Majesty's Customs, before any such Pepper shall be delivered out of or from any such Warehouse, in order to be used or consumed in this Kingdom.

An additional Duty of 3d. on every lb. of warehoused Pepper delivered for Home Consumption.

An additional Duty of 5 l. per Cent. to be paid on the Amount of the Duties of Customs upon certain Goods imported, exported, or carried Coastwise.

II. And be it further enacted, That there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, an additional Duty of Customs, at and after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum, upon the Produce and Amount of all the several Duties of Customs payable by Law, for and upon any Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, which shall be imported into, exported from, or brought or carried Coastwise within Great Britain, except as hereinafter is excepted: Provided always, that the said Duty of five Pounds per Centum, hereinbefore granted, shall not be charged or paid for or on Account of any Prize Goods which shall be warehoused in this Kingdom, by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament made for granting Relief to the Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing Prize Goods in this Kingdom, unless and until such Goods shall be taken out of, or delivered from, such Warehouses, to be used or consumed in this Kingdom; in which Case, and before any Prize Goods now warehoused, or hereafter to be warehoused, shall be so taken out of, or delivered from, such Warehouses, the Duty of five Pounds per Centum on the Produce and Amount of the respective Duties of Customs, payable by Law on any such Goods so taken out of, or delivered from, such Warehouses, shall be first paid to the proper Officer of his Majesty's Customs: Provided also, that the said Duty of five Pounds per Centum hereinbefore granted, shall not be charged or paid on the Produce and Amount of the Duties of Customs payable, on the Importation into Great Britain of any Tea, Sugar, Wine, Tobacco, Ordinary Oil of Olives, or Callicoes, nor on the Produce and Amount of the additional Duties of Customs of five Pounds and of ten Pounds per Centum granted by an Act, passed in this present Session of Parliament, (amongst other Things,) for granting to his Majesty certain Duties of Customs on Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, imported into, exported from, or brought or carried Coastwise within Great Britain.

On Prize Goods warehoused, the additional Duty not to be paid till delivered out for Home Consumption.

Additional Duty not to be charged on Tea, &c. imported, nor on the additional Duties of Customs of 5 l. and 10 l. per Cent. granted by Cap. 15 of this Session.

III. And

III. And be it further enacted, That the additional Duties respectively imposed by this Act upon Pepper to be used in this Kingdom, shall be also subject and liable to an additional Duty of five Pounds per Centum thereon, in the same Manner and under the same Regulations as the said Duty was imposed by the Act of Parliament passed in this present Session before-mentioned, and shall also be subject and liable to the additional Duty of five Pounds per Centum granted by this present Act. Additional Duty on Pepper subject to the additional Duty of 5 l. per Cent. before granted this Session, and to the 5 l. per Cent. hereby granted.

IV. And be it further enacted, That such of the Duties of Customs by this Act granted as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called England, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in England for the Time being; and such thereof as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of the Customs in Scotland for the Time being. Duties to be under the Management of the Commissioners of Customs in England and Scotland respectively.

V. And be it further enacted, That the several Duties of Customs granted by this Act shall and may be respectively managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, answered, paid, and recovered, in such and the like Manner, and in and by any and either of the Ways, Means, or Methods by which the Duties of Customs imposed on the like Goods by an Act, passed in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, (amongst other Things,) for repealing the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, were or might be managed, ascertained, raised, levied, collected, answered, paid, and recovered; and the said Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, so by this Act respectively made chargeable with Duties of Customs, shall be and the same are hereby made subject and liable to all and every the Conditions, Regulations, Rules, Restrictions, and Forfeitures, to which the like Goods, Wares, or Merchandize were subject and liable, by any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force on and immediately before the passing of this Act; and all and every Pain, Penalty, Fine, or Forfeiture, for any Offence whatever committed against or in Breach of any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force on and immediately before the passing of this Act, made for securing the Revenue of Customs, or for the Regulation or Improvement thereof, and the several Clauses, Powers, and Directions therein contained, shall, and are hereby directed and declared to extend to, and shall be respectively applied, practised, and put in Execution, for and in respect of the several Duties of Customs hereby respectively charged, (as far as the same are applicable thereto,) in as full and ample a Manner, to all Intents and Purposes whatever, as if all and every the said Acts, Clauses, Provisions, Powers, Directions, Fines, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act. Duties to be managed as the Duties imposed on like Goods by 27 Geo. 3. c. 13.; and the Acts in force at passing this Act to extend thereto.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies from Time to Time arising by the several new and additional Duties by this Act imposed as aforesaid, (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same respectively excepted,) shall, from Time to Time, be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster; and the said Money, so paid in as aforesaid, shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund. Duties to be carried to the Consolidated Fund.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Monies to arise as aforesaid, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient, shall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue for the Purpose of defraying the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan raised or Stock created by virtue of any Act or Acts passed in this Session of Parliament; and that the said Monies, during the Space of ten Years next ensuing, shall continue to be paid into the said Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenue; and that there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt, during the said Period of ten Years, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies arising from the said Duties and paid into the said Receipt by virtue of this Act shall, together with the Monies arising from any other Duties granted, or to be granted, in this Session of Parliament, for the Purpose of defraying such increased Charge as aforesaid, be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, upon any Account whatever. Application of Duties, which, for 10 Years, are, with others granted for the same Purpose, to be kept separate from all other Monies.

CAP. CXI.

An Act for granting to His Majesty an additional Stamp Duty on Deeds.

[19th July 1797.] [See ante, Cap. 90; and post. Cap. 136.]

'Most gracious Sovereign,

'WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament 'assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray your Majesty's Public Expences, and 'making a permanent Addition to the Public Revenue, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and 'grant unto your Majesty the Duty hereinafter mentioned; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty 'that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, upon every Deed which shall be made after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, an additional Stamp Duty of ten Shillings, which Duty shall be paid over and above all Duties now payable on the Stamped Vellum and Paper, whereon such Deed shall be engrossed, written, or printed. For every Deed made after Aug. 1, 1797, an additional Duty of 10 s. to be paid.

II. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to charge any Bond or Letter of Attorney with the Duty hereby imposed, nor any Deed whatever, executed by any Party, or Act not to extend to Bonds or Letters of Attorney, &c.

or any one or more of the Parties thereto, and bearing Date before the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven.

Nor to certain Indentures of Apprenticeship, or certain Leases.

III. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to any Indenture of Apprenticeship, where a Sum or Value not exceeding ten Pounds shall be given or contracted with or in relation to the Apprentice; nor to any Lease of Lands or Tenements, for a Term not exceeding twenty-one Years, the full improved annual Value whereof, and Rent reserved thereby, shall not be more than ten Pounds; nor to any Lease for Lives, or for Years determinable on Lives, where the Fine or Consideration shall not exceed twenty Pounds, and the Rent reserved shall not exceed forty Shillings; any Thing before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Duty to be under the Management of the Commissioners of Stamps.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, for the better and more effectual levying, collecting, and paying the said Duty hereinbefore granted, the same shall be under the Government, Care, and Management of the Commissioners for the Time being appointed to manage the Duties charged on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, who, or the major Part of them, are hereby required and empowered to employ the necessary Officers under them for that Purpose, and to allow such Salaries and incidental Charges as shall be necessary; and whenever they see Occasion, to use such Stamps as shall have been provided to denote any former Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, or to cause such new Marks or Stamps to be provided to denote the said Duty as shall be requisite in that Behalf, and to repair, renew, and alter, the same from Time to Time as there shall be Occasion, and do all other Things necessary to be done for putting this Act in Execution with relation to the Duty hereinbefore granted, in the like, and in as full and ample a Manner as they, or the major Part of them, are authorized to put in Execution any former Law concerning stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper.

Persons forging, &c. Stamps, to be guilty of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall counterfeit or forge, or cause and procure to be counterfeited or forged, any Stamp or Mark, directed or allowed to be used by this Act, for the Purpose of denoting the Duty by this Act granted, or shall counterfeit or resemble the Impression of the same, with an Intent to defraud his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, of the said Duty, or shall utter, vend, or sell, any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, with such counterfeit Mark or Stamp thereupon, knowing such Mark or Stamp to be counterfeit; or if any Person shall fraudulently use any Stamp or Mark directed or allowed to be used by this Act, with Intent to defraud his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, of the said Duty; every Person so offending, and being thereof convicted, shall be adjudged a Felon, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Powers of former Acts relating to Stamps (except as hereinafter mentioned) to extend to this Act.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all Powers, Provisions, Articles, Clauses, and all other Matters and Things prescribed or appointed by any former Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Stamp Duties on Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, (except such Acts as are hereinafter mentioned,) shall be in full Force and Effect with relation to the Duty hereby imposed, and shall be applied and put in Execution, for the raising, levying, collecting, and securing, the said new Duty hereby imposed, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, as fully, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same (except as hereinafter mentioned) had severally and respectively been hereby enacted, with relation to the said Duty hereby imposed.

No Deed good, unless properly stamped.

VII. And be it further enacted, That no Deed shall be pleaded or given in Evidence, or be good, useful, or available, in any Manner whatever, unless the same shall be stamped as required by this Act.

On Payment of Duty within a limited Time, Deeds may be stampt with the additional Stamp, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That, upon Payment within the Time and in the Manner hereinafter mentioned of the Duty hereby imposed, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, or their Officers appointed for such Purpose, to stamp any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, or any Skin, Sheet, or Piece thereof, on which any such Deed or any Part thereof shall have been engrossed, printed, or written, with the additional Stamp provided or directed to be used by virtue of this Act; and also, on Payment of the like Duty, to stamp any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, on which any Deed, or any Part thereof, shall be intended to be engrossed, printed, or written, with the said additional Stamp; and no Person shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture for stamping or causing to be stamped with such additional Stamp as aforesaid, any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, on which any such Deed hath been engrossed, printed, or written, or for engrossing, printing, or writing, any Deed upon Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, before the same shall be stamped with the additional Stamp to be provided according to the Directions of this Act; nor shall any Deed be subject or liable, by virtue of this Act, to the Payment of any greater Duty than the Sum before mentioned, or to be stamped on more than one Skin, Sheet, or Piece thereof, with the said additional Stamp, or to be stamped with more than one such Stamp as aforesaid; nor shall the Duty by this Act imposed be liable to the Regulations of any Act or Acts of the present Session of Parliament*, respecting the stamping of Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, according to the Number of common Law Sheets engrossed, printed, or written thereon; any Thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Deeds not subject to be stampt on more than one Skin with the additional Stamp, &c.

* See Cap. 90.

Vellum, &c. may be brought to the Head Office to be stampt with the additional Duty before engrossed, &c. and Deeds on the former Stamps may be

And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons to bring or send any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, on which any Deed or any Part thereof is intended to be engrossed, printed, or written, to the Head Office of Stamps, or Officer to be appointed by the said Commissioners, to be stamped with the additional Stamp as aforesaid, before the same shall be so engrossed, printed, or written; or to bring or send as aforesaid any Deed which shall have been engrossed, printed, or written, on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, stamped according to the Laws in Force for stamping Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, to be stamped on any Skin, Sheet, or Piece thereof, with the said additional Stamp, within the Space of sixty Days after the Date thereof; and the said Commissioners, or their Officers, are hereby respectively required, on Payment of the Duty hereby imposed, to cause such Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, or such Deed, so brought or sent within the Time aforesaid, to be stamped according to the Directions of this Act, which Stamp shall be a sufficient Discharge for the Duty hereby granted on such Deed.

brought within 60 Days after their Date to be so stampt.

X. And be it further enacted, That all Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, which shall be to be stamped with the said additional Stamp, before any Deed or any Part thereof shall be engrossed, written, or printed thereon, shall be brought for such Purpose, and the Duty for the same shall be paid at the said Head Office; and in case any Deed shall, within sixty Days after the Date thereof, be brought to the said Head Office to be stamped as aforesaid, then the same shall forthwith, on Payment of the said Duty, be stamped with the said additional Stamp; and in case any Deed shall, within the Time aforesaid, be brought, and the Duty for the same be paid at any other Office, to be appointed by the said Commissioners, the Officer at such Office is hereby required to indorse on such Deed a Receipt for the Duty so paid, in Words at Length, bearing Date on the Day on which such Payment shall be made, and to subscribe his Name thereto, and enter an Account thereof, in a Book or Books to be provided for that Purpose, and forthwith to deliver back the said Deed to the Bringer thereof; and every such Deed, on being brought to the said Head Office, shall be forthwith stamped with the said additional Stamp, by the Officer to be appointed for that Purpose: Provided always, that if the Duty for any such Deed shall not be paid within the said Period of sixty Days before-mentioned, it shall nevertheless be lawful to bring or send such Deed to the said Head Office to be stamped as aforesaid, at any Time after the Expiration of the said sixty Days from the Date thereof, and it shall be lawful to stamp any such Deed so brought or sent after the Expiration of the said sixty Days, on Payment of the Duty hereby imposed, and the further Sum of ten Pounds by Way of Penalty, for omitting to pay the said Duty within the Period before mentioned.

Vellum, &c. to be brought to the Head Office to be stampt with the additional Duty; and Deeds may within 60 Days after the Date be there so stampt; and if the Duty be paid at any other Office, the Officer to indorse a Receipt on the Deed, &c.

If the Duty be not paid within 60 Days, the Deed may be stampt on Payment of the Duty and 10 l. Penalty.

XI. And be it further enacted, That all Monies arising by the said Duty hereby imposed, (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted,) shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, and shall be carried to, and made Part of, the Consolidated Fund.

Duty to be carried to the Consolidated Fund.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Monies arising or to arise of the said Duty by this Act imposed, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient, shall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue for the Purpose of defraying the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan raised or Stock created by virtue of any Act or Acts passed in this Session of Parliament, and that the said Monies shall, during the Space of ten Years next ensuing, be paid into the said Receipt, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenue; and that there shall be kept and provided in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt, during the said Period of ten Years, a Book or Books in which all the Monies arising from the said Duty and paid into the said Receipt shall, together with the Monies arising from any other Rates and Duties granted or to be granted in this Session of Parliament, for the Purpose of defraying such increased Charge as aforesaid, be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, upon any Account whatever.

Appropriation of the Duty, which for 10 Years shall, with other Duties granted for the same Purpose, be kept separate from other Monies.

CAP. CXII.

An Act for the Relief of certain Insolvent Debtors.—[19th July 1797.]

'WHEREAS, notwithstanding the great Prejudice and Detriment which Acts of Insolvency produce to Trade and Credit, it may be convenient, in the present Condition of the Prisons and Gaols in 'this Kingdom, that some of the Prisoners who are now confined therein should be set at Liberty:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, all and every Keeper or Gaoler of any Prison, in any County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Place, or Liberty, within this Kingdom, shall, is, and are hereby required to make a true, exact, and perfect List, alphabetically, of the Name or Names of all and every Person or Persons, who, upon the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, was or were, or at any Time since have been, under the Terms and Conditions herein mentioned, and at the Time of making out every such List shall be, really an actual Prisoner or Prisoners, in the Custody of any Keeper or Keepers, Gaoler or Gaolers, of any Prison respectively, upon any Process whatsoever, for or by reason of any Debt, Damage, Costs, Sum or Sums of Money, or Contempt for Nonpayment of Money; and an Account of the Time when such Prisoner or Prisoners was or were respectively charged in Custody, or received in Prison, together with the Name or Names of the Person or Persons at whose Suit or Prosecution such Prisoner or Prisoners is or are detained; and shall deliver the same to the Justices of the Peace, at their first or second General Quarter Session or General Session of the Peace, to be held after the passing of this Act, or at some Adjournment thereof, for such County, Riding, City, Division, Town, Place, or Liberty respectively.

Gaolers to make out Lists of Prisoners who, on Jan. 1, 1797, or since, and at the Time of making them out, were in Custody for Debt.

Lists to be delivered to the Quarter Session.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Warden of his Majesty's Prison of the Fleet, and Marshal of the King's Bench Prison, and every other Keeper and Gaoler of any other Prison in any Place or Liberty, shall severally, on the delivering in of any such List of Prisoners in their respective Custody, take an Oath, in the open Court of such General Quarter Session or General Session of the Peace, or Adjournment thereof, to the Effect following; (that is to say,) Warden of the Fleet, &c. to take an Oath on delivering in Lists.

'I A. B.

Oath.

'I A. B. upon my corporal Oath, in the Presence of Almighty God, do solemnly swear, profess, and declare, That all and every Person and Persons, whose Name or Names is or are inserted and contained in the first Part of the List by me now delivered in and subscribed, was or were, to the best of my Knowledge and Belief, upon the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, really and truly Prisoners in actual Custody, in the Prison of [insert the Name of the Prison], at the Suit or Suits of the several Person or Persons therein respectively mentioned; and also that all and every Person and Persons whose Name or Names is or are inserted or contained in the second Part of the said List now by me delivered in and subscribed as aforesaid, have, since the said first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, been committed or surrendered to the said Prison [insert the Name of the Prison] at the Suit or Suits of the several Person or Persons therein respectively mentioned; and that the Person or Persons whose Name or Names is or are therein contained, was and were, to the best of my Knowledge and Belief, really and truly Prisoners in actual Custody on the said first Day of January, as appears by the Returns made to me on his and their respective Commitments. So help me GOD.'

Oath to be administered in open Court, and entered at the End of the List.

Which the said Justices, at their first or second General Quarter Session or General Session aforesaid, or at some Adjournment thereof, within their respective Jurisdictions, are hereby empowered and required to administer in open Court; and the Words of the said Oath, herein before directed to be taken by the said Warden and Marshal respectively, and other Keeper or Gaoler of any Prison respectively, shall be entered or written at the End or Bottom of the List which shall be delivered in by them respectively, and shall be subscribed and sworn to by them respectively in open Court; and every such List which shall be so delivered in, subscribed, and sworn to, in pursuance of this Act, shall be kept by the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace of every such County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Place, or Liberty respectively, in which any such List as aforesaid shall be sworn to, for the better Satisfaction of the said Justices, and Information of all or any Prisoner or Prisoners therein named, and so as the same may, from Time to Time, be seen and examined by any Creditor or Creditors, or Prisoner or Prisoners, without Fee or Reward.

List to be kept by the Clerk of the Peace, and may be examined gratis.

Three Copies of Lists to be fixed up in, and at the Door of, each Prison 10 Days before the Session.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Keeper or Gaoler, Keepers or Gaolers, of any Prison or Gaol, is and are hereby required, ten Days at least before the first or second General Quarter Session or General Session of the Peace shall be held after the passing of this Act for the County, Riding, City, Division, Town, Place, or Liberty, in which any Prison or Gaol shall be, or which the same shall belong, to fix up, in some conspicuous Place or Places in every such Prison or Gaol, and at the most frequented and usual Gate, Door, or Entrance, into every such Prison or Gaol, three or more true Copies of the List or Lists proposed or intended to be delivered in by any such Keeper or Gaoler at the said General Quarter Sessions, or at some Adjournment thereof.

Prisoners, on Jan. 1, 1797, for Debts not exceeding 1,200l. conforming to this Act, to be discharged.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person and Persons who, on the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, were charged in any Prison or Gaol for the Nonpayment of any Debt or Debts, Sum or Sums of Money, which did not in the Whole amount to a greater Sum than one thousand two hundred Pounds, and whose Name or Names shall be inserted in any such List to be delivered in as aforesaid, taking the Oaths hereby directed to be taken, and shall perform on his or her Part what is required to be done by him or her by this Act, shall be for ever released, discharged, and exonerated, in such Manner as is hereinafter provided.

Justices, on Petitions of Prisoners, delivering Schedules of their Estates, may issue Warrants for bringing them to the Quarter Session, &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace of any County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Place, or Liberty, within this Kingdom, upon the Petition of any such Prisoner or Prisoners to any Justice or Justices of the Peace, within his or their respective Jurisdictions, upon every such Prisoner or Prisoners so petitioning, and, at the Time of his or her so petitioning, leaving with the Justice or Justices of the Peace so petitioned, a true Copy of the Schedule, containing his or her intended Discovery of his or her Real and Personal Estate, to be sworn to at the first or second General Quarter Session next ensuing after every such Petition, or some Adjournment thereof, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, or under their Hands and Seals, to require the Sheriff or Sheriffs, Keepers or Gaolers of any such Prison, within the Jurisdiction of any such Justice or Justices, to bring before the Justices at the first or second next General Quarter Session or General Session of the Peace, or any Adjournment thereof, to be held, as the Case shall happen to be, next after the Expiration of ten Days from the Date of such Warrant, for such respective County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Place, or Liberty, the Body of any Person being in the said Prison as aforesaid, with the Warrant or Warrants of his or her Detainer, together with a Copy or Copies of the Cause or Causes which he, she, or they is or are charged with in any Prison or Gaol as aforesaid, at the Time aforesaid; for which Copy or Copies of Cause or Causes, such Prisoner shall apply to the said Keeper or Gaoler of such Prison, or to the Clerk of the Papers, or other Person who shall make out and transcribe the same, at least six Days before the Time of his or her Appearance; which Warrant of every Justice or Justices, every such Sheriff and Sheriffs, Keeper or Gaoler, is and are hereby commanded to obey.

Schedules to remain with the Clerk of the Peace for Inspection.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Copy of every such Schedule which shall be left or delivered in as aforesaid, shall be and remain with the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Place, or Liberty, in which the same shall have been so left, there to remain and be inspected, from Time to Time, as Occasion shall require, by any Creditor of any such Prisoner who shall desire to inspect the same.

VII. And

VII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Debtor and Debtors who shall intend to apply to be discharged and exonerated under this Act as aforesaid, shall first cause public Notice to be inserted in three several London Gazettes, previous to such General or Quarter Session or General Session, or the Adjournment thereof, at which such Application shall be made; and if such Debtor shall be in Custody in any Gaol out of London, or the Weekly Bills of Mortality, then also in some Newspaper which shall be published in or near the County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Liberty, or Place, in the Gaol whereof he or she shall be so in Custody, containing the Name, Trade, Occupation, and Description, and the two last Places of Abode, if so many, of every such Debtor and Debtors, and the Prison wherein he, she, or they is or are confined, and of his, her, or their Intention to take the Benefit of this Act, and mentioning such Notice in such Gazette or Newspaper to be the first, second, or third Notice, according to the Time of publishing each of such Notices; for the inserting each of the said Notices in the London Gazette, or in any other Newspaper, there shall be paid each Time by every Prisoner the Sum of Four-pence and no more, the first of which said Notices shall be so inserted in the said Gazette and in the said other Newspapers, as the Case may require, twenty-one Days at the least, and the last of the said Notices six Days at the least, before any such first or second General Quarter Session or General Session, or Adjournment thereof, shall be held as aforesaid, so that as well all the Creditors who have not charged the said Debtor or Debtors in Custody, as those Creditors who have charged such Debtor or Debtors in Execution, or on Mesne Process, or otherwise, may have sufficient Notice thereof.

Debtors intending to apply for their Discharge, to give previous Notice thrice in the Gazette, &c.

VIII. 'And, to the Intent that all Creditors may have full and sufficient Time to consider the Matters and 'Things contained in the Schedule or Schedules intended to be delivered in by any Debtor or Debtors;' be it further enacted, That every such Debtor, when he or she shall (according to the Directions of this Act) publish the first Notice of an Intention to take the Benefit of this Act, he or she shall, in such Notice, declare that the Schedule containing his or her intended Discovery of his or her Real and Personal Estate (to be sworn to in Manner as by this Act is directed) is lodged in the Hands of the Keeper or Gaoler, or the Deputy of such Keeper or Gaoler, of the Prison wherein any such Debtor shall be confined, and every such Debtor is hereby directed and required to deliver such Schedule to such Keeper or Gaoler, or Deputy, as the Case may be, before he shall publish such first Notice as aforesaid, signed with his or her own Christian and Surname, to be attested by any such Keeper, Gaoler, or Deputy; and in case any Debtor shall neglect or refuse to deliver one such Schedule to such Keeper, Gaoler, or Deputy, prior to such his first Notice to be given as aforesaid, he or she, upon due Proof made of such Neglect, to the Satisfaction of the Court to which such Debtor shall make Application, shall be remanded back to Prison, there to remain until he or she shall have complied with the Directions aforesaid; and every such Keeper, Gaoler, or Deputy, is hereby directed and required to attest the Signature of the Debtor's Name to such Schedule, and to receive the same into his Custody and Charge, giving a Duplicate thereof to every such Debtor, with an Acknowledgment of his having received the Original; and he is hereby further required to deliver a true Copy of any such Schedule, signed by himself, upon Request made to him by any Creditor for that Purpose, in Writing, such Copy to be delivered to the Creditor himself, or to such Person as he shall appoint to receive the same, within three Days after Demand made; and if any such Keeper, Gaoler, or Deputy, shall neglect or refuse to conform to the Directions hereby given him respecting such Schedule, every such Keeper, Gaoler, or Deputy, so offending, shall pay the Sum of twenty Pounds to any Person who shall sue for and recover the same, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, by Action of Debt.

Debtors to deliver Schedules to the Gaoler previous to the first Notice, and for Neglect to be remanded to Prison.

Gaoler to attest Signatures to Schedules, and to give Copies to Debtors, and also to Creditors, demanding them, on Penalty of 20*l.*

IX. And be it further enacted, That the Notices to be given by every Debtor, in Manner directed by this Act, shall be to the Effect following; that is to say,

Notices to be given in the following Form,

'I [insert the Name, Trade, Occupation, and Description, and the two last Places of Abode, if so many] now confined in [insert the Name of the Prison and County], 'and not being charged in Custody, on the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-'seven, with any Debt or Debts, Sum or Sums of Money, exceeding in the Whole the Sum of one thou-'sand two hundred Pounds, do hereby give this [first, second, or third] public Notice, that I intend to take the 'Benefit of an Act, passed in the thirty-seventh Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, [here set forth 'the Title of this Act, and if it be the first Notice, then add] and I do hereby give Notice, that a true and 'perfect Schedule, containing a Discovery of all my Real and Personal Estate, hereafter to be sworn to, is 'now ready to be delivered to any Creditor applying for the same to the Keeper or Gaoler, or his Deputy, 'of the said Prison.'

And every such Notice shall be signed by the Debtor, and counter-signed by the Keeper or Gaoler, or Deputy of such Keeper or Gaoler, of such Prison.

and signed by the Debtor and Gaoler.

X. And be it further enacted, That every such Debtor as aforesaid, not being charged as aforesaid, on the said first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, with any Debt or Debts, Sum or Sums of Money, in the Whole to a greater Amount than the Sum of one thousand two hundred Pounds, who shall apply to the General or Quarter Session, or any Adjournment thereof, shall, in case it shall be proved upon Oath, or by producing the said three Gazettes and Newspapers before mentioned, to the said Justices at any such Session, or the Adjournment thereof, that such Notices were inserted in the London Gazette, and other Newspapers where required in Manner aforesaid, and that the Person or Persons so applying was or were actually a Prisoner or Prisoners on the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, in the Prison or Gaol in which his, her, or their Name or Names is or are specified in the List delivered in at such first or second Session, or any Adjournment thereof, or in some other Prison or Gaol, Debtors applying at the Session, proving Notices were duly inserted, shall, in open Court, deliver in signed Schedules, and take the following Oath.

Gaol, as aforeſaid, in purſuance of this Act, ſhall, in open Court, at the ſaid General Quarter Seſſion or General Seſſion, or any Adjournment thereof, ſubſcribe and deliver in a true Schedule or Account of all his or her Real Eſtate, in Poſſeſſion, Reverſion, Remainder, or Expectancy, and alſo the Whole of his or her Perſonal Eſtate, which he or ſhe, or any Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for him or her, or for his or her Uſe, Benefit, or Advantage, is or are ſeiſed of, intereſted in, or entitled to, or was or were in his or her Poſſeſſion at any Time ſince his or her Commitment to Priſon, with the Names of his or her ſeveral Debtors, and where they reſpectively live, or may be met with; and the ſeveral Sums of Money from them reſpectively owing, and how the ſame reſpectively became due, and are ſecured, and if by Mortgage, Specialty, Contract, Note, or other Writing, then the Name and Names, and Places of Abode, of the ſeveral Witneſſes who can prove ſuch Debts or Contracts, (if there be any ſuch,) and ſhall alſo make Oath and ſwear to the Effect following; (that is to ſay,) XXVIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Keeper or Keepers, Gaoler or Gaolers, or any Deputy Keeper or Gaoler of any Priſon, ſhall, in taking of the aforementioned Oaths, forſwear and perjure themſelves, and ſhall thereof be lawfully convicted, ſuch Keeper or Gaoler, or deputed Keeper or Gaoler, of ſuch Priſon or Priſons, (over and above the Penalties to be inflicted on Perſons convicted of Perjury,) ſhall, upon every ſuch Conviction, forfeit and pay the Sum of five hundred Pounds, to be recovered with full Coſts, by Bill, Plaint, or Information, or Action of Debt, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, ſhall be allowed, by and in the Name of ſuch Perſon or Perſons, his and their Executors and Adminiſtrators, to whom any Aſſignment or Conveyance, Conveyance, in pursuance of this Act, shall be made, of the Estate and Effects of such Prisoner or Prisoners, and if no such Assignee or Assignees shall be living, then in the Name or Names of any other Creditor or Creditors, who shall sue for the said Penalties, to be applied, one Moiety to the Informer or Informers, and the other Moiety towards Satisfaction of the Debts of such his Creditor or Creditors.

Penalty on Clerks of the Peace refusing to give Copies of Adjudications of Discharges, &c.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, or Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, shall delay or refuse to give every or any such Prisoner, adjudged to be entitled to his Discharge as aforesaid, within fourteen Days after such Adjudication, a Copy of the Order of Adjudication, on the Payment of two Shillings and Sixpence, or shall take more than the Sum of two Shillings and Sixpence for such Copy, or shall take more than one Shilling for an Assignment or Conveyance of such Prisoner's Estate and Effects, every such Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, or Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, who shall so offend, and who shall be convicted at any such General or Quarter Session of the Peace, or any Adjournment thereof, of any such Offence, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay to every such Prisoner, the Sum of twenty Pounds, as the Justices of the Peace, at such General or Quarter Session of the Peace, or Adjournment thereof, shall order, and who are hereby empowered to cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods of any such Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, or Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace so offending.

Debtors forswearing, to be deemed guilty of Perjury.

XXX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Debtor as aforesaid, who shall take the Benefit of this Act, shall wilfully forswear and perjure himself, herself, or themselves, in any Oath to be taken under this Act, and shall be lawfully convicted thereof, he, she, or they, so offending, shall suffer such Punishment as by Law may be inflicted on Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Persons discharged not liable for Debts prior to Jan. 1, 1797.

XXXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person entitled to the Benefit of this Act shall, at any Time hereafter, be imprisoned by reason of any Judgment or Decree obtained for Payment of Money only, or for any Debt, Bond, Damages, Contempts for Nonpayment of Money, Costs, Sum or Sums of Money contracted, incurred, occasioned, owing, or growing due, before the said first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven; but that upon every Arrest upon every Judgment, or such Decree, or for such Debts, Damages, Contempts, Costs, Sum and Sums of Money, it shall and may be lawful for any Judge of the Court where the Process issued, or for any two Justices of the Peace, upon shewing the Copy of the Order of Adjudication as aforesaid, to release and discharge out of Custody such Prisoner or Prisoners as aforesaid, and at the same Time to order the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in such Suit or Suits to pay such Prisoner or Prisoners the Costs he, she, or they shall have incurred on such Occasion, or so much thereof as to such Judge or Justices shall seem just and reasonable; and every such Judge is hereby empowered so to do on such Prisoner's causing a Common Appearance to be entered for him in every such Action or Suit.

Prisoners not discharged of Debts incurred subsequent to Jan. 1, 1797.

XXXII. 'And whereas, under former Acts of this Kind, Doubts have arisen what was to be done with 'such Prisoners who applied at any Session to be discharged, who owed and stood charged with Debts, as 'well previous as subsequent to the Day limited by the respective Acts;' to remedy which, be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Prisoner or Prisoners shall be discharged of any Debts incurred subsequent to the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven; and if it shall appear to the Justices, at any Session or Adjournment, that any Prisoner or Prisoners, then applying to them to be discharged, shall stand charged as well with Debts previous to as subsequent to the said first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, that, in such Cases, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices to discharge the Person of such Prisoner on account of all Debts incurred previous to the said first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and to remand him or her back to the Custody of the Keeper of the Prison from whence he or she was brought, for all Debts with which he or she stands charged with in his Custody, incurred subsequent to the said first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven.

Prisoners who, on Application as Insolvent Debtors, have been remanded back, and since discharged, without their Consent, entitled to the Benefit of this Act.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Person, being a Prisoner, charged in Execution on the said first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and having before or since that Day petitioned any Court to be discharged as an Insolvent Debtor, and having conformed to the several Provisions of the Laws in being for that Purpose, shall have been brought up, and by the Court, before which such Prisoner was so brought up, remanded back to the Prison or Gaol from which such Prisoner was brought up, there to continue in Execution on the undertaking of his or her Plaintiff or Plaintiffs to pay to him or her two Shillings and Four-pence Weekly and every Week, or such other Allowance as by Law is directed to be paid in such Case*, during such Time as such Prisoner should remain in Execution at the Suit of such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, and such Prisoner so continued in Execution shall have been or shall be discharged from such Execution by his or her Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, without his or her own Privity or Consent, subsequent to the said first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and before the Day whereon he or she might otherwise have applied to take the Benefit of this Act, every such Prisoner shall be entitled, notwithstanding such Discharge, to the same Relief and Advantage, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, which he or she might or could have otherwise obtained by virtue of this Act; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

* [See ante c. 85, of this Session.]

Act may be pleaded to any Action of Escape.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action of Escape, or any Suit or Action, be brought against any Justice or Justices of the Peace, Sheriff, Keeper, or Gaoler of any Prison, for performing their Office, in pursuance of this Act, they may plead the General Issue, and give this Act in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff be nonsuited, or discontinue his Action, or Verdict pass against him, or Judgment upon Demurrer, the Defendant shall have Treble Costs.

XXXV. And

Act may be pleaded generally by Prisoners, &c.

XXXV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Scire Facias, or Action of Debt or upon Judgment, shall be brought against any Prisoner, his or her Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, upon any Judgment obtained against any such Prisoner, or on any Statute or Recognizance acknowledged by him or her, before the said first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, with respect to Prisoners in actual Custody upon the said first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, it shall and may be lawful for any such Prisoner, his or her Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, to plead generally that such Prisoner was actually a Prisoner in such Prison, or in some other Prison, at such a Person's Suit on the said first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and was or were duly discharged, according to this Act, at the General Quarter Session, or General Session, or Adjournment thereof, held at such Time and Place for such County, Riding, Division, Liberty, City, Town, or Place, (as his, her, or their Case is,) without pleading any Matter specially; and in case any other Suit or Action shall be commenced against him, her, or them, for any other Debt, Sum or Sums of Money, due before the said first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, to plead in Discharge of his or her Person from Execution, (over and above such Matters as aforesaid,) that such Debt or Sum of Money (as the Case shall happen) was contracted or due before the said first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, without pleading any other Matter specially; whereto the Plaintiff shall or may reply generally, and deny the Matters pleaded as aforesaid, or reply any other Matter or Thing which may shew the said Defendant not to be entitled to the Benefit of this Act, or not duly discharged according to it, in the same Manner as the Plaintiff might have replied in case the Defendant had pleaded this Act, and his Discharge, by virtue of this Act, specially; and if the Plaintiff be nonsuited, discontinue his Action, or Verdict pass against him, or Judgment on Demurrer, the Defendant to have Treble Costs.

Act not to extend to Attornies, or Servants embezzling Money;

XXXVI. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to release or discharge any Attorney at Law, or Solicitor, or any other Person or Persons acting, or pretending to act as such, with regard to any Debt with which he or they shall stand charged for any Money, or other Effects, recovered and received by him or them, for the Use of any Person or Persons, Bodies Corporate or Politic, and by any Attorney, Solicitor, or other Person or Persons acting as such, embezzled, concealed, or converted to his or their own Use; or to release or discharge any Servant, or Agent, or any other Person or Persons employed or intrusted as such, with regard to any Debt or Demand with which he, she, or they shall stand charged for or on account of any Money, Goods, or other Effects, received or possessed by him, her, or them, for the Use and on account of his, her, or their Master or Masters, or Employers, and by such Servant or Agent embezzled, concealed, or converted to his, her, or their own Use; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

nor to Persons obtaining Money, &c. on false Pretences;

XXXVII. 'And whereas many evil-disposed Persons, to support their profligate Way of Life, have, by 'various subtle Stratagems, Threats, and Devices, fraudulently obtained divers Sums of Money, Goods, 'Wares, Merchandizes, Bonds, Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, or other Securities for Money, to the 'great Injury of industrious Families, and to the manifest Prejudice of Trade and Credit;' be it enacted, That no Prisoner, who knowingly and designedly, by false Pretence or Pretences, shall have obtained from any Person or Persons Money, Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, Bonds, Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, or other Securities for Money, shall have or receive any Benefit or Discharge by or under this Act; but the Justices at any General or Quarter Session of the Peace, or any Adjournment thereof, before whom any such Prisoner shall be brought, upon due Proof of the Matter, made to their Satisfaction, shall remand such Prisoner to the Custody of the Gaoler or Keeper of the Prison from whence he or she shall have been brought; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

nor to Persons removing Effects of the Value of 50l. liable to be distrained for Rent;

XXXVIII. 'And whereas many Debtors, for Rents of Lands, Messuages, Houses, or other Premises, 'have, with fraudulent Intent to disappoint the Right of their respective Landlords, removed the Stock, 'Cattle, Furniture, Goods, or other Effects, which were subject and liable to be distrained for the Satisfac-'tion of the said Rents;' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Prisoner or Prisoners, who, in a secret, clandestine, or fraudulent Manner, shall have removed, or caused to be removed, within six Years before the passing of this Act, any such Stock, Cattle, Furniture, Goods, or Effects, of the Value of fifty Pounds or upwards, which were subject or liable to be distrained by their respective Landlords for or in Payment of such Rent or Rents, whereby such Landlord or Landlords shall have lost all or some Part of the Rent or Rents due to him, her, or them, as aforesaid, shall be discharged by or under this Act, but shall, on due Proof of the Matter as aforesaid, be remanded in Manner hereinbefore mentioned; any Thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

nor to Persons selling or assigning Effects subsequent to their Imprisonment without just Cause to be allowed by the Court.

XXXIX. 'And whereas many Debtors have, with a View to defraud their Creditors, sold, transferred, 'conveyed, or assigned, their Estate and Effects to some Person or Persons, subsequent to their being in 'Custody of Law, or imprisoned under some Process for Debt: And whereas such Sale, Transfer, Con-'veyance, or Assignment, hath been fraudulently made, to the infinite Prejudice of the fair and honest 'Creditor, though sufficient Proof could not be obtained to convict the Party of a fraudulent Design:' Be it enacted, That whenever it shall be proved, by one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, to the Satisfaction of the Court to which any Prisoner shall be brought up in order to obtain his or her Discharge, that such Prisoner has sold, transferred, conveyed, or assigned, to any Person or Persons, all or any Part of his Estate or Effects, subsequent to the Time of his Imprisonment, without just Cause for so doing, to be allowed by the Justices presiding in such Court as aforesaid, every such Debtor shall lose all the Benefits and Advantages that he might otherwise have claimed under the Authority of this Act, and shall not be entitled to his or her Discharge; and every such Sale, Transfer, Conveyance, or Assignment, is hereby declared to be null and void.

XL. And

Gaolers to permit Prisoners to be spoken with, &c. on Penalty of 40*l*.

XL. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Gaoler or Keeper of any Prison shall and is hereby required to suffer, in the Day-time, any Person or Persons desiring the same, to see and speak, in the Lodge, or some convenient Room in the said Prison, with any Prisoner or Prisoners, whose Names are inserted in the before-mentioned List or Lists, or the London Gazette, or other Newspapers, or any of them, and also to see, in the true and genuine Books of the said Prison, the Entries made of the Name or Names of such Prisoner or Prisoners, Debtor or Debtors, together with the Name or Names of the Person or Persons at whose Suit or Suits he, she, or they are or were detained; and if any such Gaoler or Keeper shall refuse or neglect to comply with what is hereby above required, every such Gaoler or Keeper who shall so offend in the Premises shall forfeit and pay to the Person so refused and aggrieved the Sum of forty Pounds, to be recovered, with Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of the Courts at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, shall be allowed, by and in the Name or Names of the Person or Persons so refused and aggrieved.

Gaolers making false Entries, &c. to forfeit 500*l*.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That if any Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, of any Prison or Prisons, shall make or cause to be made any false Entries, in any Book or Books belonging to any Prison or Gaol under his Care, or of which he is or was Gaoler, or shall prepare or keep, or cause to be prepared or kept, any false Book or Books, in order for any false or untrue Entry or Entries to be made therein, or shall insert in any List to be delivered in as aforesaid, the Name or Names of any Person or Persons who was not in actual Custody as aforesaid, (except as in the Oath of every such Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, shall be excepted,) every such Gaoler or Keeper, or deputed Gaoler or Keeper, shall, over and above the Penalties which he shall be liable to for every such Fraud, forfeit and pay the Sum of five hundred Pounds, to be recovered, with Treble Costs of Suit, by and in the Name and for the Use of any Person or Persons, who shall be prejudiced by any such false Entry or Entries; which Penalties shall and may be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, wherein no Essoin, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, shall be allowed.

Debtors refusing to appear, or to discover the Abode, &c. of the Person detaining them, &c. to be excluded the Benefit of this Act.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That if any Debtor, being thereunto required by any Creditor, shall refuse to discover and declare the Trade or Occupation, and Habitation or last Place of Abode, of the Person or Persons at whose Suit he or she is or was detained or charged in Custody, or if any Prisoner being called for and desired by any Creditor or Creditors [shall refuse] to come to the Lodge of the Prison in which any such Prisoner shall be confined, without some reasonable Cause being made appear to the contrary, every such Debtor, upon Proof being made thereof before the Justices at any General or Quarter Session of the Peace, or any Adjournment thereof, to be held as aforesaid, shall not have or receive any Benefit or Discharge by or under this Act; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Justices may hold a Session at or near the County Gaol.

XLIII. 'And whereas there is but one Common or County Gaol for each of the respective Counties of 'York or Lincoln, which said Counties are each of them divided into several Ridings or Divisions, all of 'which have several Commissions of the Peace; and if the Gaoler of these Gaols be obliged to carry the 'Debtors, Prisoners therein, to the Quarter Session of such Riding or Division, the same will be a very 'great Charge, not only to such Gaoler, but also to the Prisoners, in these large Counties;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for two or more Justices of the Peace for any of the Ridings or Divisions in the respective Counties, (or any other County or Counties where the Prisons are at a Distance from the Place where the Sessions are held,) at the Common or County Gaol thereof respectively, or at some convenient Place near thereto, and they are hereby required to assemble and meet, and to hold Session there, by Adjournment from their respective Quarter Session from Time to Time, for the Discharge of the respective Prisoners therein, according to the Powers, Limitations, and Directions of this Act.

Justices for the District of Holland in Lincolnshire may adjourn to or near the County Gaol, &c.

XLIV. 'And whereas the District or Division of Holland, in the said County of Lincoln, is distant near 'forty Miles from the said County Gaol, and it is highly inconvenient and expensive for the Justices of the 'Peace acting for the said Division to be obliged to travel to the said Gaol for the sole Purpose of discharging 'the Prisoners under the Powers by this Act given;' be it therefore enacted, That for the several Purposes aforesaid, the Justices for the said Division or District of Holland may adjourn their original Sessions to the County Gaol, or some Place near thereunto; and it shall and may be lawful for any two Justices of the Peace, acting either for the Parts of Lindsey, Kesteven, or Holland, to hold such adjourned Sessions for the sole Purpose of discharging such Prisoners; Notice of the Adjournment of such original Sessions being given by the Clerk of Sessions to such Justices, and who shall attend there to register the Proceedings of the said Court, so far as the same relate to or affect the Discharge of any Prisoner detained for Debt in the Division of Holland, and claiming the Benefit of this Act.

Justices for Surrey may adjourn to Southwark.

XLV. 'And whereas the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County of Surrey, which 'shall happen after the passing of this Act, may be in the Country, and upwards of twenty Miles from any 'of the said Prisons;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for such Justices as shall be assembled at the General Quarter Session of the Peace to be holden for the County of Surrey, next after the passing of this Act, and they are hereby required forthwith to adjourn the said Sessions to the Borough of Southwark, for the Purpose of administering the Oaths required to be taken and subscribed by this Act, by the several Gaolers within the said County, and for the Discharge of Prisoners or other Debtors, according to the Powers, Limitations, and Directions of this Act.

Prisoners in Custody for Fees, &c. to be discharged.

XLVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Debtors and others, who were in Prison on or before the said first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, in any of the Gaols of this Kingdom, and now remain there for not paying their Fees, Rents, or other Demands, due or claimed as due, to the Keeper or Keepers of any Prison respectively, or to any other Officer of such Prison, and upon no other Account, shall be discharged therefrom, he, she, or they taking the Oath by this Act required to be taken by Prisoners.

Act not to extend to Debtors to the Crown, or to the Revenue, unless the Treasury certify their Consent.

XLVII. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to discharge any Person seeking the Benefit of this Act, with respect to any Debt or Penalty with which he or she shall stand charged, at the Suit of the Crown or of any Person, for any Offence committed against any Act or Acts of Parliament relative to his Majesty's Revenues of Customs, Excise, Stamps, or Salt Duties, or any of them, or any other Branches of the Public Revenue, or at the Suit of any Sheriff or other public Officer, upon any Bail Bond entered into for the Appearance of any Person prosecuted for any Offence committed against any Act or Acts of Parliament relative to his Majesty's said Revenues of Customs, Excise, Stamps, or Salt Duties, or any other Branches of Public Revenue, unless any three of the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury for the Time being shall certify their Consent under their Hands to the Justices at their said Sessions, or Adjournment thereof, for the Discharge of such Prisoner as aforesaid.

Determination of Justices to be final, unless the Prisoner get rid of the Objections to his Discharge, &c.

XLVIII. 'And whereas, under former Acts, Creditors have been put to great Expence and Trouble, in 'attending every Session and Adjournment, during the whole Continuance of the Act, to oppose the Dis-'charge of Debtors clearly excluded from any Benefit under the said respective Acts, but who, after having 'been before one Session heard, and refused a Discharge, to harass their Creditors, constantly gave fresh No-'tices for each subsequent Session and Adjournment, of their intended Application to be discharged:' To remedy which, be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases whatever, the Determination of the Justices in Session or Adjournment shall be final to all Intents and Purposes, unless the Debtor shall, during the Continuance of this Act, get rid of the Objection or Objections for which they refused his Discharge; and that the same may be clear and certain, the Justices are hereby required to state the Objections why such Debtor's Discharge is refused by them; and in all Cases whatever, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices, at any subsequent Session or Adjournment, upon any Application from the Prisoner, upon due Proof on Oath made to them, by two or more credible Witnesses, (which Oath they are hereby empowered to administer,) of each Objection or Objections being removed, and on Proof of Notice served, at least ten Days previous to such Application, on the Creditor or Creditors who before opposed his Discharge, and of Notice likewise inserted in the Gazette, in Manner before directed by this Act, to order such Prisoner to be brought before them, and, if they shall then be of Opinion the said Debtor is entitled to the Benefit of this Act, to adjudge him or her to be entitled to the Benefit of this Act; and if a Prisoner, to order him or her to be discharged, he or she taking the Oath, and in all other Respects conforming to the Directions of this Act.

Estates, of which Prisoners are seised in Tail, to be delivered up to Creditors; as if a Fine or Recovery were had.

XLIX. 'And whereas it may happen that several Persons who may claim and be entitled to the Benefit of 'this Act, are seised of an Estate Tail in some Freehold or Copyhold Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, which Entail, with the Remainders thereon expectant, they have by Law Power to defeat and bar, 'either by levying a Fine or Fines, suffering a Common Recovery or Common Recoveries, or by Surrender or Surrenders thereof, whereby such Person or Persons said Freehold or Copyhold Lands, Tenements, 'and Hereditaments would be liable to the Payment of their Debts, and be delivered up, according to the 'Terms of this Act, for the Benefit of their Creditors:' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in every such Case such Person or Persons so seised as aforesaid, and who shall be entitled to and claim the Benefit of this Act, shall, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever in Law, be deemed and taken, and is and are hereby declared, to be seised of such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in Fee, and the same shall be delivered up to such Creditor or Creditors of every such Prisoner, in the same Manner as if such Person or Persons had actually levied a Fine, suffered a Common Recovery or Recoveries, or made a Surrender or Surrenders thereof, and thereby had become seised in Fee; any Law or Construction of Law to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Assignees may apply for the further Examination of Debtors to two Justices.

L. 'And whereas many Persons who may be entitled to and claim the Benefit of this Act, have been 'great Dealers or otherwise engaged in large Transactions, whereby they may be entitled to sundry and great 'Debts and Demands of various and intricate Natures, and they may be entitled to Equities of Redemption of Estates subject and liable to Mortgages, Judgments, or other Incumbrances, or to Reversions, 'Remainders, or other contingent Estates, in Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or to other Trusts or 'Interests in Estates, both Real and Personal, which may not be sufficiently described or discovered in the 'Schedule or Inventory before directed to be delivered in upon Oath by the Prisoner to be discharged as 'aforesaid, or which may want his Aid and Assistance to adjust, make out, recover, or manage, for the 'Benefit of his Creditors;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the respective Assignees of the Estate and Effects of such Debtor or Debtors, who shall obtain his, her, or their Discharge in pursuance of this Act, or any other Person or Persons duly authorized by them for that Purpose, from Time to Time, to apply to any two or more of the Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Place, or Liberty, where such Debtor or Debtors shall be then residing, thereby desiring that such Debtor or Debtors may be further examined as to any Matters or Things relating to his, her, or their Estate or Effects, whereupon such Justices shall send for or call before them such Debtor or Debtors, by such Warrant, Summons, Ways, or Means, as they shall think fit;

Justices to call before them Debtors, and if and, upon such Debtors' appearing, shall examine him, her, or them, as well upon Oath as otherwise, as to such Matters and Things as such Assignee shall desire, relating to the Estate and Effects of such Debtor or Debtors; and if any Debtor or Debtors (on Payment, or Tender of Payment, of such reasonable Charges as such Justices shall judge sufficient) shall neglect or refuse to come or appear, not having a lawful Excuse, to be made known to such Justices, and by them allowed, or being come before them, shall refuse to be sworn, or to answer to all such Questions as by such Justices shall be put to him, her, or them, relating to the Discovery of his, her, or their Estate or Effects so vested, or intended to be vested, in such Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, or such Assignees as aforesaid, then it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justices, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to apprehend such Debtor or Debtors so offending as aforesaid, and him, her, or them to commit to the Common Gaol, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, until such Time as he, she, or they shall submit him, her, or themselves to such Justices, and answer upon Oath to all such lawful Questions as shall by such Justices be put to him, her, or them, for the Purposes aforesaid.

they refuse to appear, &c. may commit them.

LI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every such Person and Persons who shall, within ten Months after the Discharge of such Prisoner or Prisoners, voluntarily come in and make a Discovery of any Part of such Debtor or Debtors Real or Personal Estate as shall not be comprized in such Schedule as aforesaid, before any such Justices aforesaid, shall be allowed after the Rate of twenty Pounds per Centum out of the Net Produce of such Debtor or Debtors Estate which shall be recovered on such Discovery, and which shall be paid to such Person or Persons so discovering the same, by the Assignee or Assignees of such Debtor's Estate and Effects.

Reward of 20*l.* per Cent. for discovering any Part of Debtor's Estate not comprized in Schedule.

LII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That notwithstanding the Discharge of any Debtor or Debtors by virtue of this Act, if it shall hereafter appear the same was obtained fraudulently, or that any Part of the Oath taken by any such Debtor was not true, then, and in every such Case, every such Discharge shall be void and of none Effect.

Discharge of Prisoner fraudulently obtained, void.

LIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful at all Times hereafter for any Assignee or Assignees of the Estate or Effects of any Debtor or Debtors, who shall be chosen in pursuance of this Act, by and with the Consent of the major Part in Value of the Creditors of such Debtor or Debtors, who shall be present at a Meeting to be had on twenty-one Days' Notice being previously given for the Purpose hereafter mentioned, in The London Gazette, if the Debtor was in Custody in London, or within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and if not, then also in some Newspaper which shall be published in the County, City, or Place in or near which such Person or Persons shall have been in Gaol, to make Compositions with any Person or Persons, or Accountants to such Debtor or Debtors, where the same shall appear necessary or reasonable, and to take such reasonable Part of any such Debt as can upon any such Composition be gotten, in full Discharge of such Debts and Accounts; and also to submit any Difference or Dispute between such Assignee or Assignees, and any Person or Persons, for or on Account or by Reason or Means of any Matter, Cause, or Thing, relating to the Estate or Effects of such Debtor or Debtors, or to any Debt or Debts due, or claimed to be due, to or from such Debtor or Debtors, to the final End and Determination of Arbitrators, to be chosen by the said Assignee or Assignees, and the major Part in Value of such Creditors, and the Party or Parties with whom they shall have such Difference, and to perform the Award of such Arbitrators, or of any Umpire to be chosen by them, or otherwise to settle and agree the Matters in Difference and Dispute between them, in such Manner as the said Assignee or Assignees, with such Consent as aforesaid, shall think fit and can agree, and the same shall be binding to all the Creditors of such Debtor or Debtors; and every such Assignee or Assignees is and are hereby indemnified for what they shall fairly do in the Premises in pursuance of this Act.

Assignees, with Consent of Majority in Value of Creditors, may compound for Debts due to Prisoners, and submit Disputes to Arbitration.

LIV. 'And, for the better Discovery of the Estate and Effects of any Debtor who shall be discharged by 'virtue of this Act,' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Person or Persons who shall have accepted of any Trust or Trusts, and shall wilfully conceal or protect any Estate, Real or Personal, of any such Debtor from his Creditors, and shall not, within thirty Days after any Assignee or Assignees shall, in pursuance of this Act, be chosen of any such Debtor's Estate, discover and disclose to such Assignee or Assignees such Trust and Estate, in Writing, and deliver up or make over the same to such Assignee or Assignees, he, she, or they so offending, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, and also double the Value of the Estate, either Real or Personal, so concealed, to and for the Use of the Creditors of any such Debtor, to be recovered by Action of Debt in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, in the Name or Names of the Assignee or Assignees of such Debtor's Estate, together with Treble Costs of Suit.

Penalty for concealing Effects of Debtors; &c.

LV. 'And whereas Provision ought to be made as to what should become of the Estate and Effects of 'any Debtor or Debtors not got in, obtained, or recovered, by any Assignee or Assignees chosen pursuant to 'the Directions of the several Acts at the Time of his or their Death or Deaths, and whose Heir or Heirs, 'Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, refuse to act or meddle therein:' To remedy which, be it enacted, That in all such Cases it shall and may be lawful to and for the Creditors of every such Debtor or Debtors to chuse a new Assignee or Assignees, in Manner and Form as hereinbefore is directed, and to obtain a new Assignment from the Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, pursuant to the Order of the Justices, and which said Order the said Justices are hereby required and empowered to direct (on due Proof on Oath being made to them of the Death of such former Assignee or Assignees, and Refusal of his or their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, to act or meddle therein); and the said Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as If Assignees die, others may be chosen, &c.

Clerk of the Peace, are hereby empowered to obey the same, and execute such Assignment accordingly, in Manner and Form as if no former Assignment had ever been made, the said Assignee or Assignees, Clerk of the Peace, or his Deputy, Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, hereby conforming to all Orders and Directions made by this Act relative to them, or any of them, and to be liable to all such Pains and Penalties as are inflicted on them, or any of them, by this Act, for Disobedience in any Part thereof, or Neglect of Duty whatever; and in case any such Assignee or Assignees shall die, and his Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall refuse to act, that then and in such Case it shall be lawful for such Justices of the Peace to appoint a new Assignee or Assignees, with the like Powers and Authorities as are given by this Act; and the said Justices shall have Power, in a summary Way, to oblige the Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, of such Assignee or Assignees, to account and deliver up all such Estate and Effects as shall remain in his or their Hands, to be applied for the Purposes of this Act.

Courts, on Complaint, may remove Assignees, and appoint others.

LVI. 'And, to the Intent and Purpose that the Estate and Effects of such Debtor or Debtors as shall be 'discharged by virtue of this Act may be duly and faithfully applied for the Benefit of his, her, or their real 'Creditors,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the respective Courts at Westminster, and the Courts of Great Sessions in Wales, and the Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster, and Durham respectively, from whence any Process issued, upon which such Debtor or Debtors was or were committed, or where the Process issued out of any other Court, to and for the Judges of the Court of King's Bench, Common Pleas, and Exchequer, or of Great Sessions, or Counties Palatine aforesaid, within their respective Jurisdictions, or any one of them, from Time to Time, upon the Petition of any such Debtor, or the Creditor or Creditors of such Debtor, complaining of any Insufficiency, Fraud, Mismanagement, or other Misbehaviour, of any Assignee or Assignees of the Estate or Effects of any such Debtor or Debtors, to summon all Parties concerned, and, upon hearing the Parties concerned therein, to make and give such Orders and Directions therein, either for the Removal or displacing such Assignee or Assignees, and appointing any new Assignee or Assignees in the Place or Stead of such Assignee or Assignees so to be removed or displaced, and for the prudent, just, and equitable Management or Distribution of the Estate and Effects of any such Debtor, for the Benefit of the respective Creditors, as the said Courts or Judges respectively shall think fit; and in case of the Removal or displacing of any Assignee or Assignees, and the appointing of any new Assignee or Assignees, the Estate or Effects of such Debtor or Debtors shall, from thenceforth, be divested out of the Assignee or Assignees so removed or displaced, and be vested in and delivered over to such new Assignee or Assignees, in the same Manner, and for the same Intents and Purposes, as the same were before vested in the Assignee or Assignees first chosen as aforesaid; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Where mutual Credit has been given, the Balance to be stated.

LVII. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where mutual Credit hath been given between any Debtor who shall be discharged in pursuance of this Act, and any other Person or Persons, or Bodies Corporate or Politic, before the Delivery of such Schedule or Inventory of the Estate and Effects of such Debtor or Debtors, upon Oath as aforesaid, the respective Assignee or Assignees of such Debtor or Debtors is and are hereby authorized and required, on his and their Parts, to state and allow an Account between them and the other Party or Parties concerned; and nothing more shall be deemed to be vested in such Clerk of the Peace, or Town Clerk, or other Officer acting as Clerk of the Peace, or such Assignee or Assignees as aforesaid, as the Estate or Effects of such Debtor or Debtors, than what shall appear to be justly due to him, her, or them respectively, as and for the Balance of such Account, when truly stated.

Prisoners for Contempts in not paying Monies awarded, Costs, &c. entitled to the Benefit of this Act;

LVIII. 'And whereas many Persons are often committed by the Courts of Law and Equity for Con- 'tempts, for not paying Monies ordered or awarded to be paid, and also for not paying of Costs duly and 'regularly taxed and allowed by the proper Officer, after proper Demands made for that Purpose, and also 'upon the Writ of Excommunicato Capiendo, or other Process for, or grounded on, the Nonpayment of 'Money, Costs, or Expences, in some Cause or Proceeding in some Ecclesiastical Court, or for Contempt 'to such Court relating thereto;' it is hereby declared and enacted, That all such Persons are and shall be entitled to the Benefit of this Act, on and subject to the same Terms, Conditions, and Restrictions, as are herein expressed and declared with respect to Prisoners for Debt only.

and also Prisoners on Processes out of Courts of Conscience,

LIX. 'And whereas great Numbers of poor People have been and are now imprisoned for Debt, upon 'Processes issuing out of Courts of Conscience;' it is hereby enacted and declared, That all such Prisoners shall be entitled to have the Benefit of this Act, and be discharged under the same, provided he, she, or they conform to the Directions hereinbefore prescribed, touching other Prisoners who shall be discharged by virtue of this Act.

CAP. CXVII.

An Act for regulating the Trade to be carried on with the British Possessions in India, by the Ships of Nations in Amity with His Majesty.—[19th July 1797.]

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the encouraging and increasing of Shipping and Navigation, it was enacted, that, from and after the first Day of December one thousand six hundred and sixty, and from thence forward, no Goods or Commodities shall be imported into or exported out of any Lands, Islands, Plantations, or Territories, to his Majesty belonging or in his Possession, or which may hereafter belong unto or be in the Possession of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, in Asia, Africa, and America, in any other Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, than such as do truly and without Fraud belong unto the People of England or Ireland, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or are the Built of and belonging to any of the said Lands, Islands, Plantations, or Territories, as the Proprietors and Right Owners thereof, and whereof the Master and Three-fourths of the Mariners at least are English, under certain Penalties and Forfeitures therein mentioned: And whereas it is expedient that the Ships and Vessels of Countries and States in Amity with his Majesty, should be allowed to import Goods and Commodities unto and to export the same from the British Territories in India, subject to certain Restrictions and Regulations:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, and during the Continuance of the exclusive Trade of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, and during the Term for which the Possessions of the British Territories in India is secured to the said United Company, it shall and may be lawful for the Ships and Vessels of Countries and States in Amity with his Majesty, to import into and export from the British Possessions in India, such Goods and Commodities as they shall be permitted to import into and export from the said Possessions by the Directors of the said Company, who are hereby directed to frame such Regulations for carrying on the Trade to and from the said Possessions, and the Countries and States in Amity with his Majesty, as shall seem to them most conducive to the Interest and Prosperity of the said British Possessions in India, and of the British Empire; and no Ship or Vessel belonging to any of the Subjects of States or Countries in Amity with his Majesty, shall be liable to Seizure, Confiscation, or Forfeiture, or other Penalty, for exporting from or importing into the said British Possessions in India, any Goods or Commodities, the Importation or Exportation of which respectively shall be permitted by the said Regulation; any Thing in the said hereinbefore recited Act, of the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for the Directors of the said United Company to frame any Regulations for the Conduct of the said Trade, which shall be inconsistent with any Treaty or Treaties which shall have been or may be entered into by his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and any Country or State at Amity with his Majesty, or which may be inconsistent with any Act or Acts of Parliament which have been passed for the Regulation of the Trade and Commerce of the said British Territories in India.

12 Car. 2. c. 18. recited.

Vessels of Countries in Amity with his Majesty may import into and export from the British Possessions in India, Goods permitted by the East India Directors, not contrary to Treaties or Law.

II. And be it further enacted, That all such Regulations as shall be framed by the said Court of Directors, for carrying on the Trade to and from the British Possessions in India, and the Countries and States in Amity with his Majesty, shall be and they are hereby directed to be subject to the Superintendance, Direction, and Controul of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, in the same Manner as all Acts, Operations, and Concerns, which anywise relate to or concern the Civil and Military Governments and Revenues of the British Territories and Acquisitions in the East Indies now are.

Regulations framed by the Directors to be subject to the Controul of the Board of Commissioners.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any General Court of Proprietors to alter or change, or to direct, or order, or authorize, the altering or changing, any Resolution of the Court of Directors, or to rescind, revoke, suspend, or vary the same, in so far as the same relates to the Intercourse of Foreign Nations in Amity with his Majesty and the British Territories in India.

Court of Proprietors not to alter any Resolution of the Directors relating to Intercourse of Foreign Nations in Amity with his Majesty and the British Territories in India.

CAP. CXVIII.

An Act for regulating the Height between Decks of Vessels entered outwards for the Purpose of carrying Slaves from the Coast of Africa.—[19th July 1797.]

35 Geo. 3. c. 90.

'WHEREAS by an Act of the thirty-fifth Year of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for regulating the Shipping, and carrying Slaves in British Vessels from the Coast of Africa, it was enacted 'that the whole Space between Decks in such Vessels should be allotted for the Reception of Slaves, in order 'to their greater Comfort, and better Accommodation: And whereas it hath been found, that sufficient 'Provision was not made by the said Act, for the Comfort and Accommodation of the Slaves in their 'Apartments between the Decks of Ships so employed;' for Remedy whereof, be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no British Ship or Vessel shall clear outwards from any Port in his Majesty's Dominions for the Purpose of shipping or carrying Slaves from the Coast of Africa, in which the Space between the Decks allotted for the Reception of Slaves, under the Provisions of any former Act, shall not be, in every Part throughout the whole Length and Breadth thereof, of the full and complete perpendicular Height of four Feet one Inch at least, measuring from the upper Surface of the Lower Deck to the under Surface of the Upper Deck.

No Vessel to clear outwards for carrying Slaves unless the Space allotted for the Slaves be four Feet one Inch between the Decks.

II. 'And whereas Ships and Vessels having only one Deck are sometimes used for shipping and carrying 'Slaves from the Coast of Africa,' be it further enacted, That in all such Vessels a Floor or False Deck shall be fixed in the Hold, for the Reception of the Slaves, which shall be taken and considered as her Lower Deck, for the Purposes of this Act.

One decked Vessel to have a false Deck in the Hold.

III. And be it further enacted, That no Ship or Vessel shall be permitted to clear out from any Port in Great Britain, for the Purpose of shipping and carrying Slaves from the Coast of Africa, until the proper Officer of the Customs at such Port shall have examined and admeasured such Ship or Vessel, and shall have found her to agree in Admeasurement, and to be in every other Particular conformable to the Regulations and Restrictions required and directed by this Act, and shall have certified the same in Writing to the Collector of his Majesty's Customs at such Port; for doing which he shall be entitled to demand and receive the Sum of ten Shillings from the Master or Owner of the said Vessel, and the said Certificate shall be annexed to the Clearance of the said Vessel, and shall be produced therewith to the Collector or Comptroller, or other proper Officer of the Customs, at every Port in the West Indies or America, belonging to his Majesty, at which the said Vessel shall arrive, before any Slave or Slaves shall be permitted to be landed out of the said Vessel, at any such Port.

No Vessel to be cleared out till admeasured, and certified by the Officer of the Customs, for which he shall receive 10s. and which Certificate must be produced to the Officer at the Port of Arrival in the West Indies, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That after the Surveying Officer shall have examined and measured any Ship or Vessel as hereinbefore directed, it shall not be lawful for the Master or Owner thereof to remove, or cause or suffer to be removed, any Floor or False Deck which shall have been fixed in the Hold for the Reception of Slaves, as hereinbefore directed, except for the Purpose of loading or unloading his said Vessel on the outward bound Voyage, or other unavoidable Necessity, or to do, or cause or suffer to be done, any other Matter or Thing whereby the Height of the Places or Apartments allotted for the Reception of Slaves shall be diminished, until all the Slaves which shall have been taken on board such Ship or Vessel shall have been discharged or landed therefrom, under the Penalty of two hundred Pounds for every such Offence.

False Deck not to be removed till the Slaves are landed, on Penalty of 200l.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Penalty inflicted by this Act, may be prosecuted, sued for, and recovered, in any Court of Record in Great Britain; and in every such Action or Suit the Party against whom Judgement shall be given, (whether Plaintiff or Defendant,) shall pay Double Costs of Suit; and every such Action shall and may be brought at any Time within three Years after the Offence committed, and not afterwards, and every such Action shall be carried on without wilful Delay.

Where Penalty may be sued for, which may be within three Years after the Offence, double Costs to each Party.

CAP. CXIX.

An Act to repeal so much of an Act, made in the fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the more easy Recovery of Debts in His Majesty's Plantations and Colonies in America, as makes Negroes Chattels for the Payment of Debts.—[19th July 1797.]

An Act to explain an Act, passed in the thirty-fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for further encouraging and regulating the Southern Whale Fisheries.

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the thirty-fifth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An 'Act for further encouraging and regulating the Southern Whale Fisheries, it is amongst other Things 'enacted, that no Premium, granted by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament for the Encouragement of 'the Southern Whale Fishery, shall be paid or allowed to any Person or Persons whatever, for or on ac-'count of any Ship or Vessel employed in the said Fishery, unless the Premium shall be claimed within two 'Months from the Time of the Crew being mustered inwards by the proper Officer or Officers of the 'Customs; and such Claim shall be made in Writing by Application of the Owner or Owners of every 'Ship or Vessel to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England and Scotland respectively: And 'whereas Doubts have arisen whether the said Provision should be construed to apply to Ships or Vessels 'fitted and cleared out for the Purpose of carrying on such Fishery before the first Day of November one 'thousand seven hundred and ninety-five;' be it enacted and declared by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Provision shall be deemed and taken to apply to such Ships and Vessels which have fitted and cleared out since the first Day of November one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, or which may hereafter, during the Continuance of the said Act, fit and clear out for the Purpose of carrying on such Fishery, and to none others.

35 Geo. 3. c. 92 recited.

Provision in recited Act respecting Payment of Premium, to apply only to Vessels fitted out subsequent to November 1, 1795.

CAP. CXXII.

An Act for the better preventing the forging or counterfeiting the Names of Witnesses to Letters of Attorney, or other Authorities or Instruments, for the Transfer of Stocks or Funds, which now are, or by any Act or Acts of Parliament shall hereafter be made, transferrable at the Bank of England; or for the Transfer of any Part of the Capital Stock of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England called Bank Stock; or for the Transfer of any Part of the Capital Stock, or any Stocks or Funds under the Management of the South Sea Company; or for the Transfer of any Part of the Capital Stock of the East India Company; or for the Receipt of Dividends upon any of such Stocks or Funds.—[19th July 1797.]

'WHEREAS by the several Acts of Parliament creating and authorizing the Transfer and Manage-'ment of the Public Stocks, Funds, and Annuities, transferrable at the Bank of England, it is 'provided, that all Assignments, or Transfers thereof, shall be entered and registered in Books to be kept 'by the Accountant General of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, which Entries shall 'be signed by the Parties making such Assignments or Transfers, or if such Parties be absent, by their 'respective Attorney or Attornies thereunto lawfully authorized in Writing under his, her, or their Hand 'and Seal, or Hands and Seals, to be attested by two or more credible Witnesses; and the same Regula- 'tion is prescribed and observed with respect to the Attestation of Letters of Attorney for the Transfer of 'any Part of the Capital Stock of the said Governor and Company called Bank Stock: And whereas, by an Cap. 21. 'Act of Parliament made and passed in the ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen *Anne, and 'by the Charter of the Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South Seas and other Parts 'of America, and for encouraging the Fishery commonly called The South Sea Company, and by several 'Acts of Parliament, creating and authorizing the Transfer and Management of the Stock of the said 'Company commonly called South Sea Stock, and other Stocks and Funds arising thereout, or transferra- 'ble at the South Sea House, it is provided, that all Assignments and Transfers thereof shall be entered and 'registered in Books kept by the said Governor and Compay, which Entries shall be signed by the Parties 'making such Assignments and Transfers, or if such Parties be absent, by their respective Attorney or At- 'tornies, thereunto lawfully authorized in Writing under his, her, or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and 'Seals: And whereas all Assignments and Transfers of the Capital Stock of the United Company of Mer- 'chants of England, trading to the East Indies, are entered and registered in Books kept by the said United 'Company, and such Assignments and Transfers shall be signed by the Parties making the same; and if 'such Parties be absent, then by their respective Attorney or Attornies, thereunto authorized in Writing 'under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals: And whereas it is expedient that Provision should 'be made for the Prevention of all Frauds and Impositions upon the said respective Governors and Com- 'panies, and the said United Company, respecting the Transfer of, or the Receipt of Dividends upon, any 'of the Public Funds or Annuities, transferrable at the Bank of England, or of Bank Stock, or of the 'Capital Stock of the said South Sea Company, or of the said United Company, or any other Stocks or 'Funds arising thereout, or transferrable, or which shall hereafter be made transferrable, at the South Sea 'House or East India House respectively:' Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parlia- ment assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person or Persons whatever shall, from and after the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, falsely make, forge, or counter- feit, or cause or procure to be falsely made, forged, or counterfeited, or shall willingly act or assist in the falsely making, forging, or counterfeiting, the Name or Names, Hand Writing or Hands Writing, of any Person or Persons as, or purporting to be, the Witness or Witnesses attesting the Execution of any Letter of Attorney, or other Authority or Instrument, to transfer, assign, sell, or convey, any Interest, Part, or Share, of or in any Stock or Stocks, Annuity or Annuities, or other Funds, or the Dividends thereof, transferrable, or which, by any Act or Acts of Parliament, shall hereafter be made transferrable at the Bank of England, or of or in the Capital Stock belonging, or which hereafter shall or may belong, to the Go- vernor and Company of the Bank of England called Bank Stock, or to the Governor and Company of Merchants of Great Britain trading to the South Seas and other Parts of America, and for encouraging the Fishery as aforesaid, or under their Care or Management, or of or in the Capital Stock belonging, or which hereafter shall or may belong, to the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, commonly called East India Stock, or of any Letter of Attorney, or other Authority or Instrument, to receive any Dividend or Dividends, on any of the said Stocks, Annuities, or other Funds, or shall utter or publish, as true, any such Letter of Attorney, or other Authority or Instrument, containing such false, forged, or counterfeited Name or Names, Hand Writing or Hands Writing, of such attesting Witness or Witnesses as aforesaid, knowing such Name or Names, Hand Writing or Hands Writing, to be false, forged, or counterfeited, all and every Person or Persons whatever so offending, and being in due Form of Law convicted of any such Offence or Offences as aforesaid, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall be transported for seven Years, or shall be adjudged to suffer such lesser Punishment as the Court, before whom such Offender or Offenders shall be tried, shall think fit to award.

Persons forging the Names of Witnesses to Instruments for the Transfer, or Receipt of Dividends, of Stocks at the Bank, or of the South Sea or East India Company's Stocks, to be guilty of Felony.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken Notice of, by all Judges, Justices, and other Persons whomsoever, without the same being specially pleaded.

Public Act.

CAP. CXXIII.

An Act for more effectually preventing the administering or taking of unlawful Oaths.

[19th July 1797.]

'WHEREAS divers wicked and evil-disposed Persons have of late attempted to seduce Persons serving 'in his Majesty's Forces by Sea and Land, and others of his Majesty's Subjects, from their Duty 'and Allegiance to his Majesty, and to incite them to Acts of Mutiny and Sedition, and have endeavoured 'to give Effect to their wicked and traiterous Proceedings, by imposing, upon the Persons whom they have 'attempted to seduce, the pretended Obligation of Oaths unlawfully administered:' Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Tem- poral, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That any Person or Persons who shall, in any Manner or Form whatsoever, administer, or cause to be administered, or be aiding or assisting at, or present at and consenting to, the administering or taking of any Oath or Engagement, purporting or intended to bind the Perſon taking the ſame to engage in any mutinous or ſeditious Purpoſe; or to diſturb the public Peace; or to be of any Aſſociation, Society, or Confederacy, formed for any ſuch Purpoſe; or to obey the Orders or Commands of any Committee or Body of Men not lawfully conſtituted, or of any Leader or Commander, or other Perſon not having Authority by Law for that Purpoſe; or not to inform or give Evidence againſt any Aſſociate, Confederate, or other Perſon; or not to reveal or diſcover any unlawful Combination or Confederacy; or not to reveal or diſcover any illegal Act done or to be done; or not to reveal or diſcover any illegal Oath or Engagement which may have been adminiſtered or tendered to or taken by ſuch Perſon or Perſons, or to or by any other Perſon or Perſons, or the Import of any ſuch Oath or Engagement; ſhall, on Conviction thereof by due Courſe of Law, be adjudged guilty of Felony, and may be tranſported for any Term of Years not exceeding ſeven Years; and every Perſon who ſhall take any ſuch Oath or Engagement, not being compelled thereto, ſhall, on Conviction thereof by due Courſe of Law, be adjudged guilty of Felony, and may be tranſported for any Term of Years not exceeding ſeven Years.

Persons administering unlawful Oaths, or taking them vo-

luntarily, to be guilty of Felony; puniſhable with ſeven Years' Tranſportation.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That Compulſion ſhall not juſtify or excuſe any Perſon taking ſuch Oath or Engagement, unleſs he or ſhe ſhall, within four Days after the taking thereof, if not prevented by actual Force or Sickneſs, and then within four Days after the Hindrance produced by ſuch Force or Sickneſs ſhall ceaſe, declare the ſame, together with the Whole of what he or ſhe ſhall know touching the ſame, and the Perſon or Perſons by whom, and in whoſe Preſence, and when and where, ſuch Oath or Engagement was adminiſtered or taken, by Information on Oath before one of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, or one of his Majeſty's principal Secretaries of State, or his Majeſty's Privy Council; or, in caſe the Perſon taking ſuch Oath or Engagement ſhall be in actual Service in his Majeſty's Forces by Sea or Land, then by ſuch Information on Oath as aforeſaid, or by Information to his Commanding Officer.

Perſons compelled to take ſuch Oaths, not juſtified, unleſs they declare the ſame within four Days.

III. And be it further enacted, That Perſons aiding and aſſiſting at, or preſent at and conſenting to, the adminiſtering or taking of any ſuch Oath or Engagement as aforeſaid, and Perſons cauſing any ſuch Oath or Engagement to be adminiſtered or taken, though not preſent at the adminiſtering or taking thereof, ſhall be deemed principal Offenders, and ſhall be tried as ſuch, although the Perſons or Perſon who actually adminiſtered ſuch Oath or Engagement, if any ſuch there ſhall be, ſhall not have been tried or convicted.

Perſons aiding, &c. at taking ſuch Oaths, or cauſing them to be adminiſtered, though not preſent, to be deemed Principals.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall not be neceſſary, in any Indictment againſt any Perſon or Perſons adminiſtering, or cauſing to be adminiſtered or taken, or taking any ſuch Oath or Engagement as aforeſaid, or aiding or aſſiſting at, or preſent at and conſenting to, the adminiſtering or taking thereof, to ſet forth the Words of ſuch Oath or Engagement; and that it ſhall be ſufficient to ſet forth the Purport of ſuch Oath or Engagement, or ſome material Part thereof.

In Indictments it ſhall be ſufficient to ſet forth the Purport of ſuch Oaths.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That any Engagement or Obligation whatſoever, in the Nature of an Oath, ſhall be deemed an Oath within the Intent and Meaning of this Act, in whatever Form or Manner the ſame ſhall be adminiſtered or taken; and whether the ſame ſhall be actually adminiſtered by any Perſon or Perſons to any other Perſon or Perſons, or taken by any Perſon or Perſons without any Adminiſtration thereof by any other Perſon or Perſons.

Engagements in the Nature of an Oath, to be deemed Oaths, &c.

VI. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That any Offence committed againſt this Act on the High Seas, or out of this Realm, or within that Part of Great Britain called England, ſhall and may be proſecuted, tried, and determined, before any Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery, for any County in that Part of Great Britain called England, in ſuch Manner and Form as if ſuch Offence had been therein committed; and if committed in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, ſhall and may be proſecuted, tried, and determined, either before the Juſticiary Court at Edinburgh, or in any of the Circuit Courts in that Part of the United Kingdom.

Where Offences may be proſecuted.

VII. Provided alſo, and it is hereby declared, That any Perſon who ſhall be tried, and acquitted or convicted of any Offence againſt this Act, ſhall not be liable to be indicted, proſecuted, or tried again, for the ſame Offence or Fact, as High Treaſon, or Miſpriſion of High Treaſon; and that nothing in this Act contained ſhall be conſtrued to extend to prevent any Perſon guilty of any Offence againſt this Act, and who ſhall not be tried for the ſame as an Offence againſt this Act, from being tried for the ſame as High Treaſon, or Miſpriſion of High Treaſon, in ſuch Manner as if this Act had not been made.

Perſons tried under this Act, not to be tried again for the ſame Offence; but if not ſo tried, may be tried as for High Treaſon, &c.

His Majesty in Council may allow additional Quantities of Wheat, &c. to be exported to Guernsey, Jersey, and Alderney.

CAP. CXXVI.

An Act to prevent the counterfeiting any Copper Coin in this Realm made, or to be made, current by Proclamation, or any Foreign Gold or Silver Coin; and to prevent the bringing into this Realm, or uttering, any counterfeit Foreign Gold or Silver Coin.—[19th July 1797.]

' WHEREAS the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament assembled, by their unanimous Ad- ' dress to his Majesty, have requested that his Majesty would be graciously pleased to give Di- ' rections that Measures might be taken for procuring an immediate Supply of such Copper Coinage as ' might be best adapted to the Payment of the laborious Poor; and it is necessary that so much of the Pro- ' visions contained in an Act, passed in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George ' the Second, intituled, An Act for the more effectual preventing the counterfeiting of the Current Coin of this ' Kingdom, and the uttering or paying false or counterfeit Coin, as relates to the Copper Monies of this ' Realm commonly called An Halfpenny and A Farthing; and also the Provisions contained in an Act, ' passed in the eleventh Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the more effectually pre- ' venting the counterfeiting the Copper Coin of this Realm; and all other Provisions made by Law concern- ' ing the Copper Monies of this Realm commonly called An Halfpenny and A Farthing, should be ex- ' tended to such Copper Money as may be coined and issued in pursuance of such Address, and all other ' Copper Monies of this Realm, which may be hereafter coined and issued by his Majesty's Authority:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, so much of the said Act, passed in the fifteenth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the more effectual pre- venting the counterfeiting of the Current Coin of this Kingdom, and the uttering or paying false or counterfeit Coin, as relates to the Copper Monies of this Realm commonly called An Halfpenny and A Farthing; and also the said Act of the eleventh Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the more effectually pre- venting the counterfeiting the Copper Coin of this Realm; and all and every other Acts and Act of Parliament concerning the Copper Monies of this Realm commonly called An Halfpenny and A Farthing, or any other Copper Money of this Realm, shall extend, and be construed, deemed, and taken to extend, to all such Pieces of Copper Money as shall be coined and issued by Order of his Majesty, his Heirs and Suc- cessors, and as shall, by his or their Royal Proclamation, be ordered to be deemed and taken as Current Money of this Realm; and that all and every the Provisions in such Acts, or any of them contained, shall extend, and be construed, deemed, and taken to extend, to all such other Pieces of Copper Money as aforesaid, in such and the same Manner as if such Pieces had been particularly mentioned and described in such Acts respectively.

15 Geo. 2. c. 28. and

21 Geo. 3. c. 40. recited.

So much of first recited Act, as relates to Halfpence and Farthings, and the last recited Act, and all others relating to Copper Money of this Realm, to extend to all Copper Money ordered by Proclamation to be taken as Current Money.

II. ' And

Perſons counterfeiting Foreign Gold or Silver Coin guilty of Felony; puniſhable by ſeven Years' Tranſportation.

II. 'And whereas the Practice of counterfeiting Foreign Gold and Silver Coin, and the bringing into this 'Realm, and uttering within the ſame, falſe and counterfeit Foreign Gold and Silver Coin, and particu-'larly Pieces of Gold Coin commonly called Louis d'Or, and Pieces of Silver Coin commonly called Dol-'lars, hath of late greatly increaſed; and it is expedient that Proviſion ſhould be made more effectually to 'prevent the ſame;' be it enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, from and after the paſſing of this Act, make, coin, or counterfeit, any Kind of Coin not the proper Coin of this Realm, nor permitted to be current within the ſame, but reſembling, or made with Intent to reſemble or look like, any Gold or Silver Coin of any Foreign Prince, State, or Country, or to paſs as ſuch Foreign Coin, ſuch Perſon or Perſons offending therein, ſhall be deemed and adjudged to be guilty of Felony, and may be tranſported for any Term of Years not exceeding ſeven Years.

as alſo Perſons bringing it into the Realm, or paſſing it.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, from and after the paſſing of this Act, bring into this Realm any ſuch falſe or counterfeit Coin as aforeſaid, reſembling, or made with Intent to reſemble or look like, any Gold or Silver Coin of any Foreign Prince, State, or Country, or to paſs as ſuch Foreign Coin, knowing the ſame to be falſe or counterfeit, to the Intent to utter the ſame within this Realm, or within any Dominions of the ſame, all and every ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be deemed and adjudged to be guilty of Felony, and may be tranſported for any Term of Years not exceeding ſeven Years.

Penalty for tendering in Payment ſuch counterfeit Coin; firſt Offence 6 Months' Impriſonment; ſecond Offence 2 Years; third Offence Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, from and after the paſſing of this Act, utter or tender in Payment, or give in Exchange, or pay or put off to any Perſon or Perſons, any ſuch falſe or counterfeit Coin as aforeſaid, reſembling, or made with Intent to reſemble or look like, any Gold or Silver Coin of any Foreign Prince, State, or Country, or to paſs as ſuch Foreign Coin, knowing the ſame to be falſe or counterfeit, and ſhall be thereof convicted, every Perſon ſo offending ſhall ſuffer ſix Months Impriſonment, and find Sureties for his or her good Behaviour for ſix Months more, to be computed from the End of the ſaid firſt ſix Months; and if the ſame Perſon ſhall afterwards be convicted a ſecond Time for the like Offence of uttering, or tendering in Payment, or giving in Exchange, or paying, or putting off, any ſuch falſe or counterfeit Coin as aforeſaid, knowing the ſame to be falſe or counterfeit, ſuch Perſon ſhall, for ſuch ſecond Offence, ſuffer two Years' Impriſonment, and find Sureties for his or her good Behaviour for two Years more, to be computed from the End of the ſaid firſt two Years; and if the ſame Perſon ſhall afterwards offend a third Time, in uttering or tendering in Payment, or giving in Exchange, or paying, or putting off, any ſuch falſe or counterfeit Coin as aforeſaid, knowing the ſame to be falſe or counterfeit, and ſhall be convicted of ſuch third Offence, he or ſhe ſhall be adjudged to be guilty of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Clerk of the Aſſize or of the Peace to certify the Conviction of any Perſon for uttering counterfeit Coin.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon ſhall be convicted of uttering or tendering any ſuch falſe or counterfeit Coin as aforeſaid, and ſhall afterwards be guilty of the like Offence in any other County, City, or Place, the Clerk of the Aſſize or Clerk of the Peace for the County, City, or Place, where ſuch former Conviction ſhall have been had, ſhall, at the Requeſt of the Proſecutor, or any other on his Majeſty's Behalf, certify the ſame by a Tranſcript, in few Words, containing the Effect and Tenor of ſuch Conviction; for which Certificate two Shillings and Sixpence, and no more, ſhall be paid; and ſuch Certificate, being produced in Court, ſhall be ſufficient Proof of ſuch former Conviction.

Penalty on Perſons having more than five Pieces of counterfeit Foreign Coin; from £1 to 40 s. each Piece; or 3 Months' Impriſonment.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall have in his, her, or their Cuſtody, without lawful Excuſe, any greater Number of Pieces than five Pieces, of falſe or counterfeit Coin, of any Kind or Kinds, reſembling, or made with Intent to reſemble or look like, any Gold or Silver Coin or Coins of any Foreign Prince, State, or Country, or to paſs as ſuch Foreign Coin, every ſuch Perſon, being thereof convicted upon the Oath of one or more credible Witneſs or Witneſſes, before one of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, ſhall forfeit and loſe all ſuch falſe and counterfeit Coin, which ſhall be cut in Pieces, and deſtroyed, by Order of ſuch Juſtice, and ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit and pay any Sum of Money not exceeding five Pounds nor leſs than forty Shillings, for every ſuch Piece of falſe or counterfeit Coin which ſhall be found in the Cuſtody of ſuch Perſon, one Moiety to the Informer or Informers, and the other Moiety to the Poor of the Pariſh where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed; and in caſe any ſuch Penalty ſhall not be forthwith paid, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch Juſtice to commit the Perſon who ſhall be adjudged to pay the ſame to the Common Gaol, or Houſe of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour, for the Space of three Calendar Months, or until ſuch Penalty ſhall be paid.

Juſtices may grant Warrants for ſearching ſuſpected Places for counterfeit Foreign Coin.

Such counterfeit Coin, and Tools and Materials, may be ſeized and carried before a Juſtice, who ſhall ſecure the

VII. And be it enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any one Juſtice of the Peace, on Complaint made before him, upon the Oath of one credible Perſon, that there is juſt Cauſe to ſuſpect that any one or more Perſon or Perſons is or are, or hath or have been, concerned in making or counterfeiting any ſuch falſe or counterfeit Coin as aforeſaid, reſembling, or made with Intent to reſemble or look like, any Gold or Silver Coin of any Foreign Prince, State, or Country, or to paſs as ſuch Foreign Coin, by Warrant under the Hand of ſuch Juſtice, to cauſe the Dwelling Houſe, Room, Workſhop, Outhouſe, or other Building, Yard, Garden, or other Place, belonging to ſuch ſuſpected Perſon or Perſons, or where any ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be ſuſpected to carry on any ſuch making or counterfeiting, to be ſearched for any ſuch falſe or counterfeit Coin, or for Tools or Implements for coining ſuch falſe or counterfeit Coin, or for Materials for making or coining the ſame; and if any ſuch falſe or counterfeit Coin, or any ſuch Tools or Inſtruments, or any ſuch Materials for making any ſuch falſe or counterfeit Coin, ſhall be found in any Place ſo ſearched, or if any ſuch Tools, Implements, or Materials, ſhall be found in the Cuſtody or Poſſeſſion of any Perſon or Perſons whomſoever, not having the ſame by ſome lawful Authority, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, diſcovering the ſame, to ſeize, and he and they are hereby authorized and required to ſeize, ſuch falſe or counterfeit Coin, Tools Implements, and Materials, same as Evidence, and to be afterwards destroyed.

Materials, and to carry the same forthwith to a Justice of the Peace of the County, City, or Place, where the same shall be seized, who shall cause the same to be secured and produced in Evidence against any Person or Persons who shall or may be prosecuted for any of the Offences aforesaid, in some Court of Justice proper for the Determination thereof; and after such Time as any such false or counterfeit Coin, or any such Tools, Implements, or Materials, shall have been produced in Evidence as aforesaid, as well so much and such Parts thereof as shall have been so produced, as every other Part thereof so seized, and not made use of in Evidence, shall forthwith, by Order of the Court where such Offender or Offenders shall be tried, or by Order of some Justice of the Peace, in case there shall be no such Trial, be defaced or destroyed, or otherwise disposed of, as such Court or such Justice shall direct.

No Proceedings before a Justice to be quashed for Want of Form, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That no Proceedings to be had touching the Conviction of any Offender against this Act before any Justice of the Peace, shall be quashed for Want of Form, or be removed by Writ of Certiorari, or any other Writ or Process whatsoever, into any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster.

Limitation of Actions.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought or commenced against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, then and in every such Case the said Action or Suit shall be commenced within three Calendar Months after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be brought in the County or Place where the Cause of Action shall arise, and not elsewhere; and Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant or Defendants hath or have for Costs of Suit in other Cases by Law.

CAP. CXXVII.

An Act to shorten the Time now required for giving Notice of the Royal Intention of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, that the Parliament shall meet and be holden for the Dispatch of Business; and more effectually to provide for the Meeting of Parliament in the Case of a Demise of the Crown.—[19th July 1797.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to shorten the Time now required for giving Notice of the Royal Intention of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, that the Parliament shall meet and be holden for the Dispatch of Business;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That whenever his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall be pleased, by and with the Advice of the Privy Council of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, to issue his or their Royal Proclamation, giving Notice of his or their Royal Intention that Parliament shall meet and be holden for the Dispatch of Business on any Day being not less than fourteen Days from the Date of such Proclamation, the same shall be a full and sufficient Notice to all Persons whatever of such the Royal Intention of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the Parliament shall thereby stand prorogued to the Day and Place therein declared, notwithstanding any previous Prorogation of the Parliament to any longer Day, and notwithstanding any former Law, Usage, or Practice to the contrary.

6 Annæ, Cap. 7, § 6. recited, and repealed.

II. 'And whereas by an Act, made in the sixth Year of Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for the Security of her Majesty's Person and Government, and of the Succession to the Crown of Great Britain in the Protestant Line, it is amongst other Things enacted, that in case there is no Parliament in being at the Time of the Demise of her said Majesty, her Heirs or Successors, that hath met and sat, then the last preceding Parliament shall immediately convene and sit at Westminster, and be a Parliament to continue as therein mentioned, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same Parliament had never been dissolved, but subject to be prorogued and dissolved as therein provided: And whereas great Inconvenience may arise from the said Provision,' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the said Act as is hereinbefore recited shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

In case of the King's Demise, after the Dissolution of a Parliament and previous to the Day appointed for the assembling a new one; the last preceding Parliament to meet and sit.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case of the Demise of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, subsequent to the Dissolution or Expiration of a Parliament, and before the Day appointed by the Writs of Summons for assembling a new Parliament, then, and in such Case, the last preceding Parliament shall immediately convene and sit at Westminster, and be a Parliament, to continue for and during the Space of six Months, and no longer, to all Intents and Purposes as if the same Parliament had not been dissolved or expired, but subject to be sooner prorogued or dissolved by the Person to whom the Crown of this Realm of Great Britain shall come, remain, and be, according to the Acts for limiting and settling the Succession to the same.

IV. And

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case of the Demise of any such his Majesty's Heir or Successor within the said Period of six Months, limited for the Duration of the said last preceding Parliament, and before the same shall have been dissolved by such his Majesty's Heir or Successor, or after the same shall have been so dissolved, and before a new Parliament shall have met in the Manner hereinafter provided, then, and in every such Case, the said last preceding Parliament shall immediately convene and sit, and continue to be a Parliament, to all Intents and Purposes, for and during six Months longer, to be computed from and immediately after such last-mentioned Demise, but subject to be sooner prorogued or dissolved by the Person who shall then succeed as aforesaid to the Crown of this Realm of Great Britain, and so as often as any such Demise shall happen before a new Parliament shall have met in Manner hereinafter provided.

and so in case of the Demise of a Successor to the Crown within six Months after his Succession, without his having dissolved the Parliament, or after the same shall have been dissolved, and before a new one shall have met;

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case of the Demise of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, on the Day appointed by the Writs of Summons for calling and assembling a new Parliament, or at any Time after such Day so appointed, and before such new Parliament shall have met and sat, such new Parliament shall, immediately after such Demise, convene and sit at Westminster, and be a Parliament, to all Intents and Purposes, to continue for and during the Term of six Months, and no longer, but subject to be sooner prorogued or dissolved as aforesaid.

In case of the King's Demise on or after the Day appointed for the assembling a new Parliament, such new Parliament to meet and sit.

An Act for granting to His Majesty a further additional Duty on Horses kept and used for the Purpose of riding, or of drawing certain Carriages therein mentioned. [20th July 1797.]

' Most Gracious Sovereign,

' WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament ' assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray your Majesty's public Expences, and ' making an Addition to the Public Revenue, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto ' your Majesty the Duties hereinafter mentioned, and do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be ' enacted,' and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority

An additional Duty of 5s. to be paid for each Horse kept above one for riding, or drawing certain Carriages.

Authority of the same, That, upon every Assessment which shall be made from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the further additional Duty following; that is to say, That every Person who shall keep and use more than one Horse, Mare, or Gelding, for the Purpose of riding, or for the Purpose of drawing any Coach, Berlin, Landau, Chariot, Calash, Chaise, or any other Carriage, by whatever Name such Carriage is now, or hereafter may be called or known, for or in respect whereof any Rate or Duty, heretofore under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise, and now transferred to and under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, is payable, shall be charged with the further additional Annual Duty of five Shillings for each such Horse, Mare, or Gelding.

Duty to be in addition to former Duties, imposed by Stats. 24 Geo 3. c. 31. 29 Geo. 3. c. 49. 36 Geo. 3. c. 16.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said additional Rate and Duty hereby imposed shall be paid over and above, and in addition to, the respective Rates and Duties granted by certain Acts of the twenty-fourth, twenty-ninth, and thirty-sixth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, on Horses, Mares, or Geldings, kept and used for the Purpose of riding, or drawing any such Carriage or Carriages as are therein respectively enumerated.

and to be subject to 20l. per Cent. on the Amount.

III. And be it further enacted, That the said Rate or Duty by this Act imposed, as hereinbefore is mentioned, shall be subject and liable to an additional Duty after the Rate of twenty Pounds per Centum per Annum on the Produce and Amount contained in any Assessment thereof.

Commissioners for Taxes to put this Act in Execution.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, for the better assessing, levying, collecting, and paying, the beforementioned Duties by this Act imposed, the Commissioners authorized or appointed, or who shall hereafter be authorized or appointed, for putting in Execution the Acts relative to the present Duties on Horses, Mares, and Geldings, or any other Duties placed under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, shall be Commissioners for executing this present Act with relation to the aforesaid Duty, and the Powers herein contained, in all and singular the Counties, Shires, Stewartries, Ridings, Divisions, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, Towns, and Places respectively, within the Kingdom of Great Britain; and that the several Surveyors, Inspectors, Assessors, and Collectors respectively appointed, or who shall be appointed, in Manner aforesaid, shall be Surveyors, Inspectors, Assessors, and Collectors, to put in Execution this present Act, according to the respective Powers and Authorities given to them by the former Acts hereinbefore mentioned, or any of them; and the said Commissioners, and other the Persons aforesaid being duly qualified to act in the Execution of the said several Acts as before mentioned, shall, and they are hereby respectively empowered and required to do all Things necessary for putting this Act in Execution, with relation to the aforesaid Rate or Duty hereby imposed, in the like, and in as full and ample a Manner as they, or any of them, are or is authorized to put in Execution the said several Acts relative to the Rates and Duties on Horses, Mares, and Geldings, or any Matters or Things therein respectively contained.

Mode of making the Assessment of 20l. per Cent. and returning the same to the Commissioners.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful to and for the several Assessors, in making the Assessment under this present Act of the additional Duty after the Rate of twenty Pounds per Centum, to assess the Sum of twenty Pounds per Centum upon the Amount of all the former Rates and Duties contained in any Assessment whereon the Rates of twenty Pounds per Centum are imposed by any Act or Acts of Parliament, and the Rate and Duty imposed by this Act, in one Sum, and by one Assessment and Charge, instead of distinct Assessments and Charges, and to return the same to the respective Commissioners, in the Manner and under the Regulations and Directions prescribed by an Act of this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty additional Duties on the Amount of certain Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes; and that the respective Collectors shall and may collect and receive the said Duties accordingly.

First Assessment to be for three Quarters, from July 5, 1797; and afterwards for a Year, and to be paid Quarterly.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the first Assessment under this Act shall be made for three Quarters of a Year, from the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven; and that from and after the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, the Assessments under this Act shall be made for one Year from the fifth Day of April in each Year; and that the Duty so to be assessed shall be paid Quarterly, at the Time and in Manner following; that is to say, On the fifth Day of January, the fifth Day of April, the fifth Day of July, and the tenth Day of October, in every Year, by equal Portions; the first of the said Payments on the said Assessment for three Quarters of a Year to be made on the tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven.

Duties to be assessed, &c. as others under the Management of the Commissioners for Taxes.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the said additional Rate or Duty by this Act imposed shall be assessed, raised, levied, collected, received, paid over, and accounted for, in such and the like Form and Manner, and with such Allowances, and under such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, and according to such Rules, Methods, and Directions, and subject to such Provisoes and Exemptions by which the former Rates and Duties on Horses used as aforesaid were or might be assessed, raised, levied, collected, received, paid over, and accounted for, or by any of them, as the same now remain in force, and are applicable to the said additional Rate or Duty hereby imposed, and are not altered by this Act; and that all and every the Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Exemptions, Clauses, Matters, and Things, contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relative to the former Rates and Duties on Horses, or any of them, or any Act or Acts therein referred to, now in force, for the assessing, surcharging, raising, levying, collecting, recovering, receiving, paying, and accounting for, the said Rates and Duties thereby granted, as far as the same are applicable to the Rate and Duty by this Act imposed, and not repugnant thereto, shall be in force, and be duly observed, practised, and put in Execution, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, for the assessing, surcharging, raising, levying, collecting, recovering, receiving, paying, and accounting for, the Rate or Duty by this Act granted, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Exemptions, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things were particularly repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

Former Acts or this Act not to extend to Horses used by licensed Persons in the drawing of Stage Coaches, or Carriages for Hire.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in the said several Acts of the twenty-fourth, twenty-ninth, and thirty-sixth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, or in any of them, or in this Act contained, shall be construed to extend to charge with the Duty by the said several Acts or this Act imposed, any Person duly licensed to keep any Carriage whatever to be employed as a Public Stage Coach, or Carriage for the Purpose of conveying Passengers for Hire from different Places in Great Britain, in respect of any Horse, Mare, or Gelding, which is or shall be actually and solely used and employed by such Person in drawing such Stage Coach or Carriage from Place to Place for Hire; any Thing in any of the said Acts, or this Act, contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Duties to be carried to the Consolidated Fund.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies arising by the said Rate or Duty hereby imposed, (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted,) shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, and shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund.

Application of Duties, which for ten Years are, with others granted for the same Purpose, to be kept separate from all other Monies.

X. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Monies arising or to arise of the Duty by this Act imposed, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient, shall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue for the Purpose of defraying the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan raised, or Stock created, by virtue of any Act or Acts passed in this Session of Parliament; and that the said Monies shall, during the Space of ten Years next ensuing, be paid into the said Receipt, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenue; and that there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt, during the said Period of ten Years, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies arising from the said Duty hereby imposed and paid into the said Receipt shall, together with the Monies arising from any other Rates and Duties granted or to be granted in this Session of Parliament, for the Purpose of defraying such increased Charge as aforesaid, be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, upon any Account whatever.

CAP. CXXXV.

An Act to explain and amend an Act, passed in the thirty-sixth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for repealing certain Duties on Legacies, and Shares of Personal Estate, and for granting other Duties thereon, in certain Cases.—[20th July 1797.]

36 Geo. 3. c. 52. § 32. recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the thirty-sixth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for repealing certain Duties on Legacies, and Shares of Personal Estates, and for granting other Duties thereon, in certain Cases; it is enacted, that where, by reason of the Infancy, or Absence beyond the Seas, of any Person entitled to any Legacy, or to the Residue of any Personal Estate, or any Part thereof, chargeable with Duty by virtue of the said Act, the Person or Persons having or taking the Burthen of any Will or Testamentary Instrument, or the Administration of such Personal Estate, cannot pay such Legacy, or some Part thereof, although he, she, or they may have Effects for that Purpose, or cannot pay such Residue, or some Part thereof, although he, she, or they may have the same, or some Part thereof, in his, her, or their Hands; it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons to pay such Legacy or Residue, or any Part or Parts thereof, respectively, or any Sum or Sums of Money on account thereof, after deducting the Duty chargeable thereon, into the Bank of England, with the Privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, to be placed to the Account of the Person or Persons for whose Benefit the same shall be so paid; for Payment of which Money the said Accountant General shall give his Certificate, as usual in such Cases, on Production of the Certificate of the Commissioners of Stamps that the Duty thereon hath been duly paid, and such Payment into the Bank shall be a sufficient Discharge for the Money so paid in, provided the Duty be also paid thereon as aforesaid; and such Money, when paid in, shall be laid out by the said Accountant General, without any formal Request for that Purpose, in the Purchase of three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Annuities, which, with the Dividends thereon, shall be transferred and paid to the Person or Persons entitled thereto, or otherwise applied for his or their Benefit, on Application to the Court of Chancery by Petition, or Motion in a summary Way: And whereas Money paid into the Bank of England, with the Privity of the said Accountant General, in ordinary Cases, cannot, according to the Forms prescribed for that Purpose, be paid by the Bank of England, upon the Draft of the said Accountant General, unless the same shall be entered and signed by the Register of the said Court of Chancery, or one of his Deputies; and Doubts have been raised whether the said Register or his Deputies are authorized to enter and sign any Draft of the said Accountant General for the Purpose of laying out Money, paid into the Bank of England in pursuance of the said Act, in the Purchase of three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Annuities, as directed by the said Act;' be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That whenever any Sum of Money shall be paid into the Bank of England, with the Privity of the said Accountant General, in pursuance of the said Act, the Accountant General's Certificate of such Payment shall be filed with the Register of the said Court of Chancery, in the Office called The Report Office, in the same Manner as Certificates

When Money is paid into the Bank in pursuance of the recited Section, the Accountant

General's Certificate to be filed in the Report Office, where his Drafts on the Bank for the Money for Investments shall be entered, and be a Warrant to the Bank for the Payment, &c.

ficates of Payment of Money paid into the Bank of England, with the Privity of the said Accountant General, in pursuance of any Order of the said Court, are usually filed; and when the said Accountant General shall have drawn any Draft on the Governor and Company of the Bank of England for Payment of such Money, in the usual Form, for the Purpose of applying the same in the Purchase of three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Annuities in pursuance of the said Act, such Draft shall be carried to the said Report Office, and entered and signed by the Register, or one of his Deputies, in the same Manner as Drafts drawn by the said Accountant General, in pursuance of any Order of the said Court, are usually entered and signed; and every such Draft so drawn, entered, and signed as aforesaid, shall be a Warrant to the said Governor and Company for Payment of the Money specified in such Draft, in the same Manner as Drafts of the said Accountant General, drawn, entered, and signed, in pursuance of any Order of the said Court, are Warrants to the said Governor and Company for Payment of Money in other Cases; and the said Court of Chancery shall, from Time to Time, make all and every such Orders and Order as shall be necessary for carrying the Purposes of the said Act, and of this Act, respecting any Money so to be paid into the Bank as aforesaid, into Execution; and such Orders or Order shall and may be made, either in any particular Matter, or for the general Purposes of the said Act, and of this Act, or either of them, as Occasion shall require, and as to the said Court shall seem fit; and such Order or Orders of the said Court of Chancery shall be sufficient Warrant to the said Accountant General, and to the said Register, and his Deputies and Officers, and to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and to all Person and Persons whomsoever, for all Things which shall be done in pursuance of any such Order or Orders, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

CAP. CXXXVI.

An Act to enable the Commissioners of Stamp Duties to stamp Deeds, and other Instruments, Bills of Exchange, Promissory and other Notes, in the Cases therein mentioned.—[20th July 1797.]

'WHEREAS Deeds and other Instruments cannot be given in Evidence, nor are in any Manner available unless stamped with the proper Stamps, provided for such Purpose: And whereas, from the 'Variety of Stamps provided for different Purposes, Mistakes have arisen and may again arise in the Use of 'such Stamps, for want of knowing the proper Denomination or Value required in particular Cases: And 'whereas in many Instances such Instruments cannot be stamped after Execution, without paying accumu-'lated Penalties, under Acts passed from Time to Time for imposing Stamp Duties:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, whereupon any Instrument, Matter, or Thing, (except Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, or other Notes, Drafts, or Orders,) shall have been or shall be engrossed, printed, or written, liable in respect thereof to be stamped with a Stamp or Stamps of a particular Denomination or Value, and whereon there is or shall be impressed any Stamp or Stamps of a different Denomination, but of an equal or greater Value with the Stamp or Stamps required at the Time of making, signing, or executing the said Instrument, Matter, or Thing, shall be produced to the Commissioners of Stamp Duties at their Head Office of Stamps, or to such Officer as the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, shall appoint for such Purpose, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, or their Officer as aforesaid, in every such Case, and upon Payment of the Duty by Law payable for such Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, in respect of the Instrument, Matter, or Thing engrossed, printed, or written thereon, at the Time such Vellum, Parchment, or Paper shall be produced as aforesaid, and one Penalty of five Pounds, to stamp, or cause to be stamped, such Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, (except as aforesaid,) with the proper Stamp or Stamps provided and in use for the same, at the Time such Vellum, Parchment, or Paper shall be produced to be stamped as aforesaid, without making any Allowance for the Stamp or Stamps before marked thereon; and every Instrument, Matter, or Thing so stamped, shall have and be deemed of the like Force and Validity in the Law, as if the same had been duly stamped before such Instrument, Matter, or Thing had been engrossed, printed, or written thereon; any former Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Instruments, (except Bills, &c.) on Stamps of a different Denomination, but of an equal or greater Value than the proper Stamp, on Production at the Stamp Office, and Payment of the legal Duty and 5l. Penalty, may be stampt with the proper Stamp.

Instruments (Bills, &c. excepted) unstamped, or on Stamps of less than the legal Value, may be duly stampt on Payment of the Duty, and 10l. Penalty, for each Skin, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That where any Skin, or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, on which any Matter or Thing (except Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, or other Notes, Drafts, or Orders) shall have been engrossed, printed, or written, shall be brought to the said Commissioners to be stamped after the same shall have been executed, the same not having been stamped with any Stamp, or having been stamped with a Stamp of less Value than is by Law required, and the Person or Persons producing the same is desirous of having the same duly stamped, but the same cannot, according to the Laws in Force, be stamped without Payment of accumulated Penalties, exceeding ten Pounds besides the Duty; that then and in every such Case it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, to direct the proper Officer or Officers, and such Officer or Officers is and are hereby required, to stamp the same on Payment of the Duty by Law payable for such Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, in respect of the Instrument, Matter, or Thing engrossed, printed, or written thereon, and one Penalty of ten Pounds only for every such Skin, or Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, although the Duty payable for the same shall have been imposed by more than one Act of Parliament, and notwithstanding standing the Penalties thereupon may have accumulated to a larger Sum than the said Sum of ten Pounds; and every Instrument, Matter, or Thing engrossed, printed, or written on any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper so stamped as aforesaid, shall have, and be deemed of the like Force and Validity in the Law, as if the Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, so stamped, had been duly stamped before such Instrument, Matter, or Thing had been engrossed, printed, or written thereon; any former Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

If Instruments not duly stampt without intention of Fraud, to be brought to be so stampt within 60 Days after Execution, the Commissioners may remit the Penalty, &c.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in any Case where it shall appear to the Commissioners of Stamp Duties, upon Oath or Affirmation, to be made before any one or more of the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, (which Oath or Affirmation he is hereby authorized to administer,) or otherwise, to their Satisfaction, that any Instrument whatever required by Law to be engrossed, printed, or written, on stamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, hath not been engrossed, printed, or written on Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, duly stamped as aforesaid, either by Accident or Inadvertency, or from urgent Necessity, or unavoidable Circumstances, and without any Intention in any Party or Parties thereto, to defraud his Majesty of the Duties payable thereon, and such Instrument shall be brought to the said Commissioners to be stamped as aforesaid within sixty Days after the making or Execution thereof, it shall be lawful for such Commissioners of Stamp Duties to remit the Penalty payable on stamping such Instrument, or any Part thereof, as they shall deem expedient; and every Person concerned in engrossing, printing, or writing any such Instrument, or in making or executing the same, shall be and is hereby freed, discharged, and indemnified from all further Penalties and Forfeitures, than such Penalties or Forfeitures or such Parts thereof as shall not be so remitted by Order of the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties.

The additional Duties imposed by 37 Geo. 3. c. 90. may be stampt on Parchment, &c. used before Sept. 29, 1797, which shall be brought to the Head Office before Nov. 1, on Payment of Duty.

IV. 'And whereas the Commissioners of his Majesty's Stamp Duties have not been able to supply the 'different Parts of the Kingdom with sufficient Quantities of Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, stamped with 'the additional Duties granted by an Act of the present Session of Parliament, before the Period appointed 'for the Commencement of the said Duties, and several Persons have necessarily used Instruments without 'such Stamps;' be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons who shall have used, or shall, at any Time before the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, use any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, on which such additional Duty is imposed, and which shall be duly stamped in the Manner required by the Laws in Force on and immediately before the passing of the said Act, to bring or send the same to the said Head Office at any Time before the first Day of November, in order that the same may be stamped as aforesaid, on Payment of the additional Duty granted by the said Act; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, or their Officers appointed for such Purpose, to stamp the same, on Payment of the said additional Duty only, without any Penalty; and all and every Person and Persons concerned in engrossing, printing, or writing any Matter or Thing on such Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, as aforesaid, or in using the same in Manner aforesaid, shall be and is and are hereby indemnified, freed, and discharged from and against all Penalties and Forfeitures incurred, or to be incurred thereby before the stamping the same in Manner aforesaid.

31 Geo 3. c.25, recited.

V. 'And whereas by an Act, passed in the thirty-first Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for repealing the Duties now charged on Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, and other Notes, Drafts, and Orders, and on Receipts, and for granting other Duties in lieu thereof, certain Stamp Duties 'were imposed on Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, and other Notes respectively; and it was thereby 'enacted, that all Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, before any Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, or other 'Note, liable to any Stamp Duty by the said Act imposed, should be engrossed, printed, or written thereon, should be brought to the Head Office for stamping such Vellum, Parchment, and Paper; and that it 'should not be lawful for the Commissioners for managing the Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and 'Paper, or their Officers, to stamp any Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, at any Time after any Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, or other Note, Draft, or Order, should be written thereon, under any Pretence 'whatsoever:' Be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons, who shall be the Holder or Holders of any Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, or other Note, Draft, or Order, made after the passing of this Act, and liable to any Stamp Duty by virtue of the said recited Act, which shall be stamped with a Stamp of a different Denomination than is required by the said Act, if the same shall be of equal or superior Value to the Stamp required, to produce the same, or cause the same to be produced, within the respective Times hereinafter mentioned, to the Commissioners appointed to manage the said Duties, at the Head Office of Stamps in Middlesex, or to such Officer or Officers as the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them, shall, by Writing under their Hands, appoint for such Purpose; and it shall and may be lawful for such Commissioners to direct the proper Officer or Officers, and such Officer or Officers is and are hereby required, upon Payment of the Duty payable on such Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, by the said recited Act, and such Penalty as is hereinafter mentioned, over and above the said Duty, to mark or stamp such Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, or other Note, Draft, or Order, with the proper Mark or Stamp, and to give a Receipt for the Duty and Penalty so paid on the Back of such Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, or other Note, Draft, or Order, so stamped; and every such Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, or other Note, Draft, or Order, so stamped, shall have and be deemed of the like Force and Validity in the Law, as if the same had been duly stamped according to the Directions of the said recited Act; and all and every Person or Persons procuring such Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, or other Note, Draft, or Order, to be stamped as directed by this Act, shall be and is and are hereby indemnified, freed, and discharged from and against all Penalties and Forfeitures incurred by reason of such Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, or other Note, Draft, or Order, not having been duly stamped according to the Directions of the said Act.

Bills of Exchange, &c. made after passing this Act, liable to Stamp Duty under recited Act, if on Stamps of an equal or superior Value, though of different Denominations than the legal Stamps, may be properly stampt, on Payment of the Duty, and a Penalty.

Penalty to be paid on stamping said Bills; 40s. if before the bill is payable; 10l. afterwards.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any such Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, or other Note, Draft, or Order, shall be produced to the said Commissioners before the same shall be payable according to the Tenor and Effect thereof, the same shall be stamped on Payment of the said Duty, and the Penalty of forty Shillings; but in case such Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, or other Note, Draft, or Order, shall be payable, according to the Tenor and Effect thereof, before the Production thereof to the said Commissioners for the Purpose before mentioned, then the same shall not be stamped, unless on Payment of the Duty and the Sum of ten Pounds for the said Penalty.

" tion of thirty Days after the Commencement of the next Session."

CAP. CXXXVIII.

An Act to amend an Act, made in the twenty-second Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for better securing the Freedom of Elections of Members to serve in Parliament, by disabling certain Officers, employed in the Collection or Management of His Majesty's Revenues, from giving their Votes at such Elections, by extending the Provisions thereof to Persons voting in any Meeting of Freeholders for Preses or Clerk, or on any Question relative to the Adjustment of the Roll of Freeholders, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland; and for empowering Freeholders to administer the Oath of Trust and Possession to Persons offering to vote for Preses and Clerk.—[20th July 1797.]

22 Geo. 3. c. 41. recited,

'WHEREAS an Act was made in the twenty-second Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intitu-
'led, An Act for better securing the Freedom of Elections of Members to serve in Parliament, by dis-
'abling certain Officers, employed in the Collection or Management of his Majesty's Revenues, from giving their 'Votes at such Elections: And whereas great Inconveniences have arisen, in that Part of Great Britain called 'Scotland, at the Meetings for Elections of Members to serve in Parliament, by the Persons who are de'clared by the said Act incapable of voting at such Elections giving their Votes for the Choice of Preses or
'Clerk to the Freeholders, and on Questions relative to the Adjustment of the Roll, not only at such Elec'tions, but at other Meetings of Freeholders, whereby the Votes of such Persons so incapacitated, although 'not actually given for any Member to serve in Parliament, yet may often be decisive of such Election;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Person or Persons described in the said recited Act, and thereby rendered incapable of voting in the Election of Members to serve in Parliament, shall be capable of voting at any Election for the Choice of a Preses or Clerk to the Freeholders of any County in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, or on any Questions relative to the Adjustment of the Roll of Freeholders of any such County, not only at such Elections, but at all other Meetings of the Freeholders of any such County; and if any Person, hereby made incapable of voting, shall nevertheless presume to give his Vote during the Time he shall hold, or within twelve Calendar Months after he shall cease to hold or execute, any of the Offices mentioned in the said Act, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, such Votes so given shall be held null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and every Person so offending shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, one Moiety thereof to the Informer, and the other Moiety thereof to be immediately paid into the Hands of the Clerk of the Justices of the Peace of the Counties or Stewartries in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, to be applied and disposed of to such Purposes as the Justices at the next General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held for such County or Stewartry shall think fit; to be recovered by summary Complaint before the Court of Session in Scotland; and the Person convicted on any such Suit shall thereby become disabled and incapable of their bearing or executing any Office or Place of Trust whatsoever under his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors.

No Person described in the recited Act as incapable of voting for a Member of Parliament, to vote for a Preses or Clerk to the Freeholders in Scotland, &c.

Penalty for voting 100l.; and incapacity to serve his Majesty.

Any Freeholder may put the Oath of Trust and Possession to Persons offering to vote for Preses and Clerk.

II. And be it further enacted, That if any Person at an Election for a Member to serve in Parliament for any County, shall offer to vote in the Election of Preses and Clerk, it shall and may be lawful for any Freeholder to put the Oath of Trust and Possession to him before giving his Vote, in the same Manner as is now practised after the Preses and Clerk are chosen.

No Person liable to Penalty unless prosecuted within a Year.

III. Provided also, and be it enacted, That no Person shall be liable to any Forfeiture or Penalty by this Act laid or imposed, unless Prosecution be commenced within twelve Months after such Penalty or Forfeiture shall be incurred.

CAP. CXXXIX.

An Act for allowing a further Time for carrying into Execution certain Powers contained in two Acts of the present Session of Parliament, for raising a provisional Cavalry, so far as the same relate to the registering and accepting of Volunteers in lieu of the said provisional Cavalry, in such Counties, and Subdivisions of Counties, wherein the said Acts have not been carried into Execution.—[20th July 1797.]

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for enabling his Majesty to raise a provisional Force of Cavalry, to be embodied, in case of Necessity, for the Defence of these Kingdoms, certain Provisions are made for raising, in the several Counties, Ridings, and Places, in that Part of Great Britain called England, a Body of Cavalry for his Majesty's Service, to be kept in Readiness to be called out into actual Service whenever it shall be necessary, in order to repel any Invasion that might be attempted by the Enemies of the Country: And whereas, by another Act, passed in the same Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for enabling his Majesty to raise a provisional Force of Cavalry, to be embodied, in case of Necessity, for the Defence of these Kingdoms," Powers are given to the Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace, acting in the Execution of the said Acts, for any Subdivision of any County, Riding, or Division, to suspend the further Execution of the said first-mentioned Act within such Subdivision, in case three fourth Parts of the whole Number of Men to be raised within such Subdivision should be registered, within a Time therein limited, as Volunteers, raised and formed under the Authority of an Act, passed in the thirty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for encouraging and disciplining such Corps or Companies of Men as shall voluntarily enroll themselves for the Defence of their Counties, Towns, or Coasts, or for the general Defence of the Kingdom during the present War; and also to suspend the Operation of the said Act, as to classing and balloting for the said provisional Cavalry, in case any Number of such Volunteers should be registered for particular Classes: And whereas certain Counties, and Subdivisions of Counties, have not proceeded to execute the first-mentioned Act; and it is expedient to allow a further Time for registering Volunteers under the Authority of the said Act of the thirty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, in order that the Execution of the said first-mentioned Act may be suspended in such Subdivisions and Classes respectively, in the Manner directed by and under the Terms contained in the last-mentioned Act of the present Session of Parliament:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all the Powers, Provisions, Clauses, Matters, and Things, in the said last mentioned Act of the present Session of Parliament contained, with respect to the approving and registering of Volunteers raised or formed under the Authority of the said Act of the thirty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, within the Time therein limited, and to the suspending the further Execution of the said Acts of the present Session of Parliament, or either of them, in the Manner therein directed, shall be, and the same are hereby extended and declared to be in full Force, until and upon the first Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, in all and every the said Counties, and Subdivisions of the said Counties, in which the said Acts of the present Session of Parliament have not been executed; any Thing in the said Acts contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

37 Geo. 3. c. 6. and

c. 23 recited.

34 Geo. 3. c. 32.

Powers of 37 Geo. 3. c. 23. as to approving and registering Volunteers raised under 34 Geo. 3. c. 32. and as to suspending the further Execution of 37 Geo. 3. c. 6 and 23. extended to Oct. 1, 1797, in certain Counties.

CAP. CXL.

An Act to enable His Majesty more easily and effectually to grant conditional Pardons to Persons under Sentence by Naval Courts Martial, and to regulate Imprisonment under such Sentences.—[20th July 1797.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to provide more effectually for the Performance of the Conditions upon which his Majesty may be graciously pleased to grant conditional Pardons to Offenders liable to the Punishment of Death by Sentence of Naval Courts Martial;' be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if his Majesty shall be graciously pleased to extend his Mercy to any Offender liable to the Punishment of Death by the Sentence of a Naval Court Martial, upon Condition of Transportation, or of transporting himself beyond Seas, or upon Condition of being imprisoned within any Gaol in Great Britain, or on Condition of being kept to Hard Labour in any Gaol or House of Correction, or Penitentiary House, or on any River, under the Direction of any Superintendant or Superintendants legally appointed for the Charge of Offenders sentenced to Hard Labour on such River, it shall and may be lawful for any Justice of the King's Bench, Common Pleas, or Baron of the Exchequer, of the Degree of the Coif, upon such Intention of Mercy as aforesaid being notified in Writing by one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to allow to such Offender the

If his Majesty shall extend his Mercy to Persons liable to Death by the Sentence of a Naval Court Martial, a Justice of the King's Bench, &c. may, on Notification from the Secretary of State, allow the Benefit of such conditional Pardon as if it had passed under the Great Seal, and shall make Orders accordingly.

the Benefit of such conditional Pardon as shall be expressed in such Notification, in the same Manner as if a conditional Pardon had passed for that Purpose under the Great Seal; and thereupon, whenever any such Pardon shall be granted to any such Offender upon Condition of Transportation, or of transporting himself, such Justice or Baron shall make an Order for the Transportation of such Offender upon the Terms and for the Time which shall be specified in such Notification, and shall also make such other Order or Orders, and do all such other Acts consequent upon the same, as any such Justice or Baron is authorized to make or do by an Act, passed in the twenty-fourth Year of his Majesty's Reign *, intituled, An Act for the effectual Transportation of Felons, and other Offenders, and to authorize the Removal of Prisoners, in certain Cases; and for other Purposes therein mentioned; with respect to Offenders in such Act mentioned, tried at any Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery in England, as in the said Act mentioned; and such Order and Orders so to be made as aforesaid, and all such Acts as shall be so done as aforesaid, shall be obeyed and done by such Person in whose Custody such Offender shall at that Time be, and all other Persons whom it may concern, and shall be as effectual, and have all the same Consequences, as any Order made under the Authority of the said Act with respect to any Offender in the said Act mentioned; and whenever any such Pardon shall be so granted as aforesaid to any Offender liable to the Punishment of Death by the Sentence of a Naval Court Martial as aforesaid, upon Condition of being imprisoned within any Gaol in Great Britain, or on Condition of being kept to Hard Labour in any House of Correction, or Penitentiary House, or on Condition of being kept to Hard Labour, during any specified Term, on any River, under the Direction and Management of any Superintendant or Superintendants legally appointed as aforesaid, and such Pardon shall have been allowed in Manner aforesaid by any such Justice or Baron as aforesaid, such Justice or Baron shall order such Offender to be imprisoned or kept to Hard Labour in the Manner and for the Time which shall be specified in the Notification of such conditional Pardon from such Secretary of State as aforesaid, and shall make such Order or Orders, and do all such other Acts consequent thereupon, as any Justice of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery is authorized to make or do by an Act, passed in the nineteenth Year of his Majesty's Reign †, intituled, An Act to explain and amend the Laws relating to Transportation, Imprisonment, and other Punishment of certain Offenders, with respect to Offenders mentioned in the said Act, and to whom conditional Pardons may be granted, as in the said Act mentioned; and such Order or Orders when made, and all such other Act and Acts when done, by any such Justice or Baron as aforesaid, shall be as effectual, and have all the same Consequences, as any Order made for the like Purpose under the Authority of the last-mentioned Act, with respect to any Offender in such Act mentioned; and every Sheriff, Gaoler, Keeper, Governor, or Superintendant, whom it may concern, and all Constables and other Persons shall be bound to obey the aforesaid Order and Orders, be assistant in the Execution thereof, and be liable to the same Punishment for Disobedience or interrupting the Execution of the same, as they would be if the same had been made under the Authority of the aforesaid Acts respectively; and every Person to whom such conditional Pardon shall be extended, shall be subject respectively to all and every the Provision and Provisions made by Law and now in force concerning Persons convicted of any Crime and receiving his Majesty's Pardon on any such Condition as aforesaid.

* St. 2. c. 56.

The Justice or Baron allowing the Pardon, to direct the Notification and Order to be filed with the Clerk of the Crown of the Court of King's Bench.

II. And be it further enacted, That when any Offender liable to the Punishment of Death by the Sentence of any Naval Court Martial as aforesaid, shall receive and be allowed his Majesty's Pardon in Manner aforesaid, the Justice or Baron who shall allow such Pardon, and make any such Order as aforesaid under any such Notification of his Majesty's Intention as aforesaid, shall direct the said Notification, and his own Order made thereupon, to be filed in the Office of the Clerk of the Crown of his Majesty's Court of King's Bench, and to be there kept of Record; and the said Clerk of the Crown shall receive a Fee of two Shillings and Sixpence, and no more, for filing the same.

When an Offender is ordered to be imprisoned, or kept to Hard Labour, the Clerk of the Crown to deliver to the Person in whose Custody he shall be, a Certificate of his Name, Offence, &c. and such Person shall deliver him and the Certificate to the Gaoler, &c.

III. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Offender shall be ordered, by virtue of this Act, to be imprisoned or to be kept to Hard Labour in any such Manner as aforesaid, the Clerk of the Crown shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the Person in whose Custody such Offender shall at that Time be, a Certificate in Writing under his Hand, (not taking for the same more than two Shillings and Sixpence over and above what he has received for filing the said Notification and Order,) containing an Account of the Christian Name and Surname of such Offender, of his Offence, of the Place where the Court was held, before whom he was convicted, and of the Time for which, the Place where, and the Manner in which, he shall be ordered to be imprisoned, or to be kept to Hard Labour, in any such Manner as aforesaid; and the Person having the Custody of such Offender shall, with all convenient Speed after receiving such Certificate as aforesaid, convey such Offender, or cause him to be conveyed, to the House, Prison, or Place, to which he shall so be directed to be conveyed, and shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, such Offender, together with such Certificate, to the Gaoler, Keeper, Governor, or Superintendant, as the Case may be, or to such Person as such Gaoler, Keeper, Governor, or Superintendant, shall appoint; and the Person to whom such Offender shall be so delivered shall give a proper Receipt, in Writing under his Hand, to the Person so delivering such Offender, for the Discharge of such Person, and such Certificate shall be kept by the Person to whom such Offender shall be so delivered, as his Warrant and Authority for keeping such Offender in his Custody for such Term, and in such Manner, as shall be therein specified.

The Clerk of the Crown, on Application, to deliver a Certifi-

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said Clerk of the Crown of his Majesty's Court of King's Bench shall, upon the Application of any such Offender who shall accept his Majesty's Pardon, or of any other Person applying on his Behalf, or on the Application of any Person on Behalf of his Majesty, to deliver a Certificate in Writing under his Hand, (not taking for the same more than two Shillings and Sixpence,) containing an Account of the Christian Name and Surname of such Offender, of his Offence, of the Place where the Court was held, before whom he was convicted, and of the Terms and Conditions on which his Majesty's Pardon was extended to him, which Certificate shall be sufficient Proof of the Conviction and Sentence of such Offender, and also of the Terms on which such Pardon was granted to him, in any Court, and in any Proceeding wherein it may be necessary to enquire into the same.

Certificate of the Name, Offence, Place of Conviction, and Terms of Pardon, which shall be Proof.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty to remove any Offender under Sentence of Death by any Naval Court Martial, but reprieved during his Majesty's Pleasure, or under Order of Transportation by virtue of this Act, or in Confinement under Sentence of any Court Martial, to such Place, in such Manner, and with such Restrictions, as he is empowered to do with respect to Offenders under Sentence of Death, but reprieved during his Majesty's Pleasure, or under Sentence or Order of Transportation by the said Act, passed in the twenty fourth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the effectual Transportation of Felons, and other Offenders, and to authorize the Removal of Prisoners, in certain Cases; and for other Purposes therein specified.

His Majesty may remove Offenders under Sentence of Death by a Naval Court, but reprieved, &c. as Offenders so reprieved, are removed by 24 Geo. 3. ft. 2. c. 56.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any Offender under Sentence of Death by a Naval Court Martial as aforesaid, shall be allowed the Benefit of such conditional Pardon as aforesaid, all and every the Laws now in force touching the Escape of Felons under Sentence of Death shall apply to such Offender, and to all Persons aiding, abetting, or assisting, in any Escape, or intended Escape, of any such Offender, or contriving any such Escape, from the Time when such Order shall be made by such Justice or Baron as aforesaid, and during all the several Proceedings which shall be had for the Purposes aforesaid.

Laws touching Escape of Felons under Sentence of Death to apply to Offenders under like Sentance by a Naval Court, if allowed the Benefit of a conditional Pardon.

CAP. CXLI.

An Act to enable the Deputy of the Clerk of the House of Commons, for the Time being, to send and receive Letters and Packets free from the Duty of Postage.—[20th July 1797.]

CAP. CXLII.

An Act for the better Administration of Justice at Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay; and for preventing British Subjects from being concerned in Loans to the Native Princes in India.—[20th July 1797.]

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for establishing certain Regulations for the better Management of the Affairs of the East India Company, as well in India as in Europe, it was enacted, that it should be lawful for his Majesty, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to erect and establish a Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, to consist of a Chief Justice and three other Justices, being Barristers of England or Ireland, of not less than five Years standing, to be named from Time to Time by his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors: And whereas by the said Act, and by divers other Acts of Parliament, certain Jurisdictions, Powers, and Authorities, were given to the said Court to be exercised in the Manner therein directed: And whereas it may be expedient that the Number of Judges should be reduced;' be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That immediately after the Death, Resignation, or Removal, of any of the Puisne Judges of the said Supreme Court, that the Office of one of the said Puisne Judges shall be and the same is hereby suppressed; and from and immediately after such Death, Resignation, or Removal, the said Supreme Court shall consist of a Chief Justice, and two other Judges only; and all Powers, Jurisdictions, and Authorities whatsoever shall, from and after such Period as aforesaid, be enjoyed and exercised by the said Chief Justice and other Judges, in as full and ample a Manner as the same might have been held, enjoyed, and exercised, by the said Supreme Court under the Authority of the said hereinbefore recited Act, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament, or under the Charter of Justice, granted by his Majesty under the Authority of the same.

13 Geo. 3. c. 63.

On the Death, &c. of any of the Puisne Judges of the Supreme Court of Judicature in Bengal, it shall consist of a Chief Justice and two other Judges.

II. 'And whereas his Majesty has by Law no Power to direct the Application of any Part of the Revenues of the Territorial Acquisitions in India, as a Provision for a Chief Justice, or other Judge, of the said Supreme Court, who, from Infirmity, or other Causes approved of by his Majesty, may return to Europe: And whereas it is expedient that such Power, to a limited Extent, be vested in his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the Death, Resignation, or Removal, of one of the Judges of the said Supreme Court, and the Suppression of the said Office in the Manner hereinbefore directed, that it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, to authorize and direct the Payment of a competent yearly Sum, out of the Revenues arising from the Territorial Acquisitions in India, to be applied for the Use and Behoof of any Chief Justice or other Judge, who, from Age, Infirmity, or other Cause, to be approved of by his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, shall return to Europe.

His Majesty may direct the Payment of a yearly Sum out of the Territorial Revenues, to any Chief Justice or other Judge returning to Europe.

III. Provided

Not more than 2000l. per Ann. to be so paid to any Chief Justice, nor more than 1500l. per Ann. to any other Judge, nor to any that has not resided in India as a Judge for seven Years, &c.

III. Provided always, That it shall not be lawful for his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, to authorize the Payment of any larger Sum for the Use and Behoof of any Chief Justice so returning as aforesaid, than the Sum of two thousand Pounds per Annum, or of any other Judge, than the Sum of one thousand five hundred Pounds per Annum; nor shall it be lawful for his Majesty to authorize the Payment of any Sum whatever to any Person who has not resided in India as Judge of the said Supreme Court for the Space of seven Years; nor shall it be lawful for his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, to authorize the Payment of any Sum which, with the Sums already directed and authorized to be paid, at the Date of such Grant, shall, in the Whole, exceed the Amount of the Salary now paid to one of the Puisne Judges of the said Supreme Court.

The Supreme Court, where the Matter in Dispute does not exceed 1000 Pagodas, may direct Depositions to be filed of Record, or not.

IV. 'And whereas, by the Charter of Justice granted by his Majesty, under the Authority of the hereinbefore recited Act, passed in the thirteenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, the said Supreme Court of Judicature was directed and required to reduce, or cause to be reduced, to Writing, the Depositions of Witnesses in civil Causes, and was directed to require the same to be subscribed by such Witnesses, with their Name or other Mark, and to file the same of Record: And whereas by the said Charter of Justice it was also directed that no Appeal should be allowed from the said Supreme Court of Judicature, unless the Value of the Matters in Dispute exceed the Sum of one thousand Pagodas: And whereas the requiring the Depositions of Witnesses to be reduced into Writing, and filed of Record, is productive of much Expence and Delay in small Causes, where the Value of the Matter in Dispute does not exceed one thousand Pagodas, and which, for that Reason, cannot be made the Subject of Appeal;' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be in the Discretion of the said Supreme Court, in all Cases when the Value of the Matter in Dispute does not exceed one thousand Pagodas, either to direct the Deposition of Witnesses to be reduced into Writing, and filed of Record, or not, as the said Court shall think fit, in the particular Case; any Thing in the said Charter of Justice contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Court of Directors may direct the Chief Justice to issue a Precept to the Officers of the Supreme Court, to make a Return, on Oath, of their Salaries and Fees.

V. 'And whereas, by the said hereinbefore recited Act, it was enacted, that his Majesty might, by Charter or Letters Patent, establish a Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, in the Manner, and with the Powers in the said Act mentioned; and it was also enacted, that the Supreme Court so to be erected should have Power to appoint Clerks and other Ministerial Officers, with such reasonable Salaries as should be approved of by the Governor General and Council: And whereas his Majesty did issue his Royal Letters Patent, for erecting a Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal; and, among other Things, Power was given to the said Supreme Court, from Time to Time, as Occasion should require, to appoint such Clerks and Ministers as should be necessary for the Administration of Justice, and the Execution of the Authorities granted to the Court, which said Officers and Clerks were to receive such reasonable Salaries as the said Supreme Court should appoint for each Office and Place respectively, and as the Governor General and Council should approve: And whereas the said Supreme Court did appoint certain Clerks and Ministers, with Salaries, which were approved of by the Governor General and Council: And whereas Doubts have arisen whether the said Salaries so appointed and approved of as aforesaid, can be reduced or altered, or any of the said Offices abolished or suppressed, without the Authority of Parliament: And whereas the Salaries paid by the East India Company to the Clerks and Ministers of the Supreme Court amount to a large Sum, and yet nevertheless the said Clerks and Ministers have, and do receive, Fees for all Business done by them in the said Court: And whereas it may be expedient that the said Salaries should be reviewed, and that Power should be given to alter the same if necessary;' be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants trading to India to direct the Chief Justice of the said Supreme Court to issue a Precept or Order, directed to all and each of the Officers, Clerk, and Ministers of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, calling upon them and each of them to make a Return upon Oath, which Oath the said Chief Justice, or any of the Judges of the said Supreme Court, are hereby empowered and required to administer, of the Amount of the Salary received by such Officer and Officers, and also a List of the Fees to which he or they are entitled, together with the Amount of the same, which have been received by such Officer for the three Years next immediately preceding the Date of the said Precept or Order.

Officers of the Court to make a Return to the Precept in 20 Days, and for making a false Return to forfeit their Offices.

VI. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Clerk, Officer, and Minister of the said Supreme Court, shall pay due Obedience to the said Order or Precept, and make a true Return to the same within twenty Days next after the Date of the same; and if any such Officer, Minister, or Clerk shall be guilty of making a false Return, or shall not set forth in the same the full Amount of the Salary, Fees, Perquisites, and Emoluments which he shall have received for the last three Years, and each or any Part of the same during which he shall have been in Office; then and in such Case such Officer shall, upon being duly convicted thereof, forfeit his said Office, and be for ever incapable of holding any Office in the said Supreme Court, or in the Service of the said United Company.

Judges to take Returns into Consideration, and report to the Governor General in

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Chief Justice and other Judges of the said Supreme Court shall, as soon as they conveniently can after the Receipt of the said Returns, take the same into their Consideration, and report to the Governor General in Council, under their Hands and Seals, which of the said Offices are, in their Opinion, proper to be continued, and what is the proper Salary to be allowed to each of the same, and whether any Retrenchment can, with Propriety, be made therein, with their Reasons for

for the same; and in case the said Chief Justice and the other Judges, or any of them, shall not agree respecting the said Report, then such of the said Judges as do dissent from the Opinion of the Majority shall also report, under his or their Hands and Seals, his or their Opinion, with the Reasons thereof; and in case the Governor General in Council do agree with the Majority of the said Supreme Court concerning the Extent of the said Retrenchment, if any can be made therein, the said Governor General in Council shall, and they are hereby empowered to alter, abridge, or abolish, all or any of the said Offices and Salaries which to them shall so seem proper to be altered or abridged, or abolished, at such Time and Times, and in such Manner as they shall think fit, subject nevertheless to such Orders and Directions as they shall receive from the Court of Directors concerning the same; but in case the said Governor General in Council shall disagree with the said Report from the Majority of the said Court, or any Part thereof, then such Parts of the said Report, as are the Subjects of Difference between the said Governor General in Council and the said Supreme Court, shall be suspended, and shall not be carried into Execution, but the same shall be transmitted Home for the ultimate Decision of the Court of Directors respecting the same, who shall give such Orders respecting the same as they shall think fit: Provided always, that, from and after the passing of this Act, and until the said Report shall be made and considered as is herein-before directed, if any Vacancy shall occur in any of the Offices or Places under the said Supreme Court, which are herein directed to be reviewed, the same shall be filled up by the Judges of the said Supreme Court provisionally only, and a Person or Persons shall be by them appointed to do the Duty of the said Office until the said Report shall be made; and such Office or Offices shall be liable to be reduced, or the Salaries altered, if necessary, in the same Manner as if they were actually vacant at the Time of making such Report.

Council what Offices should be continued and the Salaries.

If the Council agree with the Judges respecting Retrenchments, they are to be made, subject to the Orders of the Court of Directors; who are also to decide if the Council and Judges disagree.

If a Vacancy occur before the Report is made, it is to be filled up provisionally.

VIII. 'And whereas certain Regulations for the better Administration of Justice among the Native 'Inhabitants and others, being within the Provinces of Bengal, Bahar, and Orissa, have been from Time to 'Time framed by the Governor General in Council in Bengal; and among other Regulations it has been 'established and declared as essential to the future Prosperity of the British Territories in Bengal, that all Re'gulations, passed by Government, affecting the Rights, Properties, or Persons of the Subjects, should be 'formed into a regular Code, and printed, with Translations, in the Country Languages, and that the 'Grounds of every Regulation be prefixed to it; and that the Courts of Justice within the Provinces be 'bound to regulate their Decisions by the Rules and Ordinances which such Regulations may contain, 'whereby the Native Inhabitants may be made acquainted with the Privileges and Immunities granted to 'them by the British Government, and the Mode of obtaining speedy Redress for any Infringement of the 'same: And whereas it is essential that so wise and salutary a Provision should be strictly observed, and that it 'should not be in the Power of the Governor General in Council to neglect or to dispense with the same;' be it therefore enacted, That all Regulations which shall be issued and framed by the Governor General in Council at Fort William in Bengal, affecting the Rights, Persons, or Property, of the Natives, or of any other Individuals who may be amenable to the Provincial Courts of Justice, shall be registered in the Judicial Department, and formed into a regular Code, and printed, with Translations, in the Country Languages, and that the Grounds of each Regulation shall be prefixed to it; and all the Provincial Courts of Judicature shall be, and they are hereby directed to be bound by and to regulate their Decisions by such Rules and Ordinances as shall be contained in the said Regulations; and the said Governor General in Council shall annually transmit to the Court of Directors of the East India Company ten Copies of such Regulations as may be passed in each Year, and the same Number to the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India.

Regulations of the Governor General in Council, which affect the Natives or others amenable to the Courts of Justice, to be printed, with Translations in the Country Languages, and transmitted to England.

IX. 'And whereas his late Majesty King George the Second did by his Letters Patent, bearing Date 'at Westminster the eighth Day of January, in the twenty-sixth Year of his Reign, grant unto the United 'Company of Merchants trading to the East Indies, his Royal Charter, thereby, amongst other Things, 'constituting and establishing Courts of Civil, Criminal, and Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction, at the said United 'Company's Settlements at Madras Patnam and Bombay in the Island of Bombay, and Fort William in 'Bengal: And whereas the said Charter, in so far as it respects the Administration of Justice at Fort Wil'liam in Bengal, has been altered and changed by an Act, passed in the thirteenth Year of his present Ma'jesty's Reign *, intituled, An Act for establishing certain Regulations for the better Management of the 'Affairs of the East India Company, as well in India as in Europe: And whereas the said Charter does not 'sufficiently provide for the due Administration of Justice in such Manner as the State and Condition of 'the Company's Settlements at Madras Patnam and Bombay do and must require:' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty, by Charter or Letters Patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to erect and establish a Court of Judicature at Madras and Bombay respectively, which shall consist of the Mayor and three of the Aldermen resident at the said Settlements of Madras and Bombay respectively for the Time being; which Aldermen shall, from Time to Time, be selected in such Manner as shall be directed and prescribed by his Majesty in the said Charter, together with one other Person at each of the said Settlements, to be named from Time to Time by his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, which said Person shall be a Barrister of England or Ireland, of not less than five Years standing, which said Person so appointed shall be the President of the said Court, and shall be stiled The Recorder of Madras and Bombay respectively; which said Courts of Judicature shall have, and the same are hereby declared to have, full Power and Authority to exercise and perform all Civil, Criminal, and Ecclesiastical, and Admiralty Jurisdiction, and to appoint such Ministerial Officers as may be necessary, and to form and establish such Rules of Practice, and such Rules for the Process of the said Court, and to do all such other Things as shall be necessary for the Administration of Justice and the due Execution of all or any of the Powers

* c. 63.

His Majesty may erect Courts of Judicature at Madras and Bombay, to consist of the Mayor, three Aldermen, and a Recorder, who shall be a Barrister, and be appointed by his Majesty.

which shall or may, by the said Charter, be committed to the said Courts; and the same shall also be at all Times Courts of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery in and for Fort St. George, and the Town of Madras, and the Limits thereof, and the Factories subordinate thereto, and in and for the Town and Island of Bombay, and the Limits thereof, and the Factories subordinate thereto respectively.

Extent of their Jurisdiction.

X. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That the said new Charter, which his Majesty is hereby empowered to grant, and the Jurisdiction, Powers, and Authorities, to be thereby established, shall extend to all British Subjects who shall reside within any of the Factories subject to or dependant upon the Governments of Madras and Bombay respectively; and the said Charter shall be competent and effectual, and the said Courts therein and thereby established shall have full Power and Authority, according to their respective Jurisdictions, to hear and determine all and all Manner of Complaints against any of his Majesty's Subjects, for any Crimes, Misdemeanors, and Oppressions, committed or to be committed, and also to hear and determine all Suits and Actions whatsoever against any of his Majesty's Subjects arising in Territories subject to or dependant upon the said Governments of Madras and Bombay respectively, or within any of the Territories which now are or hereafter may be subject to or dependant upon the said Governments, or within any of the Dominions of the native Princes of India in Alliance with the said Governments respectively, or against any Person who at the Time when such Debt or Cause of Action shall have arisen, have been employed by, or shall have been directly or indirectly in the Service of the United Company, or any of his Majesty's Subjects: Provided always, that the said Court shall not be competent to hear, try, and determine any Indictment or Information against the Governor, or any of the Council, not being Treason or Felony, which the Governor or any of the Council at Madras or Bombay respectively shall or may be charged with having committed within the Jurisdiction of the said Courts respectively.

Courts may try all Suits which, by Authority of Parliament, may now be tried by the Mayor's Courts, or Courts of Oyer and Terminer.

The Governor, Council, and Recorder of the Court not subject to Arrest.

Jurisdiction of the Courts not competent to certain Matters.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the said Courts, so to be erected as aforesaid, shall have full Power and Authority to hear, try, and determine all and all Manner of Suits and Actions, either Civil or Criminal, which by the Authority of any Act or Acts of Parliament may now be heard, tried, or determined by the Mayor's Courts at Madras or Bombay respectively, or by the Courts of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery there; and all Powers, Authorities, and Jurisdictions, of what Kind or Nature soever, which by any Act or Acts of Parliament may be or are directed to be exercised by the said Mayor's Courts, or the said Courts of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, shall and may be as fully and effectually exercised by the said Courts, to be erected in the Manner aforesaid, as the same might have been exercised and enjoyed by the said Mayor's Courts or Courts of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery respectively: Provided always, that nothing in this Act shall extend to subject the Person of the Governor, or any of the Council at the respective Settlements, or the Person of the Recorder of the said Court, to be arrested or imprisoned in any Suit, Action, or Proceeding in the said Court; nor shall it be competent for the said Courts, within their respective Jurisdictions, to hear or determine, or to entertain and exercise Jurisdiction in any Suit or Action against the Governor or any of the Council at the said Settlements of Madras and Bombay respectively, for or on account of any Act or Order, or any other Act, Matter, or Thing whatsoever, councilled, ordered, or done by them in their Public Capacity, or acting as Governor and Council; nor shall the said Court have or exercise any Jurisdiction in any Matter concerning the Revenue under the Management of the said Governor and Council respectively, either within or beyond the Limits of the said Towns, Forts, or Factories, or concerning any Act done according to the Usage and Practice of the Country, and the Regulations of the Governor and Council; and no Person shall be subject to the Jurisdiction of any of the said Courts for or by Reason of being a Landowner, Landholder, or Farmer of Land or of Land Rent, or for receiving a Pension or Payment in lieu of any Title to or ancient Possession of Land or Land Rent, or for receiving any Compensation or Share of Profits for collecting Rents payable to the Public out of such Lands or Districts as are actually farmed by himself, or those who are his Undertenants by virtue of the Farm, or for exercising within the said Lands or Farms any Ordinary or local Authority commonly annexed to the Possession or Farm thereof, or for or by Reason of his becoming Security for the Payment of the Rents reserved, or otherwise payable out of any Lands or Farms, or Farms of Lands, within the Dominion subject to the Governments of Madras and Bombay respectively; and no Person for or by Reason of his being employed by the said Company, or the Governor and Council, or by any Person deriving Authority under them, for or on Account of his being employed by a Native, or the Descendant of a Native, of Great Britain, shall become subject to the Jurisdiction of the said Courts respectively, in any Matter of Inheritance or Succession to Goods or Lands, or in any Matter of Dealing or Contract between Party or Parties, except in Actions for Wrongs or Trespasses only.

Rights of Fathers and Masters of Families to be preserved.

XII. And, in order that due Regard may be had to the Civil and Religious Usages of the Natives, be it enacted, That the Rights and Authorities of Fathers of Families, and Masters of Families, according as the same may be exercised by the Gentu or Mahomedan Law, shall be preserved to them within their Families respectively, nor shall the same be violated or interrupted by any of the Proceedings of the said Courts; nor shall any Act done in consequence of the Rule or Law of Cast, so far as respects the Members of the same Family only, be deemed a Crime, although the same may not be justifiable by the Laws of England.

Courts may determine Suits against the Inhabitants ac-

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the said Courts so to be erected as aforesaid, shall have full Power to hear and determine all Suits and Actions that may be brought against the Inhabitants of Madras and Bombay respectively, in the Manner that shall be provided by the said Charter; yet nevertheless, their Inheritance and Succession to Lands, Rents, and Goods, and all Matters of Contract and Dealing between

Party

Party and Party, shall be determined, in the Case of Mahomedans, by the Laws and Usages of the Mahomedans, and where the Parties are Gentus, by the Laws and Usages of the Gentus, or by such Laws and Usages as the same would have been determined by if the Suit had been brought, and the Action commenced, in a Native Court; and where one of the Parties shall be a Mahomedan or Gentu, by the Laws and Usages of the Defendant; and in all Suits so to be determined by the Laws and Usages of the Natives, the said Court shall make such Rules and Orders for the Conduct of the same, and frame such Process for the Execution of their Judgments, Sentences, or Decrees, as shall be most conformant to the Religions and Manners of the said Natives, and to the said Laws and Usages respectively, and the easy Attainment of the Ends of Justice; and such Means shall be adopted for compelling the Appearance of Witnesses, and taking their Examination, as shall be consistent with the said Laws and Usages, so that the said Suits shall be conducted with as much Ease, and at as little Expence, as is consistent with the Attainment of substantial Justice.

according to the Charter, but their Inheritance of Lands, &c. to be determined as would have been done in a Native Court; and where one Party is a Mahomedan or Gentu, by the Usages of the Defendant, &c.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That no Action for Wrong or Injury shall be against any Person whatever exercising a judicial Office in any Country Court, for any Judgment, Decree, or Order of the said Court, or against any Person for any Act done by or in virtue of the Order of the said Court; and in case any Information is intended to be brought against any such Person or Officer, the same shall be brought and proceeded in, in the same Manner, and to all Intents and Purposes in the same Form, and to the same Effect, as such Informations are directed to be proceeded in before the Supreme Court of Judicature at Calcutta in Bengal, by an Act, passed in the twenty-first Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to explain and amend so much of an Act, made in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act for establishing certain Regulations for the better Management of the Affairs of the East India Company, as well in India as in Europe,' as relates to the Administration of Justice in Bengal; and for the Relief of certain Persons imprisoned at Calcutta in Bengal under a Judgment of the Supreme Court of Judicature, and also for indemnifying the Governor General and Council of Bengal, and all Officers who have acted under their Orders or Authority, in the undue Resistance made to the Process of the Supreme Court.

No Action for Wrong, to be brought against a Judicial Officer for any Order of Court, nor for any Act done by virtue of any such Order; but if any Information is intended, it must be brought according to 21 Geo. 3. c. 70.

XV. And be it further enacted, That a Registry of the Natives employed in the Service of the said Company, or in the Service of British Subjects, or their Partners, shall be established within the Settlements of Madras and Bombay respectively, in the same Manner, to the same Effect, to the like Extent, and for the like Purpose, and subject to the like Penalties, as such Register is established at Calcutta, by the said Act passed in the twenty-first Year of his present Majesty's Reign.

A Registry of Natives employed by the Company or British Subjects to be established as at Calcutta.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be directed, in and by the said new Charter which his Majesty is herein empowered to grant, that in case any Person or Persons whatever shall think him, her, or themselves aggrieved, by any Judgment or Determination of either of the said Courts of Judicature, to be established as aforesaid, he, she, or they may appeal from such Judgment or Determination, to his Majesty in Council, within such Time and in such Manner, and in such Cases, as his Majesty in his said Charter shall judge proper and reasonable to be appointed and prescribed.

His Majesty to direct in the Charter that Persons may appeal from the Court to his Majesty in Council.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That if his Majesty shall grant such Charter as aforesaid, and erect such Courts of Judicature at Madras and Bombay, all the Records and Muniments and Proceedings whatsoever, of and belonging to the said Mayor's Courts at Madras and Bombay respectively, or to the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, there established by the aforesaid Charter of his late Majesty, shall, from and immediately after such Courts of Judicature as his Majesty is herein empowered to erect shall be established, be delivered over, preserved, and deposited, for safe Custody in the said new Courts of Judicature respectively; to which all Parties concerned shall and may have Resort and Recourse, upon Application to the said Court.

Records of the Mayor's Courts, or the Courts of Oyer and Terminer, to be deposited in the new Courts.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That so much of the Charter granted by his late Majesty, as confers any Civil, Criminal, or Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction upon the Mayor's Courts of Madras and Bombay respectively, or upon the President and Council as a Court of Appeal from the said Courts, or of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, at the said Settlements, or the Subordinates thereto belonging, in case a new Charter shall be granted by his Majesty, and shall be openly published at Madras and Bombay respectively, from and immediately after such Publication shall cease and determine, and be absolutely void to all Intents and Purposes; and all judicial Powers and Authorities granted by any Act or Acts of Parliament to the said Mayor's or Courts of Appeal at the said Settlements, shall cease and determine, and be no longer exercised by the said Courts; but the same shall and may be exercised by the Courts of Judicature to be erected by virtue of this Act, in the Manner, and to the Extent hereinbefore directed; but nevertheless the said Charter shall, in all other Respects, continue in full Force and Effect, to all Intents and Purposes, according to the true Intent and Meaning thereof, except in so far as it is altered or varied by this Act, as fully and effectually as if this Act had not been made, or such new Charter should not have been granted.

Jurisdiction of the Mayor's Courts, and of the Presidents and Councils as Courts of Appeal, to cease on Publication of new Charter.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That during such Time as the said Settlements of Madras and Bombay respectively shall remain in the Possession of the said United Company, the Court of Directors of the said United Company shall, and they are hereby required to direct and cause to be paid to the Recorder of the said Court of Judicature at Madras, the Yearly Sum of five thousand Pounds, and to the Recorder of the Court of Judicature at Bombay the Yearly Sum of five thousand Pounds, and such Salaries shall be paid to them and each of them for the Time being respectively, out of the Revenues of the said respective Settlements

Court of Directors to cause to be paid to the Recorder of each Court 5000l. annually out of the Revenues of the Settlement.

ments of Madras and Bombay, at an Exchange of eight Shillings for the Pagoda at Madras, and of two Shillings and Sixpence for the Bombay Rupee at the Settlement of Bombay.

Commencement of Salaries, which are to be in lieu of all Emoluments.

XX. And be it further enacted, That the said Salaries shall take place and commence, in respect to such Persons who shall be resident in Great Britain at the Time of their Appointment, upon and from the Day on which such Person shall embark from Great Britain; and that the Salaries of all such Persons who shall at the Time of their Appointment be resident in India, shall commence and take place from and after their respectively taking upon them the Execution of their Office as aforesaid; and that all such Salaries shall be in lieu of all Fees of Office, Perquisites, Emoluments, and Advantages whatsoever; and that no Fees of Office, Perquisites, Emoluments, or Advantages whatsoever shall be accepted, received, or taken, in any Manner, or on any Account or Pretence whatsoever, other than such Salaries and Allowances as are in and by this Act directed to be paid.

If the Recorder return to Europe after five Years Residence in India as such, his Majesty may order him an Annuity out of the Territorial Revenues, not exceeding 1200l.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That if the Recorder of the Court of Judicature at Madras and Bombay respectively, shall return to Europe, from Age, Infirmity, or other Cause, to be approved of by his Majesty, it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty, by Warrant under the Sign Manual, to direct and authorize an Allowance to be made out of the Revenues of the British Territories in India, to such Recorder so returning: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for his Majesty to direct any larger Allowance to be made to such Recorder so returning, than the Sum of one thousand two hundred Pounds per Annum; nor shall it be lawful for his Majesty to direct any Allowance to be made to any Person who has not resided five Years in India as Recorder of such Courts of Judicature: Provided always, that it shall not be lawful for his Majesty to direct the Allowance of any Sum to any Recorder as aforesaid, which, with the Allowance already directed and authorized at the Date of such Grant to be paid, either to any Recorder as aforesaid, or any Chief Justice or other Judge of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Calcutta, shall, in the Whole, exceed the Amount of the Salary of one of the Judges of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Calcutta.

If the Recorder die, no Successor being on the Spot, the junior Puisne Judge of the Supreme Court at Calcutta to proceed to the Settlement, and hold the Office till a Recorder arrives.

XXII. And, in order more effectually to provide for the regular Administration of Justice, be it enacted, That whenever it shall happen that the Recorder of Madras or Bombay respectively shall die, and no Person shall be upon the Spot, who shall be appointed by his Majesty to succeed to such Recordership, in such Case, and as soon as the same shall be made known to the Supreme Court of Judicature at Calcutta, the junior Puisne Judge of the said Court shall, and he is hereby directed and authorized to proceed, with all convenient Speed, to the Settlement where such Vacancy shall have happened, and shall take upon himself the Office of Recorder of the said Settlement, and shall hold and exercise the same in as full and ample a Manner as if he had been appointed Recorder of the said Settlement by his Majesty by Authority of this Act, and shall continue to hold and exercise the said Office until a Recorder shall be appointed by his Majesty, and until such Recorder shall arrive at the said Settlement, and no longer.

Acting Recorder to receive a Proportion of Salary.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That such Judge, so acting as Recorder during a Vacancy, and until the Arrival of the Person appointed to succeed [to] the said Office, shall be entitled to receive a Proportion of Salary, and no more than would have become due to such Recorder during the Period while the Vacancy shall be supplied by such Judge as aforesaid.

Appointment of Judge not vacated by acting as Recorder.

XXIV. Provided always, That nothing in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend, to vacate the Appointment of such Judge by reason of his exercising the Office of Recorder as aforesaid.

Recorders not to be concerned in Traffic.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That the said Person or Persons so to be appointed by his Majesty Recorder of the Court of Judicature at Madras and Bombay respectively, shall not carry on, be concerned in, or have any Dealings or Transactions by Way of Traffic or Commerce of any Kind whatsoever, either for his or their own Use, Benefit, Profit, or Advantage, or the Use, Benefit, Profit, or Advantage of any Person whatsoever.

Recorder to be tried as the Judges of the Supreme Court at Calcutta.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That all Offences committed by or charged upon the said Recorder of the said Courts, shall be heard, tried, and determined in the same Manner as if the same were committed by or charged upon any of the Judges of the Supreme Courts of Judicature at Calcutta.

All new Forms of Process to be transmitted to the Board for India Affairs.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That all new Forms of Process, or Rules and Orders for the Execution thereof, shall be transmitted to the President of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, to be laid before his Majesty for his Royal Approbation, Correction, or Refusal; and such Process shall be used, and such Rules shall be observed until the same shall be repealed or varied, and in the last Case with such Variation as shall be made therein.

From Dec. 1, 1797, no British Subject to lend any Money, or be concerned in raising any for Native Princes, without Consent of the Court of Directors, or the Governor

XXVIII. 'And whereas the Practice of British Subjects lending Money, or being concerned in the lending of the same, or in Transactions for the borrowing Money for, or lending Money to, the Native Princes 'in India, has been productive of much Mischief, and is the Source of much Usury and Extortion: And 'whereas the wholesome Orders of the Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants trading to 'India, have not been sufficient to restrain and repress the same: And whereas it is highly desirable that such 'Practices should be prevented in future;' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the first Day of December next, no British Subject shall, by himself, or by any other Person directly or indirectly employed by him, lend any Money or other valuable Thing to any Native Prince in India, by whatever Name or Description such Native Prince shall be called, nor shall any British Subject, either by himself, or by any other Person directly or indirectly employed by him, be concerned in the lending any Money to any such Native Prince, nor shall any British Subject be concerned either by himself or by any other Person, either directly or indirectly, in raising or procuring any Money for any such Native Prince, or as being Security for such Loan or Money, nor shall any British Subject lend any Money or other valuable Thing to any other Person for the Purpose of being lent to any such Native Prince, nor shall any British Subject, by himself or by any other Person, either directly or indirectly, for his Use and Benefit, take, receive, hold, enjoy, or be concerned in any Bond, Note, or other Security or Assignment, granted or to be granted by any such Native Prince, after the first Day of December next, for the Loan, or for the Re-payment of Money, or other valuable Thing, without the Consent and Approbation of the Court of Directors of the East India Company, or the Consent and Approbation of the Governor in Council of one of the said Company's Governments in India, first had and obtained in Writing; and every Person doing, acting, or transacting, or being concerned in any Actings, Doings, and Transactions, contrary to this Act, shall be deemed and taken to be guilty of a Misdemeanor at Law, and shall and may be proceeded against and punished as such, by virtue of this Act, before any Court of competent Jurisdiction; and all Bonds, Notes, Assignments, or Securities for Money, of what Kind or Nature soever, taken, held, or enjoyed, either directly or indirectly, for the Use and Benefit of any British Subject, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall be, and the same are hereby declared to be null and void to all Intents and Purposes.

in Council; and any Person doing so may be prosecuted for a Misdemeanor.

Security for Money lent contrary hereto, to be void.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That when and so often as any Information shall be given, or Complaint made, to any of the Governments of the said United Company in the East Indies, of any Person having acted contrary to the Provisions of this Act, such Governments shall forthwith lay the Case before the Company's Law Officers at the Settlement where it arises, who shall take the same into their Consideration, and report their Opinion thereupon, whether the same is a proper Case for Prosecution, (together with their Reasons for the same,) which Report shall be transmitted Home to the Court of Directors by the first convenient Opportunity.

On Complaint to the Governments in India for acting contrary to this Act, the Case to be laid before the Law Officers, whose Report shall be transmitted to the Court of Directors.

XXX. 'And whereas the Provision made by the Charter of Justice of his late Majesty, for the Establishment of a Court of Requests in and for the Towns of Madras Patnam, Bombay, and Calcutta, for the Recovery of Debts, Duties, and Demands therein, not exceeding the Value of five Pagodas, in Manner therein directed, hath been found beneficial and convenient: And whereas an Extension of Jurisdiction of the said Courts for the Recovery of Debts, Duties, and Demands, to a larger Amount in Value is found to be useful;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Jurisdiction of the said Courts of Requests at and for the said Towns of Madras Patnam, Bombay, and Calcutta, respectively, shall be and the same is extended to the Recovery of all or any Manner of Debts, Duties, and Demands, not exceeding in Value the Sum of eighty Current Rupees respectively; and for that Purpose that the Commissioners of the said Courts of Requests, and their Successors, shall have full Power and Authority to hear and determine all Actions, Plaints, and Suits, which have grown, or shall be brought before them, in their said respective Courts, where the Debt, Duty, or Matter in Dispute, shall not exceed the said Value of eighty Current Rupees, and to award Execution thereupon for the Debt or Sum adjudged to be due, in the same Manner as they now do for Debts and Demands under the Sum of five Pagodas.

Jurisdictions of the Courts of Requests at Madras, Bombay, and Calcutta, extended to 80 Rupees.

CAP. CXLIII.

An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Prevention of the Use of defective Weights, and of false and unequal Balances—[20th July 1797.]

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Prevention of the Use of defective Weights, and of false and unequal Balances, it was (among other Things) enacted, That it should and might be lawful for the Justices, at every Quarter Sessions of the Peace for any County, Riding, Liberty, or Division, in England or Wales, to appoint certain Persons to examine the Weights and Balances within their respective Districts, and that the Persons so appointed should, once in every Month at the least, examine such Weights and Balances; and the Persons in whose Possession any false Weights or Balances should be found, were subjected to a Penalty, not exceeding twenty Shillings, nor less than five Shillings, to be paid to the Treasurer of the County, Riding, or Division, and be applied by him for the Purposes therein particularly described: And whereas the said Act might be more conveniently executed, if some of the Powers thereof were vested in the Justices of the Peace at their several and respective Petty Sessions; and it is expedient that certain other Alterations should be made in the said Act:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the tenth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, so much of the said recited Act as requires the Justices, at the Quarter Sessions of the Peace, to appoint Persons to examine the Weights and Balances within their respective Counties, Ridings, Liberties, and Divisions, and which authorizes the Persons so appointed to search for and examine all Weights and Balances, and to seize and destroy false or unequal Weights or Balances, and imposes a Penalty on the Persons in whose Possession the same shall be found, shall be and is hereby repealed; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for the Justices of the Peace, at their respective Petty Sessions, within the Divisions, Districts, and other Places of the

35 Geo. 3. c. 102. recited.

So much of recited Act as requires the Justices at Quarter Sessions to appoint Persons to examine Weights, &c.

repealed, and Justices at their Petty Sessions may appoint such Examiners.

the several Counties in England and Wales, to appoint one or more Person or Persons, who shall have Power to examine the Weights and Balances, within such Divisions, Districts, and other Places respectively.

Examiners, when directed by the Justices, to visit Shops, &c. and seize false Weights, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Person or Persons so to be appointed as aforesaid, and they are hereby required, (having first been sworn duly and faithfully to execute the Office in him or them reposed by virtue of such Appointment, and of this Act, which Oath such Justices are hereby authorized and empowered to administer,) as often as the said Justices shall direct, in the Day Time, to enter into the Shop, Mill, House, Outhouses, and other Premises near to such Shop, Mill, or House, and into the Stall or Standing Place of any Person or Persons who sell by Retail and Weight any Wares, Provisions, Goods, or Chattels whatsoever, and then and there to search for, view, and examine all Weights and Balances in such Shop, Mill, House, Outhouses, Premises, Stall, or Standing Place, and to seize any Weight or Weights, not being according to the Standard in the Exchequer, or any false or unequal Balance or Balances, which shall, upon such Search, be found therein, and to detain the same, to be produced before the Justices in Petty Sessions as aforesaid, upon the Hearing of the Information or Informations hereinafter mentioned; and the Person or Persons, in whose Shop, Mill, House, Outhouses, Premises, Stall, or Standing Place, any such defective Weight or Weights, or any such false or unequal Balance or Balances, shall be found (against whom for such Offence or Offences an Information or Informations is and are hereby directed to be preferred) shall upon Conviction thereof in Petty Sessions as aforesaid, upon View or Confession, or upon the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, forfeit and pay, for every such Offence, any Sum of Money not exceeding twenty Shillings, nor less than five Shillings, as the said Justices, before whom such Person or Persons shall have been convicted, shall in their Discretion order and adjudge, together with the Costs and Charges attending such Conviction; such Forfeiture, together with such Costs and Charges, to be levied by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of the said Justices, by Distress and Sale of so much of the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons offending, as shall be sufficient to pay the said Penalty, and also the Expences of making such Distress and Sale.

Penalty for having false Weights, &c.

Justices to cause false Weights, &c. to be broken, and the Produce of the Materials and the Forfeitures to be paid to the County Treasurer, &c.

III. And be it further enacted, That on the Conviction of such Offender or Offenders, the said Justices shall cause such defective Weight or Weights, or such false or unequal Balance or Balances, so produced before them, to be forthwith broken and rendered useless, and the Materials thereof to be sold, and the Money arising from such Sale, together with the Amount of the Forfeiture or Forfeitures, to be paid by them to the Treasurer of such County, Riding, or Division, to be by him applied towards the Expences of carrying the said recited Act and this Act into Execution, and the Residue (if any) on account of the Public Stock of such County, Riding, or Division; and the said Justices shall also prepare, or cause to be prepared, Returns of the Forfeitures levied by them in pursuance of the said before recited Act, and of this Act, and also of the Sums arising from the Sale of such defective Weights, and false and unequal Balances, and shall transmit such Returns, signed by them, to the Clerk of the Peace for such County, Riding, or Division, respectively, at every General Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held for such County, Riding, or Division.

If the Majority of Inhabitants wish that any Persons should be specially appointed Examiners, they may, in Vestry, nominate them for Approbation of the Justices.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if the Majority of the Inhabitants of any Parish, Township, or Place, within such County, Riding, or Division, should be desirous that any Person or Persons shall be specially appointed to examine the Weights and Balances within such Parish, Township, or Place, it shall and may be lawful for such Inhabitants, and they are hereby empowered (at a Vestry to be duly holden for that Purpose) to nominate one or more substantial Householder or Householders, to be approved of and appointed by the said Justices, at their respective Petty Sessions for the Division or District wherein such Parish, Township, or Place, shall lie; which Person or Persons so nominated, approved, and appointed, shall have the same Powers and Authorities, within such Parish, Township, or Place, as are vested in the Person or Persons appointed for any District, Division, or Place respectively.

But no such Appointment shall be made till the Inhabitants have procured Standard Weights, the Costs of which, and the Recompence to the Examiners, to be paid out of the Poor's Rates.

V. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Appointment for such Parish, Township, or Place, shall be made, until the Inhabitants thereof have procured, or caused to be procured, the proper Weights, according to the Standard in the Exchequer, for the Use of such Parish, Township, or Place, to be deposited in the Custody of the Person or Persons to be appointed as last mentioned; and that it shall and may be lawful for the said Justices, in their respective Petty Sessions, to order and direct the Costs and Charges of procuring such Weights, and the Recompence and Satisfaction to be allowed to such Person or Persons, for his or their Time and Trouble in the Execution of such Office, within such Parish, Township, or Place, to be paid out of the Rate made for the Relief of the Poor, within such Parish, Township, or Place.

Powers of recited Act (except hereby altered) to remain in Force.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all the Clauses, Powers, and Provisions contained in the said recited Act (except such as are hereby repealed or altered) shall continue in Force, in the same Manner as if the same were repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Proceedings not to be removed.

VII. And be it further enacted, That no Proceedings to be had touching the Conviction of any Offender or Offenders against the said recited Act, or this Act, shall be removed by Writ of Certiorari, or by any other Writ or Process whatsoever, into any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster.

Justices to cause Convictions to be made out in the following

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Justices of the Peace before whom any Offender shall be convicted as aforesaid, shall cause the said Conviction to be made out in the Manner and Form following, or in any other Form of Words to the same Effect, mutatis mutandis; (that is to say,)

'BE it remembered, That on the Day of in the Year of our Lord at a Petty Sessions holden for the [Division or District] of in the said [County, Riding, or Division], before A. B. and *C. STATUTES at Large, &c.

Anno Regni GEORGII III. tricesimo octavo.

'AT the Parliament begun and holden at Weſtminſter, the twelfth Day of July, Anno Domini one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety ſix, in the thirty-ſixth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord GEORGE the Third, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c.

'And from thence continued, by ſeveral Prorogations, to the ſecond Day of November one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven; being the ſecond Seſſion of the eighteenth Parliament of Great Britain.'

CAP. I.

An Act to amend and continue, until one Month after the Concluſion of the preſent War, the Proviſions contained in an Act, paſſed in the Seſſion of Parliament of the thirty-ſixth and thirty-ſeventh Years of His preſent Majeſty, Chapter Ninety-one, videlicet, on the twenty-ſecond of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, for the Reſtriction on Payments of Caſh by the Bank.—[30th November 1797.]

'WHEREAS an Act was made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act to continue, for a limited Time, an Act made in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for confirming and continuing, for a limited Time, the Reſtriction contained in the Minute of Council of the twenty-ſixth Day of February one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-ſeven, on Payments of Caſh by the Bank, under certain Regulations and Reſtrictions:" And whereas it is expedient that certain Parts of the ſaid Act, which will expire in one Month after the Commencement of the preſent Seſſion of Parliament, ſhould be further continued:' May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That, during the Continuance of this Act, it ſhall not be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to iſſue any Caſh in Payment of any Debt or Demand whatſoever, except according to the Proviſions hereinafter contained; and that, during the Continuance of the Reſtriction hereby impoſed on Payments by the ſaid Governor and Company in Caſh, no Action or Suit ſhall be proſecuted againſt the ſaid Governor and Company to compel Payment of any Note of the ſaid Governor and Company expreſſed to be payable on Demand, or to compel Payment of any Note of the ſaid Governor and Company made payable otherwiſe than on Demand, which the ſaid Governor and Company ſhall be willing to exchange for any Note or Notes of equal Amount expreſſed to be payable on Demand, or to compel Payment of any Sum of Money whatſoever by the ſaid Governor and Company, which the ſaid Governor and Company ſhall be willing to pay in Notes of the ſaid Governor and Company expreſſed to be payable on Demand; and it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Governor and Company, during the Continuance of the Reſtriction aforeſaid on Payments in Caſh, to apply to the Court wherein any Action or Suit ſhall be brought, or ſhall be depending, againſt the ſaid Governor and Company, to ſtay Proceedings therein, in a ſummary Way; and in caſe ſuch Action or Suit ſhall be brought to compel Payment of any Note or Notes of the ſaid Governor and Company made payable on Demand, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Governor and Company to apply to the ſaid Court to ſtay all Proceedings in ſuch Action or Suit until the Expiration of the Time hereinafter limited for the Continuance of ſuch Reſtriction as aforeſaid, and ſuch Court ſhall ſtay all Proceedings accordingly; and in like Manner it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Governor and Company to apply to any Court in which any Action or Suit ſhall be brought or depending for the Purpoſe of compelling Payment by the ſaid Governor and Company of any Note of the ſaid Governor and Company payable otherwiſe than on Demand, or of any other Debt or Demand whatſoever, to ſtay all Proceedings againſt the ſaid Governor and Company in ſuch Action or Suit, on Payment of ſuch Sum of Money as ſhall appear to be juſtly due, or which might be recovered in ſuch Action or Suit, by Delivery of Notes of the ſaid Governor and Company for the Amount thereof expreſſed to be payable on Demand, if the Party or Parties to whom ſuch Money ſhall appear to be due ſhall be willing to accept Payment thereof in ſuch Notes, and thereupon ſuch Court ſhall order all Proceedings to be ſtayed accordingly; but if the Party or Parties entitled to any ſuch Money ſhall refuſe to accept Payment thereof

37 Geo. 3. c. 91. and ſee c. 45. of that Seſſion.

The Bank not to iſſue Caſh but according to certain Proviſions.

During ſuch Reſtriction no Suit to be proſecuted againſt the Bank to compel Payment of Notes which the Bank ſhall be willing to exchange for other Notes.

The Bank may apply to Courts to ſtay Proceedings in Actions.

by Delivery of such Notes of the said Governor and Company, expressed to be payable on Demand as aforesaid, the said Court shall order all Proceedings against the said Governor and Company in such Action or Suit to be stayed until the Expiration of the Time hereinafter limited for the Continuance of such Restriction on Payments in Cash as aforesaid: Provided always, that if it shall appear to such Court to be necessary, for the Purpose of ascertaining the Amount of any Demand on the said Governor and Company, or otherwise for the Furtherance of Justice, that any Proceedings should be had for any such Purpose, it shall be lawful for the said Court to permit Proceedings to be had in any such Action or Suit for such necessary Purpose only, or to ascertain the Amount of such Demand, in a summary Way, as the Nature of the particular Case may require, and as shall be consistent with the Restriction on Payments in Cash hereby imposed: Provided also, that no Costs shall be recovered against the said Governor and Company, in any Action or Suit which, during the Continuance of the Restriction aforesaid, shall be brought or prosecuted for the Purpose of compelling Payment by the said Governor and Company of any Debt or Demand, unless the Court wherein the same shall be brought or prosecuted shall be of Opinion that the same was necessary for the Purpose of ascertaining the Amount of such Debt or Demand, or the Title thereto, and in such Case such Court may direct the Payment of such Costs by the said Governor and Company in their Notes expressed to be payable on Demand, if the Party or Parties entitled to such Costs shall be willing to accept such Notes; and if such Party or Parties shall refuse to accept such Notes, then such Court shall stay all Proceedings to compel Payment of such Costs until after the Expiration of the Restriction on Payments by the said Governor and Company in Cash, herein contained.

The Court may permit Proceedings to be had, to ascertain the Amount of any Demand on the Bank, or for the Furtherance of Justice. No Costs to be given unless the Court think the Action necessary.

II. Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to restrain the said Governor and Company from issuing any Sum of Money less than twenty Shillings, in Cash, in Payment of any Debt or Demand not amounting to twenty Shillings, or in Payment of so much of any larger Debt or Demand as shall be a fractional Part of twenty Shillings over and above the Residue of such Debt or Demand; or from issuing any Sum of Money in Cash for the Services of the Army, Navy, or Ordnance, in pursuance of an Order of his Majesty's Privy Council, stating the special Purpose for which such Issue shall be required, and the Necessity for the same; all which Orders of Council shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within three Days after the Date of each of such Order, if Parliament shall be then sitting, and if not, then within three Days after the Sitting of Parliament.

The Bank may issue Cash in Payments under 20s. or to the Army or Navy, in pursuance of Orders in Council which shall be laid before Parliament.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That, during the Continuance of the Restriction by this Act imposed on Payments by the said Governor and Company, in Cash, it shall not be lawful for the said Governor and Company to issue any Sum of Money in Cash, or in Notes of the said Governor and Company, by way of Loan or Advance, for or on Account of the Public Service, except on the Credit of any Duties to be imposed by any Act or Acts which may be passed in the present Session of Parliament, for continuing the Duties on Malt, and for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land Tax, and any other Advance which may be authorized by any other Act or Acts which may be passed during the Continuance of the said Restriction.

The Bank not to advance any Money for the Public Service during the Restriction, except on the Land and Malt Tax Acts of this Session, or as otherwise authorized by future Acts of Parliament. [See c. 8. of this Session, for raising 3,000,000l. by Exchequer Bills.]

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That, during the Continuance of the Restriction by this Act imposed on Payments by the said Governor and Company in Cash, it shall nevertheless be lawful for the said Governor and Company to accept, from any Person or Persons whatsoever, any Sum or Sums of Money, in Cash, not being less than five hundred Pounds, in Exchange for Notes of the said Governor and Company, of equal Amount, upon an Engagement from the said Governor and Company to pay to such Person or Persons, during the Continuance of such Restriction as aforesaid, Cash in Exchange for any Note or Notes of the said Governor and Company, payable on Demand, to such an Amount, not exceeding in the Whole Three-fourths of the Sum of Money which shall have been so paid by such Person or Persons to the said Governor and Company in Cash, and in such Proportions, and at such Intervals, as shall be expressed in such Engagement; and it shall be lawful for the said Governor and Company to pay in Cash such Sum and Sums of Money as shall be required to be so paid, according to the Terms of such Engagement, to the Amount, in the Proportions, at the Times, and in the Manner therein to be expressed; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Bank may receive Sums, not under 500l. for Notes, and engage to repay Three-fourths in Cash.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Governor and Company, notwithstanding the Restriction imposed by this Act, to advance, for the Accommodation of the Persons dealing as Bankers in London, Westminster, and the Borough of Southwark, in Cash, any Sums of Money, not exceeding one hundred thousand Pounds in the Whole, to be paid to such Persons, at such Times, in such Proportions, and in such Manner, as to the said Governor and Company shall seem expedient.

100,000l. in Cash may be advanced to the Bankers of London, Westminster, and Southwark.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, upon Application being made to them, by or on the Behalf of the Treasurer of the Bank called The Bank of Scotland, established by an Act of the Parliament of Scotland, in one thousand six hundred and ninety-five, or by or on the Behalf of the Cashier of the Bank called The Royal Bank of Scotland, incorporated by Royal Charter, dated the thirty-first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, to issue and pay to such Treasurer or Cashier respectively, or to such Person or Persons as they shall respectively appoint to receive the same, for the sole Use of the said Banks, such Sum or Sums of Money, in Gold or Silver, as may be required, not exceeding the Sum of twenty-five thousand Pounds for each of the said Banks; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

25,000l. in Cash for each may be advanced to the Bank of Scotland and the Royal Bank of Scotland.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all Payments in Notes of the said Governor and Company expressed to be payable on Demand, which have been made since the twenty-sixth Day of February one thousand seven

Payments in Notes to be deemed made in seven hundred and ninety-seven, or which shall be made during the Restriction on Payments by the said Governor and Company in Cash, herein contained, shall be deemed Payments in Cash, if made and accepted as such; any Law, Statute, or Usage to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Cash, if accepted as such.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That during the Continuance of the Restriction on Payments by the said Governor and Company in Cash, imposed by this Act, no Person shall be held to Special Bail upon any Process issuing out of any Court, unless the Affidavit which shall be made for that Purpose according to the Provisions in the Act of the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, for preventing frivolous and vexatious Arrests, shall not only contain the several Matters required by the said Act, but also that no Offer has been made to pay the Sum of Money in such Affidavit mentioned, and therein sworn to, for the Purpose of holding any Person to Special Bail, in Notes of the said Governor and Company, expressed to be payable on Demand (fractional Parts of the Sum of twenty Shillings only excepted); and if any Process shall be issued against any Person upon which such Person might have been held to Special Bail before the passing of an Act of the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for confirming and continuing, for a limited Time, the Restriction contained in the Minute of Council of the twenty-sixth of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, on Payments of Cash by the Bank, and no Affidavit shall be made as aforesaid, and no such Offer of Payment in Notes of the Governor and Company had been made as aforesaid, such Person shall not be arrested on such Process, but Proceedings shall be had against such Person in the same Manner as if no Affidavit had been made for the Purpose of holding such Person to Special Bail under the Provisions of the said Act of his said late Majesty King George the First; and all Provisions in such Act, or in any other Act of Parliament, for preventing frivolous and vexatious Arrests, shall be applied to the Provisions in this Act contained, so far as the same are capable of being so applied: Provided always, that if an Affidavit shall be made upon which any Person might have been held to Special Bail upon any such Process as aforesaid, before the passing of the said last recited Act of the last Session of Parliament, and it shall be likewise sworn in such Affidavit that such Offer of Payment has been made as aforesaid, so that the Person who might have been arrested and held to Special Bail upon such Process, if this Act had not been made, cannot, by Reason of such Offer and of the Provisions in this Act contained, be so arrested and held to Special Bail, it shall be lawful for the Court out of which such Process shall issue, or for any Judge of such Court, in a summary Way, to order the Defendant in the Action in which such Process shall issue, and who might have been so held to Special Bail as aforesaid if this Act had not been made, to cause Notes of the said Governor and Company, expressed to be payable on Demand, to the Amount of the Sum of Money for which such Person might have been so held to Special Bail if this Act had not been made, to be deposited in such Manner as such Court or such Judge shall direct, to answer the Demands of the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in such Action; and if such Deposit shall not be made within the Time limited by such Order after such Notice thereof as shall thereby be directed to be given, it shall be lawful, upon Affidavit duly made and filed that such Deposit has not been made according to such Order, to arrest such Defendant, and hold him or her to Special Bail, in such and the same Manner as if this Act had not been made.

No Person to be held to Special Bail unless Affidavit required to be made by Stat. 12 Geo. 1. c. 29. also adds that there had been no Offer to pay in Bank Notes; otherwise Proceedings to be had as if no Affidavit had been made to hold to Special Bail.

If any Person, having offered to pay in Bank Notes, cannot, by Reason of this Act, be held to Special Bail, the Court may order him to deposit Bank Notes to answer the Demand, and if not done he may be arrested, and held to Special Bail.

IX. And be it further enacted, That during the Continuance of the Restriction on Payments by the said Governor and Company in Cash, by this Act imposed, all Sums of Money which now are or shall become payable for any Part of the Public Revenue, shall be accepted by the Collectors, Receivers, and other Officers of the Revenue, authorized to receive the same, in Notes of the said Governor and Company, expressed to be payable on Demand, if offered to be so paid (fractional Parts of the Sum of twenty Shillings only excepted).

Collectors of the Public Revenue to accept it in Notes.

X. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, during the Continuance of this Act, to issue Cash, out of any Cash which shall be at their Disposal, in Payment of any Debt or Demand whatever, or of any Part or Proportion of any Debt or Demand whatever, upon their giving five Days Notice in Writing to the Speaker of the House of Commons of their Intention so to do, specifying the Description of such Debt or Demand, any Thing in this Act to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding; which Notice the Speaker of the House of Commons is hereby required to cause forthwith to be inserted in the London Gazette.

The Bank may issue Cash, on previous Notice to the Speaker of the House of Commons.

Publication of Notice.

XI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be in force and have Continuance, so far as the same restrains the said Governor and Company from issuing Cash in Payments, until one Month after the Conclusion of the present War by a Definitive Treaty of Peace; and that this Act, or any Clause, Matter, or Thing, herein contained, may be repealed, altered, or varied, in any Manner whatsoever, during the present Session of Parliament.

Continuance of Act.

Act may be repealed or altered this Session.

CAP. X.

An Act to continue, until the Expiration of six Weeks from the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, so much of an Act, passed in the Session of Parliament of the thirty-sixth and thirty-seventh Years of His present Majesty, Chapter Seven, videlicet, on the eleventh of November one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, as relates to the Exportation and carrying Coastwise of Wheat and Rye, and to the Importation of several Articles of Provision.—[30th December 1797.]

37 Geo. 3. c. 7. recited.

' WHEREAS an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to continue for a ' limited Time, and amend an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, " An Act to pro- " hibit the Exportation of Corn, Meal, Flour, and Potatoes, and to permit the Importation of Corn and other " Articles of Provision, for a limited Time, in any Ships whatever, without Payment of Duty;" and for per- ' mitting Wheat, Wheat Flour, and Meal, imported, in order to obtain the Bounties granted by an Act of the ' last Session of Parliament, but which have not been found fit for making Bread, to be used in the Manufacture ' of Starch, Hair Powder, and Blue, or in the Distillation of Low Wines and Spirits: And whereas it is ex- ' pedient, that so much of the said Act as relates to the Exportation and carrying Coastwise of certain Sorts ' of Corn, and to the Importation of the Articles of Provision mentioned in the said Act, should be conti- ' nued for a limited Time:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the said Act as relates to the Exportation or carrying Coastwise of Wheat or Rye, or any Meal, Flour, Bread, Biscuit, or Malt, made thereof; and also so much thereof as relates to the Importation of Beans called Kidney or French Beans, Tares, Lentils, Calivances, and all other Sorts of Pulse; and also Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, and Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, and Lamb, whether salted or otherwise; Bacon, Hams, Tongues, Butter, Cheese, Potatoes, Rice, Sago, Sago Powder, Tapioca, Vermicelli, Millet Seed, Poultry, Fowls, Eggs, Game, and Sour Crout, shall be further continued during the Period hereinafter mentioned, in the same Manner, and under the same Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, Penalties and Forfeitures, as are in the said Act contained, with regard to such Exportation, Importation, or carrying Coastwise respectively.

So much of recited Act as relates to the Exportation or carrying Coastwise of Wheat, or Rye, of the Flour, &c. thereof, or to the Importation of Beans, &c. further continued.

II. And be it further enacted, That if any Foreign Wheat or Rye, or any Meal or Flour made thereof, shall arrive in any of the Ports of this Kingdom on or before the thirty-first Day of December one thousand seven

Foreign Wheat or Rye, or the Flour, &c. thereof, arriving at any Port in Great Britain by Dec. 31, 1797, may be imported Duty free, if proved to have been ready for Sea at certain Periods.

seven hundred and ninety-seven, and it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, or any three of them, that the same had been completely laden and ready for Sea, if at any Port in the Baltic Sea, on or before the twenty-first Day of November one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and if at any Port not in the Baltic Sea, on or before the twenty-eighth Day of November one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, then the same may be imported without Payment of any Duty, whatsoever.

During the Recess of Parliament, his Majesty may suspend the Provisions of this Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That in case his Majesty, at any Time during the Recess of Parliament, shall judge it to be most for the Benefit and Advantage of this Kingdom to suspend all or any of the Provisions of this Act, then it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by his or their Royal Proclamation, to be issued by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, or by his Majesty's Order in Council, to be published in the London Gazette, so to do.

Act may be altered or repealed this Session.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be varied, altered, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

Continuance of Act.

V. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in Force until the Expiration of six Weeks from the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament.

CAP. XI.

An Act to revive and continue, until the first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the thirty-sixth and thirty-seventh Years of His present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and two, videlicet, on the nineteenth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, for granting to His Majesty additional Duties on Distilleries in the several Parts of the Highlands of Scotland therein particularly described, for a limited Time; and for regulating the Duties on Distilleries in the respective Districts in Scotland.—[30th December 1797.]

CAP. XII.

An Act to give further Time for executing, and for enlarging, the Powers of an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to raise and embody a Militia Force in that Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland.—[30th December 1797.]

37 Geo 3. c. 103. recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to raise and embody a Militia Force in that Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland, the first Meeting of his Majesty's Lieutenants and the Deputy Lieutenants of each County, Stewartry, City, or Place, for carrying into Execution the said Act, was thereby * directed to be held on the first Day of August, in the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven: And whereas his Majesty's Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants of certain Counties, Stewartries, Cities, or Places, in Scotland, have not met on the said first Day of August, to carry the said Act into Execution, by reason whereof the said Militia have not yet been raised in Scotland:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in every County, Stewartry, City, or Place, in Scotland, where the first Meeting of Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants was not held on the Day appointed by the said Act, it shall be lawful for the Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants of the said Counties, Stewartries, Cities, and Places respectively, and they are hereby required to meet on the twelfth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, to carry the said Act into Execution; and the Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants respectively, who shall attend such Meeting, are hereby authorized and empowered to proceed in the Execution of the said Act, in the like Manner as they were directed to do, and might have done, on the said first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven: Provided always, that if it shall happen that the Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants of any County, Stewartry, City, or Place, in which the said Act hath not been carried into Execution, shall not hold their first Meeting on the said twelfth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, it shall be lawful for the said respective Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants to meet at any other Time afterwards, not later than the first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, and they are hereby respectively required, in case of such Failure, to meet at such Time as they conveniently can, and so as the said Meeting be not unnecessarily postponed or later than the said first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight; and that the first Meeting to be held on any of the Days before mentioned, and all other subsequent Meetings to be held in pursuance thereof, and also all Proceedings and Acts to be had or done at the said several Meetings, or any of them, or in pursuance of Orders given at such Meeting, shall be equally valid and effectual as if the same Meetings had been held on the Days mentioned in the said Act, or authorized thereby, and the same Proceedings and Acts had been done at such Meetings, or in pursuance of Orders given at the same.

Where the first Meeting of Lieutenancy was not held on the Day appointed by the recited Act, it may be held not later than March 1, 1798.

* § 15. 17. His Majesty, in Council, may

II. 'And whereas it is enacted by the said Act', that the Number of Private Men to be raised by the said 'Act should be apportioned and divided over the several Counties, Stewartries, Cities, and Places, as his

'Majesty,

'Majesty, by Order in Council, shall direct: And whereas for Want of Returns from the said Counties, 'Stewartries, Cities, and Places, where the said Act has not been carried into Execution, his Majesty hath 'not been able to make such Division:' Be it further enacted, That in the mean Time, and notwithstanding no Accounts or States of Persons liable to serve as Militia Men have been transmitted for certain of the said Counties, Stewartries, Cities, and Places, it shall be lawful for his Majesty, by Order in Council, from the Lists, States, and Accounts, already transmitted to his Majesty's Privy Council, previously to apportion and divide over the several Counties, Stewartries, Cities, and Places, from which such Lists, States, and Accounts, have been transmitted, the Number of Militia Men to serve for each such County, Stewartry, City, or Place; any Thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

apportion the Number of Men to serve for each Place from whence Returns have been transmitted.

III. Provided always, and be it enacted, That until such Time as Returns shall have been transmitted to his Majesty's Privy Council from all the Counties, Stewartries, Cities, and Places, in Scotland, the total Number of Militia Men to be apportioned for those Counties, Stewartries, Cities, and Places, from which Returns have been received, as directed by the said Act, shall not exceed five thousand five hundred.

Till the whole Returns are transmitted, the Total to be apportioned for Places from whence Returns have been sent, shall not exceed 5500.

IV. Provided also, That if upon the Returns being made from the remaining Counties, Stewartries, Cities, or Places, where the said Act has not been carried into Execution, it shall appear to his Majesty in Council that the Number of Men to be apportioned over the said remaining Counties, Stewartries, Cities, or Places, together with the Numbers already apportioned, will not complete the Number to be raised by the said Act, it shall be lawful for his Majesty, by Order in Council, to make such further Apportionment of Men to be raised over the several Counties, Stewartries, Cities, and Places, for which such Provisional Apportionment shall have been before made, as to his Majesty in Council shall seem expedient and necessary to carry into Effect the Provisions of the said Act.

Such provisional Apportionment may be increased on Receipt of the whole Returns.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Lieutenant, or, failing of him, any three or more Deputy Lieutenants, of each County, Stewartry, City, or Place, shall, upon Receipt of his Majesty's Order in Council aforesaid, summon a General Meeting of the said Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants, or any three or more of them, at some Burgh or principal Town of the said County, Stewartry, or Place, not later than fourteen Days after the Receipt of the said Order in Council, at which General Meeting the Number of Men to be balloted for in each Subdivision or District of the said County, Stewartry, City, or Place, shall be fixed and apportioned; which Ballot shall take place as directed by the said Act *, and the Copy of the Roll or Rolls of Militia Men balloted for and thereby ordered to be affixed to the Door of each Parish Church, may be so affixed by the Schoolmaster of such Parish, or by a Constable or other Officer; any Thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

On Receipt of his Majesty's Order in Council for that Purpose, a General Meeting of Lieutenancy to be summoned within 14 Days, to apportion the Number to be balloted for in each District. * § 18.

VI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenant, or any three or more of them, at their said General Meeting, or at any adjourned or other General Meeting, held for the further Execution of the said recited Act, or of this Act, to add together, whenever they shall think necessary, the Lists for two or more Districts or Subdivisions, and proceed upon such Lists, added together, in like Manner as if they had been originally returned for one Parish, Place, Subdivision, or District, so as to make the Choice of Militia Men by Ballot within every such County, Stewartry, City, or Place, as equal and impartial as possible; any Thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Lists for two or more Districts may be added together.

VII. And be it further enacted, That his Majesty's Lieutenant for each County, Stewartry, City, or Place, together with any two or more Deputy Lieutenants, and on the Death or Removal or in the Absence of his Majesty's said Lieutenant, the Deputy Lieutenants, or any three or more of them, may summon a General Meeting, or District or Subdivision Meeting, at such Times and Places as they may think necessary for the further Execution of the said recited Act and this present Act, besides those especially directed to be held as aforesaid; and which General and District or Subdivision Meetings shall have the same Powers and Authorities as are given to them respectively by the said recited Act and this present Act, and may be adjourned from Time to Time as may be found necessary.

General or District Meetings may be summoned at any Time for the further Execution of the Acts.

CAP. XIII.

An Act to amend an Act, made in the twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second *, intituled, An Act to enable His Majesty to grant Commissions to a certain Number of Foreign Protestants, who have served Abroad as Officers or Engineers, to act and rank as Officers or Engineers in America only, under certain Restrictions and Qualifications.—[30th December 1797.]

* Cap. 5.

'WHEREAS it is judged expedient for the better Defence of his Majesty's Colonies in America, to 'augment his Majesty's sixtieth Regiment of Infantry, now consisting of four Battalions of one 'thousand Men each, by the Addition of a fifth Battalion, to consist in like Manner of one thousand Men, 'and to inlist as Soldiers, to serve in the said Fifth Battalion in America, any of the Foreign Troops now in 'his Majesty's Pay, or other Foreigners who shall voluntarily enter themselves to serve as Soldiers therein: 'And whereas such Foreigners cannot so well be disciplined, without the Assistance of some Officers who are 'acquainted with their Manners and Language: And whereas it is expedient, in the present Juncture of 'Affairs, to facilitate the speedy raising of such fifth Battalion, and to enable a certain Number of Foreign

'reign Officers to serve and receive Pay as Officers in such fifth Battalion:' Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to augment the said sixtieth Regiment of Infantry, by the Addition of a fifth Battalion, to consist of one thousand Men, and to enlist as Soldiers, to serve in such Battalion, any of the Foreign Troops now in his Majesty's Pay, or other Foreigners who shall voluntarily enter themselves to serve as Soldiers therein in America.

His Majesty may add a fifth Battalion to the 60th Regiment, and Foreigners may serve therein in America.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Foreign Officers who shall receive Commissions from his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to be Officers of such fifth Battalion in America, (which Commissions it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, to grant,) shall and may be enabled to serve and receive Pay as Officers in the said Regiment.

Foreign Officers may serve and receive Pay therein.

III. 'And whereas by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act to enable His Majesty to grant Commissions to a certain Number of Foreign Protestants, who have served Abroad as Officers or Engineers, to act and rank as Officers or Engineers in America only, under certain Restrictions and Qualifications, it is amongst other Things enacted, that the Number of Officers in 'the said Regiment shall not, in the Whole, at any Time, exceed fifty, nor the Number of Engineers, in 'the Whole, at any Time, exceed twenty;' Be it therefore enacted, That the said recited Clause in the above-mentioned Act shall, from and after the passing of this present Act, be, and it is hereby declared to be and stand totally repealed to all Intents and Purposes.

§ 2 of Stat 29 Geo. 2. c. 5, to enable his Majesty to grant Commissions to Foreign Protestants, repealed.

IV. Provided also, That no such Foreign Officer shall be enabled by this Act to serve as an Officer in any Place except America only; but every such Foreign Officer, when he shall be reduced, shall be capable of receiving Half-Pay according to the Rank in which he shall then serve.

Foreign Officers to serve in America only, and may receive Half Pay.

CAP. XIV.

An Act to indemnify such Persons as have omitted to qualify themselves for Offices and Employments; and to indemnify Justices of the Peace, or others, who have omitted to register or deliver in their Qualifications within the Time directed by Law, and for extending the Time limited for those Purposes, until the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight; to indemnify Members and Officers, in Cities, Corporations, and Borough Towns, whose Admissions have been omitted to be stamped according to Law, or having been stamped, have been lost or mislaid, and for allowing them until the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, to provide Admissions duly stamped; to permit such Persons as have omitted to make and file Affidavits of the Execution of Indentures of Clerks to Attornies and Solicitors, to make and file the same on or before the first Day of Michaelmas Term one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight; and for indemnifying Deputy Lieutenants and Officers of the Militia, who have neglected to transmit Descriptions of their Qualifications to the Clerks of the Peace within the Time directed by Law, and for extending the Time limited for that Purpose, until the first Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight.—[30th December 1797.]

CAP. XV.

An Act for the Regulation of His Majesty's Marine Forces while on Shore; to continue until the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine.—[30th December 1797.]

CAP. XVI.

An Act for granting to His Majesty an Aid and Contribution for the Prosecution of the War.—[12th January 1798.]

'Most gracious Sovereign,

'WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament 'assembled, feeling it our indispensable Duty at the present Crisis, to provide effectually for raising 'the Supplies which are requisite to defray your Majesty's Public Expences in the Prosecution of the just 'and necessary War in which we are engaged, for the Defence and Preservation of your Majesty's Crown, 'and of the Religion, Laws, Liberties, and Property of all your Majesty's faithful Subjects, have freely and 'voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto your Majesty the Aid and Contribution hereinafter mentioned, 'and do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, annually, during the Term hereinafter mentioned, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, the several additional Rates, Duties, and Sums of Money hereinafter mentioned; (that is to say); That every Person assessed to any of the Duties payable at and immediately before the passing of this Act, on Male Servants, on Carriages, or on Horses kept for the Purpose of riding, or of drawing

Persons assessed to the Duties on Male Servants, Carriages, or Pleasure-Horses, to pay an additional Duty on the Amount of

And where the said annual Income shall appear to be not less than two hundred Pounds, every such Person shall be entitled to such an Abatement of the additional Duty now granted, as may be necessary to reduce the same, in each Case respectively, to a Sum not exceeding one Tenth Part of the said Income

Persons assessed after April 5, 1798, to pay the additional Duty on the Amount of such Assessments from the Commencement of the Year for which made. [See § 83.]

V. And be it further enacted, That every Person not assessed within the Year ending on the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, to any of the said Duties payable at and immediately before the passing of this Act, and who shall be assessed to any of the said Duties in any subsequent Year during the Term hereinafter mentioned, shall be charged with the like additional Rate or Duty on the Amount of the Sums contained in such Assessment or Assessments, from the Commencement of the Year for which such Assessment or Assessments shall be made, subject nevertheless to the like Abatement, as if such Person had been assessed to the said Duties within the Year ending on the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight.

Persons assessed after April 5, 1798, to a greater Amount than in the prior Assessment, to be charged with a proportional additional Assessment. [See § 82]

VI. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall, by any Assessment or Assessments to be made after the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, be assessed in respect of the said Duties payable at and immediately before the passing of this Act, to a greater Amount than the Amount contained in the prior Assessment, shall be charged with a further additional Rate or Duty, in Proportion to the Sums contained in such latter Assessment or Assessments, from the Commencement of the Year for which such latter Assessment or Assessments shall be made.

Surcharges to be charged as if they had been included in the original Assessment. [See § 81.]

VII. And be it further enacted, That every Person whose Assessment shall be increased by any Surcharge to be allowed, shall be charged, in respect of such increased Assessment, in the like Proportion as if the Articles in respect of which such Surcharge may be allowed, had been included in the original Assessment.

Fractional Parts of Assessments under 1s. not to be charged with additional Duty.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every Assessment to be made by virtue of this Act, shall be made on the Amount contained in any such Assessment of the Duties now payable as aforesaid, exclusive of any fractional Parts of Sums not amounting in the Whole to one Shilling.

Additional Duty to be paid annually, to the Amount of the first Assessment made. [See § 6, 7, 81]

IX. And be it further enacted, That the several additional Rates or Duties by this Act imposed, shall be levied and paid annually, during the Continuance of the Term herein mentioned, to the full Amount of the Sums contained in the first Assessment to be made thereof respectively, without any Alteration, except in the Cases and in the Manner herein otherwise directed.

If the Amount of Duties now payable consist of Articles, the Amounts whereof are liable to different Rates, separate Assessments to be made for each; and the Duties of 10l. per Cent and 10l. per Cent. may be apportioned. [See § 51, to which this §, in certain Cases, forms an Exception.]

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if the Amount of the Duties now payable by any Person shall consist of various Articles, on the respective Amounts whereof different Rates of Duty are hereby imposed, separate Assessments shall be made according to each Rate of Duty, which Assessments shall be respectively made on the Aggregate Amount of the said Duties whereon the same Rate of Duty is imposed; and that in every such Case, if the Duties of ten Pounds per Centum and ten Pounds per Centum, now payable on the Amount of former Duties, shall have been calculated on the Whole of the said former Duties contained in any Assessment, it shall be lawful duly to apportion the same; and the said respective Commissioners for executing this Act shall cause the same to be apportioned according to the respective Amounts of the said Duties, whereon the same Rates are imposed, before any Assessment shall be made thereon by virtue of this Act.

Inns, &c. and Boarding Schools to be chargeable as Lodging Houses, &c. under § 3.

XI. And be it further enacted, That every Innkeeper, and other Person licensed to sell Wine, Ale, or other Liquors by retail, and every Person keeping any School, Academy, or Seminary for Learning, and usually having their Scholars to board and lodge (to a Number not less than ten) in their respective Dwelling Houses, shall be entitled to be exempted in the like Cases, and the additional Rate or Duty to be imposed on them respectively by this Act shall be ascertained in like Manner, and under the like Rules and Regulations, as are hereinbefore prescribed with respect to Persons assessed for Houses actually let to Lodgers, or having Shops.

Persons having one or more Houses, usually let, or kept to

XII. And be it further enacted, That every Person having one or more Dwelling Houses, usually let as a ready-furnished Lodging House or Lodging Houses, or keeping one or more Dwelling Houses with be let, ready-furniſhed, to be aſſeſſed as for Lodging Houſes, as under § 3, and for two or more ſeparately; [See § 51, from which this forms an Exception.] with the Purpoſe of ſo uſually letting out the ſame, ſhall, in reſpect of each Dwelling Houſe ſo let or kept with the Purpoſe of being ſo let, be liable to the ſaid additional Rate or Duty, at the like Rate and under the like Rules and Regulations as are herein preſcribed with reſpect to Perſons aſſeſſed for Houſes let in Part to Lodgers as aforeſaid, and ſhall be entitled to be exempted from the ſaid additional Rate or Duty in the like Caſes as Perſons ſo letting Houſes in Part to Lodgers: Provided always, that every Aſſeſſment to be made by virtue of this Act on any Perſon having two or more ſuch Dwelling Houſes ſo let or kept with the Purpoſe of being ſo let, ſhall be aſcertained at the Rate before-mentioned on the Amount of the Duties now payable in reſpect of each ſuch Dwelling Houſe ſeparately, and not on the aggregate Amount of the ſaid Duties payable in reſpect of all the Houſes, or of any other of the ſaid Duties for which ſuch Perſon ſhall or may be aſſeſſed.

No Perſon to be deemed the Occupier of a Lodging Houſe, or ready-furniſhed Lodging Houſe, unleſs it be let, or hath been kept bonâ fide for that Purpoſe within the Year preceding the Appeal.

XIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Perſon ſhall be deemed to occupy any Dwelling Houſe for the Purpoſe of being let out in Part to Lodgers, or as a ready-furniſhed Lodging Houſe, unleſs the ſame ſhall be actually let, or unleſs ſuch Perſon ſhall prove, upon Appeal in the Manner herein mentioned, that ſuch Dwelling Houſe hath been let out in Part to Lodgers, or as a ready-furniſhed Lodging Houſe, within the Year preceding the Time of making ſuch Appeal, or that the ſame, not being ſo let, hath been advertiſed or publicly offered to be ſo let in the Period in which the ſame ſhall not have been ſo let; and that ſuch Perſon hath occupied or kept, and doth continue to occupy or keep the ſame, with the bonâ fide Purpoſe of being let out in Part to Lodgers or as a ready-furniſhed Lodging Houſe.

Perſons having more than four Children under 21 Years' old, maintained by them, to be entitled to certain Abatements on Appeal and Proof; viz for 5, 6, or 7, 10 per Cent.—8 or 9, 15 per Cent.—10 or more, 20 per Cent. on the Amount of the additional Rate.

XIV. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That any Perſon having more than four Children of him or her, or of his or her Wife or Huſband, or of both of them, born in lawful Wedlock, being reſpectively under the Age of twenty-one Years, and maintained by ſuch Perſon at his or her Expence, ſhall be entitled to the reſpective Abatements following, over and above any other Abatement to which ſuch Perſon may be entitled on the Ground of his or her Income; that is to ſay, Any Perſon having more than four ſuch Children, and not amounting to eight ſuch Children, ſhall have an Abatement at the Rate of ten Pounds per Centum on the Amount of the additional Rates or Duties hereby impoſed; any Perſon having eight ſuch Children and not more than nine ſuch Children, an Abatement after the Rate of fifteen Pounds per Centum on ſuch Amount as aforeſaid; and any Perſon having ten ſuch Children or more, an Abatement after the Rate of twenty Pounds per Centum on ſuch Amount; which Abatement ſhall be allowed by the reſpective Commiſſioners for executing this Act, upon Appeal, and Delivery of a Declaration ſtating the Number of ſuch Appellant's Children, and on Proof made, to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Commiſſioners, of the Truth of the Matters contained in ſuch Declaration; and the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall cauſe the Aſſeſſment to be amended, as the Caſe ſhall require.

Sheriffs, or annual Officers of Corporations, not liable for additional Carriages, Horſes, or Servants, kept during the Year of their Office only.

XV. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That no Perſon having ſerved, or who ſhall, during the Continuance of this Act, ſerve the Office of Sheriff of any County, or any annual Office in any Corporation or Royal Burgh, and who ſhall be aſſeſſed to the Duties payable on Servants, Carriages, or Horſes kept by him during ſuch Year of Service, ſhall be liable to be charged during ſuch Year of Service, by virtue of this Act, for any Number of Servants, Carriages, and Horſes, greater than the Number ſuch Perſon was aſſeſſed to by the laſt Aſſeſſment made prior to the Year of ſuch Service, nor ſhall he be liable to be ſo charged after ſuch Year of Service, provided he ſhall ceaſe to keep any ſuch additional Carriage, Horſe, or Servant, Carriages, Horſes, or Servants, after the Expiration of ſuch Year of Service.

Phyſicians, &c. liable only to a ſingle additional Rate for one Carriage or two Horſes, where they keep no more.

XVI. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That no Phyſician, Surgeon, Apothecary, or Midwife, ſhall be liable to be aſſeſſed, by reaſon of this Act, at more than a ſingle Rate in Addition to the Sum at which he is or may be aſſeſſed by virtue of any Act or Acts now in force, for a Carriage, or for two Horſes, in any Caſe where he does not keep more than one Carriage, or two Horſes.

Royal Academicians or Aſſociates keeping but one Male Servant, to be aſſeſſed only once the former Duty; and to the additional Duty on Houſes and Windows as for Shops, under § 3.

XVII. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That no Academician or Aſſociate of the Royal Academy of Arts in Great Britain, keeping one Male Servant only, ſhall be liable to be aſſeſſed to the ſaid additional Rate or Duty in a Sum greater than once the Amount of the Duties now payable on ſuch Male Servant by the laſt Aſſeſſment thereof; and that every ſuch Academician or Aſſociate ſhall be aſſeſſed to the ſaid additional Rate or Duty on Houſes, Windows, or Lights, and on inhabited Houſes, at the like Rate, and under the like Rules as are hereinbefore preſcribed for Dwelling Houſes occupied in Part as Shops.

Incumbents to pay for Rectorial or Vicarial Houſes inhabited by Curates.

XVIII. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That in every Caſe in which the Rector or Vicar of any Pariſh Church ſhall employ a Curate to perform Divine Service therein, which Curate ſhall reſide in the rectorial or vicarial Houſe, then the additional Rates or Duties charged upon each ſuch Houſe, by this Act, ſhall be defrayed by ſuch Rector or Vicar, and not by ſuch Curate.

Additional Duty on Houſes or Windows not to extend to Royal or Public Hoſpitals.

XIX. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained ſhall be conſtrued to extend to charge the ſaid additional Rate or Duty on the Amount of the Duties payable on Houſes, Windows, or Lights, in reſpect of any of the Royal or Public Hoſpitals, or any Chambers or Apartments therein uſed or occupied for charitable Purpoſes.

Houſes for Lunatics to be charged as Lodging Houſes, under § 3.

XX. Provided alſo, and be it further enacted, That no Perſon who is or ſhall be duly licenſed to keep, and who ſhall keep a Houſe for the Reception of Lunatics, ſhall be chargeable with any greater Rate of Duty than if ſuch Houſe had been let out to Lodgers.

XXI. And

Persons assessed to the Duties on Horses by 36 Geo. 3. c. 15. and 37 Geo. 3. c. 106. to pay twice the last Assessment, prior to April 6, 1798, additional.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That every Person assessed to the Duties now payable on Horses, granted by two Acts of the thirty-sixth and thirty-seventh Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, the one thereof, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty new Duties on certain Horses not charged with Duty by any other Act or Acts of Parliament, and on Mules; and the other thereof, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majesty additional Duties on certain Horses before charged with a Duty of two Shillings by an Act of the thirty-sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, and on Mules; shall be charged annually, during the Term herein mentioned, with an additional Rate or Duty equal to twice the Amount of the said Duties to which such Person is assessed, according to the last Assessment or Assessments made in pursuance of the said Acts, prior to the sixth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight: Provided always, that no Person occupying a Farm, the Rent of which shall be less than seventy Pounds a Year, and making a Livelihood solely thereby, shall be chargeable with the said additional Rate or Duty; and that no Person occupying a Farm, the Rent of which shall be less than one hundred and fifty Pounds a Year, and making a Livelihood solely thereby, shall be chargeable with the additional Rate or Duty hereby imposed for more than five such Horses.

Certain Occupiers of Farms of less than 70l. per Ann. exempted; and of Farms less than 150l. not to pay for more than five Horses.

Persons charged by the last Assessment to the Duties on Servants, Carriages, or Horses, having ceased before Nov. 1, 1797, to keep any of them, to be exempted from the additional Duty on account of such Servants, &c.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person, charged by the last Assessment or Assessments made as aforesaid to any of the Duties now payable on Servants, Carriages, or Horses, shall at any Time before the first Day of November one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven have ceased to keep any Servant, Carriage, or Horse, or any Number of Servants, Carriages, or Horses, for which he or she shall have been so charged, and shall have bonâ fide remained during the whole Interval, between the tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven and the Time of hearing the Appeal against the Assessment to be made under this Act, without any Servant, Carriage, or Horse, or any Servants, Carriages, or Horses, in lieu of the former, liable to the like Duty, then such Person shall, on Proof thereof to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners for executing this Act, be exempted from any Charge to be made by virtue of this Act on the Amount of the said Duties now payable on such Servants, Carriages, and Horses respectively.

and also Persons having ceased to use Carriages from April 5, 1797.

XXIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any Person so charged as aforesaid to any of the Duties now payable on Carriages, shall, from the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, to the Time of hearing the Appeal against the Assessment to be made by virtue of this Act, have bonâ fide ceased to use any Carriage or Carriages kept by him or her, and shall have wholly discontinued the Use of the same during the whole Interval between the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven and the Time of hearing the Appeal against the Assessment to be made under this Act, then such Person shall, on Proof thereof to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners before whom the Appeal for that Cause shall be depending, be exempted from any Charge to be made by virtue of this Act, on the Amount of the Duties now payable on such Carriage or Carriages so discontinued.

Persons not living in Cities or Market Towns, having but one Residence, and rated not above 25l. under § 1, not to be assessed to this Act for their Mansion Houses beyond 40 Windows.

XXIV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That Persons not living in Cities, or the Suburbs thereof, or in Market Towns, and having but one Place of Residence, who shall not be rated above the Sum of twenty-five Pounds for their Male Servants, Pleasure Horses, and Carriages, shall be assessed for their Mansion Houses as if they contained forty Windows only, notwithstanding they should contain a greater Number, so far as respects the additional Rates and Duties imposed by this Act.

Occupiers of Farms quitting them in pursuance of Notice given before Dec 1, 1797, to have an Abatement of the additional Duty for Horses kept for Husbandry thereon, and not used after.

XXV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That every Person occupying a Farm at the Time of any Assessment being made of the said additional Rates and Duties, by virtue of this Act, on Horses, by the said two Acts of the thirty-sixth and thirty-seventh Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, before mentioned, and who shall quit the said Farm, in pursuance of any Notice given before the first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, shall be entitled to an Abatement of the said additional Rate or Duty, for the Whole of such Horses kept for the Purposes of Husbandry upon such Farm, which such Person shall cease to keep after having so quitted the said Farm; and the Assessment made upon such Person shall, on Proof, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners for executing this Act, of such Person having bonâ fide ceased to keep any Number of such Horses, and hath remained without any other Horses in lieu of the former, be entitled to an Abatement in respect of such Number, as aforesaid, of the said Horses.

Persons who, having previous to the first Day of Appeal entered into the Yeomanry Cavalry, under 34 Geo 3. c. 31. shall not have obtained Exemption for a Horse under 36 Geo. 3. c. 16. in the last Assessment, to be assessed to the additional Duty, as if the Exemption had been allowed.

XXVI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any Person who shall, previous to the first Day of Appeal under this Act for the District where such Person resides, have enrolled himself in any Regiment, Corps, or Troop of Yeomanry Cavalry, raised by virtue of an Act, passed in the thirty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for encouraging and disciplining such Corps or Companies of Men as shall voluntarily enrol themselves for the Defence of their Counties, Towns, or Coasts, or for the general Defence of the Kingdom, during the present War, shall not have obtained his Exemption for one Horse, Mare, or Gelding, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of his said Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty several additional Duties on Horses kept for the Purpose of riding, or drawing certain Carriages therein mentioned, in the last Assessment made for the Year ending the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, then and in such Case, on Proof, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners for executing this Act, of his being entitled to such Exemption, and on Production of a Certificate to be made out at any Time previous to his making such Appeal of his Service in such Regiment, Corps, or Troop, in the Manner directed directed by the said last-mentioned Act, the Person so enrolled and serving shall be assessed to the said additional Rate or Duty in like Manner, and at the like Rate, as if such Exemption had been allowed.

The additional Duty on Houses or Windows payable by Persons who shall remove, to cease, on Notice being given to the Collectors; and the succeeding Occupiers to be chargeable from the Day of their becoming so.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That where any Person charged to the Duties now payable on Houses, Windows, or Lights, or on inhabited Houses, shall remove from the Dwelling House in respect whereof such Charge shall have been imposed, the Assessment made by virtue of this Act, so far as relates to the Amount of the Duties payable in respect of such Dwelling House, shall cease and determine from the Day on which Notice shall be given of such Removal to the Collectors or Assessors, or any two or more of them, of the Parish or Place where such Dwelling House is situate, and the succeeding Occupier shall become chargeable to the said additional Rate or Duty, in respect of such Dwelling House, from the Day he or she shall become the Occupier thereof, and the Commissioners for executing this Act shall cause an Assessment to be made on such succeeding Occupier, on the Amount of the Duties payable in respect of such Dwelling House, and also on the Amount of such other of the said Duties now payable, to which such Occupier was or shall be liable to be assessed: Provided always, that the Person so removing shall be liable to be again charged to the said additional Rate or Duty, in respect of any other Dwelling House which he or she may occupy at any Time after such Removal; and also on the Amount of such other of the said Duties now payable, to which such Person was assessed previous to such Removal; and such Charge, in respect of such other Dwelling House, shall commence from the Time such Person shall become the Occupier of such other Dwelling House, and shall be paid on the Instalment next ensuing.

Persons so removing liable to additional Duty for any other House they may occupy, and also for any other Duty to which assessed previous to Removal.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That where any Person charged to the said last-mentioned Duties on Houses, Windows, or Lights, or on inhabited Houses, by the last Assessment as aforesaid, shall have removed from the Dwelling House in respect whereof such Person shall be assessed, such Person shall not be charged to the said additional Rate or Duty on the Amount of the said Duties payable in respect of such Dwelling House, but the present Occupier (if any) of such Dwelling House shall be chargeable therewith, although such Occupier shall not have been charged to the said Duties now payable by such last Assessment.

Persons charged by the last Assessment to the Duties on Houses and Windows, who shall have removed, not liable to the additional Duty; but the present Occupier (if any).

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall remove from any Dwelling House into any newly erected Messuage, which shall not before have been inhabited, such Person shall not be liable, during the Continuance of the Rates and Duties imposed by this Act, to be assessed to the said additional Rate or Duty, at more than the Amount of the said Rate or Duty, which by virtue of this Act was or ought to be charged in respect of the Dwelling House from which such Person so removed.

Persons removing into new Houses, not to be assessed to the additional Duty at more than ought to be charged on the Houses from which they removed.

XXX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to charge with the said additional Rate or Duty any Person in respect of any additional Clock, Watch, or Timekeeper, kept, used, or worn after the fifth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, or in respect of any Clock, Watch, or Timekeeper, where such Person shall not have been or shall not be charged to the Duties now payable on Clocks, Watches, and Timekeepers, within the Year ending on the fifth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, in respect of a Clock, Watch, or Timekeeper, kept, used, or worn, previous to the fifth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Act not to extend to additional Clocks or Watches used after Jan. 5, 1798, nor to any not chargeable with Duty within the Year ending that Day.

XXXI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any Person shall be assessed to the Duties on Carriages in respect of any additional Carriage kept after the passing of this Act, and which shall not have been used before the passing of this Act, by any Person whatever, or if any Person not charged to the Duties on Carriages within the Year ending the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, shall be assessed in respect of any Carriage which hath been kept and used for the first Time after the passing of this Act, then and in every such Case the Person so keeping or using such Carriage shall not be liable to be assessed to the said additional Rate or Duty in respect thereof, in any Sum greater than once the Amount of the said Duties now payable on such Carriages; and that the Assessment to be made on once the Amount shall commence from the fifth Day of April next after such Carriage shall begin to be used; and the Assessments so to be made on once the Amount of the Duties now payable in respect of such Carriages, shall be made on such Amount separately, and not on the aggregate Amount of the Duties assessed upon such Person; any Thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

Persons assessed in respect of new Carriages kept and first used after passing this Act, or Persons not assessed within the Year ending April 5, 1798, but charged for Carriages used for the first Time after passing this Act, liable only to an Addition of once the Amount of the present Duty; to commence from April 5 next after the Carriage shall begin to be used; and to be assessed separately.

XXXII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the additional Rates or Duties hereby imposed shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to Carriages with less than four Wheels, particularly mentioned and described by the Name of Taxed Carts, in an Act, made in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for repealing so much of an Act of Parliament, passed in the twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for granting to his Majesty "several additional Rates and Duties upon Horses, and Carriages with four Wheels; and for explaining "and amending an Act, passed in the twenty-fifth Year of his present Majesty†, as far as relates to certain "Carriages with two or three Wheels therein mentioned," as relates to the additional Duties upon Carriages with four Wheels, used as Stage Coaches; and for reducing the Duties upon Carriages with less than four Wheels, mostly used in the Affairs of Husbandry, or for the Purposes of Trade.*

Additional Duty not to extend to Taxed Carts described in 35 Geo. 3. c. 109;

* c. 49.

XXXIII. Pro-

XXXIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to charge the said additional Rate or Duty on the Amount of the Duties now payable on Carriages, in respect of any Carriage kept by any Person duly licensed to let out Horses for Hire, in pursuance of an Act passed in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, and used for the Purposes in the said Act mentioned, such Persons duly observing the Regulations of the said Act with respect to such Carriages; nor to charge the said additional Rate or Duty on the Amount of the Duties now payable on Servants, in pursuance of two Acts, passed in the twenty-fifth and thirty-seventh Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, in respect of any Waiter kept in any Tavern, Coffee House, Inn, Alehouse, or in any other House licensed to sell Wine, Ale, or other Liquors by retail; nor to charge the said additional Rate or Duty on the Amount of the Duties now payable on Carriages as aforesaid, in respect of any Carriage kept by any Coachmaker or other Person, for the Purpose of being lent or let out to Hire.

nor to Carriages kept by Persons licensed to let out Horses for Hire; under 25 Geo. 3. c. 51.

nor to Waiters; [See 25 Geo. 3. c. 43. 37 Geo. 3. c. 107.]

nor to Carriages kept by Coachmakers or others for being let out to hire;

XXXIV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to charge the said additional Rate or Duty on the Amount of the Duties payable on Carriages, in respect of any Carriages, by whatever Name or Names the same shall be called, kept by any Person duly licensed for that Purpose, to be employed as public Stage Coaches or Carriages, for the Purpose of conveying Passengers for Hire to and from different Places in Great Britain.

nor to public Stage Coaches or Carriages conveying Passengers for Hire; [See 25 Geo. 3. c. 51. § 4]

XXXV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to charge any additional Rate or Duty on the Amount of any Assessment or Assessments made or to be made by virtue of an Act, passed in the thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for enabling his Majesty to raise a provisional Force of Cavalry, to be embodied, in Case of Necessity, for the Defence of these Kingdoms, or by virtue of another Act, passed in the same Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for enabling his Majesty to raise a provisional Force of Cavalry, to be embodied, in case of Necessity, for the Defence of these Kingdoms." nor to Assessments made under Cavalry Acts 37 Geo. 3. c. 6, and 23.

XXXVI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That any Person keeping Hounds, and paying a Composition for the same in lieu of the Duty imposed by an Act, passed in the thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty *, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty certain Duties on Dogs, shall not be assessed to the additional Rate or Duty by this Act imposed, in respect of such Hounds, in any greater Sum than in the Proportion of the Rates hereby imposed, estimated on the Amount of the Sum paid for such Composition.

Persons paying a Composition for Hounds, to be assessed according thereto.

XXXVII And be it further enacted, That the additional Rate or Duty hereby granted on the Amount of the Duties now payable on Houses, Windows, or Lights, or on inhabited Houses, shall be charged only upon the Occupiers for the Time being of the Houses or Tenements in respect whereof the said Duties now payable are charged, and not on the Landlord or Landlords who let or demise the same, (except in the Cases hereinafter mentioned;) any Covenant or Agreement made or entered into previous to the passing of this Act, relative to the Payment of any Duties or Assessments to be imposed upon such Houses or Tenements, or upon such Occupiers in respect thereof, or to be imposed on the Amount of the said Duties now payable, to the contrary notwithstanding.

The additional Duties on Houses and Windows, to be charged upon the Occupiers.

XXXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where the Landlord of any House or Tenement is or shall be, in respect thereof, charged to the said Duties now payable, then and in such Case the Amount of such Charge shall be added to any Assessment of the said Duties now payable, which shall have been made upon the Occupier of such House or Tenement, before the additional Rate or Duty hereby imposed shall be computed on such Assessments, and such Computation shall be made on the Aggregate of the Sums contained in such Assessment after such Addition is made, as if the Occupier had been charged with the Sum so added; or where no Assessment of the said Duties now payable is made on such Occupier, then the Amount of the said Duties now payable and charged upon such Landlord shall form the Basis of the Assessment of the said additional Rate or Duty to be made upon such Occupier, which shall be calculated upon the Amount thereof, as if the Occupier had been charged therewith, subject nevertheless to the Exemption hereinbefore declared, or to such Abatement thereof as the Occupier of such House or Tenement would have been entitled unto, if he or she had been charged to the said Duties now payable in respect of such House or Tenement.

Where the Landlord is charged to the said Duties now payable, the Amount to be added to the Assessment made upon the Occupier before computing the additional Duty; or where no Assessment of the said Duties is made on the Occupier, the Amount charged upon the Landlord shall form the Basis of the additional Assessment on the Occupier.

XXXIX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That where any House shall be divided into different Stories, Tenements, or Lodgings, and shall be inhabited by two or more Persons or Families, the immediate Landlord or Owner of such House shall be deemed and taken to be the Occupier thereof, and shall be charged with and liable to pay the additional Rate or Duty hereby imposed.

The Landlords of Lodging Houses to be deemed the Occupiers.

XL. And be it further enacted, for the mutual Accommodation of Landlords and Tenants, That if any Landlord, at the Desire of his Tenant, shall advance Monies for the Purpose of discharging the Duties imposed upon such Tenant by this Act, such Landlord shall be entitled to recover such Monies, with lawful Interest, at the Times and by the Instalments agreed upon between them, by all and every the Remedies and Remedy to which he is entitled for the Recovery of his Rent; and if any Tenant shall, at the Desire of his Landlord, for the like Purpose, advance to his Landlord any Monies, it shall be lawful for such Tenant to deduct the same, with lawful Interest, out of his Rent, at such Times and by such Instalments as shall be agreed upon between them, in the same Manner as he is by Law entitled to deduct Payments by him made in respect of the Land Tax.

How Landlords advancing Money at the Desire of Tenants, or Tenants at the Desire of Landlords, to discharge the Duties, may recover the same.

Parents or Guardians liable for Infants, &c.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That where any Person or Persons chargeable with any Rate or Duty hereby imposed, shall be under the Age of twenty-one Years, in every such Case the Parents or Guardians and Tutors of such Infants respectively, upon Default of Payment by such Infants, shall be and are hereby made liable to and charged with the Payments which such Infants ought to have made; and if such Parents, Guardians, or Tutors shall neglect or refuse to pay as aforesaid, it shall be lawful to proceed against them in like Manner as against any other Person or Persons making Default of Payment of the additional Rate or Duty charged upon him, her, or them respectively; and all Parents, Guardians, and Tutors, making Payment as aforesaid, shall be allowed all and every the Sums paid for such Infants upon his or their Accounts.

Heirs and Executors of Persons dying, liable for Arrears of Duty, and for Payments to the End of the Year.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That where Persons charged to any additional Rate or Duty imposed by this Act, shall die within the Term herein mentioned, their respective Heirs, Executors, and Administrators shall be liable to the Payment of all Arrears of the said Rate or Duty at the Time of the Deaths respectively of their Ancestors, Testators, or Intestates respectively, out of the Estate or Effects which shall come into their Hands, and also to the Payment of such further Sums as would have become payable, by virtue of this Act, from such Ancestors, Testators, or Intestates respectively, at any Time within or at the End of the Year in which such Deaths respectively happened, and no longer.

Commissioners and Surveyors, &c. appointed to put in Execution the Acts relative to the Duties now under the Management of the Commissioners for Taxes, to put this Act in Execution.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners authorized or appointed, or who shall hereafter be authorized or appointed, to put in execution the Acts relative to any of the present Duties placed under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, shall be Commissioners for executing this present Act, and the Powers herein contained, with relation to the Duties hereby granted as before-mentioned, in all and every the Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Shires, Stewartries, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, Towns, and Places respectively, within the Kingdom of Great Britain; and the several Surveyors, Inspectors, Assessors, and Collectors respectively, appointed or to be appointed to put in Execution the said Acts, relative to the said present Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, or any of them, shall be Surveyors, Inspectors, Assessors, and Collectors to put in Execution this present Act, with relation to the Duties hereby granted as before-mentioned, according to the Powers given to them respectively by the said Acts, or any of them, and not hereby altered, and according to the Powers given to them by this Act; and the said Commissioners, and other the Persons aforesaid, being respectively duly qualified to act in the Execution of any of the said Acts, shall, and they are hereby respectively empowered and required to do all Things necessary for putting this Act in Execution, with relation to the respective Rates or Duties hereby granted as before mentioned, in the like and in as full and ample a Manner as they or any of them are or is authorized to put in Execution the said Acts relative to the said present Duties under the Management of the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, or any Matters or Things therein respectively contained.

Within the Bills of Mortality, and the Parishes of St. Mary-le-bone and Pancras, the Appointment of Collectors to belong to the resident Commissioners, &c.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That within the Bills of Mortality, the Parishes of Saint Mary-le-bone and Saint Pancras, in the County of Middlesex, the Appointment of Collectors of the said additional Rates and Duties shall belong wholly to such of the Commissioners for executing this Act, who shall reside in the Parishes for which such Collectors respectively are to be appointed, in case there shall be two or more Commissioners there resident, and no other Commissioners shall in such Case interfere; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for executing this Act, and residing within the respective Parishes as aforesaid, to appoint such Persons to be Collectors, who shall have given Security, to the Satisfaction of the Churchwardens and Overseers or Guardians of the Poor, or any two or more of them, or any seven or more of the Vestry, where a Select Vestry shall be appointed as aforesaid *, and who shall be thought by the said Commissioners to be of Ability to execute the Office of Collector; and that in Default of appointing such Persons who shall have given such Security, then the said Commissioners residing as aforesaid shall name such Persons as they shall think of Ability to execute the said Office: Provided always, that where two or more Commissioners shall not be resident in any Parish, for which Collectors are to be appointed, then a Commissioner or Commissioners residing in any adjacent Parish may concur in the Appointment of such Collectors.

* Qu. § 76?

Duties to be ascertained, &c. as the Duties now under the Management of the Commissioners for Taxes.

XLV. And be it further enacted, That the aforesaid respective Rates or Duties by this Act granted shall and may be ascertained, managed, collected, recovered, paid over, and accounted for, under such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, and according to such Rules, Methods, Directions, and Provisions, by which the Rates and Duties now placed under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, or any of them, are or is, or may be ascertained, managed, collected, paid, recovered, paid over, and accounted for, except as far as any of the said Rules, Methods, Directions, and Provisions, are expressly varied by this Act; and all and every the Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, contained in any Act or Acts relative to the said Rates and Duties, or any of them, now in force, or to be passed in the present Session of Parliament, for the surcharging, mitigating, recovering, paying, and accounting for the Rates and Duties by any former Acts granted, as far as the same are applicable to the aforesaid respective Rates or Duties granted by this Act, and not expressly varied or otherwise provided for hereby, shall severally and respectively be in full Force, and duly observed, practised, and put in Execution throughout throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, for surcharging, mitigating, recovering, paying, and accounting for the aforesaid respective Rates or Duties granted by this Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

First Meeting of Commissioners under this Act to be on or before Feb. 1, 1798.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, in their respective Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Shires, Stewartries, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, Towns, and Places, for which they are or shall be appointed Commissioners respectively, meet for the first Time on or before the first Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, and proceed in the Execution of this Act in the Manner herein directed; and where no particular Directions are hereby given, then in such and the same Manner as is prescribed by any Act or Acts with respect to the Rates and Duties before mentioned, under the Management of the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes.

Where no such Meeting shall be held, two Commissioners for executing this Act may meet at any other Time, or the Commissioners at any Meeting for carrying into Execution any former Acts, may execute this Act.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That if it shall happen that no such Meeting shall be held in any District within the Time before limited, then it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for executing this Act, or any two or more of them, in all and every the respective Districts respectively wherein such Meeting shall not be held, to meet and execute the said Powers at any other Time or Times, or for the said Commissioners who shall be present at any Meeting to be held in any District for carrying into Execution any former Act or Acts relative to any of the Duties herein mentioned, to execute the Powers granted by this Act; and they are hereby required to proceed in the Execution of this Act at the first Meeting to be held in pursuance of this Act, or of such former Act or Acts; and all such Meetings, and all Acts done by the said Commissioners at such Meetings, shall be as valid, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same Meetings had been particularly appointed in pursuance of the Directions of this Act.

Commissioners of Taxes to cause Schedules to be prepared of the Persons assessed to the Duties now payable in two or more Parishes, with the Amount; these Schedules to be transmitted to the Commissioners of the respective Divisions; who, at their first Meeting, shall order the Amount of the additional Duty to be computed within seven Days, and Schedules thereof made out; with Certificates and Duplicates as under former Acts.

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes shall cause to be prepared true Schedules of the Persons respectively who are assessed to the Duties now payable in two or more Parishes or Places in any Part of Great Britain, whether such Parishes or Places shall be situate within the Division of the same Commissioners for executing this Act, or within different Divisions, together with the Amount of the respective Assessments; which said Schedules shall be transmitted to the respective Commissioners for executing this Act within the respective Divisions where any of such Assessments have been made; and that the several and respective Commissioners for executing this Act shall, within their respective Divisions, at their first Meeting to be holden as aforesaid, cause their respective Clerks, or such other Persons as they respectively shall employ for that Purpose, forthwith, or as soon after as conveniently may be, not later than seven Days after such Meeting, justly and without Fraud, to compute and ascertain the Amount of the Rate or Duty by this Act imposed upon, or in respect of every such Assessment upon any Persons within their respective Divisions, according to the respective Rates before mentioned, and according to the Provisions of this Act, and to make out Schedules thereof for each Parish or Place, containing the Amount of the Sums charged by virtue of this Act upon each Person within such Parishes and Places respectively, and also the Amount of the Sums (if any) with which the said Persons are respectively charged to the said Duties now payable in any other Parish or Place in Great Britain, together with the Names of the several Persons chargeable therewith, and the Amount of the said former Rates and Duties whereon such additional Rates or Duties, by this Act imposed, shall be computed and ascertained, and shall cause Certificates and Duplicates thereof to be made out, which Certificates and Duplicates thereof respectively shall be signed by two or more of such Commissioners; and the said original Certificates, being first numbered and registered, shall be delivered to the respective Clerks to the said Commissioners, and by them carefully kept, and the said Duplicates thereof shall forthwith be transmitted to such Persons, in such and the like Manner as is directed by any Act or Acts now in force relative to the said former Duties, with respect to the Duplicates of Assessments therein mentioned.

Copies of Certificates to be transmitted to the Collectors, who shall cause Notice to be given to the Persons charged.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That a Copy of the Certificates to be made out as aforesaid, shall forthwith, after the same shall be signed as aforesaid, be transmitted to the respective Collectors appointed or to be appointed as aforesaid in each Parish or Place within the respective Divisions of the said Commissioners; which said Collectors shall cause Notice thereof in Writing to be given to each Person so charged, or left at his or her Place of Abode in such Parishes or Places respectively.

Surveyors may attend Meetings of Commissioners, and inspect Assessments, which may be amended.

L. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Surveyor or Inspector of the said Duties now payable, to attend any Meeting or Meetings of the respective Commissioners for executing this Act, and to inspect and examine any Assessment to be made under the Authority of this Act, and all such Assessments shall, at the Request of any such Surveyor or Inspector, be produced for his or their Examination; and in case he or they shall find any Error in the same Assessments or any of them, at any Time before the said Commissioners shall have signed and allowed the same respectively, which in the Judgment of the said Commissioners shall require Amendment, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to amend the same accordingly; and in case any Error shall be discovered in any Assessment after the same shall be allowed, it shall be lawful for the Surveyor or Inspector, and he or they is and are hereby required to certify the same to the said respective Commissioners, who shall have Power to cause the same to be amended, if in their Judgment they deem any Amendment requisite.

The additional Duty on Persons assessed to the Duties now payable in two Places, to be calculated according to the aggregate Amount; but to be assessed in each Place respectively. [See § 10, as to separate Assessment of Articles liable to different Rates; and § 12, for the Exception as to ready furnished Lodging Houses.]

LI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person is or shall be assessed, to the Duties now payable, in two or more Parishes or Places, the additional Rate or Duty hereby granted shall be charged upon such Person according to the aggregate Amounts as aforesaid of the respective Duties to which such Person is or shall be assessed in such Parishes or Places; and it shall be lawful for the said respective Commissioners, and they are hereby required, to cause an Assessment to be made of the said additional Rate or Duty hereby imposed upon any Person so assessed in two Parishes or Places, upon the Amount of the said Duties contained in each Assessment belonging to the Division where such Commissioners respectively shall act, but nevertheless in Proportion to and at the Rate before specified for the aggregate Amount of the said Duties to which such Person is assessed in all the said several Assessments made in the same, or in different, Divisions as aforesaid.

Where two or more Persons are jointly assessed to the Duties on Houses and Windows for the same House, any of them being severally assessed for any other House, or any other of the Duties now payable, the Assessment of additional Duty to be made on him whose Amount of Taxes is the highest; unless a Certificate is made of the true Proportions.

LII. And be it further enacted, That where two or more Persons shall be jointly assessed to the Duties now payable on Houses, Windows, or Lights, or on inhabited Houses, in respect of the same Dwelling House, and the said Persons, or any or either of them, shall be severally assessed to the said Duties now payable in respect of any other Dwelling House, or shall be severally assessed to any other of the said Duties now payable, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for executing this Act, and they are hereby required to make an Assessment of the said additional Rate or Duty, on the Amount of the Duties contained in such joint Assessment, upon such one of the said Persons so jointly charged, who shall be also severally charged to the said Duties now payable to a greater Amount than any other of the said Persons so jointly charged, unless a Certificate, apportioning the Sums to which each such Person shall be charged, shall be delivered to the said Commissioners within such Time as hereinafter is allowed.

Where Persons are assessed as joint Occupiers or Partners, or where one or more are assessed exclusive of the others, their Proportions of the Duty may be certified to the Commissioners, who shall cause the additional Duty to be charged accordingly:

LIII. And be it further enacted, That where two or more Persons shall be assessed to the Duties now payable on Houses, Windows, or Lights, or on inhabited Houses, in respect of the same Dwelling House, either as joint Occupiers thereof, or as in Partnership together; or in case one or more of such joint Occupiers or Partners shall be so assessed, exclusive of the other Occupiers of such Dwelling House, or exclusive of the other Partners as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for them, or any of them, at any Time before the Assessment to be made by virtue of this Act shall be signed and allowed, to certify the same to the Commissioners for executing this Act, by Writing under their or his Hands, and to state in such Certificate the just Proportions of the said Duties now payable, to which each of such Occupiers or Partners is liable to contribute by virtue of any Covenant or Agreement subsisting between them, or by virtue of such Occupation or Partnership; and the said Commissioners shall cause the additional Rate or Duty hereby imposed to be charged on each of such Occupiers or Partners, according to the Proportions so certified, and in like Manner as if the Proportion of each Occupier or Partner in such Dwelling House was payable in respect of a distinct and separate Dwelling House; and in case no such Certificate shall be delivered to the said Commissioners, before an Assessment shall be made on the Amount of the said Duties payable in respect of such Dwelling House as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for such joint Occupiers or Partners as aforesaid, if they or any of them shall think themselves or himself aggrieved by the said Assessment, to appeal to the said Commissioners; provided that at the Time of such Appeal a like Certificate as aforesaid shall be delivered to the said Commissioners, stating the just Proportions of the said Duties now payable, with which each of such Occupiers or Partners ought to be charged; and the said Commissioners are hereby required to hear and determine such Appeal; and if the Matter contained in such Appeal shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, they shall cause the said Assessment to be amended, and the respective Occupiers and Partners aforesaid to be severally assessed according to the just Proportions so to be ascertained, and on the Amount of the said Duties now payable, with which they severally ought to be charged in respect of such Dwelling House, and of such other of the said Duties now payable, to which such Occupier or Partner shall be assessed.

If no such Certificate be delivered before the Assessment be made, the Parties may appeal to the Commissioners, who may amend the Assessment.

Persons aggrieved by any Assessment, (except on Account of Income,) may appeal to the Commissioners, who may rectify or vacate Assessments.

* See § 56.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall think him or herself, or themselves, aggrieved by any such Assessment, by Reason that the additional Rate or Duty hereby imposed hath been miscalculated in the Amount thereof, or that the same, or any Part thereof, hath been taken at a different Rate than this Act directs, or for any other Cause, except on Account of his or her Income, as hereinafter is directed *, it shall be lawful for him, her, or them respectively to appeal to the said Commissioners against any such Assessment; and the said Commissioners for executing this Act, or any two or more of them, shall and they are hereby required to hear and determine all such Appeals within their respective Divisions; and if it shall appear, to the Satisfaction of such Commissioners, that the additional Rate or Duty hereby imposed, is miscalculated in the Assessment or Assessments made on such Person or Persons respectively, or taken at a different Rate than this Act directs, or that for any other Cause (except as aforesaid) any such Assessment is erroneous, then the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to compute and ascertain the Sum justly to be charged upon such Assessment or Assessments, if any Sum be chargeable thereon, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and to amend the same whenever they shall see just Cause so to do; and to vacate any Assessment made on any Person entitled to be exempted therefrom by this Act, for any Cause (except on Account of Income as aforesaid); and the Determination of the said Commissioners thereupon shall be final: Provided always, that the said Commissioners, or any of them, shall not, upon the hearing of any Appeal against any such Assessment, make any Alteration whatever whatever in the Assessments of the said former Rates or Duties whereon the Duty by this Act imposed hath been ascertained.

Commissioners not to make any Alteration in Assessments of former Duties.

Appeals to be entered with the Clerk to the Commissioners within 10 Days after Notice to the Party of his Assessment; and heard within 10 Days after they are entered.

LV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all such Appeals against any Assessment as aforesaid shall be entered with the Clerk to the respective Commissioners for executing this Act, within ten Days after Notice of such Assessment shall be given to or left with the Party intended to be charged thereby, in the Manner before directed *, and the same shall be heard and determined within ten Days after such Appeal shall be so entered, for which Purpose a Day or Days of Appeal shall be appointed within the Time before mentioned by the said respective Commissioners, unless the Day of Appeal from Assessments of the Duties now payable on Houses, Windows, or Lights, or on inhabited Houses, shall intervene †; on which Days respectively the said Commissioners are hereby required to hear and determine all such Appeals.

† See 21 Geo. II. c. 10. § 7.

Commissioners may nominate Assistant Commissioners for hearing Appeals respecting Income; to be named, in order, out of Residents assessed to the Duties now payable not under 6 l.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners for executing this Act, in their respective Divisions, shall, if they deem it expedient for the better Execution of this Act, nominate Assistant Commissioners to receive, hear, and determine the Appeals of Persons entitled, on Account of Income, to be exempted from the Payment of the said additional Rates or Duties, or to any Abatement thereof, according to the Provisions of this Act; for which Purpose the said Commissioners for executing this Act, present at their first Meeting to be holden as aforesaid ‡, or at some other Meeting to be holden as soon as conveniently may be, not later than seven Days from such Meeting, or the major Part of the Commissioners then present, may, out of the Persons assessed to the Duties now payable, and resident in the respective Parishes and Places in which such Persons respectively are assessed to the said Duties now payable at a Sum not less than six Pounds, make out a List of the Persons so assessed in each such Parish and Place, beginning with the Person assessed to the greatest Amount in such Assessment, and so downwards, according to the Amount of each Person's Assessment; which List shall contain the Names of so many of those Persons as the said Commissioners shall, in their Discretion, after taking into Consideration the Size of each Parish and Place, and the Number of Persons assessed therein respectively, require to act as Assistant Commissioners for each such Parish or Place, according to the Provisions of this Act; which List, being respectively signed by two or more of the said Commissioners, they shall cause to be delivered to the respective Assessors and Collectors of the respective Parishes and Places within their respective Divisions, with a Notice subscribed to each List, of the Day to be appointed by the said Commissioners for executing this Act, as hereinafter is mentioned, which Day shall not be later than ten Days after such Lists shall be signed; and the said respective Assessors and Collectors shall, without Delay, cause the respective Persons named in such Lists to be summoned, by Notice in Writing, either given personally, or left at their respective Places of Abode, to assemble themselves at the Time mentioned in such Notice, for the Purpose of qualifying themselves to act in the Execution of this Act, and at such Place, within their respective Parishes or Places, as Meetings for parochial Purposes are usually holden, or at such other Place as the Commissioners for executing this Act shall think fit to appoint: Provided always, that if the Commissioners for executing this Act shall see any just Cause why any Person or Persons in the Order before prescribed, as to the Amount of their respective Assessments, is or are not of Fitness and Ability to execute the Office of Assistant Commissioner, it shall be lawful for them to exclude any such Person or Persons from such List, and to insert in such List the Names of other Persons in such Parish or Place, next in Order as to the Amount of their respective Assessments as aforesaid.

Lists of their Names to be delivered to the Assessors, who shall give Notice to such Assistant Commissioners to assemble to qualify.

Commissioners may exclude unfit Persons from Lists.

In any Place where three fit Persons for Assistant Commissioners cannot be found, it may be united with some contiguous Place.

LVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where three or more fit and able Persons as aforesaid, assessed in any Parish or Place to the Duties now payable, cannot be found to accept the Office of Assistant Commissioner, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for executing this Act to unite such Parish or Place to some adjacent or contiguous Parish or Place, Parishes or Places, and to nominate Assistant Commissioners for the Parishes or Places so united, out of the Persons assessed therein respectively to the Duties now payable, as if the same had constituted one Parish or Place only.

Commissioners may divide Assistants into Committees, to act in different Parts of the same Parish.

LVIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for executing this Act, whenever the Number of Persons assessed in any Parish or Place shall, in their Judgement, require that Assistant Commissioners should act at different Places at the same Time, to divide the Persons qualifying themselves so to act for any Parish or Place into distinct Committees, and to allot to each Committee distinct Divisions within each such Parish or Place, in such Manner as they in their Discretion shall think most convenient.

Not more than seven Persons to act as a Committee.

LIX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for more than seven Persons to act together for any Parish or Place having one Committee only, nor any greater Number to act together in the same Committee in any Parish or Place having more than one Committee; and that where more than seven Persons qualified to act shall attend at any Meeting of such Committee, seven Persons amongst them shall be chosen indifferently by Lot, and the Rest shall be excluded from acting at such Meeting.

Assistant Commissioners to take the following

LX. And be it further enacted, That every Person, before he shall act as an Assistant Commissioner in the Execution of this Act, shall, and he is hereby required to take the following Oath; (that is to say,)

Oath:

'I A. B. do swear, That I will faithfully execute the Office of an Assistant Commissioner, according to an Act, passed in the thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of his Majesty King George the Third, intituled, An Act, [here set forth the Title of the Act,] to the best of my Knowledge and Judgement.
'So help me GOD.'

Which any two may administer. Penalty for acting without taking it, 100*l.*

Which Oath any two or more of the Persons nominated Assistant Commissioners as aforesaid, is and are hereby empowered to administer; and if any Person shall act as an Assistant Commissioner in the Execution of this Act, before he shall have taken the Oath before-mentioned, except in administering the said Oath, he shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Assistant Commissioners appealing, to have no Voice in their own Appeal.

LXI. And be it further enacted, That in case of any Appeal by any Person or Persons who shall be qualified to act as an Assistant Commissioner for the Parish or Place where such Appeal shall be made, the Assistant Commissioner concerned therein shall have no Voice, but the same shall be determined by the Rest of the Commissioners, or the major Part of them then present, in like Manner as if the Person appealing had not so qualified himself.

Commissioners may act as Assistant Commissioners.

LXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where the said Commissioners for executing this Act shall not deem it expedient to nominate any Assistant Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act, in their respective Divisions, or in any Parish or Place within the same, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for executing this Act, and they are hereby respectively required to execute this Act in all Things appertaining to Assistant Commissioners, and for that Purpose to meet at such Places, within their respective Divisions, as they shall think proper and shall appoint, and at such Times respectively as they shall find convenient, so that this Act shall in all Respects be duly executed within the Times and in the Manner herein prescribed, and according to the true Intent and Meaning hereof; and all and every the respective Powers hereby directed to be executed by Assistant Commissioners shall, in each and every of the Cases hereinbefore mentioned, be vested in the Commissioners for executing this Act in their respective Divisions, as fully and effectually as if the said respective Powers had been specially vested in the said last mentioned Commissioners.

Commissioners to appoint the first Meeting of the Assistants, and to direct the Assessors to give publick Notice thereof.
* [10 Days after signing the List of Names for Assistant Commissioners, § 56.]

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That the respective Commissioners for executing this Act shall in their respective Divisions appoint the Day and Time of holding the first Meeting of the Assistant Commissioners for each Parish or Place, and which shall be on some convenient Day within the Time before limited *, and shall direct the respective Assessors and Collectors to give publick Notice thereof by affixing the same on the Church or Chapel Door of each Parish or Place, or where there shall be no such Church or Chapel, then to give such publick Notice thereof as hath been usual in Cases requiring publick Notice within such Parish or Place; which Assessors and Collectors respectively are hereby required to give such Notice accordingly, and to insert therein the Place of holding the first Meeting of the said Assistant Commissioners, and which shall be the usual Place of holding parochial Meetings in such Parish or Place; and that the respective Assistant Commissioners, who have assembled at the usual Place for holding parochial Meetings, and duly qualified themselves to act for such Parishes and Places respectively, or any three or more of them respectively, or the Commissioners for executing this Act, or any two or more of them, where no Assistant Commissioners are named, shall, and they are hereby empowered to fix a convenient Place for holding their future Meetings within their respective Parishes and Places, or Districts, of which they shall cause the like publick Notice to be given, and shall insert in such Notice the Time appointed as aforesaid for their second Meeting, which shall not be later than ten Days after the Copies of the Certificates shall have been transmitted to the respective Collectors as hereinbefore mentioned †; at which second Metting all Persons intending to appeal on the Ground of Income or from the Assessment made upon them, in order to obtain an Exemption or any Abatement of the Amount thereof, shall give Notice of such Intention to the said respective Commissioners; and the said respective Commissioners present at such second Meeting shall then there openly declare to the respective Persons intending so to appeal, in what Manner, and under what Directions and Rules, they ought and should make their Declarations of the Amount of Income in respect whereof they shall be entitled to any such Exemption or Abatement as herein mentioned, and how they ought to proceed in making the same; and such Meeting so to be held shall be continued with or without Adjournment from Day to Day, (Sundays excepted,) until all the Appeals so to be entered shall be heard and determined.

At first Meeting future Meeting to be appointed.

At second Meeting Notice to be given of Intention to appeal, and the Commissioners to declare to the Appellants how they are to proceed.

Meeting to be continued till all Appeals are heard.

Persons may appeal respecting Income, producing a signed Declaration attested by two Witnesses, in the Form in the annexed Schedule.

See § 59.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall, on Account of his or her Income, claim to be exempted from the additional Rate or Duty which shall be assessed by virtue of this Act, or to be entitled to any Abatement thereof, in the Proportions hereinbefore stated, it shall be lawful for him or her to appeal to the Assistant Commissioners to be appointed for each Parish or Place as aforesaid, or to the Commissioners for executing this Act, as the Case shall require; and the said Assistant Commissioners, or any three or more of them, not exceeding the Number of seven, as aforesaid, or the said Commissioners for executing this Act, or any two or more of them, shall, and they are hereby required to hear and determine any such Appeal, provided that at the Time of hearing the same Appeal a Declaration in Writing shall be produced, signed by the Appellant, and attested by two or more credible Witnesses, who shall have seen such Appellant sign the same; which Declaration shall be in the Form in the Schedule ‡ hereunto annexed; and all such Appeals shall be heard and determined in the Order in which such Declarations shall be delivered; and in case any Claim shall be be allowed by the Assistant Commissioners, the said Assistant Commissioners shall make out their Certificates to the respective Commissioners for executing this Act, stating therein the Limit of the annual Income of every such Appellant, as declared by him or her, and the said Commissioners for executing this Act shall in such Case cause the Assessment to be amended as the Case shall require; and in all Appeals heard before the Commissioners for executing this Act, in case any Claim shall be allowed, they shall also cause the Assessment to be amended in like Manner: Provided always, that the said respective Commissioners, or any of them, shall not upon any Account allow any Exemption, or make Abatement in the Charge made upon any Person by any such Assessment as aforesaid, but the same shall stand good, unless the Appellant shall verify the Contents of every such Declaration upon Oath, or, being one of the People called Quakers, on solemn Affirmation, which Oath or Affirmation any three or more of the said Assistant Commissioners, or any two or more of the said Commissioners for executing this Act, are hereby respectively authorized and required to administer.

Assistant Commissioners to give Certificates of Claims allowed to the Commissioners, who shall amend Assessments.

No Claim to be allowed unless verified on Oath or Affirmation.

LXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any such Person shall be prevented from attending in Person to make his or her Appeal from any Assessment in the Manner before directed, it shall be lawful for such Person to appeal by his or her Attorney or Agent, and to transmit his or her Declaration, signed by such Appellant, and attested in the Manner and in the Form herein directed, to the respective Commissioners before whom such Appeal shall be depending, which Declaration so to be transmitted, being verified on the Oath, or (being one of the People called Quakers) on the solemn Affirmation of the Appellant, shall be as effectual as if such Appellant had appeared in Person; and which Oath or solemn Affirmation any two Justices of the Peace of any County, Riding, Shire, Stewartry, or Place, or any two Commissioners for executing this Act, of the Division where such Appeal shall be depending, are hereby empowered to administer, and are also hereby required to certify the same, at the Foot of such Declaration, by Writing under their respective Hands.

Persons prevented from attending may appeal by their Attornies or Agents.

LXVI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any such Person shall be prevented by Infancy, Sickness, or other Incapacity, or by Absence out of the Kingdom, from making any such Declaration, or from verifying the same as aforesaid, or if any Body Corporate or Politic shall be charged to any of the said additional Rates or Duties, it shall be lawful for the Guardian, Tutor, Curator, or Committee, or the Steward or Agent of such Persons respectively, or Body Corporate or Politic, to appeal on the Behalf of such incapacitated Person, or of such Body Corporate or Politic, and to make such Declaration as is required in such Case by this Act, such Guardian, Tutor, Curator, Committee, Steward, or Agent, having first made the Affidavit set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed * before two Justices of the Peace, or two Commissioners for executing this Act, (in which Case the Justices or Commissioners shall certify the same at the Foot of such Declaration as aforesaid,) or before the Commissioners before whom the said Appeal shall be depending, and which Affidavit the said Justices or Commissioners respectively as aforesaid are hereby empowered to take, and they respectively shall cause the same to be signed by the Party making the Affidavit, and annexed to the Declaration respecting which such Affidavit shall be made; and every such Appeal shall be as effectual as if such Appellant had appeared in Person.

Guardians, &c. may make the Declaration for Infants, Bodies Corporate, &c. having first made the Affidavit in the annexed Schedule.

* IV.

LXVII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any Person shall be prevented by any sufficient Cause, from appealing within the Time limited by this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for executing this Act, or the Assistant Commissioners of the proper Division, Parish, or Place, and on Proof to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners respectively of the Cause of such Omission, to receive the Appeal of any Person so circumstanced, within a reasonable Time to be allowed by the said respective Commissioners, after such Person shall have had Notice of the Assessment or Assessments made by virtue of this Act, and the Disability arising from any such Cause as aforesaid shall have been removed, and the respective Commissioners may proceed in such Appeal by and under the like Rules and Directions as are hereby prescribed in other Cases of Appeal; and that any Abatement of the said additional Rate or Duty assessed on such Appellant, which may be made on such Appeal, shall commence from and after the Time appointed for Payment of the Instalment of the said additional Rates or Duties next before the Time of making such Appeal.

Appeals of Persons prevented from appealing within the Time limited, may be received within a Time to be allowed by the Commissioners.

LXVIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, it shall be lawful for the respective Commissioners aforesaid to receive the Appeal of any Person, on Account of Income, against an Assessment made by virtue of this Act, (whether such Assessment shall have been made in that Year, or in any preceding Year, and whether such Person shall have appealed from the same or not, or the Income of the Person assessed shall have been diminished since the making the Assessment or not,) so that such Appeal shall be made between the fifth and the twentieth Days of April in any Year, during the Continuance of this Act, and to proceed therein by and under the like Rules and Directions as are hereby prescribed in other Cases of such Appeals; and that any Abatement of the said additional Rate or Duty assessed on such Appellant, which may be made on such Appeal, shall be allowed according to the Rules hereinbefore prescribed in such Cases of Appeal.

From April 5, 1799, the Commissioners may receive any Appeals respecting Income, made between the 5th and 20th April in any Year.

LXIX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That all such last-mentioned Appeals against any such Assessment as aforesaid, shall be entered with the respective Commissioners, or the Clerk to the respective Commissioners for executing this Act, within fifteen Days after such Assessment shall be signed and allowed; and the same shall be heard and determined ten Days at least before the Day appointed appointed for paying the first Instalment thereon, for which Purpose the said respective Commissioners for executing this Act, shall, within the Time before mentioned, appoint a Day or Days of Appeal, unless the Day of Appeal from Assessments of the Duties now payable on Houses, Windows, or Lights, or on Inhabited Houses, shall intervene, on which Days respectively the said respective Commissioners for executing this Act are hereby required to hear and determine all such Appeals.

Such Appeals to be entered within 15 Days after the Assessment is signed; and heard 10 Days before the first Instalment is due.

Estimates of Income and Declarations to be made in the Form in the annexed Schedule; but where not applicable, according to the Knowledge and Belief of the Party.

* I, II.

LXX. And, in order that the Estimates of the Annual Income of Persons assessed may be made according to known Rules, and with as much Uniformity as the respective Cases will admit, be it further enacted, That in every Case where any Person shall claim to be exempted from the additional Rate or Duty hereby imposed, or to be entitled to any Abatement thereof, according to the Amount of his or her Annual Income, the said Income shall be estimated, and the Declaration hereby required shall be made in the Form set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed*, and according to the Rules and Directions prescribed, as far as the same respectively are applicable to the Income of such Appellant; and in all Cases where the same are not applicable, then according to the best of his or her Knowledge and Belief, or of the Person making such Declaration on his or her Behalf.

Persons at the End of any Year proving that their Incomes fell short of the Sums mentioned in their Declarations, to receive from the Receiver General, the Over-payment on the Assessment, on Certificate of the Commissioners.

LXXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if, at the End of any Year during the Term herein mentioned, any Person shall discover, and shall prove, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners for executing this Act, or the Assistant Commissioners acting for the Parish or Place where such Person shall be assessed, that his or her Income during such Year fell short of the Sum mentioned in his or her Declaration by a stated Sum, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for executing this Act, or the major Part of them, on Proof before them or on the Certificate of the said Assistant Commissioners, or any three or more of them, to cause the last Assessment of such Person, made under the Authority of this Act, to be amended as the Case shall require, and to certify to the Receiver General of the same County or Place, under their Hands and Seals, the Amount of the Sums overpaid on such Assessment; and the said Receiver General shall, on Receipt of such Certificate, and on Production of a Duplicate thereof, signed by any two or more of the said Commissioners acting for the said Division, pay to the Person entitled to the same such Sum as it shall appear has been overpaid on such Assessment out of any Monies in his Hands of the Duties granted by this Act; for which Payment the Certificate of the said Commissioners shall be a sufficient Authority, and the same, on Proof thereof, shall be allowed in his Accounts.

If the Income of any Person be diminished after the Time for hearing Appeals, he or his Heirs, Executors, &c. may appeal on giving ten Days previous Notice; which shall be heard before the Time appointed for Payment of the next Instalment of the additional Duty; and the Assessment may be amended, &c.

LXXII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if the Income of any Person charged to any of the Additional Rates or Duties by this Act imposed, shall be diminished from any specific Cause arising after the Time allowed for hearing Appeals in any Year during the Term herein mentioned, whereby the Person so charged may become entitled to any Exemption from or Abatement of the said Additional Rates or Duties, it shall be lawful for such Person, or the Heirs, Executors, or Administrators of such Person, to appeal from the Assessment made by virtue of this Act, whether such Person shall have made any previous Appeal or not, giving Notice in Writing of such Appeal to the Assistant Commissioners, or the Commissioners for executing this Act, and acting for the Parish or Place where the Assessment shall be made, ten Days at least before the said Commissioners respectively shall be required to hear such Appeal; and the said respective Commissioners shall be obliged to hear and determine such Appeal before the Time appointed for Payment of the next Instalment of the said Additional Rates and Duties which shall happen after the Expiration of the said ten Days; and if such Person, the Heirs, Executors, or Administrators of such Person, shall, upon such Appeal, prove to the Satisfaction of the said respective Commissioners that such Income is diminished from any such specific Cause arising as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for executing this Act, or any two or more of them, on Proof before them, or on the Certificate of the said Assistant Commissioners, or any three or more of them, to cause the Assessment of such Person, made under the Authority of this Act, to be amended as the Case shall require; and that in every such Case where such Amendment shall take place, a Certificate and Duplicates thereof shall be made out and signed by the said Commissioners, or any two or more of them, in order that the Person so charged, his Heirs, Executors, or Administrators, may have the Relief intended to be given by this Act; and all Payments to be made subsequent to such Amendment shall be regulated according to such amended Assessment, during the then Remainder of the Year in which such Amendment shall have been made.

Appellants on the Ground of Overpayment, or Diminution of Income, to make Declaration in the Form in the annexed Schedule.

LXXIII. And be it further enacted, That in every Case where an Appeal shall be made, in order to obtain a Return of the said additional Rates or Duties on the Ground of Overpayment, in the Manner before directed*, or in order to obtain an Exemption from or Abatement of the said Additional Rates or Duties on the Ground of any Diminution of Income from any specific Cause arising after the Time for hearing Appeals in any Year as aforesaid†, the Appellant shall be obliged to make a Declaration in the Form set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed, and to verify the same on Oath or solemn Affirmation, as in other Cases of Appeal authorized by this Act.

Additional Duties to be paid by six Instalments every Year; within ten Days after the several Times appointed; the first being April 5, 1798.

LXXIV. And be it further enacted, That the respective additional Rates and Duties imposed by this Act, shall be payable at the Times and in the Proportions following; that is to say, in six Instalments, videlicet, on the fifth Day of April, the fifth Day of June, the fifth Day of August, the fifth Day of October, the fifth Day of December, and the fifth Day of February, in every Year; and that the Payments shall be made within ten Days from the fifth Day of April, the fifth Day of June, the fifth Day of August, the fifth Day of October, the fifth Day of December, and the fifth Day of February in every Year, by even and equal Portions; the first of the said Instalments to be paid within ten Days from the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight; and that the said respective Commissioners shall issue out and deliver their Warrants to the respective Collectors for the present Year, seven Days at least before the first of the said Payments shall be due, for the collecting and levying so much of the Rates and Duties as will become payable within ten Days from the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight; and the said Commissioners shall, after the said fifth Day of April, yearly, during the Term herein mentioned, issue out and deliver to the respective Collectors for the Time being, their Warrants for the speedy collecting and levying the said Rates and Duties as they shall become payable by Instalments within each Year, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Commissioners to issue Warrants annually to the Collectors to levy them.

LXXV. And be it further enacted, That the County, Parish, or Place for which any Persons shall be employed to collect the additional Rates and Duties hereby granted, shall be answerable for their punctually paying unto the Receiver General, now, or for the Time being, such Money as they the said Collectors shall be charged with under this Act.

Places for which Collectors are employed to be answerable for them.

LXXVI. And be it further enacted, That such Persons as shall be nominated to be Collectors of the said Duties now payable, shall, if required by the Churchwardens, or Overseers, or Guardians of the Poor of any Description, or any two or more of them, or the Select Vestry, or any seven or more of them, where a Select Vestry shall be authorized to act for any Parish or Parishes*, give good and sufficient Security, equal to the Amount of one Instalment of the whole Rate to be collected in each District, for their duly paying to the Receiver General such Monies as shall come to their Hands, at such Times as are directed by this Act; which Security the said Churchwardens, Overseers, Guardians, or Vestry, respectively, are hereby authorized and empowered to take; and on Failure of the Persons so named to be Collectors as before directed giving such Security, if required, the Commissioners for executing this Act, or any two or more of them, shall be at Liberty, and are hereby authorized to appoint any other two or more sufficient Persons, who can give such Security as aforesaid, residing within the Limits and Bounds of the Parishes, Townships, Constablewicks, and Places, where they shall be chargeable, to be named by such Churchwardens, Overseers, Guardians, or Vestry as aforesaid, to be Collectors of the said additional Rates and Duties: Provided always, that if no Persons can be found within the several Parishes, Townships, Constablewicks, or Places respectively, who are willing or able to give such Security, then and in such Case the Persons who were first named by the said Commissioners shall be Collectors of the said additional Rates and Duties: Provided also, that no Security or Receipt to be given in pursuance of this Act shall be charged or chargeable with any Stamp Duty whatsoever.

Collectors, if required, to give Security, or others may be appointed.

* See § 44.

If no Persons can be found to give Security, those first named by the Commissioners to be Collectors

No Security or Receipt to be chargeable with Stamp Duty.

LXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the several Collectors of the said additional Rates or Duties hereby granted shall, within seven Days after the respective Times hereby appointed for Payment of the several Instalments of the said additional Rates or Duties, pay into the Hands of the Receivers General, or their respective Deputies, all the Monies then received on Account of those respective Instalments, and shall also from Time to Time pay any Arrears of the said respective Instalments, which he or they shall receive after the respective Times hereby appointed, to the said Receivers General, or their respective Deputies, at such Times as the said Receiver General shall appoint; and that the said several Collectors, paying the whole Sums by them collected within the Times hereby appointed, shall have and receive, for their Pains in collecting and paying the Money, such Sums as the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, with the Approbation of the Commissioners of the Treasury, (due Regard being had to the Size of the District, and the Circumstances attending the same, together with the Amount of the Sums collected,) shall think fit, not in any Case exceeding Three-pence in the Pound, which the said Collectors are hereby empowered to detain out of the last Payment of their several and respective Payments in respect of each Instalment.

Collectors to pay Duties received to the Receivers General within seven Days after each Instalment is due; and Arrears at the Times appointed by the Receiver: And on paying the Whole collected, to have an Allowance not exceeding 3d. in the £. to be deducted out of the last Payment.

LXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Assistant Commissioners for any Parish or Place, with the Approbation of the Commissioners for executing this Act within the same Division, or any two or more of them, such Approbation being testified by Writing under their Hands and Seals, to employ a fit Person to be their Clerk, whose Duty shall be to receive and file all Declarations delivered to the said Assistant Commissioners upon any Appeal under this Act, in order that the same may be returned to the Commissioners for executing this Act, and to enter the Names of the Appellants in a Book or Books to be provided for that Purpose, in the Order in which the Appeals shall be made, and also to enter whether the Appellants respectively were sworn before the said Commissioners, or prosecuted their Appeals by Affidavit, or by any other Person in their Behalf; and that the Commissioners for executing this Act within the same Division shall, on Receipt of such Books with the due Entries therein, and the Declarations of all Appellants named therein, (which Declarations, and also all Declarations received by the Commissioners for executing this Act, where the said Commissioners shall act as Assistant Commissioners, shall be carefully kept by the Clerks to the said Commissioners for executing this Act,) make out a Certificate directed to the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, containing the Number of Appeals entered in such Books, and the Number of Days such Clerk has been employed in his Attendance on the Assistant Commissioners; and the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes shall, on Receipt of such Certificates, settle and allow what Sums should be paid to such Clerks for their Pains in writing and transcribing the said Books, and in keeping and returning Assistant Commissioners, with Approbation of the Commissioners, may employ a Clerk to make Entries in Books.

The Commissioners to certify the Number of Appeals, and of Days the Clerk has been employed.

Commissioners for Taxes to settle the Allowance to such Clerk, which the Receiver General shall pay.

returning the Declarations of Appellants, and for their Attendance on the said Assistant Commissioners, not exceeding the Rate at which Attornies or Solicitors are usually paid for the like Work done by their respective Clerks; which Sums so settled and allowed the respective Receivers General, on the Production of such Certificates with such Sums endorsed thereon, shall pay out of any Monies in their Hands of the said additional Rates and Duties hereby imposed.

Receiver General to pay the Clerk to the Commissioners for his Pains what they, with the Approbation of the Treasury, shall allow, not exceeding 1½d. per £.

LXXIX. And be it further enacted, That any Receiver General, upon the Receipt of the whole Monies assessed within the County, Riding, Shire, Stewartry, or Place, for which he is appointed Receiver, (in case he shall have received the several Duplicates of each Parish and Place therein, and that Duplicates shall be returned to the Office of his Majesty's Remembrancer of the Exchequer, and not otherwise,) shall allow and pay, according to such Warrant as shall be given in that Behalf by the Commissioners for executing this Act, or any two or more of them, such Sum as the said Commissioners, with the Approbation of the Commissioners of the Treasury, shall allow, not exceeding three Halfpence in the Pound, and no more, to the Clerks of the Commissioners for executing this Act, for their Pains in ascertaining the said additional Rates and Duties, and for fair writing the Assessments, Duplicates, and Copies hereinbefore directed, and all Warrants, Orders, and Instruments relating thereto.

No Receiver General or Deputy to have any Salary, but their Expences and an Allowance from the Treasury.

LXXX. And be it further enacted, That no Receiver General, his Deputy or Deputies, shall be entitled to any Allowance by way of Salary, for his Pains in receiving, accounting for, or paying the Monies collected by virtue of this Act; but that the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, are or is hereby authorized to allow to such Receivers General, out of the Monies collected by virtue of this Act, such Sums as they shall appear to have expended or disbursed in the Execution of this Act, and for their reasonable Charges in collecting the same.

If Surcharges of the Duties now payable have not been made within the Time allowed, they may be made before April 5, 1799.

LXXXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Surveyor or Inspector shall have neglected or refused, or shall neglect or refuse to surcharge any Assessment relative to the said Duties now payable, or any of them, within the Time allowed by Law, it shall be lawful for the Surveyor or Inspector of the District where such Neglect or Refusal shall have happened for the Time being, and he is hereby required to surcharge the same at any Time before the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine; which Surcharge shall be certified and proceeded upon in like Manner and as effectually as if the same had been made within the Time allowed by the Laws now in force: Provided always, that the respective Commissioners for executing this Act shall have Authority, and they are hereby respectively required, to appoint, from Time to Time, Days for hearing all Appeals made from such last-mentioned Surcharges, in such Manner, and at such Times, as shall be convenient, so that the Collection of the Rates and Duties by this Act imposed may not be unnecessarily retarded: Provided also, that no Appeal from such last-mentioned Surcharge, or from any Surcharge now depending, shall retard the Execution of this Act, so far as relates to the making an Assessment thereupon by virtue of this Act; but that it shall be lawful for the respective Officers before-mentioned, to charge the respective Rates or Duties hereby imposed on the Amount contained in such Assessment, and to cause the same to be levied in the mean Time and until such Surcharge or Surcharges so appealed from, or to be appealed from, shall be determined, as if such Surcharge or Surcharges had not been made; and after the Allowance of such Surcharge or Surcharges, for the said respective Commissioners to cause such Assessment, and also the Assessment made by virtue of this Act, to be amended accordingly; and all Arrears become due on such amended Assessment shall be levied from the Time when the original Assessment commenced.

Commissioners to appoint Days for hearing Appeals against them.

No Appeal to retard the Execution of this Act.

After Allowance of Surcharges the Commissioners may amend Assessments.

After April 5, 1798, the Commissioners annually to cause to be delivered to the Assessors, a Copy of the Certificates of Assessments under this Act: Collectors to cause such Assessments to be returned with those made for the Duties now payable for that Year: But if no such latter Assessment be made upon any Person named in the Certificates, the Assessors shall return the same, with the Reason, to the Commissioners, who shall cause the Sums contained in the Certificates to be collected.

LXXXII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, the said Commissioners for executing this Act shall annually, during the Term herein mentioned, cause to be delivered to the respective Assessors appointed to assess the Duties now payable within their respective Districts, at the Time of appointing the said Assessors, or as soon after as conveniently may be, a true Copy of the Certificates of Assessments made under the Authority of this Act, in as far as the same relate to the Persons liable to the said Rates or Duties hereby imposed within the Districts of such Assessors respectively, and the said Assessors shall cause the Assessment (except in the Cases hereinafter mentioned) to be returned together with the Assessments to be made of the said Duties now payable for that Year upon the several Persons named in such Certificates and Assessments respectively: Provided always, that in case no Assessment of the said Duties now payable shall be made for that Year, within the District of any Assessor or Assessors, upon any Person or Persons named in the Copies of the Certificates delivered to such Assessor or Assessors, then such Assessor or Assessors shall return the same, together with the Cause thereof, according to the best of his or their Knowledge and Belief, to the said Commissioners for executing this Act, at their first Meeting for receiving the Assessments for that Year, and the said Commissioners shall cause the Sums contained in such Certificates to be collected and levied by the respective Collectors, in like Manner as if the same were returned with the Assessments for that Year, unless the same shall be vacated in the Manner herein mentioned*; and in case any Person or Persons named in such Certificates shall be assessed for any Year after the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, on Account of the said Duties now payable, to a greater Amount than in the Year in which the Assessment made by virtue of this Act shall have been made, then the said Assessment made by virtue of this Act shall be increased proportionally at the Rate before directed, according to the Amount contained in such latter Assessment; and that in every Case where such Increase shall be made, a Certificate and Duplicates thereof shall be returned by the said Assessors, to the respective Commissioners for executing this Act, in the Manner before directed; and the Payments to be made in pursuance of this Act, shall, after the making of any such Increase, during the then Remainder of the Term herein mentioned, be regulated according to the last increased Assessment; provided that such increased Assessment shall be liable to be appealed against in like Manner as is hereby directed to be done with respect to the first Assessment to be made under this Act.

* See § 84.

If Persons named in Certificates shall be assessed to the old Duties after April 5, 1798, higher than in the Year in which the Assessment under this Act shall have been made, the additional Assessment shall be increased proportionally, &c.

If any Person shall be liable to be assessed to the old Duties after April 5, 1798, in a District where he has not been charged under this Act, the Assessors shall give him Notice to produce a Declaration specifying whether he has been assessed elsewhere to the additional Duties under this Act, and to what Amount, and shall make the Assessment accordingly, and return a Certificate and Duplicates to the Commissioners.

LXXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall be liable to be assessed towards the said Duties now payable, or any of them, in any Year after the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, in any Parish or District wherein such Person or Persons shall not have been before charged by virtue of this Act, the Assessors shall give or leave Notice in Writing to or for every such Person liable as aforesaid, within the Limits for which such Assessors are to act, at his or her Dwelling House, to prepare or produce, within fourteen Days next ensuing the Day of giving such Notice, a Declaration in Writing, signed with his or her proper Name; which Declaration shall specify whether such Person hath or hath not been assessed in any former Year by virtue of this Act, in any other Parish or Place, and also the Name or Names of the Parish or Place, Parishes or Places, and County or Counties wherein such Person shall have been so assessed by virtue of this Act, and also the Amount of the said Assessment or Assessments, together with the Amount of the Duties now payable contained in the last Assessment or Assessments thereof; and if in any such Case it shall appear that an Assessment hath been made of the additional Rate or Duty by this Act imposed in any former Year, but that the Amount of the said Duties now payable is liable to increase, then a proportional Increase, at the Rate before directed, shall take place in the Assessment to be made by virtue of this Act; and it shall be lawful for the Assessor or Assessors to whom such Declaration shall have been delivered, to make an Assessment to the full Amount of the Sum required; and where no such Assessment shall have been made by virtue of this Act in any former Year, then it shall be lawful for such Assessor or Assessors to make an Assessment, by virtue of this Act, on the Amount of the Duties now payable, contained in the Assessment thereof to be made for that Year, according to the respective Rates hereby imposed; and every such Assessor shall return a Certificate of such Assessment, and Duplicates thereof, to the said Commissioners, at the respective Times, and in the Manner before mentioned; and if any Person so liable to be assessed shall neglect or refuse to make out, sign, and deliver such List within the Time before mentioned, then such Assessor or Assessors shall make an Assessment by virtue of this Act, as in the Case where no former Assessment shall have been made by virtue of this Act; and every such Assessment so made upon any such Neglect or Refusal, shall be final and conclusive upon the Person thereby charged, unless the Assessment upon which the same shall be computed shall be abated upon Appeal, either on Proof of the Rate of Income of such Person, entitling him or her thereto, or of any Mistake which may have arisen in the Computation to be made on the Amount thereof, or unless it shall appear that such Person is entitled to be exempted from the said additional Rate or Duty.

If any Person shall not deliver such Declaration within the Time limited, the Assessor shall assess him as if no Assessment had been made, &c.

If any Person chargeable in two Places be desirous of paying in one, or after Assessment shall remove to another Place, and be desirous of paying there, he may give Notice to the Assessors there, with a Declaration of the Place where the other Assessment was made; whereupon such Assessors shall make an Assessment on him accordingly, and the former Assessment shall be vacated.

LXXXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons assessed by virtue of this Act, or liable so to be assessed, in two or more Places, shall be desirous of paying the whole of the Sums assessed in either of such Places; or if any Person or Persons, after an Assessment made by virtue of this Act in any Place, shall remove therefrom, or become resident in any other Place, and shall be desirous of paying the Sums assessed in such other Place, it shall be lawful for him, her, or them, to give Notice thereof to the Assessor or Assessors for such other Place, accompanied with a Declaration of the Place where such other Assessment was made, and the Amount thereof, in the Manner before directed; and every such Assessor or Assessors shall if necessary make an Assessment to the Amount so declared, or to any greater Amount, in proportion to the Amount of the former Duties now payable, for which such Person or Persons shall be assessed in such other Place or Places, and shall certify the same to the Commissioners acting for the District where the said Declaration shall be delivered; and the said Commissioners, or any two or more of them, or their Clerk, or other Person to be employed by them for that Purpose, shall on Request deliver or cause to be delivered to the Person or Persons so again assessed, a Certificate signed by such Commissioners or their Clerk, of the Amount of such Assessment, which Certificate shall be made out and delivered gratis, and shall be a sufficient Authority for vacating the former Assessment to the Amount certified, and for transferring the future Collection and Account of the Sums contained in such former Assessment to the Officers acting for the District where such latter Assessment shall be made; and that in default of obtaining such Certificate, the Commissioners acting for the District where such former Assessment was made, on Proof given on Oath of the Fact of such latter Assessment being made, or of Payment under the same, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners present, or the major Part of them, may vacate such former Assessment.

Exemptions or Abatements shall not be in force longer than a Week after January 5 in each Year; but the Parties may appeal annually, and the Commissioners may continue Exemptions, &c.

LXXXV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the Allowance of any Exemption from, or Abatement to be made of the said Additional Rate or Duty, in the Manner before directed, shall not have Continuance or be in force for any longer Term than the Expiration of one Week after the fifth Day of January next ensuing the Allowance of such Exemption or Abatement; but that it shall be lawful for any Person to whom such Allowance was granted, at any Time during the Continuance of of the Rate and Duty hereby impoſed, and ſo from Time to Time whenever there ſhall be Occaſion, to appeal again from the Aſſeſſment made by virtue of this Act to the Commiſſioners acting for the Pariſh or Place where the ſame was made, in the Manner before directed, and on Proof on Oath, or Affirmation, to the Satisfaction of the ſaid Commiſſioners, of the Amount of the then Annual Income of the Appellant, the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall continue the ſaid Exemption, or allow ſuch Abatement as the Caſe may require; and all the Rules and Directions preſcribed for making the Appeal to the ſaid Commiſſioners, in the firſt Inſtance, ſhall be uſed and applied (mutatis mutandis) in every other ſubſequent Appeal to be made to the ſaid Commiſſioners; and the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall have the like Powers to determine the Matter of ſuch ſubſequent Appeals, as are hereby given to them for determining Appeals in the firſt Inſtance.

Aſſeſſors and Collectors to aid Surveyors or Inſpectors, or be liable to Penalty for Neglect of Duty.

LXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That all Aſſeſſors and Collectors for the Time being of the ſaid Duties now payable, ſhall and are hereby required and enjoined, at the Requeſt of any Surveyor or Inſpector of the ſaid Duties, to be aiding and aſſiſting ſuch Surveyor or Inſpector in the Execution of the Powers given to them by this Act, and in the Performance of their reſpective Duties hereby required; and if any Aſſeſſor or Collector ſhall neglect or refuſe to be aiding or aſſiſting any Surveyor or Inſpector in any Matter required of him in purſuance of this Act, every ſuch Aſſeſſor or Collector ſo offending, ſhall be liable to ſuch Penalties as Aſſeſſors and Collectors are liable to for Neglect of Duty by any Act or Acts of Parliament before mentioned *, relative to the ſaid Duties now payable.

* § 43. 45.

Bank to open an Account with the Treaſury, and carry to their Credit all Monies authorized by this Act to be paid them, for which Receipts ſhall be given, and Duplicates if required.

LXXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Governors and Directors of the Bank of England ſhall open an Account in their Books with the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury for the Time being, under the Title of The Commiſſioners of the Treaſury on Account of the Supplies granted by Parliament for the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight, and ſhall carry to the Credit of ſuch Account all the Monies authorized by this Act to be paid to the Governor and Company of the ſaid Bank of England, or to their Caſhier or Caſhiers, or other Perſon or Perſons to be authorized by them as hereinafter is mentioned †, and the ſaid Caſhier or Caſhiers, or other Perſon or Perſons to be authorized as aforeſaid, ſhall give a Receipt or Receipts in Writing for the Amount of the Monies ſo to be paid to the Perſon or Perſons paying the ſame, or to his, her, or their Agent or Agents, and if required ſo to do ſhall alſo give a Duplicate of any ſuch Receipt, or a Second Receipt of the ſame Tenor and Date, to the Perſon or Perſons paying the ſame, his, her, or their Agent or Agents, which Duplicates or Second Receipts of the ſame Tenor or Date ſhall be accepted and taken by the ſeveral Collectors and Receivers of the ſaid additional Rates and Duties by this Act granted, as Cash, and in Payment and Diſcharge of the ſeveral Sums to be aſſeſſed and collected by virtue of this Act, in the Manner hereinafter directed ‡.

Perſons may pay to the Bank any Sums without requiring Duplicate Receipts, which Sums ſhall be deemed voluntary Contributions, for the Purpoſes of this Act.

LXXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons, Body Politic or Corporate, at any Time or Times during the Continuance of this Act, to pay or cauſe to be paid to the ſaid Governor and Company, or to their Caſhier or Caſhiers, or other Perſon or Perſons to be authorized as aforeſaid, any Sum or Sums of Money, and to require a Receipt or Receipts for the ſame, without requiring any Duplicate or Duplicates thereof, or any Second Receipt or Receipts of the ſame Tenor and Date; which Sums ſo to be paid as aforeſaid, and for which original Receipts only ſhall be required, ſhall be deemed and taken to be the voluntary Contributions of ſuch Perſons, Bodies Politic or Corporate reſpectively, towards effecting the Purpoſes of this Act.

Perſons may pay to the Bank any Sums, and require Receipts and Duplicates, which Sums ſhall be deemed to be on Account of Inſtalments of the additional Duty, and the Exceſs of ſuch Sums above the additional Duty ſhall be deemed voluntary Contributions.

LXXXIX. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons at any Time or Times during the Continuance of this Act to pay, or cauſe to be paid, to the ſaid Governor and Company, or to their Caſhier or Caſhiers, or other Perſon or Perſons to be authorized as aforeſaid, any Sum or Sums of Money, and to require a Receipt or Receipts, and Duplicates thereof reſpectively, or Receipts of the ſame Tenor and Date, for ſuch Payments; (which Sums may be ſo paid without producing to the ſaid Governor and Company, or their Caſhier or Caſhiers, or the Perſon or Perſons to be authorized as aforeſaid, any Aſſeſſment or Certificate of the Amount of the ſaid additional Rates and Duties to be made by virtue of this Act, upon ſuch Perſon or Perſons); and all Sums ſo to be paid, for which Receipts and Duplicates, or Receipts of the ſame Tenor and Date ſhall be required, ſhall be deemed and taken to be on Account of ſuch Inſtalments of the ſaid additional Rates and Duties, and in Advance of the ſame; and the Exceſs of the Sums ſo paid above the Amount of the ſaid Additional Rates or Duties ſo to be aſſeſſed or charged on ſuch Perſon or Perſons, ſhall be deemed and taken to be the voluntary Contributions of ſuch Perſon or Perſons towards effecting the Purpoſes of this Act; and the Duplicates of the Receipt or Receipts to be given upon the ſaid Payments, or the Second Receipts of the ſame Tenor and Date, ſhall, upon Delivery thereof to the Collectors of the ſaid additional Rates and Duties, aſſeſſed and charged upon ſuch Perſon or Perſons as aforeſaid, be an Acquittance and Diſcharge for ſuch and ſo many Inſtalments of the ſaid additional Rates and Duties ſo aſſeſſed and charged as aforeſaid, as the Perſon delivering the ſame ſhall endorſe thereon, and ſhall not exceed the Amount of the Sums expreſſed in ſuch Duplicates or Second Receipts as aforeſaid.

Duplicate Receipts ſhall be a Diſcharge for ſuch Inſtalments as the Perſon delivering them to the Collectors ſhall endorſe thereon, not exceeding the Sums expreſſed therein.

One Receipt for the Whole of the Sums paid to the Bank, or ſeparate Receipts for ſuch Portions as ſhall be required, to be given, and alſo Duplicates, &c.

XC. And be it further enacted, That upon the Payment of any ſuch Sum of Money as aforeſaid into the ſaid Bank of England, the Caſhier or Caſhiers, or other Perſon or Perſons receiving the ſame, ſhall give one Receipt, ſigned by them reſpectively, for the Whole of the Sums ſo paid, or ſeparate Receipts for ſuch Portions thereof as ſhall be required, and ſhall alſo, if required, give a Duplicate of each or any Receipt, or Second Receipts of the same Tenor and Date respectively, which Receipts and Duplicates thereof, or Second Receipts of the same Tenor and Date, shall severally be cut off indentwise from the Counter Cheques thereof, which Counter Cheques are to remain with the said Governor and Company; and every Receipt, in Cases where a Duplicate thereof, or Second Receipt of the same Tenor and Date, shall be given, shall be denominated in the Body thereof to be the First Receipt of the same Tenor and Date, and the Duplicate of such Receipt or Second Receipt shall be denominated in the Body thereof to be the Duplicate or Second Receipt of the same Tenor or Date.

On Delivery of the Duplicate Receipts to the Collector, in Discharge of the Whole or any Part of the Duties, they shall, if required, indorse on the original Receipt the Amount and Number of Instalments thereby discharged; on Production of which the Commissioners shall give Certificates, which shall be Evidence of the Payment of the Sums specified.

XCI. And be it further enacted, That upon the Delivery of the Duplicate of any such Receipt as aforesaid, or any Second Receipt of the same Tenor and Date, to any Collector of the said additional Rates or Duties, in Discharge of the Whole of the said Rates or Duties assessed or charged upon the Person or Persons delivering or causing to be delivered such Duplicate or Second Receipt, or any Part thereof, the said Collector shall, if required, indorse in Writing on the Back of the original Receipt, of which the Duplicate or Second Receipt as aforesaid shall be delivered, the Amount and the Number of Instalments of the additional Rates or Duties thereby to be discharged; and the Commissioners for executing this Act, in the District where such Duplicate or Second Receipt shall have been delivered, or any two or more of them, may and they are hereby required, on any Application for that Purpose, at any of their Meetings, and on Production of the original Receipt indorsed as aforesaid, or other Proof, given to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, of the Payment in Advance of any Sum of Money, on Account of the said Rates or Duties, grant a Certificate thereof under their Hands to the Person or Persons making such Payments, which Certificates of the said Commissioners shall be received, without further Proof, as Evidence of such Payments in all Courts and Places, and before all Persons whatever.

Persons delivering to the Collectors Receipts of the Bank for not less than three Instalments, to have an Allowance of 4*l.* per Cent. per Ann. for Money advanced, not exceeding six Instalments; such Allowance to be ascertained by the Receiver General's Certificate, and paid at the Bank, or by the Collector or Receiver General, as the Case may require.

XCII. And be it further enacted, That every Person delivering to any Collector or Collectors of the said additional Rates or Duties hereby granted, any Receipt or Duplicate as aforesaid, given for Monies paid into the said Bank of England, in Advance as aforesaid, in Discharge of not less than three Instalments of the said additional Rates and Duties charged upon such Person, shall be entitled to an Allowance on the Sums expressed in such Receipt or Duplicate, or such Part thereof, not exceeding the Amount of six Instalments, charged as aforesaid, of so much Money as the Interest of the Sums so paid in Advance, not being less than three nor exceeding six Instalments as aforesaid, shall amount unto after the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, from the Day of Payment of the first of the said Instalments so to be discharged, until the Day of Payment of the last of the said Instalments, which Allowance is to be ascertained by the Certificate of the Receiver General of the County, Riding, Shire, Stewartry, or Place, where such additional Rates or Duties shall be payable; which Certificate such Receiver General shall grant on Demand, before the Period of such last Instalment; and the Allowance so certified shall be paid at the Bank of England, or by the Collector or Collectors of the said additional Rates or Duties, out of any Payments that may be afterwards made by or on the Behalf of the Person to whom such Certificate shall be granted, or in case no future Payment shall become due, then by the Receiver General of the same County, Riding, Shire, Stewartry, or Place, out of any Monies in his Hands, of the said additional Rates or Duties.

The Bank may allow Discount to Persons procuring the Certificate of their Assessment, &c. paying Assessments in Advance, not less than three Instalments, giving a Receipt and Duplicate.

XCIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person, having received the Copy of the Certificate of his or her Assessment to be made by virtue of this Act, shall be desirous of paying the Duty in Advance at the Bank of England, and of receiving the Discount to be allowed by this Act on Prompt Payment at the said Bank of England, it shall be lawful for the Cashier or Cashiers of the said Bank of England, on Production of the Copy of such Certificate at the Time of Payment of the said Duty in Advance, (the Sum so paid not in any Case to be less than the Sum which appears by such Certificate to be payable, by three Instalments,) to make an Allowance at the Rate before mentioned out of the Sums so paid in Advance, from the Day of paying in the same until the Day appointed by this Act for the Payment of the last of the said Instalments thereby discharged, and in such Case to give the Person paying in the same a Certificate or Receipt, and a Duplicate thereof, specifying therein the Number of Instalments thereby discharged, and the Amount of the Allowance for such Prompt Payment; and all such Allowances shall be made by the said Cashier or Cashiers out of the Duties to be paid in at the said Bank of England, at the Time of paying the same.

Bank may give Certificates in Lieu of Receipts and Duplicates thereof.

XCIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Cashier or Cashiers of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, on the Receipt of any Sum of Money by virtue of this Act, to give a Certificate or Certificates in lieu of a Receipt or Receipts as hereinbefore mentioned, and if required so to do, a Duplicate or Duplicates thereof, or Certificates of the same Tenor and Date, and every such Certificate shall be of the like Force and Validity as a Receipt or Receipts in the Manner before directed.

Persons forging or altering Certificates, Receipts, or Duplicates, or uttering them, to be adjudged guilty of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

XCV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, or shall willingly act or assist in the forging or counterfeiting any Certificate or Certificates, or Receipt or Receipts, for the Whole or any Part or Parts of the Sums received at the Bank of England, in pursuance of this Act, or any Duplicate of any such Certificate or Receipt, or shall alter any Number, Figure, or Word, in any such Certificate, Receipt, or Duplicate, or knowingly utter or publish, as true, any such false, forged, counterfeited, or altered Certificate or Certificates, or Receipt or Receipts, or Duplicate or Duplicates, with Intent to defraud the King's Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or any Body Politic or Corporate, or any Person or Persons whatsoever, every such Person or Persons so forging or counterfeiting, or causing or procuring to be forged or counterfeited, or willingly acting or assisting in the forging or counterfeiting, or altering, uttering, or publishing, as aforesaid, being thereof convicted in due Form of Law, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon, without Benefit of Clergy.

Monies arising from the Duties, or received at the Bank, to be paid into the Exchequer, and kept separate from all other Monies.

XCVI. And be it further enacted, That all Monies arising by the said respective additional Rates and Duties, (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted,) and also all Monies to be received at the Bank of England, shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenues; and that there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt of Exchequer, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies arising from the said respective Rates and Duties, or received at the Bank of England, and paid into the said Receipt as aforesaid, shall be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid and payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon any Account whatever; and the said Monies so paid into the said Receipt shall be subject and liable to the Uses and Purposes hereinafter mentioned.

Monies arising from the Duties or paid to the Bank, or from other Duties to be granted this Session for the same Purpose, not exceeding 7,000,000*l.* to be applied to such Services as shall then have been voted for 1798.

XCVII. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies arising from the said respective additional Rates and Duties, or from Payments at the Bank of England, or from such other Aids and Duties as shall be granted by any Act to be passed in this Session of Parliament, and specifically appropriated thereby to the same Purposes with the said additional Rates and Duties hereby imposed, not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of seven Millions, which shall be paid into the said Receipt of the Exchequer, shall from Time to Time, as the same shall be paid into the said Receipt, be issued and applied to such Services as shall then have been voted by the Commons of Great Britain, in this present Session of Parliament, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight; and the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury now or for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, are or is hereby authorized and empowered to issue and apply the same accordingly.

After reserving the said 7,000,000*l.* the Surplus to be applied in paying the Interest of any Loan of this Session not exceeding 8,000,000*l.*

XCVIII. And be it further enacted, That after issuing or reserving at the said Receipt of Exchequer, out of the Monies to arise as aforesaid, by virtue of this Act, or any other Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament, such Sum, not exceeding seven Millions, as shall be voted for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight as aforesaid, so much of the Surplus of the said Monies as shall be necessary, shall be and is hereby directed to be applied, in the first Place, to the Payment and Discharge of all Annuities, Interest, and Dividends, which shall become payable in consequence of any Sum of Money, not exceeding the Sum of eight Millions, to be raised by Loan, by virtue of any Act or Acts to be passed in the present Session of Parliament, and the same shall, at the End of each Quarter of a Year, or at such other Periods as the said Annuities, Interest, and Dividends shall become payable, be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund, during the Continuance of the Term herein mentioned; and that after applying such Part of the said Monies as shall be sufficient for the Purposes aforesaid, the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, are or is hereby authorized and required to issue the Surplus of the said Monies arising as aforesaid, during the said Term, to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and the said Money so issued shall be by them placed to the Account of the Commissioners appointed by an Act of the twenty-sixth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, for applying certain Sums of Money annually to the Reduction of the National Debt, who shall apply the same in the Manner hereinafter directed.

and the Residue to Commissioners for reducing the National Debt.

Monies placed, by virtue of this Act, to the Account of the Commissioners for reducing the National Debt, to be applied consonant to the Directions of this Act and 26 Geo. 3. c. 31.

XCIX. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies which by virtue of this Act shall be placed to the Account of the said Commissioners, to be applied towards the Reduction of the National Debt, shall be applied by the said Commissioners in Payment for the Purchase of any Public Annuities, in the following Manner; (that is to say,) That all Monies so to be applied, which shall be placed to the Account of the said Commissioners, between the End of any Quarter of a Year ending on the fifth Day of January, the fifth Day of April, the fifth Day of July, and the tenth Day of October, in any Year during the Term herein mentioned, and the first Day of the Calendar Month which shall commence next after the End of such Quarter, shall be applied to the Purchase of Public Annuities, in equal Portions as nearly as may be on every Day (Saturdays and Mondays excepted) on which the same shall be transferrable, between the said first Day of the Calendar Month which shall commence next after the End of such Quarter and the first Day of the Calendar Month which shall commence next after the End of the Quarter next ensuing; and that all the Rules and Directions prescribed by the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year of his present Majesty aforesaid, for the Purchase of any Public Annuities below Par, or at or above Par, shall be applied and put in Practice with relation to the Monies appropriated by virtue of this Act, as effectually as if the said Rules and Directions had been specially enacted in this Act; and all such Part of the Principal or Capital Stock of such Public Annuities as shall be purchased by the said Commissioners by virtue of this Act, shall be transferred to the Account of the said Commissioners, in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England; and that the Dividends payable thereon shall from Time to Time, during the Term herein mentioned, be received by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and placed to the Account of the said Commissioners.

The Dividends on the Capital Stock redeemed by virtue of this

C. And be it further enacted, That all Dividends which shall from Time to Time become due and payable in respect of the Principal or Capital Stock of such Annuities as shall be redeemed by virtue of this Act, shall be issued or set apart out of the Consolidated Fund during the Term herein mentioned, in the same Manner as if such Principal or Capital Stock had not been redeemed, and shall be paid to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to be placed to the Account of the said Commissioners; and the same shall from Time to Time be applied by them under the like Rules and Regulations, and in the Manner prescribed by the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, with respect to the Sums redeemed by virtue of the said Act; and that all and every the Rules, Methods, Regulations, and Provisions, which in and by the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year aforesaid are provided and established for applying, managing, or accounting for the Sums vested in the said Commissioners for the Purposes of the said Act, shall be practised, used, and put in Execution in and for the applying, managing, and accounting for all Sums of Money directed to be placed to the Account of the said Commissioners by virtue of this Act, as fully and effectually as if the same had been repeated and re-enacted in this present Act; and that after the Determination of this Act, such Dividends as shall be payable in respect of the Public Annuities redeemed by virtue of this Act, shall remain in the Consolidated Fund, and shall be applied to the Uses and Purposes which the Monies composing the Consolidated Fund may be applicable to.

Act, to be applied in Reduction of the National Debt, as under 26 Geo. 3. c. 31.

CI. And be it further enacted, That upon the Purchase by the said Commissioners appointed for the Reduction of the National Debt, out of the Monies to arise by virtue of this Act, of Public Annuities, to the Amount of the Annuities which may be created on the Loan of the said Sum, not exceeding eight Millions as aforesaid, and upon Publication thereof in the Manner hereinafter directed, the said Rates and Duties hereby imposed shall from thenceforth cease and determine, and be no longer paid or payable; and all the Rules and Regulations of this Act, respecting the said respective additional Rates and Duties hereby imposed, shall also from thenceforth cease and determine; save and except as to the Recovery of any Arrears of the said respective additional Rates and Duties which may at that Time have accrued, or to any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture which may have been then incurred; save also and except as to the Provisions of this Act, relating to the Dividends which shall be payable in respect to the Public Annuities redeemed by virtue of this Act.

The Duties hereby imposed to cease, upon the Purchase of Annuities to the Amount created by the Loan of 8,000,000*l.* and on Publication thereof, as directed in § 102.

CII. And be it further enacted, That as soon as any Public Annuities to the Amount aforesaid shall be purchased by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, out of the Monies arising by this Act, the Auditor of the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer shall, and he is hereby directed and required to transmit a Certificate thereof to the Commissioners of the Treasury, or the High Treasurer for the Time being, who shall thereupon issue their or his Orders to the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, to direct the Commissioners for putting this Act in Execution, and the several Surveyors, Inspectors, Assessors, and Collectors acting under them respectively, to cease from charging any further Rate or Duty for or on Account of the said additional Rates and Duties by this Act imposed, and to cease from collecting any additional Rate or Duty before charged by virtue of this Act, except Arrears of the said Rate or Duty grown due or payable before the Date of such Orders; and the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes are hereby required to cause public Notice of such Order to be given to them as aforesaid, to be affixed in their Office, and at the Royal Exchange, and also to publish the same in the London Gazette, before the Day fixed for the Determination of the said respective additional Rates and Duties, and such Notice shall be deemed to be a sufficient Publication of the Determination of the said additional Rates and Duties, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; and the Commissioners for putting this Act in Execution, and all Surveyors, Inspectors, Assessors, and Collectors, and other Officers acting under them, are hereby required to act in obedience thereto.

As soon as Annuities to the said Amount shall be purchased, the Auditor of the Exchequer to transmit a Certificate to the Treasury, who shall order the Commissioners to cease from charging the Duties under this Act; of which the Commissioners shall give public Notice on the 'Change, and in the Gazette, &c.

CIII. And be it further enacted, That if, after applying the Monies to be raised by virtue of this Act to the several Purposes aforesaid, any Sum of Money so arising should be in the said Receipt of the Exchequer, the same shall remain for the Disposition of Parliament, and shall not be applied otherwise than as Parliament shall direct.

Any Surplus in the Exchequer to remain at the Disposition of Parliament.

CIV. And be it further enacted, That one Moiety of all pecuniary Penalties and Forfeitures hereby imposed, shall, if sued for within the Space of six Calendar Months from the Time of such Penalties or Forfeitures being incurred, be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof, with full Costs of Suit, to the Person or Persons who shall inform or sue for the same within the Time aforesaid, and which shall and may be sued for in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, for Offences committed in England, or in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, for Offences committed in Scotland, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Essoign, Privilege, Wager of Law, nor more than one Imparlance shall be allowed; but nevertheless it shall be lawful for his Majesty's Attorney General in England, or his Majesty's Advocate in Scotland, in case it shall appear to his Satisfaction that any such Penalty or Forfeiture was incurred without any Intention of Fraud, to stay all further Proceedings, by entering a noli prosequi, or otherwise, with respect as well to the Share of such Penalty or Forfeiture claimed by such Informer or Informers, as to the Share thereof belonging to his Majesty.

Application and Recovery of Penalties.

Attorney General may stay Proceedings in certain Cases.

CV. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, such Action or Suit shall be commenced within six Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be laid in the County or Place where the Cause of Complaint did arise, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in Limitation of Actions.

General Issue.

in every such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give this Act, and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon; and if the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants in any such Action or Suit, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, or discontinue his or their Action or Suit after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if upon Demurrer, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant hath in any other Cases to recover Costs by Law.

Treble Costs.

The Persons invested with the Authority of borrowing Money for discharging Debts incurred by building or repairing Churches, Gaols, &c. may prolong the Time for Payment, not exceeding three Years beyond the subsisting Term, with the Consent of the Creditors.

CVI. 'And whereas many Counties, Cities, Towns, and other Places, are burthened with Rates for 'the Purpose of discharging the Debts incurred by the building or repairing of Churches, Gaols, Houses 'of Correction, Poor Houses, and other Works of a public Nature, which Debts are required by 'divers Acts of Parliament to be wholly discharged within certain limited Times: And whereas it 'would tend to facilitate the Collection of the Tax imposed by this Act, and would be a reasonable 'Relief to the Persons liable to the said Rates, if such Times were permitted to be prolonged without 'Prejudice to any Creditors:' Be it therefore enacted, That in all the several Cases aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Magistrates or other Persons invested with the Authority of borrowing Money, and imposing Rates for the Purposes aforesaid, to prolong the Time for completing the Discharge of the Monies borrowed or otherwise due, for any Term not exceeding three Years beyond the now subsisting Term: Provided always, that such Order be made with the Consent in Writing of the respective Creditors, or of so many of them as shall be affected thereby.

Act may be altered or repealed this Session.

CVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, varied, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which this Act refers.

I. RULES for estimating the Income of Persons appealing against any Assessment to be made under the Act of the thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty.

THE Cases of Appellants deriving their Income, or any Part thereof, from or out of Land:

1st CASE. FREEHOLD, Customary, or Copyhold Land, usually in the Occupation of the Owners.

In such Case the Income of the Owner shall be taken at the true annual Value, according to the best of his Knowledge and Belief, but in no Case less than the Rent of one Year and the Half of a Year, at which Lands of the like Quality and Quantity are worth to be let by the Year in that Neighbourhood, and according as the same may be subject to, or free from Tythe, or according to the Rate of Composition or Modus payable for the same, after deducting such Payments as the same may be subject to, and which are allowed to be deducted by these Rules * from Income arising out of Land.

* See II.

2d CASE.—Assessment on the Owner of Lands demised to a Tenant.

In the Case of Lands demised at Rack Rent, the Income of the Owner shall be taken at the full Amount of the Rent reserved for one Year, after deducting as aforesaid.

In the Case of Lands demised in Consideration of a Fine paid, and a Rent reserved, the said Income shall be taken at the Amount of the said Rent for one Year, and of such further Sum in respect of the Fine, as in the Judgment of the Owner will amount to a Sum equal to the Receipts of one Year, on a fair Average.

In the Case of Lands demised in Consideration of a Fine only, the like Average as aforesaid shall be taken.

3d CASE.—Assessment on the Owners of Lands in respect of uncertain Profits.

Casual and uncertain Profits arising out of Lands shall be estimated according to the best of the Owner's Judgment and Belief, on the Amount of a Sum equal to the Receipts of one Year, on a fair Average.

4th CASE.—By the Tenant of Lands demised.

In the Case of a Demise at Rack Rent, the Income of the Occupier of Lands, under the Rent of one hundred Pounds per Annum, shall be taken at not less than Three-fourths of such Rent for one Year.

If of one hundred Pounds per Annum, or upwards, then at not less than the full Amount of such Rent for one Year.

5th CASE.—Lessees in Consideration of Fines.

In the Case of Lessees of Lands in Consideration of Fines, whether with or without a Rent reserved, the Income of the Lessee shall be taken at not less than Three-

Three fourths of the Rent, at which Lands of the like Quality and Quantity are worth, to be let by the Year in that Neighbourhood.

6th CASE.—Owners of Houses demised to Tenants.

In such Case, the annual Rent for which the House shall be let, shall be taken to be the Income of the Owner, after deducting the fair Average for Money expended in Repairs during the ten preceding Years.

7th CASE.—Owners of Houses or other Buildings occupying the same.

The annual Value of such Houses or other Buildings shall be taken according to the fair Rent at which the same might be let, clear of all Repairs.

8th CASE.—Income arising from Professions, or Trades, or Vocations.

The Income of such Person shall be taken at not less than the full Amount of his or their Profits or Gains, acquired or received within the Year, ending the thirty first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and which such Person might or could expend within such Year, or, at the Election of the Person assessed, at a Sum not less than the fair and just Average for one Year of the Amount of his or her Profits or Gains in the three Years preceding the thirty first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and which such Persons might or could expend within the said three Years.

9th CASE.—Income arising from Annuities, Interest of Money, Rent Charge, or other Payments.

In such Cases, the Income shall be taken at not less than the whole Sums payable within the Year preceding the passing of this Act.

RULES setting forth in which Cases, and on what Account, any Deductions may be made in estimating the fair Income. II.

1st, General Deductions.

FIRST, The Amount of annual Interest payable for Debts owing by or charged upon the Estate of the Appellant.

Second, The Amount of Allowances to any Child or Children, or other Relations of the Appellant, such Child or Children or other Relations not making a Part of the Family of such Appellant.

CAP. XVII.

An Act for allowing, during the Continuance of the present War, a certain Proportion of the Men, raised in pursuance of two Acts of the last Session of Parliament * for augmenting the Militia, to enlist into His Majesty's other Forces, and to serve until six Months after the Conclusion of a general Peace.—[12th January 1798.]

* cc. 3. 22.

'WHEREAS by two several Acts, passed in the last Session of Parliament, for providing an Augmentation to the Militia, a certain Number of Men were directed to be raised in the several Counties, Ridings, and Places, in England, in the said Acts mentioned, to serve as a Supplementary Force of Militia: And whereas it is expedient, at the present Crisis, to permit a certain Proportion of Men, raised under the Authority of the said Acts, in each County, Riding, or Place, to enter voluntarily into his Majesty's other Forces, within the Time hereinafter mentioned:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for any Officer, Serjeant, or other Person, thereunto authorized by the Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Land Forces, at any Time during the Continuance of the present War, until the Number of Men allowed by this Act to be enlisted out of the Men raised for each County, Riding, or Place as aforesaid, shall be completed, to enlist any Person enrolled in the Supplementary Militia, raised by virtue of the said Acts, who is willing, and shall appear fit for Service, into any Regiment of his Majesty's other Forces, which his Majesty shall, by any Order under his Royal Sign Manual, appoint to be recruited in that Manner; and every such Officer, Serjeant, or other Person aforesaid, enlisting such Militia Man, and every such Militia Man entering to serve, or offering to serve in any such Regiment of his Majesty's said other Forces, shall be freed and discharged from all Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures whatever, incurred by Reason of such enlisting, entering, or offering to serve as aforesaid; any Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

Persons enrolled in the Supplementary Militia may be enlisted into such of his Majesty's other Forces as he shall appoint.

II. And be it further enacted, That upon the Production of any Certificate, under the Hand of any Justice of the Peace or Magistrate, of any such Militia Man having voluntarily entered himself as aforesaid, (which Certificate every such Justice or Magistrate is hereby directed to give gratis,) to the Lieutenant of any County, Riding, or Place, where such Militia Man so enlisting was raised to serve, or to any three Deputy Lieutenants of such County, Riding, or Place, by the Officer, Serjeant, or other Person recruiting as aforesaid, the said Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants respectively shall cause the Militia Man named in such Certificate to be discharged from such Supplementary Militia; and the Certificate of the Number of Men to be raised to the Supplementary Militia for any County, Riding, or Place, filed by the Clerk of the Peace of such County, Riding, or Place, shall be amended, by striking out such Number of Men as shall be be enlisted in his Majesty's other Forces from the said Supplementary Militia, by virtue of this Act, and the County, Riding, or Place, for which any Militia Man so enlisted was raised, shall not be obliged to ballot for any other in the Room of the Militia Man so discharged, but shall in future be discharged from raising any Men in the Room of those who shall enter into his Majesty's other Forces, by virtue of this Act.

10,000 Men to be so enlisted; but not more than One-fifth of the Supplementary Militia in each Place.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Number of Militia Men to be enlisted from any Supplementary Militia into any such Regiment of his Majesty's other Forces, by virtue of this Act, shall not exceed ten thousand Men, nor in any Case be more than One-fifth Part of the Number of Men directed to be raised to the said Supplementary Militia, in any County, Riding, or Place.

Terms of Enlistment.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every Person to be enlisted by virtue of this Act, shall be enlisted according to the Terms and Conditions to be particularly specified in the Recruiting Orders to be issued for that Purpose, and to serve during the Continuance of the present War, and six Months after the Conclusion of a general Peace, and no longer, and shall not be liable to serve out of Europe.

CAP. XVIII.

An Act to enable His Majesty to order out a certain Proportion of the Supplementary Militia, and to provide for the necessary Augmentation of Men, in the several Companies of Militia, by incorporating the Supplementary Militia therewith.

[20th February 1798.]

'WHEREAS his Majesty hath been graciously pleased to communicate to Parliament, his Royal Intention to draw out and embody the Supplementary Militia, raised by virtue of two Acts, 'passed in the thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty*, or such Part thereof as he shall 'think necessary to be drawn out or embodied; and the Occasion of embodying the same: And whereas 'it may be expedient, that only a certain Proportion thereof, in each County, Riding, or Place, should 'be embodied on the present Occasion; and that the Appointment of the Men necessary to constitute 'such Proportion should be decided by Ballot, to be taken in each Subdivision or District, without assem-'bling them previously out of their Subdivision or District:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Lieutenant of every County, Riding, or Place, or in case of Vacancy, or in the Absence of the Lieutenant from his County, Riding, or Place, any three or more Deputy Lieutenants, to whom any Order of his Majesty, for the Purpose of embodying the said Supplementary Militia, or such Part thereof as hereinafter is mentioned, shall be directed, shall, as soon after as conveniently may be, issue his or their Order to the Clerks of the several Subdivision Meetings in such County, Riding, or Place, to prepare and make out a full and true List, containing the Names of all the Persons enrolled to serve in the said Supplementary Militia by virtue of the said Acts, within each Subdivision respectively, before a Day to be specified in the Order of the Lieutenant, or Deputy Lieutenants, as aforesaid, and which Day shall not be later than three Days after the Date thereof; and the said Clerks shall, within the Time fixed by such Order, prepare and make out such Lists accordingly, and also two Duplicates thereof, one of which Duplicates shall be for the Use of the Deputy Lieutenants at their Subdivision Meetings, and the other Duplicate thereof shall be transmitted to the Lieutenant of the County, Riding, or Place, or the Deputy Lieutenants, who shall have issued such Order as aforesaid.

* c. 3; 22.

When his Majesty shall order the Supplementary Militia to be embodied, the County Lieutenant to order the Clerks of the Subdivision Meetings to make out Lists of the Men enrolled.

Clerks to make out such Lists and two Duplicates of each.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants as aforesaid, to whom his Majesty's Order shall be directed, shall, at the Time of issuing his or their Order hereinbefore mentioned, also issue his or their Order for assembling all the Men of the said Supplementary Militia, within their respective Subdivisions, or at such Place or Places within their respective Counties or Ridings, and in such Proportion, as to the said Lieutenant, or Deputy Lieutenants, as aforesaid, shall appear most expedient, on the Day or Days to be specified in such his or their Order, and which Day shall not be later than the twenty-sixth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, to the Chief Constables or other Officers of the several Hundreds, Rapes, Laths, Wapentakes, or other Divisions, within such County, Riding, or Place, with Directions immediately to issue Precepts conformable thereto, to the Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs, or other Officers of the several Parishes, Tythings, and Places, within the said Hundreds, Rapes, Laths, Wapentakes, and Divisions respectively; and such Constables, Tytning-men, Headboroughs, or other Officers, are hereby required, upon Receipt thereof, forthwith to cause Notice in Writing to be given to the several Men of the Supplementary Militia, or left at their usual Places of Abode, within their respective Parishes, Tythings, or Places, to attend within their respective Subdivisions or Districts at the Time and Place mentioned in such Order.

County Lieutenant at the same Time to issue his Order to the Chief Constable, for assembling the Men on a Day not later than Feb. 26, 1798, with Directions to issue Precepts accordingly to the Constables within the respective Divisions, who shall cause Notice to be given to the Men. [Enlarged to 10*th* March by Cap. 19.]

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Person of the said Supplementary Militia (not labouring under any Infirmity incapacitating him to serve as a Supplementary Militia Man) shall not appear in pursuance of such Order, or appearing shall not abide the Orders of the Deputy Lieutenants attending in pursuance

Any Man not appearing, or not abiding the Order of the De-

pursuance of this Act, every such Person shall be deemed a Deserter; and if not taken previous to the Completion of the Ballot at which such Person ought to attend in pursuance of this Act, shall forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds, and shall be deemed and taken to be a Person liable to serve within the Intent and Meaning of this Act, and to be embodied according to the Directions herein contained, over and above the Number to be chosen by Ballot as aforesaid.

Constables to cause Notice of the Time and Place for assembling the Men to be chosen by Ballot to be affixed on the Church Doors.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the respective Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs, or other Officers, within their respective Parishes, Tythings, and Places, shall cause Notice of the Time and Place appointed for assembling the Men to be chosen by Ballot as aforesaid, to be affixed on the Doors of the Churches or Chapels belonging to their respective Parishes, Tythings, and Places, or where there is no Church or Chapel, then on the Door of the Church or Chapel of some Parish, Tything, or Place thereunto adjoining; and such Notice shall be deemed a sufficient Notice to every Person enrolled by virtue of the said Acts, of the Time and Place of so assembling for those Parishes, Tythings, and Places respectively; and all such Persons shall attend at the Time and Place mentioned in such Notice, and according to the same.

Persons not chosen by Ballot may be accepted as Volunteers in the Room of those that are.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Person enrolled by virtue of the said Acts, and not chosen by Ballot in pursuance of this Act, shall offer himself as a Volunteer to be drawn out and embodied in the Room of any Person so chosen by Ballot, it shall be lawful for the Deputy Lieutenants at any Meeting to accept such Volunteer in the Room of such Person so ballotted as aforesaid, and such Person so accepted shall serve as if he had himself been chosen by Ballot.

When the whole Number enrolled for any Subdivision shall be embodied, if any do not appear, and be not taken within three Months, the Vacancies to be filled up by a fresh Ballot.

VI. And be it further enacted, That whenever the whole Number of Persons enrolled in the said Supplementary Militia for any Subdivision of any County, Riding, or Place, shall have been ordered to be drawn out and embodied in pursuance of this Act, and in case any of the Persons so ordered to be drawn out and embodied shall afterwards make Default, either by not appearing in pursuance of any such Order as aforesaid, or by Desertion or Absence from Duty, and such Person shall not be taken within the Space of three Months from the Time of such Default, then a Vacancy shall be declared by the Deputy Lieutenants at their next Meeting for the Subdivision for which the Person so making Default was enrolled, on the Certificate of such Default, under the Hands of the Officer appointed to receive the ballotted Men for such Subdivision of such County, Riding, or Place, or commanding the Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company to which they shall be appointed; and the Vacancy thus occasioned shall be filled up by a fresh Ballot for a Supplementary Militia Man, which Ballot shall be conducted according to the Provisions of the said Acts of the thirty-seventh Year aforesaid, and in like Manner as if such Vacancy had been occasioned by Discharge from the Service.

County Lieutenant to appoint the first Meeting of the Deputy Lieutenants and Justices on the Day for assembling the Men, and to appoint the Time and Place of assembling the Men ballotted, in order to their being embodied. Men appearing to be mustered, and a Number to be chosen by Ballot equal to Half of the Whole that ought to be enrolled, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the said Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants as aforesaid, of every County, Riding, or Place, or any three or more of them, shall appoint the first Meeting to be holden by the several Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace of the same County, Riding, or Division, within their respective Subdivisions, or at such other Place or Places as shall have been appointed as aforesaid, on the Day mentioned in such Order as aforesaid, for assembling the Men of the said Supplementary Militia, in order to their being ballotted to serve as herein is mentioned, and shall also appoint the Time and Place of assembling such of the said Men as shall be so ballotted, within their respective Counties, Ridings, or Places, in order to their being embodied; of which several Appointments the respective Deputy Lieutenants and Justices respectively shall have Notice; and all the Men enrolled on the List of every such Subdivision or District, and appearing in pursuance of such Order on the Day so to be appointed, shall be then mustered by the said Deputy Lieutenants, or by one Deputy Lieutenant and one such Justice of the Peace, or where no Deputy Lieutenant shall attend, then by any one such Justice of the Peace; and the said Deputy Lieutenants, or one Deputy Lieutenant and one Justice of the Peace, or one such Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, shall at such Meeting proceed to cause such a Number of the Men so appearing to be chosen by Ballot as shall be equal to One-half of the complete Number that ought to be enrolled by virtue of the said Acts on the List of such Subdivision or District, and to cause the Names of all the Persons so chosen to be marked on the List of such Subdivision or District; and when the Ballot shall be concluded, the said Deputy Lieutenants, or one Deputy Lieutenant and one Justice of the Peace, or such Justices of the Peace as aforesaid, shall cause the List of such Subdivision or District to be publicly called, and as the Name of each Person contained therein shall be read, shall declare whether such Person is or is not (as the Case may be) ballotted out of such List, in the Manner hereinbefore provided; and the Names of all the Persons so chosen by Ballot shall be returned to the Lieutenant of the County, Riding, or Place, for which such Persons are enrolled, or to the Deputy Lieutenants, who shall have given such Order as aforesaid; and the Persons so chosen by Ballot shall be embodied to serve according to the true Intent of the said Acts; and the said Deputy Lieutenants, or one Deputy Lieutenant and one Justice of the Peace, or such Justice of the Peace as aforesaid, shall openly declare to the Men, who have been so ballotted, the Time and Place of their assembling, in order to their being embodied; and all and every such Person or Persons, who shall be so declared to have been so ballotted, shall immediately proceed and repair to, and shall duly attend at the Time and Place so to be appointed and declared, in order to their being embodied accordingly; and all and every such Person or Persons as shall be so declared to have been not so ballotted as aforesaid, shall be discharged from further Attendance in pursuance of such Order as aforesaid.

Persons chosen by Ballot to be embodied, and to attend at the Time and Place appointed for that Purpose.

Persons not ballotted to be discharged from Attendance.

Meetings may be held notwithstanding the Assizes.

VIII. 'And whereas, in case any of the Meetings appointed by this Act to be held should fall within the 'Time appointed for the Assizes in any Town where such Meeting has been appointed to be held, Doubts

'may

'may arise whether it would not be necessary for the Militia Men so met to remove from the same;' be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for them to continue and remain there, notwithstanding the Assizes being then held at such Place.

Where any Men have enlisted previous to the Ballot, pursuant to Cap. 17 of this Session; and the same has been certified to the Clerk of the Subdivision, no more shall be chosen than Half the Number that ought to be enrolled, reckoning as Part thereof the Men so enlisted.

IX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any of the Supplementary Militia of any such Subdivision or District shall have been enlisted, previous to such Ballot, into any of his Majesty's other Forces, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for allowing, during the Continuance of the present War, a certain Proportion of the Men, raised in pursuance of two Acts of the last Session of Parliament, for augmenting the Militia, to enlist into his Majesty's other Forces, and to serve until six Months after the Conclusion of a General Peace, and the same shall have been certified, by the Commanding Officer of any Regiment into which any of such Men shall have been enlisted, to the Clerk of such Subdivision or other Meeting as aforesaid, which Certificate every such Commanding Officer is hereby required to transmit previous to the Day to be appointed for such Ballot, it shall not be lawful to choose, out of the Men so appearing in such Subdivision or District, a greater Number than will be necessary to complete one Half of the Number that ought to be enrolled on the List of such Subdivision or District, after reckoning, as Part of such Half, the Men enlisted previous to such Ballot, and who shall be so certified: Provided also, that where the Militia Men of such Subdivision or District cannot be equally divided, it shall be lawful to ballot for one Man more than will be necessary to complete the Quota required to be ballotted for such Subdivision or District.

When an equal Division cannot be made, one Man extra to be chosen.

Any Person ordered to be embodied not appearing, to be deemed a Deserter under the Mutiny Act; and any Person harbouring him to forfeit 100 l. Allowance to be made the Men who shall not be chosen by Ballot.

X. And be it further enacted, That if any Person of the said Supplementary Militia, ordered to be embodied in pursuance of this Act, (not labouring under any Infirmity incapacitating him to serve as a Supplementary Militia Man,) shall not appear and march in pursuance of such Order, every such Militia Man shall be liable to be apprehended and punished as a Deserter, according to the Provisions of any Act which shall be then in force for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters; and if any Person shall harbour and conceal any such Militia Man, when ordered to be embodied as aforesaid, knowing him to be such Militia Man, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

XI. And be it further enacted, That every Man of the said Supplementary Militia, who shall appear and attend at the Ballot to be taken in pursuance of this Act on whom the Lot shall not fall, shall be entitled to an Allowance, after the Rate of one Shilling per Diem, during the Time he shall be necessarily employed from Home, in going to, continuing at, and returning from the Place to be appointed for such Ballot, to be paid by the Clerk of the Subdivision or other Meeting in which such Men shall be enrolled, on the Certificate of the Number of Men, so appearing, under the Hands of such Clerk, and of such Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace respectively, or where no Deputy Lieutenant shall there attend, then of any one such Justice of the Peace as aforesaid; and the Receiver General for such County, Riding, or Place, shall, on the like Certificate, reimburse to the said Clerk the Sums so paid, out of any Monies in his Hands of any Aid granted by Parliament by way of Land Tax; and the Pay of every such Man, who shall be embodied in pursuance of this Act, shall commence on the Day of the Date of his Majesty's Warrant for drawing the said Militia out into actual Service.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the respective Clerks of the Subdivision or other Meetings shall be, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to draw on the Receiver General of the Land Tax for the County, Riding, or Place, for such Sum or Sums of Money as such Deputy Lieutenants, and Justices of the Peace respectively, or where no Deputy Lieutenant shall attend, then as one Justice of the Peace shall, by any Order under their or his respective Hands or Hand, direct and appoint, which Sum or Sums of Money shall be applied by such respective Clerks for paying the Allowances herein directed to be made, to the Men of the said Supplementary Militia for their Attendance at the Place of Ballot; and the Receipt of any such Clerk, together with such Order, shall be to the said Receiver or Receivers General of the Land Tax a sufficient Discharge for the Payment of such Sum or Sums of Money, and be allowed in his or their Account.

Clerks, when required, to make out Accounts of Money received and paid, which, when allowed, shall be their Voucher.

XIII. And be it enacted, That the Clerk of each Subdivision or other Meeting shall, when required by such Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace, or where no Deputy Lieutenant shall attend, then by one Justice of the Peace, make out an Account of the respective Sums of Money by him received and paid, in pursuance of this Act, to be by them examined, allowed, and signed, and the Account so examined, allowed, and signed, shall be and is hereby directed to be the proper Voucher and Acquittal of such Clerk for the Application and Disposal of such Money.

When any Militia Man embodied shall desert and not be taken within, or shall be absent, three Months, another shall be ballotted for out of the Persons returned in the List for the Subdivision.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Militia Man so embodied as aforesaid shall desert, or absent himself from his Duty, and shall not return or be taken within the Space of three Months from the Time of his so deserting or absenting himself, then and in every such Case the Deputy Lieutenants, or any two or more of them, at their first Meeting holden for the said Subdivision for which such Person was enrolled, next after the Receipt of the Certificate of such Desertion or Absence from the Officer appointed to receive the ballotted Men, or commanding the Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company to which they shall be appointed, shall proceed to ballot for another Person in the Place of the Person so deserting or absenting himself, out of the Persons returned in the List before mentioned for such Subdivision, who shall not then be serving in the Supplementary Militia, in pursuance of the said Acts of the thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, or in some of his Majesty's other Forces, in pursuance of the said Act, passed passed in this present Session of Parliament, and so from Time to Time as Occasion shall require, so long as any of the Persons returned in such List shall not have been chosen by Ballot, nor shall be then serving as aforesaid.

His Majesty may order the Remainder of the Supplementary Militia to be embodied.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to debar his Majesty from ordering the Remainder of the said Supplementary Militia, or so many of the Remainder of the said Supplementary Militia, of any County, Riding, or Place, as his Majesty shall in his Wisdom think proper, to be drawn out and embodied, whenever the Occasion shall require, according to the Provisions prescribed by the said Acts.

When his Majesty shall think fit to embody any further Proportion than the Half before mentioned, the Directions hereinbefore prescribed to be pursued.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That whenever his Majesty shall think fit to draw out and embody any further Proportion of the Supplementary Militia of any County, Riding, or Place, than the Proportion of one Half before mentioned, it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant of every County, Riding, or Place, or three or more Deputy Lieutenants as aforesaid, and he and they is and are hereby respectively required to cause such further Proportion to be drawn out and embodied as his Majesty shall order, and in so doing such Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants respectively, and also all and every the Deputy Lieutenants, and all other Officers aforesaid respectively, shall pursue the Rules and Directions hereinbefore prescribed for drawing out and embodying the Proportion thereof hereinbefore particularly mentioned.

His Majesty may order any Supplementary Militia not embodied, to be drawn out in order to be mustered or exercised.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That if during such Time as any Part of the Supplementary Militia which shall have been drawn out and embodied for Service, pursuant to the Provisions of the said recited Acts of the thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, shall continue embodied, his Majesty shall deem it expedient that the Supplementary Militia of any County, Riding, or District, or any Part thereof which shall not, at such Time, be actually embodied for Service, should be drawn out in order to be mustered, trained, and exercised, for a limited Time, instead of being so embodied for Service, according to the Provisions of the said Acts and of this Act, it shall be lawful for his Majesty to direct the Lieutenants, or Deputy Lieutenants, of all or any of the said Counties, Ridings, or Districts, to cause the said Supplementary Militia not actually embodied, or any Part thereof, of each or any of the said Counties, Ridings, or Districts respectively, to be drawn out in order to be mustered, trained, or exercised, in such Proportion, and for such Time, and at such Place or Places, as his Majesty shall think fit; and the same shall be mustered, trained, and exercised accordingly, for such Time, and in such Manner, as his Majesty may direct.

Every Person not possessed of 500l. who shall be balloted and serve, or provide a Substitute, to be entitled to an Allowance, but not to extend to Persons chosen before passing this Act.

* Cap. 107. § 42.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Person not possessed of an Estate in Land, Goods, or Money, of the clear Value of five hundred Pounds, who shall be, at any Time after the passing of this Act, chosen by Ballot to serve in the said Supplementary Militia, and shall be sworn and enrolled, or shall provide a fit Person to serve as his Substitute, who shall be sworn and enrolled, shall be entitled to be paid a Sum of Money not exceeding the Sum allowed to be paid by Overseers of the Poor to any Volunteer enrolled in the said Supplementary Militia, nor such Sum of Money as shall be adjudged to be as near as may be one Half of the current Price which shall be at that Time paid for a Volunteer to serve in the said Supplementary Militia; which Payment shall be ordered, raised, and made, upon the like Oath of the Party, in like Manner, and with the like Remedies, for the raising and paying the same, as by an Act, passed in the twenty-sixth Year of his present Majesty's Reign*, is provided with respect to the ordering, raising, and paying the Allowances to be made to Persons chosen by Ballot to serve in the Militia raised by virtue of the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign, if so chosen when such Militia happens to be drawn or ordered out for actual Service: Provided always, that nothing in this Act, or in the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, or in any Act relating to the said Supplementary Militia, shall be construed to extend to entitle any Person who has been chosen by Ballot to serve in the said Supplementary Militia before the passing of this Act, to demand the Allowance aforesaid.

26 Geo. 3. c. 107. § 53, &c.

XIX. 'And whereas, by an Act passed in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, 'intituled, An Act for amending, and reducing into one Act of Parliament, the Laws relating to the Militia in 'that Part of Great Britain called England, it is enacted, that no Company of the Militia, to be raised by 'virtue of the said Act, shall consist of more than eighty Men at the most: And whereas it may be necessary, 'in Cases where the said Supplementary Militia shall be incorporated with the said other Militia, according 'to the Provisions of the said Acts of the thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, or where 'the said Supplementary Militia shall be formed into Regiments, Battalions, or Independent Companies, in 'pursuance of the said Acts of the thirty-seventh Year aforesaid, to form certain Companies of Militia, con-'sisting of more than eighty Men in a Company:' Be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful, during the Continuance of the said Acts of the thirty-seventh Year aforesaid, to form the Number of Men composing the Militia of any County, Riding, or Place, or the said Supplementary Militia, into Companies, consisting of any Number of Private Men in a Company; and that where the Number of Militia Men of any County, Riding, or Place, now formed into a Battalion, as amounting to the Number of three Companies, and under eight Companies, shall, by incorporating the Supplementary Militia therewith, be advanced to the Number of eight Companies, and not more than twelve, it shall be lawful for his Majesty, whenever he shall think proper, to cause the same to be formed into a Regiment, and such Number of Officers of such Rank respectively to be appointed, as by the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year aforesaid are allowed for a Regiment of Militia; and where the Number of Militia Men of any County, Riding, or Place, now formed into an Independent Company or Companies, as consisting of less than three Companies, shall, by incorporating the Supplementary Militia

His Majesty may form the Militia into Companies of any Number of Men; and increase the Battalions, Regiments, and Officers; therewith, be advanced to the Number of three Companies or more, it shall be lawful for his Majesty, whenever he shall think proper, to cause the same to be formed into a Battalion, if the Number of such Companies shall not amount to eight, or into a Regiment, if the Number of such Companies shall amount to eight or more, during the Continuance of the said Acts of the thirty-seventh Year aforesaid; and such Number of Officers of such Rank respectively to be appointed, as by the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year aforesaid are allowed for a Battalion of Militia, consisting of the like Number of Companies, or for a Regiment of Militia, as the Case shall require, any Thing in the said Acts to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that upon the Determination of the said Acts of the thirty-seventh Year aforesaid, the Regiments, Battalions, and Companies, formed in pursuance of this Act, shall be reduced to their present Establishment, as if this Act had not been made.

but upon Determination of the two Acts of 37 Geo. 3. the present Establishment to take place.

XX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That all Powers, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, contained in the aforesaid Acts of the twenty-sixth and thirty-seventh Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, or in any other Act relative to the training, raising, embodying, and calling out the Militia, or the Supplementary Militia, (and not hereby altered,) shall be applied, practised, and put in Execution, with relation to the Provisions of this Act, in as full and ample a Manner as if the said Powers, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, were repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

All Acts relating to the Militia to extend to this Act.

CAP. XIX.

CAP. XXIV.

An Act to repeal the Duties on Gold and Silver Plate used in Watch Cases.

[9th March 1798.]

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty certain Duties on all Gold and Silver Plate imported; and also certain Duties on all Gold and Silver wrought Plate made in Great Britain, a certain Duty was imposed, after the Rate of eight Shillings for every Ounce Troy of Gold Plate, and after the Rate of Sixpence for every Ounce Troy of Silver Plate, which should be imported or brought into Great Britain, or which should be made or wrought, and which should or ought to be touched, assayed, and marked in Great Britain, over and above all other Duties imposed thereon: And whereas, by an Act made in the thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, an additional Duty after the Rate of eight Shillings was imposed for every Ounce Troy of such Gold Plate, and an additional Duty after the Rate of Sixpence was imposed for every Ounce Troy of such Silver Plate: And whereas it is deemed expedient, that the Duties imposed by the said recited Acts, so far as the same relate to Gold and Silver Plate used or to be used as and for Watch Cases, should be repealed:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, the said recited Duties, so far as the same relate to Gold and Silver Plate used or to be used as and for Watch Cases, shall cease and determine, and be no longer paid or payable; and that then and from thenceforth all the Powers and Authorities given and granted, and the Rules and Regulations prescribed, by the said recited Acts, or either of them, in relation to the managing, securing, collecting, recovering, and paying the said Duties, so far as the same relate to Gold and Silver Plate used or to be used as and for Watch Cases, and all Penalties and Forfeitures in respect thereof, shall also cease and determine, save and except in all Cases relative to the recovering of any Arrears which may at any Time remain unpaid of the same Duties, and to the accounting for the same, or to any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, which shall have been incurred upon or at any Time before the said twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight; any Thing herein-before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

24 Geo. 3. Sess. 2. c. 53. and 37 Geo. 3. c. 90. [§ 16.] recited.

From March 25, 1798, the Duties under recited Acts, so far as they relate to Plate used for Watch Cases, repealed.

II. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person or Persons shall, before the fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, export by way of Merchandize for any Foreign Parts, any Gold or Silver Plate, wrought or manufactured into Watch Cases in this Kingdom, and the same shall appear to have been made as aforesaid, and marked according to the Regulations of the said recited Acts, and the several Duties before mentioned shall have been paid thereon, and shall give sufficient Security before the shipping thereof for Exportation, that the particular Quantities of such Plate intended to be exported as aforesaid, and every Part thereof, shall not be relanded or brought into Great Britain, and shall make Proof upon Oath that the same Gold or Silver Plate was actually made as aforesaid, and marked according to the Regulations of the said recited Acts, such Securities to be taken, and such Oaths to be administered, in the Manner directed by the said recited Act of the twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, and shall also produce such Certificate, and shall authenticate the same in the Manner and under the Regulations directed by the said last-mentioned Act, then and in such Case such Exporter shall be entitled to a Debenture from the Customer or Collector in the Manner also directed by the said last-mentioned Act, which being certified by the Searcher upon the said Debenture, the Receiver of the Stamp Duties for the Time being, or any Officer appointed by the Commissioners of the Stamp Duties for that Purpose, upon the said Debenture so certified being produced to him, shall forthwith pay a Drawback or Allowance of the Whole of the Duties paid on such Gold or Silver Plate by virtue of the said recited Acts, out of any Monies in his or their Hands of the Duties on Plate, which Payment shall be made without Fee or Reward.

For Gold and Silver Watch Cases exported before March 5, 1799, a Drawback of the Duties to be allowed on certain Conditions.

CAP. XXV.

An Act to permit, during the Continuance of the present War, the Importation of Salt from Portugal, in Neutral Ships.—[9th March 1798.]

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for the encouraging and increasing of Shipping and Navigation, and by other Acts now in Force, it is, amongst other Things, enacted, that no foreign Salt shall be imported into this Kingdom in any Ships or Vessels but such as are British-built, and owned by British Subjects, and navigated by a Master, and Three-fourths of the Mariners being British Subjects, and in no other Ships or Vessels, except only in such foreign Ships or Vessels as are of the Built of that Country or Place of which the said Salt is the Production or Manufacture, or of such Port where such Salt can only be, or most usually is, first shipped for Transportation, and whereof the Master, and Three-fourths of the Mariners, at least, are of the said Country or Place: And whereas it is expedient, under the present Circumstances, and for a 12 Car. 2. c. 18. recited.

'limited Time, that the Importation of foreign Salt from Portugal should be permitted in any neutral 'Ships whatsoever:' Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, for and during the Continuance of the present War, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons to import, or bring into this Kingdom, from Portugal, any Salt, the Produce or Manufacture of Portugal, in any Ship or Vessel whatsoever, that shall belong to the Subject or Subjects of any State in Amity with his Majesty; and such Salt shall be imported upon Payment of the like Duties, and shall be subject to the like Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as Salt imported in Ships of the Built, or belonging to any of the Subjects of the Kingdom of Portugal; any Thing in the before-mentioned Act, or any other Act, to the contrary notwithstanding.

From April 5, 1798, (during the present War,) Salt, the Produce of Portugal, may be imported in any neutral Vessel, on the like Conditions as for Salt imported in Ships belonging to Portugal.

CAP. XXVI.

An Act for rectifying Mistakes in the Names of several of the Commissioners appointed by an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, to put in Execution an Act, made in the same Session, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax, to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven; and for appointing other Commissioners, together with those named in the first-mentioned Act, to put in Execution an Act of this Session of Parliament, for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax, to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight; and for indemnifying such Persons as have acted as Commissioners for executing the said Act, for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax, to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven.—[9th March 1798.]

37 Geo. 3. c. 35.

'WHEREAS several Mistakes were made in the naming of Commissioners appointed by an Act, made 'in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for appointing Commissioners for putting in Execution an Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land "Tax, to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven;" 'which, if not rectified, may prejudice and obstruct the Public Service; and there may be Occasion to appoint other Persons, together with those named in the said Act, to put in Execution the said Act of the 'last Session of Parliament, and also an Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting 'an Aid to his Majesty by a Land Tax, to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thousand 'seven hundred and ninety-eight;' be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several and respective Persons hereinafter named shall and may, and are hereby empowered and authorized, to put in Execution the said Acts, passed in the last and this Session of Parliament, for granting Aids to his Majesty by a Land Tax; and all the Clauses, Powers, Matters, and Things whatsoever therein contained, as Commissioners of the Land Tax, in and for the several and respective Counties, Shires, Stewartries, and Places of Great Britain, hereinafter severally and respectively mentioned and expressed, as if they had been named with the other Commissioners in the said Act of the last Session of Parliament; the said Persons nevertheless having the Qualifications, and being subject and liable to the Penalties and Forfeitures, in the said Act appointed and required; that is to say, [Here follows the List of Names.]

38 Geo. 3. c. 5. recited.

The Persons hereinafter named to be additional Commissioners for putting in Execution the Land Tax Acts of the last and present Session. [See post. Cap. 48.]

And be it further enacted, That no Person named in any such Act or Acts as aforesaid, or in this Act, to be a Commissioner for putting in Execution any Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land Tax, in and for any County at large within England, the Dominion of Wales, (the Counties of Merioneth, Cardigan, Carmarthen, Glamorgan, Montgomery, Pembroke, Radnor, and Monmouth excepted,) or any of the Ridings of the County of York, who is seised or possessed in the same County or Riding of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, of the Value of one hundred Pounds per Annum, or more, of his own Estate, being Freehold, Copyhold, or Leasehold, over and above all Ground Rents, Incumbrances, and other Reservations, payable out of or in respect of such Leasehold Estate, shall be disabled from acting as a Commissioner for such County or Riding, by reason that such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments shall not have been taxed, or did pay at or for the Value of one hundred Pounds or more by virtue of any such Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land Tax; and all Acts done by such Persons shall be, and are hereby declared to be valid; and that all Personal Actions and Suits, Indictments, Informations, and all Proceedings whatsoever which shall have been or shall be prosecuted or commenced against any Person or Persons for or by reason of such acting, shall be made void by virtue of this Act; and that if any Action or Suit shall be prosecuted or commenced against any Person or Persons for or by reason of such acting, such Person or Persons may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence.

No Commissioner for any County in England, &c. possessed of an Estate of the yearly Value of 100*l.* to be disabled from acting, although the same be not rated to the Land Tax for that Value.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That any Person appointed a Commissioner shall be capable of acting as a Commissioner in and for the Isle of Ely, in the County of Cambridge, who shall be seised or possessed in the said Isle of Ely of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments of the Value of sixty Pounds per Annum, or more, of his own Estate, being Freehold, Copyhold, or Leasehold, over and above all Ground Rents, Incumbrances, and other Reservations, payable out of or in respect of such Leasehold Estates, any Thing in the said recited Act of this Session of Parliament to the contrary thereof notwithstanding: Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, so as to enable any Person or Description of Persons to act as a Commissioner or Commissioners, who shall be particularly described and excepted by the said recited Act of this Session of Parliament.

Any Commissioner for the Isle of Ely, possessed of an Estate of the yearly Value of 60*l.* therein to act.

Persons particularly excepted in the Land Tax Act not to be Commissioners.

CAP. XXVII.

An Act to enable His Majesty more effectually to provide for the Defence and Security of the Realm during the present War, and for indemnifying Persons who may suffer in their Property by such Measures as may be necessary for that Purpose.

[5th April 1798.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that his Majesty should be enabled to exercise, in the most effectual Manner, the Powers by Law vested in him for preventing and repelling an Invasion of this Kingdom by his Majesty's Enemies; and that, for such Purpose, Provision should be made to enforce prompt Obedience to such Orders as his Majesty shall think fit to issue for procuring the Information necessary to the effectual Exercise of such Powers upon any Emergency; and for applying, in the most expeditious Manner, and with the greatest Effect, the voluntary Services of his loyal Subjects for the Defence of the Kingdom; and also to enable his Majesty to procure Ground which may be wanting for erecting Batteries, Beacons, and other Works, which may be deemed necessary for the public Service; and also to provide for the Indemnity (in certain Cases) of Persons who may suffer in their Property by Measures which may be taken for the Defence and Security of the Country, and Annoyance of the Enemy:' Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Lieutenants of the several Counties, Ridings, and Places, within that Part of Great Britain called England, and of the several Counties, Stewartries, Cities, and Places, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and their Deputy Lieutenants, or such of them as his Majesty shall direct, and the Deputy Lieutenants acting as Lieutenants under the Laws now in force, shall, respectively, in Obedience and Conformity to such Orders as his Majesty shall think fit to issue for such Purpose, procure Returns of the Numbers of Men residing within the several Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Cities, and Places aforesaid, who shall be of the Age of fifteen Years, and under the Age of sixty Years; distinguishing which of them are, by reason of Infirmity, incapable of active Service, and which of them are engaged in any Volunteer Corps, and what Corps, and which of them are willing to engage themselves, to be armed, arrayed, trained, and exercised, for the Defence of the Kingdom, and upon what Terms; and which of them are willing to engage, in Cases of Emergency, either gratuitously or for Hire, as Boatmen or Bargemen, or as Drivers of Carriages or Horses, or Drivers of Waggons, Carts, or Cattle, or as Pioneers, or other Labourers for any Works or Labour which may be necessary for the public Service; and also distinguishing all Aliens and Quakers, with such other Particulars as his Majesty shall think fit to require; and also to procure Returns of the Numbers of the Males and Females, residing within the several Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Cities, and Places aforesaid, who by reason of Infancy, Age, or Infirmity, or for other Cause, may probably be incapable of removing themselves in case of Danger; and also for procuring Returns of all Boats, Barges, Waggons, Carts, Horses, and other Cattle and Sheep, and of all Hay, Straw, Corn, Meal, Flour, and other Provisions, and of all Mills and Ovens, and all other Matters and Things which

The County and Deputy Lieutenants, in Obedience to his Majesty's Orders, to procure Returns of Men 15 Years of Age, and under 60; distinguishing which are in Volunteer Corps; and which are willing to be armed, or otherwise employed in Defence of the Country; and the Quakers, Aliens, and infirm People; and of Boats, Waggons, Horses, Provisions, &c.; and what Boats, Waggons, &c. the Owners are willing to furnish for the public Service, &c.

which may be useful to an Enemy, or applicable to the public Service, within the said Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Cities, and Places respectively; and which of such Boats, Barges, Waggons, Carts, and Horses, the Owners thereof are willing to furnish, in case of Emergency, for the public Service, either gratuitously or for Hire, and with what Number of Boatmen, Bargemen, Drivers, and other necessary Attendance, and upon what Terms and Conditions; and of all such other Particulars as his Majesty shall require, for the Purpose of enabling his Majesty, and the Persons acting under his Majesty's Authority, to give such Orders as may be necessary for the Removal, in case of Danger, of such Persons as shall be incapable of removing themselves, and for the Removal of all Boats, Barges, Waggons, Carts, Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Hay, Straw, Corn, Meal, Flour, and other Provisions, Matters, and Things aforesaid, or for the Employment thereof in his Majesty's Service, or otherwise, as the Exigency of the Case shall require, and generally to give such Directions touching such Matters respectively, as may be deemed most likely to defeat the Views of the Enemy, and most advantageous for the public Service.

His Majesty may require the Lieutenants to appoint Officers, &c. to be ready for training Men willing to engage, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for his Majesty, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, to order and require, from Time to Time, as his Majesty shall see Occasion, the Lieutenants, or Deputy Lieutenants acting as Lieutenants aforesaid, to appoint proper Officers to be ready for arraying, training, exercising, and commanding such Men as shall be willing to engage themselves to be armed, trained, and exercised as aforesaid; and also proper Persons to be in like Manner ready, in case of Need, for superintending and directing the Execution of the several other Duties which may be necessary to be done for the several Purposes hereinbefore mentioned; such Officers and other Persons to be appointed in such Numbers, and under such Regulations and Restrictions as his Majesty shall think fit to order and direct, such Lieutenants, or Deputy Lieutenants acting as Lieutenants as aforesaid, first signifying to his Majesty the Names and Ranks of all Officers so to be appointed, and the Purposes for which they are so to be appointed, and appointing such Officers only as his Majesty shall approve: Provided always, that if the said Lieutenants, or Deputy Lieutenants acting as Lieutenants as aforesaid, shall not, within the Time which may be specified in the Orders which shall be given for such Purpose, signify to his Majesty the Names of a sufficient Number of Officers, whom his Majesty shall approve, for the Command of such Men as aforesaid, and appoint such other Persons as shall be necessary for the Purposes aforesaid, it shall be lawful for his Majesty to appoint so many Officers, and other Persons, as shall be necessary for such Purposes.

If the Lieutenants shall not, in the specified Time, signify to his Majesty the Names of a sufficient Number of Officers, &c. his Majesty may appoint them.

His Majesty may require the Lieutenants and Deputies to hold Meetings, and the Clerks, &c. to attend them, for the Execution of this Act.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for his Majesty, by Order under his Sign Manual, to authorize and require the several Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants aforesaid, to hold such General and Subdivision Meetings, within their respective Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Cities, and Places, as his Majesty shall think fit, and as shall be necessary for the Execution of this Act, and to require, for such Purposes, the Attendance of the Clerks of the several General Meetings and Subdivision Meetings of Lieutenancy, within their respective Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Cities, and Places, and of all other Persons whose Assistance shall be necessary for carrying into Execution this Act, in such and the same Manner, and with the same Powers and Authorities, as by the several Acts now in force, concerning the Militia Forces of this Kingdom, is provided, with respect to such Militia Forces, so far as the Provisions in such Acts respectively are applicable to the Purposes of this Act.

Lieutenants and Deputies, Justices, &c. to have the like Powers as they have by the Militia Laws;

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said Lieutenants, and their Deputy Lieutenants, and the Deputy Lieutenants acting as Lieutenants as aforesaid, and all Justices of the Peace, Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs, and other Officers, shall, for the Purposes of this Act, have the like Powers and Authorities to do, within their respective Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Cities, and Places, respectively, all such Acts, Matters, and Things, as shall be required by his Majesty to be done by them respectively in the Execution of this Act, as they respectively have to do the several Acts, Matters, and Things by Law required to be done by them respectively, by any Act now in force concerning the Militia Forces of this Kingdom.

and to obey such Orders as they shall receive, under this Act.

V. And be it further enacted, That all Lieutenants, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Constables, and other Officers, and all other Persons, shall obey such Orders as they shall respectively receive under the Authority of this Act, and the several Provisions herein contained.

The Lieutenants or Deputies to issue Warrants, as required by his Majesty, to the Constables, &c. to cause Returns to be made to the Subdivision Meetings, on Oath.

VI. And be it further enacted, That the Lieutenants or Deputy Lieutenants of the several Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Cities, and Places aforesaid, within such Time as they shall be required by his Majesty so to do, shall issue Warrants to the several Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs, or other Officers, of every Parish or Place, within the several Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Cities, and Places aforesaid, to cause Returns to be prepared and made, touching the several Purposes aforesaid, or any of them, as his Majesty shall direct, for their respective Parishes and Places; and such Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs, and other Officers, shall make such Returns severally and respectively to the said Deputy Lieutenants at their respective Subdivision Meetings, according to the Warrants which shall be issued for such Purposes, and shall verify the same, upon Oath, before such Deputy Lieutenants.

His Majesty, in certain Cases, may authorize the Lieutenants and Deputies to

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for his Majesty, in case of actual Invasion of this Kingdom, or if his Majesty shall see special Cause to apprehend that such Invasion will be actually attempted by the Enemy, to authorize and empower, by Order under his Sign Manual, the said Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants, or any of them, on any Emergency, and on the Requisition of the Officer commanding within the District respectively, or of such other Persons as his Majesty shall specially empower to make such Requisition, to give all such Orders as shall be necessary for the Removal of any Boats, Barges, Waggons, Carts, or other Carriages, Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Hay, Straw, Corn, Meal, Flour, or Provisions of any Kind, or any other Things which may be of Advantage to an Enemy, or useful for the public Service, and to take the same, if necessary, for the public Service; and also to give such Orders as shall be necessary for the Removal of the Inhabitants of any House, Hamlet, District, or Place, or any of them, and especially such as by reason of Infancy, Age, or Infirmity, or other Cause, shall be incapable of removing themselves in case of Danger; and also, in case of Necessity, to destroy any Boats, Barges, Waggons, Carts, or other Carriages, Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Hay, Straw, Corn, Meal, Flour, or Provisions of any Kind, or any Thing which may be of Advantage to an Enemy; and to remove, destroy, or render useless, any House, Mill, Bridge, or other Building, or any Matter or Thing whatsoever; and generally to do and act in the Premises as the public Service and the Exigencies of particular Cases shall require.

order the Removal of Boats, Waggons, Horses, Provisions, &c.

and to destroy any which may be of Advantage to the Enemy.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That any Persons who may enrol themselves in any Volunteer Corps of Infantry or Cavalry, subsequent to the Date of this Act, shall not be liable to be called out and placed under the Command of any General Officer commanding within the District in which such Corps may be formed, except in case of actual Invasion, or of the actual Appearance of the Enemy on the Coast, or of the Danger of Invasion being deemed so imminent as to make it advisable for the Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants, or any of them, to give Orders for the Removal of Cattle, Corn, or any other Articles which may be of Advantage to the Enemy, or useful to the public Service, in the Manner hereinbefore mentioned.

Persons who enrol in any Volunteer Corps subsequent to this Act not liable to be called out under the Command of the General of the District, except in Cases of actual Invasion, or imminent Danger thereof.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if the Commanding Officer of any Corps or Company of Volunteers, who shall be appointed under the Authority of this Act, or who has been or shall be appointed under the Authority of an Act of the thirty-fourth Year of his Majesty's Reign *, intituled, An Act for encouraging and disciplining such Corps or Companies of Men as shall voluntarily enrol themselves for the Defence of their Counties, Towns, or Coasts, or for the general Defence of the Kingdom, during the present War, shall make any false Return of such Corps or Company, with Intent to defraud his Majesty, every such Officer shall forfeit and lose the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

If the Commanding Officer of any Corps of Volunteers shall make a false Return, he shall forfeit 200l.

* c. 31.

X. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for his Majesty to authorize any General Officer or Officers, or other Person or Persons commissioned for such Purpose, to survey and mark out any Piece of Ground wanted for the public Service, and to treat and agree with the Owner or Owners thereof, or any Person or Persons having any Interest therein, for the Possession or Use thereof, during such Time as the Exigence of the Service shall require; and in case the Owner or Owners of any such Ground, or any Person or Persons having any Interest therein, shall refuse or decline to enter into such Contract touching the same, as shall be satisfactory to such Officer or Officers, or other Person or Persons commissioned as aforesaid, or shall be unable so to do by reason of Infancy, Coverture, or other Disability, it shall be lawful for the Person or Persons so authorized by his Majesty to require two or more Justices of the Peace, or Deputy Lieutenants for the County, Riding, Stewartry, City, or Place, where such Piece of Ground shall be, to put his Majesty's Officers into immediate Possession of such Piece of Ground, which such Justices or Deputy Lieutenants shall accordingly do, and shall for that Purpose issue their Warrant, under their Hands and Seals, commanding Possession to be so delivered, and shall also issue their Warrants to the Sheriff of the County, Riding, Stewartry, City, or Place, wherein such Piece of Ground shall be situate, to summon a Jury to appear, and be on a Day and at a Place in such Warrant to be mentioned, to inquire of and ascertain the Compensation which ought to be made for the Possession or Use of such Piece of Ground, during the Time for which the same shall be required for the public Service, to the several Persons interested therein, and to whom the same ought to be paid, the Verdict of which Jury shall be certified by such Justices or Deputy Lieutenants to the Receiver General of the Land Tax of the County, Riding, Stewartry, City, or Place, where such Lands shall lie; which Receiver General shall, out of any Money in his Hands, pay such Compensation to such Person or Persons, in such Manner, and for such Purposes, as by such Verdict shall be directed: Provided always, that no such Piece of Ground shall be so taken for the public Service, without the Consent of the Owner or Owners thereof, unless the Necessity for the same shall be first certified by the Lord Lieutenant, or two of the Deputy Lieutenants of the County, Riding, Stewartry, City, or Place, in which such Land shall lie, or unless the Enemy shall have actually invaded the Kingdom at the Time when such Piece of Ground shall be so taken.

His Majesty may authorize Persons to treat for the Use of Ground for the public Service, who may, in Cases of Refusal or Inability of the Party to treat, apply to two Justices or Deputy Lieutenants to put his Majesty's Officers into Possession, which they shall do, and direct the Sheriff to summon a Jury to ascertain the Compensation to be made.

Verdict of Jury to be certified to the Receiver General of the Land Tax, who shall pay the Compensation.

No Ground to be taken without the Owner's Consent, unless the Necessity be certified by the Lord Lieutenant, &c. or in case of actual Invasion.

XI. And be it further enacted, That when it shall have been found necessary to take, for the public Service, remove, or destroy, any Waggons, Carts, or other Carriages, Horses, Cattle, Sheep, Hay, Straw, Corn, Meal, Flour, or other Provisions, or any other Articles whatsoever, or to destroy or injure any House, Mill, Bridge, or other Building, or any Matter or Thing of Value, under the Directions aforesaid, the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury shall appoint Persons to inquire into and ascertain the Value of such Articles, and the Compensation which ought to be made for the same, by way of Purchase or Hire, or Recompence for Damage, or otherwise, according to the Nature of the Case; and if the Owner or Owners, or Person or Persons interested, shall be willing to accept the Compensation which shall be so ascertained, the same shall be paid by the said Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or Treasury to appoint Persons to ascertain the Value of Articles taken or injured for the public Service, and to pay a Compensation for them.

If the Owners be not willing to accept the Compensation, two Justices may settle it, &c.

such Person or Persons as shall be appointed by them for that Purpose, in pursuance of a Certificate under the Hands of the Persons so employed to ascertain the same; and if the Owner or Owners, or Person or Persons interested, shall not be willing to accept such Compensation, it shall be lawful for his Majesty to order two Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding, Stewartry, City, or Place, to settle and ascertain the Compensation which ought to be made to such Owner or Owners, or Persons interested; which Justices shall settle and ascertain the same accordingly, and shall grant a Certificate thereof to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, who shall order the same to be paid to the Person or Persons entitled thereto, out of any Money granted for the Supply of the Year.

The Officers of the Stannaries to procure Returns, and other Matters to be done touching the Tinners in Devon and Cornwall.

XII. And be it further enacted, That the Warden of the Stannaries, and all other Officers of the Stannaries, shall, respectively, in obedience to his Majesty's Orders, to be issued for that Purpose, procure like Returns to be made, and all other Matters to be done touching the Tinners of the Counties of Devon and Cornwall, according to the Customs of the Stannaries and Privileges of the Working Tinners, as are hereby required to be done by the Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants aforesaid, touching other Persons residing in the said Counties of Devon and Cornwall, not entitled to the Benefit of such Privileges; and such Warden and other Officers of the Stannaries shall have such and the like Powers and Authorities to do and execute all and every the Matters and Things, which shall be so required to be done as aforesaid, as the said Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants of the several Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Cities, and Places aforesaid, have for doing the several Matters and Things hereby required to be done by them respectively.

The Lieutenancy, Lord Mayor, &c. of London, the Constable of the Tower, &c. the Warden of the Cinque Ports, &c. to have the like Power in Execution of this Act, as they have respecting the Militia.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That his Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London, the Lord Mayor of the said City, and the Aldermen, Deputies, and Common Councilmen of the several Wards of the said City and Liberties thereof, and the Constables, Beadles, and other Ward Officers of the same, the Constable of the Tower of London, Lieutenants of the Tower Hamlets, and the Deputy Lieutenants of the said Hamlets, and their several Officers, the Justices of the Peace for the Tower Liberties, the Constables and other Peace Officers within the same, the Warden of the Cinque Ports two ancient Towns and their Members, his Lieutenant or Lieutenants, and his or their Officers, and the Mayors, Jurats, Justices of the Peace, Constables, and other Peace Officers for the Liberties of the Cinque Ports two ancient Towns and their Members, and all other Justices of the Peace, Constables, and other Peace Officers, within their respective Districts, and all other Persons having Authority within the same, shall put in Execution all and every the Powers and Provisions contained in this Act, in like Manner as they are respectively authorized to put in Execution the several Laws respecting the Militia Forces of this Kingdom, or any of them, within their respective Districts.

Form of Conviction in Schedule, may be used with the necessary Variations.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Form of Conviction by one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, in pursuance of this Act, set forth and expressed in the Schedule hereto annexed, may be used, with such Additions and Variations only as may be necessary to adapt the same to the particular Exigencies of the Case; and that no Objection shall be made, or Advantage taken, for Want of Form, in any such Conviction by any Person or Persons whatsoever.

Acceptance of Commissions not to vacate Seats in Parliament.

XV. And be it further enacted, That the Acceptance of any Commission, under the Authority of this Act, shall not vacate the Seat of any Member returned to serve in Parliament.

Clerks of the Meetings, and other Officers, to receive Compensation.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the respective Clerks of the General and Subdivision Meetings of Lieutenancy, Constables, and other Officers, required to execute this Act, and who shall respectively execute the same to the Satisfaction of the Deputy Lieutenants assembled at their respective Subdivision Meetings, shall have and receive such Compensation for their Care, Trouble, and Expences, in and about the executing of this Act, as the said Deputy Lieutenants shall judge them respectively to have deserved for the same; and the said Deputy Lieutenants shall direct such Compensation to be paid by the Receiver General of the County, Riding, or Place in England, or Receiver General of Scotland, as the Case shall require, out of any Money in his Hands, and such Receiver General shall pay the same accordingly, in case such Order as shall be made by such Deputy Lieutenants at such Subdivision Meetings shall be confirmed at a General Meeting, but not otherwise.

Penalty for disobeying Orders, or obstructing the Execution of this Act; from 5 l. to 10 l. or Imprisonment not exceeding three Months.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Constable, Headborough, Tythingman, or other inferior Officer, or other Person, shall disobey any Orders which shall be issued in pursuance of this Act, or shall obstruct or hinder the Execution thereof, every such Person, upon Conviction of such Offence before any Justice of the Peace of the County, Riding, Stewartry, City, or Place, where the Offence shall be committed, shall forfeit and pay a Sum not less than five Pounds, and not exceeding one hundred Pounds, at the Discretion of such Justice, to be levied by Distress and Sale in the Manner herein-before directed with respect to the Penalty herein-before imposed; and for Want of sufficient Distress, then such Justice is hereby required to commit such Offender to the Common Gaol of the County, Riding, or Place, where the Offence shall be committed, for any Time not exceeding three Months, and the Monies arising by such Penalty shall be paid to the Treasurer of the County, Riding, Stewartry, City, or Place, where the Offence shall be committed, to be applied as Part of the Stock of such County, Riding, Stewartry, City, or Place.

No Order or Conviction to be removed out of

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Order or Conviction made in pursuance of this Act, by any Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenant, or Justice of the Peace, shall be removed, by Certiorari, Advocation, tion, or Suspension, out of the County, Riding, or Place, wherein such Order or Conviction shall be made, into any Court whatever; and that no Writ of Certiorari, Advocation, or Suspension, shall supersede Execution or other Proceedings upon any such Order or Conviction, but that Execution and other Proceedings shall be had thereupon, any such Writ or Writs, or Allowance thereof, notwithstanding. the County, or Proceedings thereupon to be superseded by Certiorari, &c.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for his Majesty to authorize any three Deputy Lieutenants of any County, Riding, Stewartry, City, or Place, in the Absence from such County, Riding, Stewartry, City, or Place, of the Lieutenant thereof, to do all Acts, Matters, and Things, in the Execution of this Act, which might lawfully be done by such Lieutenant, and the same shall be good and valid in the Law, as if done by such Lieutenants. His Majesty may authorize three Deputy Lieutenants to act in the Absence of the Lieutenant.

XX. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties by this Act imposed, for Recovery whereof no other Means are hereby provided, shall be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or the Courts of Great Session in the Principality of Wales, or the Courts of the Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster, or Durham, or in the Court of Session, or Court of Exchequer, in Scotland, as the Case shall require, wherein no Essoin, Privilege, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance shall be allowed. Recovery of Penalties.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Action shall be brought against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, such Action shall be commenced within three Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be laid in the County or Place where the Cause of Complaint shall arise, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon; and if the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants in such Action or Suit, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, or discontinue his, her, or their Action or Suit, after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if upon Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant hath in other Cases to recover Costs. Limitation of Actions. General Issue. Treble Costs.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall have Continuance during the present War with France. Continuance of Act.

XXIII. Provided always, That this Act, or any of the Provisions herein contained, may be altered, varied, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament. Act may be altered or repealed this Session.

Any Person negotiating any such Dealing, to forfeit 500 l.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Broker or other Person, residing or being in Great Britain, shall knowingly and wilfully, in Great Britain, or elsewhere, negotiate or transact, for Commission or otherwise, any Dealing prohibited by this Act, every Person so offending shall forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds, to any Person who will sue for the same.

Recovery of Penalties.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Penalties and Forfeitures aforesaid shall and may be recovered, in that Part of Great Britain called England, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or by Information or Bill in Equity; and in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, by Action or summary Bill or Information in the Courts of Session or Exchequer in Scotland; and to any such Information or Bill in Equity, the Party or Parties against whom the same shall be exhibited shall be obliged and compelled to answer upon Oath for Discovery of the Dealings and Transactions by Means whereof such Penalties and Forfeitures shall have been incurred; and it shall be lawful for the Court wherein such Information or Bill shall be exhibited, to proceed and decree thereupon, and enforce such Decree in the same Manner as is used in other Causes in the said Courts.

Act not to extend to any Thing done by Licence from his Majesty.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Act which shall be done by any Person, or in any Place, by virtue of or in Obedience to any Licence or Authority from his Majesty, either under his Sign Manual, or by Order in Council, or Proclamation, or by virtue of or in Obedience to any Licence or Authority from any Persons or Person to be authorized by his Majesty, under his Sign Manual, or otherwise as his Majesty shall think fit, to give such Licence or Authority; or to any Act done in his Majesty's Service by any Person or Persons who shall be employed therein.

33 Geo. 3. c. 27. to extend to the United Provinces, and all Places under the Dominion of the Persons exercising the Powers of Government in the said Provinces.

VI. 'And whereas it is expedient to extend to the said United Provinces, and the Persons exercising the 'Powers of Government therein, and to the Persons, Territories, and Places under their Government, 'the Provisions contained in an Act, passed in the thirty-third Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An 'Act more effectually to prevent, during the present War between Great Britain and France, all Traitorous 'Correspondence with, or Aid or Assistance being given to, his Majesty's Enemies;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the several Times herein-after mentioned, and during the said War, all and every the Provisions in the said Act contained, shall extend, and shall be construed, deemed, and taken to extend, to the said United Provinces, and all and every the Territories and Places under the Government of the Persons exercising, or who shall, during the said War, exercise the Powers of Government in the said United Provinces, and all Persons residing or being, or who shall, during the said War, reside or be within the same, or within any of the Territories or Places aforesaid, and to the Persons exercising, or who shall, during the said War, exercise the Powers of Government within the said Provinces, or any of them, or any of the Territories or Places aforesaid; in such and the same Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said United Provinces, and the Territories, Places, and Persons aforesaid, and every of

of them, had been expreſsly mentioned in the ſaid Act, and all and every the Proviſions in the ſaid Act contained had been expreſsly applied thereto reſpectively, and the ſaid United Provinces, and the Territories, Places, and Perſons aforeſaid, had in all Parts of the ſaid Act been mentioned, together with France, and the Territories, Perſons, and Places deſcribed in the ſaid Act; and that all and every the Acts thereby prohibited to be done by Perſons reſiding or being in Great Britain, with reſpect to France, or the Perſons exerciſing, or who, during the ſaid War, might exerciſe the Powers of Government in France, or Perſons reſiding or being within any of the Dominions of France, or any Town, Territory, Port, or Place annexed to France, or under the Government of the Perſons exerciſing, or who might exerciſe, the Powers of Government in France, ſhall be deemed and taken to be, in like Manner, and under the like Penalties, Proviſions, and Reſtrictions, prohibited with reſpect to the ſaid United Provinces, and all and every the Territories and Places under the Government of the Perſons exerciſing, or who ſhall during the ſaid War exerciſe, the Powers of Government in the ſaid Provinces, and all Perſons reſiding or being, or who ſhall, during the ſaid War, reſide or be within the ſame, or within any of the Territories or Places aforeſaid, and to the Perſons exerciſing, or who ſhall, during the ſaid War, exerciſe the Powers of Government in the ſaid Provinces, or any of them, or any of the Territories or Places aforeſaid.

Commencement of Act.

VII. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall take place and have Commencement from the End of one Week after the paſſing of this Act, as to all Acts which ſhall be done by any Perſon whatſoever in Great Britain, or which ſhall be done in any Parts out of Great Britain, by any Perſon who ſhall have been in Great Britain at any Time after the paſſing of this Act, and during the Continuance of this Act; and ſhall take place and have Commencement one Calendar Month after the paſſing of this Act, as to all Acts which ſhall be done in any Part of Europe, other than Great Britain, by any Perſon who ſhall not have been in Great Britain between the paſſing of this Act and one Calendar Month after the paſſing of this Act; and ſhall take place and have Commencement three Calendar Months after the paſſing of this Act, as to all Acts which ſhall be done in any Parts of the World out of Europe, and not beyond the Cape of Good Hope, by any Perſon who ſhall not have been in Great Britain between the paſſing of this Act, and the End of three Calendar Months after the paſſing of this Act; and ſhall take place and have Commencement ſix Calendar Months after the paſſing of this Act, as to all Acts which ſhall be done in any Part of the World beyond the Cape of Good Hope, by any Perſon who ſhall not have been in Great Britain between the paſſing of this Act, and the End of ſix Calendar Months after the paſſing of this Act.

Act may be repealed or altered this Seſſion.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful to repeal, amend, alter, or vary this Act, or any Part thereof, during this preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

CAP. XXXII.

An Act for increasing the Rates of Subsistence to be paid to Innkeepers and others on quartering Soldiers.—[5th April 1798.]

Mutiny Act c. 23. of this Session recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, certain Rates are established in that Part of Great Britain called England, the Dominion of Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, for the Payment of Innholders and others on whom Non-commissioned Officers and Private Soldiers are quartered and billetted, who shall be furnished with Diet and Small Beer at their Quarters; and an Option is given to such Innholders and others, to furnish certain Articles gratis, in lieu of Diet and Small Beer, at the Rates prescribed: And whereas the Occasion of marching and quartering of Troops has increased, and may continue, and the Rules prescribed for furnishing Soldiers with Necessaries are, in many Instances, become, from the high Price of Provisions, inadequate, and are productive of Distress to such Innholders and others:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same,

Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers, to allow 10d. per Diem for Diet and Small Beer in Quarters in England;

That every Non-commissioned Officer and Private Soldier who shall be furnished with Diet and Small Beer within the aforesaid Part of Great Britain, by the Innholders or other Persons on whom such Non-commissioned Officers or Private Soldiers shall be quartered and billetted by virtue of the said Act, shall pay and allow for the same Ten-pence per Diem; and that the Accounts of the same shall be rendered, and Payment thereof made, in like Manner as is directed in the said Act now in force touching the former Rates of Six-pence per Diem for the Cavalry and Four-pence per Diem for the Infantry.

and for Articles furnished gratis in lieu of Diet, 2d. per Diem to be allowed.

II. And be it further enacted, That in case any Innholders or other Persons on whom any Non-commissioned Officers or Private Men shall be quartered, shall, by virtue of the said Option in the said Act, furnish such Non-commissioned Officers or Soldiers with the Articles therein mentioned, in lieu of furnishing Diet and Small Beer, at the Rates prescribed by this Act, such Innholders or other Persons on whom such Non-commissioned Officers or Soldiers are quartered, and by whom the said Article shall have been so supplied, shall receive, in Consideration thereof, Two-pence per Diem for each Non-commissioned Officer and Soldier, instead of furnishing the same gratis, as required by the said Act; which Sum of Two-pence per Diem shall be accounted for and paid in like Manner as is directed touching the Rates aforesaid.

For Horses quartered, 10d. 2q. per Diem to be paid for Hay and Straw.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Sum to be paid to the Innholder or other Person, on whom any of the Horses belonging to his said Majesty's Forces shall be quartered by virtue of the said Act, for Hay and Straw, shall be Ten-pence Halfpenny per Diem for each Horse, instead of Sixpence per Diem as directed in the said Act.

So much of recited Act as relates to furnishing with Diet Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers on a March, or recruiting, repealed.

IV. 'And whereas the Provisions contained in the said recited Act, with respect to the Manner of dieting Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers on a March, or employed in recruiting, and likewise the Recruits by them raised, have been productive of much Inconvenience, as well to the Troops as the Innholders;' be it further enacted, That so much of the said recited Act as relates to the Manner of furnishing Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers on a March, or employed in recruiting, and likewise the Recruits by them raised, with Diet or other Provision, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers to receive their Diet at the Rates prescribed on their March, and for two Days after their Arrival at their Destination, unless a Market Day happens, from which Time the other Articles to be furnished in lieu.

V. And be it further enacted, That all Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers shall be entitled to receive their Diet and Small Beer from the Innholders or other Persons on whom they may be billetted, at the Rates herein-before prescribed, while on the March, as also on and for the Day of their Arrival at the Place of their final Destination, and on the two subsequent Days, unless either of the two subsequent Days shall be a Market Day in and for the Town or Place where such Officers or Soldiers shall be billetted, or within the Distance of two Miles thereof, in which Case it shall and may be lawful for the Innholder, or other Person as aforesaid, to discontinue on and from such Market Day the Supply of Diet and Small Beer, and to furnish in lieu thereof the Articles in the said recited Act specified, and at the Rate herein-before prescribed.

When halted on a March, Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers entitled to Diet and Small Beer as after arriving at their Destination:

VI. Provided always, That if any Regiment, Troop, Company, or Detachment, when on the March, shall be halted, either for a limited or indefinite Time, at any intermediate Place, the Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers belonging thereto shall be entitled to receive their Diet and Small Beer from the Persons on whom they shall be billetted at such intermediate Place, for such Time only for which they would be entitled to receive the same after arriving at the Place of their final Destination, according to this Act.

And if such Halting be only for a Day after

VII. Provided nevertheless, That whenever it shall happen that any Regiment, Troop, Company, or Detachment, when on their March, shall be halted, and it shall appear by the Marching Orders, that it is not intended that such Regiment, Troop, Company, or Detachment, shall halt for any longer Time than one intire Day after the Day of their Arrival at the Place of halting, and the Day after such Arrival shall be such Market Day as aforesaid, it shall not be lawful for the Innholders or other Persons on whom the Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers shall be billetted, to discontinue, on such Market Day, the Supply of Diet and Small Beer to any such Officers or Soldiers; but that all such Officers and Soldiers shall be entitled to receive their Diet and Small Beer from such Innholders and other Persons aforesaid, upon such Market Day as aforesaid, at the Rates hereinbefore prescribed, in like Manner as they would have been entitled thereto if such Day had not been a Market Day; any Thing hereinbefore contained to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

not

Arrival, and that be a Market Day, their Diet and Small Beer not to be discontinued.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That all Non-commissioned Officers and Private Men employed in recruiting, and the Recruits by them raised, shall, while on the March, and for two Days after the Day of their Arrival at any Recruiting Station, be entitled to the same Benefits as are hereinbefore provided in regard to Troops upon the March; but no Recruit enlisted after the two Days subsequent to the Arrival of the Party at their Recruiting Station, shall be entitled to be supplied with Diet and Small Beer at the Rate hereinbefore prescribed, except at the Option of the Person on whom he shall be quartered: Provided also nevertheless, that in case any such Recruiting Party, with the Recruits by them raised, shall remove from their Station, and after a Time shall return to the same Place, they, and the Recruits by them raised, so returning, shall not be again entitled to the Supply of Diet and Small Beer for such two Days as aforesaid, unless the Period between the Time of their Removal from such Place, and their Return thereto, shall have exceeded twenty-eight Days.

Recruiting Parties and Recruits on their March to be entitled to the same Benefits as Soldiers; under certain Restrictions.

IX. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall have Continuance from the twenty-fourth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, until the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine.

Continuance of Act.

CAP. XXXIII.

An Act to amend two Acts made in the twenty-sixth Year of King George the Second, and the twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, respecting the Performance of Quarantine; for punishing Persons acting contrary to any Order in Council, which may be made for laying any Embargo on Ships or Vessels, or for prohibiting or regulating the Exportation of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize; to prevent the fraudulent Importation of Glass into this Kingdom; for permitting the Removal of Coffee and Cocoa Coastwise, for the greater Convenience of Exportation; to authorize the Commissioners of the Customs to return the Duties paid on Goods imported, which shall be lost or destroyed before the landing thereof; to prevent Vessels licensed by the Admiralty, from being engaged in any Trade or Employment not permitted by their Licences; for permitting Wines put on board any of His Majesty's Ships, to be removed from one Ship to another, without being first landed and warehoused; and for extending the Provisions of an Act, made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, to Wines delivered into the Charge of the Collector and Comptroller of His Majesty's Customs at the Port of Falmouth.

[5th April 1798.]

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act to oblige Ships more effectually to perform their Quarantine, and for the better preventing the Plague being brought from Foreign Parts into Great Britain or Ireland, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man; all Ships and Vessels arriving, and all Persons, Goods, and Merchandizes, whatsoever, coming or imported into any Port or Place within Great Britain or Ireland, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, from any Place, from whence his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, by and with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, shall judge it probable the Infection may be brought, are required to make their Quarantine in such Manner as directed by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, by his or their Orders, made in his or their Privy Council, and notified by Proclamation, or published in the London Gazette, and under divers Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Provisions, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, in the said Act contained: And whereas by an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act more effectually to secure the Performance of Quarantine; and for amending several Laws relating to the Revenue of Customs; further Provisions were made for Performance of Quarantine: And whereas it is necessary to make further Provisions, effectually to secure the due Performance of Quarantine;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Commander, Master, or other Person, having the Charge of any Ship or Vessel liable to the Performance

26 Geo. 2. c. 6.

28 Geo. 3. c. 34.

From Jan. 1, 1799, every Commander of a Vessel, liable to Quarantine, to hoist a Signal when he shall meet another Vessel, or be within four Leagues of the Coast of Great Britain, &c. on Penalty of 200l.

of Quarantine, shall, and is hereby required, from and after the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, at all Times when such Ship or Vessel shall meet with any other Ship or Vessel at Sea, or shall be within four Leagues of the Coast of Great Britain or Ireland, or the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, to hoist a Signal, as by the said recited Act is required, to denote that his Vessel is liable to the Performance of Quarantine; which Signal shall be, in the Day-Time, a large yellow Flag of six Breadths of Bunting, at the Main top-mast Head; and in the Night-time, a large Signal Lantern, such as is commonly used on board his Majesty's Ships of War, with a Light at the same Mast-head; and such Commander, Master, or other Person, shall keep the Signal hoisted, during such Time as the Ship or Vessel shall continue within Sight of such other Ship or Vessel, or within four Leagues of the said Coasts or Islands, and until she shall be legally discharged from the Performance of Quarantine; on Failure whereof, such Commander, Master, or other Person, having Charge of such Ship or Vessel, so liable to the Performahce of Quarantine, shall forfeit for every Offence the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

From July 1, 1798, Pilots conducting Vessels liable to Quarantine, into Places not specially appointed, to forfeit 100l.

II. 'And whereas, notwithstanding certain Places are by Law specially appointed for the Reception of 'Ships and Vessels liable to the Performance of Quarantine, it frequently happens that Pilots conduct Ships 'and Vessels, so liable to the Performance of Quarantine, into Places which are not specially appointed for 'the Reception of such Ships or Vessels;' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, in case any Pilot shall bring or conduct, or cause to be brought and conducted, any Ship or Vessel liable to the Performance of Quarantine, into any Place which is not, or which shall not be specially appointed for the Reception of Ships and Vessels so liable to the Performance of Quarantine, unless compelled by Stress of Weather, adverse Winds, or Accidents of the Seas, such Pilot shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Offences may be tried, in any County of Great Britain, or in the Courts of Guernsey, &c

III. And be it further enacted, That every Offence committed contrary to or in Breach or Violation of the said recited Acts, or of this Act, or any Order or Orders of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, now or hereafter to be made, in his or their Privy Council, touching or respecting Quarantine, and notified by Proclamation, or published in the London Gazette, shall and may be tried, heard, and determined, in any County within Great Britain, or in the proper Courts of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man respectively.

All Acts regarding Quarantine to extend to all Diseases declared infectious by Proclamation, or by Publication in the Gazette.

IV. 'And whereas contagious Diseases or Distempers have raged, and may rage, in foreign Parts, which 'may not be deemed the Plague, and not within the Provisions contained in the said Acts, although the 'Communication of such Diseases or Distempers may be highly injurious to this Kingdom; and it is there-'fore expedient that the said recited Acts, and any other Act or Acts of Parliament, in any Way regarding 'the Performance of Quarantine, should be extended, and declared to extend, to such contagious Dis-'eases or Distempers;' be it therefore enacted, That the said recited Acts, and all and every other Acts or Act of Parliament now in force, in any Way regarding the Performance of Quarantine, shall be extended, and the same are hereby declared to extend, to all such Diseases or Distempers, as his Majesty, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, shall judge to be probably infectious, and shall so declare by Order in Council notified by Proclamation, or published in the London Gazette; and all the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Provisions, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures, contained in the said recited Acts, and in all and every other Acts and Act of Parliament now in force regarding the Performance of Quarantine, shall be extended and applied, and are hereby declared to extend and apply, to such Diseases and Distempers respectively, in the same Manner as if each and every the Powers, Directions, Authorities, Clauses, Matters, and Things, in such Acts respectively contained, relating to the Disorder called The Plague were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act, and applied to such other Diseases and Distempers as aforesaid respectively.

Offences against any Order in Council, laying an Embargo on Vessels, or prohibiting or regulating the Exportation of Goods, may also be tried in any Court in Great Britain, or in Guernsey, &c.

V. 'And whereas by the said recited Act of the twenty-eighth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, it is 'provided that every Offence contrary to or in Breach or Violation of the said recited Acts of the twenty-'sixth Year of his late Majesty's Reign, and the twenty-eighth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, or 'any Order or Orders of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, to be made in his or their Privy Council, 'touching or respecting Quarantine, and notified by Proclamation, or published in the London Gazette, 'shall and may be tried, heard, and determined in any County within Great Britain, or in the proper 'Courts of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, respectively: And whereas it is expe-'dient that the like Provision should be extended to all Offences against any Order of his Majesty in Coun-'cil, which his Majesty is by Law empowered to make, for laying any Embargo on any Ships or Vessels, 'or prohibiting the Exportation of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, or regulating the same;' be it enacted, That every Offence committed contrary to any Order or Orders of his Majesty in Council, which his Majesty is by Law empowered to make, for laying any Embargo on any Ships or Vessels, or prohibiting or regulating the Exportation of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes, such Order or Orders being notified by Proclamation or published in the London Gazette, shall and may be tried, heard, and determined, in any Courts within Great Britain, or in the proper Courts of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, respectively, notwithstanding such Offences may have been committed at Sea, not within the Body of any County, or within the said Isles respectively; and any Persons or Person who shall be so tried and convicted of any such Offence, shall and may be punished for the same, by Fine and Imprisonment, at the Discretion of the Court in which such Persons or Person shall be so tried and convicted; and the Notification of any such Order by such Proclamation or by such Publication in the London Gazette, Gazette, shall be deemed sufficient Notice of such Order to all Persons bound to obey the same; and upon any Trial for any such Offence, the Production of the London Gazette, containing any such Proclamation or Order, shall be sufficient Evidence of such Proclamation or Order.

Packages containing unframed Glass imported, to be marked "Glass," on Penalty of Forfeiture.

VI. 'And whereas the fraudulent Importation of Glass into this Kingdom has of late very much increased, to the Injury of the Revenue and of the fair Trader,' be it therefore enacted, That every Package containing any Plate or Plates of Glass unframed, being Plate Glass, Crown Glass, or Glass called Sheet Glass, which shall be imported into this Kingdom, or which shall be brought into this Kingdom for the Purpose of Exportation, shall be marked or stamped on the Outside thereof, in Roman Letters not less than four Inches in Length, with the Word "Glass;" and in case any such Glass shall be so imported or brought for Exportation, without having the outside Package thereof marked or stamped as aforesaid, such Glass, together with the Package, and all Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, contained therein, shall be forfeited.

Masters of Vessels to report every Package in which such Glass shall be imported, on Penalty of its Forfeiture, and 10*l*.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of every Ship or Vessel in which any such Glass shall be imported into this Kingdom, or brought for the Purpose of Exportation, shall, in the Report of his Ship's Cargo, express every Package or Packages in which such Glass shall be contained, as containing Glass; and in case any Package shall be found on board such Ship or Vessel containing such Glass, the Contents of which shall not have been reported as Glass, such Package, together with the Glass, shall be forfeited, and the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, shall forfeit one hundred Pounds.

Such Glass imported in Packages not containing 5 Cwt. forfeited; but not to extend to Plates 60 Inches long.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That no such Glass shall be imported into this Kingdom, or brought into the same for the Purpose of Exportation, in any Package whatever, which shall not contain five hundred Weight nett at least of such Glass, under the Penalty of the Forfeiture thereof: Provided always, that this Act shall not extend to forfeit any Plate or Plates of Glass being of the Length of sixty Inches or upwards, on account of the same not being imported, or brought in Packages marked and described as aforesaid.

Commencement of Act respecting Glass.

IX. And be it further enacted, That this Act, so far as the same relates to the Importation of Glass, shall commence and take Effect at the Expiration of six Calendar Months after the passing thereof.

Commissioners of the Customs may permit warehoused Coffee and Cocoa to be removed from the Port of Importation to another Port, in order to the same being exported.

X. 'And whereas it is expedient to permit Coffee and Cocoa warehoused, on Importation in one Port 'of England, to be removed to some other Port thereof, for the greater Convenience of Exportation,' be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, or any four or more of them, (provided they see no reasonable Objection thereto,) to grant Permission for the Removal of such Coffee and Cocoa from the Port of Importation as aforesaid, to any other Port in England, for the Purpose of exporting the same accordingly, under such Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, as the said Commissioners, or any four or more of them, shall think fit and proper to require, for the Security of the Revenue.

Commissioners of the Customs may return Duties on Goods lost or destroyed before landing, on Proof that it was by unavoidable Accident.

XI. 'And whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for the Repayment, under certain Circumstances, of the Duties of Customs which have been or may be paid on Goods imported into this 'Kingdom, and which have been or may be lost or destroyed before the Landing thereof;' be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, in all Cases where Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, shall be lost or destroyed by unavoidable Accident, after the Duties of Customs have been or may be paid for the same, and previous to the Landing thereof, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, or any four or more of them, in England, for the Time being, or the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, or any three or more of them, in Scotland, for the Time being, and they are hereby required to return, in such Manner as they shall respectively judge expedient, the Amount of the said Duties which shall have been paid before the passing of this Act, or may be paid at any Time subsequent thereunto, to the Importers or Proprietors of such Goods; provided Proof shall be made, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners respectively, that such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, were lost or destroyed by unavoidable Accident, and not from any Want of due Care or Precaution on the Part of the Proprietor, or his or her Agent, after the same were imported into and before the same were landed in Great Britain; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

27 Geo. 3. c. 32. recited.

* Sess. 2. c. 47. † § 5.

From July 1, 1798, any Cutter, &c. for which Licence shall have been obtained from

XII. 'And whereas by an Act, passed in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, 'for making further Provisions in regard to such Vessels as are particularly described in an Act, made in the 'twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty *, for the more effectual Prevention of Smuggling 'in this Kingdom, and for extending the said Act to other Vessels and Boats not particularly described 'therein, it is amongst other Things enacted †, that in case any of the Vessels therein described shall be 'found beyond the Limits prescribed in the Licences granted by the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, 'or Commissioners of the Admiralty, for the Time being, such Vessels shall and may be seized and prose-'cuted in the like Manner as the same might be or would have been in case of no Licence having been pro-'cured: And whereas the said Act does not extend to Cases where a Vessel or Boat is found within the 'Limits of her Licence, although engaged for or used in a Trade or Employment not permitted or sanctioned 'by such Licence;' be it enacted, That, from and after the first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, in case any Cutter, Lugger, Shallop, Wherry, Sloop, Smack, or Yawl, or any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, for which there shall have been obtained from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty, for the Time being, a Licence, limiting or confining the Navigation the Admiralty, used in any other Trade than that for which licensed, may be seized.

gation of such Cutter, Lugger, Shallop, Wherry, Sloop, Smack, or Yawl, or any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, to any particular Trade or Employment, and such Cutter, Lugger, Shallop, Wherry, Sloop, Smack, or Yawl, or any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, shall be engaged for or used in any other Trade or Employment whatever within the Date of the Licence, such Cutter, Lugger, Shallop, Wherry, Sloop, Smack, or Yawl, or any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, shall and may be seized and prosecuted in the same Manner as she might or would have been in case of no Licence having been procured for her.

Cutters, &c. seized, may be disposed of, as directed by 27 Geo. 3. c. 32.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Cutter, Lugger, Shallop, Wherry, Sloop, Smack, or Yawl, and all and every Ship, Vessel, or Boat, which shall be seized by virtue or in pursuance of the said recited Act or of this Act, shall be disposed of, and the Produce thereof applied, in such and the like Manner, and under such and the like Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, as Vessels and Boats forfeited by the said hereinbefore recited Act are directed to be disposed of, and the Produce thereof applied.

The Sea Stock of Liquors of Officers of the Navy, may be removed from one Ship to another, Duty free. * c. 48.

XIV. 'And whereas it is expedient that Wines which have been put on Board any of his Majesty's 'Ships for the Use of any Admirals, Captains, or Commission Officers, under the Authority of an Act 'passed in the thirty-third Year of his Majesty's Reign *, should be allowed to be removed from one Ship 'to another without such Wines being first landed and warehoused;' be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where any Admiral, Captain, or other Commissioned Officer, shall be desirous of removing his Sea Stock of Liquors from one Ship to another, the proper Officers of the Customs shall, with the Approbation of the Commissioners of the Customs, or any four or more of them, permit the same to be transhipped accordingly, without Payment of any Duty whatever, under the like Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, as are provided for the transhipping of Liquors by the said recited Act.

Drawback on Wines in Ports enumerated in 33 Geo. 3. c. 48. to extend to Wines delivered into the Charge of the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs at Falmouth.

XV. 'And whereas it is expedient that the Drawback allowed by the said recited Act should be extended 'to Wines which may be delivered into the Charge of the Collector and Comptroller of his Majesty's 'Customs at Falmouth, in the same Manner as at any of the Ports particularly mentioned in the said Act;' be it therefore enacted, That every Clause, Matter, and Thing, in the said recited Act contained, relating to the Allowance of the Drawback on Wines in any of the Ports therein enumerated, shall be and the same is hereby extended to Wines delivered into the Charge of the Collector and Comptroller of his Majesty's Customs at the Port of Falmouth, in the same Manner and under the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as if the said Port of Falmouth had been enumerated in the said recited Act.

Recovery and Disposal of Forfeitures.

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Forfeitures created and incurred by this Act shall and may be sued for, prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of, in such Manner, and by such Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Forfeitures incurred for any Offence against the Laws of the Customs may now legally be sued for, prosecuted, recovered, and disposed of, and the Officer or Officers concerned in Seizures or Prosecutions under this Act, shall be entitled to and receive such Share of the Produce arising from the Seizures as they are now by Law entitled to upon Prosecutions of Seizures for unlawful Importation.

CAP. XXXVI.

An Act to empower His Majesty to secure and detain such Persons as His Majesty shall suspect are conspiring against His Person and Government.—[21st April 1798.]

'WHEREAS his Majesty's Enemies are making Preparations with considerable and increasing 'Activity for the Invasion of his Majesty's Dominions: And whereas these Designs are encou-'raged by the traitorous Practices of wicked and disaffected Persons within this Realm:' Therefore, for the better Preservation of his Majesty's sacred Person, and for securing the Peace and the Laws and Liberties of this Kingdom; be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Person or Persons that are or shall be in Prison within the Kingdom of Great Britain at or upon the Day on which this Act shall receive his Majesty's Royal Assent, or after, by Warrant of his said Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, signed by six of the said Privy Council, for High Treason, Suspicion of High Treason, or treasonable Practices, or by Warrant, signed by any of his Majesty's Secretaries of State, for such Causes as aforesaid, may be detained in safe Custody, without Bail or Mainprize, until the first Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine; and that no Judge or Justice of the Peace shall bail or try any such Person or Persons so committed, without Order from his said Majesty's Privy Council, signed by six of the said Privy Council, till the said first Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

Persons who are or shall be imprisoned for High Treason, &c. may be detained till Feb. 1, 1799, &c.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Act made in Scotland in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and one, (intituled, An Act for preventing wrongous Imprisonment, and against undue Delays in Trials,) in so far as the same may be construed to relate to Cases of Treason and Suspicion of Treason, be suspended until the said first Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine; and that until the said Day no Judge, Justice of Peace, or other Officer of the Law in Scotland, shall liberate, try, or admit to Bail any Person or Persons that is, are, or shall be, in Prison within Scotland, for such Causes as aforesaid, without Order from his said Majesty's Privy Council, signed by six of the said Privy Council.

Act in Scotland of 1701, for preventing wrongous Imprisonment, so far as may relate to Treason, &c. suspended till Feb. 1, 1799, &c.

III. Provided always, That, from and after the said first Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, the said Persons so committed shall have the Benefit and Advantage of all Laws and Statutes any Way relating to or providing for the Liberty of the Subjects of this Realm; and that this present Act shall continue until the said first Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, and no longer.

From Feb. 1, 1799, Persons so committed to have the Benefit of all Laws providing for the Liberty of the Subject, &c.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act shall be construed to extend to invalidate the ancient Rights and Privileges of Parliament, or to the Imprisonment or Detaining of any Member of either House of Parliament during the Sitting of such Parliament, until the Matter of which he stands suspected be first communicated to the House of which he is a Member, and the Consent of the said House obtained for his Commitment or Detaining.

Privileges of Parliament not invalidated by this Act.

V. Provided nevertheless, That any Person or Persons in Prison at the Time of passing this Act, against whom any Bill or Bills of Indictment for High Treason have been already found, shall and may be tried on the said Indictment, as if this Act had never passed.

Persons against whom Indictments for High Treason are already found to be tried thereon.

CAP. XXXVIII.

An Act for declaring the Validity of two Orders in Council, dated the ſixth Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-four, and the thirtieth Day of March one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight; and for enlarging the Time of appealing in Prize Cauſes; and for permitting Appeals to be proſecuted after ſuch Time ſhall have elapſed, in ſuch ſpecial Cauſes as His Majeſty, by any Order in Council, ſhall authorize.—[7th May 1798.]

Order in Council, dated Aug. 6, 1794;

' WHEREAS an Order was made on the ſixth Day of Auguſt one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-four, by his Majeſty in Council, in the Words or to the Effect following; that is to ſay, " Whereas, in many of his Majeſty's Vice Admiralty Courts in the Weſt Indies, Sentences of Condemnation " have paſſed againſt Ships and Goods belonging to the Subjects of the United States of America: And " whereas, from Ignorance of the Rules reſpecting the Times for appealing, or from Inability to find the " Security required, or from other juſt and reaſonable Impediments, the Claimants have been prevented from " duly entering and proſecuting their Appeals from the ſaid Sentences: And whereas, it has been repre- " ſented to his Majeſty on their Behalf, that they are deſirous of entering and proſecuting the ſame, his " Majeſty is thereupon pleaſed, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby " ordered, that the ſaid Parties ſhall be admitted to their reſpective Appeals, notwithſtanding the ordinary " Time for entering and proſecuting the ſame may be elapſed, provided the ſame are entered and proſecuted " within a reaſonable Time, to be approved by the Lords Commiſſioners of Appeals in Prize Cauſes:"

and Order in Council, dated March 30, 1798, recited.

' And whereas Doubts have been lately entertained reſpecting the Validity of the ſaid Order: And ' whereas it is expedient that ſuch Doubts ſhould be removed: And whereas an Order was made by his ' Majeſty in Council on the thirtieth Day of March one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight, declaring, ' that it was his Royal Intention in the former Order that Appeals from Sentences given in the Vice Admiralty ' Courts of Bermuda and the Bahama Iſlands, ſhould be permitted under the Authority thereof, and that Parties ' complaining of Sentences given in thoſe Courts ſhould be entitled to the full Benefit of the ſaid Order;' be it therefore declared and enacted by the King's moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Orders, and all Proceedings duly had or to be had, according to and under the Authority of the ſaid Orders, upon Appeals from Sentences given in the Vice-Admiralty

Proceedings under the ſaid Orders upon

Courts in the West Indies, or in the Bermuda or Bahama Islands, shall be, and be deemed and taken to be, and to have been respectively legal and valid in the Law, to all Intents and Purposes: Provided nevertheless, that in all Cases in which Appeals shall have been permitted, under the Authority of the said Orders, or shall hereafter be permitted under the Authority thereof, or of this Act, to be interposed after the ordinary Time or Times of appealing, as the same were established by Law previous to the said Orders, had been or shall be elapsed, and in which it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the Lords Commissioners of Appeals in Prize Causes, appointed or to be appointed, that Distribution of the Proceeds of the Prize to which the Appeal relates had been made before Publication of the said former Order, and Notice of an intended Application for an Appeal, under the Authority of the same, was duly given to the Captors, the said Captors shall not be compelled or compellable, by virtue of the said Orders or of this Act, to make any Compensation to the Claimants in case the Sentences or Decrees of Condemnation shall be reversed or varied; but it shall be competent to such Captors, in all such Cases respectively to plead and prove, by Affidavits or otherwise as shall be allowed by the Court, such Distribution, in bar of any Monition to bring in the Proceeds of the Prize, or of any other Proceeding which may be had to compel them to satisfy the Claimants after such Reversal or Variation of such Sentence or Decree; and such Proof being so made shall be and be allowed to be an effectual Bar accordingly.

Appeals from Sentences in the West Indies, or the Bermuda or Bahama Islands, to be valid; but in Appeals permitted under them, after the ordinary Times of appealing, where the Prizes have been distributed previous to Publication of former Order, &c. the Captors not compellable to make Compensation, &c.

II. 'And whereas it is found expedient that the Space of twelve Months, being the Space of Time allowed 'by the Civil Law, and by the general Law of Nations for that Purpose, should be generally allowed for 'the Prosecution of Appeals in all Cases of Prize Causes;' be it therefore further enacted, notwithstanding any Law to the contrary, That it shall and may be lawful in all Causes of Prize, where a Sentence or Decree has been given, or shall hereafter be given, to or for all Persons interested, whether Parties or not in the first Instance, and in whatever Court the Sentence or Decree has been given or shall be given, to take out an Inhibition and prosecute an Appeal within twelve Calendar Months, to be computed from the Day of the Date of such Sentence or Decree appealed from: Provided nevertheless, that in all Cases where Sentences and Decrees have already been given or pronounced, and in which no Appeal having been interposed by any Person who was a Party in the first Instance, within nine Months from the Date of the Sentence or Decree, nor any Notice given of such Appeal, a Distribution of the Proceeds had taken place, the Captors shall not be compelled or compellable to make Compensation to the Claimants, in case the said Sentences or Decrees of Condemnation shall be reversed or varied, on the said Captors giving Proof, to be allowed as aforesaid, of the Distribution of the Proceeds having been made, which shall be an effectual Bar to the said Claimants as hereinbefore enacted.

In Prize Causes Inhibition to prosecute Appeals may be taken out within 12 Months after Date of Decree:

But where Decrees have been already given, and no Appeal interposed within nine Months, &c the Captors not compellable to make Compensation, &c.

III. 'And whereas it is expedient that in special Cases the Time of appealing from such Sentences or 'Decrees should be further enlarged;' be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by his or their Order or Orders in Council, in such special Causes of Prize as in such Order or Orders respectively shall be mentioned, may authorize, and shall have full Power to authorize, any Persons interested, whether Parties or not Parties in the first Instance, in such Causes, and in whatever Court the Sentence or Decree shall have been given or pronounced before the passing of this Act, or shall hereafter be given or pronounced, to take out an Inhibition and prosecute an Appeal at any Time; notwithstanding such Space of twelve Months as aforesaid shall have previously expired: Provided nevertheless, that in all Cases in which his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall, by such Order, give such Authority as aforesaid, and in which it shall appear to the Satisfaction of the Lords Commissioners of Appeals in Prize Causes, that Distribution has been made of the Proceeds of the Prizes at or after the Time or Times when the Right of appealing would have been barred if no such Order had been made, and before Notice of such Order duly given to the Captors, the said Captors duly conforming to the Regulations hereinafter required, the same shall be an effectual Bar to their making Compensation to the Claimants as hereinbefore enacted.

His Majesty in Council may authorize Inhibition to prosecute Appeals to be taken out after Expiration of 12 Months; but if it shall appear that Distribution of Prizes had been made at or after the Time of appealing would have been barred, &c. the Captors not liable to make Compensation.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in all such special Cases in which his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, shall authorize any Persons interested to appeal from any Sentence or Decree after the Space of twelve Months shall have elapsed from the Date of such Sentence or Decree, and after a Distribution of the Proceeds has been made, the Captors, being required by the Claimants, shall deliver over, within a reasonable Time, a true Copy of the Account of Sales, and of all Proceedings had under the Authority of the Sentence or Decree of the Court below, to his Majesty's Procurator General, who is hereby authorized and required to defend the said Appeals in all such Cases, and in such Manner as his Majesty's Advocate General shall direct; and in case the Captors shall neglect or refuse to deliver over such Copy, within a reasonable Time, as aforesaid, or to obey such further Order as the Lords Commissioners of Appeals in Prize Causes may deem necessary to make for the Furtherance of Justice, they shall forfeit all Claim to any Benefit or Discharge under the Provisions of this Act, and be liable to be proceeded against in such Manner as if the Appeal had been duly entered within twelve Months from the Time of such Sentence or Decree in the Court below.

When his Majesty shall so authorize Appeals, the Captors, on Requisition of Claimants, to deliver Copies of Account of Sales, &c. to the King's Procurator General, who shall defend the Appeals, &c. Captors neglecting to deliver such Copies, or to obey the Order of the Commissioners of Appeals, to forfeit the Benefit of this Act.

CAP. XXXIX.

An Act to amend an Act, passed in the twenty-seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for allowing the Importation and Exportation of certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandize in the Ports of Kingston, Savannah la Mar, Montego Bay, and Santa Lucea, in the Island of Jamaica, in the Port of Saint George in the Island of Grenada, in the Port of Roseau in the Island of Dominica, and in the Port of Nassau in the Island of New Providence, one of the Bahama Islands, under certain Regulations and Restrictions.—[7th May 1798.]

27 Geo. 3. c. 27.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the twenty-seventh Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for allowing the Importation and Exportation of certain Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, in the Ports of Kingston, Savannah la Mar, Montego Bay, and Santa Lucea, in the Island of Jamaica, in the Port of Saint George in the Island of Grenada, in the Port of Roseau in the Island of Dominica, and in the Port of Nassau in the Island of New Providence, one of the Bahama Islands, under certain Regulations and Restrictions, it is amongst other Things enacted, that no Goods or Commodities whatever of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of Europe, or the East Indies, or other Places beyond the Cape of Good Hope, shall, upon any Pretence whatever, be exported from the Islands of Grenada or Dominica, or from the Bahama Islands, to any other British Colony or Plantation in America or the West Indies, upon Pain of the Forfeiture in the said Act mentioned: And whereas it is expedient, that Goods and Commodities of the Manufacture of Europe should be permitted to be exported from the said Islands, to any British Colony or Plantation in America or the West Indies;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful to export, in any British Ship or Vessel owned and navigated according to Law, from the Islands of Grenada, Dominica, Antigua, and Trinidad, or from the Bahama Islands, to any British Colony or Plantation in America or the West Indies, any Goods or Commodities whatever of the Manufacture of Europe; any Thing in the said Act, or any other Act, to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Any Goods of European Manufacture may be exported in British Vessels owned and navigated according to Law, from Grenada, &c. to any British Colony in America or the West Indies;

II. And be it further enacted and declared, That it shall be lawful to export in British Ships, owned and navigated according to Law, from the Islands of Grenada, Dominica, Jamaica, Antigua, and Trinidad, or from the Bahama Islands, to any British Colony or Plantation in America or the West Indies, any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize which shall have been legally imported into any of the said Islands of Grenada, Dominica, Jamaica, Antigua, Trinidad, or the Bahama Islands, from any of the Colonies or Plantations in America belonging to or under the Dominion of any Foreign European Sovereign or State.

as also any Goods legally imported into any of those Islands from any Colony in America, belonging to any foreign European State.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Doubt shall arise whether such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, intended to be so exported, shall have been legally imported into the said Islands of Grenada, Dominica, Jamaica, Antigua, or Trinidad, or into the Bahama Islands respectively, the Legality of such Importation shall be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Collector and Comptroller, or other Principal Officer of the Customs at the Port of Exportation, before such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, shall be suffered to be shipped for Exportation.

In case of Doubt, the Legality of Importation to be proved before Exportation of Goods.

CAP. XL.

An Act for repealing the Duties on Houses, Windows, and Lights, on Inhabited Houses, and on Clocks and Watches; and for granting to His Majesty other Duties on Houses, Windows, and Lights, and on Inhabited Houses, in lieu thereof.

[10th May 1798.]

'Most gracious Sovereign,

'WHEREAS the charging separately the several Rates and Duties payable upon Houses, Windows, or Lights, and upon Inhabited Houses, and the additional Rates upon the Amount thereof, has been found inconvenient; and it is expedient that the said several Rates and Duties, and also the Duties on Clocks and Watches, should be repealed, and other Duties granted in lieu thereof:' We, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, in that Part of Great Britain called England, and from and after the Term of Whitsunday

From April 5, 1798, in England, and the Whitsunday one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, all and singular the Rates and Duties upon Houses, Windows, or Lights respectively granted by the several Acts made in the sixth, twenty-fourth, and thirty-seventh Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, and also the Rates and Duties upon Inhabited Houses, granted by an Act passed in the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, and also the additional Rates and Duties charged by several Acts upon the Amount of the said Rates and Duties, and also the Rates and Duties on Clocks and Watches, granted by an Act of the thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, shall severally cease and determine; save and except in all Cases relating to the demanding, recovering, receiving, or paying any Arrears thereof respectively, which may, on the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, and the Term of Whitsunday one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, in England and Scotland respectively, remain unpaid, or any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, Fines, Penalties, or Forfeitures, relating thereto respectively, which shall have been incurred at any Time before the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, and the Term of Whitsunday one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, respectively as aforesaid; save also and except the additional Rates and Duties granted by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, [c. 16.] intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an Aid and Contribution for the Prosecution of the War.

Term of Whitsunday 1798, in Scotland, the Duties on Houses, Windows, or Lights, granted by 6 Geo. 3. c. 38. 24 Geo. 3. c. 38. and 37 Geo. 3. c. 105 and on Houses, by 17 Geo. 3. c. 39. and the additional Duties upon the Amount thereof, and the Duties on Clocks and Watches, granted by 37 Geo. 3. c. 105. to cease;

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, in England, and from and after the Term of Whitsunday one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, in Scotland, in lieu and instead of the said Rates and Duties by this Act repealed, there shall be assessed, raised, levied, and paid, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon Houses, Windows, and Lights, and upon Inhabited Houses, the several Rates and Duties respectively inserted, described, and set forth in the several Schedules marked A. and B. hereunto annexed; which several Schedules, and the Rules therein contained, shall be deemed and construed a Part of this Act, as if the same were incorporated therewith.

and in lieu thereof, the Duties in the annexed Schedules to be levied.

III. And be it further enacted, That every Assessment to be made by virtue of this Act in England, shall be in Force for one whole Year, from the fifth Day of April in the Year in which the same shall be made; and every such Assessment to be made in Scotland, shall be in Force for one whole Year, from the Term of Whitsunday in the Year in which the same shall be made; and the Duties to be levied upon any such Assessments to be made in England and Scotland respectively, shall be charged upon the Occupier or Occupiers for the Time being of Houses, Cottages, or Tenements, in respect whereof the said Duties shall be charged, his, her, or their respective Executors or Administrators: Provided always, that in all Cases where the Rates and Duties by this Act repealed, are directed to be paid by the Landlord or Landlords of any House or Tenement, in such Case the said Landlord or Landlords shall be liable to the Duties hereby granted in like Manner.

Assessments to be made for a Year, and charged upon the Occupiers.

Landlords to be liable to Duties where they paid them under the former Acts.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Duties, hereby directed to be charged on the Occupier or Occupiers of Houses, Cottages, or Tenements, shall be levied upon, and paid by the Occupier or Occupiers for the Time being, without any new Assessment for that Year, notwithstanding any Change in the Occupation of any of such Houses, Cottages, or Tenements.

Occupiers for the Time being to pay Assessments.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Rate or Duty shall be levied by virtue of this Act, for or in respect of any Cottage or Tenement containing not more than six Windows or Lights in the Whole, the Occupier or Occupiers whereof, by reason of his, her, or their Poverty only, and not for any other Cause, is or are exempted from the actual Payment of the usual Taxes, Assessments, and Contributions, towards the Church and Poor.

No Duty to be paid for Tenements containing not more than six Windows, if the Occupiers are exempted, on Account of Poverty, from the Poor Rates.

VI. And be it further enacted, That every Chamber or Apartment, in any of the Inns of Court or of Chancery, or in any College or Hall in any of the Universities of Great Britain, or in any Hall or Office belonging to any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, or any Public Hospital, being severally in the Tenure and Occupation of any Person or Persons chargeable to the said Rates and Duties, containing eight Windows or Lights, or under, shall be charged thereto at the Rate of two Shillings for every such Window or Light; and every such Chamber or Apartment, which shall contain more than eight Windows or Lights, shall be subject to the Duties granted by this Act as if the same was an entire House.

Apartments in Inns of Court, &c. containing eight Windows, or under, to be charged 2s. per Window; and above that Number, as an entire House.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to subject any Hospital, Charity School, or House provided for the Reception and Relief of poor Persons, to the Payment of the Rate or Duty imposed by this Act, except such Apartments therein as are or may be occupied by the Officers or Servants thereof, which shall be subject to the same Duty (according to the Number of Windows in each) as other Inhabited Houses are by this Act subject to.

In Hospitals, &c. only the Apartments occupied by Officers or Servants, subject to Duty.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall extend to charge with the said Duty any Room licensed as a Chapel for the Purposes of Divine Worship, and used for no other Purpose whatsoever; nor to any Windows or Lights in Dairies, or other Rooms or Places described and exempted from the Duties hereby repealed, by an Act, passed in the thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of his Duty not to be charged on licensed Chapels; nor on Dairies, &c. exempted, by 36 Geo. 3. c. 117.

his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to exempt Dairies, and Rooms used solely for making, keeping, and drying Cheese and Butter, from the Duties on Windows and Lights.

The Duties to be paid quarterly in England, and half yearly in Scotland, on the Days specified.

IX. And be it further enacted, That the said several Rates and Duties by this Act granted shall, in that Part of Great Britain called England, be paid quarterly, on the Days hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, On the twentieth Day of June for the Quarter commencing from the fifth Day of April and ending on the fifth Day of July, the twentieth Day of September for the Quarter commencing from the fifth Day of July and ending on the tenth Day of October, the twentieth Day of December for the Quarter commencing from the tenth Day of October and ending on the fifth Day of January, and the twentieth Day of March for the Quarter commencing on the fifth Day of January and ending on the fifth Day of April, in every Year; the first Payment thereof to be made on the twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight: And in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, half-yearly; that is to say, On or before the twenty-ninth Day of September, for the Half Year commencing from the Term of Whitsunday and ending at the Term of Martinmas in the same Year, and on or before the twenty-fifth Day of March, for the Half Year commencing from the Term of Martinmas and ending at the Term of Whitsunday next ensuing; the first Payment thereupon to be made on the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight.

No Window to be deemed stopped up, unless it be with Stone or Brick, or the same Materials as the outside Walls.

X. And be it further enacted, That no Window or Light which shall be stopped up after the passing of this Act, in any such Dwelling-house, shall be deemed to be stopped up within the Meaning of this Act, unless such Window or Light shall be stopped up effectually with Stone or Brick, or with the same Kind of Materials whereof that Part of the outside Walls of such Dwelling-house in which such Window or Light shall be, doth chiefly consist.

Windows in Roofs to be stopped with Materials of the same Nature as the outside Roof.

XI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to any Window or Light in the Roof of any Dwelling-house, which shall be stopped up effectually with Materials of the like Nature of which the Outside of the Roof shall chiefly consist.

No new Window to be made, nor any stopped-up one to be restored, or any to be stopped up, without previous Notice to the Surveyor, on Penalty of 10l per Window.

XII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Window or Light shall be newly made in any Dwelling-house, or Office belonging thereto, in respect whereof any Rate or Duty is hereby granted, nor shall any such Window or Light which shall have been stopped up at the Time when the Assessment in respect of such Dwelling-house shall be made for the then current Year, be restored, nor shall any such Window or Light be stopped up, without, in each of the Cases, six Days' previous Notice thereof, in Writing, being given by the Occupier or Occupiers of such Dwelling-house, to the Surveyor or Inspector of the said Rates or Duties, or one of them, for the Place in which the Assessment was made, describing therein the particular Situation of every such Window or Light in such Dwelling-house, and the Number of such Windows or Lights, if more than one, so to be made or restored; on Pain that the Occupier or Occupiers of such Dwelling-house so offending shall forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds for every Window or Light so newly made, restored, or stopped up, as aforesaid, to be recovered as by this Act is directed, and which shall be paid over and above any Rate or Duty payable in respect of such Dwelling-house.

Surveyor to certify Windows made or restored, and what the parties have been under-rated in the Assessment, to the Commissioners, who shall cause the Assessment to be rectified. Amended Assessments may be appealed against.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Surveyor or Inspector of the Rates or Duties hereby granted, shall receive any such Notice as aforesaid, or shall otherwise find or discover that any Window or Light in any such Dwelling-house, liable to the said Rates or Duties, hath been newly made or restored as aforesaid, which Window or Light hath not been charged in the Assessment for that Year, then such Surveyor or Inspector shall, and he is hereby required to certify the same in Writing under his Hand, by way of Charge, to any two or more of the Commissioners for putting this Act in Execution, and shall state in such Certificate to what Amount the Person or Persons liable to such Rate or Duty hath or have been under-rated in the Assessment for that Year; and thereupon the said Commissioners, or any two or more of them, shall cause such Assessment to be rectified according to such Certificate, and the Rates and Duties so to be charged, shall be levied thereon from the Commencement of the Year in which such Window or Light shall be made or restored, as if such Window or Light had been originally included in such Assessment: Provided always, that every such Assessment, when amended, shall be liable to be appealed against in such Manner as if the same had been originally so made.

No Appeal, nor Abatement of Duties, to be allowed for Windows stopped up, unless proved to have been stopped up previous to April 5, or the Whitsunday preceding the Assessment.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That no Assessment shall be subject to Appeal, nor any Abatement of the Duties allowed, by reason of any Windows or Lights being stopped up, unless it shall be proved, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners for executing this Act, that the same Windows or Lights were respectively stopped up previous to the fifth of April next before the making the said Assessment, if in England, or if in Scotland, that the same Windows or Lights were respectively stopped up previous to the Term of Whitsunday next before the making the said Assessment.

Commissioners of the Land Tax, and the

XV. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Persons named or appointed to be Commissioners for putting in Execution an Act of this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land Tax, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, or who shall hereafter be named or appointed Commissioners for putting in Execution any other Act or Acts of Parliament for granting an Aid to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, by a Land Tax in Great Britain, or any Act of the present or any future Session for continuing the same, shall be Commissioners for executing this Act with relation to the Rates and Duties hereby granted, and the Powers herein contained, in all and every the Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Shires, Stewartries, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, Towns, and Places respectively within the Kingdom of Great Britain; and the several Surveyors and Inspectors, Assessors and Collectors, respectively appointed to put in Execution any of the said Acts relative to the said Rates or Duties hereby repealed, and the several Persons who shall be hereafter appointed Inspectors, Surveyors, Assessors, or Collectors respectively, by virtue of the Powers contained in the several Acts of Parliament now in Force relative to the said Rates and Duties hereby repealed, (and which Powers are hereby declared to continue in Force for the Purposes of this Act,) or by virtue of the Powers contained in this Act, or any other Act passed or to be passed in this present Session of Parliament, shall be Surveyors, Inspectors, Assessors, and Collectors, to put in Execution the present Act with relation to the Duties hereby granted, according to the Powers given to them respectively by the said Acts, or any of them, (and not hereby altered,) or by this Act; and the said Commissioners, and other the Persons qualified to act in the Execution of any of the said Acts, shall, and they are hereby respectively empowered and required to, do all Things necessary for putting this Act in Execution with relation to the Rates and Duties hereby granted as before mentioned, in the like and in as full and ample a Manner as they, or any of them, are or is authorized to put in Execution the said Acts relative to the said Rates and Duties hereby repealed, or any Matters or Things therein respectively contained.

Surveyors, Assessors, and Collectors, appointed under the Acts relative to the Rates hereby repealed, or hereafter to be appointed, to put this Act in Execution.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That within the Bills of Mortality, the Parishes of Saint Mary-le-bone and Saint Pancras, in the County of Middlesex, the Appointment of Collectors of the Rates and Duties hereby granted, shall belong wholly to such of the Commissioners for executing this Act, who shall reside in the Parishes for which such Collectors respectively are to be appointed, in case there shall be two or more Commissioners there resident, and no other Commissioners shall in such Case interfere; and it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners for executing this Act, and residing within the respective Parishes as aforesaid, to appoint such Persons to be Collectors, who shall have given Security to the Satisfaction of the Church-wardens and Overseers, or Guardians of the Poor, or any two or more of them, or any seven or more of the Vestry, where a select Vestry shall be appointed as aforesaid, and who shall be thought by the said Commissioners to be of Ability to execute the Office of Collector; and that in Default of appointing such Persons who shall have given such Security, then the said Commissioners residing as aforesaid, shall name such Persons as they shall think of Ability to execute the said Office: Provided always, that where two or more Commissioners shall not be resident in any Parish for which Collectors are to be appointed, then a Commissioner or Commissioners residing in any adjacent Parish, may concur in the Appointment of such Collectors.

Within the Bills of Mortality, St. Mary-le-bone, and Pancras, the Appointment of Collectors to belong to the resident Commissioners, &c. who may appoint such Persons as have given Security.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That the said several Rates and Duties by this Act granted, shall severally and respectively be assessed, raised, levied, collected, and received, in such and the like Form and Manner, and with such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, and according to such Rules, Methods, and Directions, as are prescribed and appointed by any Act or Acts now in Force, for assessing, raising, levying, collecting, receiving, and paying the Rates and Duties upon Houses, Windows, and Lights, and upon Inhabited Houses, hereby repealed, or any other Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, as far as the same were in Force at and immediately before the Time of passing this Act, and are applicable to the several and respective Rates and Duties hereby granted, or any of them, and are not altered by this Act; except all Clauses of Exemption as are contained in any of the said Acts of the sixth, twenty-fourth, and thirty-seventh Years of his present Majesty, for granting any of the Rates or Duties on Windows or Lights, hereby repealed; and all and every the Powers, Authorities, Methods, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things contained in any Act or Acts in relation to the said respective Rates or Duties hereby repealed, or any of them, and in Force at and immediately before the passing of this Act; or in any Act or Acts passed or to be passed in this Session of Parliament, for the assessing, raising, levying, collecting, and paying the Rates and Duties hereby repealed, or any other the Rates and Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, (except such Clauses of Exemption as aforesaid,) shall be in full Force, and be severally and respectively duly observed, practised, and put in Execution, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, for the assessing, raising, levying, collecting, and paying the several Rates and Duties by this Act granted, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same Powers, Authorities, Methods, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, (except as aforesaid,) were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

Duties to be assessed and collected as former Duties and others under the Management of the Commissioners of Taxes, &c.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That if in any Parish or Place in England, any Failure shall happen in the Appointment of the Assessor or Assessors to take upon him or themselves the Execution of this Act, on or before the thirtieth Day of April in any Year, or in the Appointment of a Collector or Collectors to take upon him or themselves the Execution of this Act, on or before the thirtieth Day of May in any Year, it shall and may be lawful for any two Justices of the Peace of the County or Riding in which such Parish or Place shall be situate, and they, on Notice of such Default from the Surveyor or Inspector of the said Rates and Duties hereby granted, are strictly enjoined and required to appoint an Assessor or Assessors, or a Collector or Collectors, as the Case may require, from the Inhabitants of such Parish or Place, or such other Person or Persons as might by any Law now in Force be appointed Assessors and Collectors for such Parish or Place where such Default shall happen, and for that Purpose shall issue their joint Precepts to such and so many of the said Inhabitants, or other Person or Persons aforesaid, as they shall think necessary, to appear before the said Justices, for the Purpose of taking upon themselves the said respective Offices; and if any Person on whom the Precept of such Justices shall be served, shall neglect to appear according to the Precept, or any Person appointed or to be appointed, either by the Commissioners for executing this Act, or the Justices of the Peace as aforesaid, to be an Assessor or Collector of the Duties by this Act granted, shall wilfully neglect or refuse to take upon himself the Office of an Assessor or Collector, or shall wilfully neglect or refuse to perform his Duty in the due and speedy Execution of his Office, according to this Act, or if any Person so appointed to be an Assessor shall neglect or refuse to take the Oath by this Act directed to be taken by Assessors, every such Person so offending shall forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Pounds.

In any Place where Assessors or Collectors are not appointed, any two Justices, on Notice of such Default from the Surveyor, may appoint them.

Persons neglecting to obey the Precept of the Justices, or to take upon them the Office of Assessor or Collector, &c. to forfeit 20l.

If two Commissioners do not meet, one with a Justice, or if none should meet, two Justices, may act.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That if in any County, Riding, or Place in England, or in any Hundred, Rape, Lathe, Wapentake, or Ward, in such County, Riding, or Place, two or more Commissioners shall not have attended, or shall not attend at any Meeting appointed to be held, or which ought to be held in pursuance of the Directions contained in any Act hereby declared to be in Force, in relation to the Duties granted by this Act, or any Act of the present Session of Parliament, or this Act, or shall not have met, or shall not meet, to execute in any Particular this Act, or any other Act passed in this Session of Parliament, within the Time limited by the Laws in Force in relation to the Duties granted by this Act, it shall be lawful for any one Commissioner, together with any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for such County, Riding, or Place, or (if no Commissioner shall have so attended or met, or if no Commissioner shall so attend or meet) for any two or more such Justices of the Peace, to do all Acts, Matters, and Things, which are by this Act, or any Act or Acts in Force, directed to be done by Commissioners at their General Meetings, or at their Meetings within their respective Hundreds, Rapes, Lathes, Wapentakes, or Wards; and all such Justices of the Peace, being duly warned of such Default by any Inspector, Surveyor, Collector, or Assessor of the said Rates and Duties, shall, in a convenient Time, assemble at the usual Place of holding such Meetings for the Execution of this Act; and all such Acts, Matters, and Things, so done by any such Commissioners and Justices of the Peace, or by two or more such Justices of the Peace as aforesaid, shall be as good, valid, and effectual in the Law, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Acts, Matters, and Things, had been done by two or more such Commissioners; any Thing contained in any Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

If Collectors do not demand Duties, or if they neglect to execute Warrants for Recovery of them within a limited Time, the Parish to be answerable for the same.

XX. And be it further enacted, That the Parish or Place in England for which any Person or Persons shall be appointed Collector or Collectors of the Rates and Duties hereby granted, shall be answerable for his or their duly demanding the said Rates or Duties of the respective Persons charged therewith, within ten Days after the same are payable by virtue of this Act, according to the Directions herein contained, and also for his or their paying the Sums by him or them received, to the Receiver General of the said Rates or Duties, according to the Provisions of the Laws in Force; and if any Collector shall neglect or refuse to demand Payment of the said Rates and Duties of the respective Persons charged therewith, or leave a Demand in Writing at their respective Places of last Abode, within the Time herein limited, or in case of Default of Payment thereof upon such Demand, shall neglect or refuse to execute the Warrant or Precept of the Commissioners or Justices for recovering of the same, within two Calendar Months after the said Rates and Duties are payable by this Act, it shall not be lawful for such Collector to insert in the Schedule, to be by the Receiver General returned into the Exchequer, the Name of such Person, as having made Default of Payment of any of the Sums rated or assessed on such Person, but the Parish or Place for which such Collector shall have been appointed, shall be answerable for the same; and no Collector shall be allowed to insert in any such Schedule the Name of any Person to be returned into the Exchequer as not having paid the Rates or Duties by this Act granted, unless such Collector shall make Oath, or, being one of the People called Quakers, shall make and subscribe a solemn Affirmation, before two Commissioners, or before one Commissioner and one Justice of the Peace, or before two Justices of the Peace, (who respectively shall certify the said Oath or Affirmation on the said Schedule,) that the Sum for which such Person is so returned is due and wholly unpaid, either to such Collector, or to any other Person or Persons for such Collector, to the best of his Knowledge and Belief, and that the Person so making Default is unable to pay the same, and by reason of his or her Poverty is exempted from the actual Payment of all Taxes, Assessments, or Contributions towards the Church and Poor; or that such Person became insolvent or bankrupt before the Day on which the Rates and Duties became payable, and had not Goods and Chattels sufficient whereon to raise and levy the said Rates and Duties, within the Parish or Place for which such Collector shall have been appointed, at any Time since the said Rates or Duties became payable; or that such Person removed from the Parish or Place for which such Collector shall have been appointed, before the Day on which the Rates or Duties became payable, without leaving therein sufficient Goods and Chattels whereon the Rates and Duties then payable could be raised and levied, and that there was not nor are any Goods or Chattels of any other Person or Persons liable to the Payment of the said Rates and Duties in Arrear, or any Part thereof, whereby the same, or any Part thereof, could or might be raised and levied; which Oath or Affirmation shall be indorsed on such Schedule, and which Schedule shall specify the Names of the Persons making such Default, and the Reason for returning each such Defaulter.

No Collector to insert in any Schedule to be returned into the Exchequer any Person as a Defaulter, unless he make Oath of certain Particulars.

Arrears of Duties to be re-assessed upon the Parish.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That any Arrear of the said Rates and Duties arising by the Default as aforesaid, or by the Failure of any Collector, for which any Parish or Place in that Part of Great Britain called England shall be answerable, shall be re-assessed and charged within and upon such Parish or Place, on the Amount of the Assessment which shall be made of the said Rates and Duties granted by this Act, in the Year commencing from the fifth of April next after the Time when such Arrear accrued, by duly apportioning the Amount of such Arrear amongst the several Persons assessed in that Year, according to each Person's Assessment, as nearly as the Case will admit; and by the like Rules, Methods, and Directions by which the original Assessment was made, to be raised and levied in such Manner as any Re-assessment may by any Law now in Force be raised and levied: Provided always, that the Sum so to be re-assessed shall not be charged on the Amount of any of the Rates, Duties, or Sums of Money granted by the said Act, passed in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an Aid and Contribution for the Prosecution of the War.

If any Person shall remove out of the Limits of the Collector without paying the Duties, or leaving sufficient Goods on the Premises, he shall forfeit 20 l. additional.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, if any Occupier of any Dwelling-house in that Part of Great Britain called England, rated or assessed to any of the Duties by this Act granted, shall remove out of the Limits of the Collectors of the Duties assessed on such Dwelling-house, without first paying or discharging, or causing to be paid or discharged, all the Rates and Duties charged upon him or her in respect of such Dwelling-house, and which shall then be due and payable, or without leaving in or upon such Dwelling-house sufficient Goods and Chattels whereon the said Rates and Duties in Arrear may be raised and levied, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay, over and above the said Rates and Duties so left unpaid as aforesaid, the Sum of twenty Pounds, to be recovered as by this Act is directed.

No Goods to be taken by virtue of any Process, except at the Suit of the Landlord for Rent, or of the King, unless the Party shall previously undertake to pay the Arrears of Duty, not exceeding a Year's.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, no Goods or Chattels whatever, lying and being in or upon any Dwelling-house in that Part of Great Britain called England, or any of the Offices thereunto belonging, which shall have been rated or assessed to any of the Duties by this Act granted, shall be liable to be taken by virtue of any Execution, or other Process, Warrant, or Authority, except at the Suit of the Landlord for Rent, (other than at the Suit of the King,) on any Account or Pretence whatever, unless the Party at whose Suit the said Execution or Seizure shall be sued out or made, shall, before the Sale or Removal of such Goods from off the Premises by virtue of such Execution or Seizure, undertake in Writing to pay to the Collector or Collectors of the said Duties, all Arrears of the same Duties which shall be due in respect of the Premises at the Time of taking such Goods or Chattels by virtue of such Execution or Seizure; provided such Duties shall not be in Arrear for more than one Year; and in case the said Duties shall be in Arrear for more than one Year, then the said Party at whose Suit such Execution or Seizure is sued out or made, paying the said Collector or Collectors the aforesaid Duties due in respect of the Premises for one whole Year, may proceed to execute his Judgment, or proceed in his Seizure as he might have done before the making of this Act; but in case of Refusal to pay the said Duties, the said Collector or Collectors are hereby authorized and required to distrain such Goods or Chattels, and proceed to Sale thereof, according to the Laws now in Force, in order to obtain Payment of the said Duties in Arrear for one Year; and all Remedies, Advantages, Powers, Methods, and Things, which by any Act or Acts concerning Bankrupts, or concerning the Method of recovering Rent in Arrear, are given and granted to any Creditors, Lessors, or Landlords respectively, and all the Powers and Provisions of an Act, passed in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of King George the Second *, intituled, An Act for the more easy and effectual proceeding upon Distresses to be made by Warrants of Justices of the Peace, and also of another Act, passed in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty †, intituled, An Act to authorize Justices of the Peace to impose Fines upon Constables, Overseers, and other Peace or Parish Officers, for Neglect of Duty, and on Masters of Apprentices for ill Usage of such their Apprentices; and also to make Provision for the Execution of Warrants of Distress granted by Magistrates, as far as the same relate to the Execution of Warrants of Distress granted by Justices of the Peace, shall be used and practised by the respective Commissioners for executing this Act, and by any Collector, Surveyor, or Inspector of the said Rates and Duties, acting under the Authority of the said Commissioners, for recovering and securing any Arrears of the said Rates and Duties (over and above the Powers, Remedies, Rules, and Regulations, contained in any Act or Acts relative to the Duties hereby repealed, or in this Act) as fully and effectually as if the same Remedies, Advantages, Powers, Provisions, Methods, and Things, were particularly and severally repeated by and re-enacted in this Act.

In case of Refusal the Collectors may distrain and sell the Goods for one Year's Duty.

Commissioners and Justices acting as such to take the following

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, every Person appointed or to be appointed to put this Act in Execution as a Commissioner, or any Justice of the Peace executing the Office of a Commissioner, before he shall act as a Commissioner in Execution thereof, or shall execute the Office of such Commissioner, (except in administering the Oath herein-after expressed,) shall take, and he is hereby required to take the following Oath; (that is to say,)

Oath,

'I A. B. do swear, That I will truly, faithfully, impartially, and honestly, according to the best of my Skill and Knowledge, execute the several Powers and Authorities reposed in me as a Commissioner, by the several Acts relative to the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes; and that I will judge and determine upon all Appeals, and all other Matters and Things which shall be brought before me as a Commissioner under the said several Acts, and every or any of them, without Favour or Affection. So help me GOD.'

which may be administered by a Commissioner or Justice although he has not taken it.

Which Oath any one of the Persons appointed to put this Act in Execution as a Commissioner, or any Justice of the Peace in the County, Riding, Shire, Stewartry, City, or Place, where the Assessment is to be made, is hereby authorized to administer, although the said Person administering the same hath not himself previously taken the Oath; and which Oath so taken shall be subscribed by the Party taking the same; and the Names of all the Persons so subscribing shall, within one Month afterwards, be transmitted to Oath to be sub-

Subscribed, and the Names of such Subscribers to be transmitted to the Tax Office. 50 l. Penalty for acting as Commissioner without having taken the Oath.

to the Office of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes at Somerset Place, in the County of Middlesex, by the Clerk of the General Meeting of the Commissioners, or the Clerks of the Division Meetings respectively; and if any Person shall, from and after the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, presume to act as a Commissioner in Execution of any of the Acts relative to the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, (except in administering the said Oath,) before he shall have taken the same Oath herein mentioned, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds.

No Person to act without taking the Oath of Allegiance, &c.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to authorize any Person to act in the Execution of this Act, without first taking the Oath of Allegiance, Supremacy, and Abjuration, or taking and subscribing the Declaration of Fidelity, required by any Law now in Force to be taken or made and subscribed in the Manner and in the Cases therein prescribed.

Assessors to take the following Oath,

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That every Person appointed or to be appointed an Assessor of the said Rates and Duties granted by this Act, shall, and he is hereby required to take an Oath, or, being one of the People called Quakers, to make and subscribe a solemn Affirmation, in the following Form; (that is to say,)

'I A. B. do swear, [or, affirm, as the Case may require,] That in the Assessment which I am required to make by Authority of the several Acts relative to the Duties under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and now in Force, I will act faithfully and honestly, and without Favour or Affection, according to the best of my Skill and Knowledge. So help me GOD.'

which two Commissioners may administer. 50 l. Penalty for acting as an Assessor without taking the Oath.

Which Oath or Affirmation any two or more of the Commissioners in the County, Riding, Shire, Stewartry, City, or Place, where the Assessments are to be made, are hereby authorized and required to administer; and if any Person so to be appointed Assessor as aforesaid, from and after the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, shall presume to act in the Execution of the said Office or Employment of an Assessor before he shall have taken the said Oath or Affirmation, (as the Case shall require,) he shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence the Sum of fifty Pounds.

No Commissioner to act in London, St. Martin-le-Grand, or West-minster, without taking the following Oath of his Qualification, XXVII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to authorize any Person to act as a Commissioner in the Execution of this Act, or any of the Powers herein contained, within the City of London, and Liberty of Saint Martin-le-Grand, nor within the City and Liberty of Westminster, without taking the Oath, or making and subscribing the Affirmation, of his Qualification, in the Form following; (that is to say,)

'I A. B. do swear, [or, affirm, as the Case may require,] That truly and bonâ fide I have such an Estate, consisting of [specifying the same] of the clear Value of two thousand Pounds, over and above what will satisfy and discharge all my Debts. So help me GOD.'

which may be administered by any Commissioner of those Districts. Penalty of 200 l. for acting without taking the Oath.

Which Oath or Affirmation any one of the Persons qualified and appointed to act as a Commissioner within the City of London, the Liberty of Saint Martin-le-Grand, or within the City and Liberty of Westminster respectively, is hereby authorized to administer, although the said Person administering the same hath not himself previously taken the same Oath, or made or subscribed the same Affirmation; and if any Person shall, from and after the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, presume to act as a Commissioner in the Execution of this Act, or any of the Powers herein contained, within the City of London and Liberty of Saint Martin-le-Grand, or within the City and Liberty of Westminster, (except in administering the said Oath or Affirmation last mentioned,) before he shall have taken such Oath, or made such Affirmation, as is before directed, he shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

If the Charge or Surcharge, in a Case transmitted to the Judges, &c. shall be confirmed, the Party shall pay 40 s. Costs to his Majesty.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if, according to the Opinion of any of the Justices, Judges, or Barons, in any of the Courts at Westminster, or in the Court of Session or Court of Exchequer in Scotland, to whom any Case hath been or shall, at the Request of the Appellant or Appellants, be transmitted in pursuance of any of the Directions contained in the said Acts, or any of them, the Charge or Surcharge, upon which the Question contained in such Case shall have arisen, shall, after the passing of this Act, be confirmed and established, the Person or Persons so charged or surcharged shall, for the Costs and Charges attending the same, pay, to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the Sum of forty Shillings, in Addition to the Charge or Surcharge, or the Part thereof, so confirmed and established as aforesaid; and which Costs shall be added to such Assessment, and levied and collected therewith, and as Part of the Rates and Duties so assessed.

Commissioners may have the Opinion of any of the Judges, &c. in Matters of Law arising on any Appeal, on stating the Case specially,

XXIX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if the Commissioners before whom any Appeal shall be depending, shall, previous to their Determination thereupon, be desirous of obtaining the Opinion of any of the said Justices, Judges, or Barons, in any Matter of Law arising upon such Appeal, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to state specially, after communicating to the Party complaining, such intended Statement, and sign the Case upon which the Doubts of the said Commissioners arose; and the said Commissioners are hereby required to adjourn the Determination of such Appeal until the Opinion of such Justice, Judge, or Baron, shall be obtained; and every such Justice, Judge, or Baron, is hereby required, quired, with all convenient Speed, to return an Answer to such Case so transmitted, with his Opinion subscribed thereto, which Opinion so certified shall have the Force and Effect of a Determination in a Court of Record, and the said Commissioners, nor the Party appealing, shall not be subject to any Costs in respect of the Case so transmitted. without subjecting the Parties to Costs.

XXX. 'And whereas by divers of the said Acts for granting several of the said Duties hereby repealed, 'it was provided, that during the Space of ten Years then next ensuing, there should be provided and kept, 'in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of Exchequer, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies 'arising from the said respective Duties should, together with such other Duties which were respectively 'granted for the Purposes of making a permanent Addition to the Public Revenue, and of defraying any 'increased Charge occasioned by certain Loans made, and Stock created, by Authority of Parliament, 'should be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or 'Successors, upon any Account whatever;' be it therefore further enacted, That during the Remainders of the respective Periods of ten Years, to be computed from the respective Times of granting such of the said Duties as aforesaid, there shall be separately entered in the Books provided and kept in the said Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt, for the Purposes aforesaid, at the End of every Quarter of a Year, ending the fifth Day of January, the fifth Day of April, the fifth Day of July, and the tenth Day of October, yearly, the Proportions herein-after mentioned of the said Duties hereby granted for the Purpose of supplying the several Accounts of the said Rates and Duties hereby repealed; (that is to say,) there shall be reserved out of the Duties hereby granted, in the Consolidated Fund, for the general Account existing prior to the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, one fourth Part of the several Sums of three hundred and twenty-seven thousand nine hundred Pounds, and five hundred and fifteen thousand Pounds, being respectively the Average Annual Amounts, for three Years preceding the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, of the Rates and Duties hereby repealed, which were granted by several Acts, passed in the sixth and twenty-fourth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, and one fourth Part of the further Sum of one hundred and forty-eight thousand six hundred Pounds, being the Average Annual Amount, for the said Period, of the Rates and Duties hereby repealed, which were granted by an Act, passed in the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty; and that after reserving such fourth Part of the said several Sums of Money, the Remainder thereof shall, at the End of each such Quarter, be entered in the separate Accounts directed to be kept in the Office of the said Auditor, in the Proportion herein-after prescribed; (that is to say,) in the separate Account directed to be kept by several Acts passed in the thirty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, out of the Duties on Houses, Windows, or Lights, contained in the Schedule A. one fourth Part of the Annual Sum of thirty-six thousand Pounds; out of the Duties on Inhabited Houses, contained in the Schedule B. one fourth Part of the Annual Sum of fourteen thousand eight hundred and sixty Pounds, being the Amounts of ten Pounds per Centum granted on the Produce of certain of the said Duties hereby repealed by Acts passed in the said last-mentioned Year; and in the separate Account directed to be kept by several Acts passed in the thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, out of the said Duties on Houses, Windows, and Lights, one fourth Part of the Annual Sums of thirty-six thousand Pounds, and fifty-one thousand five hundred Pounds; and out of the said Duties on Inhabited Houses, one fourth Part of the Annual Sum of fourteen thousand eight hundred and sixty Pounds, being the Amounts of ten Pounds per Centum granted on the Produce of certain other of the said Duties hereby repealed, by an Act passed in the said last-mentioned Year; and in the separate Account directed to be kept as aforesaid, by several Acts passed in the thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, the Remainder of the Rates and Duties by this Act granted, as the same shall respectively arise at the End of each such Quarter. CAP. XLI.

An Act for repealing the Duties upon Male Servants, Carriages, Horses, Mules, and Dogs; and for granting to His Majesty other Duties in lieu thereof.

[10th May 1798.]

'Most gracious Sovereign,

'WHEREAS the present Mode of charging separately the several Rates and Duties payable upon 'Male Servants, Carriages, Horses, Mules, and Dogs, and the Additional Rates charged upon 'the Amount thereof, under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, has been 'found inconvenient: And whereas it is expedient that the said several Rates and Duties should be re- 'pealed, and other Duties granted in lieu thereof, and that further Provision should be made for enforcing 'a due Collection of the said Duties:' We, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, all and singular the Rates and Duties upon Male Servants, Carriages, Horses, Mules, and Dogs, and also all and singular the additional Rates and Duties charged upon the Amount of the said Rates and Duties, shall severally cease and determine, save and except in all Cases relating to the demanding, recovering, receiving, or paying, any Arrears thereof respectively, which may, on the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, remain unpaid, or any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, Fines, Penalties, or Forfeitures, relating thereto respectively, which shall have been incurred at any Time before the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight.

From April 5, 1798, the Duties upon Male Servants, Carriages, Horses, and Dogs, and the additional Duties on the Amount thereof, to cease; and in lieu thereof, the Duties in the annexed Schedules to be levied.

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, in lieu and instead of the said Rates and Duties by this Act repealed, there shall be assessed, raised, levied, and paid, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon all Male Servants retained or employed by any Person or Persons in the several Capacities mentioned in an Act passed in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty *, and upon all Carriages kept by any Person or Persons, and upon all Horses, Mares, or Geldings, kept and used by any Person or Persons for riding, or for the Purpose of drawing any such Carriage, and upon all other Horses, Mares, and Geldings, and upon all Mules and Dogs kept by any Person or Persons, the several Yearly Rates and Duties respectively mentioned, described, and set forth, in the several Schedules hereunto annexed; which several Schedules, and the Rules therein contained, shall be deemed and construed a Part of this Act, as if the same were incorporated therewith.

* c. 43.

Duties in England, to be paid quarterly;

III. And be it further enacted, That the said several Rates and Duties by this Act granted in that Part of Great Britain called England, shall be paid Quarterly, on the Days hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, On the twentieth Day of June for the Quarter commencing from the fifth Day of April and ending on the fifth Day of July, the twentieth Day of September for the Quarter commencing from the fifth Day of July and ending on the tenth Day of October, the twentieth Day of December for the Quarter commencing from the tenth Day of October and ending on the fifth Day of January, and the twentieth Day of March for the Quarter commencing from the fifth Day of January and ending on the fifth Day of April, in every Year; the first Payment thereof to be made on the twentieth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight.

and in Scotland, half-yearly.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said several Rates and Duties by this Act granted in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall be paid Half-yearly; that is to say, On or before the twenty-ninth Day of September for the Half-year commencing from the Term of Whitsunday and ending at the Term of Martinmas in the same Year, and on or before the twenty-fifth Day of March for the Half-year commencing from the Term of Martinmas and ending at the Term of Whitsunday next ensuing; the first Payment thereupon to be made on the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight.

And be it further enacted, That every Person liable to deliver any such List as aforesaid, shall, yearly, (that is to say,) between the fifth Day of April and the thirtieth Day of May, in every Year, after such Person shall have delivered such List, or ought so to have done, in pursuance of this Act, and he and she is hereby required to cause to be prepared, and to be delivered at one of the respective Offices beforementioned, as the Case shall require, a true and particular List of the greatest Number of such Servants retained or employed, and of Carriages, Horses, Mules, and Dogs, kept by such Person at any one Time in the Course of the Year in which the former List was delivered, or ought to have been so delivered as aforesaid, which Lists shall be prepared in the Forms before prescribed, and according to the Directions of this Act in respect thereof; and shall renew the same in the same Manner in every Year, so long as such Person shall be liable to the said Rates and Duties, or any of them, on Pain that every Person offending in any of the said Particulars last mentioned, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Persons delivering Lists to receive Receipts for them in the Form in Schedule (F) annexed.

XV. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall deliver any such List duly prepared and filled up, according to the Directions of this Act, to the Surveyor or Inspector, or other Person to be appointed by the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, shall be entitled to receive, from the Person to whom such List shall be delivered in pursuance of this Act, an indented Receipt signed by such Surveyor or Inspector, or other Person aforesaid, acknowledging the Delivery of a List from the Person by or on whose Behalf the same shall be prepared as aforesaid, which Receipt shall be made out in the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed; and the same shall be received and taken as Proof of the Delivery of a List in pursuance of this Act, in any Court, or before any Person or Persons, and in all Cases whatever; and if any Person receiving any such List under the Authority of this Act, shall neglect or refuse to deliver an indented Receipt as hereby is directed, every such Person shall forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds.

20l. Penalty on Persons receiving Lists not delivering Receipts.

XVI. Pro-

Penalty for Omissions in Lists not to be sued for where the Parties have been surcharged previous to Suits.

XVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Penalty by this Act imposed, for omitting in the List hereby required to be delivered, any Servants, Carriages, Horses, Mules, or Dogs, which ought to have been returned as aforesaid, shall not be sued or prosecuted for, against any Person or Persons whatever, in any Case where such Person or Persons, before the Commencement of such Suit or Prosecution, shall have been surcharged and assessed in double the Duty hereby granted for such Servants, Carriages, Horses, Mules, or Dogs.

Act not to vary Regulations of Acts respecting Delivery of Lists to Assessors.

XVII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to vary the Regulations contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament respecting the Lists required to be delivered to the Assessor or Assessors of any Parish or Place.

Householders to enter in a Book Account of Servants, &c. kept by Lodgers; and Livery Stable Keepers of Horses or Carriages standing at Livery, and to deliver Lists containing the Particulars thereof, XVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Inhabitant Householder of any House in which there shall be any Lodger or Inmate residing therein, keeping any Servant, or any Carriage, Horse, Mule, or Dog, liable to any of the said Duties, shall, from Time to Time, enter into a Book an Account of every Servant, and of every Carriage, Horse, Mule, or Dog, belonging to such Lodger or Inmate; and every Livery Stable Keeper or other Person receiving any Horses or Carriages to stand at Livery, or delivered to him or her to be kept, shall also from Time to Time enter into a Book an Account of every Horse or Carriage standing at Livery, or kept by him or her as aforesaid; and every Person hereby required to enter and keep such Account shall, within twenty Days after the fifth Day of July and the tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, and within twenty Days after the fifth Day of January, the fifth Day of April, the fifth Day of July, and the tenth Day of October in every subsequent Year, deliver a List in Writing of every such Lodger or Inmate residing in the House of every such Householder, and of every Proprietor of any Carriage, Horse, or Mule, standing at Livery, or delivered to such Stable Keeper or other Person to be kept as aforesaid; and every such List to be delivered by such Householder shall, to the best of his or her Knowledge or Belief, express the Christian and Surname of every such Lodger or Inmate, and also of every Servant; and every such List to be delivered by such Stable Keeper or other Person aforesaid, shall, to the best of his or her Knowledge or Belief, express the Christian and Surname of the Proprietor of every such Carriage, Horse, or Mule; and every such List shall also contain the greatest Number of Servants, Carriages, Horses, Mules, and Dogs, which any such Lodger or Inmate, or any such Proprietor, shall have retained or kept in the Dwelling-house or Premises of such Householder, Stable Keeper, or other Person, to the best of his or her Knowledge or Belief; and if any Inhabitant Householder, or any Stable Keeper, or other Person aforesaid, shall neglect to keep such Account, or to deliver such last-mentioned List, or shall wilfully omit any Description which ought to be contained therein, he or she so offending shall forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds.

on Penalty of 50l.

Persons who have returned Blank Lists filled up not liable to deliver others.

XIX. Provided always, That all Persons who shall have returned the Blank Lists delivered to them by the Parish Assessors, filled up according to the Directions of this Act, with the greatest Number of Servants, Carriages, Horses, Mules, and Dogs, retained by them, or by Persons lodging in their Houses, shall not be liable to prepare and deliver in the Lists above mentioned.

Monies to be paid into the Exchequer.

XX. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies arising by the said Rates and Duties hereby imposed, the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted, shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, and shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund.

Duties to be entered in the Books in the Office of the Auditor in certain Proportions.

XXI. 'And whereas by divers of the said Acts for granting several of the said Duties hereby repealed, it 'was provided, that during the Space of ten Years then next ensuing, there should be provided and kept, in 'the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt of Exchequer, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies arising 'from the said respective Duties should, together with such other Duties which were respectively granted 'for the Purpose of making a permanent Addition to the Public Revenue, and of defraying any increased 'Charge occasioned by certain Loans made and Stock created by Authority of Parliament, be entered se-'parate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, upon any 'Account whatever;' be it therefore further enacted, That during the Remainders of the respective Periods of ten Years, to be computed from the respective Times of granting such of the said Duties as aforesaid, there shall be separately entered in the Books provided and kept in the said Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt, for the Purposes aforesaid, at the End of every Quarter of a Year, ending the fifth Day of January, the fifth Day of April, the fifth Day of June, and the tenth Day of October, yearly, the Proportions hereinafter mentioned of the said Duties hereby granted for the Purpose of supplying the several Accounts of the said Rates and Duties hereby repealed; (that is to say,) there shall be reserved in the Consolidated Fund, for the general Account existing prior to the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, out of the Duties hereby granted on Male Servants, One-fourth Part of the Sum of ninety-three thousand Pounds; out of the Duties hereby granted on Carriages, One-fourth Part of the Sum of two hundred thousand Pounds; and out of the Duties hereby granted on Horses used for the Purpose of riding, or for the Purpose of drawing certain Carriages, One-fourth Part of the Sum of one hundred and six thousand Pounds; being respectively the annual Average Amounts, for three Years preceding the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, of the Rates and Duties on Male Servants, Carriages, and Horses, used for the Purposes aforesaid, hereby repealed; and that after reserving such Fourth Part of the said several Sums of Money, arising from the said respective Duties, the Remainder thereof, and also all other Monies arising from the Duties hereby granted, shall, at the End of each such Quarter, be entered in the separate Accounts directed to be kept at the Office of the said Auditor, in the Proportions hereinafter prescribed; (that is to say,) in the separate Account directed to be kept by several Acts, passed in the thirty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, the Sum of nine thousand three hundred and thirty Pounds out of the said Duties on Male Servants, the further Sum of twenty thousand Pounds out of the said Duties on Carriages, and the further Sum of ten thousand six hundred Pounds out of the said Duties on Horses used for the Purposes aforesaid, being respectively the Amounts of ten Pounds per Centum, granted on the Produce of the said Duties on such Male Servants, Carriages, and Horses, hereby repealed, by certain Acts passed in the said thirty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty; and in the separate Account directed to be kept by several Acts passed in the thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, the Sum of nine thousand three hundred and thirty Pounds out of the said Duties on Male Servants, and the further Sum of twenty thousand Pounds out of the said Duties on Carriages, being respectively the Amounts of ten Pounds per Centum granted on the Produce of the said Duties on such Servants and Carriages, by certain Acts passed in the thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty; the further Sum of one hundred and six thousand Pounds out of the said Duties on Horses used for the Purposes aforesaid, being the estimated Produce for one Year, ending the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, according to the said Average Amount for three Years, of the former Duties on such Horses; the further Sum of ninety-five thousand Pounds out of the said Duties on other Horses and Mules, being the actual Produce thereof for one Year, ending on the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven; and the further Sum of seventy thousand Pounds out of the said Duties on Dogs, being the actual Produce thereof for one Year, ending on the said fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven; and on the separate Account directed to be kept as aforesaid, by several Acts passed in the thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, the Remainder of the Rates and Duties by this Act granted, as the same shall respectively arise at the End of each such Quarter.

Penalties sued for within six Months, to be Half to his Majesty and Half to the Informer.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That one Moiety of all pecuniary Penalties and Forfeitures hereby imposed, shall, if sued for within the Space of six Calendar Months from the Time of such Penalties or Forfeitures being incurred, be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof, with full Costs of Suit, to the Person or Persons who shall inform or sue for the same within the Time aforesaid, and which shall and may be sued for in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, for Offences committed in England, or in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, for Offences committed in Scotland, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Essoign, Protection, Privilege, Wager of Law, nor more than one Imparlance shall be allowed; but nevertheless it shall be lawful for his Majesty's Attorney General in England, or his Majesty's Advocate in Scotland, in case it shall appear to his Satisfaction that any Penalty or Forfeiture was incurred without Intention of Fraud, to stay all further Proceedings, by entering a noli prosequi, or otherwise, with respect as well to the Share of such Penalty or Forfeiture claimed by such Informer or Informers, as to the Share thereof belonging to his Majesty.

Attorney General in England, and his Majesty's Advocate in Scotland, may stay Proceedings.

Recovery and Application of Penalties not sued for in six Months.

Penalties to his Majesty to be paid as the Commissioners of Taxes shall appoint, &c.

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in Default of Prosecution within the Time hereinbefore limited, no such Penalty or Forfeiture shall be afterwards recoverable, except in the Name of his Majesty's Attorney General in England, and of his Majesty's Advocate in Scotland, by Information in the Court of Exchequer in England or Scotland respectively, in which Case the Whole of such Penalty or Forfeiture shall belong to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; and that all Penalties and Forfeitures, and Shares of Penalties and Forfeitures, incurred as aforesaid, belonging to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall be paid into the Hands of such Person or Persons as the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes shall appoint to receive the same, to the Use of his Majesty; and that in all Cases where the Whole of such pecuniary Penalties or Forfeitures shall be recovered to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to cause such Reward as they shall think fit, not exceeding one Moiety of such Penalty or Forfeiture so recovered, after deducting all Charges and Expences incurred in recovering the same, to be paid thereout to or amongst any Person or Persons who shall appear to them entitled thereto as Informers, in respect of such Penalties or Forfeitures so recovered; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Limitation of Actions.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, such Action or Suit shall be commenced within six Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be laid in the County or Place where the Cause of Complaint did arise, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in every such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon; and if the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants in any such Action or Suit, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, or discontinue his or their Action or Suit after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if upon Demurrer, Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant hath in any other Cases to recover Costs by Law.

General Issue.

Treble Costs.

Act may be altered or repealed this Session.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be varied, altered, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. XLII.

An Act for granting to His Majesty an additional Duty of Excise upon Tea; and for repealing so much of an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament*, as charges a Duty of five Pounds per Centum upon Tea imported into or sold in Great Britain.

* c. 15.

[10th May 1798.]

'Most gracious Sovereign,

'WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament 'assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray your Majesty's public Expences, and 'making such permanent Addition to the Public Revenue, as shall be adequate to the increased Charge oc- 'casioned by any Loan to be raised, or Stock to be created, by virtue of any Act or Acts for that Purpose to 'be passed in this Session of Parliament, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto your 'Majesty the additional Duty hereinafter mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech your Majesty 'that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, over and above all Duties already imposed for or in respect thereof by any Acts of Parliament, the further Duty of Excise herein-after mentioned; that is to say, For and upon all Tea, which, from and after the passing of this Act, shall be sold in Great Britain, by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, for two Shillings and Sixpence per Pound Weight and upwards, or which having been so sold, shall be found in any Warehouse belonging to the said United Company after the passing of this Act, a Duty of five Pounds per Centum, to be computed upon the Gross Prices at which such Tea shall be sold, to be paid by the Purchaser or Purchasers of such Tea to the said United Company, and to be paid by the said United Company to the Commissioners of Excise for the Time being.

An additional Duty of Excise of 5l. per Cent. to be paid on Tea sold in Great Britain by the East India Company for 2s. 6d. per lb. and upwards, (or having been sold, found in their Warehouses,) after passing this Act.

Duty to be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise, and a Drawback to be allowed on Exportation, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Duty by this Act imposed shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise for the Time being, and shall be again drawn back and repaid upon the Exportation of such Tea to any Place where a Drawback of the Duty on Tea is now allowed by Law, and upon the same Terms and Conditions, and under, subject, and according to the same Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Provisions, Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as are respectively contained, provided, settled, or established by any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force immediately before the passing of this Act, and relating to the Exportation of Tea; and the said Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Provisions, Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, shall be, and the same respectively are hereby directed to be duly observed, practised, applied, and put in Execution upon such Exportation of any such Tea; and the said Duty by this Act imposed shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid by such Persons, and under, subject, and according to the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Provisions, Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, which are respectively contained, provided, settled, or established, by any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force immediately before the passing of this Act, and relating to the Excise Duties payable for or in respect of Tea; and the said Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Provisions, Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures respectively shall be, and the same respectively are hereby directed to be duly observed, practised, and put in Execution, for the raising, levying, collecting, and paying the said Duty by this Act imposed, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Provisions, Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures were particularly repeated and again enacted in this Act.

Prize Tea sold, pursuant to 33 Geo. 3. c. 34. to be subject to additional Duty.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Tea taken and condemned as Prize, and sold by the Captors or their Agents, pursuant to the Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions prescribed by an Act, passed in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the Relief of the Captors of Prizes, with respect to the bringing and landing certain Prize Goods in this Kingdom, shall be subject and liable to the additional Duty by this Act imposed.

Duties to be paid into the Exchequer, and carried to the Consolidated Fund.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies from Time to Time arising by the Duty by this Act imposed (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted) shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster; and the said Money, so paid in as aforesaid, shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund.

Application of Duties.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Monies to arise by the Duty by this Act imposed, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient, shall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue for the Purpose of defraying the increased Charge occasioned by such Part of any Loan made, or Stock created or to be created, by virtue of any Act or Acts passed or to be passed in this Session of Parliament, as shall not exceed the Sum of seven Millions; and the said Monies, during the Space of ten Years next ensuing, shall continue to be paid into the said Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenue; and there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt, during the said Period of ten Years, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies arising by the said Duty, and paid into the said Receipt, shall, together with the Monies arising from any other Duties granted in this Session of Parliament for the Purpose of defraying such Part of such increased Charge as aforesaid, be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, upon any Account whatever.

37 Geo. 3. c. 15. (§ 7.) recited,

VI. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, for granting to his Majesty certain 'Duties of Customs on Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, imported into, exported from, or brought and 'carried coastwise within Great Britain, except Wine and Coals when brought or carried coastwise, and 'for other Purposes, an additional Duty of Customs, at and after the Rate of five Pounds per Centum upon 'the Produce and Amount of the several Duties of Customs then payable by Law, was imposed upon any 'Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes imported into Great Britain, with certain Exceptions as in the said 'recited Act are particularly mentioned: And whereas it is expedient that the said recited Act should be 'repealed, so far as the same extends to charge the said Duty of five Pounds per Centum upon any Tea im-'ported into or sold in Great Britain:' Be it therefore enacted, That the said recited Act shall be, and the same is hereby repealed, so far as the same extends to charge the said Duty of five Pounds per Centum upon any Tea imported into Great Britain, or any Tea sold at the Sales of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, from and after the passing of the said recited Act.

and repealed, so far as it extends to charge the Duty of 5l. per Cent. upon Tea imported into Great Britain, or sold at the Sales of the East India Company after passing it;

VII. And be it further enacted, That in case the Duty of five Pounds per Centum shall have been paid upon any Tea imported into Great Britain, or sold at the Sales of the said Company, in pursuance of the said recited Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England, or any four or more of them, to order the Repayment of such Duty so paid, and to cause the same to be repaid in such Manner as they the said Commissioners shall think proper.

and the Commissioners of the Customs may order Repayment of any such Duty so paid.

CAP. XLIII.

An Act for granting to His Majesty additional Duties on Salt.—[10th May 1798.]

'Most gracious Sovereign,

'WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament as-'sembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray your Majesty's public Expences, and 'making a permanent Addition to the Public Revenue, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and 'grant unto your Majesty the several new and additional Rates and Duties on Salt herein respectively men-'tioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, to and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for and upon all Salt, over and above the Rates and Duties now due and payable thereon, by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in Force, the several additional Rates and Duties following; that is to say,

The following additional Duties on Salt to be paid:

For every Bushel of Salt, not being the Product or Manufacture of Great Britain, which shall have been imported into Great Britain after the thirtieth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, or which shall be imported, there shall be charged the Sum of ten Shillings, and after that Rate for any greater or less Quantity:

For every Bushel of foreign Salt imported into Great Britain, after April 30, 1798, 10s.

For every Bushel of Salt, not being of the Product or Manufacture of Great Britain, which shall have been imported into Great Britain, and which, after the thirtieth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, shall have been or shall be found in any Ship or Vessel, in which the same shall have been imported, or in any Lighter or other Vessel, after the unshipping and before the landing thereof, or upon any Quay or Wharf upon the first landing thereof, or which, after the said thirtieth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, shall have been or shall be in any Cellar or Warehouse, in which the same shall have been put, subject and according to the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, and Provisions, contained and provided by any Act or Acts of Parliament, concerning the cellaring or warehousing of foreign or imported Salt, and which shall not have been charged with the additional Duty hereby granted, there shall be charged the Sum of ten Shillings, and after the same Rate for any greater or less Quantity:

For every Bushel of foreign Salt found in any Vessel, or warehoused after April 30, 1798, not charged with the additional Duty, 10s.

For every Bushel of Salt and Rock Salt, which, from and after the thirtieth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, shall have been or be made at any Salt Work, or taken out of any Salt Pit or Pits in Great Britain, there shall be charged the Sum of five Shillings, and after that Rate for any greater or less Quantity:

For every Bushel of Salt and Rock Salt made, or taken out of any Pit in Great Britain, after April 30, 1798, 5s;

For every Bushel of Salt and Rock Salt which shall have been made at any Salt Work, or taken out of any Salt Pit or Pits in Great Britain, and which, from and after the thirtieth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, shall have been or shall be sold, delivered, or sent out of or from any Cellar, Warehouse, Storehouse, or other Place, belonging to or occupied by the Proprietor or Proprietors, or Occupier or Occupiers of any Salt Work, or Salt Pit or Pits, or which, from and after the said thirtieth Day and for every Bushel of such Salt sent out of any Warehouse after that Day, and not charged with the additional Duty, 5s.;

of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, shall have been or shall be sold, delivered, or sent out of or from any Cellar, Warehouse, Storehouse, or other Place, in which the same shall have been put before the Duty now payable thereon shall have been paid, and which shall not have been charged with the additional Duty by this Act granted, there shall be charged the Sum of five Shillings, and after the same Rate for any greater or less Quantity:

and for every Bushel imported from Scotland into England, that has paid the Duty now payable on such Importation, 5s.

For every Bushel of Salt and Rock Salt, which, from and after the thirtieth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, shall have been or shall be imported from Scotland into England, accompanied with a Certificate from the proper Officer that it hath paid the Duty now payable on Salt imported from Scotland to England, and which shall not have been charged with the additional Duty hereby granted, there shall be charged the Sum of five Shillings, and after the same Rate for any greater or less Quantity:

The additional Duty to be allowed on Exportation.

And that a Drawback of the additional Duty be allowed upon the Exportation of all Salt made in Great Britain.

Duties and Drawbacks to be paid and allowed as the present Duties.

Which said several and respective additional Rates and Duties hereinbefore granted, and Drawbacks hereby allowed, shall and may from Time to Time be charged, raised, received, levied, collected, recovered, secured, and paid unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by such Ways and Means, and under such Management, and subject to such Penalties and Forfeitures, and with such Power of adjudging and mitigating Penalties and Forfeitures, and subject to such Allowances, Repayments, Rules, Regulations, and Directions, in all Respects, (not otherwise directed by this Act,) as the present Duties on Salt are or can, by any Law or Statute now in Force, be charged, raised, received, levied, collected, recovered, secured, and paid, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if all and every the several and respective Powers, Authorities, Methods, Penalties, Forfeitures, Fines, Powers of Recovery, and Mitigation of Penalties, Forfeitures, and Fines, Allowances, Repayments, Rules, Regulations, Directions, Clauses, Matters, and Things, were particularly repeated and again enacted in the Body of this present Act.

Duties to be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise on Salt.

II. And be it further enacted, That such of the Duties by this Act imposed as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called England, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Duties of Excise upon Salt in England for the Time being; and such thereof as shall arise in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise upon Salt in Scotland for the Time being.

The additional Duty to be added on Contracts, made before April 30, 1798, for Salt to be delivered after that Day.

III. 'And whereas Contracts or Agreements may have been made before the said thirtieth Day of April 'one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, by Importers and Dealers in foreign Salt, and by Makers 'of or Dealers in Salt, in Great Britain, for such Salt respectively to be delivered after the said thirtieth Day 'of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight;' be it therefore enacted, That such Importers or Dealers, and such Makers or Dealers respectively delivering such Salt after the said thirtieth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, in pursuance of such Contracts, shall be allowed to add so much Money as will be equivalent to the Duties, by this Act imposed and paid for or in respect of such Salt respectively, to the Price thereof, and shall be entitled by virtue of this Act to be paid for the same.

Duties to be paid into the Exchequer.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies arising by the Duties by this Act imposed, (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted,) shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, and the said Monies so paid into the said Receipt of Exchequer as aforesaid, shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund.

Application of Duties.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all the Monies arising or to arise by the said additional Rates and Duties, or any of them, shall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue for the Purpose of defraying the increased Charge occasioned by such Part of any Loan made, or Stock created or to be created by virtue of any Act or Acts passed or to be passed in this Session of Parliament, as shall not exceed the Sum of seven Millions; and that the said Monies shall, during the Space of ten Years next ensuing, be paid into the said Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenues; and that there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt, during the said Period of ten Years, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies arising from the said Rates and Duties, and paid into the said Receipt, shall, together with the Monies arising from any other Rates and Duties granted in this Session of Parliament, for the Purpose of defraying such Part of such increased Charge as aforesaid, be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, upon any Account whatever.

Act may be altered or repealed this Session.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That this Act, or any Part thereof, or the Duties hereby granted, or any Part thereof, may be altered, varied, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. XLIV.

An Act to enable his Majesty to call out a Part of the Militia in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and to amend an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to raise and embody a Militia Force in that Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland —[10th May 1798.]

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the thirty-seventh Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to raise and embody a Militia Force in that Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland, the Number of Men to be so raised is limited to six thousand Men; and his Majesty is thereby empowered (by Order in Council) to embody and call out the said six thousand Men: And whereas by an Act, passed in the thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to give further Time for executing, and for enlarging the Powers of an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to raise and embody a Militia Force in that Part of the Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland," his Majesty, notwithstanding no Accounts or States of Persons liable to serve as Militia Men had been transmitted for certain of the Counties, Stewartries, Cities, and Places, in Scotland, is empowered, from the Lists, States, and Accounts, which had been transmitted to his Majesty's Privy Council, previously to apportion and divide over the several Counties, Stewartries, Cities, and Places, from which such Lists, States, and Accounts, had been transmitted, the Number of Militia Men to serve for each such County, Stewartry, City, or Place: And whereas his Majesty has been pleased, by his Order in Council, to apportion and divide a certain Number of Men amongst the several Counties, Stewartries, Cities, and Places, in Scotland, which have made such Returns as aforesaid: And whereas Doubts have arisen whether, by the said several Acts, his Majesty is empowered to embody and call out Part of the Men so to be ballotted, without calling out the Whole; and in case his Majesty should think fit so to do, in what Manner the Men so to be called out can be selected:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for his Majesty, by Order in Council, from Time to Time, to order and direct any Part of the Men, by the said Acts directed to be apportioned and divided amongst the several Counties, Stewartries, Cities, and Places aforesaid, to be embodied and called out, as his Majesty shall think fit, and for that Purpose either to direct the Whole of the Men ballotted for any particular County, Stewartry, City, or Place, with their Officers, or any Proportion of such Men, with any particular Number or Description of their Officers, or any Proportion of Men in each County, Stewartry, City, or Place, with any Proportion or Description of Officers serving for such County, Stewartry, City, or Place, as his Majesty shall judge proper to be so embodied and called out, and to put such Men as his Majesty shall think proper from Time to Time to cause to be embodied and called out as aforesaid, under the Command of such General Officers as his Majesty shall be pleased to appoint, and to direct such Forces to be led by their respective Officers into such Parts of the Kingdom, and for such Purposes as by the first-mentioned Act his Majesty is authorized to direct, with respect to the Whole of the Men thereby directed to be ballotted; and generally to do, and to order and direct to be done, all Matters and Things touching such Parts of the said Men as his Majesty shall, from Time to Time, think proper to embody and call out in pursuance of this Act, in like Manner as his Majesty is, by the said first-mentioned Act, empowered to do with respect to the Whole of the said six thousand Men; any Thing in the said first-recited Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

37 Geo. 3. c. 103.

c. 12. of this Session recited.

His Majesty, by Order in Council, may order any Part of the Men directed by the recited Acts to be apportioned amongthe Counties, &c. to be embodied, and put under the Command of General Officers.

II. And be it enacted, That whenever his Majesty shall think proper to direct any Proportion of Men ballotted to serve for any County, Stewartry, City, or Place, to be embodied and called out as aforesaid, the Lieutenant for such County, Stewartry, City, or Place, together with two or more of the Deputy Lieutenants, or on the Death or Removal, or in the Absence of the Lieutenant, any three or more of the Deputy Lieutenants, shall appoint what Numbers of such Men so directed to be embodied and called out, shall be taken from the Men ballotted to serve for each of the several Districts, Parishes, or other Divisions of such County, Stewartry, City, or Place, and shall appoint Subdivision Meetings to be holden for the Purpose of ballotting for such Numbers of Men to be embodied and called out for each of such Districts, Parishes, or other Divisions, at which Subdivision Meetings respectively the Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and Schoolmaster, attending, shall proceed to ballot for the Number of Men appointed to be embodied and called out for each District, Parish, or other Division as aforesaid, by the same Methods, Rules, and Regulations, and in like Manner as the original Ballot for Men to serve for such Districts, Parishes, or other Divisions respectively, is directed to be made by the said several Acts, or either of them; and the Names of all the Men so ballotted for the Purpose of being embodied and called out as aforesaid, shall be marked on the List of the Men ballotted to serve for such Districts, Parishes, or other Divisions respectively, and when the Ballot shall be concluded, the List of the Men so ballotted for the Purpose of being embodied and called out, shall be publicly read, and the Names of all the Men so chosen by Ballot for the Purpose of being embodied and called out as aforesaid, shall be returned to the Clerk of the General Meeting of the County, Stewartry, City, or Place, for which such Men shall be ballotted as

When his Majesty shall order any Proportion of Men to be embodied, the County Lieutenant, &c. to appoint what Numbers shall be taken from the Men ballotted for each District, and appoint Subdivision Meetings for ballotting for them, &c.

Names of Men so ballotted, to be marked on Lists, &c. and the Men to be embodied.

aforesaid, and the Persons so chosen by Ballot to be embodied and called out as aforesaid, shall be embodied and called out accordingly; and the Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants for such County, Stewartry, City, or Place, shall, at a General Meeting to be appointed for that Purpose, direct Notice to be given to the Men who shall have been ballotted for the Purpose of being embodied and called out in pursuance of this Act, of the Time and Place of their assembling in order to their being embodied, and the Men who shall be so declared to have been ballotted in pursuance of this Act, shall immediately proceed and repair to, and shall duly attend at, the Time and Place so to be appointed and declared, in order to their being embodied accordingly; and the Pay of every such Man who shall be so embodied in pursuance of this Act, shall commence on the Day on which such Men respectively shall be so chosen by Ballot to be embodied and called out into actual Service.

Notice to be given the Men ballotted of the Time and Place of assembling for embodying them.

Pay to commence when chosen by Ballot.

III. And be it further enacted, That if at any Meeting as aforesaid, on or before the twenty-second Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, any Persons or Person shall offer themselves or himself as Volunteers or a Volunteer, to be embodied and called out, and serve as Militia Men or as a Militia Man, for any District, Parish, or other Division, instead of any Men or Man to be ballotted for in pursuance of the said Act, and shall be approved and accepted as able and fit for Service as herein-after mentioned, it shall be lawful for the Deputy Lieutenants and Justices present at such Meeting, to accept such Offer, and to enter the Names or Name of such Volunteers or Volunteer upon a List to be made for that Purpose; and if the Number of Men who shall so offer as Volunteers, shall be equal to the Number of Men directed to be embodied or called out for such District, Parish, or Division, the said Deputy Lieutenants and Justices shall not proceed to ballot for any Men to be embodied and called out for such District, Parish, or Division, but shall return such List of Volunteers instead of a List of Men ballotted in pursuance of the Directions for that Purpose herein-before contained; and in case the Number of Persons who shall so offer to be embodied and called out, and to serve as Volunteers, shall not be equal to the whole Number of Men directed to be embodied and called out for such District, Parish, or Division, the said Lieutenants and Justices shall ballot, according to the Directions herein-before contained, for so many Men only as shall be necessary, together with such Volunteers, to complete the Number directed to be embodied and called out for such District, Parish, or Division, and shall return such List of Volunteers, and a List of such ballotted Men, making together the complete Number of Men required, in the same Manner as Lists of ballotted Men are herein-before directed to be returned as aforesaid; and if any such Volunteer as aforesaid shall not have been before ballotted to serve in the Militia for such District, Parish, or Division, such Volunteer shall be sworn and enrolled to serve in the Militia for such District, Parish, or Division, in the same Manner as if such Volunteer had been offered and approved as a Substitute in pursuance of the said Act made in the thirty-seventh Year of his Majesty's Reign: Provided always, that every such Volunteer who shall be accepted and returned as aforesaid, shall be able and fit for Service, and approved by two or more of the said Deputy Lieutenants, as such, before his Offer to serve as a Volunteer as aforesaid shall be accepted; and in case any such Volunteer as aforesaid, who shall be so approved and accepted as aforesaid, shall offer to serve as a Substitute for any Person before ballotted to serve as aforesaid, not being himself a ballotted Militia Man, the Person for whom he shall so offer to serve as a Substitute, shall, upon his being accepted, sworn, and enrolled as aforesaid, be discharged from further Service, in the same Manner as if such Person had provided a Substitute in pursuance of the Directions of the said Act of the thirty-seventh Year of his Majesty's Reign; and if such Volunteer shall be a ballotted Militia Man, but shall offer to serve instead of another chosen by Ballot to be embodied and called out for the same District, Parish, or Division, the Service of such Volunteer shall be accepted instead of the Person for whom he shall offer to serve as aforesaid.

Before or on May 22, 1798, Volunteers may be accepted as Substitutes for Men ballotted, &c.

If sufficient Volunteers shall not offer for any District, so many Men shall be ballotted for, as shall be necessary to complete the Number to be embodied.

Volunteers not having been ballotted to serve, to be sworn and enrolled.

Volunteers to be approved by two Deputy Lieutenants, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any such Volunteer as aforesaid, or any Person so chosen by Ballot to be called out and embodied as aforesaid, shall not appear at the Time and Place which shall be appointed for his Appearance, to be embodied as aforesaid, and march in pursuance of such Orders as shall be given for that Purpose, every such Person, unless labouring under some Infirmity incapacitating him to serve as a Militia Man, shall be liable to be apprehended and punished as a Deserter, according to the Provisions of any Act then in Force for punishing Mutiny and Desertion; and if any such Volunteer so neglecting to appear and march, shall not be taken within two Calendar Months after he ought to have appeared and marched as aforesaid, the Person for whom he shall have been accepted as a Volunteer or Substitute, shall, within one Calendar Month after Notice for that Purpose, personally appear and serve as a Militia Man, and be duly sworn and enrolled accordingly to join the Regiment or Body of Militia to which he shall belong, or shall find another able and fit Person to serve as a Substitute, who shall be approved and accepted by two or more of the said Deputy Lieutenants, and sworn and enrolled accordingly; and if any such Volunteer who shall so neglect to appear and march as aforesaid, shall not have offered and been accepted to serve instead of any particular Person before chosen by Ballot to be embodied and called out as aforesaid, or if any Person so chosen by Ballot, shall neglect to appear and march as aforesaid, and shall not be taken as a Deserter within two Calendar Months after he ought to have appeared and marched as aforesaid, Notice thereof shall be given to the District, Parish, or Division, for which such Person ought to have served as aforesaid; and unless such District, Parish, or Division, shall, within one Calendar Month after such Notice, procure a fit and able Person to serve instead of such Deserter, who shall be accepted and approved by two or more of the said Deputy Lieutenants, and sworn and enrolled, the Volunteers, or ballotted Men not appearing to be embodied, to be deemed Deserters; and if such Volunteers do not appear within two Months, the Persons in whose stead they are accepted shall serve, or find other Substitutes.

If a Volunteer shall not be a Substitute for any particular Person, or if any Man chosen by Ballot, and not appearing, shall not be the Deputy Lieutenants and Justices acting for the County, Stewartry, City, or Place, shall proceed to ballot for another Person to serve for the District, Parish, or Division, for which such Deserter ought to have served as aforesaid, in the same Manner as herein-before directed for the original Ballot for Men to be embodied and called out as aforesaid; and in case such Deserter shall be afterwards taken, such Deserter shall nevertheless be compelled to serve, in the same Manner as he would have served if he had appeared at the Time and Place appointed for that Purpose.

taken within two Months, unless the District for which he ought to serve shall, within a Month after Notice, procure a fit Person in his Stead, a fresh Ballot to be had. Such Deserters, if taken, also to be compelled to serve.

V. And be it further enacted, That in case it shall appear to any two or more Deputy Lieutenants assembled at any Subdivision Meeting, that any Militia Man so embodied as aforesaid is dead, or that any such Militia Man is unfit for Service, and such Militia Man shall therefore be discharged, such Deputy Lieutenants shall forthwith cause another Person to be chosen by Ballot to be embodied and called out in the Stead of the Militia Man so dead or discharged, and from the District, Parish, or Division, which furnished the Man or Men so deceased or discharged; and such Person shall serve accordingly by himself or his sufficient Substitute, in the same Manner as if he had been originally chosen by Ballot to be embodied and called out in pursuance of this Act.

Deputy Lieutenants to cause other Persons to be chosen by Ballot, in the Stead of Men dead or discharged.

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for his Majesty to cause the Number of Men to be drawn out and embodied as aforesaid, from Time to Time, to be formed into such Regiments or Battalions, to consist of such Companies, and of such Number of Men in each Company, and to fix the Number and Rank of Officers in such Regiment or Battalion, and also such Number of Serjeants in each Company, as his Majesty shall think expedient; any Thing in the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

His Majesty may order the Men embodied to be formed, and officered, as he shall think proper.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the Proceedings which may have been had and done at any General Meeting of the Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants, or any three or more of them, within fourteen Days after the Receipt of his Majesty's Order in Council, shall be valid and effectual, and also all Proceedings which shall be held and done at any General Meeting of the Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants, or any three or more of them, which may be summoned by the Lieutenant, or failing of him, any three or more Deputy Lieutenants, subsequent to the said fourteen Days, and before the twenty-second Day of May, shall be equally valid and effectual as if the same had been done, and the same Proceedings had, within the said fourteen Days.

Proceedings of General Meetings within 14 Days after Receipt of his Majesty's Order in Council, to be valid, &c.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That so much of the said first-recited Act as authorizes the Captains of Companies to appoint Drummers, Corporals, and Non-commissioned Officers, to the said Militia, shall be and is hereby repealed; and that the Colonel or Commanding Officer of every Regiment or Battalion of Militia, may and shall appoint two Persons to be Drummers to each Company, and may and shall appoint Corporals in the Proportion of one to twenty Men, and may displace such Drummers and Corporals respectively for Misbehaviour, and appoint others in their Room, from Time to Time, as he shall see Occasion, and may and shall appoint the Serjeants in the Regiment or Battalion under his Command, and also fill up such Vacancies of Serjeants as may happen therein; and it shall be lawful for the said Colonel or Commanding Officer as aforesaid, to displace any Person so appointed a Serjeant, and to dismiss, or cause such Person so displaced to be reduced to the Rank of a private Militia Man; and the Colonel or Commanding Officer of every Regiment or Battalion of Militia, may appoint a Serjeant Major and a Drum Major; and that all Serjeants, Corporals, and Drummers, having received Pay as such from any Regiment or Battalion, shall be deemed to be engaged, and compellable to serve in such Regiment or Battalion until they be legally discharged.

§ 45. of 37 Geo. 3. c. 103. authorizing the Captains to appoint Drummers, &c. repealed; the Colonel or Commanding Officer to appoint them, and also Serjeants, &c.

IX. Provided always, That no Person who shall keep any House of public Entertainment, or who shall sell any Ale or Wine, or any Brandy or other Spirituous Liquors, by Retail, shall be capable of being appointed, or serving as a Serjeant, Corporal, or Drummer, in the said Militia.

No Victualler to be a Serjeant, Corporal, or Drummer.

An Act to prevent, during the War, Persons residing or being in Great Britain from advancing Money or Effects for the Purchase or on the Credit of Debts owing to any of the Governments in Switzerland, or any Bodies Politic or Corporate, or any Persons therein, without Licence for that Purpose; for extending the Provisions of an Act, made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty *, more effectually to prevent, during the present War between Great Britain and France, all Traitorous Correspondence with, or Aid or Assistance being given to, His Majesty's Enemies, to Switzerland; and also the Provisions of an Act, made in the thirty-fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty †, for preventing Money or Effects in the Hands of his Majesty's Subjects, belonging to, or disposeable by, any Persons resident in France, being applied to the Use of the Persons exercising the Powers of Government in France, and for preserving the Property thereof for the Benefit of the Individual Owners thereof, to the United Provinces, and to Switzerland, and to the Persons exercising the Powers of Government therein, and also to the Persons, Territories, and Places, under their Government.—[10th May 1798.]

* c. 27.

'WHEREAS it is expedient to prevent Persons residing or being in Great Britain from advancing Money or Effects for the Purchase or on the Credit of Debts owing to any of the Governments in Switzerland, or any Bodies Politic or Corporate, or any Persons therein, during the present War, without Licence first obtained for that Purpose:' Be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person residing or being in Great Britain during the said War, knowingly and wilfully, in Great Britain or elsewhere, shall make, or agree to make, or cause or procure to be made, any Advance of Money whatsoever, or of Goods, Merchandize, or Effects, or other valuable Thing whatsoever, to any of such Governments, or Body Politic or Corporate, or any Persons or Person whomsoever therein, or shall accept, pay, indorse, or negotiate, or agree to accept, pay, indorse, or negotiate, or cause or procure to be accepted, paid, indorsed, or negotiated, or shall guarantee or agree to be Security for the Payment of any Bill of Exchange, or other Bill, Note, or Security for Money, for or in Consideration of any Purchase or Transfer of any Debt or Debts, or of any Share or Interest in any Debt or Debts, due or owing to any of the said Governments, or of any Territories or Places now dependent thereon, or under the Government of any of them, or due or owing to any Persons or Person residing or being within any of the said Governments, Territories, or Places, or for or in Consideration of or upon the Security or Credit of any such Debt or Debts, or shall knowingly and wilfully, in any Manner whatsoever, purchase, or agree to purchase, or become entitled to or interested in, for valuable Consideration, or by way of Security or Indemnity, any such Debt or Debts, or any Parts or Part of any such Debt or Debts, every Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of one thousand Pounds, and also Treble the Amount or Value of the Money, Goods, Merchandize, Effects, or valuable Thing, so advanced, or agreed to be advanced, as aforesaid, or of such Bill of Exchange, or other Bill, Note, or Security for Money, with respect to which any such Dealing shall be had as aforesaid.

If any Person residing or being in Great Britain shall there or elsewhere during the War, make, or procure to be made, any Advance for the Purchase of any Debt due to any Government in Switzerland, &c. he shall forfeit 1000l. and Treble the Value of the Advance.

II. And be it further enacted, That all Contracts and Agreements whatsoever touching or concerning any such Debt or Debts as aforesaid, or any Parts or Part of any such Debt or Debts, or touching any Money or other valuable Consideration advanced, or to be advanced, for or in respect of any such Debt or Debts, or for or in respect of any Goods, Merchandize, Effects, or other valuable Thing sold, or agreed to be sold, or for or in respect of any Bills of Exchange, or other Bills, Notes, or Securities, drawn, accepted, indorsed, negotiated, given, or executed, in Consideration thereof, or by way of Security, Indemnity, or otherwise, for or concerning the same, shall be null and void to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

All Contracts touching such Debts, &c. to be void.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Broker, or other Person residing or being in Great Britain shall knowingly and wilfully, in Great Britain or elsewhere, negotiate or transact, for Commission or otherwise, any Dealing prohibited by this Act, every Person so offending shall forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds to any Person who will sue for the same.

Any Person negotiating such Dealing, to forfeit 500l.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Penalties and Forfeitures aforesaid shall and may be recovered, in that Part of Great Britain called England, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or by Information or Bill in Equity; and in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, by Action or summary Bill or Information in the Courts of Session or Exchequer in Scotland; and to any such Information or Bill in Equity the Party or Parties against whom the same shall be exhibited, shall be obliged and compelled to answer upon Oath for Discovery of the Recovery of Penalties.

the Dealings and Transactions by Means whereof such Penalties and Forfeitures shall have been incurred; and it shall be lawful for the Court, wherein such Information or Bill shall be exhibited, to proceed and decree thereupon, and enforce such Decree in the same Manner as is used in other Causes in the said Courts.

Act not to extend to any Thing done by Licence from his Majesty.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Act which shall be done by any Person, or in any Place, by virtue of or in Obedience to any Licence or Authority from his Majesty, either under his Sign Manual, or by Order in Council or Proclamation, or by virtue of or in Obedience to any Licence or Authority from any Persons or Person to be authorized by his Majesty, under his Sign Manual or otherwise, as his Majesty shall think fit, to give such Licence or Authority, or to any Act done in his Majesty's Service by any Person or Persons who shall be employed therein.

33 Geo. 3. c. 27. to extend to Switzerland, and all Places under Dominion of the Persons exercising the Powers of Government therein.

VI. 'And whereas it is expedient to extend to Switzerland, and the Persons exercising the Powers of 'Government therein, and to the Persons, Territories, and Places, under their Government, the Provi- 'sions contained in an Act passed in the thirty-third Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act 'more effectually to prevent, during the present War between Great Britain and France, all Traitorous 'Correspondence with, or Aid or Assistance being given to his Majesty's Enemies;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the several Times hereinafter mentioned, and during the said War, all and every the Provisions in the said Act contained, shall extend, and shall be construed, deemed, and taken, to extend, to Switzerland, and all and every the Territories and Places under the Government of the Persons exercising, or who shall during the said War exercise, the Powers of Government in Switzerland, and all Persons residing or being, or who shall during the said War reside or be, within the same, or within any of the Territories or Places aforesaid, and to the Persons exercising, or who shall during the said War exercise, the Powers of Government therein, or in any Part thereof, or any of the Territories or Places aforesaid, in such and the same Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if Switzerland, and the Territories, Places, and Persons aforesaid, and every of them, had been expressly mentioned in the said Act, and all and every the Provisions in the said Act contained had been expressly applied thereto respectively, and Switzerland, and the Territories, Places, and Persons aforesaid, had in all Parts of the said Act been mentioned together with France, and the Territories, Persons, and Places described in the said Act; and that all and every the Acts thereby prohibited to be done by Persons residing or being in Great Britain, with respect to France, or the Persons exercising, or who during the said War might exercise, the Powers of Government in France, or Persons residing or being within any of the Dominions of France, or any Town, Territory, Port, or Place annexed to France, or under the Government of the Persons exercising, or who might exercise, the Powers of Government in France, shall be deemed and taken to be, in like Manner, and under the like Penalties, Provisions, and Restrictions, prohibited with respect to Switzerland, and all and every the Territories and Places under the Government of the Persons exercising, or who shall during the said War exercise, the Powers of Government in the said Provinces, and all Persons residing or being, or who shall during the said War reside or be, within the same, or within any of the Territories or Places aforesaid, and to the Persons exercising, or who shall during the said War exercise, the Powers of Government therein, or any of them, or any of the Territories or Places aforesaid.

No Letter of Attorney from any Person who was, on or before March 1, 1798, or who has been since, in France, the United Provinces, or Switzerland, &c. shall authorize the Transfer of Stock without Licence from the Secretary of State.

VII. 'And whereas there is Reason to believe that Letters of Attorney have been procured from Persons 'within the Power of the Persons exercising the Powers of Government in France, or of the Governments 'under their Controul, and especially in the United Provinces, and in Switzerland, for the Purpose of 'transferring Stock in the Public Funds, and other Public Stock, for the Benefit of the Persons so ex- 'ercising the Powers of Government in France, to the Prejudice and against the Will of the Proprietors of 'such Stock; and that many of such Letters of Attorney have been antedated;' be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Letter of Attorney, purporting to be a Letter of Attorney from any Person or Persons who, on or before the first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, was or were, or at any Time since has or have been, in France, the United Provinces, or Switzerland, or any of the Territories or Dependencies thereof, or any Territory or Place under the Government, or subject to the Power of the Persons exercising the Powers of Government in France, or under the Government, or subject to the Power of any Persons exercising the Powers of Government in the said United Provinces or Switzerland, or any Part thereof, shall be valid and effectual to authorize the Transfer of any such Stock, without Licence for that Purpose first had and obtained from one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and that all Transfers of Stock which shall be made by or under the Authority of any such Letter of Attorney, contrary to the Provisions of this Act, shall be null and void, to all Intents and Purposes.

34 Geo. 3. c. 9. to extend to the United Provinces and Switzerland, and all Places under the Persons exercising the Powers of Government therein respectively.

VIII. 'And whereas it is also expedient to extend, as well to the United Provinces as to Switzerland, 'and the Persons exercising the Powers of Government therein respectively, and to the Persons, Territo- 'ries, and Places, under their Government respectively, the Provisions contained in an Act, passed in the 'thirty-fourth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for preventing Money or Effects in the Hands 'of his Majesty's Subjects, belonging to, or disposeable by, any Persons resident in France, being applied to the 'Use of the Persons exercising the Powers of Government in France, and for preserving the Property thereof 'for the Benefit of the Individual Owners thereof;' be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That, from and after the several Times hereinafter mentioned, and during the said War, all and every the Provisions in the said last mentioned Act contained, shall extend, and shall be construed, deemed, and taken to extend, extend, to the said United Provinces and Switzerland respectively, and to every Part thereof respectively, and to all and every the Territories and Places under the Government of the Persons exercising, or who shall during the said War exercise, the Powers of Government in the said United Provinces and Switzerland respectively, or any Parts or Part thereof respectively, and to all Persons residing or being, or who shall during the said War reside or be, within the same respectively, or within any of the Territories or Places aforesaid, and to the Persons exercising, or who shall during the said War exercise, the Powers of Government within the said United Provinces or Switzerland respectively, or any of them, or any of the Territories or Places aforesaid, in such and the same Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the said United Provinces and Switzerland respectively, and every Part thereof, and the Territories, Places, and Persons aforesaid, and every of them, had been expressly mentioned in the said Act, and all and every the Provisions in the said Act contained had been expressly applied thereto respectively, and the said United Provinces and Switzerland respectively, and every Part thereof, and the Territories, Places, and Persons aforesaid, had in all Parts of the said Act been mentioned together with France, and the Territories, Persons, and Places described in the said Act; and that all and every the Acts thereby prohibited to be done by Persons residing or being in Great Britain with respect to France, or the Persons exercising, or who during the said War might exercise, the Powers of Government in France, or Persons residing or being within any of the Dominions of France, or any Town, Territory, Port, or Place annexed to France, or under the Government of the Persons exercising, or who might exercise, the Powers of Government in France, shall be deemed and taken to be, in like Manner, and under the like Penalties, Provisions, and Restrictions, prohibited with respect to the said United Provinces and Switzerland respectively, and every Part thereof, and all and every the Territories and Places under the Government of the Persons exercising, or who shall during the said War exercise, the Powers of Government in the said United Provinces and Switzerland respectively, or any Part or Parts thereof respectively, and to all Persons residing or being, or who shall during the said War reside or be, within the same respectively, or within any of the Territories or Places aforesaid, and to the Persons exercising, or who shall during the said War exercise, the Powers of Government in the said United Provinces or Switzerland respectively, or any Parts or Part thereof respectively, or any of the Territories or Places aforesaid.

Act may be repealed or altered this Session.

IX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful to repeal, amend, alter, or vary this Act, or any Part thereof, during the present Session of Parliament.

Commencement of Act.

X. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take place and have Commencement as to the present Matters hereinbefore contained, from the End of one Week after the passing of this Act, as to all Acts which shall be done by any Person whatsoever in Great Britain, or which shall be done in any Parts out of Great Britain, by any Person who shall have been in Great Britain at any Time after the passing of this Act, and during the Continuance of this Act, and shall take place and have Commencement one Calendar Month after the passing of this Act, as to all Acts which shall be done in any Part of Europe, other than Great Britain, by any Person who shall not have been in Great Britain between the passing of this Act and one Calendar Month after the passing of this Act; and shall take place and have Commencement three Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, as to all Acts which shall be done in any Parts of the World out of Europe and not beyond the Cape of Good Hope, by any Person who shall not have been in Great Britain between the passing of this Act and the End of three Calendar Months after the passing of this Act; and shall take place and have Commencement six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, as to all Acts which shall be done in any Part of the World beyond the Cape of Good Hope, by any Person who shall not have been in Great Britain between the passing of this Act and the End of six Calendar Months after the passing of this Act.

CAP. XLVI.

An Act for the more speedy and effectual Manning of His Majesty's Navy.

[26th May 1798.]

'WHEREAS by several Acts of Parliament, Persons under certain Descriptions are protected from 'being impressed into his Majesty's Service at Sea: And whereas it is expedient, for the Public De'fence, that such Protections should be suspended for a limited Time;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of an Act, passed in the second Year of the Reign of her Majesty Queen Anne, intituled, An Act for the Increase of Seamen, and better Encouragement of Navigation and Security of the Coal Trade, as grants any Exemption or Protection to any Apprentice or other Person from being impressed, or permitted or suffered to list or enter into his Majesty's Sea Service; and also one Act, passed in the thirteenth Year of his late Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Increase of Mariners and Seamen to navigate Merchant Ships, or other trading Ships or Vessels; and also so much of an Act, passed in the second Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better supplying the Cities of London and Westminster with Fish, and to reduce the present exorbitant Price thereof, and to protect and encourage Fishermen, as grants any Protection to the Persons therein described, from being impressed into his Majesty's Service at Sea; and also so much of an Act, passed in the eleventh

So much of 2 Annæ, c. 6, as grants Protections, and 13 Geo. 2. c. 17, and so much of 2 Geo. 3. c. 15, eleventh Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Support and Establishment of the Greenland and Whale Fishery, as grants the like Protection to the Persons therein described; and also so much of any other subsequent Act or Acts as grants the like Protection to any Person or Persons therein described, shall be, and the same are hereby declared and enacted to be of no Force and Effect for and during the Space of five Calendar Months, to be computed from the twenty-fourth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight: Provided nevertheless, That the Suspension of the said Acts, so far as they relate to Persons serving on board of Ships and Vessels employed in the Coal Trade, shall not continue longer than one Calendar Month, to be computed from the twenty-fourth Day of May aforesaid.

11 Geo. 3. c. 38. and of any other Act, as grants Protections to Persons from being impressed, to be suspended for five Months, from May 24, 1798:

But such Suspension, so far as relates to Persons in the Coal Trade, to continue only for one Month.

II. And be it further enacted, That no Person or Persons shall be sued or molested for taking and impressing, or causing to be taken and impressed, within the Time aforesaid, any Person or Persons for his Majesty's Service at Sea, contrary to the Provisions of the said Acts, or any of them.

Persons not to be sued for impressing within the Time specified, contrary to the recited Acts.

CAP. XLVII.

An Act for granting to His Majesty the Sum of two hundred thousand Pounds, to be issued and paid to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to be by them placed to the Account of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt.—[26th May 1798.]

CAP. XLVIII.

An Act to alter and amend so much of an Act, passed in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax, to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, as relates to the Qualification of Commissioners.—[26th May 1798.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land Tax, to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight: And whereas by the said Act it is enacted, That certain Persons named and appointed, or to be named and appointed, Commissioners in Manner therein mentioned, should put the said Act in Execution as therein directed; but it is not thereby required that such of the Commissioners as shall act within or for any City, Borough, Cinque Port, or Town Corporate, (except as therein particularly provided,) shall be qualified in any other Manner than by being an Inhabitant of such City, Borough, Cinque Port, or Town Corporate, by reason whereof improper Persons sometimes Act as Commissioners:' For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That no Person shall be capable of acting as a Commissioner in the Execution of the said recited Act, within any City, Borough, Cinque Port, or Town Corporate, (except the Cities, Liberties, and Places, the Commissioners acting within which are respectively required to be qualified as in the said Act is particularly mentioned and directed,) unless such Person shall, at the Time of his acting, be seised or possessed of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, of the Value of forty Pounds per Annum, or more, of his own Estate, being Freehold, Copyhold, or Leasehold, over and above all Ground Rents, Incumbrances, and other Reservations, payable out of or in respect of such Leasehold Estates, or unless such Person shall, at the Time of his acting as aforesaid, be possessed of a Personal Estate to the Amount of one thousand Pounds, nor unless he shall in either Case be an Inhabitant of the City, Borough, Cinque Port, or Town Corporate, within which he shall act as a Commissioner, nor (except in administering the Oath or Affirmation hereinafter mentioned) until he shall have taken and subscribed an Oath or Affirmation in the Words or to the Effect following; videlicet,

C. 5. of this Session.

No Person to act as a Commissioner of the Land Tax in any City, Borough, Cinque Port, or Town Corporate, unless qualified as herein mentioned.

'I A. B. do swear, [or, being one of the People called Quakers, do solemnly affirm,] That I truly and bonâ fide am possessed of, in my own Right, and in the actual Enjoyment or Receipt of the Rents and Profits of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, of the clear yearly Value of forty Pounds, or possessed of a Personal Estate to the Amount of one thousand Pounds. So help me GOD.'

Oath of Qualification,

Which Oath it shall and may be lawful for any Commissioner to administer to any other, any Thing in the said first recited Act, or any other Act, contained to the contrary hereof in anywise notwithstanding; and if any Person hereby required to be so qualified as aforesaid, and not being so qualified, or not having taken an Oath or Affirmation as hereinbefore directed, shall presume to act as a Commissioner in the Execution of the said recited Act, every such Person so offending, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds to and for the Use of such Person or Persons who shall sue for the same, to be recovered, together with full Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, over and above such other Pains and Punishments as he may be liable to by any Law or Statute of this Realm for wilful and corrupt Perjury; and in every such Action brought against any such Person which any Commissioner may administer.

50*l.* Penalty for acting not being qualified, or not having taken the Oath.

Proof of Qualification to lie on the Defendant.

son so acting as a Commissioner in the Execution of the said recited Act without being qualified as aforesaid, the Proof of Qualification shall lie on the Person against whom the said Action shall be brought, and it shall be sufficient for the Plaintiff to prove that the Defendant hath acted as such Commissioner.

§ 90. of c. 5. of this Session, as to Qualifications of Commissioners, recited,

II. 'And whereas by an Act, made in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land Tax, to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, it is amongst other Things enacted, That no Persons shall be capable of acting as a Commissioner in the Execution of the said Act, or any of the Powers therein contained, in or for any County at large within England, the Dominion of Wales, (the Counties of Merioneth, Cardigan, Carmarthen, Glamorgan, Montgomery, Pembroke, Radnor, and Monmouth, excepted,) or in or for any of the Ridings of the County of York, unless such Person be seised or possessed in the same County or Riding, of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments of the Value of one hundred Pounds per Annum, or more, of his own Estate, being Freehold, Copyhold, or Leasehold, over and above all Ground Rents, Incumbrances, and other Reservations, payable out of or in respect of such Leasehold Estates which were taxed and did pay by virtue of an Act passed in the thirty-seventh Year of his Majesty's Reign, (intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land Tax, to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven:)' Be it enacted, That the above recited Clause shall be, and the same is hereby repealed.

No Person to act as a Commissioner for any County in England or Wales, (except certain Counties,) or for any Riding in Yorkshire, unless qualified as herein mentioned.

III. And be it enacted, That no Person shall be capable of acting as a Commissioner in the Execution of the said Act, or any of the Powers therein contained, in or for any County at large within England, the Dominion of Wales, (the Counties of Merioneth, Cardigan, Carmarthen, Glamorgan, Montgomery, Pembroke, Radnor, and Monmouth, excepted.) or in or for any of the Ridings of the County of York, unless such Person be seised or possessed of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments of the Value of one hundred Pounds per Annum, or more, of his own Estate, being Freehold, Copyhold, or Leasehold, over and above all Ground Rents, Incumbrances, and other Reservations, payable out of or in respect of the same, or unless such Person be Heir Apparent of some Person who shall be seised or possessed of a like Estate of the Value of three hundred Pounds per Annum, one Moiety of which said Estate required as Qualifications shall be situate within such respective County or Riding for which such Person is appointed a Commissioner.

Public Act.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be adjudged, deemed, and taken to be a Public Act, and be judicially taken Notice of such, by all Judges, Justices, and all other Persons whomsoever, without the same being specially pleaded.

CAP. XLIX.

An Act for vesting divers Lands and Hereditaments in the Parish of Halifax, in the County of York, in Trustees and their Heirs, upon certain Trusts therein mentioned, discharged from all Claims of the Crown in respect of any Forfeiture incurred under or by virtue of the Statutes of Mortmain, or the Laws relating to Mortmain.—[26th May 1798.]

CAP. L.

An Act to continue, until the first Day of August one thousand eight hundred, and until the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and amend an Act, made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act for establishing Regulations respecting Aliens arriving in this Kingdom, or resident therein, in certain Cases.—[1st June 1798.]

33 Geo. 3. c. 4. recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the thirty-third Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for establishing Regulations respecting Aliens arriving in this Kingdom, or resident therein, in certain Cases, in consequence of the Number of Persons, not being natural-born Subjects of his Majesty, or Denizens, or Persons naturalized by Act of Parliament, who had then lately resorted to this Kingdom, and the Danger which it was apprehended might arise to the public Tranquillity, from the Resort and Residence of Aliens, under the Circumstances then existing, unless due Provision should be made in respect thereof, divers Provisions were made respecting Aliens arriving in this Kingdom, and resident therein; which Act has been continued by subsequent Acts until the first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine: And whereas the Refuge and Asylum which, on Grounds of Humanity and Justice, have been granted to Persons flying from the Oppression and Tyranny exercised in France, and in Countries invaded by the Armies of France, or under their Power or Controul, may, notwithstanding the Provisions of the said Act of the thirty-third Year of his Majesty's Reign, be abused by Persons coming to this Kingdom for Purposes dangerous to the Interests and Safety thereof; and the general Indulgence to Aliens resorting to this Country may also be abused by Persons not within the Provisions of the said Act; and it is therefore necessary to make further

'Provisions for the Safety of this Kingdom with respect to Aliens; and particularly to the End that a just 'Distinction may be made between Persons who either really seek Refuge and Asylum from Oppression and 'Tyranny, or resort to this Country, and are resident therein, for Purposes only of Commerce, or for 'other just or innocent Purposes, and Persons who, pretending to claim the Benefit of such Refuge and 'Asylum as aforesaid, or to resort to this Country, or to reside therein for commercial or other just or in-'nocent Purposes, have or shall come to, or shall be in this Kingdom with hostile Purposes, and especially 'to favour or assist the Execution of the Projects of the Enemies of his Majesty, now openly declaring their 'Intentions to invade this Kingdom, and to endeavour to destroy the Religion, Laws, and Liberties of the 'People thereof, and the Form and Constitution of its Government, and to bring upon this Kingdom all 'the Calamities which have been suffered by France;' be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for his Majesty, by his Royal Proclamation or Proclamations to be issued for that Purpose, from Time to Time, to require and command every Alien who shall then be in, or shall thereafter come into, this Kingdom, (except as hereinafter excepted *,) to register himself or herself, in the Manner hereinafter mentioned, with such Person or Persons, and in such District or Districts, as his Majesty by his said Proclamation shall appoint, and within such Time or Times as in such Proclamation or Proclamations shall be required; and thereupon to obtain from such Person or Persons as his Majesty shall for that Purpose appoint, his Majesty's Royal Licence to such Alien to reside within this Kingdom, either generally in any Part thereof without Restriction, or specially in such Place or Places, and under such Restrictions or Conditions, as to his Majesty shall seem fit; which Licence shall either be without Limitation in Point of Time, or shall endure for such Space of Time as shall therein be expressed, and no longer; but every such Licence shall be capable of being revoked, and if limited in Point of Time, shall be capable of being renewed and continued at such Times and in such Manner, as in such Licence, or from Time to Time by his Majesty's Proclamation or Order in Council, shall be directed.

His Majesty, by Proclamation, may require Aliens to register themselves, and obtain Licences for Residence; which may or may not be limited in Point of Time.

II. And be it further enacted, That for the Purpose of obtaining such Licence as aforesaid, every such Alien as aforesaid shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the Person or Persons who shall, by any such Proclamation, or by any Order of his Majesty in Council, from Time to Time as Occasion shall require, be appointed to receive the same, and at or before the Time to be appointed for that Purpose, a full and true Account in Writing of his or her Name, Age, Rank, Occupation, or Profession, and where such Alien was born, and of what Parents, and where such Alien usually resided beyond the Seas before his or her Arrival in this Kingdom, and where such Alien last resided beyond the Seas before his or her last Arrival in this Kingdom, and in what Situation or Condition, and for what Reason and for what Purpose such Alien left such Residence and came to this Kingdom, and when such Alien last arrived in this Kingdom, and at what Place, and whether before or after the tenth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-three, and if after, whether such Alien made such Declaration or delivered such Account as is required by the said recited Act of the thirty-third Year of his Majesty's Reign, and when and to whom, and at what Place; and in what Town or Place, Towns or Places in this Kingdom such Alien has resided since the Time when such Alien last arrived in this Kingdom: Provided always nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for his Majesty to exempt any Alien or Aliens, by the Terms of any such Proclamation, or by any Order in Council, or specially by Warrant from one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from the Obligation to deliver such Account as by this Act required, in the Whole or in Part, as to his Majesty shall seem fit: Provided also, that no Alien who shall deliver any such Account as aforesaid, shall be liable to any Prosecution for any Offence against the said Act of the thirty-third Year of his Majesty's Reign, by reason of any Matter or Thing disclosed in such Account.

To obtain such Licences an Account shall be delivered by every Alien containing certain Particulars, respecting his Birth, Residence, &c.

His Majesty may exempt Aliens from delivering such Accounts; and Aliens delivering them, not liable to Prosecution for Offences against 33 Geo. 3.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Person, being an Alien, shall be found at large in Great Britain after the Time in any such Proclamation to be limited for obtaining such Licence as aforesaid by such Person, such Person not having obtained such Licence as aforesaid, or an Allowance of Time unexpired to obtain such Licence, and not being exempted from the Obligation to deliver such Account as aforesaid, by this Act, or by any Proclamation or Order of his Majesty in Council, or by special Warrant from one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, such Person being thereof lawfully convicted, shall and may, at the Discretion of the Court before whom he or she shall be so convicted, be adjudged to suffer Imprisonment for any Time not exceeding one Year, or to be transported beyond the Seas for any Time not exceeding seven Years.

Penalty on Aliens found at large, not having obtained Licences; Imprisonment or Transportation.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person authorized to grant such Licences as aforesaid, and to whom Application shall be made for any such Licence as aforesaid, shall think fit to refuse to give such Licence to any Alien who shall apply for the same, such Alien so applying for such Licence shall be forthwith conveyed before one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, and committed to Prison, until such Alien shall be conveyed out of Great Britain, by Warrant from one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; unless his Majesty shall otherwise think fit, or unless the Person authorized to grant such Licence, and to whom Application for the same shall have been made, shall think fit to give such Alien further Time for the Purpose of obtaining such Licence, and shall signify the Allowance of such further Time by Writing under his Hand and Seal, specifying the Time allowed for obtaining such Licence; during which Time the Alien to whom such Time shall have been so allowed, shall and may reside within this Kingdom, in the same same Manner as if such Licence had been obtained: Provided nevertheless, that he or she shall, during such Time, reside in such Place, or within such District, as shall be expressed for that Purpose in such Writing allowing further Time as aforesaid, and not elsewhere.

If the Persons authorized to grant Licences think fit to refuse them, the Parties to be conveyed before a Justice, and committed, &c.

If Aliens be found out of the District allowed by Licences, &c. they shall be forfeited

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Alien having such Licence as aforesaid, or such Allowance of further Time to obtain a Licence as aforesaid, shall, at any Time after, be at large in Great Britain, in any Place not being the Place or District within which such Alien shall be allowed to reside as aforesaid, or shall be found not to have complied with the Restrictions or Conditions (if any) under which such Licence or Allowance shall have been granted, such Licence or Allowance shall be forfeited and determined, and such Alien shall be liable to all such Penalties as he or she would have been subject to if no such Licence or Allowance had been granted.

If Licences, &c. be lost, &c. fresh ones may be granted.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any such Licence, or Allowance of further Time to obtain a Licence, shall be lost, mislaid, or destroyed, it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons authorized to grant such Licence or Allowance of further Time as aforesaid, upon Proof on Oath, to his or their Satisfaction, that such Licence or Allowance of further Time has been so lost, mislaid, or destroyed, to grant a fresh Licence, or Allowance of further Time to obtain a Licence, stating the former Licence or Allowance, and the Reason of granting such fresh Licence or Allowance; which fresh Licence or Allowance shall be of like Force as the Instrument so lost, mislaid, or destroyed.

33 Geo. 3. c. 4. to extend to Alien Merchants, and to Aliens in the Kingdom on or before Jan. 1, 1792; Provisions in that Act to the contrary (§ 10, &c. thereof) repealed.

VII. 'And whereas, in the said Act, passed in the thirty-third Year of his Majesty's Reign, certain Provisions are contained with respect to Alien Merchants, who are thereby in a great Degree exempted from the Provisions in the said Act respecting other Aliens; and such Act does not, in many Cases, extend to Aliens who arrived in this Kingdom on or before the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two;' be it enacted, That so much of the said Act of the thirty-third Year of his Majesty's Reign, as relates to Alien Merchants, and tends to exempt them from any of the Provisions in the said Act respecting other Aliens, shall be, and the same is hereby, from and after the passing of this Act, repealed; and the said Act of the thirty-third Year of his Majesty's Reign shall extend, and be construed, deemed, and taken to extend, in all Cases, to Alien Merchants, and also to all Aliens who arrived or were in this Kingdom at any Time on or before the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, in such and the same Manner as if such Aliens had not been Alien Merchants, or had arrived in this Kingdom after the said first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-two.

No Alien to leave the Kingdom without a Passport, which shall be produced to the Officer of the Customs for his Allowance, and to the Master of the Vessel, before Embarkation.

Penalty on Masters permitting Aliens to embark without Passports, &c. 500l. and on Aliens so embarking, Imprisonment, or Transportation.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall not be lawful for any Alien to leave this Kingdom, without a Passport for that Purpose first obtained from one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or from some Person authorized by his Majesty to grant such Passport; which Passport shall be produced to the proper Officer of his Majesty's Customs, at the Port or Place where such Alien shall embark for the Purpose of leaving this Kingdom; which Officer, being satisfied that the Person producing such Passport is the Person to whom the same was granted, and who was intended to be named and described therein, shall allow such Passport, and shall certify such Allowance by marking the same on such Passport, and signing the same with the Date of such Allowance; and such Passport, with such Allowance thereon, shall be produced to the Master or Person having the Charge or Care of the Ship or Vessel in which such Alien shall propose to embark, before such Alien shall be permitted to embark on board any Ship or Vessel for the Purpose of leaving this Kingdom; and if any Alien shall embark on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to leave this Kingdom, with the Knowledge, Privity, or Consent of the Master, or of the Person having at the Time the Command, Charge, or Care of such Vessel, not having obtained such Passport as aforesaid, and such Allowance thereof, signed by the proper Officer of the Customs as aforesaid, every such Master or Person having the Command, Charge, or Care of such Ship or Vessel, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of five hundred Pounds, one Moiety whereof shall go to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Poor of the Parish or Place at which such Alien shall embark as aforesaid; and every such Alien who shall embark on board any Ship or Vessel, with Intent to leave this Kingdom, not having previously obtained such Passport as aforesaid, and such Allowance thereof, signed by the proper Officer of the Customs as aforesaid, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall, at the Discretion of the Court before whom such Alien shall be so convicted, be adjudged to suffer Imprisonment for any Time not exceeding one Year, or to be transported beyond the Seas for any Term not exceeding seven Years: Provided always nevertheless, that it shall not be necessary for any Mariner actually engaged and employed in the Navigation of any Ship or Vessel, during the Time that such Mariner shall be actually so engaged or employed, to obtain any such Passport as aforesaid; but such Mariner shall and may be permitted to embark on board such Ship or Vessel for the Purpose of leaving this Kingdom, in the same Manner as if this Act had not been made.

Mariners employed in navigating Vessels may embark without Passports.

Aliens having quitted their Countries on Account of the Troubles in France, &c. not liable to be arrested for Debts contracted beyond the Seas out of his Ma-

IX. And be it further enacted, That Aliens abiding in this Kingdom, having quitted their respective Countries by reason of any Revolution or Troubles in France, or in Countries conquered by the Arms of France, shall not be liable to be arrested, imprisoned, or held to Bail, or to find any Caution for their forthcoming, or paying any Debt, nor to be taken in Execution on any Judgment, nor by any Caption, for or by reason of any Debt or other Cause of Action, contracted or arising in any Parts beyond the Seas, other than the Dominions of his Majesty, while such Aliens were not within the said Dominions of his Majesty; and in case any such Alien shall have been or shall be arrested, imprisoned, or held to Bail, or taken in Execution on a Judgment, or by any Caption, contrary to the Intent of this Act, such Alien shall be discharged therefrom by Order of any of his Majesty's Courts in Westminster Hall, or of the Court of Session in Scotland, or of any Judge of such Courts in Vacation Time.

jesty's Dominions.

X. And be it further enacted, That in case any Alien, who shall have obtained a Passport to leave this Kingdom in pursuance of this Act, shall not proceed with due Diligence to leave this Kingdom according to such Passport, such Alien shall be liable to all such Penalties as he or she would have been subject to if no such Passport had been granted.

Aliens to leave the Kingdom immediately on obtaining their Passports.

XI. And be it further enacted, That no Alien, who shall arrive in this Kingdom after the passing of this Act, shall depart from the Place in which he or she shall have so arrived, except for the Purpose of making such Declaration, or obtaining such Passport as by the said Act of the third Year of his Majesty's Reign * are required to be obtained by such Alien, or for the Purpose of delivering such Account, and obtaining such Licence as hereinbefore mentioned, until such Alien shall also have obtained such Licence to reside in this Kingdom, as hereinbefore mentioned.

No Alien arriving after passing this Act to depart from the Place of Arrival, but for certain Purposes, until he has obtained a Licence.

* § 3 8.

XII. And be it further enacted, That from and after the End of one Week after the passing of this Act, every Person, not keeping a public Inn for Reception of Guests, and licensed to sell Ale or Spirituous Liquors by Retail, who shall receive into his or her House or Apartment, for the Purpose of lodging or residing therein, for more than forty-eight Hours, any Alien, who ought to procure a Licence to reside in this Kingdom in pursuance of this Act, shall require such Alien to produce such Licence, or an Allowance of Time to obtain such Licence, or a Passport for such Alien to leave this Kingdom, and to deliver a Copy of such Licence, Allowance of Time, or Passport, before such Person shall receive such Alien into his or her House or Apartment to lodge or reside therein for more than forty-eight Hours, and shall, within two Days after such Alien shall have come to lodge or reside in such House or Apartment, deliver such Copy of such Licence, or of such Allowance of further Time to obtain a Licence or Passport, to the Overseers or Overseer of the Poor of the Parish, Township, or Place where such House or Apartment shall be situate in England, and to the Schoolmaster of the Parish or Place in Scotland, with a Notice, that the Alien named therein did come to lodge or reside in such House or Apartment, on a Day in such Notice to be specified, which shall be the very Day on which such Alien actually came to lodge or reside in such House or Apartment; and if any Person shall knowingly receive into his or her House or Apartment, to lodge or reside therein as aforesaid, any such Alien not producing such Licence, or Allowance of Time to obtain a Licence or Passport, or not delivering a Copy thereof as aforesaid, or shall neglect to deliver such Copy, with such Notice as aforesaid written thereon, to such Overseers or Overseer, or Schoolmaster as aforesaid, within the Time aforesaid; every Person so offending shall forfeit and lose the Sum of one hundred Pounds, one Moiety whereof shall go to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Poor of the Parish, Township, or Place where such House or Apartment shall be situate.

After a Week after passing this Act every Person, not keeping a public Inn, who shall receive an Alien to lodge for more than 48 Hours, shall require him to produce his Licence, &c. and shall, within two Days, deliver a Copy thereof to the Overseers of the Poor, &c. on Penalty of 100l; Half to the Informer and Half to the Poor.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That every Person, not keeping a public Inn for Reception of Guests, and licensed to sell Ale or Spirituous Liquors by Retail, who shall, at the Expiration of one Week after the passing of this Act, have any Alien lodging or residing in his or her House or Apartment, shall, within ten Days after the passing of this Act, deliver to the Overseers or Overseer of the Poor of the Parish, Township, or Place, where such House or Apartment shall be situate in England, and to the Schoolmaster of the Parish or Place in Scotland, a Notice in Writing, describing such Alien by his or her Name, and specifying the Time when such Alien first came to lodge or reside in such House or Apartment; and if any Person shall knowingly have received in his or her House or Apartment any such Alien, not having given Notice thereof as aforesaid, within the Time aforesaid, every Person so offending shall forfeit and lose the Sum of one hundred Pounds, one Moiety whereof shall go to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Poor of the Parish, Township, or Place, where such House or Apartment shall be situate.

And every such Person who shall have any Alien lodging with him shall, within 10 Days after passing this Act, deliver a Notice to the Overseers, &c. describing the Alien by his Name, &c. under a like Penalty.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That true Copies of all such Notices which shall be so delivered to such Overseers or Overseer, or Schoolmaster, as aforesaid, shall by them or him be transmitted four Times in every Year, (that is to say,) on the first Day of July, the first Day of September, the first Day of December, and the first Day of March, in each Year, to the Clerk of the Peace for the County, Riding, Stewartry, City, or Place, in which such House or Apartment shall be situate, and the same shall be laid by such Clerk of the Peace before the Justices of the Peace, at their next Quarterly Sessions of the Peace for such County, Riding, Stewartry, City, or Place, and shall by them be certified to one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and such Justices shall from Time to Time make, at their Quarterly Sessions, such Order or Orders in the Premises, as may be necessary for the due Observance and Execution of the several Provisions herein contained, by the said Overseers, Schoolmaster, and Clerk of the Peace respectively.

Copies of such Notices to be transmitted to the Clerks of the Peace to be laid before the Quarter Sessions, and by them certified to a Secretary of State.

XV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Mayor or Chief Magistrate, or for any Justice of the Peace for any County, Riding, Stewartry, City, Town, or Place, within this Kingdom, from and after the passing of this Act, to require any Alien, not exempted from the Provisions of this Act, to exhibit to such Mayor, Magistrate, or Justice, his or her Licence to reside in this Kingdom, or Allowance of Time to procure a Licence or Passport to leave this Kingdom, which such Alien is hereby required to produce accordingly; and in Default thereof, or in case it shall appear that such Alien has not complied with the Terms of such Licence or Allowance, or has not proceeded with due Diligence to leave this Kingdom, according to such Passport, such Mayor, Magistrate, or Justice, may commit such Alien to the Common Magistrates may require Aliens to produce Licences, &c. and may commit them in Default thereof, or for not having complied with the Terms, &c.

Common Gaol, or other public Prison, to answer for the Offence of which such Alien shall have been guilty, there to remain until he or she shall be discharged by due Course of Law.

The Principal Secretaries of State, &c. may cause suspected Aliens to be taken into Custody.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lord Mayor, or any one or more of the Aldermen of the City of London, and for any one or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for any County, Riding, Stewartry, City, or Place, being specially authorized by one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal, or generally authorized by Order of his Majesty in Council, or any Mayor or Chief Magistrate, or other Magistrate or Magistrates of any City, Borough, or Town Corporate, so authorized, to cause any Alien whom he or they shall have Cause to suspect to be a dangerous Person, to be taken into Custody, and examined, and either discharged or detained in Custody, as shall appear advisable; and if it shall be thought fit to detain such Alien in Custody, it shall be lawful for such Secretary of State, or such Mayor, Alderman, or Chief Magistrate, or other Magistrate or Magistrates, or such Justice or Justices, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, to order such Alien to be detained in Custody until his Majesty's Pleasure shall be known, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize; and every such Mayor, Alderman, Chief Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, shall forthwith transmit an Account of his or their Proceedings touching such Alien, to one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to the End that his Majesty's Pleasure may be declared therein; and it shall be lawful for his Majesty, by Warrant under his Sign Manual, or by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any one of his Principal Secretaries of State, either to direct that such Alien shall be discharged, or continued in Custody for such Time or in such Manner as his Majesty shall think fit, or ordered to quit the Kingdom.

Mayors, &c. to transmit Accounts of their Proceedings touching such Aliens to a Principal Secretary of State, for his Majesty's Pleasure.

His Majesty may order Aliens to be detained in Custody, to prevent them departing the Kingdom.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That in case his Majesty shall be advised, that it may be dangerous to the Security of the Kingdom to send any Alien out of the Kingdom, it shall be lawful for his Majesty, by Warrant under his Sign Manual, or by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to order such Alien to be detained in Custody in this Kingdom, in such Place and in such Manner as his Majesty shall think fit, and until his Majesty shall give other Order to the contrary.

No Alien to land till the Master of the Vessel has made the Declaration required by § 1. of 33 Geo. 3. c. 4. and a Permission be obtained; or the Alien shall be committed, and the Master shall forfeit 100l. unless he proves such Alien was landed against his Will.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Alien shall be permitted to land in this Kingdom, until the Master or Commander of the Ship or Vessel, in which such Alien shall have arrived, shall have made the Declaration concerning Foreigners on board his Ship or Vessel, required by the said Act of the thirty-third Year of his Majesty's Reign, and shall have obtained, from the proper Officer of the Customs, a Permission, in Writing, to land such Alien; and in case any Alien, not being a Mariner actually engaged and employed as such in the Navigation of such Ship or Vessel, shall land in this Kingdom from any such Ship or Vessel, without such Permission first obtained, such Alien shall forthwith be taken into Custody, and carried before one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, who shall commit such Alien to one of his Majesty's Gaols, or to such other Custody as to such Justice shall seem fit, until his Majesty's Pleasure concerning such Alien shall be known; and the Master or Commander, or the Person having Charge of such Ship or Vessel, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of one hundred Pounds for every Alien so landed, unless he shall make it appear that such Alien was landed from such Ship or Vessel against the Will of such Master or Commander, or the Person having the Charge of such Ship or Vessel; and such Penalty shall be recovered before one or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, and one Moiety thereof shall go to the Poor of the Parish or Place where such Offence was committed, and the other Moiety to the Informer; and it shall be lawful for any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise, to detain such Ship or Vessel until such Penalty shall be paid; and any Boat or Vessel used in landing any such Alien from the Ship or Vessel in which such Alien shall have arrived as aforesaid, shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise, and the same shall be forfeited, together with all Tackle, Apparel, Ammunition, and Furniture thereunto respectively belonging.

Officers of the Customs or Excise may detain Vessels, &c.

Penalty for forging Licences, &c. or obtaining them under false Names, &c. Imprisonment and Transportation.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall wilfully forge, counterfeit, or alter, or cause to be forged, counterfeited, or altered, or shall utter, knowing the same to be forged, counterfeited, or altered, any such Licence, Allowance of Time to obtain a Licence, Passport, or Allowance of a Passport, hereinbefore directed to be obtained, or shall obtain any such Licence, Allowance of Time to obtain a Licence, Passport, or Allowance of a Passport, under any other Name or Description than the true Name and Description of such Alien, (without disclosing to the Person granting such Licence, or Allowance of further Time to obtain a Licence or Passport, the true Name and Description of such Alien, and the Reason for concealing the same,) or shall falsely pretend to be the Person intended to be named and described in any such Licence, Allowance of Time to obtain a Licence, Passport, or Allowance of a Passport, every Person so offending, being lawfully convicted thereof, shall suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol for any Time not exceeding one Year, and, if the Court before whom such Person shall be convicted shall think fit, shall also be transported beyond the Seas for any Term not exceeding seven Years.

The Secretaries of State may cause Aliens ordered to quit the Kingdom to be taken into Custody, and to give Security for quitting it, &c.

XX. And be it further enacted, That when any Alien shall be ordered to quit this Kingdom in pursuance of the said Act of the thirty-third Year of his Majesty's Reign, or of this Act, it shall be lawful for one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to cause such Alien to be taken into Custody, and carried before any Justice of the Peace, or Mayor or Chief Magistrate of any County, Riding, Stewartry, City, Town, or Place, where such Alien shall happen to be, and to require such Alien to give Security to quit this Kingdom within a Time to be limited by the Recognizance, in a sufficient Penalty, of two or more Persons,

Persons, who shall be either natural-born Subjects of his Majesty, or Persons naturalized or made Denizens, or Aliens having Licence to reside in this Kingdom, such Security to be approved by such Justice of the Peace, Mayor, or Chief Magistrate; and if such Security shall not be given, it shall be lawful for such Justice of the Peace, Mayor, or Chief Magistrate, and he is hereby required, to commit such Alien to the Common Gaol, there to remain until he or she can be sent out of this Kingdom by Warrant from one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Licences, &c. to be given gratis.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That all Licences, Allowances of further Time to obtain Licences, Passports, and Allowances of Passports, herein directed to be obtained, shall be given without Fee or Reward, and shall be subject to no Duty or Charge whatsoever.

Act not to extend to Foreign Ambassadors nor their Servants: nor to Aliens not upwards of 14 Years old. Proof to lie on the Party accused.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Foreign Ambassador, or other Public Minister duly authorized, nor the Domestic Servants of any such Foreign Ambassador or Public Minister, registered as such according to the Directions of the Laws in Force for that Purpose, or being actually attendant upon such Ambassador or Minister, shall be deemed an Alien within the Meaning of this Act: Provided also, that nothing in this Act contained shall affect any Alien in respect of any Act done or omitted to be done, who shall make it appear that he or she was not above the Age of fourteen Years at the Time when such Act was so done or omitted to be done: Provided always, that if any Question shall arise whether any Person alleged to be an Alien, and subject to the Provisions of this Act, or any of them, is an Alien or not, or is or is not an Alien subject to the said Provisions, or any of them, the Proof that such Person is, or by Law is to be deemed to be a natural-born Subject of his Majesty, or Denizen of this Kingdom, or naturalized by Act of Parliament, or if an Alien, is not subject to the Provisions in this Act contained, or any of them, by reason of any Exception contained in this Act, or which shall be expressed in any Proclamation or Order in Council as aforesaid, or in any Special Warrant from one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as aforesaid, shall lie on the Person so alleged to be an Alien, and to be subject to the Provisions of this Act, some or one of them.

Transportation to be to such Place as his Majesty in Council shall direct.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases in which any Person shall be adjudged to be transported in pursuance of this Act, the Transportation shall be adjudged to be, and shall be, to such Place or Places as his Majesty, with the Advice of his Privy Council, shall direct or appoint.

Persons sentenced to Transportation found within the Realm to suffer Death.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person ordered or adjudged to be transported in pursuance of this Act, shall be found at large within this Realm, after Sentence of Transportation pronounced, he or she shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon, without Benefit of Clergy.

Recovery of Penalties.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That all pecuniary Penalties by this Act imposed, exceeding the Sum of one hundred Pounds, shall be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or the Courts of Great Session in Wales, or the Courts of the Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster, and Durham, or by Action, or Summary Bill or Information in the Courts of Justiciary or Exchequer in Scotland, as the Case shall require, wherein no Essoin, Privilege, Protection, or Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance, shall be allowed; and all pecuniary Penalties by this Act imposed, not exceeding the Sum of one hundred Pounds, shall, on Conviction of the Offender upon Oath before any Justice of the Peace of the County, Riding, Stewartry, City, or Place, where the Offence shall be committed, be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of such Justice, rendering to such Offender the Overplus (if any) on Demand, after deducting the Charges of such Distress and Sale; and for Want of sufficient Distress, such Justice is hereby required to commit such Offender to the Common Gaol of the County, Riding, Stewartry, City, or Place, where such Offence shall be committed, for any Time not exceeding six Calendar Months; and no Writ of Certiorari, or of Advocation or Suspension, shall be allowed to remove the Proceedings of the said Justice, touching the pecuniary Penalties aforesaid, or to supersede or suspend Execution or other Proceeding thereupon.

Offenders to be committed for Want of Distress. No Writ of Certiorari, &c. to be allowed touching pecuniary Penalties.

Inhabitants may be Witnesses.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That the Inhabitants of any Parish, Township, or Place, shall be deemed and taken to be competent Witnesses for the Purpose of proving the Commission of any Offence against this Act, within the Limits of such Parish, Township, or Place, notwithstanding any Part of the Penalty incurred by such Offence is given or applicable to the Poor of such Parish, Township, or Place.

Limitation of Actions.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall at any Time be sued or prosecuted for any Thing by him or them done or executed in pursuance or by Colour of this Act, or of any Matter or Thing therein contained, such Action or Prosecution shall be commenced within the Space of three Calendar Months next after the Offence shall be committed; and such Person or Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give the Special Matter in Evidence for his or their Defence; and if upon Trial a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants, or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuited, or shall discontinue his or their Suit or Prosecution, or if Judgment be given for the Defendant or Defendants upon Demurrer, or otherwise, such Defendant or Defendants shall have treble Costs to him or them awarded against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

General Issue.

Treble Costs.

Act may be altered or repealed this Session.

XXVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That this Act, or any of the Provisions therein contained, may be altered, varied, or repealed, by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

(See post, c. 77.) Continuance of this and the recited Act.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That this Act, and also the said Act passed in the thirty-third Year of his Majesty's Reign, shall have Continuance until the first Day of August in the Year one thousand eight hundred, and thence until the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

CAP. LI.

An Act for authorizing the billetting such Troops of Yeomanry Cavalry as may be desirous of assembling for the Purpose of being trained together, and for exempting from the Payment of certain Duties Persons providing Horses for the said Yeomanry Cavalry.—[1st June 1798.]

'WHEREAS many Corps and Troops of Volunteer Cavalry, raised under and by virtue of an Act passed in the thirty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty *, or under and by virtue of two Acts, passed in the last Session of Parliament †, for raising a provisional Force of Cavalry, are desirous of assembling together at such convenient Places, and for such Time as may be fixed, under the Authority of this Act, for the Purpose of more effectually training and disciplining themselves; and for that Purpose it may be necessary to provide Quarters, and to billet such of the said Volunteers as may not find it convenient to return to their own Houses after each Day's Exercise:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That whenever the Men enrolled, or the Majority of them, in any such Troop or Corps of Volunteer Cavalry, shall, through their Captain or Commanding Officer, signify in Writing to the Lieutenant of the County, Riding, or Place, where such Troop or Corps shall be raised, or in case of Vacancy, or in the Absence of the Lieutenant, to the Deputy Lieutenants executing the Office of the Lieutenant, their Desire to assemble under the Command of their own Officers at any Place in particular, or at any convenient Place or Places, either within the same County, Riding, or Place, or without, for the Purpose of being trained and exercised, for any Space of Time not exceeding in the Whole twenty Days, either successively or at Intervals, within the Space of five successive Months, and either in separate Corps or Troops, or together with any other Corps or Troops of Volunteer Cavalry, who shall also have signified their Desire of assembling for that Purpose in like Manner, or with any Regiment, Battalion, Troop or Troops of his Majesty's Regular Forces of Cavalry, or any Number of such Cavalry, in case his Majesty shall think proper to give Directions to such of his Cavalry as aforesaid for that Purpose, it shall be lawful for such Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants respectively, in every Year during the Continuance of this Act, in pursuance of the Desire of any Corps or Troop of Volunteer Cavalry, to be signified in Manner aforesaid, to make any Order for assembling such Volunteer Cavalry, to be directed to any Justice of the Peace of the County, Riding, or Place, where such Volunteer Cavalry shall be appointed to assemble themselves for the Purpose aforesaid, at such Place or Places as the said Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants as aforesaid, with the Concurrence of the General Officer having the Command of the District, and in case the Place appointed shall be in another County or Riding, then also with the Lieutenant of such County or Riding, or Deputy Lieutenants as aforesaid, in which Order shall be specified the Place and Places at which, and the precise Time or Times during which such Volunteer Cavalry are to continue so assembled under the Authority of this Act; and the Justice of the Peace, to whom such Order shall be directed, shall issue his Precept to the Constable, Headborough, or other Officer of the Peace of the Place where any such Volunteer Corps or Troops are to be assembled, for the quartering and billetting the Non-commissioned Officers, Privates, and Trumpeters of such Volunteer Corps or Troops, upon such Persons and in such Houses, situate in the Place or Places specified in such Order, as his Majesty's Regular Forces may by Law be quartered and billetted; and that, from and after the Delivery of any Order of the Lieutenant of any County, Riding, or Place, or Deputy Lieutenants, acting as aforesaid, made with such Consent and Concurrence as aforesaid, to any Justice of the Peace of any County, Riding, or Place, where any such Corps or Troop of Volunteer Cavalry are to assemble, it shall be lawful to quarter and billet the Non-commissioned Officers, Private Men, and Trumpeters, of any such Corps or Troop of Volunteer Cavalry, in all and every the Houses situate in such Place or Places as aforesaid, in which, and upon all and every the Persons on whom, any of his Majesty's Regular Forces may by Law be quartered and billetted; and that, from and after the Delivery of any such Order, during the Times appointed as aforesaid for such Training and Exercise, all and every the Powers, Provisions, Rules, Penalties, Allowances, Matters, and Things, provided and established by any Act or Acts now or hereafter to be in Force for quartering and billetting his Majesty's Regular Forces, shall be used and put in Practice for the quartering and billetting the Corps and Troops of Volunteer Cavalry assembled under the Authority of this Act, as fully and effectually as if all and every the said Powers, Provisions, Rules, Penalties, Allowances, Matters, and Things, had been specially re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

† cc. 6, 23.

The County Lieutenant, on Desire of Volunteer Cavalry to assemble for Exercise, may make Order for that Purpose, &c.

Justices to issue Precepts to Peace Officers for quartering such Volunteers, as for the Regular Forces.

II. And be it further enacted, That whenever the Lieutenant of any County, Riding, or Place, or the Deputy Lieutenants as aforesaid, shall have fixed the Days and Place of Exercise for any Corps or Troop of Volunteer Cavalry, he or they shall, as soon as may be, certify the same to the Receiver General of such County, Riding, or Place, specifying the Number of Men and the Number of Days appointed for exercising them, not exceeding in the Whole twenty; and such Receiver General is hereby required, within fourteen Days after the Receipt of such Certificate, to issue and pay to the Officer having the Command of each Corps or Troop, at the Rate of two Shillings per Day for each such Volunteer who shall attend the Place of Exercise, and one Shilling and Four-pence per Day for each Horse, Mare, or Gelding, belonging to such Corps or Troop, and used in Exercise.

County Lieutenant to certify to the Receiver General, the Number of Men and Days appointed for Exercise, who shall issue Pay for the Volunteers to the Commanding Officer.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Officer having the Command of each Troop of Volunteer Cavalry shall make up an Account of all Monies received and paid by him, on Account of such Exercise, according to the following Form: Commanding Officer to make up his Accounts in the following Form;

COUNTY of	Dr.	£.	s.	d.	Per Contra	Cr.	£.	s.	d.
To Cash received of the Receiver General for Days Pay of Men - - - - - -					Paid Volunteer Cavalry Men for their Attendance at the Place of Exercise on the Days appointed, being Days Pay - - - - -
To Ditto for Days Allowance for Horses - - -					Paid Allowance for Horses used in Exercise for Days - - - - - -

Which Account shall be signed by the Officer having the Command of such Troop; and such Officer shall, within ten Days after the Time such Exercise is finished, deliver such Account, and pay the Balance, if there be any due, to the Receiver General; and such Account shall be allowed as sufficient Vouchers, in the passing of the Accounts of the Receiver General, by the proper Auditor of his Majesty's Court of Exchequer. which he shall sign and deliver to the Receiver General, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That no Toll shall be demanded or taken at any Turnpike Gate or Bar, for any Horse, Mare, or Gelding, furnished by or for any Persons belonging to any Corps or Troops of Volunteer Cavalry, and rode by them, in going to or returning from the Place appointed for, and on the Days of Exercise; any Thing contained in any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding. No Toll to be taken for any Horses belonging to Volunteer Cavalry, going to or returning from Exercise.

V. Provided always, That such Persons shall be dressed in the Uniform of their respective Corps or Troops, and have their Arms, Furnitures, and Accoutrements, according to the Regulations provided for such Corps and Troops respectively, at the Time of claiming such Exemption as aforesaid. Persons claiming such Exemption to be dressed in their Uniform, &c.

VI. And be it further enacted, That no Person who shall provide a Horse, Mare, or Gelding, for any Person serving in any Volunteer Corps of Cavalry, raised under the Authority of any Act of Parliament now in force, or who shall at his or her Expence furnish a Horse, Mare, or Gelding, for any Person serving in any such Corps as aforesaid, shall be charged or chargeable for such Horse, Mare, or Gelding, with any of the Duties imposed by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an Aid and Contribution for the Prosecution of the War; but that every such Person keeping one such Horse, Mare, or Gelding only, shall be wholly exempt from the said Duties during his Continuance in the said Service; and that every such Person keeping more than one such Horse, Mare, or Gelding, shall, during his Continuance in such Service, be assessed and charged according to the Rates in the said Act prescribed, for one Horse, Mare, or Gelding, less than the Number of Horses, Mares, or Geldings, by him kept and used as aforesaid. No Person furnishing a Horse for a Volunteer Corps to be charged for it, with the Duty imposed by c. 16. of this Session.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in the Certificate of the Commanding Officer of the Corps or Troop in which any such Person as aforesaid shall serve, not only the several Persons who shall serve, but also the several Persons who shall furnish any Horses, Mares, or Geldings, for any other Persons serving in any such Corps, shall be inserted, and that Affidavits of the several Persons serving in such Corps, for whom any Horses, Mares, or Geldings shall be furnished, declaring by whom respectively the same are furnished, shall, in every such Case, be annexed to such Certificate. In the Certificates of Commanding Officers, the Persons who serve, and who furnish Horses for others, shall be inserted;

CAP. LII.

An Act to regulate the Trial of Causes, Indictments, and other Proceedings, which arise within the Counties of certain Cities and Towns Corporate within this Kingdom.

[1st June 1798.]

'WHEREAS there at present exists, in the Counties of Cities and of Towns Corporate within this Kingdom, an exclusive Right, that all Causes and Offences which arise within their particular Limits should be tried by a Jury of Persons residing within the Limits of the County of such City or Town Corporate; which ancient Privilege, intended for other and good Purposes, has in many Instances been found, by Experience, not to conduce to the Ends of Justice: And whereas it will tend to the more effectual Administration of Justice, in certain Cases, if Actions, Indictments, and other Proceedings, the Causes of which arise within the Counties of Cities and Towns Corporate, were tried in the next adjoining Counties:' In order therefore to remedy this Mischief for the future, be it enacted by the

In Actions in any Court of Record at Westminster, &c. if the Venue be laid in the County of any City or Town Corporate in England, &c. the Court may direct the Issue to be tried by a Jury of the County next adjoining.

King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, in every Action, whether the same be transitory or local, which shall be prosecuted or depending in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, and in every Indictment removed into his Majesty's Court of King's Bench by Writ of Certiorari, and in every Information filed by his Majesty's Attorney or Solicitor General, or by the Leave of the Court of King's Bench, and in all Cases where any Person or Persons shall plead to or traverse any of the Facts contained in the Return to any Writ of Mandamus, if the Venue in such Action, Indictment, or Information, be laid in the County of any City or Town Corporate within that Part of Great Britain called England, or if such Writ of Mandamus be directed to any Person or Persons, Body Politic and Corporate, that it shall and may be lawful for the Court in which such Action, Indictment, Information, or other Proceeding shall be depending, at the Prayer and Instance of any Prosecutor or Plaintiff, or of any Defendant, to direct the Issue or Issues joined in such Action, Indictment, Information, or Proceeding, to be tried by a Jury of the County next adjoining to the County of such City or Town Corporate, and to award proper Writs of Venire and Distringas accordingly, if the said Court shall think it fit and proper so to do.

Bills of Indictment for Offences committed within the County of any City or Town Corporate may be preferred to the Jury of the County next adjoining.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any Prosecutor or Prosecutors to prefer his, her, or their Bill or Bills of Indictment, for any Offence or Offences committed, or charged to be committed, within the County of any City or Town Corporate, to the Jury of the County next adjoining to the County of such City or Town Corporate, sworn and charged to inquire for the King, for the Body of such adjoining County, at any Sessions of Oyer and Terminer, or General Gaol Delivery; and that every such Bill of Indictment, found to be a true Bill by such Jury, shall be valid and effectual in Law, as if the same had been found to be a true Bill by any Jury sworn and charged to inquire for the King for the Body of the County of such City or Town Corporate.

Indictments found by a Grand Jury of the County of any City or Town Corporate, or Inquisitions taken before the Coroner, may be ordered by the Court of Oyer, &c. thereto to be filed with the proper Officer of the next adjoining County, and the Defendants removed to the Gaol thereof, &c.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if it shall appear to any Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery for the County of any City or Town Corporate, that any Indictment found by any Grand Jury of the County of such City or Town Corporate, or any Inquisition taken before the Coroner or Coroners of the County of such City or Town Corporate, or other Franchise, is fit and proper to be tried by a Jury of any next adjoining County, that it shall and may be lawful for the said Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, at the Prayer of any Defendant, to order such Indictment or Inquisition, and the several Recognizances, Examinations, and Depositions, relative to such Indictments and Inquisitions, to be filed with the proper Officer, to be by him kept among the Records of the Courts of Oyer or Terminer and General Gaol Delivery for such next adjoining County, and to cause the Defendant or Defendants in such Indictment to be removed, by Writ of Habeas Corpus, to the Gaol of such next adjoining County; which Writ the said Court is hereby directed and authorized to issue, if such Defendant or Defendants be in the Prison of such City or Town Corporate; and if he, she, or they be not in such Prison, to commit such Defendant or Defendants to the Gaol of such next adjoining County, and to cause the Prosecutors and Witnesses against such Defendant or Defendants, to enter into a Recognizance or Recognizances, to prosecute and give Evidence against such Defendant or Defendants at the Sessions of Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery for such next adjoining County; and that the same Proceedings and Trial shall be had, and the same Judgment shall be given, in such last-mentioned Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, as would and might be had and given in Cases of Indictments or Inquisitions for the like Offences, committed within such next adjoining Counties.

The Judges of the Court of King's Bench, &c. may, on Application of the Prosecutor, cause Persons in Custody for Offences committed within the County of any City or Town Corporate, to be removed into the Custody of the Sheriff of the next adjoining County, for Trial; and direct Coroners to return to the Court of Oyer and Terminer Inquisitions, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any of the Judges of his Majesty's Court of King's Bench, or any of the Justices of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, for such next adjoining or other County as aforesaid, on the Application of any such Prosecutor or Prosecutors ten Days next before the holding of any Sessions of Oyer and Terminer, or General Gaol Delivery, for such last-mentioned County, by proper Writs of Habeas Corpus, which they are hereby empowered and authorized to issue, to cause any Person or Persons who may be in the Custody of any Sheriff or Sheriffs, or of the Keepers of any Gaol or Prison, charged with any Offence or Offences committed within the County of any such City or Town Corporate, to be removed into the Custody of the Sheriff of such next adjoining County, in order that he, she, or they may, for such Offence or Offences as aforesaid, be tried in such last-mentioned County; and by Order under the Hand of any one of the said Judges or Justices of Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery, to direct the Coroner or Coroners of the County of any such City or Town Corporate, or other Franchise, to return to the next Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, to be holden for such next adjoining County, any Inquisition or Inquisitions, Examination or Deposition taken touching the Death of any Person or Persons within the Limits of his or their Jurisdictions; and that whenever, in pursuance of this Act, any Bill or Bills of Indictment shall be found by such Grand Jury as aforesaid, against any Person or Persons, for any Offence or Offences committed, or charged to be committed, within the County of any City or Town Corporate, that it shall and may be lawful for the said Courts of Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery, to issue Process for apprehending the Person or Persons against whom such Bill or Bills of Indictment shall be found, if not in Custody, and to compel the Attendance of Witnesses upon the Trial of such Indictments, in like Manner as in Cases of Indictments found in any such Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, for Offences committed within such adjoining Counties.

Recognizances entered into for Prosecution of Persons for Offences committed within the County of any City or Town Corporate, &c. to be forfeited, if the Parties, on Notice of Intention to prefer Indictments in the next adjoining County, do not appear, &c.

V. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every Recognizance which, after the passing of this Act, shall be entered into for the Prosecution of any Person or Persons, for any Offence or Offences committed, or charged to be committed, within the County of any City or Town Corporate, or within any Liberty or Franchise, and every Recognizance for the Appearance as well of Witnesses to give Evidence upon any Bill of Indictment to be preferred, or any Inquisition found for any such Offence or Offences as aforesaid, as for the Appearance of any Person or Persons to answer our Lord the King, for or concerning the same, shall be forfeited, if the Prosecutor shall, ten Days previous to the holding of the next Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery, in the next adjoining or other County, give Notice to the Person bound in such Recognizance to give Evidence upon such Bill of Indictment, or to answer our said Lord the King as aforesaid, of the Intention to prefer such Indictment, or to remove such Inquisition, in or into the next adjoining or other County, and the Party bound in such Recognizance shall not appear, prosecute, or give, or be ready to give, Evidence at such Court; but if the Person bound in such Recognizance, after Notice as aforesaid, shall appear at such Court of the next adjoining or other County, prosecute, give, or be ready to give, Evidence on such Indictment before the Grand Jury, and on the Trial thereof, or on the Trial of such Inquisition, then the said Recognizance shall be discharged in such and the like Manner as if the Person bound in such Recognizance had complied with the Terms thereof.

VI. Provided also, That in case the Person or Persons who shall enter into such Recognizance or Recognizances as aforesaid, cannot be found, and such Notice as aforesaid be left at his, her, or their last Place of Abode, ten Days previous to the holding such Sessions as last aforesaid, the same shall be as good and effectual as if the same were left with the Person or Persons who shall enter into such Recognizance or Recognizances; and that no such Recognizance shall be estreated or returned into the Court of Exchequer until the next following Session of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery to be holden for such next adjoining County, in order that such Recognizance or Recognizances may be discharged, in case the Person or Persons who shall have entered into the same shall shew to such Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery sufficient Cause for discharging the same.

Recognizances not to be estreated until the next following Sessions for the adjoining County.

Persons before whom such Recognizances shall be entered into, &c. to return them to the next Court of Oyer and Terminer for the next adjoining County, upon Notice of Intention to prosecute at such Sessions for any Offence committed within the County of any City or Town Corporate.

VII. And be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all and every Person and Persons, before whom any such Recognizance or Recognizances as aforesaid shall be entered into, or by whom any Examination or Deposition shall be taken, touching any such Offence or Offences as aforesaid, shall, and they are hereby required to return the same to the next Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Gaol Delivery for such next adjoining County as aforesaid, upon such Prosecutor or Prosecutors as aforesaid leaving at the Dwelling House or other Place of Abode of the Person or Persons before whom such Recognizance or Recognizances shall be entered into, or by whom such Examination or Deposition shall be taken, ten Days before the holding of any Sessions of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery for such next adjoining or other County as aforesaid, Notice in Writing of his, her, or their Intention to prosecute such Indictment or Inquisition at such last-mentioned Sessions of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery, for any Offence or Offences committed within the County of any City or Town Corporate; and that after the Delivery as aforesaid of any of the said Notices, it shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons to prefer any Bill or Bills of Indictment, or to return any Inquisition, for any Offence or Offences mentioned in the said Recognizances, or any of them, at or to any Sessions of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery for the County of such City or Town Corporate.

any City or Town Corporate. After such Notice, Bills shall not be preferred, &c. at any Sessions for the County of the City or Town Corporate.

Justices of Oyer and Terminer for the adjoining County may order the Expences of Prosecution, &c. to be paid, as if the Indictment had been tried in the Court of the County of the City or Town Corporate.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases of Indictments, and other Proceedings, which may be tried before his Majesty's Justices of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery for any County, in pursuance of the Provisions contained in this Act, it shall and may be lawful for such Justices to order the Expences of the Prosecution, and of the Witnesses, and of the several Rewards payable in pursuance of the Statutes in such Cases made and provided on the Conviction of Offenders, to be paid by and to the same Persons, and in the same Manner, as the same would be payable if such Indictment had been tried in the Court of Oyer and Terminer or General Gaol Delivery of the County of such City or Town Corporate.

York to be considered as next County to Kingston upon Hull, and Northumberland as next to Newcastle upon Tyne.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That for the Purposes of this Act, the County of York shall be considered as the next adjoining County to the County of the Town of Kingston upon Hull; the County of Northumberland as the next adjoining County to the County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne.

Act not to extend to certain Places;

X. Provided always, That nothing in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend, to the Cities of London and Westminster, or the Borough of Southwark, or the City or County of the City of Bristol, or the City or County of the City of Chester, or to the Criminal Jurisdiction of the City of Exeter and County of the same City, unless in Cases of Indictment removed into his Majesty's Court of King's Bench by Writ of Certiorari, from any Court of Criminal Jurisdiction, within the said City or County of the said City of Exeter.

XI. Pro-

nor to take away any other ancient Privileges of Corporations, who shall not be liable to attend as Jurymen upon the Trial of any Cause in the County at large.

XI. Provided also, That nothing in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend, to take away any other Rights or Privileges which have been anciently granted to such Corporations, by Royal Charters or Grants, and which have been immemorially held and enjoyed by such Corporations; but that they shall continue in the full Possession of all their other exclusive Rights and Privileges as much as if this Act of Parliament had never passed; and that they shall not be obliged to attend as Jurymen upon the Trial of any Cause or any Indictment which may be removed from the limited Jurisdiction to the County at large, nor upon the Trial of any other Cause, or any other Indictment, which may be tried before his Majesty's Justices of Assize, Oyer and Terminer, and General Gaol Delivery, in the next adjoining County.

Act not to authorize the preferring any Bill of Indictment for an Offence committed within the County of any City or Town Corporate to the Jury of the next adjoining County, unless Recognizance be entered into to pay the extra Costs.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to enable any Person to prefer any Bill of Indictment for any Offence committed, or charged to be committed, within the County of any City or Town Corporate, to the Jury of such next adjoining County as aforesaid, or to remove any Indictment or other Criminal Proceeding, except the Person preferring such Bill, or applying for such Removal, shall enter into a Recognizance before the Court where such Bill shall be preferred, or the Court or Magistrate to whom such Application shall be made, as the Case may be, in the Sum of forty Pounds, conditioned to pay the extra Costs attending the prosecuting for such Offence in such next adjoining County, provided the Court before whom the Trial is had shall be of Opinion that he ought to pay the same.

CAP. LIII.

An Act for granting to His Majesty a Duty on Certificates issued with respect to Armorial Bearings or Ensigns.—[21st June 1798.]

'Most gracious Sovereign,

'WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament 'assembled, towards raising the necessary Supplies to defray your Majesty's Public Expences, and 'making such permanent Addition to the Public Revenue as shall be adequate to the increased Charge occa'sioned by any Loan to be raised by virtue of any Act or Acts for that Purpose, to be passed in this Session 'of Parliament, have freely and voluntarily resolved to give and grant unto your Majesty the Duties herein'after mentioned; and do most humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted;' and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, throughout the Kingdom of Great Britain, unto and for the Use of His Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the Stamp Duties following; that is to say,

Persons using, wearing, or being possessed of Armorial Bearings on Carriages, Seals, Plate, or other Articles, to take out an annual Certificate:

That every Person using or wearing any Armorial Bearing or Ensign, by whatever Name the same shall be called, or who shall be possessed of any Carriage, or Seal, or Plate, or other Article on which the same shall be painted, marked, engraved, or affixed, shall previously enter his or her Name, and annually take out a Certificate thereof in the Manner herein mentioned:

Such Certificates to Persons keeping Carriages, to be charged 2l. 2s.;

That upon every Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which any Certificate issued to any Person keeping a Coach or other Carriage, upon which any Duty under the Management of the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes is chargeable, and on which such Armorial Bearing or Ensign shall be painted, marked, or affixed, shall be engrossed, written, or printed, there shall be charged a Stamp Duty of two Pounds and two Shillings:

and to Persons not keeping them, but chargeable to the Duties on Houses, &c. 1l. 1s;

That upon every Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which any Certificate shall be issued to any Person not keeping any such Coach or other Carriage, who shall be charged to the Duties on Inhabited Houses, or to the Duties on Houses, Windows, or Lights, by any Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, shall be engrossed, written, or printed, there shall be charged a Stamp Duty of one Pound and one Shilling:

and to Persons not so chargeable, 10s. 6d.

And that upon every Piece of Vellum or Parchment, or Sheet or Piece of Paper, upon which any Certificate issued to any Person not keeping any such Coach or other Carriage, not being charged to the said Duties on Inhabited Houses, or to the Duties on Houses, Windows, or Lights, shall be engrossed, written, or printed, there shall be charged a Stamp Duty of ten Shillings and Sixpence.

Act not to extend to the Royal Family, or to Arms used by Cities, &c.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to charge any of the Royal Family with any of the Duties by this Act imposed, or any Person who shall by Right of Office, or by Appointment, wear or use any of the Arms or Insignia worn or used by the Royal Family, or used by any City, Borough, or Town Corporate in Great Britain.

III. And

III. And be it further enacted, That, for the more effectual levying, collecting, and paying the said Duties hereinbefore granted, the same shall be under the Government, Care, and Management of the Commissioners for the Time being appointed to manage the Duties charged on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, who, or the major Part of them, are required and empowered to denote the Payment of the said Duties by this Act imposed, either by using any Stamps in their Possession heretofore provided to be used in relation to any former Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper, or to provide new Stamps for that Purpose, and to renew or alter the same from Time to Time as they shall see Occasion, and to do all Things necessary to be done for putting this Act in Execution with relation to the said Duties hereby granted, in as full and ample a Manner as they or the major Part of them are authorized to put in Execution any former Law concerning stamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper.

Duties to be under the Management of the Commissioners for Stamps.

IV. And be it further enacted, That, for the greater Convenience in paying the said Duties, the said Commissioners of Stamp Duties, by any Writing under the Hands and Seals of any three or more of them, shall and may appoint such and so many Offices and Places, within the Limits of ten Miles from the Head Office of Stamp Duties in Middlesex, for the Receipt of all Accounts of the Names and Places of Abode of Persons liable to the Payment of the said Duties, within the said Limits, in pursuance of this Act, and that the respective Head Distributors of Stamps shall also, without the said Limits, in their respective Divisions, with the Consent and Approbation of the said Commissioners, appoint in every County, Riding, Division, Shire, Stewartry, or Place, in Great Britain, one or more such Offices and Places for the Receipt of all Accounts of the Names and Places of Abode of all other Persons liable to the Payment of the said Duties, without the Limits of ten Miles from the Head Office as aforesaid; all which said Offices and Places shall respectively be kept open for the Purposes of this Act on such Days, and during such Periods of the Year, as the said Commissioners shall from Time to Time direct; which Directions, and also the Situation of the respective Offices and Places aforesaid, the said Commissioners shall cause to be, from Time to Time, publicly advertised in some Newspaper usually circulated in the Neighbourhood of such Offices or Places respectively, with the Names of the Officers appointed to superintend the same.

Commissioners to appoint Offices within certain Limits for Receipt of Names, &c.; and the Head Distributors to appoint them without such Limits, &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, or within the Space of two Calendar Months next ensuing, every Person liable to any of the Duties by this Act imposed, shall make such Entry as aforesaid, by delivering, or causing to be delivered, according to the Directions of this Act, into the Head Office of Stamps, or such other Office as the said Commissioners shall appoint within the Limits aforesaid, or in the Office of the Head Distributors of Stamps, or their Deputies, or other Persons appointed to receive the same, an Account in Writing, containing his or her Name and Place of Abode, and whether he or she is chargeable to the said Duties in respect of any Coach or other Carriage before mentioned, or to any of the Duties on Inhabited Houses, or on Houses, Windows, or Lights, or one of the Family, or a Lodger or Inmate abiding in the House of any Person, with the Day, Month, and Year, of delivering in the same; and such Commissioners, or their Distributors respectively, or their respective Deputies, or such other Person or Persons who shall be appointed to receive such Accounts at the Office or Place of Delivery, shall thereupon, and upon Payment of the said Duty, issue a Certificate made out in the Name of the proper Officer, and stamped to denote the Duty by this Act imposed, in the Form and Manner hereinafter directed; and which Account and Certificate shall respectively be made out in the Forms following; (that is to say,)

And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Expiration of two Calendar Months after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, if any Person shall use or wear any Armorial Bearing or Ensign, by whatever Name the same shall be called, or shall be possessed of or use any Carriage, or Seal, or Plate, or other Article on which any Armorial Bearing or Ensign shall be painted, marked, engraved, or affixed, without having obtained a Certificate from the proper Officer of Stamps in the County, Riding, Division, Shire, Stewartry, or Place where such Person shall reside, in pursuance and according to the Directions of this Act, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Pounds, which may be sued for and recovered in the County, Shire, Stewartry, or Place, where such Offender shall be; and if any Person having obtained any such Certificate shall afterwards sell, transfer, assign, or deliver the same to any other Person, with Intent that such Certificate shall be fraudulently made use of to the Diminution of his Majesty's Revenue, granted by this Act, or if any Person shall fraudulently use any such Certificate, in order to evade the Payment of the said Duty by this Act imposed, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of thirty Pounds.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Person who shall come into this Kingdom from Foreign Parts shall be required to obtain his or her Certificate in pursuance of this Act before the Expiration of twenty-one Days next after such Arrival, and the Proof of such Person's Arrival from Foreign Parts, and of the Time of such Arrival, shall lie upon the Party claiming such Privilege.

Persons from Foreign Parts to obtain Certificates after 21 Days from Arrival.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall be summoned as a Witness or Witnesses to give Evidence before such Justice, touching any of the Matters relative to this Act, and shall neglect or refuse to appear at the Time and Place to be for that Purpose appointed, without a reasonable Excuse for such Neglect or Refusal, to be allowed of by such Justice of the Peace, or appearing shall refuse to be examined on Oath, and give Evidence before whom the Prosecution shall be depending, that then every such Person shall forfeit, for every such Offence, the Sum of forty Shillings, to be levied and paid in such Manner, and by such Means, as is herein directed as to other Penalties.

Penalty on Witnesses neglecting to appear, or to give Evidence.

Convictions may be made out in the following Form.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That the Justice of the Peace before whom any Offender shall be convicted as aforesaid, shall cause the said Conviction to be made out in the Manner and Form following, or in any other Form of Words to the same Effect, mutatis mutandis, (that is to say,)

'BE it remembered, That on the Day of in the Year of our Lord in the County of A. B. of was convicted 'before me C. D. one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for residing near the Place 'where the Offence was committed, for that the said A. B. on the Day of 'now last past, did, contrary to the Form of the Statute in that Case made and provided, [here state the 'Offence against the Act,] and I do declare and adjudge that the said A. B. hath forfeited the Sum of 'of lawful Money of Great Britain, for the Offence aforesaid, to be distributed 'as the Law directs. Given under my Hand and Seal, the Day of

XXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Monies arising or to arise of the Duty hereby granted, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient, shall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue for the Purpose of defraying the increased Charge occasioned by such Part of any Loan, made by virtue of any Act or Acts passed in this Session of Parliament, as doth not exceed the Sum of seven Millions; and that the said Monies shall, during the Space of ten Years next ensuing, be paid into the said Receipt, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenue; and that there shall be provided and kept, in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt, during the said Period of ten Years, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies arising from the said Duties, and paid into the said Receipt, shall, together with the Monies arising from any other Rates and Duties granted in this Session of Parliament, for the Purpose of defraying such increased Charge as aforesaid, be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, upon any Account whatever.

CAP. LIV.

An Act to amend several Laws of Excise relating to Coachmakers, Auctioneers, Beer and Cyder exported, Certificates and Debentures, Stamps on Hides and Skins, Drawbacks on Wines and Sweets, and Ale and Beer Licences.—[21st June 1798.]

25 Geo. 3. c. 47. recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in the twenty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty certain Duties upon Licences to be taken out by Coachmakers, and also certain Duties upon Carriages to be built for Sale; it is enacted, That every Coachmaker

'shall, once in six Weeks, deliver a true Account in Writing of the Number and Kinds of such Carriages 'as in the said Act is mentioned, which he or she shall have made, built, or constructed, and sold, within 'six Weeks, and of the Days on which each Carriage respectively was delivered or sent out of his or 'her Shop or Warehouse, in Manner as in the said Act is directed: And whereas it is expedient to pro- 'vide that every such Account should also contain the several Matters and Things hereinafter mentioned:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That in every such Account in Writing delivered at the Chief Office of Excise in London, or at the Chief Office of Excise at Edinburgh, or to any Collector or Supervisor of Excise, by any Coachmaker in pursuance of the said Act, such Coachmaker shall specify the particular Day on which each such Carriage was delivered or sent out of his or her Shop or Warehouse, and the Name and Place of Abode of the Person or Persons to or for whom each such Carriage was so delivered or sent; and such Coachmaker, or his or her Chief Workman or Manager, shall make Oath to the Truth of such Account according to the best of his Knowledge and Belief; which Oath shall be administered by such Person as by the said Act is directed to administer the former Oath by the said Act prescribed.

In the Accounts directed by recited Act to be given in by Coachmakers to the Excise Office, certain Particulars to be inserted, and sworn to.

II. And be it further enacted, That every Auctioneer who shall neglect or refuse to make Payment within the Time limited by Law for the Payment thereof, of any Duty or Duties arising or charged, or chargeable for or by reason of any Sale or Sales by way of Auction, by him held, shall forfeit and lose for every such Offence double the Sum of the said Duty whereof the Payment shall be so neglected or refused; and in case within fourteen Days next after any such Auctioneer shall have been convicted in the said last-mentioned Penalty, and Execution or Process shall have issued on such Conviction to levy the said Penalty, no Goods or Chattels, or not sufficient Goods or Chattels, belonging to such Auctioneer shall be found whereon to levy the Whole of the said Penalty in which he shall have been so convicted, and such Penalty or any Part thereof shall remain unpaid at the End of every such fourteen Days, or if it shall appear that such Auctioneer hath acted contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of his Bond, then, and in each and every such Case, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners of Excise to cause the Bond entered into to be put in Suit against such Auctioneer and his Sureties, unless the said Commissioners of Excise shall see sufficient Cause to forbear the same; and thereupon, in case of a Verdict or Judgment against such Auctioneer, his Licence shall thenceforth become void to all Intents and Purposes.

Penalty on Auctioneers not paying Duties on Sales in the legal Time, &c. double the Duty—Forfeiture of his Bond.

If Auctioneers make Over-payments of Duties, they may complain to the Commissioners of Excise, or Justices where the Sale was made, who may relieve them.

III. 'And whereas, by the Laws now in force, no Provision is made to relieve Auctioneers against any 'Over-payment made for or on Account of the Duty on Sales at Auction, save and except in the Case 'of Sales by Auction of Estates, Goods, or Chattels, rendered void by reason that the Person for whose 'Benefit the same were sold, had no Title to the same, or no Right to dispose thereof: And whereas it is 'expedient to grant Relief to every Auctioneer making any Over-payment for or on Account of the Duty 'arising on any Sale at Auction;' be it therefore enacted, That if any Auctioneer shall make any Over-payment for or on Account of the Duty arising on any Sale at Auction, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Auctioneer making such Over-payment, within twelve Months next after the Time of making such Over-payment, to lay his Complaint before the Commissioners of Excise, or Justices of the Peace, within whose Jurisdiction respectively such Sale was made; and the said Commissioners of Excise, or Justices of the Peace respectively, upon such Complaint to them made by or on the Behalf of such Auctioneer, shall, and are hereby required to hear and determine all such Complaints, and examine the Witnesses upon Oath, which shall be produced as well on the Behalf of the Party making such Complaint as on the Behalf of all and every other Party and Parties, which Oath they have hereby Power to administer; and thereupon, or by other due Proof, to relieve the Party so complaining of so much of such Payment as shall be so made out before them to have been overpaid; any Thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

To obtain the Drawback on Beer exported, the following Oaths to be made;

IV. 'And whereas the Laws now in force relating to the Exportation of Beer, in order to obtain the 'Bounty or Drawback by Law allowed on the Exportation of such Beer, are not sufficient to answer the 'good Purposes thereby intended, and it is therefore expedient to make further Provision in that Behalf;' be it therefore enacted, That, before any Person or Persons shall receive any Bounty or Drawback for or in respect of Beer entered for Exportation, in order to obtain any such Bounty or Drawback, the Brewer, or his, her, or their known Servant, or the Exporter, or his, her, or their known Servant, (as the Case may require,) shall, on the Debenture, make such Oath (as the Case may require) before one or more of the Commissioners of Excise, or before the proper Collector or other Officer of Excise, (which Oath any one or more of the said Commissioners, or such Collector or other Officer, is hereby authorized and empowered to administer,) as is hereinafter in that Behalf prescribed; which respective Oaths shall be in the Words, or to the Effect, following:

'OATH for Beer exported by the Brewer.

'I A. B. do solemnly swear, That the above-mentioned Barrels of Strong Beer were put on 'board the Ship or Vessel above-named, and exported therein as Merchandize to be spent beyond the 'Seas, and no Part thereof for the Ship's Use; and that the Excise Duty has been charged on the said Beer 'as Strong. So help me GOD.'

'OATH

'OATH for Beer exported by any other Perſon.

'I A. B. do ſwear, That, to the beſt of my Knowledge and Belief, the above-mentioned Barrels of Strong Beer were put on board the Ship or Veſſel above-named, and exported therein as Merchandize to be ſpent beyond the Seas, and no Part thereof for the Ship's Uſe; and that, by the Officer's Certificate, it appears the ſaid Beer was brewed by of Common Brewer, and the Exciſe Duty charged on the ſame as Strong Beer. So help me GOD.'

and on Cyder, the following Oath.

V. 'And whereas the Laws now in force relating to the Exportation of Cyder, in order to obtain the Drawback by Law allowed on the Exportation of ſuch Cyder, are not ſufficient to anſwer the good Purpoſes thereby intended, and it is therefore expedient to make further Proviſion in that Behalf;' be it therefore enacted, That, before any Perſon or Perſons ſhall receive any Drawback for or in reſpect of Cyder entered for Exportation, in order to obtain any ſuch Drawback, the Exporter of ſuch Cyder, or his, her, or their Servant, ſhall, on the Debenture, make ſuch Oath before any one or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners of Exciſe, or before the Collector or other Officer of Exciſe, (which Oath any one or more of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or ſuch Collector or other Officer, is hereby authorized and empowered to adminiſter,) as is hereinafter preſcribed; which Oath ſhall be in the Words, or to the Effect, following:

'OATH for Cyder exported.

'I A. B. do ſwear, That, to the beſt of my Knowledge and Belief, the above-mentioned Hogſheads of Cyder were put on board the Ship or Veſſel above-named, and exported therein as Merchandize to be ſpent beyond the Seas, and no Part thereof for the Ship's Uſe; and that the Duties of Exciſe have been charged thereon, and have not been repaid. So help me GOD.'

500l. Penalty for counterfeiting Certificates, or giving or receiving falſe ones, &c.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons whatever ſhall counterfeit or forge, or cauſe or procure to be counterfeited or forged, any Certificate authorized or required to be granted by any Officer or Officers of Exciſe, under or by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force immediately before the paſſing of this Act, and relating to any of the Duties of Exciſe, or if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall knowingly or willingly give any falſe or untrue Certificate as aforeſaid, or ſhall knowingly or willingly accept or receive any falſe or untrue Certificate as aforeſaid, or if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall fraudulently alter or eraſe any ſuch true Certificate after the ſame ſhall have been given or granted by the proper Officer or Officers of Exciſe, or if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall knowingly or willingly publiſh or make uſe of any ſuch Certificate ſo counterfeited, forged, falſe, untrue, altered, or eraſed, every Perſon or Perſons ſo offending ſhall for each and every ſuch Offence ſeverally forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds.

Defendants to give ſufficient Bail for the Penalty.

VII. And be it further enacted, That upon every Action, Bill, Plaint, or Information, entered or filed in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or Court of Exchequer in Scotland, for the ſaid Penalty of five hundred Pounds, a Capias in the firſt Proceſs ſhall or may iſſue, ſpecifying ſuch Penalty; and the Defendant or Defendants ſhall be obliged to give ſufficient Bail by natural-born Subjects, Perſons naturalized or Denizens, to the Perſon or Perſons to whom ſuch Capias ſhall be directed, to appear in the Court out of which ſuch Capias ſhall iſſue, at the Day of the Return of ſuch Writ, to anſwer ſuch Suit or Proſecution, and ſhall likewiſe, at the Time of ſuch Appearance, give ſufficient Bail or Security in the ſaid Court, to anſwer and pay ſuch Penalty or Penalties of five hundred Pounds, in caſe he, ſhe, or they ſhall be convicted thereof, or to yield his, her, or their Body or Bodies to Priſon.

Officers of Exciſe accepting counterfeited Certificates, or giving improper Credit in Exciſe Books, that undue Drawback may be obtained, guilty of Felony, and to be tranſported as under Stat. 24 Geo. 3. ſt. 2. c. 56.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Officer or Officers of Exciſe ſhall knowingly or colluſively accept or receive any counterfeited, forged, or untrue Certificate, as and for a lawful and true Certificate duly granted by any Officer or Officers of Exciſe, under and by virtue of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force immediately before the paſſing of this Act, and relating to any of the Duties of Exciſe, or ſhall, under Colour of any ſuch counterfeited, forged, or untrue Certificate, knowingly or colluſively give to any Maker or Manufacturer of, or Dealer in, any Goods, Wares, Merchandize, or Commodity, for or in reſpect whereof any Duty of Exciſe is by Law impoſed, any undue or improper Credit in any Book or Books relating to the ſaid Duties of Exciſe, for the Purpoſe of creating or keeping up an undue or fictitious Stock of any ſuch Goods, Wares, Merchandize, or Commodity, with Intent that any ſuch Maker, Manufacturer, or Dealer, ſhall or may obtain any undue Payment or Allowance by way of Drawback of any of the Duties of Exciſe, for or on Account of any ſuch Goods, Wares, Merchandize, or Commodity, never in reality ſhipped and exported, then and in every ſuch Caſe the Officer or Officers of Exciſe ſo offending, and being thereof duly convicted, ſhall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and ſhall, for ſuch his or their Offence, be tranſported as a Felon or Felons for the Space of ſeven Years, in ſuch Manner as Felons are appointed to be tranſported by an Act made in the twenty-fourth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the effectual Tranſportation of Felons and other Offenders, and to authorize the Removal of Priſoners in certain Caſes; and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned.

Perſons counterfeiting Debentures, or making Uſe of them, guilty of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall, with Intent to defraud his Majeſty, counterfeit or forge, or cauſe or procure to be counterfeited or forged, any Debenture in any Caſe in which a Debenture is by any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the Duties of Exciſe required or directed to be given or granted, or ſhall knowingly or willingly utter, publiſh, or make uſe of any ſuch counterfeited or forged Debenture, every Perſon ſo offending, and being thereof duly convicted, ſhall be adjudged guilty of Felony, Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon or Felons, and have Execution awarded against him, her, or them, as Persons attainted of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

9 Annæ, c. 11; X. 'And whereas by an Act, made in the ninth Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, for 'laying certain Duties upon Hides and Skins tanned, tawed, or dressed, and on Vellum and Parchment, 'certain Duties were imposed for and upon Hides and Skins, tanned, tawed, or dressed, in Great Britain, in 'Manner in the said Act mentioned, and Provision was by the said Act made for marking and stamping all 'the Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, tanned, tawed, or dressed, and all the Vellum and 'Parchment made in Great Britain during the Continuance of that Act, for securing the Duties thereby 'imposed; and it was provided, that if any Person or Persons whatever should at any Time or Times 'thereafter counterfeit or forge any Stamp or Mark to resemble any Stamp or Mark which should be pro-'vided or made in pursuance of the said Act, or should counterfeit or resemble the Impression of the same 'upon any Hide or Skin, or Piece of any Hide or Skin, or any Vellum or Parchment, thereby to defraud 'her said Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, of any of the said Duties thereby granted, or should utter, 'vend, or sell, any Hide or Skin, or Piece of any Hide or Skin, Vellum or Parchment, with such counter-'feit Mark or Impression thereupon, knowing such Mark or Impression to be counterfeited, then every 'such Person so offending, being thereof convicted in due Form of Law, should be adjudged a Felon, and
10 Annæ, c. 26; 'should suffer Death, as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy: And whereas by another Act, made 'in the tenth Year of the Reign of her said late Majesty, certain additional Duties were imposed for and 'upon Hides and Skins, tanned, tawed, or dressed, in Great Britain, in Manner in the said Act mentioned; 'and it was by the said Act amongst other Things enacted, that the several and respective additional or new 'Rates and Duties by that Act imposed upon all or any such Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and 'Skins, made Wares, Vellum, and Parchment, should and might, from Time to Time, be ascertained, 'raised, received, levied, recovered, and secured by such Ways, Means, and Methods, and by the same or 'different Stamps and Marks, and under such Pains of Death and other Penalties and Forfeitures, and with 'such Powers of adjudging the said Duties, and adjudging and mitigating the said Penalties and Forfeitures, 'or any of them, and other Powers, and subject to proportional Allowances, Drawbacks, and Repay-'ments, and to such Rules and Directions, and in such Methods, Manner, and Form, as the respective 'Duties upon the like Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, made Wares, Vellum, and Parch-'ment, granted by the said Act made in the ninth Year of her Majesty's Reign, were by that Act, or any 'Law or Statute thereby referred unto, prescribed, appointed, or enacted during the Continuance thereof, 'to be ascertained, raised, received, levied, secured, or recovered, and that the Act last mentioned, and all 'the Clauses, Pains of Death, Penalties, Forfeitures, Powers, Authorities, Rules, Directions, Matters, and 'Things therein contained, or thereby referred unto, for the raising, receiving, levying, recovering, se-'curing, paying, or accounting for the said Duties thereby granted, or any Arrearages of the same, or any 'Way relating to the same Duties, Pains, Penalties, or Forfeitures by that Act chargeable, by force and 'virtue of that present Act, should be continued, practised, and put in Execution for raising, receiving, le-'vying, recovering, securing, paying, and accounting for the Duties upon Hides and Skins, and Pieces of 'Hides and Skins, made Wares, Vellum, and Parchment, by that Act granted, and all Arrearages there-'of, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if they were particularly and at large repeated
3 Geo. 1. c. 7; 'in the Body of that Act: And whereas by another Act, made in the third Year of the Reign of his late 'Majesty King George the First, the said Duties were made perpetual; and by another Act, made in the 5 Geo. 1. c. 2; 'fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, among other Things, for the better se-'curing the Duties on Hides and Skins, Vellum and Parchment, reciting that, for preventing the counter-'feiting of any Stamp or Stamps, Seal or Seals, which had been, or should be appointed to be used to denote 'the charging of the Duties, or of the additional Duties, which by several Acts, the one made in the ninth, 'and the other in the tenth Years of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen Anne, were set and imposed upon 'Hides and Skins, and Pieces of Hides and Skins, and upon Vellum and Parchment, tanned, tawed, 'dressed, or made, it was enacted, that the Commissioners which for the Time being were or should be ap-'pointed for the Receipt, Government, and Management of the said Duties, or additional Duties, arising 'in England or Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or the major Part of them; and also, the Com-'missioners which for the Time being were or should be appointed for the Receipt, Government, and Ma-'nagement of the said Duties, or additional Duties, arising in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, 'should respectively have full Power and Authority, and thereby were respectively empowered and author-'ized, from Time to Time, when and so often as they respectively should see Occasion, to direct, cause, 'and procure, new Stamps or Seals to be made for the marking and stamping all such Hides and Skins, and 'Pieces of Hides and Skins, and of Vellum and Parchment, as should respectively be tanned, tawed, dressed, 'or made, either in England, or Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or in that Part of Great Britain 'called Scotland, and to be made use of for the respective Purposes before mentioned, in the Lieu and Stead of 'such other Stamps, Marks, or Seals, as, before the respective Time and Times of providing and appoint-'ing such new ones, should respectively have been used for the Purposes before mentioned, and that such 'new Stamps and Seals so to be provided as aforesaid, from the respective Time and Times when they re-'spectively should be so as aforesaid ordered to be used for the respective Purposes aforesaid, should respect-'ively be, and were thereby declared to be, the legal and authentic Stamps and Seals respectively to be made

'use

'use of for the respective Purposes before mentioned; and that the counterfeiting or forging any Stamp or 'Seal to resemble any Stamp or Seal which in pursuance of the said Act should be so as aforesaid directed 'or ordered, or the counterfeiting or resembling of the Impression of any such Stamp or Stamps, Seal or 'Seals, so directed or ordered as aforesaid, or any Hide or Skin, or Piece of any Hide or Skin, or on any 'Vellum or Parchment, whereby to defraud his said Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, of any of the Duties 'imposed or charged by the said Acts, or either of them, or the uttering, vending, or selling, any Hide or 'Skin, or any Piece of any Hide or Skin, or any Vellum or Parchment, with such counterfeit Mark or Im-'pression thereupon, knowing such Mark or Impression to be counterfeited, should render and make the 'Offender and Offenders therein subject and liable to the like Penalties, Forfeitures, and Pains of Death, as 'was and were mentioned and expressed in the said Act made in the said ninth Year of the Reign of her said 'late Majesty Queen Anne: And whereas by another Act, made in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of 27 Geo. 3. c. 135. 'his present Majesty, among other Things, for repealing the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and 'granting other Duties in lieu thereof, the said Duties on Hides and Skins, tanned, tawed, or dressed, in 'Great Britain, are repealed, and in lieu thereof, other Duties of Excise imposed for Hides and Skins, and 'Parts and Pieces of Hides and Skins, tanned, tawed, or dressed, in Great Britain, in Manner mentioned 'in the said Act; and by another Act, made in the twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, 28 Geo. 3. c. 37. 'among other Things, for repealing the Duties on Hides and Skins dressed in Oil in this Kingdom, and 'for granting other Duties in lieu thereof, the Excise Duties imposed by the said Act of the twenty-seventh 'Year of the Reign of his present Majesty for Hides and Skins, and Parts and Pieces of Hides and Skins, 'dressed in Oil in Great Britain, are repealed, and in lieu thereof other Duties of Excise imposed, for such 'Hides and Skins, and Parts and Pieces of Hides and Skins, dressed in Oil in Great Britain: And whereas and 31 Geo. 3. c. 27. recited. 'by another Act, made in the thirty-first Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, among other Things, 'for repealing certain Duties of Excise upon tanned Goat Skins and Sheep Skins, and for granting other 'Duties in lieu thereof, the Duties of Excise by the said Act of the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign afore-'said, imposed on Goat Skins tanned with Shumack, or otherwise, in Great Britain, to resemble Spanish 'Leather, and for Sheep Skins tanned for Roans, (being after the Nature of Spanish Leather,) in Great 'Britain, are repealed, and in lieu thereof other Duties of Excise imposed for Goat Skins tanned with Shu-'mack, or otherwise, in Great Britain, to resemble Spanish Leather, and for Sheep Skins tanned for Roans, '(being after the Nature of Spanish Leather,) in Great Britain: And whereas Doubts have arisen whether 'by the said Acts of the twenty-eighth and thirty-first Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, or by 'either of them, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, the Pains of Death imposed by the 'said Acts of the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen Anne, and of the fifth 'Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, or by any or either of them, remain in force 'against any Person who shall counterfeit or forge any Stamp or Mark to resemble any Stamp or Mark 'provided, made, altered, or renewed, in pursuance of the said three last-mentioned Acts, or any or either 'of them, for the stamping and marking any such Hides and Skins tanned, tawed, or dressed, in Great 'Britain, or against any Person who shall counterfeit or resemble the Impression of the same upon any Hide 'or Skin, or Piece of any Hide or Skin, thereby to defraud his present Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, of 'any of the said Duties imposed by the said Acts of the twenty-eighth and thirty-first Years of the Reign 'of his present Majesty, or either of them, or against any Person who shall utter, vend, or sell, any Hide 'or Skin, or any Piece of any Hide or Skin, with such counterfeit Mark or Impression thereupon, know-'ing such Mark or Impression to be counterfeited:' Now, to obviate and remove all such Doubts, be it declared and enacted, and it is hereby declared and enacted, That the Pains of Death imposed by the said Acts of the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen Anne, and of the fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the First, or by any or either of them, do and shall remain in force against all and every Person or Persons who, after the passing of this Act, shall counterfeit or forge any Stamp or Mark to resemble any Stamp or Mark provided, made, altered, or renewed, in pursuance of the said three last-mentioned Acts, or any or either of them, for the stamping or marking any such Hides and Skins, tanned, tawed, or dressed in Great Britain; and also against any Person or Persons who, after the passing of this Act, shall counterfeit or resemble the Impression of any such Stamp or Mark upon any Hide or Skin, or Piece of any Hide or Skin, thereby to defraud his present Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, of any of the said Duties imposed by the said Act of the twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, or by the said Act of the thirty-first Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, and also against any Person or Persons who, after the passing of this Act, shall utter, vend, or sell, any Hide or Skin, or any Piece of any Hide or Skin, with such counterfeit Mark or Impression thereupon, knowing such Mark or Impression to be counterfeited, and that all and every Person and Persons whatsoever, who, after the passing of this Act, shall counterfeit or forge any Stamp or Mark to resemble any Stamp or Mark which hath already been or shall hereafter be provided, made, altered, or renewed, in pursuance of the said Acts of the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of her said late Majesty Queen Anne, and of the fifth Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King George the First, or of any or either of the said Acts, or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, for the stamping and marking any such Hides and Skins, tanned, tawed, or dressed, in Great Britain, or who, after the passing of this Act, shall counterfeit or resemble the Impression of any such Stamp or Mark upon any Hide or Skin, or Piece of any Hide or Skin, thereby to defraud his present Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, of any of the said Duties imposed by the said Act of the twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of his present

The Pains of Death imposed by 9 and 10 Annæ, and 5 Geo. 1. to be in force against Persons who shall counterfeit Stamps provided in pursuance of the three last mentioned Acts, &c.

preſent Majeſty, or by the ſaid Act of the thirty-firſt Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, or who, after the paſſing of this Act, ſhall utter, vend, or ſell, any Hide or Skin, or Piece of any Hide or Skin, with ſuch counterfeit Mark or Impreſſion thereupon, knowing ſuch Mark or Impreſſion to be counterfeited, then every ſuch Perſon ſo offending, being thereof convicted in due Form of Law, ſhall be adjudged a Felon, and ſhall ſuffer Death, as in Caſes of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

§ 11 of 36 Geo. 3. c. 123. for granting additional Duties on Foreign Wines, &c. recited, XI. 'And whereas by an Act, paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty additional Duties on Foreign Wines and Britiſh Sweets, and on Foreign Wines ſold by Auction, it is, amongſt other Things, enacted, that, on the Exportation of any Foreign Wine, for or in reſpect whereof the Duties by the ſaid Act impoſed ſhall have been duly paid, there ſhall be allowed and paid, by the proper Officer or Officers of the Cuſtoms to the Exporter or Exporters, a Drawback of the ſaid Duties: And whereas great Inconvenience will ariſe by ſuch Mode of paying the Drawbacks, where the Officers of Exciſe have received the Duty;' be it therefore enacted, That the Drawback allowed by the ſaid recited Act on the Exportation of Wine, ſhall be paid by the proper Officer or Officers of the Exciſe, in all Caſes where the Duty to be drawn back has been, or may hereafter be, received by the Officers of that Revenue; any Thing in the ſaid recited Act contained to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

and Drawbacks allowed by it, to be paid by the Officers of Exciſe, where they have received the Duty.

Drawbacks to be allowed, according to 26 Geo. 3. c. 59.

XII. And be it further enacted, That all and every ſuch Drawbacks of the ſaid Duties of Exciſe ſhall be paid and allowed upon the ſame Terms and Conditions, and under and ſubject, and according to the Rules, Regulations, Reſtrictions, Proviſions, Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, contained, provided, ſettled, or eſtabliſhed, in and by an Act, made in the twenty-ſixth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for repealing certain Duties now payable on Wines imported, and for granting new Duties in lieu thereof, to be collected under the Management of the Commiſſioners of Exciſe; and the ſaid Rules, Regulations, Reſtrictions, Proviſions, Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, (ſo far as the ſame can or may be ſo applied,) ſhall be, and the ſame reſpectively are hereby directed to be uſed, applied, practiſed, and put in Execution, for the Purpoſe of obtaining the ſaid Drawbacks of the Duties of Exciſe, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſaid Rules, Regulations, Reſtrictions, Proviſions, Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, had been expreſsly repeated and re-enacted in this Act: Provided always nevertheleſs, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be deemed or conſtrued to extend, to entitle any Perſon or Perſons whatever to any ſuch Drawback, unleſs it ſhall be proved, to the Satisfaction of the Commiſſioners of Exciſe, that the Duties of Exciſe to be drawn back have been actually paid, the Examination and Proof thereof being left to the Judgment of them the ſaid Commiſſioners, or to the major Part of them in England and Scotland reſpectively, for the Time being.

Drawback not to be allowed, unleſs Proof be made of Payment of Duty.

35 Geo. 3. c. 113. recited.

XIII. 'And whereas by an Act, made in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Prevention of ſelling Ale and other Liquors, by Perſons not duly licenſed, it was enacted, that no Perſon ſhould ſell Ale or Beer, by Retail, in his, her, or their Houſe, in that Part of Great Britain called England, without being duly licenſed ſo to do, under a certain Penalty therein provided: And whereas it is expedient to exempt Perſons from the ſaid Penalty, for or in reſpect of any ſuch Sale of Beer or Ale, as is hereinafter mentioned;' be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Perſon ſhall be liable to the ſaid Penalty for or by reaſon of his or their ſelling or diſpoſing of Beer or Ale, in Caſks, containing not leſs than five Gallons, or in Bottles, not leſs than two dozen reputed Quart Bottles, not to be drank in his, her, or their Houſe, Outhouſe, Yard, Garden, Orchard, or other Place; any Thing in the ſaid recited Act contained to the contrary in anywiſe notwithſtanding.

Penalty in recited Act not to extend to Beer or Ale ſold in Caſks containing not leſs than five Gallons, or in Bottles not leſs than two dozen Quarts.

Perſons taking falſe Oaths to be liable to the Penalties for Perjury.

XIV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall be convicted of wilfully taking a falſe Oath in any of the Caſes in which an Oath is by this Act directed or required to be taken, ſhall (unleſs where otherwiſe expreſsly directed by this Act) be liable to the Pains and Penalties to which Perſons are liable for wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Penalty for aſſaulting and obſtructing Officers of the Exciſe, &c. 100l.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever ſhall aſſault, reſiſt, oppoſe, moleſt, obſtruct, or hinder, any Officer or Officers of Exciſe, in the due Execution of this Act, or of any of the Powers or Authorities hereby given or granted to any ſuch Officer or Officers, or ſhall, by Force or Violence, reſcue, or cauſe to be reſcued, any Seizure made by ſuch Officer or Officers, under or by virtue of this Act, or ſhall attempt or endeavour ſo to do, or after ſuch Seizure, or whilſt any ſuch Officer or Officers is or are attempting to make any Seizure under or by virtue of this Act, all and every Perſon or Perſons ſo offending ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Recovery and Application of Penalties under this Act, or 25 Geo. 3. c. 49. (See § 1.)

XVI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, impoſed by this Act, or by the ſaid Act made in the twenty-fifth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, ſhall be ſued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated, by ſuch Ways, Means, or Methods, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, may be ſued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated, by any Law or Laws of Exciſe, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland reſpectively, and that (except where otherwiſe expreſsly directed by this Act) one Moiety of every ſuch Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, ſhall be to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moiety to him or them who ſhall inform, diſcover, or ſue for the ſame.

CAP. LV.

An Act for augmenting the Number of Field Officers, and other Officers of Militia; and for making other Provisions concerning the Militia Forces of this Kingdom.

[21st June 1798.]

'WHEREAS the Militia Forces of this Kingdom having been considerably augmented during the present War, it is expedient that the Number of Field Officers, and other Officers for the Command of the several Regiments, Battalions, and Companies, of which such Militia may consist, should be increased as the Exigency of the Service may require:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for his Majesty, by any Order signified by his Majesty's Secretary of State, at any Time during the present War, to direct the Number of Officers in any Regiment or Battalion in actual Service, to be augmented by the Appointment of such Officers, and of such Rank respectively as the Exigency of the Service may require, and also to direct proper Officers to be appointed to any additional Companies; and the Lieutenants, and also the Deputy Lieutenants authorized to act in the Stead of the Lieutenants upon the Vacancy of the Office or Absence of the Lieutenant of the several Counties, Ridings, and Places, in that Part of Great Britain called England, shall proceed forthwith in pursuance of his Majesty's Orders, to do all such Acts as shall be necessary for the Purpose of making such Augmentation of Field Officers and other Officers as aforesaid; and the Persons who shall be so appointed Field Officers and other Officers of any Regiment or Battalion of Militia, in pursuance of this Act, shall be entitled to such Pay during the Service, and to all other Emoluments and Advantages, as the Field Officers and other Officers of Militia now appointed of the same Rank respectively are by Law entitled unto; any Thing in any Act contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

His Majesty may direct the Number of Field and other Officers in any Regiment, &c. to be augmented, who shall be entitled to such Pay, &c. as those already appointed.

II. And be it further enacted, That any Militia Officer of any Militia Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company, who may have accepted, or shall, during the Continuance of the present War, accept, a Commission or Appointment of the same Rank in any other Militia Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company, shall continue to rank in the general Service according to the Date of his first Commission or Appointment in the Militia.

Any Militia Officer accepting a Commission of the same Rank in another Regiment, to rank according to the Date of his first Commission.

III. And be it further enacted, That whenever it shall be judged expedient to reduce the Number of Field Officers, or of other Officers, in any Regiment or Battalion of Militia, the Reduction of Officers shall take place from the Youngest of each Rank respectively; and that in case any Officer, being duly qualified according to the Act passed in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to amend, and reduce into one Act of Parliament, the Laws relating to the Militia in that Part of Great Britain called England, shall be so reduced, such Officer shall, notwithstanding such Reduction, be competent to succeed to any Vacancy which may occur in such Regiment or Battalion of Militia, of an equal Rank with that which such Officer filled at the Time such Reduction took place.

When a Reduction is to be made of the Officers in any Regiment, it shall take place from the Youngest of each Rank, &c.

IV. Be it also, and it is hereby enacted, That in all Cases where it may be found necessary to appoint a Second Adjutant to any Regiment of Militia, it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant of the County, Riding, or Place, to grant to such Second Adjutant, unless his Majesty shall disapprove the same, the Rank of Lieutenant by Brevet; or if he shall have served in his Majesty's other Forces, any Rank which he may have held therein, not exceeding that of Captain Lieutenant by Brevet also.

Where a Second Adjutant is appointed to any Regiment, a certain Brevet Rank also to be given him.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Person enrolled in the Supplementary Militia for any County, Riding, or Place, in pursuance of two Acts passed in the thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, or either of them, shall have enlisted in any Regiment of his Majesty's other Forces, or shall have entered into any of his Majesty's Ships of War, previous to the fifteenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, and shall be actually serving in such Regiment or Ship of War, it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant of the County, Riding, or Place, where such Person was so enrolled, or in his Absence for any three Deputy Lieutenants of such County, Riding, or Place, and he and they is and are hereby required, on Proof of such Enlistment and Service, by the Certificate of the Colonel or Commanding Officer of the Regiment into which such Person shall have enlisted and shall be serving, or on Proof of such Entrance and Service, by the Certificate of the Captain or Commanding Officer of the Ship in which such Person shall have entered, and shall be serving, to discharge such Person from the said Supplementary Militia, and to cause the Name of such Person to be struck out of the Roll or List of the Supplementary Militia serving for such County, Riding, or Place; but nevertheless, the County, Riding, or Place, for which any Person so discharged was enrolled, shall not be obliged to ballot for any other Man in the Room of the Militia Man so discharged, and every Person so discharged shall be freed and exonerated from all Pains and Penalties incurred by reason of such Enlistment or entering into his Majesty's Navy; any Statute to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

County Lieutenant, on Proof, by Certificate of the Commanding Officer, of Persons enrolled in the Supplementary Militia having enlisted into the Army, or entered into the Navy, previous to May 15, 1798, to discharge such Persons from the Militia.

The County, &c. not obliged to ballot for the Men to be discharged.

CAP. LVI.

An Act for repealing ſo much of an Act, made in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majeſty certain Stamp Duties on the ſeveral Matters therein mentioned; and for better ſecuring the Duties on Certificates to be taken out by Solicitors, Attornies, and others practiſing in certain Courts of Juſtice in Great Britain; as impoſes a Duty on Licences granted to Stipendiary Curates to perform the Office of Curate in any Church or Chapel.—[21ſt June 1798.]

V. And, for extending the Limits prescribed in the said Act for the said Southern Whale Fisheries, be it enacted, That any Ship or Vessel, fitting and clearing out and licensed conformably to the said Act, and sailing to the Eastward of the Cape of Good Hope for the Purpose aforesaid, may pass beyond fifty-one Degrees of East Longitude from London; provided that such Ship or Vessel, after passing fifty-one Degrees of East Longitude from London, shall not sail or pass to the Northward of fifteen Degrees Southern Latitude, until she shall have sailed or passed to the Eastward of one hundred and eighty Degrees of East Longitude; any Thing in the said Act, or any Law, Usage, or Custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

and beyond 180 Degrees of West Longitude from London, under certain Restrictions.

VI. And be it further enacted, That any Ship or Vessel, fitting or clearing out and licensed conformably to the said Act, and sailing or passing to the Westward of Cape Horn, or through the Streights of Magellan, for the Purpose aforesaid, may sail or pass beyond one hundred and eighty Degrees of West Longitude from London; provided such Ships and Vessels, when they have passed beyond one hundred and eighty Degrees of West Longitude from London, do not pass to the Northward of fifteen Degrees South Latitude, until they come within fifty-one Degrees of East Longitude from London; any Thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Persons described in the recited Act, not exceeding 40 Families, who shall come to the Port of Milford, by Dec. 31, 1805, and bring not more than 20 Vessels built before Jan. 1, 1798, to be entitled to the same Privileges as if they had come by Dec. 31, 1798.

VII. And be it further enacted, That any Person or Persons, as described in the said Act not exceeding forty Families, who shall, on or before the thirty-first Day of December one thousand eight hundred and five, come to the Port of Milford in the County of Pembroke, with his or their Family or Families, and shall bring any Ship or Vessel, or any Number of Ships and Vessels not exceeding twenty in the Whole, to the said Port of Milford, built before the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, and manned as directed in the said Act, shall, upon complying with all the Rules, Regulations, and Conditions contained in the said Act respecting such Person or Persons, be entitled to all the Benefits, Privileges, and Advantages thereby granted to such Person or Persons, in as full and ample Manner as if such Person or Persons had come to the said Port on or before the thirty-first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, in any Ship or Vessel built before the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five.

CAP. LVIII.

An Act to continue, until the first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, an Act, made in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act to continue and amend an Act, made in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act for the more effectual Encouragement of the British Fisheries.'—[21st June 1798.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the twenty-sixth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the more effectual Encouragement of the British Fisheries, which was to continue in Force from the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and eighty-seven, for the Term of seven Years, 26 Geo. 3. c. 81.

'Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament: And whereas, by two Acts, 'made in the twenty-seventh and thirty-fifth Years of his present Majesty's Reign, the said first-mentioned 'Act was further continued and amended: And whereas it is expedient that the said last-mentioned Act 'should be further continued;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act, passed in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to continue and amend an Act made in the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, 'An Act for the more effectual Encouragement of the British 'Fisheries,' and all the Powers and Provisions therein contained, shall continue and be in force until the first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine.

27 Geo. 3. c. 10. and 35 Geo. 3. c. 56.

35 Geo. 3. c. 56. to continue in force till March 1, 1799.

CAP. LIX.

An Act to revive and continue, until the first Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, an Act, passed in the fourteenth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, Chapter Forty-two, videlicet, on the thirteenth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and seventy-four, intituled, An Act to prohibit the Importation of Light Silver Coin, of this Realm, from Foreign Countries, into Great Britain or Ireland; and to restrain the Tender thereof beyond a certain Sum; and to suspend the Coining of Silver.—[21st June 1798.]

14 Geo. 3. c. 42.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the fourteenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, 'An Act to prohibit the Importation of Light Silver Coin, of this Realm, from Foreign Countries, into Great Britain or Ireland; and to restrain the Tender thereof beyond a certain Sum; which Act was to 'continue in force for a limited Time, and is now expired: And whereas it is proper, under the present 'Circumstances, that the said Act should be revived and further continued;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the said Act, and all the Provisions thereof, shall be, and the same is hereby revived, and shall continue and be in force until the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine.

Recited Act revived and continued to June 1, 1799.

II. 'And whereas his Majesty has appointed a Committee of his Privy Council to take into Consideration the State of the Coins of this Kingdom, and the present Establishment and Constitution of his Majesty's Mint, and Inconvenience may arise from any Coinage of Silver, until such Regulations may be 'framed as shall appear necessary: And whereas, from the present low Price of Silver Bullion, owing to 'temporary Circumstances, a small Quantity of Silver Bullion has been brought to the Mint to be coined, 'and there is Reason to suppose that a still further Quantity may be brought, and it is therefore necessary 'to suspend the Coining of Silver for the present;' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Silver Bullion shall be coined at the Mint, nor shall any Silver Coin that may have been coined there be delivered; any Law to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

No Silver Bullion to be coined, nor any Silver Coin delivered.

III. And be it further enacted, That all Persons who delivered Silver at the Mint for the Purpose of the same being coined, previous to the ninth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, shall be entitled to receive from the Officers of his Majesty's Mint, such a Sum for each Pound Weight thereof, as shall be equal to the full Value of the Coin into which the Bullion would have been converted, if the same had been coined according to the Regulations of the Mint.

Persons who delivered Silver to be coined previous to May 9, 1798, to receive the Value as if coined.

IV. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended, or repealed, during the present Session of Parliament.

Act may be altered or repealed this Session.

CAP. LX.

An Act for making perpetual, subject to Redemption and Purchase in the Manner therein stated, the several Sums of Money now charged in Great Britain as a Land Tax for One Year, from the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight.—[21st June 1798.]

'WHEREAS it may materially conduce to strengthening and supporting the Public Credit, and to 'augmenting the National Resources at this important Conjuncture, that the Duty now payable for 'one Year on Land should be made perpetual, but subject to Redemption and Purchase, on transferring to 'the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt a certain Proportion of Capital Stock, in the 'Manner hereinafter stated;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several and respective Sums of Money charged by virtue of an Act of the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty by a Land Tax, to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, on the respective Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, Towns, and Places in Great Britain, in respect of the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in the said Act mentioned, lying within the same Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, Towns, and Places respectively, to be raised, levied, and paid unto his Majesty, within the Space of one Year from the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, shall, from and after the Expiration of the said Term, (except as hereinafter mentioned,) continue, and be raised, levied, and paid yearly to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March in every Year for ever; and that all the several Powers, Rules, Directions, Provisions, Articles, Clauses, Matters, and Things, contained in the said Act of the present Session of Parliament, as far as the same are not varied or otherwise provided for in and by this Act, shall continue and be in full Force, and be duly observed, practised, and put in Execution as fully and effectually as if the same Powers, Rules, Directions, Provisions, Articles, Clauses, Matters, and Things were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this Act, and expressly applied to the Provisions thereof, subject nevertheless to the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, and Conditions of Redemption or Purchase herein mentioned.

c. 5. Land Tax, after March 25, 1799, shall be raised yearly for ever; subject to Redemption or Purchase.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That none of the Provisions in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Sum or Sums of Money charged, by virtue of the said Act of the present Session of Parliament, upon any Estate in Ready Money, Debts, Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Personal Estate, or upon any Person or Persons in respect of any Public Office or Employment of Profit, or any Salaries, Gratuities, Bounty Monies, Rewards, Fees, Profits, Perquisites, Advantages, Pensions, Annuities, Stipends, or Yearly Payments, payable out of the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer in England, or out of his Majesty's Public Revenues in Great Britain, in the said Act mentioned, but that the several Sums of Money charged upon any Estate in Ready Money, Debts, Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Personal Estate, by the said Act, and also the several Sums of Money charged under and by virtue of the said Act upon any Offices or Employments of Profit, or any Salaries, Gratuities, Bounty Monies, Rewards, Fees, Profits, Perquisites, Advantages, Pensions, Annuities, Stipends, or Yearly Payments, shall, after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, be ascertained, raised, levied, collected, and paid, according to the Directions of any Act or Acts to be passed for that Purpose.

This Act shall not extend to Personal Estate, Offices, Pensions, &c.; the Rates on which, after March 25, 1799, shall be levied according to the Direction of future Acts.

Rates on Personal Estate, Offices, Pensions, &c. in the Year ending March 25, 1799, shall be distinguished from those on Land, in the Assessments and Duplicates.

III. And be it further enacted, That the several and respective Sums of Money, charged or to be charged under and by virtue of the said Act of the present Session of Parliament, for and in respect of any Estate in Ready Money, Debts, Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or Personal Estates, and for and in respect of any Offices or Employments of Profit, Salaries, Gratuities, Bounty Monies, Rewards, Fees, Profits, Perquisites, Advantages, Pensions, Annuities, Stipends, or Yearly Payments aforesaid, by any Assessment made in the Year ending on the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, shall, in every Parish or Place where such Sums are charged and assessed, be separated and divided from the Remainder of the Monies charged in such Parish or Place, by virtue of the said Act of the present Session of Parliament, and shall be so returned in the several Duplicates thereof, to be transmitted according to the Directions of the said Act.

The King may appoint Commissioners for selling the Land Tax, from the Land Tax Commissioners in each District.

IV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, to nominate and appoint, in every County, Riding, Stewartry, City, Borough, Cinque Port, Town, and Place, in Great Britain, such and so many of the Persons who are or shall be named or appointed in or by any Act or Acts now in force, or hereafter to be passed, to carry into Execution the Act of the present Session of Parliament before mentioned, or this Act, as to his said Majesty shall seem fit, to be Commissioners for the Purpose of selling the Land Tax arising in the several Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, Towns, and Places, wherein they are or shall be respectively specially nominated and appointed, and the said several Persons so to be nominated or appointed by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall be Commissioners for the said Purpose.

Commissioners' Oath.

V. And be it further enacted, That every Commissioner especially nominated and appointed for the Purpose of this Act, and also every Commissioner of Appeals, before he shall enter upon the Execution of the said Office, shall take an Oath to the Effect following; that is to say,

'I A. B. do swear, That I will faithfully, impartially, and honestly, according to the best of my Skill and Judgment, execute the several Powers and Trusts reposed in me by an Act of the thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of his Majesty King George the Third, intituled, An Act for making perpetual, subject to Redemption and Purchase in the Manner therein stated, the several Sums of Money now charged in Great Britain, as a Land Tax for one Year, from the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, according to the Tenor and Purport of the said Act. So help me GOD.'

Which Oath shall and may be administered by any one of the Persons appointed to be a Commissioner, to any other or others of them.

Commissioners may examine and receive Information, on Oath, from Per-

VI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners specially appointed for the Purposes of this Act, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to examine upon Oath or Affirmation (which Oath or Affirmation they or any one or more of them are and is hereby authorized to administer) sons desirous of redeeming or purchasing any Land Tax; and from other Persons interested in the Lands in Remainder, &c. with Power to require Inspection of any Deed relating thereto; and to receive Affidavits of the Fact;

ster) all Persons who shall be desirous of redeeming or purchasing any Land Tax under this Act, and all other Persons who shall be willing to be examined touching any Matters or Things, relating to the Title of any Person or Persons in Remainder, Reversion, or Expectancy to any Estate, or having any Mortgage, Lien, or Incumbrance upon any Estate, the Land Tax charged upon which is proposed to be redeemed or purchased under this Act, or touching any Matter or Thing relating thereto, that such Commissioners may think necessary for their Information, for the Execution of the Powers vested in them; and also to require, from any Person or Persons claiming any Benefit of Preference under this Act, the Production, upon Oath or Affirmation, of any Deed, Conveyance, or Instrument relating to such Estate; and to receive any Affidavit or Deposition in Writing, upon Oath or Affirmation, which shall be made in any Part of Great Britain above the Distance of ten Miles from the Place where the said respective Commissioners shall meet, before any Mayor or Magistrate of any City, Town, or Place, having Authority to administer an Oath in any Matter civil or criminal in such City, Town, or Place, or before any Justices of the Peace of any County or District where the Person making such Affidavit, Deposition, or Affirmation shall happen to be; or to receive any Affidavit or Deposition in Writing, upon Oath or Affirmation, which shall be made in any Parts beyond the Seas, before any Magistrate of the County, Territory, or Place, having competent Power and Authority to administer an Oath, and residing near the Place where the Person making such Oath or Affirmation shall also reside, and certified and transmitted to the said Commissioners under the Hand and Seal of such Magistrate: Provided, that in every such Affidavit, Deposition, or Affirmation, there shall be expressed the Addition of the Party making the same, and the particular Place of his or her Abode, and the same shall be entitled an Affidavit, Deposition, or Affirmation made in pursuance of this Act.

provided the Affidavit be made in pursuance of the Act.

Persons making any false Oath or Affidavit, shall incur the Penalties of Perjury.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person, upon Examination on Oath or Affirmation before the said Commissioners respectively, or in any Affidavit, Deposition, or Affirmation, before any Mayor, Magistrate, or Justice of the Peace in Great Britain, in any Matter relating to the Execution of this Act, shall wilfully and corruptly give false Evidence, or shall in any such Affidavit, Deposition, or Affirmation, wilfully and corruptly swear or affirm any Matter or Thing which shall be false or untrue, every such Person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be, and is hereby declared to be subject and liable to such Pains and Penalties as, by any Law now in being, any Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject and liable to.

Two Commissioners may contract with Persons and Corporations holding Lands, for Redemption of the Land Tax thereon, by virtue of the Act of the present Session.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners specially to be appointed for the Purpose of this Act, or so many of them as shall be present at any Meeting or Meetings to be holden in any County, Riding, Stewartry, City, Borough, Cinque Port, Town, or Place, or any two or more of them, to contract and agree with all and every Persons or Person, Bodies Politic and Corporate, Guilds, Mysteries, Fraternities, and Brotherhoods, whether Corporate or not Corporate, having or holding any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments described in the said Act of the present Session of Parliament, for the Redemption of the Land Tax charged upon their respective Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments aforesaid, according to the Assessment and Rate made or to be made in pursuance of the said Act, upon the Terms and Conditions, and in Manner hereinafter described and mentioned.

Form of the Contract in Schedule (B).

IX. And be it further enacted, That every Contract and Agreement made and entered into by virtue of this Act, with the Commissioners specially to be appointed for the Purpose aforesaid, by any Person or Persons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies before described, for the Redemption of any Land Tax charged upon his, her, or their Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments aforesaid, shall be in the Form mentioned and described in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (B), and the Consideration therein to be inserted, and contracted and agreed to be given for such Redemption as aforesaid, shall be so much Capital Stock of Public Annuities transferrable at the Bank of England, bearing an Interest after the Rate of three Pounds per Centum per Annum, commonly called The Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Annuities, and The Three Pounds per Centum Reduced Annuities, as will yield an Annuity or Dividend exceeding the Amount of the Land Tax so to be redeemed as aforesaid by One-tenth Part thereof, such Capital Stock to be transferred to the Commissioners appointed by an Act of the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty for the Reduction of the National Debt, in Trust for the Purposes of this Act.

The Consideration of the Redemption shall be so much Stock in the 3 per Cent. Consols, or 3 per Cent. Reduced, as will produce a Dividend exceeding the Amount of the Land Tax redeemed by 1-10th.

Such Stock shall be transferred to the Commissioners for reducing the National Debt, within four Years, from March 25, 1799, by four Instalments in each Year; or the Whole may

X. And be it further enacted, That the Transfer of the whole Amount of the Capital Stocks in the Three Pounds per Centum Annuities, or either of them, to be transferred as before mentioned, shall be made to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, within the Period of four Years from the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, by four Instalments in every Year; videlicet, on or before the first Day of May, the first Day of August, the first Day of November, and the first Day of February in each Year, the first Instalment to be made on such of the said Days as shall next ensue the entering into such Contract: Provided always, That it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies before described, to stipulate with the said Commissioners for the Transfer of the Whole of the said Capital Stock at one Time, or that the same shall be transferred by Instalments within a less Period than four Years, so that the same be made by even Instalments at equal Intervals within the Period agreed upon, and on the respective Days before mentioned in each such Year, or

on such of the said Days as shall fall within the Period agreed upon for such Transfer: Provided also, That any Person so contracting as aforesaid, may transfer the whole Stock so agreed to be transferred as the Consideration for such Contract, or any Part thereof, in advance, to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt; and that from and after the Transfer of any Stock in advance, no Interest on Account of such Stock so transferred in advance shall be paid, as hereinafter is directed: Provided always, That if the Whole of the Stock so agreed to be transferred shall not be transferred at one Time, but by Instalments, and if a Division of the entire Quantity of Stock into equal Sums, to be paid by such Instalments, would occasion a Fraction, less than the Fraction of one Penny, the fractional Part or Parts less than one Penny, necessary to such equal Division, shall be taken from the prior Instalment and added to the last Instalment, so as to avoid any Fraction less than a Penny.

be transferred at once, (when no Interest shall be payable (See § 91.) or by shorter Instalments, if so stipulated.

Fractions less than 1d. to be avoided.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for all Bodies Politic, Corporate, or Collegiate, Corporations Aggregate or Sole, and all Guilds, Mysteries, Fraternities, or Brotherhoods, whether Corporate or not Corporate, and all Trustees for Charities or other public Purposes, who are or shall be seised or possessed of any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, whereon any Land Tax hereby made saleable shall be charged, to contract and agree for the Redemption of such Land Tax, or any Part thereof, notwithstanding any Statutes of Mortmain, or other Statutes or Acts of Parliament to the contrary; and it shall be also lawful for all Committees and Curators of Lunatics or of Idiots, and for all Tutors and Guardians of Infants, and for all Persons having Authority to act for Infants, married Women, and other Persons incapable of acting for themselves, to contract and agree on Behalf of such Lunatics, Idiots, Infants, married Women, and other Persons incapable of acting for themselves, for the Redemption of the Land Tax charged on any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, wherein such Lunatics, Idiots, Infants, married Women, or other Persons incapable of acting for themselves, shall be interested, or any Part thereof, in the same Manner as such Persons might have done if not under any Incapacity; and it shall also be lawful for all Trustees to contract and agree in like Manner, on Behalf of the Persons for whom they shall be Trustees, for the Purchase of any Land Tax charged on any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, of which they shall be Trustees.

Corporations, Trustees for Charities, &c. Committees of Lunatics, Guardians and private Trustees for incapacitated Persons, enabled to contract for Redemption of the Land Tax, on their respective Trust Estates.

XII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for all such Bodies Politic and Corporate, and Companies, and Persons before described, and all other Persons having any Estate or Interest in, or being substitute Heirs of Entail entitled in their Order to succeed to any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, whereon any Land Tax hereby made saleable shall be charged, (except Tenants at Rack Rent for any Term of Years, or from Year to Year, or at Will, and except Tenants holding under the Crown any Lands or Tenements within the Survey and Receipt of the Exchequer or the Duchy of Lancaster, or under the Duke of Cornwall any Lands or Tenements belonging to and Parcel of the Duchy of Cornwall, for Years, or from Year to Year, or at Will,) to contract and agree with the said Commissioners specially to be appointed for the Purposes of this Act, in the County, Riding, Stewartry, City, Borough, Cinque Port, Town, or Place, where such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, are situate, for the Redemption of the said Land Tax charged thereon, or any Part thereof, upon the Terms and Conditions, and subject to the Regulations hereinafter mentioned, and that such Bodies Politic and Corporate, Companies, and Persons having such Estate or Interest as aforesaid, shall be entitled so to contract, in preference to all other Bodies Politic and Corporate, and Persons whatsoever, provided they shall contract on or before the twenty-fifth Day of March, which will be in the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine.

Such Corporations and Trustees, and Persons in Possession or Reversion, or having any Interest in the Land, (except Tenants at Rack Rent or Tenants of Crown Lands, &c.) enabled to contract, in Preference to all others, till March 25, 1799.

XIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all such Bodies Politic and Corporate, and Companies, and all Persons who shall be in the actual Possession of or immediately entitled to the Rents and Profits of any such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments as aforesaid, whereon any Land Tax hereby made saleable shall be charged, (other than and except Tenants at Rack Rent for any Terms of Years, or from Year to Year, or at Will, and except Tenants holding under the Crown any Lands or Tenements within the Survey and Receipt of the Exchequer or the Duchy of Lancaster, or under the Duke of Cornwall any Lands or Tenements belonging to and Parcel of the Duchy of Cornwall, for any Term of Years, or from Year to Year, or at Will,) and such Committees, Curators, Tutors, Guardians, or Trustees as aforesaid, on the Behalf of the Persons to whom they are such Committees, Curators, Tutors, Guardians, or Trustees, shall be preferred in the Purchase of such Land Tax, or any Part thereof, to any Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, or Persons having any Estate or Interest in Remainder, Reversion, or Expectancy, or being substitute Heirs of Entail, in the same Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments: Provided such Bodies Corporate, or Companies, and Persons so to be preferred, shall offer to contract for the Redemption of such Land Tax on or before the twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight; and in case no Contract shall be entered into, by or in the Behalf of the Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, or Persons so in Possession, or immediately entitled as aforesaid, for the Redemption of the said Land Tax, on or before the said twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, then the Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, or the Person or Persons having such Estates and Interests in Remainder, Reversion, or Expectancy, or the substitute Heirs of Entail called to succeed in the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or their respective Committees, Curators, Tutors, Guardians, or Trustees, on their Behalf, shall be entitled to redeem such Land Tax, or any Part thereof, in preference to any other Person or Persons having no Estate or Interest therein, and not being called to succeed therein as substitute Heirs of Entail, according to the Priority of such respective Estates or Interests, such Priority to be settled by the said Commissioners, in case the Parties shall differ about the same: Provided always, That no such Bodies Politic or Corporate, or Companies, or Persons in Remainder, Reversion, or Expectancy, or substitute Heirs of Entail as aforesaid, shall be entitled to such Benefit of Preference as last mentioned, unless a Contract for the Redemption of such Land Tax shall be entered into by or on the Behalf of him, her, or them, on or before the said twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine.

Persons beneficially entitled to Rents of Lands, &c. let at Rack Rents, shall be considered as actual Possessors, and preferred accordingly.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That where any such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments as aforesaid, shall be leased or demised at a Rack Rent for any Term or Number of Years, or at Will, the Person or Persons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, beneficially entitled to the Rent reserved or made payable on any such Lease or Demise, shall (notwithstanding any Covenant or Agreement for the Payment of the Land Tax charged on such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, by the Tenant or Lessee thereof) be considered as being in the actual Possession of such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, for the Purpose of claiming and being entitled to such Benefit of Preference as aforesaid; and where any such Tenant or Lessee shall be bound by Agreement to pay such Land Tax during the Continuance of any such Demise, and the Contract for such Land Tax shall be entered into by or on the Behalf of the Person or Persons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, so beneficially entitled, the Amount of the Land Tax so purchased shall, during the Continuance of such Lease or Demise, be considered as Rent reserved or made payable on such Lease or Demise, and the same Powers shall be had, used, or enjoyed, for the Recovery thereof, as for the Recovery of such Rent when in Arrear.

Where Land Tax is payable by Tenant, and redeemed by Landlord, it shall be added to the Rent, and recoverable as such.

Where Lands are charged with Fee Farm Rents, &c. out of which a Proportion of the Land Tax may now be deducted by the Owner of the Land, such Deduction may continue to be made by him after his Redemption of his Land Tax.

XV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for all and every Persons and Person, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, who shall, under and by virtue of this Act, redeem any Land Tax charged upon any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, that shall, at the Time of such Redemption, be charged with or subject to the Payment of any Fee Farm, Feu Duty, or other Annual Rent, for which he, she, or they would, upon Payment of the Land Tax, be entitled to abate and deduct a just Proportion of Rate under the Act of this present Session of Parliament, to continue to abate and deduct a just Proportion, from Time to Time, upon every Payment of such Fee Farm, Feu Duty, or other Annual Rent, as if such Land Tax had not been redeemed.

Where Tythes, Fee Farm Rents, &c. have not been distinctly assessed to the Land Tax, the Commissioners of Land Tax may adjust the Proportions to be paid by the Owners of such Tythes, &c. and which they shall be preferably entitled to redeem.

XVI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any Difficulty shall arise in the Sale of the Land Tax which ought to be charged on any Tythes, or any Fee Farm Rent, Feu Duty, or other Rent, or any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, because such Tythes, or such Rents, Feu Duty, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, have not been assessed, or not distinctly assessed to the Land Tax, or because the Land Tax has been by the several Acts imposing the same directed to be deducted out of such Rents, by the Owners or Occupiers of the Lands charged with such Rents, it shall be lawful for the Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, entitled to such Tythes, Rents, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, to apply to the Commissioners of Land Tax or Supply, to settle and adjust the Proportion of Land Tax which ought to be borne and paid by such Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate respectively, on Account of such Tythes, Rents, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments which have not been assessed, or not distinctly assessed as aforesaid, and thereupon it shall be lawful for such Persons, Bodies Politic and Corporate respectively, to claim the like Benefit of Preference for Redemption of such Land Tax, and to contract for the Purchase thereof, and to do all Acts necessary for the Purpose of carrying such Contract into Execution, in the same Manner as if such Tythes, Rents, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, had been distinctly assessed to the Land Tax.

Persons claiming Benefit of Preference, shall produce a Description of their Lands charged, containing the Particulars thereof, to the Land Tax Commissioners, who shall settle and certify the Amount of the Land Tax thereon (See Schedule (A): On the Production of which Certificate to the Com-

XVII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Persons and Person, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, claiming on their own Behalf, or on the Behalf of others, the Benefit of Preference herein mentioned, shall produce to any two Commissioners of Land Tax acting in and for the Hundred, Ward, Lathe, Wapentake, Rape, or other Division of the County, Riding, City, Borough, Cinque Port, Town, or Place in England, or if in Scotland to any two Commissioners of Supply of the County or Stewartry, or Chief Magistrate of the City or Borough, within which any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments charged with Land Tax proposed to be redeemed are situate, a Schedule or Description in Writing of all and every the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments charged with such Land Tax, which Schedule shall contain the respective Natures and Quantities, or reputed Quantities, of the Premises, and the Name or Names of the Occupier or Occupiers thereof; and the said Commissioners of Land Tax or Supply, or Chief Magistrate respectively, shall ascertain, settle, and adjust the Amount of the Land Tax charged upon the respective Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments contained in such Schedule, distinguishing according to the Form and Method in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (A), the Parish or Place, Parishes or Places, within which, and the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, upon which each separate Assessment of Land Tax shall be charged, and the District or Division within which such Land Tax shall be charged, and shall grant a Cer-

a Certificate thereof to the Perſon or Perſons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies applying for the ſame; and on the Production of the ſaid Certificate to the Commiſſioners ſpecially appointed for the Purpoſes of this Act, for the County, Riding, Stewartry, City, Borough, Cinque Port, Town, or Place, within which ſuch Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments are reſpectively ſituate, the ſaid laſt-mentioned Commiſſioners are hereby authorized and required to examine ſuch Certificate, and amend the ſame, if neceſſary, according to the Aſſeſſment of Land Tax, and thereupon to contract and agree with the Perſon or Perſons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, applying for the Redemption of ſuch Land Tax, according to the Directions of this Act, and in the Form ſet forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (B); and upon the Production, at the Bank of England, of ſuch Contract and Certificate, and upon the Tranſfer to the Commiſſioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, of ſo much Stock in the three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities beforementioned, or either of them, as will yield an Annuity or Dividend exceeding the Amount of the Land Tax ſo to be redeemed or purchaſed, by one tenth Part thereof, or of ſuch Proportion of ſuch Stock as ſhall have been contracted and agreed to be tranſferred as the firſt Inſtalment thereof, (being not leſs than one ſixteenth of the whole Amount of the Capital Stock to be tranſferred on Account of the Redemption or Purchaſe of ſuch Land Tax,) every ſuch Perſon, Body, Corporation, or Company, ſhall be entitled to have a Certificate or Receipt from the Caſhier or Caſhiers of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, acknowledging ſuch Tranſfer, which Certificate or Receipt the ſaid Caſhier or Caſhiers is or are hereby required to give, and the ſame may either be indorſed on ſuch Contract, in the Form preſcribed in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (C), or be diſtinct therefrom, as the Governor and Company of the Bank of England ſhall judge expedient, or in ſuch other Form as the ſaid Governor and Company ſhall deviſe, which Certificate or Receipt ſhall be an Acquittance and Diſcharge to the Perſon or Perſons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies aforeſaid, tranſferring ſuch Stock as aforeſaid; and upon the Regiſtry or Entry of ſuch Certificates, Contracts, and Receipts, with his Majeſty's Commiſſioners for the Affairs of Taxes, the ſaid Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, comprized in ſuch Contract, ſhall thenceforth be wholly freed and exonerated from the Land Tax charged thereon, and from all further Aſſeſſments thereof; unleſs the Perſon or Perſons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, contracting for ſuch Land Tax, ſhall, at the Time of entering into the Contract for the ſame, declare to the Commiſſioners, with whom ſuch Contract ſhall be entered into, his, her, or their Option to be conſidered on the ſame Footing as a Perſon not intereſted in the ſaid Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, purchaſing the Land Tax charged thereon, is by this Act conſidered; in which Caſe, and upon ſuch Option and Declaration ſo made being inſerted in the Contract, the Perſon or Perſons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, ſo contracting, his, her, or their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, ſhall be entitled and ſubject to ſuch and the like Benefits, Advantages, Conditions, and Reſtrictions, as Perſons not intereſted as aforeſaid would be entitled and ſubject to on their becoming the Purchaſers of ſuch Land Tax under this Act, after the ſaid twenty-fifth Day of March one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-nine.

If Commiſſioners, under this Act, they may examine, and amend the ſame if requiſite, and make and certify a Contract for the Redemption of ſuch Land Tax, (See Schedule (B):

On the Production of this Contract and Certificate at the Bank, and tranſferring the 3 per Cent. Stock, agreed for, or the firſt Inſtalment thereof, to the Commiſſioners for reducing the National Debt, the Caſhiers of the Bank ſhall give a Receipt, (Schedule (C):

On the Regiſtry or Entry of this Receipt with the Commiſſioners for Taxes, the Lands ſhall be exonerated from the Land Tax; unleſs the Perſon contracting has declared his Option to be conſidered on the Footing of a third Perſon purchaſing the Land Tax, in which Caſe he ſhall be entitled to the ſame Benefits, and ſubject to the ſame Reſtrictions as ſuch third Perſon. (See § 37, 72, 77, &c.)

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That when any Land Tax ſhall have been contracted for, under any ſuch Benefit of Preference as aforeſaid, by or on the Behalf of any Perſon or Perſons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies aforeſaid, not having the abſolute Eſtate or Intereſt in Fee Simple therein, then and in every ſuch Caſe the Perſon or Perſons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, having or being beneficially entitled to any Eſtate or Intereſt in Succeſſion, Remainder, Reverſion, or Expectancy, or being ſubſtitute Heirs of Entail, entitled to ſucceed in their Order, in the Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, the Land Tax whereof ſhall have been ſo contracted for, ſhall, at any Time or Times after ſuch Eſtate or Intereſt ſhall veſt in Poſſeſſion, by reaſon of the Determination of the preceding Eſtate or Intereſt, or by the Eſtate devolving upon the ſubſtitute Heir of Entail, be entitled, and he, ſhe, and they is and are hereby authorized and empowered to demand from the original Contractors for ſuch Land Tax, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, an Aſſignment of his, her, or their Intereſt in ſuch Contract, or ſuch Part thereof as ſhall then be in force, to them, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, upon tranſferring to ſuch original Contractors, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, the like Amount of three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities in the ſame Stocks reſpectively as was tranſferred by ſuch original Contractors as the Conſideration for the Redemption of ſuch Land Tax, or ſuch Part thereof as ſhall then be remaining in the Names of the Commiſſioners for the Reduction of the National Debt in purſuance of this Act, which Aſſignment ſuch original Contractors, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, are hereby required to execute accordingly, and ſo from Time to Time every other Perſon, Body, Corporation, or Company, beneficially entitled in Remainder, Reverſion, or Expectancy, and every ſubſtitute Heir of Entail called to ſucceed to the ſaid Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, ſhall at any Time or Times after their reſpective Eſtates and Intereſts ſhall veſt in Poſſeſſion by reaſon of the Determination of the preceding Eſtate, or of the Eſtate devolving upon the ſubſtitute Heir of Entail, in like Manner be entitled, and he, ſhe, and they is and are hereby authorized and empowered to demand an Aſſignment from the Perſon or Perſons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, who ſhall then be the Proprietor or Proprietors of ſuch Land Tax, of his, her, or their Intereſt therein, upon tranſferring to him,

If Land Tax is contracted for under ſuch Preference by Perſons not having the Fee Simple of the Lands, any Reverſioner, &c. on his Eſtate veſting in Poſſeſſion, ſhall be entitled to demand from the original Contractors, their Executors, &c. an Aſſignment of their Intereſt in ſuch Contract, upon tranſferring to them the ſame Quantity of 3 per Cents. as ſuch Contractors paid for the Redemption of the Tax; and ſo in all Caſes the Reverſioner, &c. coming into Poſſeſſion may call for such Assignment from the Proprietor, who may be compelled to make the same by Order of Chancery, &c. though an Infant, or under any other legal Disability: On such Assignment the Land to be exonerated, unless the Assignee declares a like Option as the original Contractor. (See § 17.)

him, her, or them, the like Amount of three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities as aforesaid, which Assignment such Proprietor or Proprietors is or are hereby required to make and execute accordingly; and in case any Proprietor or Proprietors hereby required to make any such Assignment as aforesaid (being of full Age, and competent to make the same) shall refuse so to do, then and in every such Case the Proprietor or Proprietors so refusing shall and may be compelled, by an Order of the High Court of Chancery in England, or Court of Session in Scotland, or the Court of Exchequer in England or Scotland respectively, (to be made upon hearing all Parties concerned, on the Petition of the Party hereby authorized to demand the same,) to make such Assignment as aforesaid, and such Court shall have Power to award Costs to either Party, if upon the Circumstances it shall think fit so to do; and it shall be lawful for any such Proprietor or Proprietors hereby required to make any such Assignment as aforesaid, who at the Time the same shall be demanded shall be under the Age of twenty-one Years, or be under any other legal Disability or Incapacity, by the Direction of the said Court of Chancery, Session, or Exchequer, respectively, signified by an Order to be obtained as aforesaid, to make such Assignment, which shall be as good and effectual in Law, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as if he, she, or they were of the full Age of twenty-one Years, and free from any legal Disability or Incapacity; any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding: Provided always, That upon every such Assignment, the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, whereon the Land Tax so assigned shall have been charged, shall from thenceforth be freed and exonerated from such Land Tax, unless the Assignee or Assignees thereof shall cause the like Option to be inserted in the Assignment, which is hereinbefore directed to be inserted in the original Contract, in Cases where such Option shall have been declared by the original Contractor.

For the Purpose of redeeming the Land Tax, Corporations and Trustees for public Purposes enabled to sell Part of the Lands charged, and to convey the same to any Persons, freed from Land Tax, by Indentures duly enrolled (or registered, as the Case may require); or to mortgage any Part to free the Whole from Land Tax; or to grant any Rent Charge to the Amount of the Land Tax.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That for the Purpose of redeeming the Land Tax charged on any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, it shall be lawful for all Bodies Politic or Corporate, and Companies aforesaid, and all Trustees for charitable and other public Purposes, being in the actual Possession, or entitled beneficially to the Rents and Profits of such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, under the Restrictions and Regulations hereinafter mentioned, to sell such Part or Parts of such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, as shall be eligible and necessary, for the Purpose of redeeming or purchasing such Land Tax; and, by Indenture or Indentures duly sealed and delivered, and enrolled for Estates in England within six Calendar Months after the Execution thereof in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Courts of the Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster, or Durham, or in the Courts of Great Session in Wales, as the Case shall require, or registered in the Counties of Middlesex and York in the Manner required by Law for Conveyances of Real Estates situated in those Counties respectively, and by proper Deeds or other Conveyances, to be executed and registered in the Manner required by the Law of Scotland for Estates in Scotland, absolutely to convey the same, freed and discharged from Land Tax, unto any Person or Persons whomsoever; or to charge a sufficient Part of the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, with such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be sufficient to redeem or purchase the Land Tax charged on the Whole of the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, and for securing the Re-payment of such Sum or Sums of Money, with Interest, by like Indenture or Indentures enrolled or registered as aforesaid, to convey, surrender, or demise, by Way of Mortgage or other Real Security, such Part of the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, freed and discharged from Land Tax, as shall be a sufficient Security for that Purpose, to any Person or Persons who shall advance or lend such Sum or Sums of Money upon the Security thereof, his, her, or their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, either in Fee Simple, or for any Term or Number of Years; or, by like Indenture or Indentures enrolled or registered as aforesaid, to grant, limit, or appoint any Yearly Sum or Sums of Money by Way of a perpetual Rent Charge, not exceeding the Amount of the Land Tax charged upon the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, to be issuing out of, and charged and chargeable upon such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments: Provided always, That nothing hereinbefore contained shall be construed to extend to authorize any Sale, Conveyance, or Mortgage or Grant of any Rent Charge by any Archbishop or Bishop, without the Confirmation of the Dean and Chapter, or by any Parson, Vicar, or other Person having any Spiritual or Ecclesiastical Living or Benefice, without the Consent of the Ordinary, and also of the Patron, if adult, and within the Realm; or by any Curate of any Perpetual Curacy, without the Consent of the Person having the Power of Appointment to such Curacy; or by any Master or Fellows of any College, or by any Chapter of any Cathedral or Collegiate Church, Master or Guardian of any Hospital, or any Spiritual or Ecclesiastical Person or Persons whatever, without such Consent as by Law was required for that Purpose before the making of any Statute or Statutes for restraining the Sales, Conveyances, Mortgages, or Grants of such Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, or any of them, or for disabling such Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, from making any such Sales, Conveyances, Mortgages, or Grants, or any of them.

Ecclesiastical Persons, Fellows of Colleges, &c. to be subject to the same Restraints as at present.

Persons in actual Possession of Lands, but not having the absolute Interest (except Tenants XX. And be it further enacted, That for the Purpose of redeeming or purchasing the Land Tax charged on any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, it shall be lawful for all and every Persons and Person being in the actual Possession, or entitled beneficially to the Rents and Profits thereof, but not having the absolute Interest therein, (other than and except Tenants at Rack Rent for any Terms at Rack Rents, or Tenants of Crown Lands, &c.) and all Committees of Lunatics, Guardians, Executors, and private Trustees whatsoever, enabled in like Manner to sell, mortgage, or grant a Rent Charge for redeeming the Land Tax.

Two Commissioners under this Act to be Parties to all Conveyances for the Purposes thereof, (but see § 21.)

Heir of Entail in Possession in Scotland, to act only under the Authority of the Court of Session. (See § 26.)

XXI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in all Cases in which the Authority of any Court is required by this Act for any Sale, Disposition, or Purchase, warranted by this Act, it shall not be necessary also to require the Consent of the Commissioners appointed for the Purposes of this Act, to authorize such Sale, Disposition, or Purchase.

When the Authority of a Court is required, Commissioners need not be Parties.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person who shall be seised in Fee Tail of any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, in England, to convey such Part or Parts thereof as shall be deemed eligible and necessary to be sold for the Purpose of redeeming or purchasing the Land Tax charged on such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, by Deed duly sealed and delivered, and acknowledged and enrolled in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Courts of the Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster, or Durham, or in the Courts of Great Session in Wales, or registered in the Counties of Middlesex or York, as the Case shall require; and such Deed being duly executed and enrolled, or registered as aforesaid, shall as effectually and absolutely bar all Estates Tail, and other Estates in Possession, Reversion, Remainder, or Expectancy, in the Hereditaments so conveyed, as if such Tenant in Tail had levied a Fine, or suffered a common Recovery thereof in due Form of Law.

Tenants in Tail may convey for the Purpose of such Redemption, by Deed enrolled or registered, without Fine or Recovery.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That every Sale, Mortgage, or Grant of any Rent Charge, which shall be made by virtue of this Act, shall, after the same shall be enrolled or registered as aforesaid, and after the Payment of the Purchase or Mortgage Money into the Bank of England, in the Manner hereinafter directed, be good, valid, and effectual in the Law, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and the respective Persons to whom any Rent Charges shall be granted, by virtue of this Act, shall have and be entitled to use and take the same Powers, Remedies, Benefits, and Advantages, for the Recovery thereof, as Landlords by Law have or are entitled to use and take for the Recovery of Rents reserved on common Leases or Demises.

After enrolling and registering Conveyance, and Payment of Money into the Bank, the Sale, &c. to be valid to all Intents.

Grantees of Rent Charges entitled to all the Remedies of Landlords.

XXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every Sale of any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, to be made for the Purpose of purchasing Land Tax under this Act, shall be by public Auction before two or more of the Commissioners specially to be appointed for the Purposes thereof,

All such Sales to be by public Auction before two Commissioners, who shall give ten Days' Notice thereof.

thereof, or some Person or Persons appointed by them for that Purpose, and such Commissioners shall cause Notice to be published in some Newspaper usually circulated in the County, Riding, Stewartry, or Place, where such Property intended to be sold shall be situate, of such Sale, at least ten Days before the same shall take place.

Tenants for Lives or Years, where a Fine was paid, not to sell without Consent of the Reversioner.

XXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to enable any Tenant for Lives, or for Years determinable on Lives, or for Years absolute, though not at Rack Rent, to sell any Part of the Tenement demised, in any Case of a Demise for which any Fine or Premium was paid, without the Consent of the Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, entitled to the immediate Estate in Reversion upon such Demise.

Heirs of Entail in Possession in Scotland, their Tutors, &c. shall apply by Petition to the Court of Session, in all Cases of intended Sales, for the Purpose of redeeming the Land Tax; the said Court shall proceed summarily to authorize such Sale, and the Extract of their Decree shall authorize the Commissioners to sell.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That where any Heir of Entail in Possession of an entailed Estate in Scotland, or his or her Tutor or Tutors, or where he or she is an Idiot or Lunatic, his or her Curator or Curators, mean to sell Part of the said Estate to purchase the Land Tax of the Estate, in Terms of this Act, it shall be competent and requisite for him, her, or them, to apply by Petition to the Court of Session, stating the Amount of the Land Tax payable out of the said Estate, what Part of the Estate it is proposed to sell, and the Rent or annual Value of that Part of the Estate, and praying the Court, upon the Allegations on these Points being proved to the Satisfaction of the Court, and it being shewn that the Sale of the Part of the Estate proposed to be sold will not materially injure the Residue of the Estate remaining unsold, and that the Part so proposed to be sold is proper (considering all Circumstances) to be sold for the Purpose aforesaid, to authorize such Sale to proceed in Manner hereinafter enacted; and the Judges of the said Court are hereby authorized and required to order such Petitions to be intimated upon the Walls of the outer and inner House of the said Court in common Form, for ten Sederunt Days, which Intimation shall be a valid and effectual Intimation and Service, to all Intents and Purposes, as much as if the said Petitions had been personally intimated to or served upon all Persons having or pretending to have any Interest with regard to the said Estate, as substitute Heirs of Entail, Creditors on the said Estate, or in any other Way or Character whatever, and such Intimation being duly made, the Court shall proceed summarily in the Matter, and shall authorize the Sale of that Part of the Estate which the Petitioner or Petitioners are willing to sell, which the Court thinks ought to be sold for the Purpose above mentioned, and against the Sale of which no sufficient Reason is stated by any Person having Interest; and the Extract of the Decree of the Court authorizing the Sale, shall be sufficient Authority to the Commissioners appointed by this Act to carry on the Sale in the Manner hereinafter directed.

In Cases of borrowing Money by such Heir, &c. in Scotland, and granting heritable Security for the same, like Application to be made to, and Proceedings had by, the Court of Session.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That where any Heir of Entail in Possession of an entailed Estate in Scotland, or his or her Tutor or Tutors, or where he or she is an Idiot or Lunatic, his or her Curator or Curators, mean to burthen the said Estate with a Sum of Money to be borrowed, to enable him, her, or them, to purchase the Land Tax of the said Estate, it shall be competent and necessary for him, her, or them, to apply by Petition to the Court of Session, stating the Amount of the Land Tax payable out of the Estate, the Sum proposed to be borrowed, and whether it is proposed to grant the heritable Security over the Whole or Part of the Estate, and if over Part of the Estate what Part, and praying the Court to authorize him, her, or them, to borrow such Sum as the Court shall think proper for the Purposes of this Act, and to grant heritable Security in common Form for that Sum over the whole Estate, or Part thereof, as the Case may be, and the Judges of the said Court are hereby authorized and required to order such Petitions to be intimated in the same Manner as Petitions praying for Authority under this Act to sell Part of entailed Estates are by this Act ordered to be intimated, and the Effect of such Intimation shall be the same in both Cases; and such Intimation being duly made, the Court shall proceed summarily in the Matter, and shall authorize the Petitioner or Petitioners to grant heritable Security over the Whole of the entailed Estate, or Part thereof, provided no sufficient Reason is stated to the contrary by any Person having Interest.

Such Sales in Scotland and heritable Securities shall be valid to all Intents; but the entailed Estate shall never be adjudged for Money lent on Interest.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That where any Part of an entailed Estate in Scotland is sold for the Purposes of this Act in the Manner hereinbefore directed, and where any heritable Security is granted upon any entailed Estate also in the Manner hereinbefore directed, such Sale and heritable Security shall be as valid and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the Estate, Part of which is so sold, or upon which the heritable Security is granted, had been held by the Seller and Grantor of the heritable Security in Fee Simple unfettered by any Entail; and the Person to whom such heritable Security is granted, his Heirs, Executors, and Assignees, shall have and be entitled to use all the Powers, Remedies, and Means known in Law, to recover either the Interest due upon the Money lent or the Principal Sum: Provided always, That it shall not be competent to adjudge all or any Part of the entailed Estate, either for the Interest or Principal Sum of the Money so lent.

Previous to any Sale, Mortgage, or Grant, under this Act, a Schedule shall be produced to the Commissioners by the Seller, &c. stating the Par-

XXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That before any Sale, Mortgage, or Grant as aforesaid shall be made by virtue of this Act, the Person or Persons desirous of making the same shall produce to the Commissioners specially to be appointed for the Purposes of this Act, in the County, Riding, Stewartry, or Place, where the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, intended to be sold, mortgaged, or charged, are situate, a Schedule, in Writing, declaring the Quantity or Duration of the Estate or Estates which he, she, or they shall have in the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, whereon the Land Tax proposed to be redeemed shall be charged; and if the same shall not be an Estate of Inheritance, then the Name or Names of the Person or Persons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies next entitled to any beneficial Interest in such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, expectant on the Determination of the immediate Estate or Interest therein, and if such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments shall be subject to any Mortgage, Charge, Lien, or Incumbrance, then the Name or Names of the Person or Persons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, having such Mortgage, Charge, Lien, or Incumbrance, and the Amount thereof, and (if more than one) the Priorities of the respective Incumbrances.

ticulars of his Interest, and that of all Reversioners and Mortgagees.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That all and every Sum and Sums of Money to arise by virtue of any Sale, Mortgage, or Grant, to be made in pursuance of this Act, shall be paid by the respective Purchasers, Mortgagees, or Grantees, into the Bank of England, to be there placed to the Account of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, under the Title "An Account of the Sale of the "Land Tax," who shall keep distinct Accounts thereof, and invest the same in the Purchase of three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities, according to the Directions of this Act; and the Receipt of the Cashiers of the Bank, or any one of them, shall be a full and sufficient Discharge to the several Purchasers, Mortgagees, or Grantees, paying in such Monies as aforesaid; and the Person or Persons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, whose Land Tax shall have been redeemed therewith, shall be entitled to have and receive the same Certificates and Discharges, and his, her, or their Estate shall be exonerated and discharged from such Land Tax in the same Manner, in all Respects, as if the Quantity of three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities, to be purchased with such Monies, had been actually transferred by him, her, or them to the said Commissioners, as the Consideration for the Redemption of such Land Tax: Provided always, That no more Money shall be raised by Way of Mortgage, or by Grant of any Rent Charge, than what shall appear to the said Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act, to be sufficient to purchase the Amount of Bank Annuities to be transferred as the Consideration for the Redemption of such Land Tax: Provided also, That no other or greater Quantity of Estate shall be sold, than what shall appear to the said Commissioners eligible and necessary to be sold for the Purposes aforesaid: Provided also, That the said Commissioners shall not certify their Consent to, or Approbation of, any such Sale as aforesaid, without having an Estimate in Writing, upon Oath or solemn Affirmation, of the Value of such Part of the Estate as shall be proposed to be sold, and that the Sale thereof will not materially injure the Residue of the Estate remaining unsold, and that the Part so proposed to be sold is proper (considering all Circumstances) to be sold for the Purposes aforesaid.

Money shall be paid by Purchasers, &c. under this Act, into the Bank, to the Account of Commissioners for reducing the National Debt, who shall invest the same in 3 per Cents.; the Cashier's Receipt shall discharge the Purchasers; and the Persons whose Land Tax shall be so redeemed, shall stand in the same Situation as if they had transferred 3 per Cents. No more more Money shall be raised, or Land sold, than the Commissioners shall think necessary, on an Estimate upon Oath of the Value, and that the Estate will not be materially injured.

XXXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons interested in Remainder, Reversion, or Expectancy, in any Estate in England, any Part of which shall be proposed to be sold or mortgaged under the Authority of this Act, or for the Guardians, Committees, or Trustees, of any such Person or Persons who shall be aggrieved by such intended Sale or Mortgage, or conceive themselves so to be, at any Time before such Estate shall have been actually conveyed by way of Sale or Mortgage, to present a Petition to the High Court of Chancery, which Court shall have Power in a summary Way to make such Order respecting the Suspension of or proceeding in such Sale or Mortgage, or for the Sale or Mortgage of any other Part of the Estate in question, as well as for the Payment of any Costs occasioned by such Petition, as such Court shall think fit.

Reversioners of Estates in England, or their Guardians, &c. may Petition Chancery against such Sales or Mortgage.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That wherever, by reason of any Fluctuation in the Price of the said Bank Annuities, or that the precise Quantity of Estate necessary to be sold for the Purposes aforesaid cannot be set apart to be so sold, there shall be any Surplus of Stock purchased with the Money arising by any Sale, Mortgage, or Grant, to be made under or by virtue of this Act, after reserving so much of the three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities as shall be agreed to be transferred as the Consideration for such Land Tax, the said Surplus Stock shall, where such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments so sold, mortgaged, or charged, are situated in England, be placed in the Books of the Bank of England, in the Name and with the Privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, to the Intent that the same may be applied in the Manner hereinafter mentioned; (that is to say,) to the Intent that such Surplus Stock may at a convenient Time be sold, and the Money arising therefrom applied, under the Direction and with the Approbation of the said Court, to be signified by an Order made upon a Petition to be preferred in a summary Way, in the Discharge of any Debt or Debts, or Part thereof, affecting the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, the Land Tax charged whereon shall have been so redeemed, or where the same shall not be so applied, then the same shall be laid out and invested, under the like Direction and Approbation of the said Court, in the Purchase of other Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, which shall be conveyed and settled to, for, and upon, such and the like Uses, Trusts, Intents, and Purposes, and in the same Manner as the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, which shall be so sold, mortgaged, or charged, as aforesaid, stood settled and limited, or such of them as at the Time of making such Conveyance and Settlement shall be existing, undetermined, and capable of taking effect, and in the mean Time the Dividends and annual Produce of such Surplus Stock shall from Time to Time go and belong to the Person or Persons who would, for the Time being, have been entitled to the Rents and Profits of the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in case such last-mentioned Purchase and Settlement were made; or to the Intent that such Surplus Stock may be transferred to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, under the Direction and with the

If on such Sale, &c. there shall be any Surplus of Stock, after transferring sufficient to redeem the Land Tax, such Surplus (from Lands in England) shall be invested in the Bank in the Accountant General's Name, and applied under Order of Chancery in Payment of Debts affecting the Seller's Estate, or in the Purchase of other Lands, to be settled as the Lands sold were; the Dividends meanwhile to be paid to the Person entitled to the Lands; or such Surplus may be laid out in the Purchase of Land Tax, which shall then be considered as Real Estate.

the Approbation of the said Court of Chancery, to be signified in Manner aforesaid, for the Purchase of any Land Tax charged on any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, situate in any Part of Great Britain; and such Land Tax, when so purchased, shall be deemed to be of the Nature of Real Estate, and shall go and be applied in the same Manner as the Estate sold would have gone and been applied, if the same had not been so sold.

In Scotland such Surplus Stock shall be placed in one of the public Banks, subject to the Order of the Court of Session, who may apply the same in Payment of Debts; or the Purchase of other Lands or Land Tax; and mean Time place the same out at Interest for the Benefit of the Person entitled to the Lands.

XXXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments so sold, mortgaged, or charged, are situated in Scotland, such Surplus Stock may be sold, and the Money arising therefrom be paid into or placed in one or other of the two public Banks of Scotland, with the previous Authority of the Court of Session, the Judges of which Court are hereby empowered and required, upon summary Petition to be presented to them by or on the Behalf of the Proprietor or Heir in Possession for the Time, to direct and order that the said Surplus Money or Balance shall be laid out and employed as soon as conveniently may be, under the Direction and with the Approbation of the said Court, either in the Payment of Debts affecting the said entailed Estate, or in the Purchase of other Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or of any Land Tax, which respectively shall be limited and settled to the same Persons and Uses, and under the same Clauses and Conditions as the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, which shall be so sold, mortgaged, or charged as aforesaid, stood settled and limited; and in the mean Time, till the said Surplus Money or Balance shall be so employed, to order and direct the Money to be laid out upon such Security as to the Court shall seem proper, upon Interest, and to direct such Clauses to be inserted in the Bond or other Security to be taken for the Money, as shall be effectual to secure the Person or Persons who would for the Time being have been entitled to the Rents and Profits of the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, in case such Sale, Mortgage, or Grant, had not been made, and the succeeding Heirs of Entail who shall successively come to the Possession of the same, the Enjoyment of the Interest of the said Money, and to preserve the Capital until the Money shall be employed as aforesaid.

If the Surplus does not exceed 200*l.* Stock, it may be transferred to a Trustee without Interference of the Courts.

XXXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if such Surplus as aforesaid shall not exceed the Amount of two hundred Pounds Principal Stock, the same shall be transferred to a Trustee to be named by the Person or Persons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies redeeming such Land Tax, in order that the same may be applied in any Manner hereinbefore directed, without obtaining or being required to obtain the Direction or Approbation of the Court of Chancery or Court of Session as aforesaid.

Mortgagees, &c. under this Act not to have Priority over former Mortgagees of Estates, except for Interest of Mortgage; and such former Mortgagees to have the Preference of advancing Money to redeem the Land Tax.

XXXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That all and every Persons or Person, Body, Corporation, or Company, having any Mortgage, Charge, Lien, or Incumbrance on any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, which shall be mortgaged, or out of which any Rent Charge shall be granted by virtue of this Act, shall have and be entitled to all such Remedies, Privileges, and Advantages, both at Law and in Equity, as he, she, or they would have had or been entitled to in case this Act had not been passed, or no Mortgage or Grant had been made under or by virtue thereof; and the Person or Persons lending any Money for the Purposes of this Act shall not have Priority of Security on the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, or Hereditaments, by force and virtue of this Act, over any such prior Mortgage, Charge, Lien, or Incumbrance, in respect of the Principal Money lent for the Purposes of this Act, but in respect of the Interest thereof only: Provided also, That all Persons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, having any prior Mortgages, Charges, Liens, or Incumbrances on such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, shall be entitled, according to their respective Priorities, to advance the Money required for the Redemption of such Land Tax in preference to all other Persons.

No Reversioner, on coming into Possession to be liable to the Payment of more than one Year's Interest, &c. in Arrear.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That no Person or Persons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, entitled in Remainder, Reversion, or Expectancy to, or having any future Interest in any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, which shall be so conveyed, surrendered, or demised by Way of Mortgage, or whereout any such Rent Charge or Rent Charges as aforesaid shall be granted and made payable, in pursuance of this Act, shall be liable, upon his, her, or their coming into the Possession of, or being beneficially entitled to such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, to the Payment of Arrears of Interest on any Sum or Sums of Money secured by Mortgage as aforesaid, or of Arrears of any Rent Charge for more than twelve Calendar Months preceding the Time that the Title to such Possession shall have accrued.

Any Person having Benefit of Preference, and not an Estate of Inheritance, redeeming the Land Tax out of his own Estate, and declaring his Option to be considered as a XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That where any Person or Persons having such Benefit of Preference as hereinbefore mentioned, and who shall not be seised of or entitled to any Estate of Inheritance in the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, whereon any Land Tax shall be charged, shall redeem such Land Tax by and out of his, her, or their own Estate, and shall, at the Time of entering into the Contract for the Redemption thereof, have declared his, her, or their Option to be considered on the Footing of a Purchaser or Purchasers as aforesaid, such Person or Persons, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall have, hold, and enjoy the Land Tax so redeemed by him, her, or them, as an Annuity issuing out of such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments (subject to such Right and Power of Redemption thereof as hereinbefore is given to the Person or Persons beneficially entitled entitled to the next Estate or Interest in Reversion, Remainder, or Expectancy, as and when such Estate or Interest shall vest in Possession); and when any such Person or Persons as aforesaid shall not, at the Time of entering into the Contract for the Redemption of such Land Tax, have declared his, her, or their Option as aforesaid, whereby such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, whereon the Land Tax shall have been charged, will by virtue of this Act be exonerated therefrom, such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments shall be and become chargeable for the Benefit of such Person or Persons, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, with the Amount of the three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities, which shall have been transferred as the Consideration for the Redemption of the said Land Tax, and with the Payment of such yearly Sum or Sums of Money, by Way of Interest thereon, as shall be equal to the Amount of the Land Tax redeemed: Provided always, That no Person or Persons in Remainder, Reversion, or Expectancy, or having any future Interest as aforesaid, who shall afterwards, in Order of Succession, come into the actual Possession, or be beneficially entitled to the Rents and Profits of such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, shall be liable to the Payment of any such Annuity, or of any yearly Sum or Sums of Money by Way of Interest as aforesaid, save only from the Time he, she, or they shall come into Possession, or be beneficially entitled as aforesaid.

Purchaser, shall hold the Land Tax redeemed as an Annuity issuing out of the Lands, (subject to the Reversioner's Right of Redemption under § 18); but if the Lands are exonerated from the Tax, the Purchaser will be entitled to the Amount of the 3 per Cents. transferred as the Consideration, with Interest equal to the Land Tax redeemed; but Reversioners shall be liable to the Payment of such Interest only from the Time of their coming into Possession.

XXXVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, shall be sold or mortgaged, nor any Rent Charge granted, in pursuance of the Powers and Authorities given by this Act, without one Calendar Month's previous Notice in Writing given to the said Commissioners specially to be appointed for the Purposes of this Act, by the Person or Persons desirous of making such Sale, Mortgage, or Grant, nor if the Person or Persons who shall be beneficially entitled to the first or next beneficial Estate in Remainder, Reversion, or Expectancy therein, (if any such shall be,) or the Guardian or Guardians of such Person or Persons, in case of Minority, or Committee or Committees of his or her Estate, in case of Lunacy, shall, within one Calendar Month after Notice in Writing shall be given to him, her, or them, by the Person or Persons desirous of making such Sale, Mortgage, or Grant, (which Notice such Person or Persons is and are hereby required to give in every such Case,) agree to advance the Money, which shall be required for the Purchase of the Stock to be transferred, as the Consideration for the Redemption of the Land Tax charged on such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, and which Money such Guardian or Guardians, Committee or Committees, is or are hereby authorized or empowered to advance for that Purpose; and in every such Case the Contract shall be made in the Name of, or assigned to the Person or Persons by whom or on whose Behalf such Money shall be advanced, who shall be bound to complete the same, and have and enjoy all Benefits and Advantages arising therefrom, in the same Manner as if such Person or Persons had been originally entitled to such Benefit of Preference as aforesaid: Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent any Person or Persons, hereby required to give such Notice to the said Commissioners as aforesaid, who shall be the Guardian or Guardians of such Infant, or Committee or Committees of such Lunatic Person or Persons in Remainder, Reversion, or Expectancy, from making any such Sale, Mortgage, or Grant of any Rent Charge, in the same Manner as if such Infant Person or Persons had been of full Age, and had refused to advance such Money as aforesaid.

No Lands shall be sold or mortgaged for the Purposes of this Act, without one Month's Notice to the Commissioners; nor if the Person entitled to the first or next beneficial Estate, or his Guardian, &c. shall, on one Month's Notice, (which in every Case must be given him,) advance the Money necessary; in which Case they shall be considered as preferably entitled. Guardians of Infants in Remainder, &c. may sell as if Infants had been of full Age, and had refused to advance the Money on Notice.

XXXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, shall be settled or limited to or for any particular Uses, Trusts, Intents, or Purposes, and any other Property shall be subject to any Trust to be laid out or invested in the Purchase of other Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, to be settled to or for the same Uses, Trusts, Intents, or Purposes, or to be applied in the Payment of any Debts or Charge affecting the same, then and in every such Case it shall be lawful to apply such other Property in the Redemption of the Land Tax charged upon such settled Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, with such Consent as shall be necessary for the Purpose of applying such other Property in the Purchase of any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, according to the Terms of the Trust affecting the same, whether such Trust shall have been created or directed by any Act of Parliament, Deed, Will, or otherwise; and when any such Trust Property shall be under the Direction or Control of any Court, the same shall be so applied under the Order of such Court; and such Land Tax, when all the Instalments shall be completed, shall sink and become merged in the same Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, for the Benefit of the Person or Persons for the Time being beneficially entitled thereto.

Trust Property directed to be laid out in Land may be applied in Redemption of the Land Tax on limited Lands, and the Land Tax shall in such Case merge in the said Lands.

XL. And be it further enacted, That any Trust Property, which by any Act of Parliament, or any Deed or Will, or otherwise, is directed to be applied in the Purchase of Stock in the Public Funds or other Securities, at the Discretion of any Trustee or Trustees, or Curator or Curators, or subject to the Consent of the Person or Persons for whose Benefit the Trust shall be created, or any of them, then and in every such Case it shall be lawful to lay out and invest the same in the Purchase of any Land Tax which shall be sold in pursuance of this Act, in the same Manner in all Respects as if such Investment had been authorized by the Terms of the Trust, affecting such Property; and if any such Trust Property shall be subject to any Trust to apply Trust Property directed to be laid out in the Funds, may be invested in the Purchase of Land Tax under this Act; as also Trust Property to be ap-

apply the same in the Purchase of Real Estate, to be settled to or for any particular Uses, Intents, or Purposes, it shall be lawful to apply the same in the Purchase of any Land Tax to be purchased in pursuance of this Act; and such Land Tax, when so purchased and conveyed to the Uses, and subject to the Trusts, and for the Intents and Purposes to and for which such Real Estate, if purchased, would have been subject, shall be deemed to be of the Nature of Real Estate, and shall go and be applied in the same Manner as Real Estate, if purchased with the same Funds, would have gone and been applied: Provided always, That it shall be lawful for all and every Person and Persons who shall become entitled to any such Land Tax so purchased and settled as Real Estate, to bar and destroy any Entail thereof, which might have been barred by Recovery or Fine by Deed acknowledged by such Person or Persons, and enrolled in one of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Courts of the said Counties Palatine, or the Great Sessions in Wales, as the Case shall require, or registered in the Office for registering Deeds in the Counties of Middlesex or York, as the Case shall require.

Timber may be cut down by Persons in Possession under Order of Chancery, &c. and the Produce and Surplus applied in Redemption of Land Tax, &c. as in Cases of Real Estate, under the Direction of the Courts; having regard to the Rights of all Persons interested.

XLI. And be it further enacted, That for the Purpose of redeeming or purchasing the Land Tax charged on any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments subject to any Restriction, in the Power of the Person or Persons in Possession, or entitled to the Rents and Profits thereof, to cut down Timber standing thereon, it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons in Possession, with the Approbation (if in England) of the Court of Chancery, and (if in Scotland) of the Court of Session, upon an Application in a summary Way, to cut down such Quantity of Timber as the said Courts shall respectively direct, and apply the Produce thereof, under the Directions of such Courts, in the Redemption or Purchase of the Land Tax, or any Part thereof, charged on any Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, whereon the said Timber shall be growing, or any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, subject to the same Restriction; and in case there shall be any Surplus of Money arising by Sale of such Timber, the same shall be applied in Manner hereinbefore directed, with respect to Surplus Money arising by Sale of any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, hereby authorized to be sold: Provided always nevertheless, That the Court by whose Direction any such Timber shall be sold, shall further direct in what Manner the Income derived therefrom ought to be applied during so long Time as the Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, on which such Timber shall be growing, shall be in Possession of any Person or Persons having a limited Interest or limited Interests therein, having regard to the Rights of all Persons interested therein.

Copyhold or Customary Estates may be enfranchised for the same Purposes.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Body Politic or Corporate, or Company, and for any Person or Persons seised of any Manors in England, of which any Copyhold or Customary Estates shall be holden, with the Approbation of the Court of Chancery, to enfranchise any such Copyhold or Customary Estates, and to apply the Money arising thereby, under the Direction of the said Court, in the same Manner and under the same Restrictions as hereinbefore directed and provided with respect to any Timber hereby authorized to be cut down on any Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, for the like Purpose.

Money may be given or devised for the Redemption of the Land Tax on Estates of Charities.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons by Will or otherwise, or any Bodies Politic or Corporate, to give any Sum or Sums of Money for the Purpose of applying the same in the Redemption or Purchase of the Land Tax charged on any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments settled to any charitable Uses, and which may and shall be applied accordingly; any Statutes of Mortmain, or other Statute or Law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Parishes entitled to Lands settled to charitable Uses, may redeem the Land Tax thereon out of the Poor's Rate, &c. with the Approbation of two Justices, and on public Notice in Church for two Sundays.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Parish or Place entitled to the Benefit of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments settled to charitable Uses, to apply such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be necessary for the Redemption of the Land Tax charged thereon, out of any Rate made or to be made on such Parish or Place for the Relief of the Poor, in case the Rents and Profits of such Lands shall be applicable for the Benefit of the Poor, and out of any Church Rate, in case the Rents and Profits shall be applicable to the Repairs of any Church or Chapel, or otherwise out of such Parish Rate as the Circumstances of the particular Case shall require: Provided always, That no such Rate shall be so applied without the Approbation of two Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding, Division, or Place, certified in Writing to the Commissioners specially to be appointed for the Purposes of this Act, and upon Proof before such Justices, on Oath or Affirmation, of Notice having been given during Divine Service on two Sundays at the least in the Church or Chapel, belonging to such Parish or Place, or where there shall be no Church or Chapel, then in the Church or Chapel of some Parish adjoining thereto, of an Intention to make such Application, and of the Time and Place of applying for the Approbation of such Justices.

Surveyor General of the Crown, the Chancellor and Council of the Duchy of Lancaster, and Surveyor General of the Duchy of Cornwall, may agree for Re-

XLV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Surveyor General of the Land Revenues of the Crown, in respect of the Land Tax charged on the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, or other Revenues of the Crown, within the Survey and Receipt of the Exchequer for the Time being, with the Consent of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, and for the Chancellor and Council of the Duchy of Lancaster for the Time being, in respect of the Land Tax charged on the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Rents, Tenements, Hereditaments, or other Revenues of the Crown, within the Survey and Receipt of the said Chancellor and Council, and Officers of the said Duchy, and for the Surveyor General of the Duchy of Cornwall, in respect of the Land Tax charged on the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, and other Revenues of the Duchy of Cornwall, Cornwall, to contract and agree with the Commissioners specially to be appointed for the Purposes of this Act, for the Redemption of the Land Tax charged upon any of the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, or other Revenues respectively, and to proceed to the Completion of such Contract, in such and the like Manner, in all Respects, as is hereinbefore directed in Cases of Redemption of any Land Tax, with and subject to such Benefit of Preference, and with such Power of Redemption as is hereinbefore given to any Bodies Politic or Corporate by this Act, except where it shall be otherwise expressly provided by this Act.

Redemption of the Land Tax on Lands within their respective Surveys, as in the case of Bodies Corporate.

XLVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, to nominate and appoint such and so many Persons as his Majesty may think proper, for the Purpose of ascertaining the Proportions of the Land Tax charged upon all and every of the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, or other Revenues belonging to the Crown, within the Survey and Receipt of the Exchequer in England, and such Commissioners are hereby required, as soon as they conveniently can, to certify and report, in Writing under their Hands and Seals, unto the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, the Proportions of such Land Tax, and the several Parishes and Places within which, and the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, or other Revenues upon which the same is charged and payable, and to transmit a Copy of such Certificate to the Surveyor General of his Majesty's Land Revenue.

The King may appoint Persons to ascertain the Land Tax on the Crown Lands in the Survey of the Exchequer; a Report of which shall be sent to the Treasury.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Surveyor General of the Land Revenues of the Crown, now or for the Time being, to contract or agree with any Person or Persons, or any Bodies Politic or Corporate, for the Sale, from Time to Time, of such or so much of the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Tythes, Mines, Minerals, Collieries, Woods, Wood Grounds, Fens, Marshes, or Waste Lands belonging to the Crown, as are within the Survey and Receipt of the Exchequer in England, for the best Prices or Considerations in Money which the said Surveyor General shall be able to procure for the same, as will raise a Sum of Money sufficient for the Redemption of the Land Tax charged upon the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, or any other Revenues of or belonging to the Crown, and the Purchase Monies to be paid for the same shall from Time to Time be paid into the Bank of England, to the Account of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, under which Title the Governor and Company of the Bank of England are hereby required to open an Account accordingly, and shall be laid out by Order of the Surveyor General in the Purchase of Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, in the Names of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, in like Manner as is directed by an Act, passed in the thirty-fourth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the better Management of the Land Revenue of the Crown, and for the Sale of the Fee Farm and other unimprovable Rents; but nevertheless in such Manner that the Accounts thereof may be kept separate and distinct from the Accounts of the Sales made, and Stock purchased, in pursuance of that Act.

Surveyor General of the Crown may contract for Sale of Part of the Crown Lands, to redeem the Land Tax thereon; the Money to be paid into the Bank, and laid out by his Order in the Purchase of 3 per Cents. in the Name of the Treasury, as under 34 Geo. 3. c. 75; but the Accounts to be kept distinct from those under that Act.

XLVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no such Contract shall be made, unless by Special Warrant to be issued for that Purpose by the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being.

Such Contracts to be made only by Warrant from the Treasury.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Chancellor and Council of the Duchy of Lancaster for the Time being, under the Seal of the said Duchy, to nominate and appoint such and so many Persons as the said Chancellor and Duchy may think proper, for the Purpose of ascertaining the Proportions of the Land Tax charged upon all and every the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, and other Revenues belonging to the Crown, within the Survey and Receipt of the said Duchy and its Officers; and such last-mentioned Commissioners are hereby required, as soon as they conveniently can, to certify and report, in Writing under their Hands and Seals, unto the Chancellor and Council, the Proportions of such Land Tax, and the several Parishes and Places within which, and the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, or other Revenues upon which the same is charged and payable, and to transmit a Copy of such Certificate to such Officer of the said Duchy as the said Chancellor and Council shall appoint.

Chancellor, &c. of the Duchy of Lancaster may appoint Persons to ascertain the Land Tax on Crown Lands within Survey of the Duchy to be reported to them.

L. And be it further enacted, That whenever the said Surveyor General shall have contracted with any Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, for the Sale of any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Tythes, or other Hereditaments belonging to the Crown, the said Surveyor General shall grant to the respective Purchaser or Purchasers a Certificate under his Hand, specifying the Premises so contracted for, and the Amount of the Purchase Money to be paid for the same; and the Cashiers of the Bank, or one of them, shall, upon the Production of such Certificate, accept and receive the Purchase Monies therein specified, and at the Foot or on the Back of such Certificate acknowledge the Receipt of the same, without Fee or Reward; and the said Certificate and Receipt shall be afterwards enrolled in the Office of the respective Auditor of the Land Revenue, or in the Office of the Clerk of the Pipe, if the Premises shall be in Charge before him; and such Auditor or Clerk of the Pipe, or their respective Deputy or Deputies, having enrolled the said Certificate and Receipt, shall attest the same under his or their Hand or Hands, and return the said Certificate and Receipt to the Purchaser or Purchasers, and from and immediately after such Enrolment, and thenceforth for ever, the respective Purchasers, their Heirs, Successors, or Assigns, shall by Force of this Act be adjudged, deemed, and taken to be in the actual Seisin and Possession

Surveyor General, on making a Contract, shall give a Certificate thereof to the Purchaser; on the Production of which, the Cashiers of the Bank shall receive his Money, and give him a Receipt; which Certificate and Receipt shall be enrolled in the Office of Auditor of the Land session of the Premises so by them respectively purchased, and shall hold and enjoy the same peaceably and quietly, freed and discharged of and from all Claims and Demands which can or may be made by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or by any Person or Persons lawfully claiming, by, from, or under him or them, and of and from all Manner of Incumbrances whatsoever, as fully and amply, to all Intents and Purposes, as his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, might or could have held or enjoyed the same.

Revenue, &c. and the Enrolment, attested on the said Certificate, shall be full Evidence of the Purchaser's Title.

Expences of Surveys necessary shall be defrayed out of the Purchase Money by Order of the Treasury.

LI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, to order any Expences that may be necessarily incurred for making Surveys of any of the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, hereby authorized to be sold or otherwise, in relation to the Sale thereof, to be defrayed out of the Purchase Monies arising from such Sales.

Form of Contracts and Receipts on Sale of such Lands, in Schedules E, F, G, H.

LII. And be it further enacted, That every Contract made under the Authority of this Act, for the Sale of any Part of the Land Revenues of the Crown within the Survey and Receipt of the Exchequer, shall be in the Form specified in the Schedule hereunto annexed, marked (F); and every Certificate for the Sale of any Part of the Revenues of the Crown within the Survey or Receipt of the Chancellor and Council of the Duchy of Lancaster, shall be in the Form specified in the Schedule hereunto annexed, marked (E); and every Certificate of Contract for the Sale of any Part of the Revenues of the Duchy of Cornwall, shall be in the Form in the Schedule hereunto annexed, marked (G); and the Receipt or Acknowledgment for the Consideration of every such Sale shall be in the Form in the Schedule hereunto annexed, marked (H).

Chancellor, &c. of Duchy of Lancaster may sell Lands, &c. within the Duchy, to redeem the Land Tax; the Purchase Money to be paid to the Receiver General of the Duchy, and invested under the Directions of 15 Geo. 3. c. 45.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Chancellor and Council of the Duchy of Lancaster for the Time being, to sell and dispose of, to any Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, from Time to Time, and thereupon to grant and assure, in the Name of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, under the Seal of the said Duchy, such and so much of the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Tythes, Mines, Minerals, Collieries, Woods, Grounds, Fens, Marshes, or Waste Lands, belonging to the Crown, as are within the Survey and Receipt of the said Duchy and the Officers of the same, at or for the best Prices or Considerations in Money which the said Chancellor and Council shall be able to procure for the same, as will raise a Sum of Money sufficient for the Redemption of the Land Tax charged upon the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, or any other Revenues of or belonging to the Crown, within the Survey and Receipt of the said Duchy and the Officers of the same, and the Purchase Money to be paid for the same shall from Time to Time be paid into the Hands of the Receiver General of the Revenues of the said Duchy, and Acquittances and Receipts given by him for the same, and the same shall be laid out and invested in like Manner, in all Respects, as is directed by an Act, passed in the nineteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act to enable the Chancellor and Council of the Duchy of Lancaster to sell and dispose of certain Fee Farm Rents, and to enfranchise Copyhold and Customary Tenements, within their Survey, and to encourage the Growth of Timber on Lands held of the said Duchy, or any other Act or Acts now in force for the Sale of any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, or Hereditaments, within the Survey and Receipt of the said Duchy or its Officers.

The Treasury, and the Chancellor, &c. of the Duchy, may, from the Produce of such Sales respectively, transfer to Commissioners for reducing the National Debt, so much Stock as shall be necessary to redeem their respective Proportions of Land Tax on the Crown Lands.

LIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury, in respect of the Crown Lands within the Survey and Receipt of the Exchequer, and for the Chancellor and Council of the Duchy of Lancaster in respect of the Crown Lands in the Survey and Receipt of the said Duchy, for the Time being, by Order of his Majesty in Council, from Time to Time to cause to be transferred to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, so much of the Capital Stock vested in their respective Names, arising from any Sales made by them respectively in pursuance of the said respective Acts of the nineteenth and thirty-fourth Years of the Reign of his present Majesty and of this Act, or any other Act or Acts now in force for the Sale of any of the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, and other Revenues of the Crown, within the Survey and Receipt of the Exchequer, or the Duchy of Lancaster, as may be necessary for the Redemption of the Land Tax charged upon any of the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, and other Revenues of the Crown respectively; and that in the mean Time, and until the same shall be so transferred, the Interest or Yearly Dividends thereof, and also the Interest or Yearly Dividends of any Part of such Capital Stock which shall not be applied or disposed of for the Redemption or Purchase of such Land Tax, shall be from Time to Time received, accounted for, applied, and appropriated in like Manner, in all Respects, as is directed by the said Acts of the nineteenth and thirty-fourth Years of his Majesty's Reign, in respect of the Dividends of Stock purchased in pursuance of the said Acts, or either of them respectively.

The Interest, mean Time, and that of the Surplus, if any, to be applied according to the Directions of 19 Geo. 3. and 34 Geo. 3.

On such Transfer the Crown Lands to be exonerated from the Land Tax, and the Amount thereof payable by Tenants of

LV. And be it further enacted, That upon the Redemption by the Transfer of Stock, in the Manner hereinbefore mentioned, of any Land Tax charged upon any Manors, Messuages, Lands, or Rents, or any other Revenues belonging to the Crown, and upon the Registry thereof in the Manner herein directed, the Manors, Messuages, Lands, or Rents, or any other Revenue belonging to the Crown, upon which such Land Tax shall have been charged, shall thenceforth be wholly freed and exonerated from the Land Tax charged thereon, and from all further Assessments thereof, and the Amount of such Land Tax shall thenceforth during the Continuance of any Lease or Demise now in being, be considered as Rent due to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and be recovered and recoverable as such by his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, against any Lessee or Lessees, and by such Lessee or Lessees against his, her, or their Under Lessees or Tenants respectively, and shall be collected and received by such Person or Persons, and subject to such Orders and Regulations as the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury in respect of the Crown Lands within the Survey and Receipt of the Exchequer, and the Chancellor and Council of the Duchy of Lancaster in respect of the Crown Lands in the Survey and Receipt of the said Duchy, shall from Time to Time appoint and establish for the better collecting and answering the same to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors.

the Crown, to be considered and recoverable as Rent.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for his Royal Highness George Prince of Wales and Duke of Cornwall, by Warrant under his said Royal Highness's Sign Manual, to nominate and appoint such and so many Persons as his said Royal Highness may think proper, for the Purpose of ascertaining the Proportions of the Land Tax charged upon any of the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or other Revenues belonging to and Parcel of the Duchy of Cornwall; and such Commissioners are hereby required, as soon as they conveniently can, to certify and report, in Writing under their Hands and Seals, unto the Council or Commissioners of the Revenues of his said Royal Highness, the Proportions of such Land Tax, and the District within which, and the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or other Revenues upon which the same is charged and payable, and to transmit a Copy of such Certificate to the Surveyor General of the Duchy of Cornwall.

Prince of Wales may appoint Persons to ascertain his Proportions of Land Tax in the Duchy of Cornwall; to be reported to his Council, &c. and a Copy sent to the Surveyor General of the Duchy.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Surveyor General of the Duchy of Cornwall, now or for the Time being, to contract or agree with any Person or Persons, or any Bodies Politic or Corporate, for the Sale, from Time to Time, of such or so much of the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tythes, Mines, Minerals, Collieries, Woods, Wood Grounds, Fens, Marshes, or Waste Lands, belonging to and Parcel of the said Duchy of Cornwall, for the best Prices or Considerations in Money, which the said Surveyor General shall be able to procure for the same, as will raise a Sum of Money sufficient for the Redemption of the said Land Tax charged upon the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or any other Revenues belonging to and Parcel of the said Duchy of Cornwall, and the Purchase Money to be paid for the same shall, from Time to Time, be paid by the respective Purchasers into the Bank of England, to be there received by the Cashiers of the Bank, and accounted for and invested in the Manner hereinafter directed.

Surveyor General of the Duchy may contract for Sale of Lands to redeem the Land Tax; the Purchase Money to be paid into the Bank.

LVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no such Contract shall be made, unless by Special Warrant to be issued for that Purpose by the Council or Commissioners of the Revenues of his said Royal Highness, or any three or more of them, for the Time being.

Such Contracts shall be made only by Warrant from the Prince's Council, &c.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That the Governor and Directors of the Bank of England shall, and they are hereby required to open an Account in their Books, under the Title of "The Account of the Duchy of Cornwall," and carry to the Credit of such Account the several Monies directed as aforesaid to be paid to the Cashiers of the Bank, for or on Account of the Purchase of any such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, or other Revenues of the said Duchy of Cornwall, and whensoever the Surveyor General of the said Duchy of Cornwall shall have contracted with any Person or Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, for the Sale of any such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, or other Revenues of the said Duchy of Cornwall, the said Surveyor General shall grant unto the Purchaser or Purchasers a Certificate under his Hand, specifying the Premises so contracted for, and the Amount of the Purchase Money to be paid for the same; and the said Cashiers of the Bank, or one of them, shall, upon the Production of such Certificate, accept and receive from such Purchaser or Purchasers the Purchase Monies therein specified, and at the Foot or on the Back of such Certificate acknowledge the Receipt of the said Monies without Fee or Reward; and the said Certificate and Receipt shall be afterwards brought to the Office of the Auditor of the Duchy of Cornwall, and be there forthwith enrolled in proper Books to be provided and kept for that Purpose, separate and apart from the other Business and Proceedings of the said Office; and the said Auditor, or his lawful Deputy, having enrolled the said Certificate and Receipt, shall attest the same under his Hand, and return the said Certificate and Receipt to the Purchaser or Purchasers; and from and immediately after such Enrolment, and thenceforth for ever, the respective Purchasers of any such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tythes, Mines, Minerals, Collieries, Woods, Wood Grounds, Fens, Marshes, or Waste Lands, belonging to and Parcel of the said Duchy of Cornwall, and the Heirs, Successors, or Assigns of such Purchasers, shall, by force of this Act, be adjudged, deemed, and taken to be in the actual Seisin and Possession of the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, or other Revenues so by them respectively purchased, and shall hold and enjoy the same peaceably and quietly, and in as full and ample Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as his said Royal Highness, his Heirs or Successors, Dukes of Cornwall, might or could have held or enjoyed the same.

The Bank shall open an Account with the Duchy. The Surveyor, on contracting for the Sale of Lands, shall give the Purchaser a Certificate; on the Production of which, and Payment of the Money, the Bank shall give him a Receipt: The Certificate and Receipt shall be enrolled in the Office of the Auditor of the Duchy, and the Enrolment attested thereon, &c.

LX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons, with whom the Surveyor General of the Land Revenue of the Crown or of the Duchy of Cornwall shall contract for the Sale of any of the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, or other Revenues, by this Act authorized Money paid into the Bank under this Act on Account of the Duchy, ſhall be and remain inveſted in 3 per Cents. in the Name of the Duke of Cornwall, and the Dividends ſhall be paid into the Hands of the Receiver of the Duchy as Part of the Revenues thereof.

LXI. And be it further enacted, That all and every Sum and Sums of Money, which ſhall be paid into the Bank of England, under or by virtue of this Act, on Account of the Duchy of Cornwall, ſhall, from Time to Time, be laid out, by Order of the Council or Commiſſioners of the Revenues of his ſaid Royal Highneſs for the Time being, in the Purchaſe of Three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities, in the Name of the Duke of Cornwall, in which Name the Governor and Company of the Bank of England are hereby authorized and required to permit Transfers to be made of the Annuities, Funds, or Stocks ſo to be purchaſed, and ſuch Transfers to be accepted by the Receiver General of the Duchy of Cornwall, or his Deputy, for and in the Name of the Duke of Cornwall, and the ſaid Receiver General, or his Deputy, is hereby required to accept the ſame accordingly; and that all and ſingular the Annuities ſo to be purchaſed and accepted ſhall remain inveſted in the Name of the Duke of Cornwall, and ſhall not be transferred or transferrable to any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, except in the Manner hereinafter deſcribed *; and that all the Dividends ſhall, from Time to Time, be paid by the ſaid Governor and Company into the Hands of the ſaid Receiver General of the Duchy of Cornwall for the Time being, or his Deputy, and ſhall, by force and virtue of this Act, be deemed and taken by Law to be Part of the Revenues of the ſaid Duchy of Cornwall, and ſhall be from Time to Time anſwered, accounted for, applied, and appropriated, to ſuch and the ſame Uſes and Purpoſes as the Revenues of the Duchy of Cornwall now are or would hereafter have been liable to, and been applied and appropriated in caſe this Act had not been made.

The Prince's Council, &c. may transfer to the Commiſſioners for reducing the National Debt ſo much of the ſaid Stock as ſhall be neceſſary for the Redemption of his Land Tax.

LXII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the Council or Commiſſioners of the Revenues of his ſaid Royal Highneſs for the Time being, or any three or more of them, by Warrant or Power of Attorney under their Hands and Seal of Office, from Time to Time to transfer to the Commiſſioners for the Reduction of the National Debt ſo much of the Capital Stock veſted in the Name of the Duke of Cornwall, ariſing from any Sales made in purſuance of this Act, as may be neceſſary for the Redemption of the Land Tax charged upon any of the Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or other Revenues belonging to and Parcel of the ſaid Duchy of Cornwall.

The Lands of the Duchy to be thereupon exonerated from the Land Tax, which ſhall be conſidered as Rent where payable by the Tenants.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That upon the Redemption, by the Transfer of Stock in the Manner hereinbefore mentioned, of any Land Tax charged upon any Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or other Revenues belonging to and Parcel of the ſaid Duchy of Cornwall, and upon the Regiſtry thereof in the Manner herein directed, the Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or any other Revenues belonging to and Parcel of the ſaid Duchy of Cornwall, upon which ſuch Land Tax ſhall have been charged, ſhall thenceforth, during the Continuance of any Demiſe, be wholly freed and exonerated from the Land Tax charged thereon, and from all further Aſſeſſments thereof, and the Amount of ſuch Land Tax ſhall thenceforth, during the Continuance of any Demiſe, be conſidered as Rent, and be recovered and recoverable as ſuch by his ſaid Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales and Duke of Cornwall, his Heirs and Succeſſors, againſt any Leſſee or Leſſees, or Tenant or Tenants, and by ſuch Leſſee or Leſſees, or Tenant or Tenants, againſt his, her, or their Under Leſſees or Under Tenants reſpectively.

Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty may lay out Money in redeeming Land Tax on Livings.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, to lay out from Time to Time any Sum or Sums of Money which now are or hereafter ſhall be applicable by them towards the Augmentation of any Living or Livings, under and by virtue of any Act or Acts, Law or Laws, now in force, or of the Charter granted in the Reign of Queen Anne for that Purpoſe, in the Purchaſe of ſo much of Three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities before-mentioned, as may be neceſſary for the Redemption of the Land Tax charged, or hereafter to be charged, in purſuance of the ſaid Act of the preſent Seſſion, upon the Lands, Tythes, or other Profits ariſing from any Living or Livings being within the Meaning of the ſaid Charter, or any Act or Acts now in force, directing the Application of ſuch Bounty, and which Land Tax ſhall have been contracted for within the Time before limited by the Incumbent or Incumbents of ſuch Living or Livings, with the Conſent of the ſaid Governors, and from Time to Time to transfer to the Commiſſioners for the Reduction of the National Debt ſuch Three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities, according to ſuch Contracts; and ſuch Transfer of Stock ſhall, from the Quarter Day preceding the making thereof, wholly exonerate and diſcharge the Lands, Tythes, or other Profits of ſuch Living or Livings, from the Payment of the Land Tax ſo redeemed.

Governors of Hoſpitals may apply Legacies in Redemption of Land Tax.

LXV. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for the Governors and Directors of Hoſpitals and other charitable Inſtitutions, to apply any Legacies or voluntary Donations bequeathed or given to or for the Benefit of ſuch Hoſpitals and charitable Inſtitutions, and which ſhall not have been directed by the Perſon ſon or Perſons bequeathing or giving the ſame to be applied in any particular Manner, for or towards the Redemption of the Land Tax charged upon any Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments belonging to ſuch Hoſpitals or charitable Inſtitutions.

Any Number of Perſons whoſe Land Tax ſhall not exceed 25s. each, may join in appointing a Truſtee (by Deed duly regiſtered) to redeem their reſpective Land Taxes, and ſuch Truſtee may purchaſe the Whole of ſuch reſpective Land Taxes in one Contract, producing to the Commiſſioners the Deed of Truſt, and the neceſſary Affidavits as to Right of Preference, and Payment of the Money, &c.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That in every Caſe where the Land Tax charged on the Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, of any Perſon, ſhall not exceed the annual Sum of twenty-five Shillings, it ſhall be lawful for any Number of ſuch Perſons whoſe Land Tax reſpectively ſhall not exceed ſuch Sum, being reſpectively entitled to the Benefit of Preference as aforeſaid, and who ſhall reſpectively advance the Money required for the Purchaſe of ſuch Land Tax out of his, her, or their own Eſtate, by any Deed or Inſtrument in Writing under their reſpective Hands and Seals, (a Memorial of which Deed ſhall be regiſtered gratis with the proper Officer to be appointed as herein is directed,) to ſubſtitute and appoint any other Perſon or Perſons to be a Truſtee or Truſtees, for the Purpoſe of redeeming the Land Tax charged upon their reſpective Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments; and ſuch Truſtee or Truſtees ſhall have full Power and Authority to demand the proper Certificates from the Commiſſioners for executing the ſaid Act of the preſent Seſſion, of the Amount of Land Tax charged upon the ſeveral Parties to ſuch Deed or Inſtrument, and alſo, upon obtaining ſuch Certificates, to contract and agree, in his or their own Name or Names, with the Commiſſioners ſpecially to be appointed for the Purpoſes of this Act, for the Redemption of ſuch Land Tax, upon the ſame Terms and Conditions, and in the ſame Manner, and to do all ſuch other Acts neceſſary for completing ſuch Contract, as the Perſons ſo ſubſtituting him or them could ſeverally and reſpectively have done by virtue of this Act; and the ſaid Commiſſioners are hereby authorized and empowered by one Contract, to contract and agree with ſuch Truſtee or Truſtees, in his, her, or their own Names, for the Sale of the Whole of ſuch Land Tax accordingly, and as if the Whole of ſuch Land Tax was charged on the Property of ſuch Truſtee or Truſtees, without mentioning the Proportions thereof: Provided always, That ſuch Truſtee or Truſtees ſhall produce and ſhew to the ſaid Commiſſioners the Deed or Inſtrument conſtituting ſuch Truſt, and alſo an Affidavit, Depoſition, or Affirmation, of each of the Parties to ſuch Truſt Deed or Inſtrument, to be made in the Form and Manner herein directed, with reſpect to Affidavits, Depoſitions, and Affirmations authorized by this Act, declaring that the Deponent in ſuch Affidavit, Depoſition, or Affirmation is entitled by virtue of this Act to the Benefit of Preference granted by this Act, by reaſon of his or her Eſtate in the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, whereon his or her Proportion of the Land Tax, intended to be purchaſed by ſuch Truſtee, is charged; and that he or ſhe has advanced, or has agreed to advance, the whole Sum required for the Purchaſe of ſuch Proportion of Land Tax to ſuch Truſtee or Truſtees out of his or her Eſtate: Provided alſo, That nothing herein contained ſhall be conſtrued to authorize any Sale or Mortgage of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or Grant of any Rent Charge to be made by any Perſon or Perſons joining in ſuch Truſt Deed or Inſtrument as aforeſaid, for the Purpoſe of raiſing the Money required for the Purchaſe of ſuch Land Tax, or any Part thereof: Provided alſo, That no Deed or Inſtrument, appointing any ſuch Truſtee or Truſtees, and regiſtered as aforeſaid, ſhall be liable to any Stamp Duty whatever.

Not to authorize Sale or Mortgage, &c. of Lands by Perſons ſo joining Such Truſt Deeds not liable to Stamp Duty.

Such Truſtees to aſſign their Portion of Land Tax to each Party (Schedule I); and the Aſſignee ſhall thereby become entitled to the Land Tax.

LXVII. And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Truſtee or Truſtees ſhall, and he or they is or are hereby authorized and empowered, at any Time after the Purchaſe of the Land Tax to be contracted for by him or them ſhall have been completed, (upon the Application of the reſpective Perſons by whom he or they ſhall have been ſubſtituted,) to aſſign to ſuch Perſons reſpectively their reſpective Proportions of the Land Tax ſo purchaſed, and ſuch Aſſignment ſhall be in the Form ſpecified in the Schedule hereunto annexed, marked (I); and Memorials of all ſuch Aſſignments ſhall be regiſtered, and Certificates thereof granted, and Duplicates of ſuch Certificates delivered to the Receiver General in England, or Collector in Scotland, in ſuch Manner in all Reſpects as is herein directed*, in caſe of Aſſignments of Land Tax for valuable Conſideration; and after ſuch Aſſignment, the Aſſignee of the Land Tax thereby aſſigned, ſhall have, hold, and enjoy the ſame, upon the ſame Terms, and with the ſame Benefits and Advantages, and liable to the ſame Conditions as if the ſame had been originally redeemed by him or her; and no Aſſignment to be made by any ſuch Truſtee or Truſtees as aforeſaid, ſhall be liable to any Stamp Duty whatever.

* § 78.

Aſſignment not liable to be ſtamped.

After March 25, 1799, Commiſſioners may put up to Sale ſuch Land Tax as ſhall remain unſold in their reſpective Diſtricts.

LXVIII. And be it further enacted, That as ſoon after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-nine, as Circumſtances will permit, the Commiſſioners appointed for the Purpoſes of this Act, or any two or more of them, in every of the ſaid Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, Cities, Boroughs, Cinque Ports, Towns, and Places, where the Whole of the Land Tax hereby made ſaleable ſhall not have been contracted for according to the Preference hereby given, ſhall put up to Sale, either by public Auction or otherwiſe, as the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the Time being ſhall direct, the Whole, or any Part or Parcel of the Land Tax ſo remaining unſold within their reſpective Diſtricts, and it ſhall be lawful for the Commiſſioners, ſpecially to be appointed for the Purpoſes of this Act, or any two or more of them, to contract and agree with any Perſon or Perſons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, for the Sale of the Land Tax ſo remaining unſold, in ſuch Parcels as the ſaid Commiſſioners, with the Approbation of the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury, ſhall think fit, ſuch Sales to be completed by the Purchaſer or Purchaſers, by ſuch Rules, Methods, and Directions as are preſcribed with reſpect to Contracts to be entered into by any Perſon or Perſons entitled to ſuch Preference as aforeſaid, as far as ſuch

A Clause to be inserted in the Contract of Sale, for the Redemption of the Land Tax, by Persons beneficially interested.

Rules, Methods, or Directions are applicable to such Sales respectively: Provided always, That in every such Contract, a Clause or Proviso shall be inserted for the Redemption of such Land Tax by the Person or Persons in Possession of or beneficially entitled to the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments whereon such Land Tax shall be charged, or by any Person or Persons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, in Remainder, Reversion, or Expectancy, or having any future Interest as aforesaid, at such Time and in such Manner as is herein directed*: Provided also, That in all such Cases all the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, whereon the Land Tax so purchased as last aforesaid shall be charged, situate in the same Parish, Constablewick, or Place, shall, until such Redemption shall take place, be subject to a new Assessment of the said Land Tax, from Year to Year, by an equal Rate, according to the annual Value of such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, in common with each other, without any Power in the Purchaser or Purchasers thereof to exonerate the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, from the same, or to fix the Rate of Land Tax to be charged thereon, or, if the Premises be in Scotland, by an Assessment according to the Rules, and in the Manner established by Law or Custom in regard to the Cess or Land Tax in that Country, as hereinafter mentioned.

* See § 18, 93.

Till such Redemption, their Lands to be subject to a new Assessment of the Land Tax, by an equal Pound Rate, without any Power in the Purchaser to exonerate them from, or to fix the Rate of Land Tax.

If, before March 25, 1799, Persons entitled shall give Notice to Commissioners that they do not mean to claim their respective Benefit of Preference, Commissioners may sell to Persons next entitled, and finally to Persons not entitled to such Preference

LXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if at any Time before the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, any Person or Persons, Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, entitled to the Benefit of Preference aforesaid, shall give Notice to the Commissioners appointed for the Purposes of this Act, that he, she, or they does not or do not intend to claim the Benefit of such Preference, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners immediately to treat and contract with the Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, next entitled to such Benefit of Preference, and so from Time to Time as long as any Person or Persons, Body Politic or Corporate, shall be entitled to such Benefit, and shall not have given Notice of his, her, or their Intention not to claim the Benefit thereof; and if all the Persons, Bodies Politic or Corporate, so entitled, shall, before the said twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, give Notice to the said Commissioners that they respectively do not intend to claim such Benefit, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to treat and contract with any Person or Persons not entitled to such Preference, in the same Manner as the said Commissioners might otherwise do after the said twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine.

The Consideration of Purchases by Persons not entitled to Preference, to be so much 3 per Cent. Stock as will yield a Dividend exceeding the Amount of the Land Tax by 1-5th, to be transferred by four Instalments within one Year; or the Whole may be transferred at once, or by larger Instalments, at not more than three Months' Interval.

LXX. And be it further enacted, That the Consideration to be inserted in any such last-mentioned Contract, shall be the Transfer of so much Stock at the least in either of the Three Pounds per Centum Annuities, transferrable at the Bank of England as aforesaid, unto the Commissioners appointed for the Reduction of the National Debt, as will yield an Annuity or Dividend exceeding the Amount of the Land Tax so to be purchased as aforesaid, by one fifth Part thereof, such Transfer to be made within the Period of one Year from the Time of entering into such last-mentioned Contract, by four Instalments of not less than one fourth Part of the whole Amount of the Stock to be so transferred as aforesaid, at Intervals of three Months from each other, and on the respective Days before-mentioned †; the Transfer of such Stock for the first Instalment to be made on such of the said Days as shall happen next after the Time of entering into such last-mentioned Contract: Provided always, That it shall be lawful for all such Person or Persons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, purchasing any such Land Tax as aforesaid, to contract and agree with the said Commissioners specially to be appointed for the Purposes of this Act, to transfer the Whole of the Stock agreed to be transferred, as the Consideration for such Redemption or Purchase at the Time hereinbefore prescribed for the Transfer of the first Instalment thereof, or to transfer such Stock in any greater Proportions, and in any less Number of Instalments, than are hereinbefore prescribed, so as that such Instalments shall not be made at a greater Interval than three Months from each other.

After March 25, 1799, Returns to be made to Commissioners of the Taxes of the Land Tax remaining unsold; such Returns to be published by the said Commissioners, under the Direction of the Treasury, with Notice of the intended Time and Place of Sale of such Land Tax.

LXXI. And be it further enacted, That as soon after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine as conveniently may be, the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes for the Time being shall cause to be prepared a Schedule or Description in Writing of the Amount and Proportions of Land Tax remaining unsold, in all and every the Counties, Ridings, and Places, in that Part of Great Britain called England, and the Receiver General for Scotland shall prepare a like Schedule or Description for the Land Tax remaining unsold in Scotland, and transmit a Duplicate thereof to the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, which said Duplicate shall be deposited in some convenient Office for the Inspection of any Person or Persons during Office Hours, on Payment of, to the Clerk having the Custody thereof, the Sum of one Shilling and no more for each Search; and the said Commissioners for Taxes shall, with the Direction of the Commissioners of the Treasury, cause the said Schedules, or any Parts or Proportions thereof, to be from Time to Time published in the Newspapers usually circulated in the respective Counties, Ridings, Stewartries, and Places, where such Proportions of Land Tax shall be charged, and shall, in such Advertisements, give Notice of the Times and Places to be appointed for Sale thereof, or any Parcel or Proportion thereof, in order that all Persons desirous of purchasing such Land Tax may receive the necessary Information.

LXXII. And

LXXII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Persons and Person, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, desirous of purchasing the Land Tax charged upon any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments aforesaid, shall make out and produce to the Commissioners of the Land Tax acting in and for the Hundred, Rape, Lathe, Wapentake, Ward, or other Division in England, (or if in Scotland, to any two Commissioners of Supply of the County or Stewartry, or the Chief Magistrate of the City or Burgh,) within which such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments are situate, a Schedule or Description in Writing, containing the Amount of the Land Tax he, she, or they is or are desirous of purchasing, and the County, Riding, or Stewartry, and the Parish, Constablewick, or Place, in which the said Land Tax is charged; and the said respective Commissioners or Chief Magistrate respectively are hereby required to settle and adjust the Amount of the Land Tax to be purchased, and to ascertain the particular Parish, Constablewick, or Place, in which such Land Tax is charged, and where the Case shall require the same, the particular Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments whereon the same is charged, and to grant a Certificate thereof in the Form in the Schedule to this Act annexed, marked (A), distinguishing the Amount of each separate Assessment of Land Tax; and on the Production of the said last-mentioned Certificate, the Commissioners especially appointed for the Purposes of this Act, within the County, Riding, Stewartry, City, Borough, Cinque Port, Town, or Place, within which such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, are situate, may contract and agree for the Sale of such Land Tax, according to the Directions of this Act, and subject to the Power of Redemption herein contained; and upon the Production at the Bank of England of such last-mentioned Contract and Certificate, and upon the Transfer to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, of so much Stock in either of the Three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities beforementioned, as shall be stated in such Contract to be the Consideration for the Purchase of the Land Tax therein mentioned, or of such Proportion of such Stock as shall have been agreed upon and settled in such Contract to be transferred, as the first Instalment, being not less than one fourth Part of the whole Amount of the Stock so to be transferred as the Consideration of such Purchase, the Person or Persons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, transferring such Stock as last aforesaid, shall be entitled to have a Certificate from the Cashier or Cashiers of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England of such Transfer being made, which Certificate the said Cashier or Cashiers is or are hereby required to give, and the same may either be endorsed on such Contract, in the Form prescribed in the Schedule marked (C), to this Act annexed, or be distinct therefrom, as the Governor and Company of the Bank of England shall judge expedient, or in such other Form as the said Governor and Company shall devise; and upon the Registry of such Certificate with the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, all and every such Persons or Person, Bodies, Corporations, and Companies, shall be entitled to demand, have, and receive, for his, her, or their own Use, in the Manner herein directed, the full Amount of the Land Tax so purchased by him, her, or them as aforesaid, free of all Charges and Deductions whatever, at the respective Times, and in the respective Proportions herein directed: Provided always, That the Land Tax so purchased shall be redeemable by the Person or Persons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, respectively entitled to the Benefit of Preference in respect of their Tenure in the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or claiming the same by, through, or under the Persons so entitled, at the Period hereinafter mentioned for the Redemption of the same.

Persons desirous of purchasing, shall produce to the respective Land Tax Commissioners, Schedules of the Land Tax which they propose to purchase, which the said Commissioners are to adjust, and grant a Certificate (Schedule (A); on the Production of which the Commissioners under this Act may contract for the Sale; on the Production of which Contract and Certificate at the Bank, and transferring the 3 per Cents. agreed for, or the first Instalment, the Cashiers shall give a Receipt; on the Registry or Entry of which, with the Commissioners of Taxes, the Purchaser shall be entitled to receive the Land Tax in Manner hereinafter directed, subject to Redemption by the Persons entitled to Preference.

LXXIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Land Tax shall be sold by Auction, by virtue of this Act, by the Commissioners specially to be appointed as aforesaid, a Contract or Contracts shall be forthwith entered into with the said Commissioners by or on the Behalf of the highest Bidder or Bidders at such Auction, specifying the Amount of the Land Tax purchased, and the Consideration agreed to be paid for the same, and also the County, Riding, or Stewartry, and the Parish or Place where such Land Tax shall be charged, according to the Directions of this Act; which last-mentioned Contract or Contracts, being produced at the Bank of England, shall be as effectual to entitle the Purchaser or Purchasers to proceed to the Completion of such Sale, as in Cases of Contracts entered into in the Manner before directed.

Contracts may be also made by Commissioners with the highest Bidder at a public Auction.

LXXIV. And be it further enacted, That the Whole of the Land Tax charged on any Parish or Place shall (notwithstanding the Discharge of any Part thereof) continue to be inserted in the Certificates of Assessment to be signed by the Commissioners of Land Tax, so long as any Part of the Proportion of Land Tax charged and chargeable in such Parish or Place shall remain payable in such Parish or Place either to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or to any Purchaser or Purchasers thereof in pursuance of this Act; and that all such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, that shall not be exonerated, by virtue of this Act, from the Land Tax, shall continue subject to a new Assessment, yearly and from Year to Year, by an equal Rate, according to the Annual Value of such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, not exceeding in any Year the Rate of four Shillings in the Pound on such Annual Value; and that such Part of the said Land Tax, which shall remain payable as aforesaid in any Parish or Place, shall be raised, levied, collected, and received, in such and the like Form and Manner, and under such Penalties, Forfeitures, and Disabilities, and according to such Rules, Methods, and Directions, as if the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, charged with the Land Tax so remaining payable as aforesaid, formed an entire Parish or Place, and as are prescribed, directed, and appointed, by the Act of the present Session of Parliament, with respect to the Quota of each

The whole Land Tax charged on any Place shall continue to be certified by the Land Tax Commissioners, so long as any Part remains payable to the King, or any Purchaser; and such Lands as shall not be exonerated shall continue subject to Yearly Assessments, not exceeding 4s. in the Pound; such remaining Land Tax to be raised as if the Lands chargeable formed an entire Parish, &c. the Collectors to return the Amount of the Land Tax redeemed in each Parish.

each Parish and Place: Provided always, That upon the Delivery of the Certificates and Precepts to the several Collectors, for the raising, levying, collecting, and recovering, such Part of the said Land Tax as shall so remain payable in such Parish or Place, the said Collectors shall be directed to return, in their Schedule to the Receiver General for the County, Riding, or Place, the Amount of the Land Tax which shall have been redeemed in such Parish or Place, and from the Payment of which such Parish or Place shall have been exonerated: Provided also, That if any such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments are situated in Scotland, the same shall continue subject to a new Assessment yearly, and from Year to Year, according to the Rates and in the Manner established by Law or Custom in that Country.

Contracts for Redemption of the Land Tax to be registered within four Months, and before Payment of the second Instalment, at the Office of Commissioners for Taxes; three Duplicates to be made and returned, one to the Receiver General of the County, one to Commissioners of Land Tax in their Division, and one into the Exchequer.

LXXV. And be it further enacted, That every Contract entered into in pursuance of this Act for the Redemption or Sale of any Land Tax charged as aforesaid, shall, within four Calendar Months after the making of such Contract, and before the Time appointed for transferring the Quantity of Stock to be transferred upon such Contract for the second Instalment thereof, be registered with the proper Officer at the Office to be appointed for that Purpose by the said Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, which Registers shall be made in Books to be provided and kept by such Officer; and the said Officer is hereby required to make out three Duplicates on Parchment, fairly written, under his Hand and Seal, of the several Amounts of the said Land Tax so redeemed and exonerated, or so redeemed or purchased as aforesaid, and not exonerated but remaining chargeable, distinguishing the several Parishes and Places where the same shall have been assessed, and to deliver or cause to be delivered one of such Duplicates to the Receiver General for the County, Riding, or Place where such Land Tax shall have been charged, and one other of such Duplicates to the Commissioners of Land Tax acting for the Division where the Parish or Place in which such Land Tax shall have been charged is situated, and a like Duplicate into the Office of the King's Remembrancer of the Exchequer, whenever the same shall be required.

Copies of Registers shall be Evidence of Contracts.

LXXVI. And be it further enacted, That every Copy of any Register of any Contract made in pursuance of this Act, or Assignment thereof, registered according to the Directions of this Act, with the proper Officer to be appointed for that Purpose, which shall be signed by him, shall be allowed in all Courts and Places, and before all Persons, to be good and sufficient Evidence of such Contract or Assignment thereof respectively.

Receiver General, &c. on Production of the Contract, shall pay the Purchaser or his Assigns, the full Amount of the Land Tax purchased, on September 20 and March 16 in every Year.

LXXVII. And be it further enacted, That the Receiver General of or for any County, Riding, or Place in England, and the Collector of or for any County, Stewartry, Burgh, Town, or Place in Scotland, where any such Land Tax shall remain chargeable as aforesaid, after the same shall have been redeemed or purchased as aforesaid, or his Deputy or Deputies, shall, before such Land Tax shall become due and payable, that is to say, on the twentieth Day of September, for the Half Year ending on the twenty-ninth Day of September, and on the sixteenth Day of March, for the Half Year ending on the twenty-fifth Day of March in every Year, upon Demand, and upon Production of the Contract, whenever the Receiver General or his Deputy in England, or Collector in Scotland, shall require the same, pay or cause to be paid to the Purchaser or Purchasers thereof, or the Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, of such Purchaser or Purchasers respectively, the full Amount of the Land Tax so purchased as aforesaid, free of all Charges and Deductions whatever, without Fee or Reward, out of any Money in the Hands of any such Receiver or Collector arising from the Produce of the Land Tax, if he shall have so much in his Hands, and if such Receiver or Collector shall not have sufficient Money in his Hands arising out of the Land Tax as aforesaid, then out of any other Monies in the Hands of such Receiver or Collector arising from any other Rates and Duties payable to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and receivable and received by him as such Receiver or Collector as aforesaid: Provided, That such Monies of any other Rates and Duties shall be replaced by such Receiver or Collector out of the first Monies that shall be received by him of the Land Tax arising thereafter in such County, Riding, Stewartry, City, Borough, Cinque Port, Town, or Place.

Proprietors may assign the Land Tax purchased by them (Schedule (D), and a Memorial of such Assignment shall be entered with the proper Officer to be appointed; with whom Persons, becoming entitled to Land Tax by Marriage, shall register Affidavits thereof, and Executors, &c. shall enter

LXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Proprietors for the Time being of any Land Tax which shall have been purchased in pursuance of this Act, to sell, dispose of, and transfer the same in the Manner, and subject to the Rules and Conditions hereinafter mentioned, and that the Assignment thereof shall be in Writing, in the Form specified in the Schedule hereunto annexed, marked (D); and on every such Assignment, and also in every Case where any Assignment shall be made of any Land Tax in pursuance of any Claim or Demand by virtue of this Act, the Assignment of such Land Tax shall be produced to the proper Officer to be appointed for that Purpose, who shall enter a Memorial of such Assignment in a Book or Books to be provided and kept for that Purpose, and shall certify the Entry of such Memorial by an Indorsement on such Assignment; and where any Person or Persons shall, in right or by virtue of his or their Marriage, become entitled to any Land Tax which shall have been redeemed or purchased in pursuance of this Act, an Affidavit, containing a Copy of the Register of such Marriage, shall be made and sworn to or affirmed by some credible Person, before a Judge of one of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or before a Master in Chancery in England, or one of the Judges of the Court of Session in Scotland, or a Magistrate or Baillie of some Corporate Town, or one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, and shall be transmitted to such Officer as aforesaid, who shall make an Entry thereof in the Book or Books which shall be kept for entering Memorials of Assignments of such Land Tax, and such Officer shall, upon the Application of the Person or Persons entitled to such Land Tax, grant to him, her, or them, a Certificate of such Entry; and where any Person or Persons shall, as Executor or Executors, Administrator or Administrators, of any Person deceased, become entitled to any such Land Tax, the Probate of the Will or testamentary Instrument or Letters of Administration, under which such Person or Persons shall be so entitled, shall be produced and shewn to such Officer, who shall enter the same, and grant a Certificate thereof in Manner aforesaid; and such Officer is hereby required to make out a Duplicate of every such Certificate, fairly written under his Hand, and to deliver or cause to be delivered such Duplicate to the Receiver General in England, or Collector in Scotland, for the County, Riding, Stewartry, or Place, wherein such Land Tax shall be charged; and after the Delivery of such Duplicate to such Receiver General, or his Deputy or Deputies, or to such Collector, the Person or Persons to whom any such Land Tax shall have been transferred or transmitted as aforesaid, shall, upon the Production of such Certificate to such Receiver General, or his Deputy or Deputies, or such Collector, be entitled to demand, have, and receive, for his, her, or their own Use, the full Amount of the Land Tax which shall be specified and mentioned in such Certificate, free of all Charges and Deductions whatever, and in the same Manner, in all Respects, as if he, she, or they, had been the original Purchaser or Purchasers of such Land Tax, and the Receipt or Receipts of such Person or Persons shall be a sufficient Discharge to such Receiver General, or his Deputy or Deputies, and Collector, for the same: Provided always, That wherever, by reason of any Assignee not having declared such Option as hereinbefore is mentioned in the Assignment of any Land Tax, the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, charged therewith, shall be exonerated therefrom, such Officer is hereby required to transmit the like Duplicates as hereinbefore directed in Cases where any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, shall be exonerated from the Land Tax charged thereon in pursuance of the original Contract.

Probates, &c. Duplicates of such Entries to be transmitted to Receiver General, who shall pay such Assignees, &c.

Where Assignee does not declare his Option, Lands to be exonerated.

LXXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who shall have entered into any Contract with the said Commissioners, specially to be appointed for the Purposes of this Act, for the Redemption or Purchase of any Land Tax, shall die before the Transfer of all the Instalments of Stock contracted to be made by him or her, without having made any Provision, by Will or otherwise, how the future Instalments shall be made good, then and in such Case the future Instalments shall be paid out of the Assets of the Person so dying, as a Debt to his Majesty upon Record, and the Executors or Administrators of the Person so dying, and the Trustee or Trustees, Guardian or Guardians, Curator or Curators of any Infant, Minor, or other Person entitled to the Estate and Effects of the Persons so dying, shall be indemnified against such Infant or Minor, and all other Persons whomsoever, for making good the Instalments necessary to complete the said Contract, and if such Executor or Administrator, Trustee, Curator, or Guardian, shall not have Assets for that Purpose, then they shall and may, and they are hereby respectively authorized and empowered to sell, assign, and dispose of the said Contract in the Manner and Form hereinafter directed; and the Person or Persons to whom such Contract shall be assigned, shall be bound to complete the same upon the same Terms and Conditions, by the same Instalments, and at the same Periods, and in the same Manner, and have and be entitled to the same Benefits and Advantages, as the Person so dying would have been bound to complete the same, and would have been entitled to, in case he or she had been then living.

Where Purchasers die before completing Contracts, the Payments due shall be considered and preferred as a Debt to the King on Record; and on Defect of Assets, Executors, &c. may sell and assign the Contract, of which the Assignee shall have all the Benefit.

LXXX. Provided always, That the said respective Courts of Exchequer may, in all such Cases, give the like Relief by enlarging the Time for making good any future Instalment or Instalments, as they are hereby authorized to do in Cases of Forfeiture through the Default of the Party.

Courts of Exchequer may enlarge the Time for Payment of Instalments.—(See § 96, 97.)

LXXXI. And be it further enacted, That where any Person, Body, Corporation, or Company, shall have redeemed any Land Tax out of the Monies arising from the Sale or Mortgage of any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or from the Grant of any Rent Charge thereout, under and by virtue of this Act, and shall have declared his, her, or their Option to be considered on the Footing of a Purchaser thereof as aforesaid, in every such Case the Land Tax so redeemed shall continue and be attendant upon the Estate and Interest of the Person or Persons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, who shall for the Time being be beneficially entitled to the Rents and Profits of the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, and shall be payable by the Receiver General in England, or Collector in Scotland, his Deputy or Deputies, for the Benefit of such Person or Persons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies; and the Receipt or Receipts of the Person or Persons who shall for the Time being be in the actual Perception of the Rents and Profits of the said Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, shall be a sufficient Discharge to such Receiver General or Collector, or his Deputy or Deputies, for such Land Tax.

Where Persons redeeming the Land Tax by Sale of Part of their Lands, &c. shall declare their Option to be considered as Purchasers, the Land Tax so redeemed shall be a tendant on the Estate of such Purchasers, and payable to them by the Receiver General.

LXXXII. And be it further enacted, That if the Receiver General in England, or Collector in Scotland, of any County, Riding, Stewartry, or Place, where any such Land Tax shall be purchased, as a specific Charge upon any particular Estate, shall neglect or refuse to pay to the Purchaser or Purchasers of such Land Tax, or the Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, of such Purchaser or Purchasers respectively, the full Amount of the Land Tax so purchased as aforesaid, the same being lawfully demanded of such Receiver General or Collector, or his Deputy, in the Manner before directed, at or after the Time before limited for

If the Receiver General, &c. refuses to pay the Land Tax to any Purchaser, the Occupier of the Lands charged shall pay it, unlefs previously paid (for Want of Notice) to the Collector, or unless the Value of the Estate is reduced; in which latter Case the Occupier shall not be liable to pay more than 4 s. in the Pound on his Rack Rent; or in case of any Abatement of the Land Tax, such Sum only as shall then be chargedthereon; to be recovered of such Occupier as Rent.

Incase of Reduction of the Value of the Estate, the Purchaser of the Land Tax may have his Option, either to receive a Sum adequate to theDeficiency of the old Tax, or so much 3 per Cent. Stock as will produce 1-10th or 1-5th more than such Deficiency, according to the original Contract.

for such Payment, it shall be lawful for such Purchaser or Purchasers, or the Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, of such Purchaser or Purchasers, to cause Notice of such Default to be given to the Occupier or Occupiers of the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, on which the Land Tax so purchased shall be charged, and such Occupier or Occupiers shall be obliged to pay the same upon like Demand, unless such Occupier or Occupiers shall have previously paid the same, for Want of such Notice, to the Collector or Collectors of the Parish or Place wherein such Land Tax shall arise, or unless the Yearly Value of the Estate whereon such Land Tax shall have been charged, (estimating such Value by the Rack Rents, and the highest Improvements made of such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments,) shall be reduced, so that the Estate shall be charged with a higher Rate than four Shillings in the Pound on such Value, in which Case the Occupier or Occupiers shall not be liable to the Payment of any greater Sum than after the Rate of four Shillings in the Pound on such Value, or unless the Land Tax charged on such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, shall by any Abatement thereof be reduced to a Sum less than the Sum charged on the same Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, at the Time of the Purchase, in which Case such Occupier or Occupiers shall not be liable to the Payment of any greater Sum than the Sum charged on such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, at the Time when such Demand shall be made; and in case of Neglect or Refusal by such Occupier or Occupiers to pay the Land Tax so payable as aforesaid, such Occupier or Occupiers not having before paid the same, all the Remedies which may be practised by any Lessors or Landlords shall be applied and put in Execution for the Recovery of any Land Tax purchased in pursuance of this Act, as fully and effectually as if all such Remedies were severally and separately re-enacted in the Body of this Act: Provided always, That in case of any Diminution of the Sum to be paid by such Occupier or Occupiers to the Purchaser or Purchasers of any Land Tax, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, by reason of such Reduction in the Value of the Estate charged therewith, such Purchaser or Purchasers, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall have the Option of continuing to receive a Sum necessary to complete in each Year the whole Annual Amount of the Land Tax originally purchased, or of receiving back from the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt so much Capital Stock in the Three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities originally transferred, in pursuance of the Contract, as shall yield an Interest exceeding the Amount of the Sum by which the Land Tax originally purchased shall have been diminished by one tenth Part, or one fifth Part, or other Proportion thereof, according to the Terms of the original Contract; and the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and required, on the Production of the Certificate of the Commissioners for executing the Act of the present Session and this Act, of such Abatement, or an attested Copy thereof, (which Certificate or Copy the said last-mentioned Commissioners are hereby required to give, after making any Allowance of such Abatement,) to transfer such Capital Stock to such Person or Persons as aforesaid.

Receiver General wilfully refusing to pay Land Tax to a Purchaser, to forfeit 100 l. to the Party grieved.

LXXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Receiver General in England, or Collector in Scotland, of or for any County, Riding, Stewartry, or Place, where any such Land Tax shall be purchased as aforesaid, or his Deputy, shall (having sufficient Money in his Hands arisen out of the Land Tax, or out of any other Rates or Duties receivable by him as such Receiver General or Collector) wilfully neglect or refuse to pay to the Purchaser or Purchasers, or the Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns of such Purchaser or Purchasers, within the Time hereinbefore limited, the full Amount of the Land Tax so purchased as aforesaid, free of all Charges and Deductions whatever, and without Fee or Reward, such Receiver General or Collector shall forfeit and pay to the Party grieved the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be recovered as hereinafter is directed.

Receiver General paying to the Person appearing by the Register to be entitled, shall be indemnified.

LXXXIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That every Receiver General or his Deputy in England, and every Collector in Scotland, and every Collector of any Parish or Place in England, paying any such Land Tax to any Person or Persons, appearing by any Register kept by the proper Officer to be appointed for that Purpose, under the Direction of this Act, or by the Certificate of such Officer, to be the Person entitled to such Land Tax, shall be indemnified in making such Payment, notwithstanding any Defect of Title in the Person or Persons receiving the same.

Where Land Tax is purchased, and any Abatement takes place, the Receiver General to make good the Deficiency to the Purchaser, unless he has received back an Equivalent in Stock.

LXXXV. And be it further enacted, That where any Purchase shall be made of any Land Tax as a specific Charge on any particular Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or where any Person or Persons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, entitled to Preference, shall have made his, her, or their Option, to be considered on the Footing of a third Person purchasing the Land Tax, and any Abatement shall afterwards take place in the Sum charged at the Time of such Purchase, the Receiver General in England, or Collector in Scotland, of or for the County, Riding, Stewartry, or Place, within which such Land Tax is charged, is hereby authorized and required, upon the Production of the Certificate of the Commissioners for executing the Act of the present Session of Parliament and this Act, of such Abatement, or an attested Copy thereof, to pay the full Amount thereof, free of all Charges and Deductions whatever, and without Fee or Reward, to such Person or Persons as aforesaid, in like Manner, and out of such Monies, and at such Times of Payment as is herein directed for the Payment of the Whole of the Land Tax purchased, unless such Person or Persons shall have received back a Proportion of Capital Stock in lieu of such Abatement, according to the Provisions of this Act.

See § 82. 86.

LXXXVI. And

Where Purchase is made by Persons not entitled to Preference, the Purchaser may, at his Election, instead of receiving Amount of such Abatement from the Receiver General, demand an Equivalent in Stock.

LXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That where any Purchase shall be made of any Land Tax as a specific Charge on any particular Estate or Estates, by any Person or Persons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, other than the Persons entitled to Preference as aforesaid, then such Person or Persons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies may, at his, her, or their Election, instead of receiving the Amount of such Abatement from the Receiver General or Collector, demand of and from the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, a Transfer of so much Capital Stock in the Three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities, as shall yield an Interest exceeding the Amount of such Abatement by one fifth Part, or one tenth Part, or other Proportion thereof, according to the Terms of the original Contract, and the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and required, on the Production of the Certificate of such Abatement hereinbefore mentioned, or an attested Copy thereof, to transfer such Capital Stock to such Person or Persons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies as aforesaid.

On Refusal of the Receiver General to pay the Land Tax to a Proprietor, the Collector, on Notice given, shall pay the same. (See § 82.)

LXXXVII. And be it further enacted, That if the Receiver General in England of any County, Riding, or Place, where any Land Tax shall remain chargeable, after the same hath been purchased in pursuance of this Act, shall neglect or refuse to pay to the respective Purchasers of such Land Tax, or the Executors, Administrators, or Assigns of such Purchasers respectively, the full Amount of the Land Tax so purchased as aforesaid, the same being lawfully demanded of such Receiver General, or his Deputy, at or after the Time before limited for such Payment in Manner before directed, then and in every such Case it shall be lawful for such Proprietors respectively, or their respective Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, to cause Notice of such Default to be given to the Collector for the Time being of the said Land Tax, for the Parish or Place where such Land Tax shall have been charged, and also of his, her, or their Intention to receive the Land Tax in future from such Collector, and on such Notice every such Purchaser, his or her Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall be entitled to receive the Amount of such Land Tax from such Collector accordingly.

If the Receiver General shall refuse to pay the Amount of Abatement, the Collector shall pay the same.

LXXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That where any Abatement shall take place in England in the Land Tax purchased as a specific Charge on any particular Estate or Estates, or by any Persons entitled to Preference, who shall have made their Option to be considered on the Footing of third Persons purchasing the Land Tax, if the Receiver General of the County, Riding, or Place, shall neglect or refuse to pay to any of the Persons entitled to such Land Tax the full Amount of such Abatement, the same being lawfully demanded of such Receiver General, or his Deputy or Deputies, at or after the Time before limited for such Payment, then and in every such last-mentioned Case it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons to cause the like Notice to be given to the Collector for such Parish or Place as aforesaid, to entitle him, her, or them, to receive from such Collector the Amount of such Abatement.

Collector to pay Proprietor within 10 Days after Production of the Contract and Certificate of its Registry; and so from Time to Time, unless he shall have paid over his whole Receipt, without Notice, to the Receiver General.

Proprietor's Receipts shall be the Collector's Discharge, and taken as Cash of him.

Proprietor shall be entitled to all the Remedies as a Receiver General.

LXXXIX. And be it further enacted, That every such Collector, for any Parish or Place in England, on the Production of the Contract for the Purchase of such Land Tax, with the Certificate of the Registry thereof, or an attested Copy of such Certificate, is hereby authorized and required, within ten Days after he shall have received the same, and after such Notice shall be given as aforesaid, and so from Time to Time as any Land Tax shall be payable to such Person or Persons, to pay or cause to be paid to such Purchaser or Purchasers, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, the full Amount of the Land Tax so purchased as aforesaid, or in case of any Abatement therein, the Amount of such Abatement, free of all Charges and Deductions whatever, and without Fee or Reward, out of any Money in the Hands of such Collector arising from the Produce of the Land Tax, or out of the first Monies which shall come into his Hands, arising from the Produce of the Land Tax in such Parish or Place, unless such Collector shall, for Want of such Notice as aforesaid, have paid the Whole of the Land Tax charged in such Parish or Place to the Receiver General of the County, Riding, or Place, within which such Parish or Place is situate, at the Time of any such Demand being made; and the Receipt of the Purchaser or Purchasers, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall from Time to Time be a good and sufficient Discharge to such Collector for the Amount of the Land Tax or Abatement thereof so paid, and shall be taken by the respective Receivers as Cash, and returned by them as such into the Receipt of the Exchequer; and in case of Neglect or Default by such Collector to pay such Land Tax, such Collector not having before paid the same, all the Remedies which may be had or practised by any Receiver General on Behalf of his Majesty, or by the Commissioners for executing the Act of the present Session of Parliament, or this Act, shall be applied and put in Execution by the Person or Persons entitled to such Land Tax, against such Collector or Collectors, his, her, or their Estate or Effects, as fully and effectually as if all such Remedies were severally and respectively re-enacted in the Body of this Act.

Collector refusing to pay, after Notice, to forfeit 20 l. to the Party grieved.

XC. And be it further enacted, That if any such Collector of any Parish or Place in England where such Land Tax shall be purchased, (having sufficient Money in his Hands, arising out of the Land Tax charged on such Parish or Place, receivable and received by him as such Collector,) shall at any Time or Times, after such Notice given as last-mentioned, neglect or refuse to pay to the Purchaser or Purchasers of any such Land Tax, or the Executors, Administrators, or Assigns of such Purchaser or Purchasers, within the Time hereinbefore limited, the full Amount of the Land Tax so purchased, or any such Abatement thereof as aforesaid, free of all Charges and Deductions whatever, and without Fee or Reward, the same being first lawfully demanded as aforesaid, such Collector shall forfeit and pay to the Party aggrieved the Sum of twenty Pounds, to be recovered as hereinafter is directed.

On the Transfer of the second and all other Instalments of Stock, the Purchaser of Land Tax shall pay, by Way of Interest, a Proportion of the Land Tax redeemed.

XCI. And be it further enacted, That upon every Contract entered into as aforesaid, upon which the Transfer of Stock shall be made by Instalments, there shall be paid at the Time of making the second Instalment upon such Contract, and so of every subsequent Instalment upon such Contract, into the Hands of the Cashier or Cashiers of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, (whose Receipt shall be a sufficient Discharge,) to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, a Sum of Money by Way of Interest, equal to the Amount of the Land Tax redeemed or purchased, deducting therefrom a Sum bearing the same Proportion to such Land Tax, as the Amount of the Stock before then transferred bears to the whole Amount of the Stock agreed to be transferred on such Contract, having Regard to the Time when the first Dividend after the Transfer of such Stock will become payable; of which Sums so to be paid by Way of Interest, a separate Account shall be kept at the Bank of England, and the same shall from Time to Time be paid separately into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, and shall be applicable to such Uses and Purposes as shall then have been or shall be voted by the Commons in Parliament.

Land Tax purchased by Persons not entitled to Preference, shall not be redeemed till the Dividends on the Stock purchased for reducing the National Debt existing previous to the War, shall cease to accumulate.

XCII. And be it further enacted, That the Land Tax, or any Part or Parcel thereof, purchased under and by virtue of this Act, by any Person or Persons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, not entitled to Preference as aforesaid, shall not be subject to Redemption until the Period when the Dividends arising from the Purchases of Stock made by the Commissioners for the Reduction of such Part of the National Debt, which existed previous to the Commencement of the present War, shall, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the Acts now in Force, cease to accumulate, and be considered as redeemed and in the Disposition of Parliament.

After that Period, for three Years, Persons possessed of or entitled to Lands charged with Land Tax purchased under this Act, shall, in Order of Preference, be entitled to redeem the same as they might have done, (under §§ 12, 13,) giving Notice within 21 Days of such Redemption to Receiver General, who must give Notice to the Proprietors; all Payments to whom shall cease from the ensuing Quarter.

XCIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the Period herein last before-mentioned, and at any Time during three Years then next ensuing, all and every Persons and Person, Bodies, Coporations, and Companies, being in the Possession of, or beneficially entitled to any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, charged with any Land Tax, which shall have been purchased under and by virtue of this Act, shall, in the Order in which they respectively shall be entitled to the Benefit of redeeming their Land Tax, according to the Rate of Preference for the Redemption hereinbefore mentioned, be entitled to treat with the Commissioners specially appointed for the Redemption of such Land Tax, or any Part or Parcel thereof, in such and the like Manner, in all Respects, as he, she, or they might have done within the Period first hereinbefore limited, and the said Commissioners are hereby authorized to contract and agree with him, her, or them respectively, for the Redemption of such Land Tax, or any Part or Parcel thereof, upon the same Terms and Conditions, and in like Manner in all Respects, as if such Contracts had been made within the Period first hereinbefore limited, provided that he, she, or they shall, within twenty-one Days after the making of such Contract, give Notice in Writing to the Receiver General in England, or Collector in Scotland, of the County, Riding, Stewartry, or Place, within which such Land Tax shall be charged, of such Redemption as aforesaid, specifying in such Notice the Amount of the Land Tax so redeemed, the Parish or Place within which, and the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, upon which the same is charged, and such Receiver General or Collector is hereby required to cause Notice in Writing of such Redemption to be given to the original Purchaser or Purchasers of such Land Tax, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, or to the Person or Persons then entitled to receive the same from the said Receiver General or Collector of such Land Tax as aforesaid, as hereinbefore mentioned, whenever he, she, or they shall next demand the same; and all Payments to such original Purchasers on Account of the Land Tax so redeemed, shall cease and determine from the End of the Quarter of the Year next ensuing such Notice.

Commissioners for reducing the National Debt, shall thereupon transfer to such Proprietor so much of 3 per Cent. Stock as was transferred for the original Purchase: or, at the Option of such Proprietor, pay the Value of such Stock according to the Price at the Time of transferring the first Instalment; which Price shall be indorsed on the Contract.

XCIV. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, on Application made to them by the original Purchaser or Purchasers of any Land Tax redeemed as aforesaid, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, and on Production to the said Commissioners of the original Contract of Purchase of such Land Tax, or Assignment thereof, or Certificate of any Assignment thereof, or Copy, made under the Authority of this Act, of any such Certificate, and of the Notice given to such Purchaser or Purchasers, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, by the Receiver General or Collector of the County, Riding, or Place, within which such Land Tax is charged, of the Redemption thereof, or any Part thereof, shall transfer to him, her, or them, so much Capital Stock in the Three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities as shall have been transferred by such original Purchaser or Purchasers, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, as the Consideration for the Purchase of such Land Tax, or such Part thereof as shall be in Proportion to the Land Tax redeemed, or at his, her, or their Option, shall pay to him, her, or them a Sum of Money equal to what was the Value of such Capital Stock at the Time of the Transfer of the first Instalment on such Contract, which Value the Cashier or Cashiers of the Bank of England is or are hereby required to indorse on such Contract at the Time of such Transfer being made, and such Contract shall thereupon be determined and of no Effect, as to so much of the Land Tax which shall be so redeemed.

On fulfilling the Contract for Redemption, the

XCV. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Land Tax purchased under and by virtue of this Act shall be afterwards redeemed in pursuance of this Act, and the Whole of the Capital Stock contracted for as the Consideration of such Redemption, or such Part thereof as shall have been contracted for on Account of the first Instalment, shall have been transferred to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and all other Matters and Things hereinbefore directed as to Contracts of Redemption made within the Period first hereinbefore limited, been duly performed, the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments comprised in such Contract shall be wholly freed and exonerated from the Land Tax charged thereon, and from all further Assessments thereof, and such Land Tax shall be no longer payable to the Receiver General or Collector of the County, Riding, Stewartry, or Place, within which such Land Tax shall be charged, nor by such Receiver General or Collector to the Purchaser or Purchasers thereof, after Notice of such Redemption, unless such Contract shall become null and void on Failure of making good any Instalment contracted and agreed for thereon as hereinafter mentioned.

Lands subject to the Land Tax redeemed to be exonerated.

XCVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons, after entering into any such Contract as aforesaid for the Redemption or Purchase of any such Land Tax, shall afterwards refuse or neglect to complete the same by the due and regular Transfer of the several Instalments agreed to be made thereon, then and in every such Case, and immediately after Default shall be made in the Transfer of any of the said Instalments, such Contract shall become null and void, and the Whole of the Land Tax so contracted for (in case the same shall have ceased by virtue of this Act) shall be revived, and again become chargeable on the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, whereon the same was charged prior to such Contract, and such Land Tax (whether the same shall have been redeemed or purchased) shall be again assessed, raised, levied, and collected for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, or be again sold by the Commissioners specially appointed for the Purposes of this Act, in the same Manner as if such Contract had not been entered into, and the Person or Persons so making Default shall, for the Non-performance of such Contract, be subject to a Penalty not exceeding the Amount of the Value of the Stock agreed to be transferred for the first Instalment.

Where Persons refuse or neglect to complete their Contract, it shall become void, and the Land Tax, if it has ceased, shall be revived, and be again raised, or again sold; and the Contractor making Default shall forfeit the Value of his first Instalment.

XCVII. And be it further enacted, That where any Contract shall become forfeited, it shall be lawful for the Courts of Exchequer in England and Scotland respectively, on the Application of the Person or Persons who shall have incurred such Penalty, or any other Person or Persons who may be prejudiced by such Default, by Petition to be preferred in a summary Way, stating the Grounds of such Application, to enlarge the Time for the making good any subsequent Instalment or Instalments, and to grant such Relief to the Party or Parties as to the said Courts respectively shall seem meet, upon Payment of all Costs, and upon such other Terms and Conditions as to such Courts respectively shall appear reasonable.

Courts of Exchequer in England or Scotland may relieve against such Forfeitures. (See § 80.)

XCVIII. And be it further enacted, That every Contract entered into and made, under and by virtue of this Act, shall be assignable by Indorsement made thereon, in the Form contained in the Schedule marked (D), and where the Assignment is only a Part of the Land Tax comprised in such original Contract, then by a like Form to be indorsed upon an attested Copy of such original Contract, specifying the Proportion of the Land Tax so to be assigned, and the Premises upon which the same is charged, which Assignment and Assignments shall be registered, and Duplicates thereof delivered in such and the like Manner, in all Respects, as is hereinbefore described with respect to the original Contract entered into under and by virtue of this Act.

Contracts may be assigned and registered.

XCIX. And be it further enacted, That all Land Tax which shall be redeemed or purchased in pursuance of this Act, except where the same shall be discharged by virtue of this Act, or in Cases where other Provisions are made by this Act, shall be deemed Personal Estate, and transmissible as such, and not of the Nature of Real Estate.

Land Tax redeemed or purchased under this Act to be Personal Estate, (See § 32. 40.)

except in certain Cases.

C. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That where any Contract shall have become null and void, in Manner hereinbefore described, it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons, although not interested therein, by Leave of, and under and subject to the Directions of the said respective Courts of Exchequer, on Application made in a summary Way, to contract with the Commissioners specially appointed for the Purposes of this Act, for the making good all such Instalments as shall remain due at the Time of such Contract becoming null and void as aforesaid, and on transferring to the Person or Persons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies interested therein, the Quantity of Capital Stock that shall have been transferred under such Contract, or paying the Value thereof, in such Manner, and to such Person or Persons as the said respective Courts of Exchequer shall direct, and upon making good the Instalments that shall remain due as aforesaid, and upon such Registry and Delivery of Duplicates in Manner hereinbefore directed in Cases of Assignment of Contracts, such Person or Persons shall thenceforth be considered as the Purchaser or Purchasers of the Land Tax mentioned in such Contract, and shall be entitled to all such Benefits, Advantages, and Payments, as if he, she, or they had originally contracted for the Purchase thereof, subject to such Redemption thereof as is herein directed with respect to any Purchaser or Purchasers at the Period hereinafter mentioned.

In case of Contracts becoming void, Strangers may, on Application to the Exchequer, make good the same, and stand in the Place of the original Purchasers.

CI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That where any Contract made under and by virtue of this Act shall have become null and void as aforesaid, and no Application to the said respective Courts of Exchequer shall have been made within three Calendar Months from the Time of such Default, in Manner hereinbefore directed, by any Person or Persons not interested in such Contract, nor any Prosecution for the Penalty

Where no such Application is made within three Months, and the Penalty for Breach of Contract is not sued for, the Commissioners for reducing the National Debt may retain the Penalty out of the Stock actually transferred, and retransfer the Remainder to the Purchaser.

nalty shall have been brought, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, and they are hereby required to reserve to the Use of the Public such Part of the Capital Stock transferred under such Contract as shall be equal to the Penalty incurred, and on Demand thereof made, to transfer the Remainder of such Capital Stock to the Person or Persons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies, interested in such Stock, his, her, or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns.

Bank to open an Account of the Sale of the Land Tax, and receive Monies, and make Entries accordingly.

CII. And be it further enacted, That the Governor and Directors of the Bank of England shall, and they are hereby required to open an Account in their Books under the Title of "An Account of the Sale of the Land Tax" as before directed*, and to carry to the Credit of such Account the Monies directed to be paid into the Bank of England, upon the said Account, and the Cashier or Cashiers of the Bank of England is and are hereby required to accept and receive all such Monies from any Person or Persons, Bodies, Corporations, or Companies aforesaid, and to make Entries thereof in the Books of the Bank of England to be provided for that Purpose.

If any Assessment of the Land Tax shall exceed 4s. in the Pound, an Abatement shall be made, and Assessments made accordingly.

CIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Assessment of Land Tax, which shall continue to be charged in pursuance of this Act, shall at any Time hereafter be found to exceed the Rate of four Shillings in the Pound on the annual Value of such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, the same shall be subject to an Abatement in the Manner in such Cases directed by the said Act of the present Session of Parliament; and that after such Abatement made, an Assessment specifying such Abatement shall be made thereof accordingly; and the Commissioners making such Assessment shall cause Duplicates thereof to be returned to the said Receivers General, the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and the Offices of the King's Remembrancer at Westminster and Edinburgh respectively, in the Manner therein directed in other Cases of Assessments.

Where Lands now rated together shall be hereafter divided, the Land Tax continuing to be paid, it shall be apportioned by the Land Tax Commissioners; and if either of the Possessors shall be called on to pay the whole Land Tax, he shall recover from the other his Portion as Rent due.

CIV. And be it further enacted, That where any Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments which now are rated together, and chargeable with the Payment of one Gross Sum by Way of Land Tax, (and which Land Tax shall be purchased and continued payable, and be collected under the Regulations contained in this Act,) shall hereafter be separated or divided, and come into the Possession of different Persons, prior to the Time when such Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments shall be exonerated therefrom by virtue of this Act, then and in every such Case the Commissioners of Land Tax acting in or for the Division wherein such Land Tax shall be charged, if in England, or the Commissioners of Supply acting for the County, Stewartry, or Place, if in Scotland, or any two or more of them, shall cause such Land Tax to be apportioned as between such Persons respectively, according to the Value of their respective Estates, and to assess and charge the Proportions in which their respective Estates shall bear and sustain the same, or if in Scotland, according to the Rules and Regulations followed there in the Division of Cumulo valued Rents; and in case any one of such Persons shall, at any Time or Times after such Land Tax shall be apportioned, be compelled to pay the Whole of the said Land Tax, or more than his or her due Proportion thereof, such Person or Persons shall and may, and is and are hereby authorized and empowered to demand of and from the Person or Persons who, under such Assessment, ought to have paid the same, such Sum or Sums of Money as he, she, or they shall have been compelled to pay over and above his, her, or their due Proportion of such Land Tax, and on Refusal to pay the same, to proceed for the Recovery thereof in the same Manner, in all Respects, as Lessors or Landlords can or may, by virtue of any Laws or Acts now in force in England and Scotland respectively, proceed for the Recovery of Rent in Arrear.

When the Whole of the Land Tax in any Parish is redeemed, and the Parish exonerated, all Assessments thereof shall cease.

CV. And be it further enacted, That whenever, in any Parish or Place, separately assessed to the Land Tax, the Whole of the Land Tax charged upon the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in such Parish or Place, shall have been redeemed, and all the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in such Parish or Place shall be exonerated, under and by virtue of this Act, from the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money as Land Tax, all Assessments in such Parish or Place, by virtue of this Act, shall cease and determine.

The Interest on 3 per Cents. transferred under this Act to Commissioners for reducing the National Debt, shall not be issued from the Exchequer; but remain a Part of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund, disposable by Parliament.

CVI. And be it further enacted, That when any Capital Stock of the Three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities shall, by virtue of this Act, be transferred to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, the Interest or Dividend which would have been payable on such Stock, shall from thenceforth cease to be issued from the Receipt of the Exchequer, or to be charged on the Consolidated Fund, and the Money which would have been applicable to the Payment thereof shall remain and be a Part of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund, to be applied in such Manner as Parliament shall from Time to Time direct.

But when Stock is transferred by the said Commissioners to any one, the Dividends shall again be payable.

CVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That whenever any Capital Stock shall be transferred by the said Commissioners to any Person or Persons in pursuance of this Act, the Dividends shall again be payable thereon in the same Manner as if the same had never been transferred to the said Commissioners.

CVIII. And

CVIII. And be it further enacted, That the several Duties imposed on Malt, by an Act made in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty; on Sugar, by three Acts of the twenty-seventh, thirty-fourth, and thirty-seventh Years of the Reign of his present Majesty; and the Duties of Excise on Tobacco and Snuff, by an Act made in the twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, shall continue in force until the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, and no longer, but shall from thenceforth cease and determine, except as to Arrears due, or to grow due, unless the same shall be specially continued by Parliament.

Duties on Malt by 27 Geo. 3. c. 13; on Sugar by 27 Geo. 3. c. 13. 34 Geo. 3. c. 4. and 37 Geo. 3. c. 15. and the Duties of Excise on Tobacco, by 29 Geo. 3. c. 68. to determine from March 25, 1799.

CIX. And be it further enacted, That the several Sums of Money arising from the Produce of the Duty by this Act made perpetual as aforesaid, which shall be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer in any Year after the said twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, shall from Time to Time be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund.

Produce of Land Tax after March 25, 1799, to make Part of the Consolidated Fund.

CX. And be it further enacted, That no Contract entered into with the said Commissioners specially to be appointed by virtue of this Act, nor any Certificate or Receipt given under and by virtue of this Act, nor any Assignment thereof, shall be liable to any Stamp Duty whatever.

No Contracts, Receipts, Certificates, or Assignments, under this Act, liable to Stamp Duty.

CXI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That whenever any Notice, required to be given by this Act, cannot be delivered to the Person or Persons to whom such Notice is directed, it shall be sufficient for the Party obliged to give such Notice, to leave the same at the last most usual Place of Abode of the Person or Persons to whom such Notice is to be given, if such Person shall be in Great Britain; or if such Person shall be beyond the Seas, then to publish the same in the London Gazette.

Notices under this Act may be left at the Parties Houses; or if they are abroad, published in the Gazette.

CXII. And be it further enacted, That the Manors, Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, which shall be sold by Auction according to the Provisions of this Act, shall be exempt from any Duty payable on Sales by Auctions.

Lands sold under this Act, exempted from Duty on Auctions.

CXIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful to and for the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, or the Lord High Treasurer for the Time being, to order and direct any Sum or Sums of Money to be issued and paid out of any Aids or Supplies granted, or to be granted, by Parliament for the Service of the Year in which such Expences shall be incurred, for the Payment of Salaries to Commissioners, Clerks, and Officers, and for discharging such incidental Expences as shall necessarily attend the Execution of this Act, in such Manner as the said Lords Commissioners, or any three or more of them, or the Lord-High Treasurer, shall from Time to Time think fit and reasonable in that Behalf: Provided always, That no greater Sum shall be paid to the Commissioners specially to be appointed for the Purposes of this Act, for any County, Riding, Stewartry, City, Borough, Cinque Port, Town, or Place, than after the Rate of Three-pence in the Pound on the Amount of the Land Tax sold by them, to be applied and paid to and amongst them in equal Proportions: Provided also, That an Account of all such Expences shall be annually laid before Parliament: Provided also, That such Expences shall not be liable to account, otherwise than before the said Commissioners of the Treasury or Lord High Treasurer.

Treasury may pay Salaries and Expences under this Act out of annual Supplies, not exceeding 3d. in the Pound to Commissioners, on Land Tax sold.

Account of Expences to be laid before Parliament.

CXIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any two of the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt for the Time being, to execute and do all Matters and Things which by this Act the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt are required and empowered to do.

Two Commissioners for reducing the National Debt, sufficient for Execution of this Act.

CXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Acceptance of a Commission from his Majesty in pursuance of this Act, for the Purpose of selling the Land Tax, in any County, Riding, Stewartry, City, Borough, Cinque Port, Town, or Place, shall not vacate the Seat of any Person returned to serve in Parliament, nor shall the Election of any Person who shall have accepted such Commission, be in any Manner impeached thereby or made void; any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Acceptance of Commissions under this Act not to vacate Seats in Parliament.

CXVI. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures to be sued for by the Party aggrieved by virtue of this Act, shall and may be sued for by Action of Debt or on the Case in any of his Majesty's Courts of Law in England and Scotland respectively, holding Pleas to the Amount of forty Shillings, in which Action or Suit the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be entitled to his, her, or their full Costs, as in other Cases in the said Courts; and that one Moiety of all pecuniary Penalties and Forfeitures hereby imposed, other than to the Party aggrieved, shall, if sued for within the Space of six Calendar Months from the Time of such Penalties or Forfeitures being incurred, be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof, with full Costs of Suit, to the Person or Persons who shall inform or sue for the same within the Time aforesaid, and which shall and may be sued for in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, for Offences committed in England, or in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland for Offences committed in Scotland, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Essoign, Protection, tection, Privilege, Wager of Law, nor more than one Imparlance shall be allowed; but nevertheless it shall be lawful for his Majesty's Attorney General in England, or his Majesty's Advocate in Scotland, in case it shall appear to his Satisfaction that any such last-mentioned Penalty or Forfeiture was incurred without Intention of Fraud, to stay all further Proceedings, by entering a noli prosequi, or otherwise, with respect as well to the Share of such Penalty or Forfeiture claimed by such Informer or Informers, as to the Share thereof belonging to his Majesty.

After six Months, Penalties shall be recoverable only in the Name of the Attorney General, &c. and be paid to Commissioners of Taxes, who may reward the Informer.

CXVII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in Default of Prosecution within the Time hereinbefore limited, no such last-mentioned Penalty or Forfeiture shall be afterwards recoverable except in the Name of his Majesty's Attorney General in England, and of his Majesty's Advocate in Scotland, by Information in the Court of Exchequer in England or Scotland respectively, in which Case the Whole of such Penalty or Forfeiture shall belong to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; and that all Penalties and Forfeitures, and Shares of Penalties and Forfeitures, incurred as aforesaid, belonging to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall be paid into the Hands of such Person or Persons as the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes shall appoint to receive the same, to the Use of his Majesty; and that in all Cases where the Whole of such pecuniary Penalties or Forfeitures shall be recovered to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to cause such Reward as they shall think fit, not exceeding one Moiety of such Penalty or Forfeiture so recovered, after deducting all Charges and Expences incurred in recovering the same, to be paid thereout, to or amongst any Person or Persons who shall appear to them entitled thereto as Informers, in respect of such Penalties or Forfeitures so recovered; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Persons forging, &c. any Contract, Assignment, Certificate, or Receipt, guilty of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

CXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall forge, counterfeit, or alter, or cause or procure to be forged, counterfeited, or altered, or knowingly or wilfully act or assist in the forging, counterfeiting, or altering, any Contract or Contracts for the Sale of any Land Tax, or any Assignment or Assignments of such Contract or Contracts, or of any Portion of Land Tax therein comprised, or any Certificate or Certificates of the Commissioners of Land Tax or of Supply, or any Chief Magistrate authorized by this Act to make out such Certificate or Certificates, or of the Surveyor General of the Land Revenue of the Crown, or of the Duchy of Cornwall, or any Certificate or Certificates, Receipt or Receipts, of the Cashier or Cashiers of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, or any Certificate or Certificates, or attested Copy of a Certificate or Certificates, directed by this Act to be made out by the proper Officer to the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, or shall wilfully deliver or produce to any Person or Persons acting under the Authority of this Act, or shall utter any such forged, counterfeited, or altered Contract or Contracts, Assignment or Assignments, Certificate or Certificates, Receipt or Receipts, knowing the same to be forged, counterfeited, or altered, with Intent to defraud his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or any Body or Bodies Politic or Corporate, or any Person or Persons whomsoever, then and in every such Case all and every Person or Persons so offending, and being lawfully convicted thereof, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Limitation of Actions.

CXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit shall be brought against any Person or Persons for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, such Action or Suit shall be commenced within six Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and shall be laid in the County or Place where the Cause of Complaint did arise, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in every such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence, at any Trial to be had thereupon; and if the Jury shall find for the Defendant or Defendants in any such Action or Suit, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall be nonsuited, or discontinue his or their Action or Suit after the Defendant or Defendants shall have appeared, or if upon Demurrer Judgment shall be given against the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs, and have the like Remedy for the same as any Defendant hath in any other Cases to recover Costs by Law.

General Issue.

Treble Costs.

Land Tax Commissioners, &c. being Justices of the Peace, may hear Appeals under this Act.

CXX. And be it further enacted, That the several Persons who are or shall be named or appointed Commissioners of Land Tax, in or by any Act or Acts now in force, or hereafter to be passed to carry into Execution the Act of the present Session of Parliament before mentioned, or this Act, in any County, Riding, or Place, such Persons being also Justices of the Peace of and for the same County, Riding, or Place, and not being Persons specially appointed Commissioners for the Purposes of this Act as aforesaid, shall be Commissioners for the Purpose of hearing Appeals to be made by virtue of this Act, for the Division of the County or Riding, or the District within which they usually act as Commissioners of Land Tax and Justices of the Peace as aforesaid.

Persons aggrieved in Sale of Land Tax (the Consideration for which shall not exceed 500l. Stock), may appeal to such Commissioners at the CXXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall think himself, herself, or themselves aggrieved by any Determination of the Commissioners specially to be appointed for the Purposes of this Act, with relation to any Right or Benefit of Preference in, or any Right of Redemption of any Land Tax to be sold by virtue of this Act, or with relation to the Sale or Mortgage of any Messuages, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or the Grant of any Rent Charge thereout, for any of the Purposes of this Act with relation to the Redemption or Purchase of any Land Tax, (for the Redemption or Purchase of which not more than five hundred Pounds Capital Stock, in the Three Pounds per Centum Bank Annuities, would be transferred in the Whole if such Land Tax was redeemed or purchased,) it shall be lawful for such Person

Person or Persons, in every such Case, to appeal to the Commissioners appointed by this Act, for the Purpose of hearing Appeals at the next Petty Sessions held by them, within and for the Division or District within which such Land Tax, or any Proportion thereof, shall be charged, and the said Commissioners, or any two or more of them, shall, and they are hereby authorized and required to hear and determine all such Appeals, at any Petty Sessions to be by them appointed, from Time to Time as there shall be Occasion, and on due Consideration of all the Circumstances attending the Case upon which such Appeal shall arise, and on Examination upon Oath or Affirmation of the Parties interested in such Appeal, and all other Persons who shall be willing to be examined touching any Matters or Things relating to the Matter in Dispute as aforesaid, which Oath or Affirmation they, or any two or more of such Commissioners, are hereby authorized to administer, and on the Production, upon Oath or Affirmation as aforesaid, of any Deeds, Conveyances, or Instruments, or upon the Production of any Affidavits or Depositions in Writing, upon Oath or Affirmation, to be made in Manner herein directed as to such Affidavits, Depositions, or Affirmations, as may be produced to the Commissioners specially appointed for the Purposes of this Act, it shall be lawful for such Commissioners of Appeal, and they are hereby required to determine such Appeal, and give such Order therein, as in their Discretion shall seem expedient, which Order shall be final and conclusive upon all Parties; and if such Commissioners of Appeal shall have any Doubts, touching any Matters or Things relating to the Determination of such Appeal, it shall and may be lawful for such last-mentioned Commissioners to require the Advice and Assistance, or the Opinion of any Counsel learned in the Law, being a Barrister of five Years standing at the least, as to them shall seem most expedient, and such Commissioners shall and may award the Costs actually incurred in such Appeal, and no more, together with such Expence as shall have arisen from the obtaining the Advice, Assistance, or Opinion of Counsel, as the Case may be, if any such Expence shall have been incurred, to be paid either by the Party against whom such Appeal shall have been determined, or by both the Parties to such Appeal, in such Proportions as to such Commissioners shall seem just and reasonable; and in case of Refusal or Non-payment of any Sums so ordered to be paid, by the Space of twenty-one Days next after such Determination, such Commissioners of Appeal, or any two of them, shall and may issue forth their Warrant, to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Person or Persons ordered to pay such Sum as aforesaid, rendering the Overplus to the Owner or Owners, after the Payment of the Charge of such Distress and Sale: Provided always, That where Capital Stock, which would be requisite to be transferred for the Redemption or Purchase of any Land Tax respectively, about which any such Dispute as aforesaid may arise, would in the Whole exceed five hundred Pounds in such Public Annuities, the Person or Persons so thinking himself, herself, or themselves aggrieved as aforesaid, shall and may apply to the Court of Chancery or Exchequer in England, or the Courts of Session or Exchequer in Scotland, by Petition, to be preferred, in a summary Way, which Courts respectively may thereupon grant such Relief, and make such Order therein, as to the said Courts respectively shall seem meet.

next Petty Sessions, and their Order shall be final and conclusive.

Commissioners of Appeal may have the Advice of Counsel, and award Costs, &c.

Where the Consideration exceeds 500l. Stock, Appeal may be by Petition to the Courts of Chancery, Exchequer, or Session.

An Act to continue, until the End of the next Session of Parliament, and amend an Act, passed in the thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and six, videlicet, on the eighteenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, for regulating the Allowance of the Drawbacks and Payment of the Bounty on the Exportation of Sugar.—[21st June 1798.]

36 Geo. 3. c. 106. recited.

' WHEREAS an Act was made in the thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, ' An Act to amend an Act, made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, ' An Act to amend an Act ' made in the thirty-second Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, " An Act for regulating the Al- ' lowance of the Drawback and Payment of the Bounty on the Exportation of Sugar, and for permitting the ' Importation of Sugar and Coffee into the Bahama and Bermuda Islands in Foreign Ships; and for reducing ' the Bounty on refined Sugars exported in any other than British Ships;" which was to continue in force until ' the thirty-first Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, and from thence to the End of ' the

'the then next Session of Parliament: And whereas it is expedient that the said Act should be continued and 'amended;' be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if, on the twenty-third Day of June, twenty-third Day of August, twenty-third Day of October, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, and the twenty-third Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, the Average Prices of Brown or Muscovado Sugar, taken in the Manner directed by the said Act, made in the thirty-second Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for the six Weeks preceding, shall not exceed sixty-seven Shillings and Sixpence for an Hundred Weight, exclusive of the Duty of Customs paid or payable thereon on the Importation thereof into Great Britain, then and in such Case the Drawback and Bounty on the Exportation of Sugar shall be paid and allowed; any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

If the Average Price of Brown Sugar shall not, at the Periods hereinmentioned, exceed 67s. 6d. per Cwt. the Drawback and Bounty on Exportation to be paid.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Provisions of this Act shall have Continuance until the End of the next Session of Parliament.

Continuance of Act.

CAP. LXII.

An Act to empower Magistrates and Justices of the Peace, in setting the Assize of Bread, to make an Allowance on account of the additional Duty on Salt.—[21st June 1798.]

'WHEREAS by an Act, made in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty additional Duties on Salt, the Price of that Article is materially increased, by reason 'whereof the Bakers will be considerably injured, if some Allowance be not made to them on account of 'such additional Duties:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from Time to Time, when and so often as any Magistrates or Justices of the Peace within the Limits of their respective Jurisdictions shall, by virtue of any Law or Statute, Laws or Statutes, made for that Purpose, set the Assize of Bread, they shall, immediately before setting such Assize, add to what shall appear to be the Average Price per Quarter of Wheat fit for the making of Wheaten Bread, the Sum of Five-pence, on account of the additional Duty on Salt, so as to increase such Average Price Five-pence per Quarter, and shall then, in setting the Assize of Bread, make use of such increased Average Price in all Respects as if the same were the real Average Price of Wheat, so long as such additional Duty on Salt shall continue; but no longer.

Cap. 43 of this Session.

In setting the Assize of Bread 5d. per Quarter to be added to the Average Price of Wheat, on account of the additional Duty on Salt. (See c. 55 of the Local Acts.)

CAP. LXIII.

An Act for the further Encouragement of the Trade and Manufactures of the Isle of Man; for improving the Revenue thereof; and for the more effectual Prevention of Smuggling to and from the said Island.—[21st June 1798.]

'WHEREAS a Report has been made, in consequence of a Commission from his Majesty, for the Purpose of obtaining Information upon various Points respecting the Isle of Man, which Report 'has, by his Majesty's Command, been laid before the House of Commons: And whereas it is expedient, 'that, until Parliament can take the said Report under their Consideration, some temporary Encouragement and Relief should be granted to the Trade and Manufactures of the Isle of Man, as well as some 'further Regulations made for the more effectual Prevention of Smuggling to and from the said Island: 'And whereas, by an Act passed in the twentieth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty several additional Duties upon certain Goods imported into the Isle of Man, 'and for better regulating the Trade and securing the Revenues of the said Island, the Commissioners of his 'Majesty's Customs in England, or any three of them, are authorized to grant Licence (among other 'Things) for the Exportation from any Port in England into the Port of Douglas, in the Isle of Man, of any 'Quantity of British Spirits, not exceeding forty thousand Gallons in one Year: And whereas it is expedient 'to repeal the said recited Act, so far as relates to the allowing British Spirits to be exported from England 'to the said Isle of Man;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, no British Spirits shall be allowed to be shipped for, or exported from, any Port or Place in England, to the said Isle of Man, under the Penalty of the Forfeiture thereof, and of the Ship, Vessel, or Boat, in or on board of which the same shall be so shipped or exported; any Thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

20 Geo. 3. c. 40.

From July 5, 1798, no British Spirits to be exported from England to the Isle of Man, on Penalty of Forfeiture, &c.

II. And, in order that the Inhabitants of the said Island may be legally supplied with a sufficient Quantity of Spirits, be it further enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-grant Licences for three Months for the Importation into the Port of Douglas, of 10,000 Gallons of Foreign Brandy, and a like Quantity of Geneva, in one Year, in British-built Vessels, of ninety-eight, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England, or any three of them, to grant their Licence, to be in force for three Months from the Date thereof, for the Importation from any Port or Place whatever into the Port of Douglas, in the Isle of Man, but to no other, in British-built Ships, owned, navigated, and registered, according to Law, and not of less Burthen than fifty Tons, of any Quantity of Foreign Brandy, not exceeding ten thousand Gallons in any one Year, and also of any Quantity of Foreign Geneva, not exceeding ten thousand Gallons in any one Year; and that on the Importation, under the Licences as aforesaid, of any such Brandy or Geneva into the said Port of Douglas, in the Isle of Man, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, the following Duties; videlicet, For every Gallon of Foreign Brandy, the Sum of three Shillings; and for every Gallon of Foreign Geneva, the Sum of three Shillings; and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity.

not less than 50 Tons: 3*s.* per Gallon to be paid on Importation;

But no such Brandy or Geneva to be imported, except in Casks of not less than 100 Gallons, and of a certain Strength,

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Foreign Brandy or Geneva shall be imported into the Isle of Man, by Licence as aforesaid, except in Casks, which shall contain one hundred Gallons each at the least, on Forfeiture of all such Foreign Brandy or Geneva, and of the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be imported: Provided also, That no Foreign Brandy or Geneva shall be imported into the Isle of Man as aforesaid, of a greater or higher Degree of Strength than that of one to nine over Hydrometer Proof, on Forfeiture of all such Foreign Brandy or Geneva.

on Penalty of Forfeiture thereof.

No Foreign Brandy or Geneva to be removed in the Isle of Man, or carried coastwise, unless in the original Package,

IV. And be it further enacted, That no Foreign Brandy or Geneva shall, upon any Pretence whatever, be removed or carried coastwise in the said Isle of Man, or shall be shipped or laden on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to be so removed or carried coastwise, unless in the Package in which the same was originally imported into the said Island, under the Penalty of the Forfeiture thereof, together with the Ship or Vessel on board of which the same shall be shipped or laden, and all her Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture.

on Forfeiture thereof and of the Ship, &c.

From Oct. 10, yearly, Commissioners of Customs in England may grant Licences for the Importation of 60,000 lbs. of Tobacco into the Port of Douglas, in British built Vessels of not less than 50 Tons, instead of the Quantity allowed by 29 Geo. 3. c. 68.

V. 'And whereas the Quantity of forty thousand Pounds Weight of Tobacco, allowed to be annually 'exported to the Isle of Man, under the Authority of an Act of the twenty-ninth Year of the Reign of 'his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for repealing the Duties on Tobacco and Snuff, and granting new 'Duties in lieu thereof, is found to be insufficient for the Consumption of the Inhabitants of the said Island;' be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the tenth Day of October in each Year, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England, or any three of them, to grant their Licence for the Exportation from any Port in England, where Tobacco is allowed by Law to be imported and warehoused, into the Port of Douglas, in the Isle of Man, but to no other, in British-built Ships, owned, navigated, and registered, according to Law, and not of less Burthen than fifty Tons, of any Quantity of Tobacco not exceeding sixty thousand Pounds Weight in any one Year, instead and in lieu of the Quantity allowed to be exported by virtue of the said recited Act; and that on the Importation of any Tobacco into the Port of Douglas, in the Isle of Man, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, instead and in lieu of the Duty now due and payable on such Tobacco so imported, a Duty of Sixpence per Pound Weight; and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity.

6*d.* per lb. to be paid instead of the Duty now payable.

From July 5, 1798, Commissioners of the Customs in England may grant Licences to continue two Months for the Importation into the Port of Douglas, of 70 Tons of Wine in one Year, in British-built Vessels, &c. exceeding 50 Tons Burthen;

VI. 'And whereas it is expedient to impose an additional Duty on Wine imported into the Isle of Man, 'as well as to limit the Quantity of Wine to be imported into the said Island to an annual Allowance ade-'quate to the Consumption of the Inhabitants thereof;' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England, or any three of them, to grant their Licence, (such Licence to continue in force for two Months,) for the Importation from any Port or Place whatever into the Port of Douglas, in the Isle of Man, but to no other, in British-built Ships, owned, navigated, and registered, according to Law, and which shall exceed the Burthen of fifty Tons, of any Quantity of Wine, not exceeding seventy Tons in any one Year.

and besides the Duty now payable on Wine, a further Duty of 8*l.* per Ton shall be paid.

VII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, over and above the Duties now due and payable on the Importation of Wine into the Isle of Man, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, a further Duty of eight Pounds for every Ton of Wine, containing two hundred and fifty two Gallons, imported into the Isle of Man, by Licence, as aforesaid; and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity.

No Wine to be so imported except by Licence, nor in Casks less than a Hogshead, nor shall it be carried coast-

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, no Wine shall be imported into the Isle of Man, except by Licence from the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England as aforesaid, nor in any Cask or Package less than a Hogshead, on Forfeiture of all such Wine, and of the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be imported: Provided also, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, no Wine shall be carried coastwise in the Isle of Man, except in the original Cask or Package in which such Wine shall have been imported into the said Island, on Forfeiture thereof, together with the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall have been so shipped or carried; and that no Wine shall be removed by Land from one Part of the said Island to another, except in the original Cask or Package in which the same shall have been imported into the Island, or in Bottles, on Forfeiture of all such Wine, together with the Horses, Carts, and Carriages, employed in the removing of the same: Provided also, That the Wine so imported may be carried coastwise in the said Island, in Vessels of the Burthen of fifty Tons, and upwards.

wise, except in the original Package, on Forfeiture, with the Vessel employed; nor removed by Land, except in the original Casks, or in Bottles, on Forfeiture, &c.

IX. 'And whereas it is expedient to allow a certain Number of Live Sheep to be exported from England to the Isle of Man;' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England, or any three of them, to grant their Licence, to remain in force for one Month from the Date thereof, for the Exportation from any one Port in Great Britain into the Port of Douglas or Ramsey, in the Isle of Man, but to no other, any Number of Live Sheep, not exceeding one hundred in the Whole in any one Year, and such Sheep shall and may be exported accordingly under the like Rules, Regulations, Securities, Restrictions, and Forfeitures, so far as the same are applicable, as the Exportation of Wool is allowed to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, or Sark, by virtue of an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, among other Things, for preventing the Exportation of Live Sheep and Wool.

From July 5, 1798, the Commissioners of the Customs in England may grant Licences, to continue a Month, for Exportation from Great Britain into the Ports of Douglas or Ramsay, of 100 Live Sheep in one Year, under the Regulations in 28 Geo. 3. c. 38. § 16. &c. as to Jersey, &c.

X. 'And whereas it is expedient that the Inhabitants of the Isle of Man should enjoy every Benefit and 'Advantage in respect of the several Articles allowed by Law to be imported by Licence, which may be 'consistent with the Security of the Revenue of Great Britain, and also that a regular and constant Supply 'of the said Articles, for the necessary Use and Consumption of the Inhabitants of the said Island, should, as 'far as possible, be provided for;' be it therefore enacted, That one Month previous to the Periods at which the Licences in each Year for the respective Articles licensed by this or former Acts are to commence, the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs at the Port of Douglas, in the Isle of Man, shall, and they are hereby required to affix, or to cause to be affixed, at the several Custom Houses in the Island, public Notice in Writing, that for fourteen Days from and after the Date of such Notice so affixed, they (the Collector and Comptroller of Douglas) are ready to receive Applications in Writing from the Inhabitants of the said Island, for the Importation into the said Island of the several Articles allowed by Law to be imported, by virtue of Licence from the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England and Scotland respectively; and the said Collector and Comptroller shall forthwith, without Preference, and in the Order in which they shall receive such Applications, within the Time so limited as aforesaid, enter the same in a Book to be kept for that Purpose, specifying the Date of each Application, the Name, Residence, and Occupation of the Person applying, and the Description and Quantity of the Articles touching which such Applications are made; and the Book containing such Entries shall be open at the Custom House for public Inspection during the Hours of Business, and at the Expiration of such limited Time the said Book shall be closed; and the Collector and Comptroller shall make out, with all convenient Speed, not exceeding seven Days, and transmit by the earliest Conveyance, a true Copy of the Entries in the said Book, certified by each of their Signatures, to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England, as far as regards Articles so allowed to be imported by Licence from England, and to the Commissioners of the Customs in Scotland, as far as regards Articles so allowed to be imported by Licence from Scotland; and the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England and Scotland respectively, or any three of them, are hereby empowered and directed, upon Application from the Parties whose Names shall be so transmitted and certified by the Collector and Comptroller of the said Port of Douglas, or the Agents of such Parties properly authorized, to issue to them their Licence for the Importation into the said Island of the Articles so applied for, according to the Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, by Law established, for the granting Licences for the importing Goods into the Isle of Man: Provided always, That if the total Quantity of the Articles contained in the Applications so made, in the said Isle of Man, shall exceed the total Quantity of each or any of the Articles allowed by Law to be so imported within the Year, then, and in such Case, it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Customs in England and Scotland respectively to divide such total Quantity amongst the several Parties, in Proportion to the Quantity they shall have so applied for, and to grant their Licences accordingly: And provided also, That if the total Quantity of any of the said Articles so applied for, in the Isle of Man, shall fall short of the total Quantity allowed by Law to be imported within the Year, then and in such Case it shall and may be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Customs in England and Scotland respectively, to grant their Licences to any Persons afterwards applying, and duly qualified, to import such Quantity of each Article as shall be wanting to complete the Quantity annually allowed to be imported into the said Island; and the said Collector and Comptroller of Douglas shall, and they are hereby required to transmit to the Commissioners of the Customs in England and Scotland respectively, a Quarterly Account of the Species and Quantities of all such Goods imported by Licences aforesaid.

One Month's Notice previous to Commencement of Licences, to be given at the Custom House in the Isle of Man, and the Collector and Comptroller of Douglas shall make Entry of all Applications, and transmit an Account to the Commissioners of the Customs, that Licences may be issued:

If the Quantity contained in the Applications shall exceed the Quantity allowed to be imported, it shall be proportionably divided among the Parties; but if less, Licences may be granted to future Applicants.

Quarterly Accounts of such Imports to be transmitted to the Commissioners.

XI. And

Persons counterfeiting or using counterfeit Licences or Documents to forfeit 500l.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall counterfeit or falsify any Licence or other Document required or directed to be obtained by this Act, or shall knowingly or wilfully make use of any Licence or other Document so counterfeited or falsified, such Person or Persons shall, for every such Offence, forfeit five hundred Pounds.

No Fee to be taken on Account of Applications for Licences, or for any Return or Certificate required, on Penalty of 50l.

XII. And be it further enacted, That no Fee, Gratuity, or Reward whatever, shall be demanded or taken by the Collector and Comptroller of Douglas, or any other Officer or Person in the said Island, for or in respect of any Applications made in the said Island, as herein provided, nor on Account of any Return or Certificate of the due landing of Articles imported by Licence, in virtue of this or any former Act or Acts, under the Penalty of fifty Pounds.

The Master of the Vessel importing Foreign Brandy, Geneva, or Wine, shall deliver to the Collector, &c. at Douglas the Licence authorizing such Importation, indorsed in the Manner herein mentioned; and shall produce the same within certain Limits when required, on Forfeiture of the Articles.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That when and so often as any Foreign Brandy, or Geneva, or Wine, shall be imported by Licence into the Isle of Man, in pursuance of this Act, the Master or Commander of such Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be imported, shall deliver up to the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs at the Port of Douglas, the Licence or Licences by virtue of which such Foreign Brandy, Geneva, or Wine, shall be imported, which Licences, by Indorsement signed by the British Consul at the Port of shipping, or if no British Consul, by two known British Merchants, shall specify the Species and Quantity of Foreign Brandy, Geneva, or Wine, with the Marks, Numbers, and Denomination of the Casks or Packages containing the same, so shipped on board such Ship or Vessel, and the Master or Commander of such Ship or Vessel shall produce to all Commanders of his Majesty's Cutters or Vessels, or Officers of the Customs or Excise, who shall demand the same, (so soon as he shall be within four Leagues of the Coast of Great Britain, Ireland, or the Isle of Man,) such Licences so indorsed, as often as he shall be so called upon, until so delivered up to the Collector and Comptroller of Douglas as aforesaid, on Forfeiture of all such Foreign Brandy, Geneva, or Wine.

From July 5, 1798, on Exportation of Hops to the Isle of Man, the Drawback of the Duty to be allowed: 1 d. 1 q. per lb. to be paid on Importation instead of the former Duty.

XIV. 'And whereas it is expedient to allow a Drawback of the Duty on British Hops, on the Exportation thereof to the Isle of Man,' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, on the Exportation of any British Hops to the Isle of Man, there shall be allowed the Drawback of the whole Duty paid thereon; and that instead and in lieu of the Duty of two Pounds ten Shillings for every hundred Pounds of the Value thereof, now payable on Hops imported into the said Isle of Man from Great Britain, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, a Duty of one Penny Farthing per Pound Weight on all Hops so imported, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Quantity.

5 Geo. 3. c. 43.

Cotton Yarn or Cotton Cloth of the Manufacture of the Isle of Man to be imported into Great Britain free from the Duty of Customs, &c.

XV. 'And whereas it is expedient to extend the Provisions of an Act of the fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the better securing and further Improvement of the Revenues of Customs, Excise, Inland and Salt Duties, and for encouraging the Linen Manufacture of the Isle of Man, and for allowing the Importation of several Goods, the Produce and Manufacture of the said Island, under certain Restrictions and Regulations, to Cotton Yarn and Cotton Cloth, being the Manufacture of the Isle of Man;' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, any Cotton Yarn or Cotton Cloth, being the Manufacture of the Isle of Man, shall be imported into Great Britain without Payment of any Duty of Customs whatever; subject nevertheless, in other Respects, to such Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, as are required by the before recited Act, on the Importation of any Goods of the Growth, Produce, and Manufacture of the said Island.

And no Cotton Yarn, &c. shall be imported into the Isle of Man except from Great Britain, on Forfeiture.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, no Cotton Yarn or Cotton Cloth shall be imported or brought from any Port or Place whatever into the said Isle of Man, except from Great Britain, on Forfeiture thereof.

No Bounty to be allowed on the Exportation of any Silk Manufacture to the Isle of Man.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, no Bounty shall be allowed or paid for or upon the Exportation from Great Britain to the Isle of Man of any Manufacture of Silk whatever.

No Drawback or Bounty to be allowed, until a Certificate herein described be produced.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Drawback or Bounty shall be paid or allowed for or upon any Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes whatever, exported from this Kingdom to the Isle of Man, nor any Debenture made out for such Drawback or Bounty, until a Certificate shall be produced, under the Hands and Seals of the Officer or Officers appointed or to be appointed to attend the Landing or Examination of such Goods at the Port or Place in the said Island where the same shall be landed, and also under the Hand and Seal of the Collector or Comptroller of such Port or Place, which Certificate shall specify that such Goods have been duly entered and landed at such Port or Place in the said Island.

XIX. And

XIX. And be it further enacted, That on the Exportation of the several Articles in this Act mentioned from Great Britain, and on the Importation of the same respectively into the Isle of Man, pursuant to this Act, all the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, according to the Laws now, or which hereafter may be in force relating to such Goods respectively so imported or exported, and to the Payment, Recovery, and Appropriation of any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture relating thereto, shall be, and the same are hereby declared to extend to this Act, the same as if all the Clauses, Powers, Directions, and Authorities relating thereto, so far as the same respectively apply, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this present Act.

All Regulations, &c. in force relating to such Goods imported or exported, to extend to this Act.

XX. 'And whereas it may be expedient, under certain special Circumstances, to permit, for a limited 'Time, the Importation into the Isle of Man of a larger Quantity of the several Articles allowed to be 'imported into the said Island, by Licence under the Authority of this Act;' be it therefore enacted, That, during the Continuance of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, to issue their Orders to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, to grant their Licence for the Importation into the Isle of Man of such additional Quantity of the several Articles which are by this Act allowed to be imported into the said Island by Licence only, and the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury, on the Necessity of the Case being proved to their Satisfaction, shall in their Judgments deem fit and reasonable for the Use and Consumption of the Inhabitants of the said Island.

The Treasury may issue Orders to the Commissioners of Customs to grant Licences for the Importation of additional Quantities of the Articles allowed to be imported, for Consumption in the Island.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in force until the fifth Day of July one thousand eight hundred and one, and no longer.

Continuance of Act, July 5, 1801.

CAP. LXIV.

An Act for defraying the Charge of the Pay and Cloathing of the Militia in that Part of Great Britain called England, for one Year, from the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight.—[21st June 1798.]

CAP. LXV.

An Act for preventing the Depasturing of Forests, Commons, and Open Fields, with Sheep or Lambs infected with the Scab or Mange, in that Part of Great Britain called England.—[21st June 1798.]

'WHEREAS there are within this Kingdom several Forests, Chases, Woods, Moors, Marshes, 'Heaths, Commons, Waste Lands, and Open Fields, and other undivided and unincloſed Lands, 'capable of yielding great Profit, by breeding and maintaining Sheep and Lambs: And whereas 'several Persons interested in such Lands turn out, keep, and depasture thereon Sheep and Lambs 'infected with a certain contagious Complaint or Disorder, commonly called The Scab or Mange, 'by which Means such Complaint or Disorder has gradually increased, and will, if such Practice 'be not restrained, become general, to the great Injury not only of divers Individuals, but of the 'Public at large, such Complaint or Disorder rendering the Flesh of such Sheep and Lambs unwhole-'some, and destroying the Wool:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of December in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, if any Person or Persons whosoever shall turn out, keep, or depasture, in or upon any Forest, Chase, Wood, Moor, Marsh, Heath, Common, Waste Land, Open Field, or other undivided or unincloſed Land, any Sheep or Lambs infected with such Complaint or Disorder called Scab or Mange, or shall wilfully and knowingly turn out, keep, or depasture, in or upon any such Forest, Chase, Wood, Moor, Marsh, Heath, Common, Waste Land, Open Field, or other undivided or unincloſed Land, any Sheep or Lamb which, at any Time within the Space of six Calendar Months immediately previous thereto, shall have been infected as aforesaid, every such Person, on being thereof convicted on the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, or on his or her Confession, before any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County, District, or Place, wherein such Offence shall have been committed, shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding ten Pounds, nor less than twenty Shillings, for every such Offence, together with all reasonable Costs and Charges attending such Conviction, such Costs and Charges to be ascertained by the Justice or Justices before whom such Conviction shall take place; and so toties quoties as often as any such Sheep or Lamb shall be so turned out, kept, or depastured.

From Dec. 25, 1798, if any Person shall turn out upon any Forest, &c. Sheep or Lambs having the Mange, or having been within six Months infected therewith, he shall forfeit not more than 10l. nor less than 20s. for each Offence.

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, the Owner or Owners of each and every Sheep and Lamb of the Age of three Months, which shall be turned out, kept, or depastured, on any Forest, Chase, Wood, Moor, Marsh, Heath, Common, Waste Land, Open Field, or other undivided or unincloſed Land, shall cause such Sheep and Lambs to be marked with the Initial Letters of his, her, or their Christian Name and Surname, or to be marked, on a Penalty not exceeding 2s. for each.

or Christian Names and Surnames, or with such Marks with which such Sheep or Lambs have for three preceding Years been usually marked, such Letters or Marks not being less in Length than three Inches; and in case of Neglect thereof, the Owner or Owners shall, for each and every such Sheep and Lamb not so marked, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding two Shillings, and so toties quoties, as often as any such Sheep or Lamb not so marked shall have been so turned out, kept, or depastured.

Any Person depasturing or having a Right to depasture on such Forests, &c. may apply to a Justice, who may order Sheep and Lambs to be driven to the next Pound, &c. and there examined, and if found to have been depastured not contrary to this Act, may order them back to the Place from whence taken, and award Damages to the Owner;

III. And be it further enacted, That for the better and more effectually discovering the Offenders, and punishing the Offences herein mentioned, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons having Sheep or Lambs actually depasturing, or entitled to be depastured, on such Forest, Chase, Wood, Moor, Marsh, Heath, Common, Waste Land, Open Field, or other undivided or unincloſed Land, who shall perceive, or have reasonable Ground or Foundation for believing, that there is or are any Sheep or Lambs, Sheep or Lamb, depasturing or being in or upon the same, contrary to the Direction and Provisions of this Act, to apply to any one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County, District, or Place, wherein such Lands severally do lie, who, upon Complaint on Oath made thereof before him or them, is and are hereby authorized and required to issue a Warrant or Warrants under his Hand and Seal, or their Hands and Seals, directed to the Keeper or Keepers of the said Forests or Chases, or his or their Deputy or Deputies, or to the Petty Constable or Constables, Bailiff, Headborough, or Tything Man of any Parish, Hamlet, or Township, within or near which any such Forest, Chase, Wood, Moor, Marsh, Heath, Common, Waste Land, Open Field, or other undivided or unincloſed Land, shall lie and be situate, or unto any other Person or Persons, who shall consent and be willing to be inserted in such Warrant or Warrants, and shall command and empower him or them, or any of them, to take or drive all and every such Sheep and Lambs, Sheep and Lamb, to the next Pound, or to some other convenient Place, there to be examined by the Person or Persons who shall have made such Application to such Justice or Justices as aforesaid, his, her, or their Servant or Agent, and by the Person or Persons to whom the said Warrant shall be directed, any or either of them, Notice being first given six Hours at the least before such Examination shall take place, by the Person or Persons making such Complaint, or by his, her, or their Servant or Agent, to the Owner or Owners of such Sheep or Lambs, Sheep or Lamb, or unto his, her, or their Hind, Bailiff, or Servant, or left at his, her, or their last or usual Place of Abode, if any or either of them be known, and do reside in the Parish or Parishes, Hamlet or Hamlets, Township or Townships, where such Sheep or Lambs, Sheep or Lamb, shall have been so found, describing the Pound or Place the same have been taken or driven to, in order that he, she, or they may, should he, she, or they judge proper, be present at such Examination; and if after such Examination it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Justice or Justices granting such Warrant or Warrants, that such Sheep or Lambs, Sheep or Lamb, have or hath not been kept or depastured in or upon such Lands and Grounds, contrary to the Directions and Provisions of this Act, then and in such Case each and every such Sheep and Lamb shall be taken and driven back to the Place or Places from whence it was taken or driven previous to such Examination, and such Justice or Justices shall award such Costs, Charges, and Damages to the Owner or Owners thereof, as to him or them shall seem reasonable; and such Costs, Charges, and Damages, shall be paid by the Person or Persons making such Complaint, and shall be recovered in like Manner as any Forfeitures or Penalties are by this Act directed to be recovered.

but if found defective, &c. shall direct them to be detained and marked with an S, &c. and on Demand delivered to the Owner, who shall pay the Expences and Penalty.

IV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if upon any such Examination it shall appear to such Justice or Justices, that any such Sheep or Lambs, Sheep or Lamb, have or hath been turned out, kept, or depastured, in or upon any such Lands or Grounds, infected as aforesaid, or which at any Time within the Space of six Calendar Months immediately previous thereto shall have been infected as aforesaid, then and in such Case the said Justice or Justices shall and may direct the same to be impounded, detained, and kept, and to be forthwith marked on both Sides with the Letter S, (the Length of such Letter not being less than five Inches,) such Marks to be made with Pitch or Tar, or some other adhesive Material, such as Sheep have been usually marked with in the Neighbourhood, and shall also cause the Left Ear of each such Sheep and Lamb to be cut or slit in a horizontal Line, (such Cut or Slit not exceeding the Length of one Inch,) and the same, when so marked, shall be delivered, upon Demand, to the Owner or Owners thereof; and the Costs, Charges, and Expences attending the taking, driving, keeping, impounding, and marking of the same, having been ascertained by such Justice or Justices, shall be paid by the Owner or Owners of such Sheep or Lambs, Sheep or Lamb, together with the Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act, for each and every such Sheep and Lamb, and such Costs, Charges, and Expences shall be recovered in like Manner as any Penalties or Forfeitures imposed by this Act are directed to be recovered; and any such Mark or Marks, when made, shall be and be deemed Evidence of the Fact that such Sheep or Lambs, Sheep or Lamb, have been turned out, kept, or depastured, contrary to the Directions and Provisions of this Act, without any other Evidence whatsoever.

Penalty on Persons destroying such Marks, and on Owners not renewing them, not more than 20s. nor less than 2s. each Sheep, &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons, at any Time within the Space of six Calendar Months after any such Sheep or Lambs shall have been so marked as directed by such Justice or Justices, shall cut out, alter, or destroy the Mark herein directed to be made in the Ear of any such Sheep or Lamb, or if the Owner or Owners of any such Sheep or Lamb shall not immediately renew or cause to be renewed, in like Manner, the Mark or Marks herein directed to be made in the Side or Sides of every such Sheep and Lamb, when and as often as such Mark or Marks on the Side or Sides shall be defaced, altered, obliterated, or destroyed, by any Means whatsoever, every such Person, for each and every Sheep and Lamb, the said Mark in the Ear of which shall have been by him or her so cut out, altered, or destroyed, and such Owner or Owners, for each and every Sheep and Lamb, not having the said Mark or Marks on the Side or Sides thereof, immediately renewed as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay, on Conviction, any Sum not exceeding twenty Shillings, nor less than two Shillings; and the Justice or Justices before whom such Conviction be had, shall, and he and they is and are hereby required to cause every such Mark so cut out, altered, defaced, obliterated, or destroyed, to be immediately renewed, and the Sheep or Lambs, Sheep or Lamb, to be detained and impounded until every such Mark shall have been renewed.

If Sheep be not demanded within five Days after they are marked, they may be sold, and the Produce paid to the Overseers of the Poor, and if not claimed in 12 Months, applied in Aid of the Poor Rate.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if such Sheep or Lambs, Sheep or Lamb, so detained or impounded, shall not be demanded and taken away by the Owner or Owners thereof within five Days after the same shall have been so marked as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for any Justice or Justices of the Peace of the County, District, or Place, in which such Sheep or Lambs, Sheep or Lamb, shall have been so detained or impounded, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, to direct the same to be sold, and the Money arising by such Sale, after deducting the Costs, Charges, and Expences of taking, driving, keeping, detaining, impounding, and marking the same, shall be paid to the Overseer or Overseers of the Poor of the Parish, Hamlet, or Place where such Sheep or Lambs, Sheep or Lamb, shall have been so detained or impounded; and in case the Owner or Owners of such Sheep or Lambs, Sheep or Lamb, shall not claim such Money within twelve Calendar Months after such Payment, the same shall be applied in Aid of the Poor Rate of such Parish, Hamlet, Township, or Place.

Penalties may be levied by Distress.

VII. And be it further enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act imposed for any Offence against the same, shall be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offender or Offenders, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of some Justice of the Peace for the County or Place where the Offence shall be committed, rendering the Overplus of the Money arising by such Distress and Sale (if any) upon Demand, to the Owner of such Goods and Chattels, after deducting the Costs and Charges of making such Distress and Sale; which Warrant such Justice is hereby empowered and required to grant, upon Conviction of the Offender or Offenders, by Confession or upon the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses; and one Moiety of such Penalties and Forfeitures, when so levied, shall be paid to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Overseer or Overseers of the Parish or Township where the Offence shall be committed, to be applied by him or them in Aid of the Poor Rate.

Penalties, Half to Informer and Half to the Poor.

Forms of Conviction.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Conviction shall be had for any Offence or Offences committed against this Act, or against any Order of Sessions, or any Adjudication for the marking of Sheep or Lambs made, the Form of Conviction, and the Form of Adjudication for the marking of any Sheep or Lambs, shall be in the Words or to the Effect following; (that is to say,)

CAP. LXVI.

An Act for empowering His Majesty, for a Time and to an Extent to be limited, to accept the Services of such Parts of His Militia Forces in this Kingdom as may voluntarily offer themselves to be employed in Ireland.—[21st June 1798.]

'WHEREAS an unnatural and wicked Rebellion has unhappily broken out against his Majesty's 'Government in the Kingdom of Ireland, whereby the Lives and Properties of his Majesty's 'faithful and loyal Subjects are exposed to great Hazard, and the Continuance of which must be highly 'prejudicial to the most important Interests of the British Empire: And whereas from an ardent Zeal 'for the Interests of his Majesty, and of their Country, and from an affectionate Concern for their loyal 'Fellow Subjects in Ireland, the Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Privates, of divers of his 'Majesty's Regiments of Militia in this Kingdom, have submitted to his Majesty the dutiful and voluntary 'Offer of their Services to be employed in Ireland, in Aid of his Majesty's Forces in that Kingdom, for 'the Suppression of the said unnatural and wicked Rebellion: And whereas it may materially conduce to 'the Protection and Security of his Majesty's faithful Subjects in Ireland, and also to the Defence of this 'Kingdom against the Designs of the Enemy, as well as to the general Interests and Security of the British 'Empire, that his Majesty may be empowered to avail himself of this new and distinguished Instance of 'public Spirit:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That so much of the Act of the twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for amending, and reducing

So much of 26 Geo 3. c. 107, or any other Act, reducing into one Act of Parliament, the Laws relating to the Militia in that Part of Great Britain called England, or of any other Act or Acts now in force, as prohibits the carrying out of the Kingdom of Great Britain any Part of the Militia Forces thereof, shall, during the Continuance of this Act, be suspended, in so far only as may relate to any Part of the said Forces not exceeding in the Whole twelve thousand Men, whom his Majesty may think proper to permit to serve in Ireland for the Suppression of the present Rebellion there, in consequence of such voluntary Offer as may have been or as shall be made by them to that Effect, and duly certified by their Commanding Officer.

as prohibits carrying out of Great Britain the Militia, suspended, so far as may relate to 12,000 Volunteers from the Militia to serve in Ireland.

II. Provided always, That previous to the certifying such Offer the Commanding Officer shall have explained to the Persons making the same, that the same, if made, is purely voluntary on their Part, and that no Person serving in the Militia of this Kingdom can be compelled to make such Offer, or to engage to serve out of this Kingdom, except by his own Consent so signified.

Previous to certifying any voluntary Offer, the Commanding Officer shall explain to the Men that they cannot be compelled to make such Offer.

III. Provided also, That no County, Riding, City, or Place, shall, during the Continuance of this Act, be drawn to fill any Vacancy arising from the Death, Desertion, or Discharge of any such Non-commissioned Officer, Drummer, or Soldier, belonging to such Militia Forces, whilst serving in Ireland.

No Place to be drawn to fill Vacancies whilst serving in Ireland.

IV. And be it enacted, That this Act shall continue in force till the Expiration of one Calendar Month after the Day of the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament.

Continuance of Act.

CAP. LXVII.

An Act to prevent the Exportation of Base Coin to His Majesty's Colonies in the West Indies and America.—[21st June 1798.]

'WHEREAS various Base Copper Coins made to the Resemblance and Similitude of the Foreign Copper Coins, called Tempes and Sous Marques, have been exported from this Kingdom to the Island of Martinique in the West Indies, under the Denomination of Wrought Copper: And whereas Base Coin made to the Similitude and Resemblance of the Foreign Gold and Silver Coins, called Johannes and Dollars, have been circulated in his Majesty's Islands in the West Indies, and in other his Majesty's Colonies in America, to the great Injury of the Inhabitants of the said Islands and Colonies:' For preventing the like and similar Evils in future, be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all Copper Coin whatsoever, not being the legal Copper Coin of this Kingdom, and all Counterfeit Gold or Silver Coin made to the Similitude or Resemblance, or intended to resemble, any Gold or Silver Coin, either of this Kingdom or of any other Country, which shall, under any Pretence, Name, or Description whatsoever, be exported or shipped, or laden or put on board any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, for the Purpose of being exported from this Kingdom to the said Island of Martinique, or any of his Majesty's Islands or Colonies in the West Indies or America, shall be forfeited, and the same shall and may be seized, sued for, prosecuted, and recovered in such Courts, and by such and the like Ways, Means, and Methods, and the Produce thereof disposed of and applied in such and the like Manner, and to such and the like Uses and Purposes, as any Forfeiture incurred by any Law respecting the Revenue of the Customs, may now be seized, sued for, prosecuted, or recovered, disposed of, and applied, either in this Kingdom, or in any of his Majesty's Islands in the West Indies respectively, as the Case may happen to be.

Copper Coin not being legal Coin, and counterfeit Gold or Silver Coin, exported or shipped for Exportation, to Martinique, or any of his Majesty's Colonies in the West Indies or America, shall be forfeited, and may be seized, &c. as under the Laws respecting Customs.

II. And be it further enacted, That every Person who shall so export, or shall so ship, lay, or put on board any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, in order to be so exported, or shall cause or procure to be so exported, shipped, or put on board any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, or shall have in his or her Custody, in order to be so exported, any such Coin as aforesaid, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of two hundred Pounds, and double the Value of such Coin, to be recovered by Bill, Suit, Action, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster.

Penalty on Persons exporting it, &c. 200 l. and double the Value of the Coin.

CAP. LXVIII.

An Act for regulating the Payment, until two Months after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament after the End of the present War, of the Duties on Cinnamon, Cloves, Nutmegs, and Mace, and for granting to His Majesty additional Duties thereon.—[21st June 1798.]

'WHEREAS the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies have lately imported into this Kingdom a large Quantity of Cinnamon, Cloves, Nutmegs, and Mace, upon which certain Duties are now chargeable according to the Weight thereof, and the Exporters of such

'Goods

'Goods would, if such Duties had been duly paid, be entitled to certain Drawbacks upon the Exportation 'thereof, which Goods now remain in the Warehouses of the said United Company, under the joint Locks 'of his Majesty and the said United Company, without the said Duties having been paid thereon: And 'whereas it is expedient, under the present Circumstances, that some new Provision should be made re- 'specting the Duties on the said Cinnamon, Cloves, Nutmegs, and Mace, so imported and warehoused as 'aforesaid, and also in respect of such Goods of the same Nature, which hereafter, during the Continuance 'of this Act, shall be imported by the said Company:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That no Part of the Duties now payable by Law, in respect of any Cinnamon, Cloves, Nutmegs, or Mace, which have been imported by the said United Company, and which, on and immediately before the passing of this Act, shall remain in their Warehouses, under the joint Locks of his Majesty and the said Company, and on which the Duties of Customs shall not have been paid, or in respect of any Cinnamon, Cloves, Nutmegs, or Mace, which hereafter, during the Continuance of this Act, shall be imported into this Kingdom by the said United Company, shall be paid, or become payable, unless and until any such Goods shall be sold at the public Sales of the said United Company, and then such Duties shall be paid thereon, and in the Manner hereinafter provided; any Bond or Security, Law, Statute, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Duties on Cinnamon, &c. imported by the East India Company and now warehoused, or hereafter imported, not payable till sold at the public Sales of the Company.

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, and during the Continuance thereof, all the Cinnamon, Cloves, Nutmegs, and Mace, which shall be imported into this Kingdom by the said United Company, shall and may, upon the Importation thereof into this Kingdom, upon due Entry thereof, be forthwith landed from on board the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall have been so imported, in the Presence of the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs, without Payment of any Duty whatever, except as herein is provided: Provided always, That an exact Account shall be taken of the Weight thereof, and entered in a Book to be kept for that Purpose by the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs, and that all such Goods shall, upon landing, be immediately lodged and secured under the joint Locks of his Majesty and of the said United Company, in such Warehouses as shall be fit for that Purpose, to be provided at the sole Expence of the said United Company, with the Approbation of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England, or any three or more of them.

Cinnamon, &c. imported by the Company may, on Entry, be landed without Payment of Duty, on being immediately warehoused after the Weight is taken.

On Sale of such Cinnamon, &c. and Entry for Exportation, there shall be paid 2 l. 10 s. per Centum of the Value;

III. And be it further enacted, That when and as often as any Cinnamon, Cloves, Nutmegs, and Mace, so imported by the said United Company as aforesaid, and which, on or immediately before the passing of this Act, shall remain in their Warehouses, under the joint Locks of his Majesty and the said United Company, and on which the Duties of Customs shall not have been paid, and any Cinnamon, Cloves, Nutmegs, and Mace, which hereafter, during the Continuance of this Act, shall be imported into this Kingdom by the said United Company, shall, from Time to Time, be sold by the said United Company at their public Sales, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, whenever the same shall respectively be duly entered for Exportation from the Warehouses of the said Company, and not before, the Sum of two Pounds and ten Shillings of lawful Money of Great Britain, for every one hundred Pounds of the true and real Value of such Goods according to the gross Price at which such Goods shall have been respectively sold at such public Sales, and so in Proportion for a greater or less Value than one hundred Pounds; such Duty to be paid by the respective Persons who shall enter such Goods for Exportation from the said Warehouses.

and if taken out of Warehouses for Home Consumption, the Duties now payable on Importation shall then be paid.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if such Goods, or any Part thereof, shall be intended to be taken out of such Warehouses in which the same are or shall be lodged, to be used or consumed in this Kingdom, the Person or Persons, who shall so intend to take the same out of such Warehouses, shall, before the same shall be delivered from thence, pay to the proper Officer of his Majesty's Customs the full Duties payable by Law on the Importation into Great Britain of such Cinnamon, Cloves, Nutmegs, and Mace, respectively, so intended to be taken out of such Warehouse as aforesaid; provided that such Cinnamon, Cloves, Nutmegs, and Mace, or such Part thereof which shall be so exported, shall be duly entered for Exportation, and regularly shipped and exported according to the Laws now in force, or which shall be in force at the Time of exporting the same, and under such Security as is now required by Law on the Exportation of Pepper from the Warehouses of the said Company.

Cinnamon, &c. to be duly entered for Exportation, &c.

If Cinnamon, &c. on which the Duties shall have been paid, and shall have been taken out of a Warehouse, shall be afterwards exported, a Drawback to be allowed.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, or Nutmegs, on which the full Duties due and payable by Law at and immediately before the passing this Act shall have been paid, and which shall have been taken out of the Warehouse in which the same had been secured, shall be afterwards exported from this Kingdom, the Exporter or Exporters thereof shall be allowed such and the like Drawbacks as would have been allowed on the due Exportation of any such Articles respectively, in case this Act had not been made.

Duties to be carried to the Consolidated Fund.

VI. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies arising by the Duty hereby granted shall be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, and carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund.

Continuance of Act.

VII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall continue in force during the Continuance of the present War, and from thence until the Expiration of two Months next after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament after the End of such War.

CAP. LXIX.

An Act for allowing Gold Wares to be manufactured at a Standard lower than is now allowed by Law.—[21st June 1798.]

'WHEREAS it would be for the Advantage of the Manufactures of Gold in this Kingdom, that Gold of an inferior Standard to what is now allowed by Law should be permitted to be used for the same:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the first Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, it shall be lawful for any Goldsmith, or other Person making, trading, or dealing in Gold Wares in Great Britain, to work or make, or cause or procure to be wrought or made, any Gold Vessel, Plate, or Manufacture of Gold whatsoever, of the Standard of eighteen Carats of Fine Gold in every Pound Weight Troy, and to sell, exchange, or expose to Sale, or export out of this Kingdom, any Gold Vessel, Plate, or Manufacture of Gold whatsoever, of the Standard of eighteen Carats of Fine Gold in every Pound Weight Troy; any Thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

From Oct. 1, 1798, Gold may be manufactured for Sale or Exportation of the Standard of 18 Carats in a Pound Troy.

II. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said first Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, no Person whatever shall sell, exchange, or expose to Sale, or export out of this Kingdom, or cause or procure to be sold, exchanged, or exposed to Sale, or exported out of this Kingdom, any Gold Vessel, Plate, or Manufacture of Gold, made after the said first Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, of the Standard of eighteen Carats of Fine Gold in every Pound Weight Troy, until such Vessel, Plate, or Manufacture, shall be marked with the new Mark as follows; that is to say, with the Mark of a Crown and the Figures 18, instead of the Mark of the Lion Passant, upon Pain that every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Pounds.

Such manufactured Gold not to be exposed for Sale, sold, or exported, until marked, with a new Mark under this Act, on Penalty of 10*l.*

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the respective Companies of Goldsmiths in London, Edinburgh, Birmingham, and Sheffield, and the Wardens and Assayer or Assayers of Gold at York, Exeter, Bristol, Chester, Norwich, and Newcastle upon Tyne, being respectively duly authorized according to the Laws in force on and immediately before the passing of this Act, to touch, assay, and mark, with the Mark hereinbefore directed to be used, any Gold Vessel, Gold Plate, or Manufacture of Gold, made and wrought after the said first Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, of the Standard of eighteen Carats of Fine Gold in every Pound Weight Troy, of Gold brought to them respectively to be touched, assayed, or marked, in like Manner and under the like Regulations, except as to the Mark herein directed to be used, instead of the Mark of the Lion Passant, as they respectively are authorized by the Laws in force on and immediately before the passing of this Act, to touch, assay, or mark, any Gold Vessel, Gold Plate, or Manufacture of Gold, of the Standard of twenty-two Carats of Fine Gold in every Pound Weight Troy.

The Company of Goldsmiths in London, &c. may assay and mark such manufactured Gold as now authorized by Law, except as to the Mark.

IV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to prohibit the making, selling, exchanging, exposing to Sale, or exporting out of this Kingdom, any Gold Vessels, Plate, or Manufactures of Gold whatever, of the Standard of twenty-two Carats of Fine Gold in every Pound Weight Troy, in the Manner directed by any Law in force on and immediately before the passing of this Act.

Act not to prevent the manufacturing of Gold of the Standard of 22 Carats in the Pound Troy: But not to authorize the assaying with the Mark used before the passing of this Act, any Gold Manufacture of lower Standard than 22 Carats.

V. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize any Person to touch, assay, or mark, with the Mark directed to be used by the Laws in force at and immediately before the passing of this Act, any Gold Vessel, Gold Plate, or Manufacture of Gold, made and wrought of a lower Standard than the Standard of twenty-two Carats of Fine Gold in every Pound Weight Troy of Gold.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall, from and after the said first Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, work or make, or cause or procure to be wrought or made, or shall sell, exchange, or expose to Sale, or export out of this Kingdom, or cause or procure to be sold, exchanged, or exposed to Sale, or exported out of this Kingdom, any Gold Vessel, Plate, or Manufacture of Gold, not being duly marked with one of the Marks by Law required, to denote one of the respective Standards of twenty-two or eighteen Carats of Fine Gold in every Pound Weight Troy, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Penalty of 50*l.* for making, selling, or exporting manufactured Gold not marked with one of the Marks required by Law.

VII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the said first Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, if any Person shall forge, cast, or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be cast, forged, or counterfeited, the Mark or Stamp used, or directed to be used in pursuance of this Act, for the marking or stamping of Gold Plate by the Company of Goldsmiths in London or Edinburgh, or the Birmingham or Sheffield Company, or by the Wardens or Assayer or Assayers at York, Exeter, Bristol, Chester, Norwich, or Newcastle upon Tyne, or any or either of them, or shall cast, forge, or counterfeit, or shall cause or procure to be cast, forged, or counterfeited, any Mark, Stamp, or Impression, in Imitation of or to resemble any Mark, Stamp, or Impression, made or to be made with any Mark or Stamp used or to be

CAP. LXXI.

An Act for encouraging the Art of making new Models and Casts of Busts, and other Things therein mentioned.—[21st June 1798.]

'WHEREAS divers Persons have, by their own Genius, Industry, Pains, and Expence, improved and brought the Art of making new Models and Casts of Busts, and of Statues of Human Figures, and of Animals, to great Perfection, in Hopes to have reaped the sole Benefit of their Labours; but that divers Persons have (without the Consent of the Proprietors thereof) copied and made Moulds from the said Models and Casts, and sold base Copies and Casts of such new Models and Casts, to the great Prejudice and Detriment of the original Proprietors, and to the Discouragement of the Art of making such new Models and Casts as aforesaid:' For Remedy whereof, and for preventing such Practices for the future, may it please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, every Person who shall make or cause to be made any new Model, or Copy or Cast made from such new Model, of any Bust, or any Part of the Human Figure, or any Statue of the Human Figure, or the Head of any Animal, or any Part of any Animal, or the Statue of any Animal; or shall make or cause to be made any new Model, Copy, or Cast from such new Model, in Alto or Basso Relievo, or any Work in which the Representation of any Human Figure or Figures, or the Representation of any Animal or Animals shall be introduced, or shall make or cause to be made any new Cast from Nature of any Part or Parts of the Human Figure, or of any Part or Parts of any Animal, shall have the sole Right and Property in every such new Model, Copy, or Cast, and also in every such new Model, Copy, or Cast in Alto or Basso Relievo, or any Work as aforesaid, and also in every such new Cast from Nature as aforesaid, for and during the Term of fourteen Years from the Time of first publishing the same: Provided always, That every Person who shall make or cause to be made any such new Model, Copy, or Cast, or any such new Model, Copy, or Cast in Alto or Basso Relievo, or any Work as aforesaid, or any new Cast from Nature as aforesaid, shall cause his or her Name to be put thereon, with the Date of the Publication, before the same shall be published and exposed to Sale.

The sole Right and Property of making Models or Casts shall be vested in the original Proprietor for 14 Years.

II. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall, within the said Term of fourteen Years, make or cause to be made any Copy or Cast of any such new Model, Copy, or Cast, or any such Model, Copy, or Cast in Alto or Basso Relievo, or any such Work as aforesaid, or any such new Cast from Nature as aforesaid, either by adding to or diminishing from any such new Model, Copy, or Cast, or adding to or diminishing from any such new Model, Copy, or Cast in Alto or Basso Relievo, or any such Work as aforesaid, or adding to or diminishing from any such new Cast from Nature, or shall cause or procure the same to be done, or shall import any Copy or Cast of such new Model, Copy, or Cast, or Copy or Cast of such new Model, Copy, or Cast in Alto or Basso Relievo, or any such Work as aforesaid, or any Copy or Cast of any such new Cast from Nature as aforesaid, for Sale, or shall sell or otherwise dispose of, or cause or procure to be sold or exposed to Sale, or otherwise disposed of, any Copy or Cast of any such new Model, Copy, or Cast, or any Copy or Cast of such new Model, Copy, or Cast in Alto or Basso Relievo, or any such Work as aforesaid, or any Copy or Cast of any such new Cast from Nature as aforesaid, without the express Consent of the Proprietor or Proprietors thereof first had and obtained, in Writing signed by him, her, or them respectively, with his, her, or their Hand or Hands, in the Presence of and attested by two or more credible Witnesses, then and in all or any of the Cases aforesaid, every Proprietor or Proprietors of any such original Model, Copy, or Cast, and every Proprietor or Proprietors of any such original Model, or Copy or Cast in Alto or Basso Relievo, or any such Work as aforesaid, or the Proprietor or Proprietors of any such new Cast from Nature as aforesaid respectively, shall and may, by and in a special Action upon the Case, to be brought against the Person or Persons so offending, recover such Damages as a Jury on the Trial of such Action, or on the Execution of a Writ of Enquiry thereon, shall give or assess, together with full Costs of Suit.

Persons making Copies of any Model or Cast, without the written Consent of the Proprietor, may be prosecuted for Damages, by a special Action on the Case.

III. Provided nevertheless, That no Person who shall hereafter purchase the Right, either in any such Model, Copy, or Cast, or in any such Model, Copy, or Cast in Alto or Basso Relievo, or any such Work as aforesaid, or any such new Cast from Nature, of the original Proprietor or Proprietors thereof, shall be subject to any Action for vending or selling any Cast or Copy from the same; any Thing contained in this Act to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

Except such Persons who shall purchase the same of the original Proprietor.

IV. Provided also, That all Actions to be brought as aforesaid, against any Person or Persons for any Offence committed against this Act, shall be commenced within six Calendar Months next after the Discovery of every such Offence, and not afterwards.

Limitation of Actions.

An Act for amending and rendering more effectual an Act, made in the thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, An Act to prevent Abuses and Frauds in the Packing, Weight, and Sale of Butter; and to repeal certain Acts relating thereto. [21st June 1798.]

36 Geo. 3. c. 86.

'WHEREAS, to prevent Abuses and Frauds in the Packing, Weight, and Sale of Butter, various 'Provisions were made by a Statute passed in the thirty-sixth Year of the Reign of his present Ma- 'jesty, and intituled, An Act to prevent Abuses and Frauds in the Packing, Weight, and Sale of Butter; and to repeal certain Acts relating thereto: And whereas the said Act is very much avoided by concealing the 'Places of Abode of the Coopers making Vessels for Butter, and of the Dairymen or other Packers of But- 'ter for Sale, and by the Want of some Provision to make the Factors or Agents for buying and selling 'Butter, and also the Cheesemongers and other Persons selling Butter on their own Account, responsible 'for transacting the Sale of Butter in Vessels not made as the said Act requires;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every Cooper or other Person making a Vessel for the packing of Butter, being a Vessel within the Regulations of the Act hereinbefore recited, before his or her suffering any such Vessel to go out of his or her Possession, shall, on the Bottom of such Vessel, on the Outside, with an Iron, in Addition to his or her Christian Name and Surname as the said Act requires, brand the Name of his or her Place of Abode or Dwelling, in permanent and legible Letters, in Manner following; (videlicet,) If he or she shall dwell in a City or Market Town, or within the County of such City or the Parish of such Market Town, then the Name of such City or Market Town; and if he or she shall dwell in a Village, Township, Liberty, Hamlet, or other Subdivision of any Parish, then the Name of the Parish wherein such Village, Township, Liberty, Hamlet, or other Subdivision shall be so situate; and if he or she shall dwell in an extra-parochial Place, then the Name of the next adjoining Parish to which such extra-parochial Place shall be situate; or in Default of branding such his or her Place of Abode in Manner before directed, he or she, for every such Offence, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Shillings.

Persons making Vessels for packing Butter, shall brand them with their Name and Place of Abode.

Penalty for Default, 10s.

II. And be it further enacted, That every such Factor or Agent for buying or selling Butter for others, who shall buy or sell, or offer for Sale, or shall, for the Purpose of Sale, have in his or her Custody, Power, or Possession, any Vessel containing Butter, or shall order, consign, forward, or send, or shall cause to be ordered, consigned, forwarded, or sent, any Vessel containing Butter for Sale, to any Person or Persons whomsoever, which Vessel containing such Butter shall not be made and externally marked, and have the Butter therein imprinted according to the Directions of this Act, and of the Act hereinbefore recited, shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Shillings.

Penalty on Factors for buying or selling, &c. Butter in Vessels not legally marked, 20s.

III. And be it further enacted, That every Person being a Cheesemonger, or otherwise a Seller or Dealer in Butter on his or her own Account, who shall offer for Sale, or shall, for the Purpose of Sale, have in his or her Custody, Power, or Possession, any Vessel containing such Butter, which Vessel containing such Butter shall not be externally marked according to the Directions of this Act, and of the Act hereinbefore recited, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of ten Shillings.

Penalty on Dealers having in their Possession Butter in Vessels not legally marked, 10s

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Forfeitures and Penalties imposed by this Act, shall be respectively sued for, levied, raised, and applied, in such Manner and Form, and with, by, under, and subject to the same Methods, Limitations, and Provisions, as are prescribed in the Act hereinbefore recited concerning the respective Penalties and Forfeitures thereby imposed; and all Persons who shall be sued or proceeded against for any Thing done in pursuance or under Colour of this Act, shall be within Benefit of the same Provision as is contained in the Act hereinbefore recited in respect to Persons acting under the same.

Penalties to be recovered and applied as they may be under recited Act, &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall commence and begin to be in Force on the first Day of September in the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight.

Commencement of Act, Sept 1, 1798.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing contained in this Act shall extend to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

Act not to extend to Scotland.

CAP. LXXIV.

An Act for raising a Body of Miners in the Counties of Cornwall and Devon, for the Defence of the Kingdom during the present War.—[21st June 1798.]

26 Geo. 3. Cap. 107. § 109. recited.

'WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the twenty-sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for amending, and reducing into one Act of Parliament, the Laws relating to the Militia, in that Part of Great Britain called England, it is provided, that nothing therein contained should extend to the Miners in the Counties of Devon and Cornwall, but that the Warden of the Stannaries, in pursuance of his Majesty's Commission in that Behalf, and such as he should commissionate and authorize under him, should have and use the like Powers, and array, assess, arm, muster, and exercise the said Miners, within the said Counties, or either of them, as hath been theretofore used, and according to the ancient Privileges and Customs of the said Stannaries, and the like Provision had been made by divers former Acts of Parliament concerning the Militia: And whereas, by reason of the Length of Time which elapsed since any Commission hath issued to the Warden of the Stannaries aforesaid, to array, assess, arm, muster, and exercise the said Miners, great Difficulties might occur in the Execution of such Commission, and it is therefore expedient that Provision should be made for arming, arraying, and exercising a certain Proportion of such Miners, for the Defence of the Kingdom during the present War;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That his Majesty may, from Time to Time as Occasion shall require, issue his Commission to the Warden of the Stannaries of the Counties of Devon and Cornwall, giving him Power and Authority during his Majesty's Pleasure, and such Warden is hereby, according to such Commission, authorized and required to call together, arm, array, and cause to be trained and exercised, such Miners, in such Numbers and in such Manner as hereinafter is directed; and the said Warden shall constitute and appoint, from Time to Time, such Persons as he shall think fit, being qualified as hereinafter mentioned, to be his Deputy Wardens for the special Purposes of this Act, the Names of such Persons having first been presented to and approved by his Majesty; and the said Warden shall also appoint such Field Officers and other Officers as hereinafter directed, qualified as hereinafter mentioned, to train and discipline, and command the Miners, so to be armed and arrayed, according to the Rules, Orders, and Directions after mentioned, and shall certify to his Majesty the Names and Ranks of all such Officers so to be appointed; and if his Majesty shall, within fourteen Days after such Certificate shall have been laid before him, signify his Disapprobation of any of the Persons so to be appointed, it shall not be lawful for the said Warden to grant a Commission to any Person so disapproved, but Commissions shall be granted by the said Warden to all such Persons so to be appointed as shall not be disapproved by his Majesty, and the Officers so appointed shall rank with the Militia Officers of this Kingdom, according to the Dates of their respective Commissions, and with all Officers of his Majesty's Forces, in the same Manner as the said Militia Officers are entitled to rank; and the Commissions so to be granted by the said Warden shall not be vacated by reason of the Revocation, Expiration, or Discontinuance of his Majesty's Commission to the said Warden: Provided always nevertheless, That if any Warden of the said Stannaries, to whom his Majesty shall have issued his Commission as aforesaid, shall be removed from, or resign his Office of Warden of the said Stannaries, and cease to be Warden of the said Stannaries, the said Commission issued to the said Warden for the Purposes aforesaid, and all and every the Powers and Authorities vested in such Warden by virtue of such Commission, and of this Act, shall cease and determine.

His Majesty may authorize the Wardens of the Stannaries to call out the Miners.

Warden to appoint his Deputies and Officers, &c. with his Majesty's Approbation.

Officers to rank with Militia Officers.

Commissions not vacated by the Revocation or Expiration of the Warden's Commission.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Warden shall constitute and appoint twelve Special Deputy Wardens at the least for the Purposes of this Act, if so many Persons can be found qualified as hereinafter directed, that is to say, every such Person so to be appointed a Special Deputy Warden shall be qualified in the same Manner as Deputy Lieutenants are required to be qualified by the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign, in the said Counties of Cornwall and Devon; and every Person so to be appointed a Special Deputy Warden shall take and subscribe the Oaths, and make, repeat, and subscribe, the Declaration required to be taken, made, repeated, and subscribed, by such Deputy Lieutenants, by virtue of the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign, changing only what ought to be changed.

Warden to appoint Special Deputy Wardens, who shall be qualified as, and take the Oath prescribed to, Deputy Lieutenants under 26 Geo. 3. c. 107.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Justice or Justices of the Peace of the said Counties respectively, together with one or more Special Deputy Warden or Deputy Wardens, to do all Matters and Things in the Execution of this Act, which might be done by a like Number of Special Deputy Wardens, in the same Manner as Justices of the Peace are authorized to act with Deputy Lieutenants in executing the Laws concerning the Militia.

Justices with Deputy Wardens may act.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said Warden shall, from Time to Time, appoint a Clerk of the General Meetings to be holden as hereinafter directed, and may displace such Clerk if he shall think fit, and appoint another in his Room; and the Special Deputy Wardens within their respective Subdivisions, or the major Part of those present at any Subdivision Meeting, shall also, from Time to Time, appoint a Clerk for their Subdivisions, and may displace such Clerk as they, or the major Part of them, shall think Warden to appoint a Clerk of the General Meetings, and Deputy Wardens a Clerk for their Subdivisions.

Their Fees.

think fit, and appoint another in his Room; and such Clerk of such General Meetings shall be paid five Guineas for every General Meeting, and such Clerks of Subdivision Meetings shall be paid one Guinea for every Subdivision Meeting; such Fees to be paid by the Receiver General of the Land Tax in the Counties of Cornwall and Devon respectively; and such Clerks shall receive no other Fee or Reward whatsoever.

Number of Men to be raised to be One seventh of those liable to be ballotted for.

V. And be it further enacted, That the Number of Men to be raised by virtue of this Act shall be One-seventh Part of the Number of Persons who shall appear to be liable to be ballotted to serve in pursuance of this Act, as hereinafter directed.

(See § 8. 12.)

General Meetings to be holden, of which 14 Days previous Notice shall be given.

VI. And be it further enacted, That General Meetings of the said Warden and Special Deputy Wardens shall be holden at the most convenient Towns of the Counties of Cornwall and Devon respectively, and such Meeting shall consist of the Warden and two Special Deputy Wardens at the least, or on the Death, Removal, or Absence, of the Warden, of three Special Deputy Wardens at the least, and Notice thereof shall be given fourteen Days at the least before the Day of any such Meeting, in some Newspaper or Newspapers usually circulated in the said Counties of Cornwall and Devon respectively; and such General Meeting shall and may summon other Meetings, and be adjourned in the same Manner as General Meetings of Lieutenancy may be summoned and adjourned, by virtue of the Laws in force concerning the Militia Forces of that Part of Great Britain called England.

General Meeting may summon other Meetings.

First General Meeting to appoint Subdivision Meetings, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted, That the said Warden and Special Deputy Wardens, or such of them as shall be present at the first General Meeting to be held in pursuance of this Act, in each of the said Counties of Cornwall and Devon, shall appoint the several Subdivision Meetings which shall be held within the four Stannaries of Blackmore, Foymore, Tywarnhaite Penwith, and Kerrier respectively, for the County of Cornwall, and within the four Stannaries of Chagford, Ashburton, Plympton, and Tavistock, for the County of Devon; which Subdivision Meetings shall consist of two Special Deputy Wardens, or one Special Deputy Warden and one Justice of the Peace for the County within which such Subdivision Meeting shall be holden; and such Subdivision Meetings shall have the like Powers and Authorities for the Purposes of this Act, as the Subdivision Meetings of Lieutenancy have for the Purposes of the several General Acts concerning the Militia Forces of England.

First General Meeting to issue Orders to the Chief Constables, &c. to return to the Special Deputy Wardens Lists of Miners between 18 and 45 Years old.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That, at the first General Meeting to be holden in pursuance of this Act in each of the said Counties, the said Warden and Special Deputy Wardens respectively, present at each of such Meetings, shall issue their Orders to the Chief Constables, and where there is no Chief Constable, to some other Officer of the Hundred or other Division, within the said Counties respectively, where Miners do dwell, requiring every such Chief Constable or other Officer to issue an Order, under his Hand, to all Constables, Tythingmen, and other Officers of every Parish, Tything, or Place, within the said Hundreds, or other Divisions respectively where Miners do dwell, to return to the Special Deputy Wardens, within their respective Subdivisions, at the Places and at the Times to be appointed for that Purpose, full and true Lists, in Writing, of all and every the Miners dwelling within their respective Parishes and Places, between the Ages of eighteen and forty-five Years, distinguishing their respective Occupations as Miners, and where the true Names and Descriptions of such Miners cannot be procured, their common Appellations shall be sufficient, and distinguishing which of such Persons so returned labour under any Infirmity likely to incapacitate them from serving in pursuance of this Act, and having first affixed a true Copy of the List intended to be so returned on the Door of the Church or Chapel belonging to every such Parish or Place, or if any such Parish or Place shall have no Church or Chapel belonging thereto, then on the Door of the Church or Chapel of some Parish or Place adjoining, on some Sunday Morning before such Return shall be made, which shall be three Days at the least before the Meeting appointed for receiving such Return; and having also written at the Bottom of such Copy so affixed on the Door of such Church or Chapel, Notice of the Day and Place of such Meeting; and that all Persons who shall think themselves aggrieved may then appeal, and that no Appeal will afterwards be received; and at the Days and Places so to be appointed for the Returns of such Lists, the Constables, Tythingmen, and other Officers respectively, shall attend and verify the same upon Oath; and the said Special Deputy Wardens, or any two or more of them, or any Special Deputy Warden and one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, assembled in their respective Subdivisions, shall proceed to hear Appeals, and amend such Lists, and cause Duplicates of such amended Lists to be made, and otherwise to act therein in the same Manner as Deputy Lieutenants and Justices are authorized to proceed in the like Cases, with respect to the Returns of Men to be ballotted for the Militia in England.

Copies of Lists to be affixed on the Church Door.

Appeals when to be made.

Constables to attend to verify Lists

Subdivisions to hear Appeals, &c.

No Person above 18 Years old to be struck off the Lists as not being a privileged Miner, if left out of the Militia List last returned as one.

IX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Person shall be struck off the said Lists upon Appeal, on Pretence that such Person is not a privileged Miner, if such Person, being above the Age of eighteen Years, was left out of the List last returned under the Laws concerning the Militia Forces of England, for the Parish or Place where he resided as a privileged Miner, and unless such Person shall upon Oath, or Affirmation, (if a Quaker,) declare that he was not left out of such List by reason of his being a privileged Miner, but by Mistake or Neglect, or for some other Cause.

X. And

X. And be it further enacted, That if any Conſtable, Tythingman, or other Officer, ſhall wilfully omit or neglect to inſert in any ſuch Liſt the Name of any Perſon which ought to be inſerted therein, every ſuch Conſtable, Tythingman, or other Officer, ſhall forfeit and loſe, for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of twenty Pounds.

Penalty of 20l. for omitting Names in Liſts.

XI. And be it further enacted, That in order to enable the ſaid Special Wardens to collect and amend the ſaid Liſts, and diſcover whether all the Names have been inſerted which ought to have been inſerted therein, the ſaid Special Deputy Wardens ſhall, if they ſhall think fit, iſſue their Precept to the Chief Captain of any Mine, or to the Agent of any Blowing Houſe or Smelting Houſe within any Subdiviſion, requiring ſuch Chief Captain or Agent to return to ſuch Special Deputy Wardens, at any Subdiviſion Meeting, as they ſhall ſee fit, a true Liſt of all the working Miners employed in or about the Buſineſs of ſuch Mine, Blowing Houſe, or Smelting Houſe, and deſcribing their Occupations as Miners, and where they reſpectively dwell; and if any ſuch Captain or Agent ſhall wilfully omit or neglect to inſert in ſuch Liſt the Name of any Perſon which ought to be inſerted therein, ſuch Captain or Agent ſhall forfeit and loſe the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Special Wardens may require Chief Captains of Mines, or Agents of Blowing Houſes, to return Liſts of the Miners employed, &c.

Penalty of 50l. for omitting Names in ſuch Liſts.

XII. And be it further enacted, That after ſuch Return ſhall have been made, and ſuch Liſts amended and made complete as aforeſaid, the ſaid Special Deputy Wardens, within their reſpective Subdiviſions, ſhall, at Subdiviſion Meetings to be holden for that Purpoſe, appoint what Number of Men ſhall ſerve for each Subdiviſion, that is to ſay, one Man in ſeven for all the Men contained in the amended Liſts for ſuch Subdiviſion; and ſhall further proceed to appoint what Number of Men ſo to be appointed to ſerve for ſuch Subdiviſion ſhall ſerve for each Pariſh and Place within ſuch Subdiviſion, in Proportion to the Numbers appointed to ſerve for ſuch Subdiviſion; and ſhall appoint another Meeting to be holden within the ſame Subdiviſion, as ſoon as conveniently may be, and within three Weeks from the Day of the prior Meeting, and ſhall iſſue an Order to the Chief Conſtables or other Officers of the reſpective Hundreds and Places within ſuch Subdiviſions, requiring them to give Notice to the Conſtable, Tythingman, or other Officer of every Pariſh or Place within their reſpective Hundreds and Places, of the Time and Place of the next Subdiviſion Meeting; and the ſaid Special Deputy Wardens, or any two of them, at ſuch Subdiviſion Meeting, ſhall cauſe the Number of Men appointed to ſerve as aforeſaid to be choſen by Ballot out of the Duplicate of the Liſt returned for every Pariſh and Place, and amended as aforeſaid, in the ſame Manner as Men are choſen by Ballot to ſerve in the Militia in England; and ſhall appoint another Meeting to be holden in the ſame Subdiviſion, as ſoon as conveniently may be, and within three Weeks after ſuch prior Meeting, and ſhall iſſue an Order to the Chief Conſtables, or other Officers of the ſeveral Hundreds or Places within ſuch Subdiviſion, to direct the Conſtable or other Officer of every Pariſh or Place to give Notice to each Man ſo choſen to ſerve as aforeſaid, to appear at ſuch Meeting ſo to be appointed, which Notice ſhall be given to him, or left at his Place of Abode, at leaſt ſeven Days before ſuch Meeting; and ſuch Conſtable or other Officer ſhall attend ſuch Meeting, and make a Return on Oath of the Service of ſuch Notice; and every Perſon ſo choſen by Ballot ſhall, upon ſuch Notice, appear at ſuch Meeting, and there take the following Oath; that is to ſay,

After Liſts are completed, Special Wardens ſhall at Subdiviſion Meetings appoint the Number of Men to ſerve for each Subdiviſion, and for each Place therein, and appoint another Meeting within three Weeks for chooſing the Men by Ballot, &c.

and another within 3 Weeks after, when the Men choſen ſhall appear and take the following

Oath;

'I A. B. do ſincerely promiſe and ſwear, That I will be faithful and bear true Allegiance to his Majeſty King George; and I do ſwear, That I will faithfully ſerve in the Regiment of Miners of the Counties of Cornwall and Devon, within the Kingdom of Great Britain, for the Defence of the ſame, during the preſent War, and for the Space of ſix Calendar Months after the End thereof.'

and be enrolled.

And every ſuch Perſon ſhall be enrolled (in a Roll to be then and there prepared for that Purpoſe) to ſerve in the ſaid Regiment during the preſent War, and for the Space of ſix Calendar Months after the End thereof.

XIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That any Perſon ſo choſen by Ballot may produce a Subſtitute, who, if approved, may be enrolled and ſworn in the ſame Manner as Subſtitutes may be ſworn and enrolled in the Caſe of Men choſen by Ballot to ſerve in the Supplementary Militia in that Part of Great Britain called England.

Perſons ballotted may produce Subſtitutes, who may be enrolled.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That if through any Neglect or Miſtake, or from any other Cauſe, the full Number of Men appointed for any Subdiviſion ſhould not be duly enrolled at the Meeting appointed for that Purpoſe, then the ſaid Special Deputy Wardens, or any two or more of them, at their ſaid Meeting, or at ſome ſubſequent Meeting, are hereby required immediately to proceed to a freſh Ballot, and to adjourn their Meeting, and appoint other Meetings, and amend the Liſts, and repeat the amending of Liſts as may be neceſſary and expedient for carrying the Purpoſes of this Act duly and fully into Execution, in the ſame Manner as Deputy Lieutenants may do for the like Purpoſes by the Laws in force concerning the Militia.

If the full Number of Men for any Subdiviſion ſhall not be enrolled, a freſh Ballot to be taken.

XV. And be it further enacted, That it ſhall be lawful for any one Special Deputy Warden or Juſtice of the Peace to adminiſter the Oath hereinbefore required to be taken, either to any Perſon ballotted, or to any Perſon who ſhall offer to ſerve as a Subſtitute; and ſuch Special Deputy Warden, or Juſtice of the Peace, is hereby authorized to direct and require the Clerk of the Subdiviſion for which every ſuch Perſon is to ſerve,

A Deputy Warden or Juſtice may adminiſter Oaths, and direct the Clerk to enrol the Perſons ſworn.

serve, to enrol in the Roll of such Subdivision the Name of such Person, together with the Day on which the said Oath was so administered to such Person.

Persons chosen by Ballot not appearing or providing Substitutes, shall forfeit 15l. and be liable to serve on a new Ballot, and if Penalty be not paid, shall be compellable to serve, or treated as Deserters.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person chosen by Ballot as aforesaid shall refuse or neglect to appear, and take the Oath aforesaid, and serve in the said Regiment, or provide a Substitute, who shall take the said Oath and be enrolled according to the Provisions herein contained, every such Person so refusing or neglecting shall forfeit and pay the Sum of fifteen Pounds, and be liable, whenever a Ballot shall again take place under the Authority of this Act, to serve in the said Regiment, or provide a Substitute; and in Default of Payment of such Penalty as aforesaid, or for Want of sufficient Effects whereon to levy the same, the Name of such Person shall be entered on the Roll, and such Person shall be delivered over to the proper Officer of the Regiment, and shall be compelled to serve in the said Regiment in the same Manner as if he had appeared, and been duly sworn and enrolled, and shall be subject to the same Punishment for afterwards absconding or deserting, as he would have been subject to in case he had appeared, and been duly sworn and enrolled: Provided always, That if any Person so ballotted to serve in the said Regiment shall be one of the People called Quakers, the same Proceedings shall be had with respect to such Person as may be had with respect to a Quaker ballotted to serve in the Militia in England; and all and every the Provisions with respect to the People called Quakers in the several Acts concerning the Militia Forces of England, shall be carried into Execution in the levying of Men to be raised by virtue of this Act, in the same Manner, and as fully and amply as if the same had been repeated and enacted in the Body of this Act.

Quakers ballotted, to be proceeded with as Quakers ballotted for the Militia.

Lists of two Places may be added together.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Special Deputy Wardens, or any two or more of them, within their respective Subdivisions, to add together the Lists of two or more Parishes or Places within such Subdivision, and proceed upon such Lists added together in the same Manner as if such Lists had been originally returned for one Parish or Place, so as to make the Choice of Men by Ballot within every Parish and Place in each Subdivision as equal as possible.

If Lists be lost, &c. the Deputy Wardens may cause new Lists to be made out.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That if the List of any Parish or Place shall be lost or destroyed, it shall be lawful for the said Special Deputy Wardens, or any two or more of them, to cause a new List of such Parish or Place to be made and returned to them at their next or any subsequent Subdivision Meeting, and to enforce the Return thereof, and to proceed thereupon in the same Manner as they might have done upon the List so lost or destroyed if the same had not been lost or destroyed.

Establishment of the Regiment.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That the said Regiment shall consist of so many Companies (the Number of Men not being less than sixty Men in each Company) as his Majesty shall direct; and the Field Officers of such Regiment shall be one Colonel, one Lieutenant Colonel, two Majors, and no more, unless the private Men ballotted to serve in the said Regiment, and sworn and enrolled, shall exceed twelve hundred Men, in which Case the said Regiment shall be formed into two Battalions, each Battalion having two Field Officers; that is to say, one Lieutenant Colonel and one Major, and the two Battalions shall form one Regiment, to be commanded by the Colonel; and there shall also be one Captain, one Lieutenant, and one Ensign to each Company, such Companies containing sixty Men at the least in each Company: Provided always, That it shall be lawful for the said Regiment to have one Company of Grenadiers and one of Light Infantry, to each of which Companies two Lieutenants shall be appointed instead of a Lieutenant and Ensign; and it shall be lawful for the said Warden, if he shall think fit, with the Approbation of his Majesty, to be the Colonel of the said Regiment, instead of appointing another Person to be Colonel thereof.

The Warden may be the Colonel.

The Officers to have the same Qualification as for the Supplementary Militia, under 37 Geo. 3. c. 3. &c.

XX. And be it further enacted, That the Lieutenant Colonel or Lieutenant Colonels, and other Officers of the said Regiment, shall be Persons having the like Qualifications as by the Act, passed in the thirty-seventh Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for providing an Augmentation to the Militia, to be trained and exercised in the Manner therein directed; and for enabling his Majesty to cause the same to be embodied, in case of Necessity, for the Defence of these Kingdoms; or by any other Act of Parliament respecting the Supplementary Militia, is required for Officers of the same Rank serving in the said Supplementary Militia for the said Counties of Cornwall and Devon.

His Majesty may appoint an Adjutant from the Regulars, the Militia, or the Volunteer Corps.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That his Majesty may appoint one proper Person, or in case the said Regiment shall be formed into two Battalions, two proper Persons, who shall have served, or shall, at the Time of such Appointment, actually serve in some of his Majesty's Forces, or in some Body of Militia, or some Volunteer Corps, to be Adjutant or Adjutants of the said Regiment; and such Adjutant or Adjutants shall and may have the like Privileges, Benefits, and Advantages, as an Adjutant appointed to any Body of Militia is entitled to by the Laws now in force concerning the Militia.

The Colonel to appoint a Regimental Clerk to act as Paymaster.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That the Colonel of the said Regiment shall appoint a Regimental Clerk, or in case the said Regiment shall be divided into two Battalions, shall appoint two Battalion Clerks, who shall execute the Office of Paymaster or Paymasters, in the same Manner, and with the like Benefits, as Persons appointed to the like Offices by the Colonels or Commanding Officers of Regiments or Battalions of Militia.

The Serjeants, Corporals, and Drummers to be appointed as to Militia Regiments.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That Serjeants, Corporals, and Drummers shall be appointed to the said Regiment, in the same Manner as Serjeants, Corporals, and Drummers, are appointed to Militia Regiments; and such Serjeants and Corporals shall take the same Oath to serve in the said Regiment of Miners as Serjeants and Corporals of Militia are, by the said Act of the twenty-sixth of his Majesty's Reign, required to take to serve in the Militia, changing only what ought to be changed.

The Provisions of 26 Geo. 3. c. 107. and other Acts concerning the Militia Forces in England, for holding Meetings, &c. to extend to this Act, so far as applicable.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Provisions contained in the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign, and in any other Act of Parliament concerning the Militia Forces of England, for holding the several General and Subdivision Meetings of Lieutenancy of the several Counties and Places therein mentioned, and appointing new or other Meetings, and for procuring and compelling Returns, and proceeding thereon, and for ballotting Men to serve in the said Militia; and all and every the Powers, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, Bounties, Allowances, Clauses, Matters, and Things contained in the said Act of the twenty-sixth Year of his Majesty's Reign, or in any other Act of Parliament now in force relative to the raising, training, embodying, and calling out the said Militia, or providing for the Families of Militia Men called out, or in any Act respecting the paying, cloathing, or subsisting the Militia, or touching the billetting the said Militia, or otherwise touching such Militia, shall be applied, practised, and put in Execution with respect to the Regiment hereby directed to be raised, in as full and ample Manner as if all and every such Powers, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Penalties, Forfeitures, Bounties, and Allowances, Clauses, Matters, and Things had been again repeated and enacted in this Act, so far as the same respectively are applicable to the Provisions of this Act, and are not repugnant to or altered thereby.

Maintenance of Men's Families, and Bounties, under this Act, to be repaid out of the County Rates.

XXV. Provided always nevertheless, and be it enacted, That all and every the Sums of Money which, according to the Provisions made by Law for the Maintenance of the Families of Militia Men, and by virtue of this Act, shall be paid for the Maintenance of the Families of Men serving in pursuance of this Act, and all and every the Bounties to be paid under this Act, shall be repaid to every such Parish or Place out of the general Rates of the County by the Treasurer of the County in which such Parish or Place shall happen to be, in pursuance of any Order by one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace, to be made for that Purpose.

CAP. LXXVI.

An Act for the better Protection of the Trade of this Kingdom; and for granting new and additional Duties of Customs on Goods imported and exported, and on the Tonnage of certain Ships entering Outwards or Inwards to or from Foreign Parts, until the signing the preliminary Articles of Peace.—[28th June 1798.]

'Most gracious Sovereign,

'WHEREAS it will add to the Security of Trade to prevent Ships sailing without Convoy, except in 'certain Cases: And whereas it is expedient that certain Duties should be imposed, in order to defray the extraordinary Expence arising from the Protection given to the increased and extensive Commerce of these Kingdoms: We, therefore, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons 'of Great Britain in Parliament assembled, have resolved to grant to your Majesty the Duties hereinafter 'mentioned; and for the Purposes aforesaid, beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted,' and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, it shall not be lawful for any Ship or Vessel belonging to any of his Majesty's Subjects (except as is hereinafter provided) to sail or depart from any Port or Place whatever, unless under the Convoy and Protection of such Ship or Ships, Vessel or Vessels, as shall or may be appointed for that Purpose.

From July 5, 1798, no Vessel belonging to his Majesty's Subjects (except as herein provided) to sail without Convoy. (See § 6. 8. 12. for the Exceptions.)

Masters of Vessels not to separate from Convoy without Leave.

II. And be it further enacted, That the Master or other Person having the Charge or Command of every such Ship or Vessel which shall sail or depart under the Protection of Convoy, shall and is hereby required to use his utmost Endeavours to continue with such Convoy during the Whole of the Voyage, or during such Part thereof as such Convoy shall be directed to accompany and protect such Ship or Vessel, and shall not wilfully separate or depart therefrom upon any Pretence whatever, without Order or Leave for that Purpose from the Officer having the Command of such Convoy.

III. And

If a Master sails without Convoy, or separates from it without Leave, he shall forfeit 1000l., and if any Part of the Cargo be Naval or Military Stores, 1500l.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Master or other Person having the Charge or Command of any such Ship or Vessel which by this Act is required not to sail or depart without Convoy, shall, contrary to the Directions contained in this Act, sail or depart from any Port or Place whatever (except as hereinafter is provided) without such Convoy as shall be appointed for that Purpose, or shall afterwards desert or wilfully separate or depart from such Convoy without Leave obtained from the Captain or other Officer in his Majesty's Navy, entrusted with the Charge of such Convoy, before such Ship or Vessel shall have arrived at the Port or Place of her Destination, or so far on her Voyage as such Convoy shall be directed to accompany and protect such Ship or Vessel, every such Master or other Person having the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, shall forfeit, for every such Offence, the Sum of one thousand Pounds; and in case the Whole or any Part of the Cargo of any such Ship or Vessel shall consist of Naval or Military Stores, every Master or other Person having the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel so loaden with Naval or Military Stores, who shall sail or depart without such Convoy as aforesaid, or shall afterwards desert, or wilfully separate or depart from such Convoy without Leave obtained as aforesaid, shall forfeit, for every such Offence, the Sum of one thousand five hundred Pounds: Provided nevertheless, That it shall be lawful for the Court out of which the Record for the Trial of any Action or Suit for the Recovery of any such Penalty shall issue, to mitigate or lessen the same as the said Court in their Discretion shall think fit, having Regard to the Circumstances of the Case and the Value of the Ship and Cargo, so as by such Mitigation the Penalty be not made less than fifty Pounds.

Penalty may be mitigated.

If a Vessel sail without Convoy, or separate from it without Leave, the Insurances shall be void with respect to the Property of the Master or any Person interested who is privy to the Offence: and if any Person shall transact a Settlement thereon, or allow any Money on Account of Loss, he shall forfeit 200l.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in case any such Ship or Vessel shall sail or depart without Convoy, or shall afterwards desert or wilfully separate or depart from such Convoy, contrary to the Provisions of this Act, every Policy of Insurance, or Contract or Agreement for any Insurance upon such Ship or Vessel, or upon any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, laden or to be laden on board thereof, or upon any Property, Freight, or other Interest arising out of the same, whereon Insurances may lawfully be made, (and which shall be the Property of the Master or other Person having the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel so sailing without Convoy, or wilfully quitting the same, or of any Person interested in such Ship or Vessel, or Cargo, who shall have directed, or have been any way privy to, or instrumental in, causing such Ship or Vessel to sail without Convoy, or wilfully separating therefrom,) shall be null and void, to all Intents and Purposes, both at Law and in Equity, any Contract or Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding; and that nothing shall be recovered thereon by the Assured for Loss or Damage, or for the Premium, or Consideration in the Nature of a Premium, which shall have been given for such Insurance; and if any Party to such Insurance, his, her, or their Executors or Administrators, any Broker, Agent, or other Person, shall knowingly make or effect, or procure to be made or effected, or shall negotiate or transact any Settlement upon such Insurance, or pay or allow in Account, or agree to pay or allow in Account or otherwise, any Sum or Sums of Money upon any Loss, Peril, or Contingency, relative to any such Insurance, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

Officers of the Customs not to permit Vessels to be cleared Outwards, until the Master has given Bond not to sail without Convoy, and not to separate from it.

V. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Officer or Officers of his Majesty's Customs, to permit or suffer any Ship or Vessel which is by this Act required not to sail or depart without Convoy, to be cleared Outwards from any Port or Place in Great Britain to Foreign Parts, until the Master or other Person having the Charge or Command of such Ship or Vessel, shall have given Bond to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, with one sufficient Surety, in the Penalty of the Value of such Ship or Vessel, which Bond shall be taken by the Collector or other principal Officer of the Customs at such Port or Place, who is hereby authorized and required to take such Security, with Condition that such Ship or Vessel shall not sail or depart without Convoy, contrary to the Directions contained in this Act, and shall not afterwards desert, or wilfully separate or depart from such Convoy without Leave obtained from the Captain or other Officer in his Majesty's Navy, entrusted with the Charge of such Convoy, before such Ship or Vessel shall have arrived at her Port or Place of Destination, or so far on her Voyage as such Convoy shall be appointed to accompany and protect such Ship or Vessel.

Act not to extend to Ships not required to be registered; nor to Ships licensed by the Admiralty, &c.; nor to Ships proceeding to join Convoy; nor to Ships bound to or from Ireland; nor to Coasters; nor to Ships of the East India or Hudson's Bay Company.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained, by which Ships or Vessels are required not to sail or depart without Convoy, shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Ship or Vessel which is not required to be registered, by any Act or Acts of Parliament in Force on or immediately before the passing of this Act; or to any Ship or Vessel for which a Licence shall be granted to sail or depart without Convoy, either by the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or by such Person or Persons as shall be duly authorized by him or them, or any three or more of them, for that Purpose; or to any Ship or Vessel proceeding with due Diligence to join Convoy from the Port or Place at which the same shall be cleared Outwards, in case such Convoy shall be appointed to sail from some other Port or Place, except nevertheless as to the Bond hereby required to be taken upon the Clearance Outwards of such Ship or Vessel; or to any Ship or Vessel bound to or from any Port or Place within the Kingdom of Ireland; or to any Ship or Vessel bound from any Port or Place within the Kingdom of Great Britain, to any other Port or Place within the same; or to any Ship or Vessel belonging to, or hired by, or in the Service or Employ of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or the Hudson's Bay Company.

VII. Pro-

VII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Fee, Gratuity, or Reward, shall be demanded or received for any Licence granted in pursuance or under the Authority of this Act.

No Fee to be taken for Licences to sail without Convoy.

VIII. Provided also, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Ship or Vessel sailing or departing without Convoy from any Foreign Port or Place, nor to subject the Master thereof, or any other Person, to any of the Rules, Regulations, Provisions, Penalties, or Forfeitures, hereby prescribed, directed, and imposed, in case there shall not be any Convoy appointed for such Ships or Vessels, nor any Person or Persons at such Foreign Port or Place, duly authorized by the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral for the Time being, or any three or more of them, to appoint Convoys for such Ships or Vessels, or to grant Licences to such Ships or Vessels to sail or depart without Convoy.

Act not to extend to Vessels sailing from Foreign Ports, &c. if there shall not be any Convoy appointed.

IX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or such Person as shall be duly authorized by him or them, or any three or more of them, for that Purpose, to give Notice that all Masters and other Persons having the Charge or Command of any Ships or Vessels which are by this Act required not to sail or depart without Convoy, shall have on board their respective Ships or Vessels such Flags, Vanes, or other Materials as shall be necessary for the Purpose of distinguishing such Ships or Vessels, and of enabling such Masters or other Persons to answer the Signal or Signals made by the Captain or other Officer in his Majesty's Navy intrusted with the Care of such Convoy; such Flags, Vanes, or other Materials to be provided by such Masters and other Persons having the Charge and Command of any Ships or Vessels which are required by this Act not to sail without Convoy; which Notice shall be inserted in the London Gazette, and transmitted to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England and Scotland, in order to the same being by them sent to the Principal Officers of the Customs at the several Ports for the Information of the Persons concerned, and that after such Notice no such Ship or Vessel shall be permitted to be cleared Outwards until it shall appear, to the Satisfaction of the proper Officer of the Customs, that the Ship is provided with such Flags, Vanes, or other Materials.

Admiralty to give Notice in the Gazette, &c. that Masters shall have on board Flags to answer Signals, without which they shall not not be cleared Outwards.

X. And be it further enacted, That so much of an Act, passed in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Seamen, and for the better and more effectually Manning his Majesty's Navy, as enacts, That if the Captain of any Merchant Ship under Convoy shall wilfully disobey Signals or Instructions, or any other lawful Commands of the Commander of the Convoy, or shall desert the Convoy without Notice given and Leave obtained for that Purpose, he shall be liable to be articled against in the High Court of Admiralty, at the Suit of the Crown, for Disobedience to the Orders of the Convoy, and upon Conviction thereof shall be fined, at the Discretion of the said Court, in any Sum not exceeding five hundred Pounds, and shall suffer such Imprisonment, not exceeding one Year, as the said Court shall adjudge, shall be painted on a Board, and affixed on some conspicuous and convenient Part of every Ship or Vessel which by this Act is required not to sail or depart without Convoy; and that in Default thereof every Master or other Person, having the Charge or Command of any such Ship or Vessel, shall forfeit, for every such Offence, the Sum of fifty Pounds.

So much of 33 Geo. 3. c 66. as makes Captains under Convey liable to be articled in the Court of Admiralty for disobeying Signals, &c. shall be painted on a Board and affixed on some conspicuous Part of every Vessel required to sail with Convoy, on Penalty of 50 l.

XI. And be it further enacted, That if any Ship or Vessel, which by this Act is required not to sail or depart without Convoy, shall be in imminent Danger of being boarded or taken Possession of by the Enemy, the Master, or other Person having the Charge or Command of such Ship, shall make Signals, by firing Guns, or otherwise, to convey Information of his Danger to the Rest of the Convoy, as well as to the Ships of War under the Protection of which he is sailing; and that in case of such Ship being boarded and taken Possession of, he shall destroy all Instructions confided to him relating to the Convoy; and every Master, or Person having the Charge and Command of such Vessel, who shall neglect to make such Signals, or shall wilfully omit to destroy such Instructions as before mentioned, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit a Sum not exceeding the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Masters of Vessels in Danger of being boarded by an Enemy, to make Signals to the Rest of the Convoy, and if boarded, to destroy Instructions, on Penalty of 100 l.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained with respect to Ships or Vessels sailing or departing without Convoy, or afterwards deserting, or wilfully separating or departing from such Convoy, shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Ship or Vessel which shall sail or depart from the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, or either of them, for or on Account of such Sailing or Departure, on or before the fifth Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, or from any other Port or Place in Europe, on or before the fifth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, or from any other Port or Place in the West Indies, or any other Part of America, on or before the fifth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, or from any Port or Place in Africa or Asia, on or before the fifth Day of November one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight.

Time of Commencement of Act as to Vessels sailing from Guernsey, &c. Aug 5; from any other Port in Europe, Sept. 5; in the West Indies or America, Oct. 5; and in Africa or Asia, Nov. 5, 1798.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That one Moiety of all pecuniary Penalties and Forfeitures hereby imposed, as far as the same relate to Ships or Vessels sailing without Convoy, or wilfully separating or departing from such Convoy, or to Insurances, shall (if sued for within the Space of one Year from the Time of Recovery and Application of Penalties; if sued for within 12 Months, half to the Crown and half to the Informer;

of any such Penalty or Forfeiture being incurred) be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety thereof, with full Costs of Suit, to the Person or Persons who shall inform or sue for the same within the Time aforesaid, and which shall and may be sued for in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster for Offences committed in England, or at Sea, or in Parts beyond the Seas, and in his Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Edinburgh for Offences committed in Scotland, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Essoin, Privilege, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance shall be allowed; and in Default of Prosecution within the Time hereinbefore limited, no such Penalty or Forfeiture shall be afterwards recoverable, except in the Name of his Majesty's Attorney General in England or Advocate in Scotland, by Information in the respective Courts aforesaid, in which case the Whole of such Penalty or Forfeiture shall belong to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors; and that all Penalties and Forfeitures, and Shares of Penalties and Forfeitures incurred as aforesaid, belonging to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall be paid into the Hands of the Receiver General of his Majesty's Customs in England and Scotland respectively, for the Time being, and be appropriated and applied in the same Manner, and to the same Uses and Purposes, as the Duty of Tonnage on Ships by this Act imposed is directed to be appropriated and applied.

afterwards wholly to the Crown, to be applied to the Purposes of this Act.

His Majesty's Attorney General in England and Advocate in Scotland may stop Proceedings on Prosecutions.

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any such Prosecution shall be commenced by any Person or Persons for the Recovery of any such Penalty or Forfeiture as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty's Attorney General in England or Advocate in Scotland, in case it shall appear to their Satisfaction respectively that such Penalty or Forfeiture was incurred without any Intention of Fraud, to stop all further Proceedings on every such Prosecution, as well with respect to the Share of such Penalty or Forfeiture to which any such Person may claim to be entitled, as to the Share thereof belonging to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, upon such Terms nevertheless, as to Costs and otherwise, as such Attorney General or Advocate shall think reasonable.

From July 5, 1798, the additional Duties of Customs in the annexed Tables, A. B. C. and D. to be paid; (except on Articles mentioned at the End of § 17; and see § 20, 24, 25, 26.)

XV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, upon any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize imported or brought into the Kingdom of Great Britain from Foreign Parts, and upon any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize exported from the Kingdom of Great Britain to Foreign Parts, the several new and additional Duties of Customs as the same are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in Figures in the Tables hereunto annexed, marked (A.), (B.), (C.), and (D.), except as hereinafter is provided.

Where, by Table (A.), the Duties are charged according to Value, it shall be taken as at the Port of Importation, deducting Duties, and ascertained according to 27 Geo. 3. c. 13.; and if not truly valued, the Goods may be detained by the Officers of the Customs, &c.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where by the Table hereunto annexed, marked (A.), the new and additional Duties of Customs by this Act imposed upon the Importation of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize into this Kingdom, are charged not according to the Weight, Tale, Gauge, or Measure, but according to the Value thereof, such Value shall be taken and considered as the same shall be at the Port of Importation, without any Abatement or Deduction whatever, except of so much as the Duties payable on the Importation thereof by this or any other Act of Parliament shall amount to; and that such Value shall be ascertained, except as hereinafter is provided, by the Declaration of the Importer or Proprietor of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, so imported, or of his known Agent or Factor, in the Manner and Form, and under all the Rules and Regulations, and subject to the same Forfeitures and Penalties as are prescribed, directed, and imposed for ascertaining and collecting the Duties to be paid according to the Value thereof, by an Act passed in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for repealing the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and for other Purposes; and in case such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, shall not be valued according to the true and real Value thereof, and according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, then it shall be lawful for the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs to cause the same to be detained, and the said Goods, Wares, or Merchandize shall be dealt with, and the proper Officers of the Customs shall proceed in every Respect in the Manner prescribed in such Case by the said recited Act.

If the real Value cannot be ascertained without the Goods being landed and examined, a Deposit to secure the new Duties may be made, and when ascertained the Duties to be paid before Delivery of the Goods; and if their Value cannot be ascertained

XVII. And be it further enacted, That if upon the Importation of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, on which the new and additional Duties of Customs hereby imposed are charged in the Table hereunto annexed, marked (A.), according to the Value thereof, the Importer or Proprietor of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, his known Agent or Factor, shall not be able to make an Entry of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, according to the true and real Value thereof, without the same being landed and examined, such Importer, Proprietor, Agent, or Factor, shall, upon making Oath before the Collector or Comptroller of the Customs at the Port of Importation, that he is not enabled to ascertain the true and real Value thereof in the Manner hereinbefore prescribed, be at Liberty to make a Deposit sufficient to secure the new and additional Duties hereby imposed, and the Value of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, shall in such Case, as soon as may be after the Examination thereof, be ascertained by the Declaration of such Importer, Proprietor, Agent, or Factor, in the Manner and subject to the Rules, Regulations, Forfeitures, and Penalties, hereinbefore directed, and the said new and additional Duties shall be paid (except as hereinafter is provided) before the Delivery of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize; and if the Value of any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, imported into this Kingdom, cannot, after Examination thereof, be ascertained, so as to enable the Importer or Proprietor thereof, or his known Agent or Factor, to make an Entry according to the true and real Value thereof, without the said Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, being publicly sold, and the same shall be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, or any three or more of them, in England or Scotland respectively, the said Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, after Payment of the Duties charged thereon by any former Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the passing of this Act, shall and may be delivered for the Purpose of being so publicly sold, such Deposit being made as aforesaid, and the Entry of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize shall in such Case be completed within seven Days after such Sale, and the new and additional Duties hereby imposed shall be paid upon the Value thereof, according to the Price at which such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize shall have been so publicly sold, without any Abatement or Deduction whatever, except of so much as the Duties payable on the Importation thereof, by this or any other Act of Parliament, shall amount to, such Price to be ascertained by the Oath of the Importer or Proprietor of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, or of his known Agent or Factor, before the Collector or Comptroller of the Customs at the Port of Importation: Provided always, That nothing in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend, to charge with the new and additional Duties of Customs hereby imposed, the following Articles; that is to say, Bullion imported or exported, fresh Fish, British taken, and imported in British-built Ships or Vessels owned, navigated, and registered according to Law, Turbots and Lobsters however taken or imported, Corn or Grain imported, Sugar imported from any Part of the United States of America, and Warehoused Sugar having been so imported and warehoused, exported from such Warehouse, Cinnamon, Cloves, Mace, or Nutmegs, Furs and Skins of the Produce of and imported from any British Colony or Plantation in America, Spanish Wool imported, Tobacco, Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, or Rice, imported and warehoused, unless and until such Tobacco, Sugar, Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, or Rice, shall be taken out of such Warehouse for the Purpose of being used or consumed in this Kingdom, in which Case the said new and additional Duties shall be paid to the proper Officer of the Customs, before such Tobacco, Coffee, Cocoa Nuts, or Rice, shall be delivered out of such Warehouse, for the Purpose of being so used or consumed in this Kingdom.

without being sold, they may be delivered for that Purpose on Payment of the former Duties, &c.

Duties not to extend to certain Articles, nor to Tobacco, &c. imported and warehoused until taken out for Home Consumption.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That in Cases where by the Table hereunto annexed, marked (B.), the new and additional Duties of Customs hereby imposed upon Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, are charged, not according to the Weight, Tale, Gauge, or Measure, but according to the Value thereof, such Value shall be ascertained by the Gross Price at which such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, shall be sold at the public Sales of the said Company, and the said new and additional Duties shall be paid thereon as the same are inserted, described, and set forth in the said Table marked (B.).

Where, by Table (B.), the Duties upon Goods imported by the East India Company are charged according to the Value, it shall be ascertained by the Gross Price at their public Sales.

XIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the new and additional Duties of Customs hereby imposed upon Goods, Wares, and Merchandize imported by the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, shall be due and payable upon all such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, as shall, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, be sold at the public Sales of the said Company; and shall be paid or secured in such Manner, and at such Times, and subject to such Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, as are prescribed and directed, with respect to the Payment of any former Duties imposed by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the passing of this Act, upon such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, respectively imported by the said Company.

Additional Duties on Goods imported by the East India Company, to be payable on all sold at their public Sales from July 5, 1798.

XX. Provided also, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to charge with the new and additional Duties of Customs hereby imposed, any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, which are already, or shall be imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, on or before the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight.

Additional Duties not chargeable on Goods imported by the East India Company, on or before July 5, 1798.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That the Value of all Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, imported or brought into this Kingdom, and condemned as Prize, and on which the new and additional Duties of Customs are by this Act imposed and charged in the Table hereunto annexed, marked (A.), not according to the Weight, Tale, Gauge, or Measure, but according to the Value thereof, shall be ascertained by the Gross Price at which such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, shall be publicly sold, without any Deduction or Abatement whatever.

Where, by Table (A.), Prize Goods are to be charged according to their Value, it shall be ascertained at the Gross Price at which publicly sold.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where by the Table hereunto annexed, marked (C.), the new and additional Duties of Customs by this Act imposed upon the Exportation of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize from this Kingdom, are charged not according to the Weight, Tale, Gauge, or Measure, but according to the Value thereof, such Value shall be taken and considered as the same shall be at the Port of Exportation, without any Deduction or Abatement whatever, except of so much as the Duties of Customs and Excise paid or payable by this or any other Act of Parliament on any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize shall amount to; and that such Value shall be ascertained (except as hereinafter is provided) by the Declaration of the Exporter or Proprietor of such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize,

Where, by Table (C.), the Duties on the Exportation of Goods are charged according to the Value, it shall be taken as at the Port of Exportation, deducting the Duties; and if not truly valued they may be detained by the Officers of the Customs, &c. (See the next Clause.)

or of his known Agent or Factor, in the Manner and Form, and under all the Rules and Regulations, and subject to the same Forfeitures and Penalties as are prescribed, directed, and imposed, for ascertaining and collecting the Duties to be paid according to the Value thereof, by an Act passed in the twenty seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for repealing the several Duties of Customs and Excise, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof, and for other Purposes; and in case such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize shall not be valued according to the true and real Value thereof, and according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, then it shall be lawful for the proper Officer or Officers of the Customs to cause the same to be detained; and the said Goods, Wares, or Merchandize shall be dealt with, and the proper Officers of the Customs shall proceed in every Respect in the Manner prescribed in such Case by the said recited Act.

If on Entry of such Goods for Exportation, the Exporter cannot ascertain the true Value, they may be exported, on giving Bond in treble the Amount of the supposed Value, to pay the Duties in three Months, &c.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That if at the Time of making the Entry for the Exportation of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, on which the new and additional Duties of Customs hereby imposed, are charged in the Table hereunto annexed, marked (C.), according to the Value thereof, the Exporter or Proprietor of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize so entered for Exportation, his known Agent or Factor, shall not be able to ascertain the true and real Value thereof, such Exporter, Proprietor, Agent, or Factor shall, upon making Oath thereof before the Collector or Comptroller of the Customs at the Port of Exportation, be permitted to ship and export such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, upon giving Bond to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, with one sufficient Surety, in treble the Amount of the supposed or estimated Duty on the Value of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, conditioned for the Payment of the new and additional Duties hereby imposed, within three Calendar Months, according to the true and real Value thereof, to be ascertained in the Manner hereinbefore directed, and for producing the Invoice and Bills of Parcels, and such other Documents as shall be required by the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, or any three or more of them, in England and Scotland respectively, in case the Production thereof shall be thought necessary by the said Commissioners respectively, for the Purpose of ascertaining the true and real Value of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize so exported as aforesaid.

New Duties not chargeable on Goods of the Production of Ireland imported from thence into this Kingdom, nor Goods exported to Ireland, nor to Goods imported from, or exported to Hudson's Bay by the Company, nor to certain Goods from Guernsey, &c.

XXIV. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to charge with the new and additional Duties of Customs hereby imposed, any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of the Kingdom of Ireland, imported directly from thence into this Kingdom; nor to charge with the said new and additional Duties any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize whatsoever, exported from this Kingdom to the Kingdom of Ireland; or any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize imported from, or exported to Hudson's Bay by the Hudson's Bay Company; nor to charge with the new and additional Duties of Customs by this Act imposed, any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, of the Growth, Produce, or Manufacture, of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, upon the Importation thereof into the Kingdom of Great Britain directly from the said Islands respectively, in case such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, were allowed by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force, on or immediately before the passing of this Act, to be imported without the Payment of any Customs or other Duties, except such Excise or other Duty as is now or shall hereafter for the Time being be due and payable for the like Goods of the Growth, Produce, and Manufacture of Great Britain; but that all such Goods, Wares, and Merchandize, may be so imported as aforesaid, if accompanied by the proper Certificates, without Payment of the said new and additional Duties, subject nevertheless to all the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, to which the same are liable when imported from the said Islands without Payment of the Customs or other Duties as aforesaid under the Authority of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the passing of this Act.

Act not to extend to Goods exported to the Isle of Man, by Authority of the Commissioners of Customs, nor to exported Cotton Manufacture of Great Britain;

XXV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to charge with the new and additional Duties of Customs hereby imposed, any Goods, Wares, or Merchandizes exported from this Kingdom to the Isle of Man, which shall be so exported by virtue and under the Authority of any Licence which the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or any three or more of them respectively, are or may be by Law authorized and empowered to grant; nor to charge with the said Duties any Cotton Yarn, or other Cotton Manufactures, being of the Manufacture of Great Britain, exported from this Kingdom to any Port or Place whatever.

nor to certain Articles exported to Newfoundland.

Importers of the Produce of the Newfoundland Fishery, directly from Newfoundland, may give Bond in treble the sup-

XXVI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to charge with the new and additional Duties of Customs hereby imposed, the following Articles exported from this Kingdom to the Island of Newfoundland; videlicet, Any Sort of Craft, Food, Victuals, Cloathing, or other Goods fit and necessary for the British Fishery established in the said Island, or for the Use or Support of the Mariners or other Persons employed on board the Vessels, or on Shore, in carrying on the said Fishery: Provided also, That it shall and may be lawful for the Importer, Proprietor, or Consignee, of any Fish, Oil, Blubber, Seal Skins, or other Produce of the British Newfoundland Fishery, imported into this Kingdom, directly from the Island of Newfoundland, to give Bond to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, with one sufficient Surety, in the Penalty of treble the Amount of the supposed or estimated Duty on such Fish, Oil, or other Produce as aforesaid, with Condition that such Fish, Oil, or other Produce of the said Fishery, shall be duly exported from this Kingdom, or that the new and additional Duties of Customs by this Act imposed on the Importation thereof, shall be paid within twelve Calendar Months from the Date of such Bond, which Bond shall be taken by the Collector of the Customs at the Port of Importation, who is hereby authorized and required to take such Bond.

or

posed Duty that it shall be exported, or that the additional Duties shall be paid in a Year.

XXVII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in all Cases where the new and additional Duties of Customs hereby imposed upon the Exportation of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, shall be paid down in ready Money at the Time of making the Entry, a Discount at and after the Rate of two Pounds and ten Shillings for every hundred Pounds of the Amount of such Duties shall be allowed and deducted therefrom.

On Payment of Duties on Entry for Exportation, a Discount of 2½ per Cent. to be allowed.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Exporter or Proprietor of any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize entered for Exportation, his known Agent or Factor, shall knowingly and fraudulently make any false Declaration of the Value of any such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, after the same shall have been allowed to be shipped for Exportation, every such Exporter, Proprietor, Agent, or Factor shall, for every such Offence, forfeit a Sum equal to the true and real Value of all such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize.

Persons making a false Declaration of the Value of Goods shipped for Exportation, to forfeit the true Value.

XXIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Fees due and payable by Law, at and immediately before the passing of this Act, upon any Entry or Cocket Inwards or Outwards, shall not be demanded or taken by or for the Use of any Officer of his Majesty's Customs, for any additional Entry required to be made on Account of the new and additional Duties imposed by this Act.

Fees not to be taken for any additional Entry on Account of new Duties.

XXX. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That no Bond to be taken in pursuance of this Act, shall be chargeable with any of the Duties upon stamped Vellum, Parchment, or Paper; any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

Bonds not chargeable with Stamp Duty.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That in case any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, upon which the said new and additional Duties of Customs are hereby imposed, shall be detained by any Officer of the Customs on Account of the same not being valued according to the true and real Value thereof, and according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England for the Time being, or any four or more of them, and the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in Scotland for the Time being, or any three or more of them, upon Proof being made to their Satisfaction that no Fraud was intended, to direct the Entry to be amended upon such Terms and Conditions as, under the Circumstances of the Case, shall appear to the said Commissioners of the Customs in England and Scotland respectively to be reasonable, and as they shall think fit to direct: Provided always, That if the Importer, Exporter, or Proprietor of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, shall accept the Terms or Conditions prescribed by the said Commissioners of the Customs respectively, such Importer, Exporter, or Proprietor shall not have or be entitled to any Recompence or Damage on Account of the Detention of such Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, or have or maintain any Action whatever for the same; any Law, Custom, or Usage, to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Commissioners of the Customs may order Entry to be amended of Goods detained on Account of not being duly valued, upon such Terms as they think fit, and if accepted the Proprietors shall not be entitled to Damages.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, the several Duties on Ships and Vessels, according to the Tonnage thereof, entering Outwards or Inwards at any Port within the Kingdom of Great Britain, to or from Foreign Parts, as the same are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in Figures in the Table hereunto annexed, marked (E.), except as hereinafter is provided.

From July 5, 1798, the Duties of Tonnage in Table (E.) to be paid on Vessels entering Outwards or Inwards in Great Britain, from Foreign Parts. (See Exceptions at the End of § 34.)

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That the several Duties of Tonnage hereby imposed on Ships and Vessels entering Outwards or Inwards to or from Foreign Parts, shall be due and payable to the proper Officer appointed to receive the same, each and every Voyage any such Ship or Vessel shall so enter Outwards or Inwards at any Port within the Kingdom of Great Britain; and that the Tonnage of every such Ship or Vessel shall be computed and taken according to the Register thereof, under the Provisions of an Act, passed in the twenty-sixth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the further Increase and Encouragement of Shipping and Navigation; and in case of any Doubt or Dispute relative thereto, the same shall be ascertained by Admeasurement, in the Mode and Manner prescribed and directed by the said Act.

Tonnage Duties payable every Voyage, and to be computed according to 26 Geo. 3. c. 60.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That no Ship or Vessel upon which the Tonnage Duty by this Act imposed is due and payable, shall be permitted to be cleared Inwards in any Port of this Kingdom, unless the said Tonnage Duty shall have been first duly paid to the proper Officer of the Customs appointed to receive the same; and in case such Duty shall not be so paid within thirty Days from the Report of any Ship or Vessel arriving from Foreign Parts, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England for the Time being, or any four or more of them, or for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in Scotland for the Time being, or any three or more of them, if they shall think fit, to cause such Ship or Vessel, and her Masts, Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture, to be detained, and afterwards sold publicly to the best Bidder, and the Produce thereof to be applied first to the Charges that shall arise by such Detention and Sale, next to the Tonnage Duty imposed by this Act, and the Overplus to be paid to the Proprietor of such Ship or Vessel, or other Person duly authorized by such Proprietor to receive

No Vessel to be cleared Inwards till the Tonnage Duty is paid, and if not paid within a limited Time, the Vessel, &c. may be detained and sold.

No Veſſel to be entered Outwards for Foreign Parts, unleſs the Tonnage Duty has been paid.

Tonnage Duty not to extend to Veſſels not required to be regiſtered, nor Veſſels in Ballaſt.

receive the ſame; and that it ſhall not be lawful for the Collector or other Officer of the Cuſtoms at any Port in this Kingdom, to permit any Ship or Veſſel to be entered Outwards for Foreign Parts, or any Cocket or Entry to paſs for any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize to be ſhipped on board any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, unleſs the Tonnage Duty hereby impoſed on ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall have been firſt duly paid: Provided always, That nothing in this Act ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to charge the Tonnage Duty hereby impoſed on any Britiſh-built Ship or Veſſel, or on any Ship or Veſſel owned by Britiſh Subjects, which is not required to be regiſtered by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the paſſing of this Act, or on any Ship or Veſſel whatever which ſhall enter Outwards or Inwards in Ballaſt only.

Duties to be under the Management of the Commiſſioners of Cuſtoms.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That ſuch of the new and additional Duties of Cuſtoms, and of the Duties of Tonnage by this Act impoſed, as ſhall ariſe in that Part of Great Britain called England, ſhall be under the Management of the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in England for the Time being; and ſuch thereof as ſhall ariſe in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, ſhall be under the Management of the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms in Scotland for the Time being.

Additional Duties to be managed as former Duties, and the Goods to be ſubject to the Rules to which Goods liable to Cuſtom Duties are ſubject.

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That the new and additional Duties of Cuſtoms hereby impoſed ſhall and may be managed, aſcertained, raiſed, levied, collected, anſwered, paid, ſecured, and recovered in ſuch and the like Manner, and in and by any and either of the Ways, Means, or Methods by which any of the Duties of Cuſtoms on Goods, Wares, or Merchandize impoſed and payable by the ſaid herein-before recited Act, paſſed in the twenty-ſeventh Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, or by any other Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the paſſing of this Act, were or might be managed, aſcertained, raiſed, levied, collected, anſwered, paid, ſecured, and recovered; and the Goods, Wares, and Merchandize ſo by this Act made chargeable with the ſaid new and additional Duties of Cuſtoms, ſhall be, and the ſame are hereby made ſubject and liable to all and every the Conditions, Regulations, Rules, Reſtrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures to which any Goods, Wares, or Merchandize upon which any Duties of Cuſtoms are impoſed and payable, were ſubject and liable by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the paſſing of this Act, and all and every Pain, Penalty, Fine, or Forfeiture for any Offence whatever committed againſt or in Breach of any Act or Acts of Parliament in force on or immediately before the paſſing of this Act, made for ſecuring the Revenue of Cuſtoms, or for the Regulation or Improvement thereof, and the ſeveral Clauſes, Powers, and Directions therein contained, ſhall and are hereby directed and declared to extend to, and ſhall be reſpectively applied, practiſed, and put in execution for and in reſpect of the new and additional Duties of Cuſtoms hereby charged, as far as the ſame are applicable thereto, in as full and ample a Manner, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatever, as if all and every the ſaid Acts, Clauſes, Proviſions, Powers, Directions, Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures were particularly repeated and re-enacted in the Body of this preſent Act.

Duties to be paid into the Exchequer ſeparate from other Monies.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies ariſing by the new and additional Duties of Cuſtoms, and the Duties of Tonnage impoſed by this Act, ſhall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, diſtinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenues; and that there ſhall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the ſaid Receipt of Exchequer, a Book or Books, in which all the Monies ariſing from the ſaid reſpective Duties, and paid into the ſaid Receipt as aforeſaid, ſhall be entered ſeparate and apart from all other Monies paid and payable to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, upon any Account whatever; and the ſaid Monies ſo paid into the ſaid Receipt, ſhall be ſubject and liable to the Uſes and Purpoſes hereinafter mentioned.

Application of Duties.

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies ariſing from the Duties by this Act impoſed, ſhall, together with any other Rates and Duties, granted or to be granted in this Seſſion of Parliament, not exceeding in the Whole the Sum of ſeven Millions, from Time to Time as the ſame ſhall be paid into the ſaid Receipt, be iſſued and applied to ſuch Services as ſhall then have been voted by the Commons of Great Britain in this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, for the Service of the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight; and the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Treaſury now or for the Time being, or any three or more of them, or the High Treaſurer for the Time being, are or is hereby authorized and empowered to iſſue and apply the ſame accordingly.

Limitation of Actions.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be brought or commenced againſt any Perſon or Perſons for any Thing done in purſuance of this Act, ſuch Action or Suit ſhall be commenced within three Calendar Months next after the Fact committed, and not afterwards, and ſhall be laid in the County or Place where the Cauſe of Complaint did ariſe, and not elſewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants in every ſuch Action or Suit may plead the General Iſſue, and give this Act and the Special Matter in Evidence at any Trial to be had thereupon; and if the Jury ſhall find for the Defendant or Defendants in any ſuch Action or Suit, or if the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall be nonſuited, or diſcontinue his, her, or their Action or Suit, after the Defendant or Defendants ſhall have appeared, or if upon Demurrer Judgment ſhall be given againſt the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, the Defendant or Defendants ſhall have Treble Coſts, and have the like Remedy for the ſame as any Defendant hath in any other Caſes to recover Coſts by Law.

General Iſſue.

Treble Coſts.

Continuance of Act.

XL. And be it further enacted, That this Act ſhall be and continue in force until the ſigning the Preliminary Articles of Peace, and no longer.

CAP. LXXVII.

An Act to amend an Act of the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to continue, until the first Day of August *one thousand eight hundred, and until the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and amend an Act made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for establishing Regulations respecting "Aliens arriving in this Kingdom, or resident therein, in certain Cases."

* c. 4.

[28th June 1798.]

Cap. 50 of this Session recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed on the first Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, intituled, An Act to continue, until the first Day of August one thousand eight hundred, and until the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and amend an Act made in the thirty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for establishing Regulations respecting Aliens arriving in this Kingdom, or resident therein, in certain Cases," divers Provisions have been made concerning Aliens, and certain Things are by the said Act required to be done within certain Spaces of Time therein limited; and it is expedient that his Majesty should be authorized to extend the Times so limited for doing such Things respectively, in such Manner as to his Majesty shall seem expedient;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for his Majesty, from Time to Time, by his Royal Proclamation, or by Order in Council, to extend the Time and Times for doing all and every or any of the Things by the said Act required to be done, within any certain Space or Spaces of Time, in such Manner as to his Majesty shall seem fit, and to appoint any longer Time or Times for doing all and every or any of such Things respectively; and to command and require all and every or any such Things respectively to be done, within such Time or Times as in and by any such Proclamation or Order in Council respectively shall be limited and appointed for such Purpose.

His Majesty by Proclamation or Order in Council may extend the Time for doing certain Things required by the recited Act to be done in a limited Time.

II. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall be liable to any Pain or Penalty for refusing, omitting, or neglecting to do any Thing by the said Act required to be done, within any certain Space of Time as aforesaid, if such Thing shall be done within such Space of Time as in such Proclamation or Order in Council shall be limited and appointed for doing thereof, any Thing in the said Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding; and that all and every the Pains and Penalties by the said Act provided and imposed for neglecting or omitting to do any such Thing as aforesaid, within the Space of Time by the said Act limited for doing thereof, shall be suffered and incurred in case such Thing shall not be done within the Space of Time which by any such Proclamation or Order in Council shall be appointed for the doing thereof.

No Person shall be liable to Penalty for not doing any Thing within such limited Time, if done within the Time appointed by Proclamation or Order in Council:

III. And be it further enacted, That no Person shall be liable to any Pain or Penalty for having, before the passing of this Act, refused, omitted, or neglected to do any Thing by the said Act required to be done, and that all Proceedings whatsoever for any such Offence committed before the passing of this Act, shall be and the same are hereby stayed and discharged.

Nor for having, before passing this Act, omitted to do any Thing required by recited Act.

IV. 'And whereas by the said Act Persons receiving Aliens to lodge or reside in their Houses or Apartments, are required to do certain Things in the said Act mentioned under certain Penalties;' be it enacted, That so much of the said Act shall not extend, or be construed to extend, to any Person who shall so receive any Alien being the Domestic Servant of any of his Majesty's natural-born Subjects, or of any of his Majesty's Subjects naturalized or made Denizens, such Servant being actually attendant on his or her Master or Mistress.

So much of recited Act as relates to Person receiving Aliens to lodge, not to extend to Persons so receiving Domestic Servants of his Majesty's Subjects attendant on their Masters.

CAP. LXXVIII.

An Act for preventing the Mischiefs arising from the printing and publishing Newspapers, and Papers of a like Nature, by Persons not known; and for regulating the Printing and Publication of such Papers in other Respects.—[28th June 1798.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that Regulations should be provided touching Publications of the Nature hereinafter mentioned:' be it therefore enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That no Person shall, after forty Days from the passing of this Act, print or publish, or cause to be printed or published, any Newspaper or other Paper, containing public News or Intelligence, or serving the Purpose of a Newspaper, until an Affidavit or Affidavits, or Affirmation or Affirmations, made and signed as hereinafter mentioned, shall be delivered to the Commissioners for managing his Majesty's Stamp Duties, at their Head Office, or to some of their Officer or Officers in the respective

After 40 Days from the passing this Act, no Person to print or publish a Newspaper until an Affidavit

spective Towns, and at the respective Offices which shall be named and appointed by the said Commissioners, for the Purpose of receiving such Affidavits or Affirmations, (but which shall not be required to be upon stamped Paper,) containing the several Matters and Things hereinafter for that Purpose specified and mentioned.

Affidavit to specify the Names and Abode of the Printer, Publisher, and of the Proprietors, if they do not exceed two, exclusive of the Printer and Publisher, and if they do, then of two Proprietors, and their proportional Shares, and the Description of the Printing House, and Title of the Paper.

II. And be it further enacted, That such Affidavit or Affidavits, Affirmation or Affirmations, shall specify and set forth the real and true Names, Additions, Descriptions, and Places of Abode of all and every Person and Persons, who is and are intended to be the Printer and Printers, Publisher and Publishers, of the Newspaper or other Paper mentioned in such Affidavit or Affidavits, or Affirmation or Affirmations, and of all the Proprietors of the same, if the Number of such Proprietors, exclusive of the Printer and Publisher, does not exceed two, and in case the same shall exceed such Number, then of two of such Proprietors, exclusive of the Printer and Publisher, and also the Amount of the proportional Shares of such Proprietors in the Property of the Newspaper or other Paper, and the true Description of the House or Building wherein any such Paper is intended to be printed, and likewise the Title of such Paper.

Where the Proprietors exceed two, the Names of two of the greatest Proprietors, exclusive of the Printer and Publisher, to be specified in the Affidavit.

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in every Case where the Number of such Proprietors, exclusive of the Printer and Publisher, does exceed two, the Names of two Proprietors, the Amount of each of whose proportional Shares in the Property of such Newspaper or other Paper shall not be less than the proportional Share of any other Proprietor, exclusive of the Printer and Publisher, shall be specified and set forth in such Affidavit or Affidavits, Affirmation or Affirmations.

Affidavit to be made as often as the Printers, Publishers, or Proprietors, named therein, or their respective Abodes shall be changed, &c. or as often as the Commissioners for Stamps shall require.

IV. And be it further enacted, That an Affidavit or Affirmation, Affidavits or Affirmations, of the like Import, shall be made, signed, and given in like Manner, as often as any of the Printers, Publishers, or Proprietors named in such Affidavits or Affirmations shall be changed, or shall change their respective Places of Abode, or their Printing House, Place, or Office, and as often as the Title of the Paper shall be changed, and as often as the Commissioners for managing the Stamp Duties shall see reasonable Cause for requiring such Affidavit or Affirmation to be made, signed, and sworn, or affirmed, and shall give Notice that they do require the same, such Notice to be left at such Place as is mentioned in the Affidavit or Affirmation last delivered as the Place at which the Newspaper or other Paper to which such Notice shall relate is printed.

Affidavit to be signed by the Parties, and taken by a Commissioner or Officer specially appointed.

V. And be it further enacted, That every such Affidavit or Affirmation shall be in Writing, and signed by the Person or Persons making the same, and shall be taken by any one or more of the said Commissioners, or by any Officer specially appointed by the said Commissioners to receive such Affidavits or Affirmations as aforesaid, which Commissioners and other Officers are hereby authorized to take such Affidavits upon the Oath of the Person or Persons making the same, and such Affirmations in the Case of Persons commonly called Quakers.

Where the Printers, Publishers, and Proprietors, required to be named in the Affidavit, do not exceed four, the Whole to swear; and where they do exceed that Number, four to swear to certain Particulars, and to give Notice to the Parties not swearing, on Penalty of 50l. each.

VI. And be it further enacted, That where the Persons concerned as Printers and Publishers of any Newspaper, or other such Paper as aforesaid, together with such Number of Proprietors as are hereinbefore required to be named in such Affidavits or Affirmations as aforesaid, shall not altogether exceed the Number of four Persons, the Affidavit or Affirmation hereby required shall be sworn or affirmed and signed by all the said Persons who are adult; and when the Number of all such Persons shall exceed four, the same shall be signed and sworn or affirmed by four of such Persons, if so many of them are adult, or by so many of them as are adult; but the same shall contain the real and true Names, Descriptions, and Places of Abode of all and every Person and Persons who is and are, or are intended to be, the Printer and Printers, Publisher and Publishers, and of so many of the Proprietors as are hereinbefore for that Purpose mentioned, of such Newspaper or other such Paper as aforesaid; and the Person and Persons so signing and swearing to the Truth of such Affidavit or Affirmation, in the last mentioned Case, shall and are hereby required to give Notice, within seven Days after such Affidavit or Affirmation shall be so delivered as aforesaid, to each of the Persons not signing and swearing or affirming such Affidavit or Affirmation, but named therein as a Proprietor, Printer, or Publisher, of such Newspaper, or other Paper as aforesaid, that he or they are so named therein; and in case of Neglect to give such Notice, each and every Person who has so signed and sworn or affirmed such Affidavit or Affirmation shall forfeit and lose the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Penalty of 100l. for printing, publishing, or vending a Newspaper without such Affidavit having been signed, &c.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall knowingly and wilfully print or publish, or cause to be printed or published, or shall knowingly and wilfully, either as a Proprietor thereof, or otherwise, sell, vend, or deliver out any Newspaper or other such Paper as aforesaid, such Affidavit or Affirmation, or Affidavits or Affirmations, containing such Matters and Things as are required by this Act to be therein contained, not having been duly signed, sworn, or affirmed, and delivered, and as often as by this Act is required, or any other Matter or Thing required by this Act to be done or performed according to this Act not having been done or performed, such Person shall forfeit and lose, for every such Act done, the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Persons making false or imperfect Affidavits, liable to the Penalties for Perjury.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons making such Affidavit or Affirmation as in and by this Act is required to be made, shall knowingly and wilfully insert or set forth therein the Name or Names, Addition or Additions, Place or Places of Abode, of any Person as Proprietor, Printer, or Publisher of any Newspaper, or other such Paper as aforesaid, to which such Affidavit or Affirmation relates, who is not a Proprietor, Printer, or Publisher thereof, or shall knowingly and wilfully omit to mention in such Affidavit or Affirmation the Name or Names, Addition or Additions, and Place or Places of Abode, of any of the Proprietors, Printers, or Publishers thereof, contrary to the true Meaning of this Act, or shall knowingly and wilfully in any other Manner or Respect set forth in such Affidavit or Affirmation any Matter or Thing by this Act required to be set forth otherwise than according to the Truth, or shall knowingly or wilfully omit to set forth therein, according to the Truth, any Matter or Thing required by this Act to be therein set forth, every Person so offending shall be liable to the Pains and Penalties to which Persons are liable for wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Affidavits to be filed, and they, or certified Copies, to be admitted in all Proceedings, civil or criminal, as Evidence of the Truth of their Contents, against the Persons swearing, and all mentioned therein, unless proved to the contrary:

But if any Person shall have delivered, previous to the Publication of the Paper to which the Proceedings relate, an Affidavit that he has ceased to be Printer, &c. he shall not be so deemed after such Delivery.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all such Affidavits and Affirmations as aforesaid shall be filed and kept in such Manner as the said Commissioners shall direct, and the same, or Copies thereof certified to be true Copies, as hereinafter is mentioned, shall respectively, in all Proceedings, civil and criminal, touching any Newspaper, or other such Paper as aforesaid, which shall be mentioned in any such Affidavits or Affirmations, or touching any Publication, Matter, or Thing contained in any such Newspaper or other Paper, be received and admitted as conclusive Evidence of the Truth of all such Matters set forth in such Affidavits or Affirmations as are hereby required to be therein set forth, against every Person who shall have signed and sworn or affirmed such Affidavits or Affirmations, and shall also be received and admitted, in like Manner, as sufficient Evidence of the Truth of all such Matters against all and every Person who shall not have signed or sworn or affirmed the same, but who shall be therein mentioned to be a Proprietor, Printer, or Publisher of such Newspaper or other Paper, unless the contrary shall be satisfactorily proved: Provided always, That if any such Person or Persons respectively, against whom any such Affidavit or Affirmation, or any Copy thereof, shall be offered in Evidence, shall prove that he, she, or they hath or have signed, sworn, or affirmed, and delivered to the said Commissioners, or such Officer as aforesaid, previous to the Day of the Date or Publication of the Newspaper, or other such Paper as aforesaid, to which the Proceedings, civil or criminal, shall relate, an Affidavit or Affirmation that he, she, or they hath or have ceased to be the Printer or Printers, Proprietor or Proprietors, or Publisher or Publishers of such Newspaper, or other such Paper as aforesaid, such Person or Persons shall not be deemed, by reason of any former Affidavit or Affirmation so delivered as aforesaid, to have been the Printer or Printers, Proprietor or Proprietors, or Publisher or Publishers, of such Paper, after the Day on which such last-mentioned Affidavit or Affirmation shall have been delivered to the said Commissioners, or their Officer as aforesaid.

In Newspapers there shall be printed the Names and Abode of Printers and Publishers, on Penalty of 100l.; and Proof, in Manner herein mentioned, that the Party is the Printer, &c. shall be sufficient, unless proved to the contrary.

X. And be it further enacted, That in some Part of every Newspaper, or other such Paper as aforesaid, there shall be printed the true and real Name and Names, Addition and Additions, and Place and Places of Abode of the Printer and Printers, and Publisher and Publishers of the same, and also a true Description of the Place where the same is printed; and in case any Person or Persons shall knowingly and wilfully print or publish, or cause to be printed or published, any such Newspaper or other Paper as aforesaid, not containing the Particulars aforesaid, and every of them, every such Person shall forfeit and lose the Sum of one hundred Pounds; and that Proof made in Manner herein mentioned, in any Proceeding to recover the same, that the Party proceeded against is a Printer or Publisher of a Newspaper or other such Paper so printed or published as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be Proof that such Party is a Person wilfully and knowingly printing or publishing, or causing the same to be printed or published, unless he shall satisfactorily prove the contrary thereof.

After Production of the Affidavit, or Copy, and a Paper intituled as therein mentioned, &c. it shall not be necessary for a Prosecutor for Penalties under this Act to prove the Purchase of the Paper.

XI. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be necessary, after any such Affidavit or Affirmation, or a certified Copy thereof, shall have been produced in Evidence as aforesaid against the Persons who signed and made such Affidavit, or are therein named, according to this Act, or any of them, and after a Newspaper, or other such Paper as aforesaid, shall be produced in Evidence, intituled in the same Manner as the Newspaper or other Paper mentioned in such Affidavit or Copy is intituled, and wherein the Name or Names of the Printer and Publisher, or Printers and Publishers, and the Place of printing, shall be the same as the Name or Names of the Printer and Publisher, or Printers and Publishers, and the Place of printing mentioned in such Affidavit or Affirmation, for the Plaintiff, Informant, or Prosecutor, or Person seeking to recover any of the Penalties given by this Act, to prove that the Newspaper, or Paper to which such Trial relates, was purchased at any House, Shop, or Office, belonging to or occupied by the Defendant or Defendants, or any of them, or by his or their Servants or Workmen, or where he or they, by themselves or their Servants or Workmen, usually carry on the Business of printing or publishing such Paper, or where the same is usually sold.

Service at the Printing House mentioned in Affidavit, to be deemed sufficient Notice to

XII. And be it further enacted, That Service at the House or Place mentioned in such Affidavit or Affirmation as aforesaid, as the House or Place at which such Newspaper, or other such Paper as aforesaid, to which any Proceedings, civil or criminal, shall relate, is printed or published, or intended so to be, of any legal Notice, Summons, Subpœna, Rule, Order, or Process, of what Nature whatsoever, or to enforce an

But if any Person shall have delivered previous to the Publication of the Paper to which the Proceedings relate, an Affidavit that he has ceased to be Printer, &c. he shall be not so deemed after such Delivery.

Certified Copies of Affidavits to be delivered on Payment of 1s.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioners or Officers by whom such Affidavits or Affirmations shall be kept, according to the Directions of this Act, shall, and they are hereby required, upon Application made to them by any Person or Persons requiring a Copy certified according to this Act, of any such Affidavit or Affirmation as aforesaid, in order that the same may be produced in any civil or criminal Proceedings, to deliver to the Person so applying for the same such certified Copy, he or they paying for the same the Sum of one Shilling and no more.

Copies of Affidavits certified by the Commissioners or Officers in whose Custody they shall be, to be sufficient Evidence.

XIV. 'And whereas in many Cases it may be productive of public Inconvenience to require that the 'Commissioners or Officers before whom such Affidavits or Affirmations, as are hereinbefore mentioned, are 'made, should be required personally to attend, in order to prove, upon the Trial of any Action, Prosecu-'tion, Suit, Indictment, Information, or in any other Proceeding, that the Parties signing, swearing, or af-'firming, and delivering such Affidavit or Affidavits, Affirmation or Affirmations, did swear or affirm the same 'in the Presence of, and did deliver the same to such Commissioners and Officers, before and to whom the 'same shall have been sworn, affirmed, or delivered respectively;' be it enacted, That in all Cases a Copy of any such Affidavit or Affirmation, certified to be a true Copy under the Hand or Hands of one or more of the Commissioners or Officers in whose Possession the same shall be, shall, upon Proof made that such Certificates have been signed with the Hand Writing of the Person or Persons making the same, and who n it shall not be necessary to prove to be a Commissioner or Commissioners, or Officer or Officers, be received in Evidence as sufficient Proof of such Affidavit or Affirmation, and that the same was duly sworn or affirmed, and of the Contents thereof; and such Copies, so produced and certified, shall also be received as Evidence that the Affidavit or Affirmation, of which they purport to be Copies, have been sworn or affirmed according to this Act, and shall have the same Effect, for the Purposes of Evidence, to all Intents whatsoever, as if the original Affidavits or Affirmations, of which the Copies so produced and certified shall purport to be Copies, had been produced in Evidence, and been proved to have been duly so certified, sworn, and affirmed, by the Person or Persons appearing by such Copy to have sworn or affirmed the same as aforesaid.

Penalty of 100l. on unauthorized Persons giving Certificates.

XV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person, not being such Commissioner or Officer as aforesaid, shall give any such Certificate as aforesaid, or shall presume to certify any of the Matters or Things by this Act directed to be certified by such Commissioners and Officers as aforesaid, or which such Commissioners and Officers as aforesaid are hereby empowered or entrusted to certify, he shall forfeit and lose the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Penalty of 100l. for falsely certifying that Affidavits were sworn to, or that false Copies are true, &c.

XVI. And be it also enacted, That if any Person shall knowingly and wilfully falsely certify under his Hand, that any such Affidavit or Affirmation, as is required to be made by this Act, was duly signed, and sworn or affirmed before him, the same not having been so sworn, or signed or affirmed, or shall knowingly and wilfully falsely certify that any Copy or Copies of any Affidavit or Affirmation, or Affidavits or Affirmations, is or are a true Copy or Copies of the Affidavit or Affirmation, or Affidavits or Affirmations, of which the same are certified to be such Copy or Copies, or shall knowingly and wilfully falsely certify or express in any Certificate, that the Affidavit or Affirmation, or Affidavits or Affirmations, of which any Copy or Copies are certified to be a true Copy or Copies, was or were duly sworn or affirmed before the Person so certifying, by the Party or Parties whose Name or Names appear subscribed to the same, as the Name or Names of the Party or Parties swearing and signing, or affirming the same, every Person so offending shall forfeit and lose the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

After July 1, 1798, a Copy of every Newspaper to be delivered within six Days of its Publication to the Commissioners of Stamps, or their

XVII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, the Printer or Publisher of every Newspaper, or other such Paper as aforesaid, shall, upon every Day upon which the same shall be published, or within six Days after, deliver to the Commissioners of Stamps at their Head Office, or to some Officer to be appointed by them to receive the same, and whom they are hereby required to appoint for that Purpose, one of the Papers so published upon each such Day, signed by the Printer or Publisher thereof, in his Hand Writing, with his Name and Place of Abode, and the same shall be carefully kept by the said Commissioners, or such Officer as aforesaid, in such Manner as the said Commissioners shall direct; and such Printer or Publisher shall be entitled to demand and receive from the Commissioners, or such Officers, once in every six Days, the Amount of the ordinary Price of the Newspapers or other Papers so delivered; and in every Case in which the Printer and Publisher of such Newspaper, or other Paper as aforesaid, shall neglect to deliver one such Newspaper, or other Paper, in the Manner hereinbefore directed, such Printer and Publisher shall, for every such Neglect respectively, forfeit and lose the Sum of one hundred Pounds; and in case any Person or Persons shall make Application to the Commissioners, or such Officer as aforesaid, in order that such Newspaper, or other Paper, so signed by the Printer or Publisher, may be produced in Evidence in any Proceeding, civil or criminal, the said Commissioners, or such Officers, shall, at the Expence of the Party applying, at any Time within two Years from the Publication thereof, either cause the same to be produced in the Court in which the same is required to be produced, and at the Time when the same is required to be produced, or shall deliver the same to the Party applying for it, taking, according to their Discretion, reasonable Security, at his Expence, for the returning the same to the said Commissioners, or such Officer; and in case, by reason that the same shall have been previously required by any other Person to be produced in any Court, or hath been previously delivered to any other Person for the like Purpose, the same cannot be produced at the Time required, or be delivered according to such Application, in such Case the said Commissioners, or such their Officer, shall cause the same to be produced, or shall deliver the same as soon as they are enabled so do.

Officer, on Penalty of 100l. the Paper to be paid for by the Commissioners, and may, within two Years after Publication, be produced as Evidence in any Proceeding, civil or criminal.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall knowingly and wilfully print or publish, or cause to be printed or published, any Newspaper, or other such Paper as aforesaid, the same not being printed upon Paper duly stamped according to Law, he shall forfeit and pay, over and above all other Penalties recoverable by Law, the Sum of twenty Pounds for every such Newspaper, or other Paper as aforesaid, so printed upon Paper not duly stamped; and Proof made in Manner hereinbefore mentioned, in any Proceeding to recover the same, that the Party proceeded against is a Printer or Publisher of such Newspaper, or other Paper as aforesaid, which shall be so printed or published upon Paper not duly stamped according to Law, shall be deemed and taken to be Proof that such Party is a Person wilfully and knowingly printing or publishing, or causing the same to be printed or published, contrary to the present Provision of this Act, unless he shall satisfactorily prove the contrary thereof.

Penalty of 20l. for printing or publishing Newspapers not duly stamped.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall knowingly and wilfully take or receive into, and keep in his Custody any Newspaper, or other such Paper as aforesaid, not duly stamped according to Law, such Person shall forfeit and lose, for every such Paper as aforesaid, not duly stamped, which he shall so take or receive into, and keep in his Custody, the Sum of twenty Pounds.

Penalty of 20l. for having a Newspaper not duly stamped.

XX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person shall knowingly or wilfully, directly or indirectly, send or carry, or endeavour to send or carry, or cause or procure to be sent or carried, or do or cause to be done any Act whatever for or towards the sending or carrying, or for or towards the causing or procuring to be sent or carried, or with Intent that the same should be sent or carried out of Great Britain, any Newspaper, or other such Paper as aforesaid, the same not being printed on Paper duly stamped according to Law, such Person shall forfeit and pay, for every such Offence, the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Penalty of 100l. for sending or procuring Newspapers not duly stamped to be sent out of Great Britain.

XXI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person, during the Continuance of the present War, shall knowingly and wilfully, directly or indirectly, send or carry, or endeavour to send or carry, or cause or procure to be sent or carried, or do or cause to be done, or be in any Manner concerned in doing or causing to be done any Act whatever, for or towards the sending or carrying, or for or towards the causing and procuring to be sent or carried, or with Intent that the same should be sent or carried, any Newspaper, or other such Paper as aforesaid, whether printed upon Paper stamped or not stamped, out of Great Britain into France, Spain, or any other Country not being in Amity with his Majesty at the Time of such Act done or permitted to be done, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of five hundred Pounds, and shall also be liable to all other Prosecutions, Pains, Penalties, Forfeitures, and Punishments, to which such Person would have been liable in case this Act had not been made.

Penalty of 500l. for sending, or procuring to be sent, during the War, Newspapers, stamped or unstamped, to any Country not in Amity with his Majesty.

XXII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That upon Oath made before any one Justice of the Peace, that any Person hath in his Possession any Newspaper, or other such Paper as aforesaid, intended to be sent or carried out of this Kingdom, during the Continuance of the War, into any Country not in Amity with his Majesty, it shall be lawful for such Justice to summon the Person or Persons in whose Custody or Possession the same is, and examine such Person or Persons, for the better Discovery of any other Person or Persons intending to send or carry, or to cause to be sent or carried, or who have done or caused to be done any Act for or towards the sending or carrying the same, or causing the same to be sent or carried out of Great Britain into any Country not in Amity with his Majesty; and in case any Person so summoned shall not submit to be examined, and answer all such lawful Questions as shall be asked of him, he shall forfeit and lose the Sum of fifty Pounds, to be levied by such Justice in the Manner hereinafter directed touching Fines, Forfeitures, and Penalties, not exceeding the Sum of twenty Pounds, and shall be liable to be committed, in like Manner, in case the same cannot be so levied, for the Space of three Months, as is hereinafter * directed in Cases in which such Fines, Forfeitures, and Penalties, not exceeding the Sum of twenty Pounds, cannot be levied for Want of sufficient Distress; and it shall be lawful for such Justice to seize and take as forfeited to his Majesty all such Papers.

On Oath that any Person has a Newspaper intended to be sent to any Country not in Amity with his Majesty, a Justice may summon and examine the Party.

Penalty for not answering lawful Questions, 50l.

Papers to be forfeited.

The Names and Abode of Proprietors out of Great Britain to be specified in Affidavits.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Proprietor of any Newspaper, or other such Paper as aforesaid, shall be resident out of Great Britain, the Name and Place of Abode of such Proprietor shall be specified in such Affidavit or Affirmation as are hereinbefore required to be made and delivered as aforesaid.

Penalty for printing or publishing any seditious Matter under Colour of having been printed in a Foreign Paper, from 6 to 12 Months' Imprisonment, and other Punishment, as for a Misdemeador.

XXIV. 'And whereas Matters tending to excite Hatred and Contempt of the Person of his Majesty, and 'of the Constitution and Government established in these Kingdoms, are frequently published in News-'papers, or other Papers, under Colour of having been copied from Foreign Newspapers, or other Papers 'of a like Nature;' be it enacted, That if any Person shall print or publish, or cause to be printed or published, in any Newspaper, or other such Paper as aforesaid, that shall be printed or published in that Part of Great Britain called England, any Matter or Thing having such Tendency as aforesaid, as having been previously printed or published in some Foreign Paper or Print, which hath not been previously so printed or published, such Person shall, being lawfully convicted thereof, be committed to Prison for any Time not exceeding twelve nor less than six Months, and shall be liable to such other Punishment as may by Law be inflicted in Cases of high Misdemeanors; and in every Proceeding against any Person in respect of his having so printed or published as aforesaid any such Matter or Thing as aforesaid, it shall be incumbent upon the Person against whom the Proceeding shall be, to make Proof that the same had been previously printed and published in some Foreign Paper or Print; and in case he shall fail so to do, the same shall be deemed and taken not to have been so previously printed and published.

Proof of its having been so previously printed to lie on the Defendant.

If such Proof be made, the Publication to be deemed of the same Nature as it would have been before this Act.

XXV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if such Proof shall be made, the Publication respecting which such Proceeding shall be had shall nevertheless be deemed and taken to be of such Nature in the Law as the same would have been deemed and taken to be if this Act had not been made.

After 40 Days after passing this Act, none but Commissioners of Stamps, or their Officer, to supply Paper stamped for printing Newspapers, until the Person so supplying has given Security to deliver, once in six Weeks, an Account of the Quantities and Kind sold, &c. on Penalty of 100l.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after forty Days next after the passing of this Act, no Person, other than a Commissioner or Officer of his Majesty's Stamp Duties, shall sell or supply to any Person or Persons, Paper stamped for the Purpose of being used for printing Newspapers, or other such Papers as aforesaid, until the Person so selling or supplying the same shall have given such Security to the said Commissioners, or some of their Officers to be by them appointed for that Purpose, as the said Commissioners shall think reasonable, duly to deliver or cause to be delivered to the said Commissioners, once in six Weeks, a true and accurate Account of the Quantities and Kinds of such stamped Paper by them sold and supplied during such Weeks, and to whom by Name, and that such Persons so selling or supplying such Paper will not sell or supply any such Paper to or on Account of any Persons, save only to or on Account of such Persons as shall ordinarily deal in the selling and supplying such Paper, or to or on Account of Printers, Publishers, or Proprietors of Newspapers or such other Papers; and that they will not sell or supply the same to or on Account of any such Printers, Publishers, or Proprietors, until the Persons applying to them for the same shall have delivered to them a Certificate, signed by one or more of the said Commissioners, or some Officer to be appointed by them for that Purpose, purporting that such Security as is required by Law hath been given by the Printers and Proprietors respectively of the Newspaper or other Paper, for the printing of which such stamped Paper is to be sold or supplied, and that such Affidavits or Affirmations have been made and delivered respecting the same as are required by this Act; and that they will not sell or supply any such Paper, to or on Account of any Printers, Proprietors, or Publishers of Newspapers, or other such Papers as aforesaid, with respect to whom Notice shall be given to them by the said Commissioners that such Security is not duly given, or is not remaining in Force, or that the Parties who have given the same are dead, or are gone abroad, or are not to be found, or that such Parties have given Notice that they are no longer concerned as Printers, Publishers, or Proprietors of such Newspapers or other Papers, or that no such Affidavits or Affirmations respecting the same, as are required by this Act, have been made and delivered; and in case any Person, other than such as aforesaid, shall, after forty Days as aforesaid, sell or supply any such Paper as aforesaid, not having previously given such Security as aforesaid, he shall forfeit and lose, for every such Offence, the Sum of one hundred Pounds, to be recovered as hereinafter is mentioned.

Persons concerned in printing or publishing Newspapers not legally stamped, to be Debtors to his Majesty in the Sum that would have accrued if duly stamped, &c.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That every Person and Persons printing or publishing, or causing to be printed or published, or being concerned, either as Proprietors or otherwise, in printing or publishing, or causing to be printed or published, any Newspaper or other such Paper as aforesaid, upon Paper not stamped, or not stamped as by Law is required, shall be deemed and taken to owe to his Majesty such Sums as would have accrued to his Majesty in case the same had been printed upon Paper duly stamped; and in case any Information or Bill shall be filed, or other Proceeding shall be had on his Majesty's Behalf, for Discovery of the Matters aforesaid, and an Account and Payment of such Sums, it shall not be lawful for the Defendant, on any Account, to plead or demur to such Information, Bill, or Proceeding, but he and they shall be compellable to make such Discovery as is thereby required to be made: Provided nevertheless, That such Discovery shall not be made use of as Evidence or otherwise in any Proceeding against the Defendant or Defendants, save only in that Proceeding in which the Discovery is made.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall file any Bill in any Court for the Discovery of the Names of any Persons concerned in the Property of, or as Printers, Editors, or Publishers of, or otherwise, in any Newspaper, or other such Paper as aforesaid, or of any Matters relative to the printing or publishing thereof, in order to enable him or them the more effectually to bring or carry on any Suit or Action for Damages by him or them alledged to have been sustained by reason of any slanderous or libellous Matter contained in any such Newspaper or other Paper as aforesaid, respecting such Person or Persons, it shall not be lawful for the Defendants to plead or demur to such Bill, but they shall be compellable to make the Discovery thereby required: Provided nevertheless, That such Discovery shall not be made use of as Evidence or otherwise, in any Proceeding against the Defendants, save only in that Proceeding in which the Discovery is made.

To Bills for the Discovery of Proprietors, Printers, Editors, or Publishers, of Newspapers, the Defendants shall not demur; but shall make the Discovery required.

XXIX. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures by this Act imposed, which shall exceed the Sum of twenty Pounds, shall (except where this Act hath otherwise directed *) be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or the Courts of Great Session in the Principality of Wales, or the Courts of the Counties Palatine of Chester, Lancaster, and Durham, or in the Court of Session or Court of Exchequer in Scotland, (as the Case shall require,) wherein no Essoign, Privilege, Protection, Wager of Law, or more than one Imparlance shall be allowed; and that all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, by this Act imposed, which shall not exceed the Sum of twenty Pounds, shall, on Proof upon Oath of the Offence before any Justice of the Peace of the County, Riding, Stewartry, City, or Place, where the Offence shall be committed, be levied by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods and Chattels, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of such Justice, rendering the Overplus, if any, on Demand, after deducting the Charges of such Distress and Sale, to the Person whose Goods and Chattels have been so distrained and sold; and for Want of sufficient Distress, such Justice is hereby required, in all Cases where no particular Time of Commitment is hereinbefore directed, to commit such Offender to the Common Gaol of the County, Riding, Stewartry, City, or Place, where the Offence shall have been committed, for any Time not exceeding three Months; and the Money arising by all such Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, when recovered, shall be, as to one Moiety thereof, to and for the Use of our Sovereign Lord the King, his Heirs and Successors, and as to the other Moiety thereof, to and for the Use of such Person who shall inform or sue for the same, except in such Cases in which the Application thereof is otherwise directed by this Act.

Recovery and Application of Penalties.

* See § 22.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That no Order or Conviction made in pursuance of this Act by any Justice of the Peace shall be removed by Certiorari, Advocation, or Suspension, out of the County, Riding, Stewartry, or Place, wherein such Order or Conviction shall be made, into any Court whatever; and that no Writ of Certiorari, Advocation, or Suspension shall supersede Execution, or other Proceedings upon any such Order or Conviction, but that Execution and other Proceedings shall be had thereupon, any such Writ or Writs, or Allowance thereof, notwithstanding.

No Order or Conviction of a Justice to be removed into any Court or the Execution superseded.

XXXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, save and except so much thereof as relates to the printing or publishing Newspapers, or such other Papers as aforesaid, upon Paper not duly stamped, and so much thereof as relates to the taking and receiving into, and keeping in the Custody of any Person any such Newspapers or other Papers not duly stamped, and to the sending or carrying Newspapers or other such Papers as aforesaid out of Great Britain, and to the summoning and examining Persons for the Discovery of such Persons as are concerned in so sending or carrying the same, and the seizing and taking the same as forfeited.

Act to extend to Scotland in certain Cases only.

XXXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall be lawful to repeal or alter this Act during the present Session of Parliament.

Act may be repealed or altered this Session.

CAP. LXXIX.

An Act more effectually to prevent, during the War, Persons, being His Majesty's Subjects, from voluntarily repairing to or remaining in France, or any Country or Place united to France, or occupied by the Armies of France; and to prevent Correspondence with such Persons, and with His Majesty's Enemies.—[28th June 1798.]

'FOR preventing all traitorous Correspondence with his Majesty's Enemies;' be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person, being a Subject of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall, at any Time during the Continuance of the War, voluntarily go or repair, directly or indirectly, or embark in any Vessel with Intent to go or repair, directly or indirectly, to France, or any Country or Place united to France, or occupied by the Armies of France, at the Time when such Act shall be done, every such Person, being lawfully convicted thereof, shall be deemed and adjudged to be guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

If any Subject shall during the War go, or embark to go, to France, or any Place united thereto, or occupied by its Armies, he shall be guilty of Felony without Clergy.

II. And

Or if any such Person shall hire, let, or be concerned in hiring, letting, &c. any Vessel for such Purpose, he shall be transported for seven Years.

II. And be it further enacted, That if any Person, being a Subject of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall, at any Time during the Continuance of the War, knowingly and wilfully hire, let, engage, agree for, procure, or furnish, or endeavour to hire, let, engage, agree for, procure, or furnish, or cause or procure to be hired, let, engaged, agreed for, procured, or furnished, or be concerned in the hiring, letting, engaging, agreeing for, procuring, or furnishing, any Vessel, with Intent that such Person, or any other Subject of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, should therein go, or repair, or embark therein with Intent to go or repair, directly or indirectly, to France, or any other such Country or Place as aforesaid, every such Person, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be transported for any Time, not exceeding seven Years, to such Place or Places as his Majesty, with the Advice of his Privy Council, shall direct.

If any such Person who since May 1, 1798, shall have voluntarily gone to, or remained in France, &c. shall voluntarily remain out of his Majesty's Dominions for six Months after passing this Act,

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Person, being a Subject of his Majesty, who, since the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, hath voluntarily gone into or remained in France, or any such other Country or Place as aforesaid, shall voluntarily and wilfully remain out of his Majesty's Dominions for six Months after the passing of this Act, not having obtained the Licence of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, for so remaining, or if any such Person who shall have so remained out of his Majesty's Dominions, not having such Licence, shall at any Time voluntarily and wilfully return into Great Britain, without the Licence of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, for that Purpose first had and obtained, every such Person, being thereof convicted by due Course of Law, shall be committed to the Common Gaol of the County or Place where he shall be convicted of such Offence, there to remain, without Bail or Mainprize, for any Time not exceeding two Years.

or shall return without Licence, he shall be imprisoned; and if any Subject shall correspond with any such Person so voluntarily remaining there, he shall be guilty of Felony without Benefit of Clergy.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any Subject of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall, during the Continuance of the War, within this Realm or without, knowingly hold, entertain, or keep any Correspondence whatsoever, in Person, or by Letters, Messages, or otherwise, with any of his Majesty's Subjects who shall so voluntarily go, or repair to, or who having so voluntarily gone into, or remained in France, or any other such Country or Place as aforesaid, shall so voluntarily and wilfully remain for six Months out of his Majesty's Dominions as aforesaid, every such Person so offending, being thereof duly convicted, shall be deemed guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

If any Subject shall correspond with the Persons exercising the Powers of Government in France, &c. or with any of their Agents, he shall be guilty of Felony without Clergy.

V. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any of the Subjects of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, shall, during the present War, within this Realm or without, hold, entertain, or keep any Intelligence or Correspondence whatever, in Person, or by Letters, Messages, or otherwise, with the Persons exercising the Powers of Government in France, or in any other such Country or Place as aforesaid, or with any of such Persons, or with any Person or Persons in any Manner employed by them, or any of them, knowing such Person or Persons to be so employed, such Person so offending shall be deemed and adjudged to be guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Act not to extend to Persons authorized by his Majesty, or to any Act done in his Majesty's Service.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any Act done, or which shall be done, by any Person, or in any Place, by virtue of or in obedience to or under the Authority of a Licence, such Licence, when granted, to be granted without Fee, from his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, either general or special, under his or their Sign Manual, or by Order in Council, or Proclamation, or from any Person or Persons authorized by him or them under his Sign Manual, or otherwise, to give such Licence and Authority; or to any Act done or which shall be done in his Majesty's Service, or relative thereto, by any Person or Persons employed, or who shall be employed therein; or to any Act done, or which shall be done, by any Person or Persons in aiding or assisting, or relative to such Persons whilst so employed.

Where Offences may be tried.

VII. Provided also, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That any Offence committed against this Act on the High Seas, or out of this Realm, or within that Part of Great Britain called England, shall and may be alledged and laid, enquired of, prosecuted, tried, and determined, before any Court of Oyer and Terminer or Gaol Delivery, for any County in that Part of Great Britain called England, in such Manner and Form as if such Offence had been therein committed; and if committed in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, shall and may be prosecuted, tried, and determined, either before the Justiciary Court of Edinburgh, or in any of the Circuit Courts in that Part of the United Kingdom: Provided also, That any Person who shall be tried and acquitted, or convicted, of any Offence against this Act, shall not be liable to be indicted, prosecuted, or tried again for the same Offence, as High Treason or Misprision of Treason, or as an Offence against any other Act; and that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to prevent any Person guilty of any Offence against this Act, and who shall not be tried for the same as an Offence against this Act, from being tried for the same as High Treason or Misprision of High Treason, or as an Offence against any other Act, in such Manner as if this Act had not been made: Provided also, That no Prosecution shall be commenced under this Act, after the Party so to be prosecuted shall have been twelve Months in Great Britain subsequent to the Time when the Offence was committed.

Persons tried under this Act not to be tried again for the same Offence, as Treason; but Offenders not so tried, may be tried for High Treason, &c.

Limitation of Actions.

VIII. And

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Person ordered or adjudged to be transported under this Act shall be found at large within this Realm after Sentence of Transportation pronounced, and before the Time shall be expired for which such Person was sentenced to be transported, he shall be guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon, without Benefit of Clergy.

Persons adjudged to be transported and afterwards found at large, guilty of Felony without Clergy.

IX. And be it further enacted, That so much of this Act as relates to holding or keeping Intelligence or Correspondence as aforesaid, shall commence and take Effect, with respect to any Act done in this Realm, on the first Day of August next; and with respect to any Act done out of this Realm and in Europe, from and after the Expiration of three Months after the passing of this Act; and with respect to any Act done out of Europe, from and after the Expiration of six Months after the passing of this Act.

Commencement of Act.

CAP. LXXX.

An Act to explain and amend an Act of the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for repealing the Duties upon Male Servants, Carriages, Horses, Mules, and Dogs; and for granting to His Majesty other Duties in lieu thereof.—[28th June 1798.]

Cap. 41. of this Session recited. (Schedule A.)

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for repealing the Duties upon Male Servants, Carriages, Horses, Mules, and Dogs; and for granting to his Majesty other Duties in lieu thereof; the substituted Duties upon Male Servants are directed not to extend to any Male Servant retained or employed solely for the Purposes of any Trade or Calling by which the Master or Mistress of such Servant earns a Livelihood: And whereas Doubts may arise whether the Masters or Mistresses of Waiters hereinafter mentioned are thereby exempted from the said Duties:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the substituted Duties granted by the said Act shall extend to and be payable for all Waiters in Taverns, Coffee Houses, Inns, Alehouses, or any other Houses licensed to sell Wine, Ale, or other Liquors by Retail, except occasional Waiters; any Thing in the said Act contained to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

The substituted Duties thereby granted to extend to Waiters in Taverns, &c. except occasional Ones.

II. 'And whereas Doubts have arisen whether the Duties imposed by the said recited Act on Male Persons never having been married, in respect of their Servants, are to be charged in addition to any other Duties to which such Male Persons may be liable in respect of such Servants;' be it therefore enacted, That every Male Person never having been married, who shall retain or employ any Male Servant in any of the several Capacities referred to by the said Act, shall be charged with the respective Duties to which any other Person or Persons may be charged, and also with the additional yearly Sum of one Pound and ten Shillings, in the said Act mentioned, for every such Male Servant retained and employed by such Male Person never having been married.

Batchelors to pay an additional annual Duty of 1*l.* 10*s.* for each Male Servant.

III. And be it further enacted, That the Duties to be charged by virtue of this Act shall be charged, raised, levied, collected, and paid, by the same Persons, and under the same Powers, and in like Manner in all Respects, as the substituted Duties charged by virtue of the said Act are directed to be charged, raised, levied, collected, and paid.

Duties to be charged, &c. as the substituted Duties.

CAP. LXXXI.

An Act for the better Execution of an Act of the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majesty an Aid and Contribution for the Prosecution of the War.—[28th June 1798.]

Cap. 16. of this Session recited.

'WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an Aid and Contribution for the Prosecution of the War, the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes are required to cause to be prepared, true Schedules of the respective Persons assessed to the Duties therein mentioned in two or more Places, together with the Amount of their Assessments, to be transmitted to the Commissioners for executing the said Act in their respective Divisions, in order that the Persons assessed in two or more Places to the like Duties may be charged by virtue of the said Act, upon the Aggregate of the said Assessments*: And whereas, for Want of due and sufficient Returns of such Persons, the said Commissioners have not been able to complete such Schedules previous to the Time appointed for signing and allowing the Certificates of Assessment to be made under the said Act:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for his Majesty's Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, from such further Returns as they shall have received, or shall at any Time receive, respecting the Assessments of Persons assessed in two or more Places to the Duties

* (See § 51 of the recited Act.)

Commissioners of Taxes may from further Returns respecting Assessments of Persons assessed in two Places to the Duties on Houses, &c. cause Schedules to be prepared and transmitted to the Commissioners for executing the recited Act, who shall cause Assessments to be made conformably thereto, which Duties on Houses, Windows, or Lights, or on Inhabited Houses, or any other the Duties under the Management of the said Commissioners at the Time of passing the said Act, from Time to Time to cause to be prepared, true and perfect Schedules of such Persons, with the Amounts of their respective Assessments at every of such Places, and to cause the same to be transmitted to the respective Commissioners for executing the said Act, within the respective Divisions where each of such Assessments shall have been made; and the respective Commissioners for executing the said Act shall, within their respective Divisions, as soon after the Receipt of any such Schedules as conveniently may be, cause an Assessment to be made according to the Directions of the said Act, conformably to the Schedules so transmitted, which Assessment so made shall and is hereby declared to be good and effectual in Law, notwithstanding any former Assessment under the said Act, and notwithstanding any Payments under such former Assessment, to bind the Person or Persons to the Payment of the Sums charged in such latter Assessment from the Time of passing the said Act, subject nevertheless to such Relief, Abatement, and Allowance, and to such Appeals as by the said Act or this Act is directed in Cases of Assessment.

shall bind the Parties, to Payment of the Sums charged, from the Time of passing the former Act.

Payments upon former Assessments to be deducted from Instalments of Assessments under this Act, &c.

II. Provided always, That where any Payment or Payments shall have been made upon any former Assessment under the said Act, before the Time of signing, or Allowance of the Assessment to be made by virtue of this Act, such Payment or Payments shall be deducted from the Amount of any Instalment or Instalments to be discharged upon any Assessment made in pursuance of this Act: Provided also, That no Payment shall be demanded upon any Assessment to be made by virtue of this Act, until and upon the Time appointed by the said Act for the Payment of the Instalment next ensuing the signing and allowing the Assessment to be made by virtue of this Act, and that at the Time of such first Payment, all Differences between the Sums actually paid on such former Assessment, and the Sums which ought to have been due according to the Assessment to be made by virtue of this Act, shall be adjusted, and the Balance on either Side be paid or allowed as the Case may require, so that no more or less shall be returned into the Receipt of Exchequer, in the Whole, by any Payments, whether under the former or any new Assessment, than the Sums charged according to the Assessment to be made by virtue of this Act, and upon the making of any such Assessment as aforesaid, in pursuance of this Act, the former Assessment upon the same Person in respect of the said additional Duties shall cease and determine.

Where Surveyors certify Errors in Assessments under recited Act, the Commissioners to determine thereupon according to this Act, &c.

III. 'And whereas the Surveyors and Inspectors are empowered by the said Act to examine the Assessment before and after the Allowance thereof, and if they find any Error therein, to certify the same to 'the respective Commissioners;' be it further enacted, That in every Case where any Surveyor or Inspector shall have discovered or certified, or shall discover or certify, to the Commissioners for executing the said Act, any Error in any such Assessment, the Commissioners for executing the said Act are hereby required, at the Request of such Surveyor or Inspector, to hear and examine into the same as soon after the passing of this Act, as they conveniently can, and to make their Determination thereupon according to the Directions of this Act, and to cause the Assessment of such Person or Persons to be amended accordingly, which Assessment or Assessments so amended shall have Effect from the Time of the Commencement of the said Act, and the Determination of the Commissioners thereupon shall be binding upon the Parties from the Time of passing the said Act, as if the said Assessment had been originally so made, and upon the Payment thereupon of the first Instalment next ensuing such Determination, the like Adjustment and Balance of the Sums paid on the said Assessment before the Amendment thereof, and of the Sum due on the Assessment so amended, shall be made and struck as is hereinbefore directed; and such Assessment so amended shall be conclusive, except as hereinafter is excepted.

Surveyors or Parties charged by their Certificates, if dissatisfied with Determinations of the Commissioners, may require a Case to be stated for the Opinion of the Judges, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That if any Surveyor or Inspector delivering, or causing to be delivered, any such Certificate as aforesaid, or any Party charged by such Certificate, shall be dissatisfied with the Determination of the said Commissioners, and shall then declare himself or herself dissatisfied with such Determination, or if any Party who shall have appealed against any Assessment made by virtue of the said Act, shall, within two Calendar Months from the passing of this Act, or if any Person, whose Appeal against any such Assessment shall be determined after the passing of this Act, shall, at the Time of such Determination, declare himself or herself dissatisfied with the Determination upon such Appeal, and shall give Notice to the Surveyor or Inspector for the District where such Appeal shall have been made of his or her Intention to require a Case as hereinafter mentioned, it shall be lawful for such Surveyor or Inspector, and for such Party respectively, to require the Commissioners acting for the Division where such Certificate was delivered, or such Appeal was made, to state specially the Case upon which the Question arose, together with their Determination thereupon; and the said Commissioners, or the major Part of them present at any Meeting within such Division where such Request shall be made, are hereby required to state and sign such Case accordingly; and every such Case shall be transmitted to the respective Justices, Barons, or Judges, of the respective Courts in England and Scotland, for their Opinion thereon, in the Manner directed by Law, with respect to the Duties under the Management of his Majesty's Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, and subject to the like Rules, Penalties, and Restrictions, to which the Persons requiring such Cases to be transmitted are by Law subject: Provided always, That the said Commissioners acting for the Division where such Certificate shall be delivered, or Appeal shall be made, may, upon any Matter of Law arising thereupon in respect of the Duties granted by the said Act, state a Case for, and require the Opinion as may also the Commissioners upon any Matter of Law.

of, such Justices, Judges, or Barons, in like Manner as they are authorized to do by any Law now in force with respect to the Duties now under the Management of his Majesty's Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes.

Where Persons have been assessed under recited Act, to the Duties then payable by Assessments prior to April 6, 1798, the Assessment on the Amount of the Duties shall be in force, &c. notwithstanding the Repeal of those Duties.

V. 'And whereas, since the passing of the said Act, the Duties therein mentioned then payable have 'been repealed, and other Duties have been substituted in lieu thereof;' be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Person shall have been assessed to any of the Duties then payable, by any Assessment made prior to the sixth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, the Assessment made by virtue of the said Act on the Amount of the said Duties then payable, shall, notwithstanding the Repeal of the said Duties then payable, or any Thing in the said Acts contained, or either of them, be in full Force and Effect; and every Assessment made or to be made by virtue of the said Act, on any Person so assessed to any of the said Duties then payable, shall, notwithstanding the Repeal of the same by the said Acts, or any Thing herein contained, be calculated on the Amount of the Duties then payable, contained in such Assessment of the same; and every such Assessment shall be valid and effectual notwithstanding such Repeal, or any Thing in the said Acts contained, or either of them.

If any Person shall, after April 5, 1798, be assessed in respect to the substituted Duties to a greater Amount than the prior Assessment, wholly by reason of the Increase of such substituted Duties, he shall not be charged with a further additional Duty, &c.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall, by any Assessment made after the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, be assessed, in respect of the substituted Duties now payable, to any greater Amount than the Amount contained in the prior Assessment of the Duties payable at the passing of the said Act, and such Increase shall arise wholly by reason of the Increase of the substituted Duties now payable, and not by any Increase in Number of any of the Subjects of such Assessment, such Person shall not be charged with any further additional Duty by reason of such increased Amount: Provided always, That if such increased Amount, or any Part thereof, shall be found to arise by reason of any Increase in the Number of any of the Subjects of such Assessment, then such Part of the said Increase as shall so arise shall be added to the Amount of the Duties contained in the former Assessment whereon the additional Duty was calculated; and the said Duty shall thenceforth be calculated on the Amount of such Sums when added as aforesaid.

If any Person not assessed within the Year ending April 5, 1798, shall be assessed to the substituted Duties, he shall be charged to the additional Duty granted by 38 Geo. 3. c. 16. on the Amount of the substituted Duties.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if any Person not assessed within the Year ending the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, to any of the Duties, payable at and immediately before the passing of the said Act, therein mentioned, shall be assessed to any of the substituted Duties now payable in any subsequent Year, during the Term in the said Act mentioned, such Person shall be charged to the additional Duty granted by the said Act, on the Amount of the substituted Duties contained in such Assessment, although such Duties were not payable at the Time of the passing of the said Act.

Persons having ceased to keep Servants, &c. before Nov. 1, 1797, entitled to the Relief intended under § 22. of the recited Act, and may appeal after passing this Act.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Relief intended to be given by the said Act to any Person who shall have ceased to keep any Servant, Carriage, or Horse, before the first Day of November one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, shall be construed to extend to all such Persons who shall have bona fide remained during the whole Interval between the said first Day of November one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and the Time of hearing any Appeal, in pursuance of this Act, without any Servant, Carriage, or Horse, liable to the Duties payable by Law on such Servants, Carriages, and Horses respectively, in lieu of the former Servant, Carriage, or Horse; and every Person coming under the Circumstances above stated, and not having received the Relief thereby intended, shall be at liberty to appeal from any Assessment under the said Act, in respect of any such Servant, Horse, or Carriage; for which Purpose a Day or Days of Appeal shall be appointed as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, or in Default of such Appointment, the same shall be heard on any Day or Days appointed for hearing and determining Appeals against any Assessment of the Duties on Houses, Windows, or Lights, by the Laws in force at and immediately before the passing of this Act.

Places of Public Entertainment, except such Parts as are occupied as Dwelling Houses, to be charged as Houses Part whereof are Shops.

IX. 'And whereas, in some Instances, Theatres and other Places of Public Shew or Entertainment 'have been assessed under the Authority of the said Act of this Session of Parliament, as Inhabited Houses, 'by which they will be subject to the highest Rate of Duty thereby imposed, and it is expedient that the Pro-'prietors of such Places should be relieved therefrom;' be it therefore further enacted, That every Theatre or other Place duly licensed for Public Shew or Entertainment, except such Part thereof which shall be occupied as a Dwelling House, shall be charged to the Duties granted by the said Act, under the like Rules, Methods, and Regulations as are in the said Act prescribed with respect to Houses, Part whereof shall be occupied as Shops; and the Commissioners for executing the said Act shall, in every Case where any Assessment of any Theatre or other licensed Place aforesaid shall have been otherwise made, shall cause the same to be amended, and the Duties contained in such amended Assessment to be levied accordingly, in pursuance of the Rules hereinbefore prescribed, with respect to Assessments altered or amended in any of the Cases before mentioned.

The Bills to bear an Interest not exceeding 3*d.* 2*q. per* " Cent. per Diem, and such of them as shall not be paid out of the Duties and Contributions aforesaid, shall " be received at the Exchequer as Cash three Months after the Date thereof."

CAP. LXXXV.

An Act for explaining and amending certain Acts relating to the Stamp Duties; and for extending the Rates and Duties of Stamps, now payable on Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, to all other Materials.—[28th June 1798.]

37 Geo. 3. c. 90. (§ 11, 12, 13.)

' WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty certain Stamp Duties on the several Matters therein mentioned; and for better securing the Duties on Certificates to be taken out by Solicitors, Attornies, and others, practising in certain Courts of Justice in Great Britain; certain Provisions are made to enforce the Payment of a distinct and separate Stamp Duty, in respect of each Copyhold Tenement, and also in respect of each Custom-Right or Tenant-Right Estate, not being Copyhold, mentioned in any Surrender, Admittance, or Instrument of Admittance, whereupon a several Fine shall be due or payable to the Lord or Lady of any Honor or Manor, or a several Fee shall be demanded or received by any Steward or Deputy Steward of such Honor or Manor, with certain Penalties on the Steward or Officer of any Copyhold or Customary Court for any Neglect or Omission in his Duty, as prescribed by the said Act: And whereas great Difficulties may arise in ascertaining for what particular Tenements the Fines paid to the Lord or Lady of any Honor or Manor may be due and payable, or for what particular Tenements the Fees received by the Steward or other Officer of such Manor may be demanded, where several and distinct Tenements have been comprized in the same Surrender or Instrument of Admittance before the passing of the said Act:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That, from and after the passing of this Act, distinct and several Stamp Duties shall not be required, except in such Cases only where the Tenements mentioned in the same Surrender, Admittance, Copy or Instrument of Admittance, shall, before the passing of the said recited Act, have been surrendered, granted, or conveyed, in and by different Surrenders, Admittances, Copies or Instruments of Admittance, in which Cases, a several and distinct Stamp Duty shall be charged in respect of each and every such Tenement of Distinct Stamp Duties not required in respect of each Tenement mentioned in any Surrender, &c. except in certain Cases.

the Value of twenty Shillings per Annum, or upwards, which at any Time, from and after the passing of this Act, shall be added to any other Tenement, or mentioned therewith, to be surrendered, granted, or conveyed in or by the same Surrender, Admittance, Copy or Instrument of Admittance; and if any Steward or other Officer of any Copyhold Court, or of any Customary or Tenant-Right Court, shall mention or describe, or permit or procure to be mentioned or described, in any Surrender, Admittance, Copy of Court Roll, or Instrument of Admittance, several Tenements which were not severally comprized in the same Surrender, Admittance, Copy of Court Roll, or Instrument of Admittance, made before the passing of the said recited Act, without procuring the Surrender, Admittance, Copy or Instrument of Admittance, in which the said Tenements shall be so mentioned or described, to be duly stamped, and the Duty paid for the same, according to the true Intent and Meaning of the said recited Act and this Act, every such Steward or Officer shall, for every such Neglect, forfeit the like Penalties, and be liable in like Manner for the Duty directed to be paid as aforesaid, and for the Penalties incurred, as any such Steward or Officer may be subject to by the said recited Act for Offences committed against the same.

Officers of Copyhold Courts, &c. describing in any Surrender, &c. Tenements not severally comprized in the same Surrender, &c. made prior to recited Act, without being duly stamped, liable to Penalties under recited Act.

II. 'And whereas by an Act, passed in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty a Duty on Certificates issued for using Hair Powder, the Clerks of the Peace, Town Clerks, Sheriffs Depute, or Stewart Clerks, or their respective Deputies, are required to execute certain Matters prescribed by the said Act to be done by them respectively: And whereas it is apprehended that the said Services may more conveniently be performed by Persons to be appointed by the Commissioners for managing the Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper;' be it further enacted, That the several Matters which by the said Act are required to be done by the Clerks of the Peace, Town Clerks, Sheriffs Depute, or Stewart Clerks, or their respective Deputies, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be carried into Execution by such Persons as the said Commissioners for the Time being, for managing the Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, or any three or more of them, shall think fit to appoint; and the Persons so to be appointed as aforesaid, shall have the like Authority to grant Copies of any Lists or Parts thereof, and shall be entitled to the like Fees for such Copies as the said Clerks of the Peace, Town Clerks, Sheriffs Depute, Stewart Clerks, or Deputies, are now authorized to grant and entitled unto, and the Copies so to be granted shall be of the like Validity in all Respects as any Copies granted according to the Directions of the said recited Act: Provided always, That the Persons so to be appointed, shall have such Allowance and no other, for their incidental Expences, as the said Commissioners for the Time being shall think reasonable, and shall be subject and liable to such and the like Penalties and Forfeitures in all Respects as the said Clerks of the Peace, Town Clerks, Sheriffs Depute, Stewart Clerks, or their Deputies respectively, are made subject and liable to by the said recited Act.

35 Geo. 3. c. 49. (§§ 15, 16, 19.) recited, and the Matters thereby required to be done by the Clerks of the Peace, &c. to be executed by such Persons as the Commissioners for Stamps shall appoint.

Persons so appointed to have such Allowance for Incidents as the Commissioners shall think reasonable, and to be subject to the like Penalties as Clerks of the Peace, &c.

III. And be it further enacted, That every Policy of Insurance made after the passing of this Act for insuring Houses, Furniture, Goods, Wares, Merchandizes, or other Property, from Loss by Fire, shall be exempt from the Stamp Duties granted by an Act, passed in the thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an additional Stamp Duty on Deeds.

Policies of Insurance from Losses by Fire exempt from Duties granted by 37 Geo. 3. c. 111.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the several and respective Rates and Duties now chargeable on Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, in respect of any Matter or Thing engrossed, written, or printed thereon, shall be charged, raised, levied, and paid upon every other Material of what Nature or Kind soever, on which any of the said Matters or Things shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be engrossed, printed, or written, which several and respective Rates and Duties shall be charged, ascertained, and secured in like Manner as the Duties now payable on Vellum, Parchment, and Paper are directed to be charged, ascertained, and secured by the Laws now in force.

Duties now chargeable on Vellum, &c. to extend to all Materials on which the like Matters shall be engrossed, printed, or written,

V. And be it further enacted, That all the Powers, Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Methods, Articles, Clauses, Penalties, and Forfeitures, and Applications of Penalties and Forfeitures, and all other Matters and Things, which, in and by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, relating to any of the Rates and Duties on stamped Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, shall be in full Force and Effect, with relation to the Rates and Duties to be charged on all other Materials as aforesaid, and shall be applied and put in Execution for the raising, levying, recovering, collecting, and securing the said Rates and Duties on all other Materials as aforesaid, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same had severally and respectively been hereby re-enacted, with relation to all other Materials as aforesaid.

and the Powers relating to the same to extend to all such Materials.

CAP. LXXXVI.

An Act for abolishing certain Offices in the Customs, and for regulating certain other Offices therein; and for applying the Fees which have been received from vacant Offices towards the Augmentation of the Superannuation Fund.—[28th June 1798.]

'WHEREAS certain Offices in his Majesty's Customs in England, which have been usually granted by Letters Patent under the Great Seal, have been found to be unnecessary; and other Offices in the said Customs, which have been also usually granted by like Letters Patent, although the Duties, or some thereof, are necessary or useful, have been commonly executed by Deputies appointed by the Patentees respectively; and several of such Offices are now vacant, and others are held by Letters Patent heretofore granted; and it is expedient that some of the said Offices should be abolished, and that others should not in future be granted by Letters Patent, and should be abolished, so far as any of the Duties thereof shall appear not to be necessary or useful; and that Provision should be made for the Discharge of such Duties, in such Manner as shall be found convenient for the Public Service:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the several Offices in the Customs, of Inspector of Prosecutions, Register of Goods seized, and of Informations and Suits, Inspector and Examiner of the Books of the Patent, and other Officers of the Ports, Surveyor General of the Customs, and Subsidies in the Port of London, Customers or Collectors at the Out Ports, and Keeper of the Books of Entries for the Port of London, shall not, nor shall any of them, from and after the passing of this Act, be granted to any Person or Persons whomsoever; and that such of the said several Offices as are vacant shall forthwith be, and the same are hereby wholly abolished; and that such of them as are not vacant shall hereafter, from Time to Time as the same shall respectively become vacant, be in like Manner abolished; and the same are hereby, from and after the respective Times when the same shall respectively become vacant as aforesaid, wholly abolished.

The Offices of Inspector of Prosecutions, &c. in the Customs, not to be hereafter granted; and such of them as are vacant, and the others as they become vacant, to be abolished.

II. And be it further enacted, That the several Offices of Register General of Trading Ships, Inspector of the Out Port Collectors Accounts and Vouchers, Comptroller of the Customs in the Port of London, excepting the Duties on Cloth, Wool, and Leather exported; Collector of the Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage in the Port of London, Collector of the Customs of Tonnage and Poundage Outwards in the Port of London and Keeper of the Cocquet Seal, nineteen Waiters commonly called King's Waiters in the Port of London, Chief Patent Searcher of the Customs in the Port of London, five Under Searchers in the Port of London, two Searchers at Gravesend, Comptroller at the Out Ports, Searchers at the Out Ports, and four King's Waiters in the Port of Bristol, being Offices the Duties whereof are in Part useful and necessary, shall not, nor shall any of such Offices, from and after the passing of this Act, be granted to any Person or Persons by Patent or otherwise, save as hereinafter mentioned, and that such of them as are vacant shall forthwith be abolished, and the same are hereby abolished, save as hereinafter provided, and that such of them as are not vacant shall hereafter, from Time to Time as the same shall respectively become vacant, be in like Manner abolished; and the same are hereby accordingly, from and after the respective Times when the same shall respectively become vacant, abolished, save as hereinafter mentioned.

Register of Trading Ships, &c. not to be granted, and such of them as are vacant, and the others as they become vacant, to be abolished, save as hereinafter mentioned. (See § 4.)

III. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Officers before mentioned, nor any of them, shall not be compelled to any other Attendance on the Duty of their several Offices during the Continuance of the existing Grants to them than has heretofore been given.

The present Officers not compellable to any other Duty than as heretofore.

IV. Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, with the Approbation of the High Treasurer or Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, to provide for the Execution of such of the Duties of the several Offices last mentioned, as shall in their Judgment appear to be necessary or useful, either by appointing (by Instruments under their Hands, with the Approbation aforesaid) proper Persons to execute, during their Pleasure, such necessary and useful Duties of so many of the said Offices as are vacant as aforesaid, and of so many of the said Offices as are not vacant, when and as the same shall respectively become vacant, and by consolidating in one or more Office or Offices, or separating into distinct or different Offices, such necessary and useful Duties respectively, and otherwise regulating such Offices respectively, in such Manner as the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, with the Approbation of the said High Treasurer, or Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, shall in their Judgment from Time to Time think fit and proper.

The Commissioners of the Customs, with the Approbation of the Treasury, may provide for the Execution of the Duties of such of the last-mentioned Offices as shall appear to be necessary, &c.

V. 'And whereas the Office of Collector Outwards in the Port of London was, in the Year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, held by George late Duke of Manchester for the Term of his Life, and the Life of his Brother Charles Greville Montagu, commonly called Lord Charles Greville Montagu, by Letters Patent, and Letters Patent were prepared in the same Year to pass the Great Seal on a Surrender

The Salary, &c. as Collector Outwards in the Port of London,

'of the then existing Patent by the said late Duke, granting the said Office to him, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, for and during his natural Life, and the natural Lives of William now Duke of Manchester and Lord Frederick Montagu his Sons, in pursuance of his Majesty's Warrant for that Purpose, which Letters Patent did not pass the Great Seal, but the Profits and Emoluments of the said Office have been ever since enjoyed by the said George late Duke of Manchester and his Family, in the same Manner as if such Letters Patent had been completed: And whereas it is expedient that the said Office should not be granted by Letters Patent as aforesaid, and that the same should be abolished after the Deaths of the Persons during whose Lives the Grant was intended to have been made;' be it therefore enacted, That during the Lives of the said William Duke of Manchester and Frederick Montagu, commonly called Lord Frederick Montagu, the Salary, Fees, and Emoluments due to the Collector Outwards in the Port of London, shall continue to be received and taken in such and the like Manner and to the like Amount, and that the same Persons shall be entitled to the Profits of the said Office as if Letters Patent for granting the said Office had been perfected, as directed by his Majesty's said Warrant, in the Year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-two; and that, from and after the Death of the Survivor of the said William Duke of Manchester and Frederick Montagu, commonly called Lord Frederick Montagu, the said Office should be abolished: Provided always, that during the Lives of the last-mentioned Persons, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England, or any four or more of them, with the Consent and Approbation of the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, to appoint proper Persons to execute all the necessary Duties of the said Office of Collector Outwards in the Port of London.

to be received in the like Manner as if Letters Patent had been perfected as directed by his Majesty's Warrant in 1782; and from the Death of the Survivor of the Duke of Manchester and his Brother, the Office to be abolished.

During their Lives, the Commissioners of the Customs, with the Consent of the Treasury, may appoint Persons to execute the Duty

VI. And be it further enacted, That the several Offices of Receiver and Accomptant for Sales of condemned Goods sold in London, Receiver of his Majesty's Share of enumerated Goods, Fines, and Forfeitures, remitted from the Out Ports, Comptroller of his Majesty's Share of enumerated Goods, Fines, and Forfeitures, remitted from the Out Ports, Accomptant of Petty Receipts in the Customs, Surveyor of the Customs, (except in the Port of London,) four Examiners of the Out Port Books in the Port of London, Customer of Cloth and Petty Customs in the Port of London, Collector of the Petty Customs of Aliens in the Port of London, and Keeper of the Cocquet Seal to the said Office belonging, Comptroller of the pretermitted Customs in the Port of London, Collector of the Customs of Hides, Woolfells, Lead, and Tin, in the Port of London, and Keeper of the Seal called The Cocquet, in the Port aforesaid, Comptroller of the Customs of Wool, Hides, and Woolfells, Lead, and Tin, and also of the Subsidies of three Shillings for every Dolium, and of twelve Pence of every Pound in the Port of London, shall not, nor shall any of them, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, be granted to any Persons or Person by Letters Patent or otherwise, save as hereinafter mentioned.

From July 5, 1798, the Offices of Receiver and Accomptant for Sales of condemned Goods, &c. not to be granted, save as hereinafter mentioned.

VII. Provided always, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, with the Approbation of the High Treasurer, or Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, as to any of such Offices which are now vacant, and likewise from Time to Time when and as any of such Offices which are not vacant shall become vacant, either wholly to suppress and abolish such Offices, or any of them, or any Parts or Part thereof, or of any of them, or otherwise to regulate the same in such Manner as they shall think fit and proper; and in case the said Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs shall think fit, (with such Approbation as aforesaid,) either wholly or in Part to abolish any of such Offices, the same shall, from and after the Confirmation by the High Treasurer, or Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them, of any Order which the said Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs shall make for that Purpose, be, and the same are hereby abolished, either wholly or in Part, and in such Manner and subject to such Provisions as in such Order shall be expressed.

The Commissioners of the Customs, with the Approbation of the Treasury, may abolish or regulate vacant Offices;

VIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, with the Approbation of the High Treasurer, or Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury for the Time being, from Time to Time to provide for the Execution of such of the Duties of the several Offices last mentioned, as shall in their Judgment appear to be necessary or useful, either by appointing under their Hands proper Persons to execute, during their Pleasure, such Duties of so many of the said several Offices as are vacant as aforesaid, and of so many of the said several Offices as are not vacant, when and as the same shall respectively become vacant, and by consolidating in one or more Office or Offices, or separating into different Offices, such necessary or useful Duties respectively, and otherwise regulate such Offices respectively in such Manner as the said Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, with the Approbation of the High Treasurer or Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, shall in their Judgment from Time to Time deem fit and proper.

and may provide for the Execution of the Duties of such as they shall think necessary, &c.

IX. And be it further enacted, That all Persons who shall or may, before the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, have been appointed to execute any of the Duties of any of the said several Offices not wholly abolished by this Act, shall, to all Intents and Purposes, have the same Power and Authority to execute and perform such Duties of such Offices respectively, as they would have had if this Act had not been made, until such Persons respectively, or some other Person or Persons, shall be appointed to execute such Duties respectively under the Authority of this Act; and that all Persons who shall or may be appointed to execute any of the Duties of any of such Offices under the Authority of this Act, shall have the same Powers and Authorities, to all Intents and Purposes, to execute and perform such Duties respectively,

All Persons appointed before July 5, 1798, to execute the Duties of any of the said Offices, shall have the same Power as they would have had previous to this Act till others are appointed, who shall have the same Powers as if appointed before July 5, 1798.

ively, as the same Persons respectively would have had if such Persons had been appointed to such Offices respectively before the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, according to the Terms of the several Warrants which such Persons so to be appointed shall respectively receive from the said Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs for executing such Duties respectively.

Commissioners of the Customs, with the Approbation of the Treasury, to appoint Salaries to Persons executing the Duties of Offices not abolished;

X. And it is hereby further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, with the Approbation of the High Treasurer, or Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, to appoint such Salaries to be taken and had by the several Persons who shall be appointed by the said Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs to execute any of the Duties of any of the said Offices not wholly abolished by this Act, as the said Commissioners shall think fit, not exceeding the Salaries, Fees, Perquisites, and Profits heretofore had and taken by the Persons who have from Time to Time held and enjoyed such Offices respectively.

and on the Abolition of any Office, to make Compensation to the Deputy or other Persons who were employed therein before the passing of this Act.

XI. And be it further enacted, That on the absolute Abolition of any Office under the Provisions of this Act, it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs in England for the Time being (with the Approbation of the High Treasurer, or Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury for the Time being) to make such just and reasonable Compensation as they shall, in their Judgment, think proper, to the Deputy or Deputies, Clerk or Clerks, or to any other Person or Persons who, on or immediately before the passing of this Act, was or were employed in such Office so abolished as aforesaid.

When necessary to make a new Appointment for executing the Duties of Offices, although the Patents are abolished, an Account to be laid before Parliament.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That when and as often as it shall be found necessary to make a new Appointment under the Authority of this Act, for the Execution of any of the Duties of such of the Offices herein mentioned as shall be requisite to be performed, although the Patents are abolished, the Commissioners of the Customs shall, in all such Cases, lay an Account of the same before both Houses of Parliament, within fourteen Days of the Beginning of each Session, describing the Office, and the Amount of the Salary, which shall be appointed for the same.

The Money received previous to July 5, 1798, for Fees of Offices abolished and vacant, to be added to the Superannuation Fund.

XIII. 'And whereas a Superannuation Fund has long been established under the Management of the 'Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, for the Benefit of aged and infirm or disabled Officers: And 'whereas several Sums of Money have been received as Fees or Emoluments of various Offices in the 'Customs now vacant, and have accrued during the Vacancy of such Offices: And whereas it would pro-'mote the Good of the Service, by rewarding and encouraging the Officers under the Management of the 'Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs, if such Sums of Money were to be appropriated and applied in 'Augmentation of the said Superannuation Fund:' Be it therefore enacted, That the several Sums of Money which have been or may be received previous to the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, for Fees or Emoluments of Offices so abolished and vacant as aforesaid, shall be appropriated and applied in Augmentation of the said Fund, called The Superannuation Fund, in such Manner as the said Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs for the Time being, or any four or more of them, shall in their Judgment and Discretion think fitting and proper, and shall by Writing under their Hands direct.

No Person to be put on the Superannuation Fund till incapable of his Employment, and a List of those put thereon to be laid before Parliament.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That no Officer or other Person shall be put upon the said Superannuation Fund, except on the Commissioners of the Customs, or any four or more of them, being satisfied that such Officer or other Person is actually unfit to continue in the Execution of the Duties of his Employment from Age, Illness, or other Infirmity; and that a List of all Persons who shall be put upon the said Fund shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament, within fourteen Days after the Commencement of every Session, specifying the Offices which such Persons held, and the Times they enjoyed the same, with the Salaries or Emoluments thereof, and what Proportions of such Salaries or Emoluments are continued to such Persons, and stating the Reasons for their being superannuated, with the Names of the Persons who succeeded them.

CAP. LXXXVII.

An Act for the Administration of Assets in Cases where the Executor to whom Probate has been granted is out of the Realm.—[28th June 1798.]

What Quantity of Salt shall be deemed a Bushel.

IV. And be it further enacted, That sixty-five Pounds Weight Avoirdupois of Rock Salt shall be deemed and taken to be a Bushel of Rock Salt; and that of every other Kind or Species of Salt, not being Rock Salt, fifty-six Pounds Weight Avoirdupois, shall be deemed and taken to be a Bushel.

Barrels to be gauged by the Gallon English Wine Measure.

V. And be it further enacted, That all and every Barrel, Cask, or other Vessel, in which Fish, Beef, or Pork, entitled to any Bounty by this Act given or granted, shall be packed, shall be gauged, measured, or ascertained, and the same shall be taken to be so much as the same will respectively contain, according to the Gallon English Wine Measure.

Duties to be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise.

VI. And be it further enacted, That such of the Duties by this Act imposed as shall arise or become payable in England, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in England for the Time being, and such thereof as shall arise or become due in Scotland, shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland for the Time being.

Commissioners may compound for the Duty on Salt with Refiners of Rock Salt, and also for the Duty in respect of Mineral Alkali.

VII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of Excise, or the major Part of them respectively, to compound for the Duty by this Act granted, for and in respect of Salt, with any Refiner or Refiners of Rock Salt; and also for the Duty by this Act imposed, for or in respect of Mineral Alkali or Flux for Glass, from Time to Time, in such Manner and Form, and upon such Terms and Conditions as shall be most to the Advantage and Improvement of the Receipts of the said Duty; any Thing in this or any other Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

If imported Salt be landed before Payment of Duty, it shall be forfeited, with the Vessels, &c.;

VIII. And be it further enacted, That the Duty hereby imposed on Foreign Salt or other Salt imported into Great Britain, shall from Time to Time be satisfied and paid by the Importer or Importers of the same, upon his, her, or their Entry or Entries made, and before landing thereof; and that in case any Foreign or imported Salt shall be unshipped or landed, or put on Shore, or into any Ship, Boat, or Vessel in Great Britain, before due Entry be made thereof with the Collector of Excise of the Port or Place where such Salt shall be imported, or before the Duties hereby imposed for or in respect thereof shall have been fully satisfied and paid, or without a Warrant for the landing or delivering of such Salt, signed by such Collector as aforesaid, said, then and in such Case all such Foreign or imported Salt so unshipped, landed, or put on Shore, or into any Boat or Vessel in Great Britain, contrary to the Directions of this Act, shall be forfeited, together with the Packages containing the same; and the Ships, Boats, and Vessels, and all the Horses, and other Cattle and Carriages whatsoever made use of in the removing, landing, Carriage, or Conveyance, of such Salt, and the same respectively shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise, and the Person or Persons concerned or employed in so unshipping, landing, removing, or putting such Foreign or imported Salt on Shore, or into any Ship, Boat, or Vessel as aforesaid, contrary to the Directions of this Act, or to whose Hands the same shall come, after the same shall have been unshipped, landed, or put on Shore as aforesaid, he, she, or they knowing the same to have been so unshipped, landed, or put on Shore, shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit and lose treble the Value of such Salt.

and the Persons concerned to forfeit treble the Value of the Salt.

IX. And be it further enacted, That if any Foreign Salt or other Salt imported into Great Britain, shall not be entered and landed, and the Duty due and payable thereon be fully paid and satisfied, within twenty Days after the Master or other Person having the Charge or Command of the Ship or Vessel in which such Foreign Salt or other Salt shall be imported, shall or ought to have made his Report of the Burthen, Contents, and Lading of such Ship or Vessel, in pursuance of the Directions of an Act, made in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of King Charles the Second *, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds and regulating Abuses in his Majesty's Customs, then and in every such Case all such Foreign Salt or other Salt imported into Great Britain shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise or Customs.

If Salt imported be not entered and landed, and the Duty paid within a limited Time, it shall be forfeited.

* c. 11.

X. Provided always nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That any such Foreign Salt as shall be duly and fairly imported into Great Britain, in any Quantity not less than fifty Bushels, upon due Entry thereof, may forthwith, and before Payment of all or any Part of the Duty by this Act imposed for or in respect of Foreign Salt, be landed, in the Presence of the proper Officer of Excise, from on board the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be imported, and shall be weighed, and carried, and put into such import Warehouse, Storehouse, or Cellar, as shall be for that Purpose provided, (at the Expence of the respective Proprietor or Proprietors, or Importer or Importers of such Salt,) and shall be approved of by the Commissioners of Excise, or the Person or Persons who shall be appointed or employed by them for that Purpose, upon the Proprietor or Proprietors, or Importer or Importers, of such Salt giving good and sufficient Bond or Security, to be also approved of by the said Commissioners of Excise, or the Person or Persons who shall be appointed or employed by them for that Purpose, in double the Amount of the Duty by this Act imposed, for or in respect of such Foreign Salt, that he, she, or they shall and will pay and clear off all the Duties with which any such Foreign Salt, that shall be so put into any such Warehouse, Storehouse, or Cellar, shall be charged, or to which the same shall be liable, as soon as such Foreign Salt shall be sold, in case the same shall be sold within twelve Months from and after the Time the same shall be so put into any such Warehouse, Storehouse, or Cellar, as aforesaid; or in case such Salt shall not be sold within such twelve Months, that such Proprietor or Proprietors, or Importer or Importers, shall and will pay and clear off all the said Duties at the End or Expiration of such twelve Months; such Duties to be charged according to the Quantity of such Foreign Salt, as the same shall be ascertained by the proper Officer of Excise at the Time such Foreign Salt shall be landed, and lodged or put into any such Warehouse, Storehouse, or Cellar, as aforesaid.

Foreign Salt, not less than 50 Bushels may be landed and warehoused, on Bond to pay the Duty when sold, or in 12 Months if not sold.

XI. And be it further enacted, That every such Warehouse, Storehouse, or Cellar, shall at all Times, except when the proper Officer of Excise shall be attending for the Purpose of receiving or delivering Salt, or taking Account of Salt therein, be secured under the joint Locks of such Officer and the Proprietor or Owner thereof; and no Salt shall be put into, or delivered out of, any such Warehouse, Storehouse, or Cellar, in any less Quantity, at one Time, than fifty Bushels; and when and so often as the Proprietor or Proprietors, or Owner or Owners of such Foreign Salt shall be desirous of, or have Occasion to lodge or put any Foreign Salt into, or to take or deliver the same out of any such Warehouse, Storehouse, or Cellar, he, she, or they, shall give previous Notice thereof, in Writing, to the proper Officer of Excise by the Space of twelve Hours, specifying in such Notice the Day and Hour of the Day when he, she, or they intends or intend to lodge or put any Foreign Salt into, or to take or deliver the same out of, any such Warehouse, Storehouse, or Cellar, and the Quantity of Salt intended to be put into or delivered out of the same; and such Officer is hereby authorized and required to attend in pursuance of every such Notice, for the Purpose of receiving or delivering and taking Account of the Quantity of such Foreign Salt accordingly.

Warehouses to be secured under joint Locks of the Officer and Proprietor, and no Salt to be received or delivered in less Quantity than 50 Bushels, and 12 Hours previous Notice of Intention to lodge or take out Salt to be given the Officer.

XII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any known Fish Curer or Fish Curers to import and lodge in his, her, or their entered Warehouses, free of the Duty by this Act imposed for or in respect of Foreign Salt, and for the sole Purpose of curing and preserving Fish, any Quantity of Foreign Salt not less than fifty Bushels at one Time, upon the Terms and Conditions, and under, subject, and according to the several Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, and Provisions, hereinafter provided and established, for or in respect of British Salt sent or delivered to Fish Curers, free of Duty, for the Purpose of curing and preserving Fish: Provided always, That such Foreign Salt so to be employed and consumed in curing and preserving Fish be duly and fairly entered with the proper Collector of Excise upon the Importation thereof, and weighed and transhipped, or weighed and landed, and warehoused, as the Case may require, in the Presence and with the Concurrence of the proper Officer of Excise at the Port of Importation.

Fish Curers may import and lodge in entered Warehouses, not less than 50 Bushels of Foreign Salt, Duty-free, for curing Fish, upon certain Conditions.

Foreign Salt not to be imported in Vessels of less than 40 Tons Burthen, on Penalty of Forfeiture, with the Vessel, &c.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That no Foreign Salt shall be imported or brought into Great Britain, or into any Port, Harbour, Haven, or Creek thereof, in any Ship or Vessel of less Burthen than forty Tons, (excepting only for the Use of the Seamen then belonging to and on board the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be imported, not exceeding five Pounds Weight for each Seaman,) upon Pain of forfeiting all such Salt, together with the Casks and other Packages respectively containing the same, and also the Ship or Vessel in or on board of which the same shall be so imported or brought, with her Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel, and the same respectively shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise.

No Salt or Rock Salt to be imported into Great Britain from Ireland, Guernsey, Jersey, Sark, Alderney, or Man. If any Vessel be found at Anchor, or hovering within certain Limits, having Salt or Rock Salt on board, except for the Use of the Seamen on board, the Salt may be seized, with the Vessel, &c.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That no Salt or Rock Salt, whether the Produce or Manufacture of Great Britain or of any other Country, shall be imported or brought into Great Britain, or into any Port, Harbour, Haven, or Creek thereof, from Ireland, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Sark, Alderney, or Man; and that if any Salt or Rock Salt shall be so imported or brought into Great Britain as aforesaid, excepting only for the Use of the Seamen then belonging to and on board the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be imported, not exceeding two Pounds Weight for each Seaman, and stowed fairly and openly in such Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be imported; or if any Ship, Vessel, or Boat whatever, shall be found at Anchor, or hovering within the Limits of any Port of this Kingdom, or within four Leagues of the Coast of Great Britain, or shall be discovered to have been within such Limits or Distance, and not proceeding on her Voyage, Wind and Weather permitting, unless in case of unavoidable Necessity or Distress of Weather, of which Necessity or Distress the Master or other Person having or taking the Charge or Command of such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, shall give Notice to, and make Proof before the Collector or other Chief Officer of the Customs or Excise of the Port within the Limits of which such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, shall be found, immediately after the Arrival of such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, within the Limits of such Port, having on board any Salt or Rock Salt, except as aforesaid, then and in every such Case, not only all such Salt and Rock Salt respectively, together with the Casks and other Packages respectively containing the same, but also the Ship, Vessel, or Boat, on board which the same shall be found as aforesaid, with her Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle, and Apparel, shall be forfeited, whether Bulk shall then have been broken or not, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise: Provided always nevertheless, That nothing in this Act shall extend, or be deemed or construed to extend, to forfeit any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, for having Salt on board, if such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, shall be known to be regularly and usually employed in Fishing, and shall have in or on board the same no more or other Salt than shall have been duly received from some entered Warehouse for keeping Fishery Salt, or from some other Ship, Vessel, or Boat, employed in Fishing; and if such Salt shall not exceed the Quantity which shall be necessary for preserving such Quantity of Fish, as may be reasonably expected to be thereafter taken by the Crew of such Ship, or Vessel, or Boat, on or during the particular Trip or Voyage in which such Ship, Vessel, or Boat, shall be then engaged or employed; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary hereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Forfeiture not to extend to Fishing Vessels having on board a necessary Quantity of Salt received from entered Warehouses, or other Fishing Vessels.

Rock Salt may be made into White Salt at Places duly entered.

XV. 'And whereas it is expedient that Rock Salt should be allowed to be refined and made into White 'Salt at such Refineries of Rock Salt in England, as have heretofore been entered and used for that Pur-'pose;' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, it shall and may be lawful to refine Rock Salt, and make the same into White Salt, at such Salt Works and Places (and at no other) which are or shall be erected or set up, and duly entered, for the refining of Rock Salt, at any Place within the Distance of ten Miles of and from the Salt Mine or Salt Pit from which the Rock Salt intended to be refined shall be raised or taken, or which shall have been duly entered and used for the refining of Rock Salt, and making the same into White Salt, at any Time previous to the passing of this Act.

Penalty of 200l. for refining Rock Salt at unauthorized Places.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall refine any Rock Salt, or make the same into White Salt, at any Place or Salt Work, save and except at such Place or Places, or Salt Work or Salt Works, as is and are authorized, or shall be licensed under the Provisions of this Act, he, she, or they shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That no Rock Salt shall be delivered, taken, removed, carried, or conveyed, from or out of any Warehouse or Storehouse entered according to the Directions of this Act, except in the Presence of the proper Officer of Excise under whose Survey the same shall be, nor shall any such Rock Salt be delivered, taken, removed, carried, or conveyed away, from or out of any such Warehouse or Storehouse as aforesaid, in any less Quantity than four Bushels at one Time, nor shall any Rock Salt be delivered, taken, removed, carried, or conveyed, from or out of any such Warehouse or Storehouse, except between the Hours of five in the Morning and seven in the Evening, from the twenty-fourth Day of March to the twenty-ninth Day of September, and between the Hours of seven in the Morning and five in the Evening, from the twenty-eighth Day of September to the twenty-eighth Day of March, in each Year; and all such Rock Salt so delivered, or removed or removing, contrary to the Directions in this Act, together with the Packages containing the same, and the Flats, Barges, Boats, or other Vessels, Waggons, Carts, or other Carriages, and also the Horses and Cattle used or employed in removing the same respectively, shall be forfeited, and the same respectively shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise, and the Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors of such Warehouse or Storehouse shall forfeit and lose the Sum of forty Shillings for every Bushel of such Rock Salt so delivered, removed or removing, contrary to the Directions of this Act, or the Sum of fifty Pounds, at the Election of his Majesty's Attorney General, or the Person or Persons who shall sue for the same.

Makers of Salt, Refiners of Rock Salt, and Proprietors of Salt Works, to

XXII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Maker or Makers of Salt, and Refiner or Refiners of Rock Salt, and Proprietor or Proprietors of any Salt Work respectively, shall provide, support, and maintain a proper and secure Warehouse, Storehouse, or Loft, or Warehouses, Storehouses, or Lofts, with good and sufficient Fastenings thereto, into which Warehouse or Warehouses, or Storehouse or Store-provide Warehouses, into which all Salt (Rock Salt excepted) shall be put, and secured by the Excise Officer.

houses, or Loft or Lofts, or some or one of them, all his, her, or their Salt (Rock Salt excepted) shall be put and deposited by and at the Expence of such Maker, Refiner, or Proprietor, or Makers, Refiners, or Proprietors, according to the Directions of this Act, and no such Warehouse, Storehouse, or Loft, shall have more than two Doors or Entrances for the Purpose of delivering Salt out of any such Warehouse, Storehouse, or Loft, nor shall any such Warehouse, Storehouse, or Loft, have more than four Doors or Entrances immediately into or communicating with any Pan or Boiling House, nor shall there be any other Door or Communication whatsoever between any such Warehouse, Storehouse, or Loft, and any other Place whatsoever, save and except such Doors, Entrances, or Communications as aforesaid, and each such Warehouse, Storehouse, and Loft respectively, shall be locked up and secured by the proper Officer of Excise under whose Survey the same shall from Time to Time be, except at such Time or Times only as such Officer shall be attending for the Purpose of depositing Salt therein, or for weighing or taking Account of, or delivering Salt out of such respective Warehouse, Storehouse, or Loft; and if any such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, Proprietor or Proprietors as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to provide such Warehouse, Storehouse, or Loft, or Warehouses, Storehouses, or Lofts as aforesaid, he, she, or they shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Penalty of 50l. for Neglect.

Makers of Salt, Refiners of Rock Salt, and Proprietors of Salt Works, to give previous Notice of Intention to charge their Pans, &c. on Penalty of 20l.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Maker or Makers of Salt, and Refiner or Refiners of Rock Salt, and Proprietor or Proprietors of any Salt Work, shall, at least six Hours before he, she, or they shall begin to charge his, her, or their Pan or Boiler with Brine or other Preparation for making or refining Salt, give to the Officer of Excise under whose Survey his, her, or their Salt Work shall be, a Notice in Writing of his, her, or their Intention so to do, specifying therein the particular Time and Hour at which he, she, or they intends or intend so to charge his, her, or their Pan or Boiler, and also whether he, she, or they intends or intend to make large grained, commonly called Fishery Salt, or fine grained Salt; and if any such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors, shall not begin to charge his, her, or their Pan or Boiler within the Space of one Hour after the particular Time or Hour specified in such Notice for that Purpose, then such Notice shall be void, and every such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors as aforesaid, shall give a fresh and like Notice before he, she, or they shall begin to charge his, her, or their Pan or Boiler; and in case such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors, shall neglect or refuse to give such Notice, or having given a Notice which shall become void as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to give a fresh and like Notice, he, she, or they shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds.

Such Makers, &c shall proceed, without Delay, to charge with the whole Quantity of Brine, &c. to be employed, on Penalty of 20l. One Addition may be made to the Charge before Salt is taken out, upon giving two Hours previous Notice to the Officer.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That all and every such Maker or Makers of Salt, Refiner or Refiners of Rock Salt, and Proprietor or Proprietors of any Salt Work, who, in pursuance of any such Notice as aforesaid, shall begin to charge his, her, or their Pan or Boiler with Brine or other Preparation for making Salt or refining Rock Salt, shall proceed without Respite or Delay, and with all due Diligence and Dispatch, to charge such Pan or Boiler with the whole Quantity of Brine or other Preparation intended to be employed, used, or worked off at such Boiling or Operation, on Pain, for every Neglect or Refusal thereof, to forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds: Provided always nevertheless, That if any such Maker, Refiner, or Proprietor, shall have Occasion to add to or increase the Brine in any Pan or Boiler, after such Pan or Boiler shall have been charged, and before any Salt of that particular Boiling or Operation shall have been taken from or out of such Pan or Boiler, he, she, or they shall be permitted and allowed once, but not oftener, to add to and increase the Quantity of Brine in any such Pan or Boiler, upon giving to the Officer of Excise under whose Survey his, her, or their Salt Work shall then be, a Notice in Writing of his, her, or their Intention to make such Addition or Increase, which Notice shall be given by the Space of two Hours before he, she, or they shall begin to make such Addition or Increase, and shall contain such or the like Particulars as are hereinbefore required to be specified in the Notice directed to be given for charging the Pan or Boiler.

Penalty of 50l. for putting Brine into a Pan after Salt is taken out before the whole Operation is finished, or after charged, except as before allowed.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That if any Maker or Makers of Salt, Refiner or Refiners of Rock Salt, or Proprietor or Proprietors of any Salt Work, shall convey or put any Brine into any Pan or Boiler after he, she, or they shall have begun to take any Salt out of such Pan or Boiler, and before the whole Boiling or Operation of such particular Charge shall be finished, and all the Salt made or intended to be made therefrom shall be taken out of such Pan or Boiler, or shall convey or put any Brine into any Pan or Boiler after the same shall have been fully charged, (except in the Manner hereinbefore allowed, under such Notice as is hereinbefore provided, for making an Addition to or increasing the Brine in the Pan or Boiler,) he, she, or they shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Salt taken from each Pan to be kept separate, and within a limited Time, and before Salt of any subsequent Boiling be taken out, a

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That all the Salt taken from or out of each and every Pan or Boiler at each Boiling or Operation, shall be kept in the Pan House, Boiling House, or Boiling Place, separate and apart from all other Salt whatever; and within ten Hours after the Salt shall be so taken from or out of such Pan or Boiler, and before any Salt of any subsequent Boiling or Operation shall be taken from or out of the same Pan or Boiler, such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, Proprietor or Proprietors, shall deliver to the proper Officer of Excise under whose Survey his, her, or their Salt Work shall be, a Declaration in Writing, specifying the true Number of Baskets, Barrows, or Troughs of Salt, made or taken from or out of such Pan or Boiler at such Boiling or Operation, and thereupon the said Officer shall proceed to take an Account of the Number of Baskets, Barrows, or Troughs of Salt so made or taken from or out of such Pan or Boiler as aforesaid.

Declaration to be given the Officer who shall take an Account.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That when and so soon as the proper Officer of Excise shall have taken an Account of and ascertained the Number of Baskets, Barrows, or Troughs of Salt made at any Boiling, the Maker or Makers, or Refiner or Refiners of such Salt, or the Proprietor or Proprietors of the Salt Work where such Salt shall be made, shall immediately proceed, with a sufficient Number of his, her, or their Workmen and Servants, and with all due Diligence and Dispatch, to carry or remove all such Salt into his, her, or their entered Warehouse or Warehouses, Storehouse or Storehouses, or Loft or Lofts; and if such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, Proprietor or Proprietors, shall neglect or refuse so to remove such Salt, he, she, or they shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds.

When the Account is taken, the Salt to be removed into the Warehouse, on Penalty of 20 l.

XXVIII. Provided always nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That in case any Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners of Salt, or Proprietor or Proprietors of any Salt Work, instead of keeping the Salt of each Boiling or Operation in the Pan or Boiling House until the Whole of each Boiling or Operation shall be finished, shall be desirous to carry, remove, or put any Salt of any particular Boiling or Operation into his, her, or their Warehouse or Warehouses, Storehouse or Storehouses, or Loft or Lofts, before any such Boiling or Operation shall be finished, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors, to carry, remove, or put one Half (but neither more nor less) of the whole Number of Baskets, Barrows, or Troughs of Salt, to be made at each such Boiling or Operation into any such Warehouse or Warehouses, Storehouse or Storehouses, or Loft or Lofts, upon the Terms and Conditions hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, That in the Notice required by this Act to be given for charging his, her, or their Pan or Boiler with Brine, or other Preparation, such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors, shall specify the particular Number of Baskets, Barrows, or Troughs, of which such Half of such particular Boiling or Operation shall or will consist, and the Day, and Hour of the Day, when such Half of the Number of Baskets, Barrows, or Troughs, of Salt of every such Boiling or Operation shall be carried, removed, or put, into such Warehouse or Warehouses, Storehouse or Storehouses, or Loft or Lofts; and also that all the Salt which, according to the Specification in such Notice, shall be intended to be carried, removed, or put into such Warehouse or Warehouses, Storehouse or Storehouses, or Loft or Lofts, at each such Removal, shall be actually so carried, removed, and put, immediately after the proper Officer of Excise hath taken a true Account thereof, and before any more or other Salt shall be taken out of the Pan or Boiler of that or any subsequent Boiling or Operation.

Half the Salt of any Boiling may be warehoused before the Whole is finished, on certain Conditions.

XXIX. 'And whereas certain Refiners of Rock Salt may have in their Custody or Possession, on the 'said tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety eight, certain Quantities of Rock Salt, 'and Salt made from Rock Salt, for or in respect of which all his Majesty's Duties may have been paid;' be it therefore enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Officer or Officers of Excise, on or before the tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, by and with the Privity, Consent, and Assistance of any such Refiner of Rock Salt, to weigh and take an Account of the Quantity of Salt and Rock Salt in the Custody and Possession of any such Refiner or Refiners, and if on taking such Account of the Quantity of Salt and Rock Salt in the Custody and Possession of any such Refiner or Refiners, it shall be made appear, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Excise, or the major Part of them respectively, from the Books and Accounts of the Commissioners and Officers for managing and collecting his Majesty's Duties on Salt, that all the Duties for or in respect of Rock Salt shall have been duly paid, for all or any Part of the Rock Salt, or Salt made from Rock Salt, which shall be so taken Account of by the proper Officer or Officers of Excise, in the Custody or Possession of any such Refiner or Refiners as aforesaid, then and in such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of Excise, or the major Part of them respectively, to allow to such Refiner or Refiners, out of the Monies which shall first become due and payable by such Refiner or Refiners, for the Duty charged by virtue of this Act, at and after the Rate of ten Shillings for every Bushel of Rock Salt, and Salt made from Rock Salt, for or in respect of which it shall be made appear as aforesaid, that all the Duty payable thereon has been duly paid, always reckoning one Pound of refined Salt for every Pound of Rock Salt melted: Provided always, That no such Allowance shall be made, until the Refiner or Refiners claiming the same shall have made Oath before the Collector or Supervisor of Excise, of the Collection or District in which his, her, or their Refinery shall be situate, (which Oath such Collector or Supervisor respectively are hereby authorized and empowered to administer,) that the Duty of Rock Salt, for the actual Quantity of Rock Salt, or Salt made from Rock Salt, for or in respect of which he, she, or they shall claim any such Allowance as aforesaid, has been duly paid, and that no Part of such Duty has been before allowed or drawn back.

On or before Oct. 10, 1798, Officers may take an Account of the Quantity of Salt and Rock Salt in the Custody of Refiners for which the Duty has been paid, and the Commissioners of Excise may make an Allowance of 10 s. per Bushel out of the Duty under this Act.

No such Allowance to be made but on Oath that the Duty has been paid.

XXX. And be it further enacted, That if any Maker or Makers of Salt, or Refiner or Refiners of Rock Salt, or Proprietor or Proprietors of any Salt Work, or any other Person or Persons whatsoever, shall remove, carry, or put any Salt, of which an Account has not been taken by the proper Officer of Excise, (Rock Salt in the Rock Salt Warehouses adjoining to the Mine or Pit only excepted,) into any such entered Warehouse, Storehouse, or Loft as aforesaid, or shall remove or convey out of his, her, or their Pan House, Boiling House, or Boiling Place, to any Room or Place, any Salt, before the Boiling or Operation of which such Salt shall be a Part, shall be worked off, or before the Declaration hereinbefore required shall have been delivered

Penalty for warehousing Salt of which no Account has been taken, or removing Salt before the whole Boiling shall be worked off, or

delivered to the proper Officer of Excise, or before such Officer shall have duly taken an Account of, and ascertained the Number of Bushels, Barrows, or Troughs of Salt, of such Boiling or Operation, or before the same shall have been removed into such his, her, or their entered Warehouse or Warehouses, Storehouse or Storehouses, or Loft or Lofts, as aforesaid, then and in every such Case all the Salt so removed, carried, or conveyed away, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall be forfeited, together with the Package containing the same, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise, and such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors, or other Person or Persons so offending, shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of twenty Shillings for every Pound Weight of such Salt so removed, carried, or conveyed away, or the Sum of one hundred Pounds, at the Election of his Majesty's Attorney General, or the Person or Persons who shall sue for the same.

Warehouses may be used at Liverpool or Bristol for storing Salt for Exportation, under certain Provisions.

XXXI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Maker or Refiner of, or Dealer in Salt, to provide or erect, and make use of one or more such Export Warehouse or Warehouses as hereinafter mentioned, at or within the Ports of Liverpool or Bristol respectively, for the Purpose of laying, storing, or keeping therein Salt intended for Exportation: Provided, That every such Warehouse shall be well, substantially, and securely built and constructed, and that no such Warehouse shall have more than one Door or Entrance to the same, and that there be no Communication between any such Warehouse and any other Place whatsoever, except such Door or Entrance as aforesaid: Provided also, That no such Warehouse be less than twenty Yards distant from any Warehouse which shall be used for laying, storing, or keeping Salt for Home Trade or Consumption, and that no such Warehouse be made use of for the laying, storing, or keeping of Salt, until particular Entry, in Writing, of such Warehouse, shall have been made at the next Office of Excise by the Owner or Proprietor thereof.

Warehouses to be locked up by the Officer.

XXXII. And be it further enacted, That every such Warehouse shall be securely locked up by the proper Officer of Excise, except at such Time or Times only as such Officer shall be attending in pursuance of Notice to be given, according to the Directions of this Act, for depositing Salt therein, or delivering Salt out of the same for Exportation.

Salt may be delivered Duty-free from Warehouses to be carried to Export Warehouses.

XXXIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Maker or Makers of Salt, or Refiner or Refiners of Rock Salt, to deliver, Duty free, from his, her, or their Warehouse or Warehouses, Storehouse or Storehouses, Loft or Lofts, any Quantity of Salt (Rock Salt excepted) to be forthwith carried and conveyed to, and deposited in any such Export Warehouse or Warehouses as aforesaid, at the Ports of Liverpool or Bristol, for the Purpose of being exported therefrom to Parts beyond the Seas.

Salt or Rock Salt removed from a Warehouse, except in the Presence of an Officer, &c. to be forfeited, with the Carriages, &c. and the Persons concerned to forfeit 100l.

XXXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Salt or Rock Salt shall be taken, removed, or carried out of any Warehouse, Storehouse, Loft, or other Place used by any Maker or Makers of Salt, or Refiner or Refiners of Rock Salt, or Proprietor or Proprietors of any Salt Mine, Salt Pit, or Salt Work, except in the Presence of the proper Officer of Excise, and under and according to the Directions of this Act, between the Hours of seven in the Evening and five in the Morning, from the twenty-fourth Day of March to the twenty-ninth Day of September, or between the Hours of five in the Evening and seven in the Morning, from the twenty-eighth of September to the twenty-fifth Day of March, such Salt and Rock Salt, together with the Package containing the same, and also the Waggons, Carts, or other Carriages, and Horses and Cattle used or employed in carrying and removing the same, shall be forfeited, and the same respectively shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise, and the Person or Persons concerned or employed in such Removal, or in whose Custody or Possession such Salt shall be found, shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Salt or Rock Salt removed without a Permit, or under a false Description, to be forfeited, with the Ships, &c.

XXXV. And be it further enacted, That if any Salt or Rock Salt shall be found removed or removing from any Salt Mine, Salt Pit, or Salt Work, without a true and lawful Permit accompanying the same, or if any Salt or Rock Salt, sent or consigned to London, Liverpool, Worcester, Gloucester, or Bristol, shall be found removed or removing to any or either of the said Ports or Places, without a true and lawful Permit accompanying the same, or if any Salt or Rock Salt shall be found removed or removing Coastwise without a true and lawful Permit accompanying the same, or if any Salt or Rock Salt shall be found removed or removing under a false Description, then all such Salt and Rock Salt so found removed or removing, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall be forfeited, together with the Package containing the same, and also all the Ships, Flats, Barges, Boats, or other Vessels, Waggons, Carts, or other Carriages, and the Horses and Cattle used or employed in removing the same, and the same respectively shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise, and the Person or Persons in whose Custody the same shall be found, or who shall be, or shall have been employed or concerned in removing the same, shall forfeit the Sum of forty Shillings for every Pound Weight of Salt and Rock Salt so found removed or removing, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, or the Sum of one hundred Pounds, at the Election of his Majesty's Attorney General, or the Person or Persons who shall sue for the same.

Penalty on Persons concerned in such Removal.

Officers of the Customs or Excise may carry Persons removing Salt without a Permit before a Justice, who may convict

XXXVI. And be it further enacted, That in case any Officer of the Customs or Excise shall find or discover any Person or Persons in the Act of carrying or removing any Salt or Rock Salt from any Salt Mine, Salt Pit, or Salt Work, without being accompanied by a legal and authentic Permit, granted according to the Directions of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Officer to apprehend such Person or Persons, and to take him, her, or them before any one or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, City, or Liberty respectively, wherein such Person or Persons shall be discovered covered as aforesaid, and it shall and may be lawful to and for any Justice or Justices of the Peace respectively, on the Party's Confession of such Offence, or on Proof thereof by the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, to convict in the Penalty of fifty Pounds, every Person so found or discovered as aforesaid; and every such Person so convicted shall, immediately on such Conviction, pay down into the Hands of such Officer the said Penalty in which he or she shall be so convicted, or such Sum to which the said Penalty shall be mitigated by the Judgment of the said Justice or Justices of the Peace, to be applied in Manner hereinafter directed; and if any such Person so convicted shall not forthwith so pay down the said Penalty, or the Sum of Money to which the same shall be mitigated as aforesaid, the said Justice or Justices shall, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals, commit him or her to the House of Correction for the said County, Riding, Division, City, or Liberty respectively, there to remain and be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding twelve Months, to be reckoned from the Day of such Conviction, and the Person so committed shall not be discharged until he or she shall have paid the said Penalty, or the Sum of Money to which the same shall have been so mitigated as aforesaid, or until the Expiration of the Time for which such Commitment was so made.

them in the Penalty, and if not paid, may commit them to the House of Correction.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted, That no Warehouse, Storehouse, or Loft, shall be deemed or taken to be a secure Warehouse, Storehouse, or Loft, within the Meaning of this Act, unless the same shall be approved of, in Writing, by and under the Hands of the respective Surveyor or Supervisor of Excise of the Division or District in which any such Warehouse, Storehouse, or Loft shall be situate, any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Warehouses to be approved of by the Surveyor or Supervisor of the District;

XXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Maker or Makers of Salt, Refiner or Refiners of Rock Salt, Proprietor or Proprietors of any Salt Mine, Salt Pit, or Salt Work, and Dealer or Dealers in Salt, shall, at his, her, and their own Expence, from Time to Time, and at all Times when required so to do by the Surveyor or Supervisor of Excise of the Division or District in which any such Warehouse, Storehouse, or Loft shall be situate, immediately set about the altering, repairing, or amending, and shall also, within a reasonable Time then next following, alter, repair, and amend such Warehouse, Storehouse, or Loft, and the Walls, Partitions, Roof, and other Parts thereof respectively, to the Satisfaction of such Surveyor or Supervisor, and to be approved of as aforesaid; and if any such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, Proprietor or Proprietors, or Dealer or Dealers, shall neglect or refuse immediately to set about the altering, repairing, and amending the same, or to repair, amend, or alter the same respectively, when thereunto required according to the Directions of this Act, or if any Person or Persons shall by any Means, Act, Device, or Contrivance whatsoever, open or enter, or gain Access to any such Warehouse, Storehouse, or Loft, except in the Presence of the proper Officer of Excise, whose Business it shall be to attend to unlock the same, every such Maker or Makers, or Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors, or other Person or Persons so offending, shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of twenty Pounds.

and to be altered or repaired on his Requisition.

20 l. Penalty for Neglect, or for entering Warehouses, except in Presence of the Officer.

XXXIX. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where by this Act it is directed that any Warehouse, Storehouse, Loft, or other Place belonging to any Maker or Makers of Salt, Refiner or Refiners of Rock Salt, Proprietor or Proprietors of any Salt Mine, Salt Pit, or Salt Work, or Dealer or Dealers in Salt, shall be locked up and secured, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Supervisor or Surveyor of Excise of the District or Division within the Compass or Limits of which such Warehouse, Storehouse, Loft, or other Place shall be situate, to provide and affix proper Locks, Keys, and Fastenings of the best Sort, at the Expence of the Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, Proprietor or Proprietors of such Warehouse, Storehouse, Loft, or other Place; and if any such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, Proprietor or Proprietors, or Dealer or Dealers, shall neglect or refuse to pay for the Locks, Keys, and Fastenings so provided as aforesaid, or if any Person or Persons shall wilfully destroy, damage, or injure any such Lock, Key, or Fastening, or shall by any Act, Device, or Contrivance, open, take off, or remove any such Lock, Key, or Fastening, or shall open, break, or remove any Door, Shutter, Partition, Floor, or Roof, or any Part thereof, belonging to any such Warehouse, Storehouse, Loft, or other Place as aforesaid, every Person so offending shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Supervisor or Surveyor of Excise may provide and affix Locks, &c. on Warehouses at the Expence of the Parties.

100 l. Penalty for not paying for such Locks, or injuring them, &c.

XL. And be it further enacted, That where any Lock, Key, or Fastening shall be provided in pursuance of this Act, all and every Maker and Makers of Salt, Refiner and Refiners of Rock Salt, and Proprietor and Proprietors of any Salt Mine, Salt Pit, or Salt Work, or Dealer or Dealers in Salt, to whom such Locks, Keys, and Fastenings respectively shall then belong, shall, at his, her, or their own Expence, from Time to Time, and at all Times when required so to do by the respective Surveyors or Supervisors of Excise of the Division or District in which his, her, or their Salt Work, Salt Mine, Salt Pit, or Salt Refinery, or Export Warehouse, shall be situate, immediately set about or cause to be set about the altering, repairing, and amending, and shall also, within a reasonable Time then next following, alter, repair, and amend the same respectively, according to such Requisition; and if any such Maker or Makers of Salt, Refiner or Refiners of Rock Salt, or Proprietor or Proprietors of any Salt Mine, Salt Pit, or Salt Work, or Dealer or Dealers in Salt, to whom any such Locks, Keys, and Fastenings, or any or either of them, shall belong, shall neglect or refuse immediately to set about the altering, repairing, or amending the same, or to alter, repair, or amend the same, when thereunto required, according to the Directions of this Act, Locks, &c. to be altered, and repaired by the Owners on Requisition of the Surveyors or Supervisors, on Penalty of 20 l.

he, she, or they shall, for each and every such Neglect or Refusal, forfeit and lose the Sum of twenty Pounds.

Previous Notice to be given of Intention to take Salt or Rock Salt out of Warehouses, and for what Uses:

XLI. And be it further enacted, That when and so often as any Maker or Makers of Salt, or Refiner or Refiners of Rock Salt, or Proprietor or Proprietors of any Salt Mine, Salt Pit, or Salt Work, shall have Occasion to deliver any Salt or Rock Salt from or out of any entered Warehouse, Storehouse, Loft, or other Place, to him, her, or them belonging, he, she, or they shall give Notice to the proper Officer of Excise under whose Survey such Warehouse, Storehouse, Loft, or other Place shall be, by the Space of two Hours, of his, her, or their Intention so to do, specifying in such Notice whether the Salt to be delivered be Rock Salt or other Salt, and whether for Home Trade, or for immediate Exportation, or for Removal to any and what particular Export Warehouse, or for the Use of the Fisheries, or Rock Salt to be used at any and what particular entered Refinery of Rock Salt, or for the making of Mineral Alkali or Flux for Glass; and thereupon such Officer of Excise, who shall be ordered by the proper Supervisor of Excise so to do, and who shall not have other necessary and unavoidable Employment at the Time, shall attend, and open every such Warehouse, Storehouse, Loft, or other Place, and weigh and take Account of all the Salt or Rock Salt so to be delivered from or out of such Warehouse, Storehouse, Loft, or other Place, and shall make a just and true Report and Return thereof to the Commissioners of Excise, or to such Person or Persons as they shall appoint or employ to receive the same; and such Return or Report shall be a Charge upon such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors: Provided always nevertheless, That every such Proprietor or Proprietors of any Salt Mine, Salt Pit, or Salt Work, shall be discharged and relieved, and he, she, or they is and are hereby discharged and relieved, from the Payment of any Duty for so much of the Rock Salt so returned and charged as aforesaid, as shall be duly delivered to be removed and carried to any such entered Refinery of Rock Salt, for the Purpose of being refined, or as shall be duly delivered for making Mineral Alkali or Flux for Glass, such Rock Salt being delivered and removed under, subject, and according to the Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions in that Behalf made and provided by this Act; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding: Provided also, That every such Maker or Makers of Salt, Refiner or Refiners of Rock Salt, or Proprietor or Proprietors of any Salt Work, shall be discharged and relieved, and he, she, or they is and are hereby discharged and relieved from the Payment of any Duty for so much of the Salt so returned and charged as aforesaid, (Rock Salt excepted,) as shall be duly and fairly delivered from and out of any such Warehouse, Storehouse, or Loft, for the Purpose of being immediately exported to Parts beyond the Seas, or for Removal to any such Export Warehouse as aforesaid, or for curing and preserving Fish, under, subject, and according to the Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions hereinafter provided in respect of Salt delivered for Exportation, or to be removed to any Export Warehouse, or for the Purpose of curing and preserving Fish respectively; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding: Provided also, That for so much Rock Salt as shall be duly and fairly delivered for Exportation to Parts beyond the Seas, in its native unrefined State, and under, subject, and according to the Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions by this Act in that Behalf provided, no greater or higher Duty shall be paid or payable by the Proprietor or Proprietors thereof, than one Penny for every Bushel of such Rock Salt so to be exported; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Officer to attend to take an Account, which shall be a Charge upon the Maker, &c. who shall be discharged from Payment of Duty for Rock Salt removed to entered Refineries, and for Salt delivered out for certain Purposes.

For unrefined Rock Salt delivered for Exportation, a Duty of 1d. per Bushel to be paid.

Excise Officer, on Request, to give Permits gratis, for removing Salt or Rock Salt from Warehouses.

XLII. And be it further enacted, That when and so often as any Maker or Makers of Salt, Refiner or Refiners of Rock Salt, or Proprietor or Proprietors of any Salt Mine, Salt Pit, or Salt Work, shall have Occasion to remove or send away any Salt or Rock Salt from any entered Warehouse, Storehouse, or Loft, to him, her, or them belonging, the Officer of Excise for the Division or Place where such entered Warehouse, Storehouse, or Loft shall be situate, shall, without Fee or Reward, from Time to Time, upon a Request Note made and delivered according to the Directions of this Act, grant and give a Permit, signed by the said Officer, expressing the Quantity or Weight of all such Salt or Rock Salt to be removed or sent away, and distinguishing whether such Salt be Rock Salt or other Salt, and expressing the Names of the respective Persons from whom and to whom the same is intended to be removed, and specifying whether the same is to be removed by Land or by Water, and by what Mode of Conveyance, and likewise whether the Salt, if Rock Salt, is to be removed for the Purpose of being refined in England, or for making Mineral Alkali, or for Exportation in its native unrefined State, and if it be not Rock Salt, whether it be Salt for Home Consumption, or for immediate Exportation, or for Removal to any, and what particular Export Warehouse, or Salt to be used or employed in curing and preserving Fish; and every Officer of Excise, giving or granting such Permit, shall specify therein the Time for which the same shall be in force.

No Permit to be valid unless a Request Note be delivered to the Officer, containing certain Particulars.

XLIII. And be it further enacted, That no Permit for the Removal of any Salt or Rock Salt shall be granted or be valid, unless the Maker or Makers of Salt, or the Refiner or Refiners of Rock Salt, or the Proprietor or Proprietors of the Salt Mine, Salt Pit, or Salt Work, from whence such Rock Salt shall have been raised or taken, or his, her, or their known Servant, shall make, and send or deliver to the proper Officer of Excise by this Act authorized to grant such Permit, a Request Note, in Writing, specifying his, her, or their Name or Names, and also the Name or Names of the Person or Persons to whom, and the Place to which such Salt or Rock Salt is intended to be removed or sent, the Weight or Quantity of the same, and whether the same is to be removed in Bulk, or in Baskets, Bags, or other Packages, and the Number, Kind, and Sort, of such Packages, and also whether the Salt or Rock Salt is to be removed by Land Land or Water, and by what Mode of Conveyance, and if it be Rock Salt which is intended to be removed, whether it be for the Purpose of being refined by the Person to whom the same is to be sent, or for making Mineral Alkali, or for Exportation in its native unrefined State, or if it be other Salt, whether it be for Home Consumption or for Exportation, or to be used or employed in curing and preserving Fish respectively.

A daily Account to be kept of Salt or Rock Salt sold or delivered, and for what Purposes, which shall every six Weeks be returned to the next Excise Office, and there verified on Oath, on Penalty of 100l.

XLIV. And be it further enacted, That all and every Maker or Makers of Salt, Refiner or Refiners of Rock Salt, or Proprietor or Proprietors of any Salt Pit, Salt Mine, or Salt Work, shall respectively, daily and every Day, enter in a Book or Paper to be provided for that Purpose, an exact and particular Account of each and every Parcel, Quantity, or Load of Salt or Rock Salt sold, delivered, or sent out by such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors respectively, and shall distinguish the Kind or Species of Salt, and whether the same is sold, delivered, or sent out for Home Trade or Consumption, or for immediate Exportation, or for Removal to one of such Export Warehouses, specifying the same, and the Owner thereof, or to be used or employed in curing and preserving Fish, or Rock Salt for refining, or for making Mineral Alkali; and such Book or Paper shall be returned to the next Office of Excise every six Weeks, and the Truth of the Entries made therein shall be then and there verified upon the Oath of such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors, or his, her, or their Chief Workmen or Agent, before the proper Collector or Supervisor of Excise, and the several and respective Collectors and Supervisors of Excise are hereby authorized and required to administer such Oath accordingly; and in case any such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors, shall neglect or refuse to keep such Book or Paper, or to make due Entries therein, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, or shall neglect or refuse to return the same as hereinbefore directed, or to verify the said Entries, or any of them, upon Oath, such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors, shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Within a Week after such Entry on Oath, the Duties to be paid on Penalty of double the Amount:

XLV. And be it further enacted, That all and every such Maker or Makers of Salt, Refiner or Refiners of Rock Salt, or Proprietor or Proprietors of any Salt Mine, Salt Pit, or Salt Work, shall, within one Week after he, she, or they shall have or ought to have made such Entry upon Oath as last aforesaid, pay and clear off all the Duties for and in respect of Salt or Rock Salt, which shall be due from him, her, or them respectively; and that every such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors, who shall neglect or refuse to make such Payment as aforesaid, shall forfeit, for every such Offence, double the Sum of the said Duty whereof the Payment shall be so neglected or refused.

The Duties for Salt or Rock Salt charged in the Week, to be cleared at the End thereof, (unless Bond has been given in double the probable Duties in six Weeks, to pay them at the End of every six Weeks,) on Penalty of double the Amount.

XLVI. Provided nevertheless, and be it further enacted, That all and every Maker or Makers of Salt, Refiner or Refiners of Rock Salt, or Proprietor or Proprietors of any Salt Mine, Salt Pit, or Salk Work, shall weekly, and at the End of every Week, pay and clear off all the Duties for or in respect of Salt and Rock Salt which shall have been charged to such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors, in the then current Week, unless such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors, shall have given Bond or Security, to be approved of by the Commissioners of Excise, or the Person or Persons who shall be appointed or employed by them for that Purpose, in double the Value of the Duties which such Commissioners of Excise, or such Person or Persons as aforesaid, shall judge likely to arise, be charged on, or become due from such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors, within any six Weeks, for the due Payment, at the End of every six Weeks, of all such Sum and Sums of Money as shall arise, be charged on, and become due from such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors, for or in respect of Salt or Rock Salt; and that if any Maker or Makers of Salt, Refiner or Refiners of Rock Salt, or Proprietor or Proprietors of any Salt Mine, Salt Pit, or Salt Work, who shall not have given such Bond or Security as aforesaid, shall neglect or refuse to pay and clear off weekly, and at the End of every Week, all the Duties for and in respect of Salt or Rock Salt which shall be due from or unpaid by him, her, or them, such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors, shall forfeit for every such Offence double the Sum of the said Duty whereof the Payment shall be so neglected or refused.

Salt, Materials, &c. in the Custody of Makers of Salt, &c. to be answerable for Duties and Penalties.

XLVII. And be it further enacted, That all Salt and Rock Salt, and all Materials, Preparations, Implements, Machines, Utensils, and Vessels, in the Custody of any Maker or Makers of Salt, Refiner or Refiners of Rock Salt, or Proprietor or Proprietors of any Salt Mine, Salt Pit, or Salt Work, or in the Custody of any Person or Persons to the Use of or in Trust for such Maker or Makers, or Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors as aforesaid, shall be subject and liable to, and the same are hereby made chargeable with all and singular the Duties of Excise in Arrear, or owing from Time to Time by such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors, for or in respect of any Salt made or refined, or Rock Salt raised or taken out of any Salt Mine or Salt Pit, by him, her, or them respectively, and shall also be subject to all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures incurred by such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors, for any Offence against this Act, and that it shall and may be lawful in all such Cases to levy such Duties, Fines, and Penalties, and to use such Proceedings as may lawfully be done, in relation to such Salt and Rock Salt, Materials, Preparations, Implements, Machines, Utensils, and Vessels, as if the Debtor or Offender was the true and lawful Owner thereof.

Rock Salt removing to, or delivered on Premises be-

XLVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Rock Salt shall be found removing to, or shall be delivered at or on the Premises belonging to any Salt Refinery or Salt Work whatsoever, without a legal Permit, longing to a Salt Refinery or Salt Work, without a Permit, to be forfeited, with Ships, &c. and the Persons concerned to forfeit 100l.

mit, granted and obtained under and according to the Directions of this Act, then and in such Case all such Rock Salt so found removing, or which shall be delivered as aforesaid, shall be forfeited, together with the Packages containing the same, and Ships, Flats, Barges, Boats, and other Vessels, Waggons, Carts, or other Carriages, and also the Horses and Cattle used and employed in removing the same, and the same respectively shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise, and the Person and Persons employed or concerned in removing, delivering, or knowingly receiving the same without such Permit as aforesaid, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

If any Refiner shall remove from his Premises, or dispose of Rock Salt in its native State, except for melting at his own Works, it shall be forfeited. Penalty for so removing or disposing of it.

XLIX. And be it further enacted, That if any Refiner or Refiners of Rock Salt shall remove, send, or carry away from his, her, or their entered Premises, or dispose of any Rock Salt in its native unrefined State, except for the Purpose of melting at and for the Use of his, her, or their own Works, or shall knowingly suffer any Rock Salt to be removed, carried, or sent away, or otherwise disposed of, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, such Refiner or Refiners shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the said Rock Salt so removed, carried, sent away, or disposed of, together with the Packages containing the same, and the same respectively shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise; and such Refiner or Refiners, or the Person or Persons who shall so remove, carry, send away, or dispose of any such Rock Salt as aforesaid, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall, over and besides the Forfeiture of the said Rock Salt, forfeit and lose the Sum of forty Shillings for every Pound Weight thereof, or the Sum of one hundred Pounds, at the Election of his Majesty's Attorney General, or the Person or Persons who shall sue for the same.

Scales and Weights to be kept at Salt Mines, &c. for the Use of the Excise Officers.

Penalty of 100l. for not providing them, or not suffering the Officers to use them, or using false ones, &c.

L. And be it further enacted, That all and every Maker or Makers of Salt, or Refiner or Refiners of Rock Salt, or Proprietor or Proprietors of any Salt Mine, Salt Pit, or Salt Work, or of any Export or Import Warehouse as aforesaid, shall, and he, she, and they is and are hereby required to provide and keep proper, sufficient, and just Scales and Weights at each and every Salt Mine, Salt Pit, Salt Refinery, Salt Work, and Export and Import Warehouse respectively, to him, her, or them belonging, for the Purpose of weighing and taking an Account of the Salt and Rock Salt respectively, which shall at any Time be in the Custody or Possession of any such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors, and shall permit and suffer any Officer or Officers of Excise to use the same; and if any such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, Proprietor or Proprietors, shall neglect or refuse to provide and keep such Scales and Weights, or either of them, or shall not permit or suffer any Officer or Officers of Excise to use the same, or if any such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors, shall, in the weighing of any such Salt or Rock Salt, make use of, or cause or procure, or suffer to be made use of, any false, unjust, or insufficient Scales or Weights, or shall use or practise any Art, Device, or Contrivance, by which any such Officer or Officers shall be or may be hindered or prevented from taking the just and true Weight, and ascertaining the true Quantity of any such Salt or Rock Salt, such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, together with all such false, unjust, or insufficient Scales and Weights respectively, and the same shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise.

Makers of Salt, &c. to assist with their Servants the Excise Officers in weighing Salt, on Penalty of 100l.

LI. And be it further enacted, That all and every Maker or Makers of Salt, or Refiner or Refiners of Rock Salt, or Proprietor or Proprietors of any Salt Mine, Salt Pit, Salt Work, or Export or Import Warehouse, shall, when and so often as he, she, or they shall be thereunto required by the proper Officer of Excise, with a sufficient Number of his, her, or their Servants, aid and assist, to the utmost of his, her, or their Power, such Officer or Officers in weighing of his, her, or their Salt, or Rock Salt, on Pain of forfeiting, for every Neglect or Refusal so to do, the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

If any Person shall remove or conceal any Salt to evade the Duty, he shall forfeit 50l. and the Salt shall be forfeited.

LII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall take, remove, or carry away, or hide or conceal any Salt, or Rock Salt, with Intent to evade the Duty by this Act imposed, every Person so offending shall forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds; and all the Salt, or Rock Salt, so taken, removed, carried away, hid, or concealed, and also the Package containing the same, shall be forfeited, and the same respectively shall and may be seized by any Officer of the Customs or Excise.

To ascertain the Quantity of Salt or Rock Salt by the Officer, not less than two Bushels shall be weighed, except where the Whole to be delivered shall be less.

LIII. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Officer or Officers of Excise is or are authorized, empowered, or required to ascertain the Quantity of Salt, or Rock Salt, by Weight, no less Quantity of such Salt, or Rock Salt, shall be weighed at one Draught than two Bushels, save and except in any Case where the whole Quantity of Salt, or Rock Salt, to be delivered at any one Time, shall be less than two Bushels; and every such Officer or Officers, on weighing any Salt, or Rock Salt, shall give the Turn of the Scale in Favour of the Crown, and in lieu thereof shall make an Allowance at and after the Rate of Half a Pound Weight in every two Bushels of such Salt, or Rock Salt.

Allowance to be made for Turn of the Scale.

Officers of the Customs or Excise may seize Salt or Rock Salt found in

LIV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise to seize any Quantity of Salt, or Rock Salt, together with the Package containing the same, that shall be found in any Ship, Flat, Barge, Boat, or other Vessel, or in any Waggon, Cart, or other Carriage whatsoever, or loaded on any Horse, or which shall be lodged or concealed in any House, Outhouse,

house, or other Place whatsoever, and also such Ship, Flat, Barge, Boat, or other Vessel, Waggon, Cart, or other Carriage, Horse and Horses, and other Cattle made use of in drawing such Waggon, Cart, or Carriage, or in carrying such Salt, or Rock Salt, when such Officer or Officers shall have good Reason to suspect and believe that such Salt, or Rock Salt, shall have been privately and clandestinely procured or made in some private Salt Work, or other private Place, or clandestinely imported without Payment of Duty, or that the same shall have been fraudulently unshipped or re-landed after the same had been shipped for Exportation, or for the Purpose of curing and preserving Fish, or that the same shall have been fraudulently or clandestinely taken or delivered out of any Warehouse, Storehouse, or other Place where the same may or shall have been lodged and deposited, under the Direction of this Act; and if the Party in whose Custody or Possession such Salt, or Rock Salt, shall be found, or who shall lay claim thereto, shall not, at the Hearing or Trial of the Information for condemning the same, make it appear to the Satisfaction of the Court or Jury that the Duty has been duly and fairly paid for the said Salt, or Rock Salt, or that the same was not landed, unshipped, or re-landed, or taken or delivered out of any such Warehouse, Storehouse, or other Place as aforesaid, with any fraudulent Design or Intention, then and in every such Case such Salt, or Rock Salt, together with the Package containing the same, and the Ships, Flats, Barges, Boats, and other Vessels, and also the Waggons, Carts, and other Carriages and Horses, in or upon which the same shall be found, and the Cattle made use of in the drawing of such Waggon, Cart, or other Carriage, or which shall be used or employed in removing such Salt, or Rock Salt, as aforesaid, shall be forfeited, and the Person or Persons in whose Custody or Possession such Salt, or Rock Salt, shall be found, or who shall be concerned or employed in unshipping, landing, re-landing, removing, or carrying the same, shall forfeit the Sum of forty Shillings for every Pound Weight of such Salt, or Rock Salt, so found as aforesaid.

any Ship, Waggon, &c. or concealed in any Place, with the Ship, &c. when they have Reason to think it has been privately made, clandestinely imported, &c. and if the Party does not make it appear that the Duty has been paid, &c. they shall be forfeited.

Penalty on Persons in whose Custody such Salt or Rock Salt shall be found, &c.

LV. And be it further enacted, That if any Salt, or Rock Salt, shall be fraudulently lodged, hid, or concealed in any Place or Places whatsoever, with an Intent to defraud his Majesty of the Duties by this or any other Act imposed for or in respect thereof, all such Salt and Rock Salt respectively shall be forfeited, together with the Package containing the same, and shall and may be seized by any Officer of the Customs or Excise; and the better to enable such Officer or Officers to discover any such Salt, or Rock Salt, so forfeited, if any such Officer or Officers shall have Cause to suspect that any such Salt, or Rock Salt, shall be so deposited, lodged, hid, or concealed in any Place or Places whatsoever, then and in every such Case, if such Place or Places be within the Limits of the Chief Office of Excise in London, upon Oath made by such Officer or Officers before any two of the Commissioners of Excise for the Time being, or in case such Place or Places shall be in any other Part of Great Britain, upon Oath made by such Officer or Officers before one or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, or Place where such Officer or Officers shall suspect such Salt, or Rock Salt, to be lodged, hid, or concealed, setting forth the Grounds of his or their Suspicions, it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners, or Justice or Justices of the Peace respectively, before whom such Oath shall be made, if they or he shall judge it reasonable, by Special Warrant or Warrants under his and their respective Hands and Seals, to authorize and empower such Officer or Officers, by Day or by Night, but if in the Night, then in the Presence of a Constable or other lawful Officer of the Peace, to enter into all and every such Place or Places where he or they shall suspect such Salt, or Rock Salt, to be so lodged, hid, or concealed, and to seize and carry away all such Salt, or Rock Salt, as he or they shall then and there find so lodged, hid, or concealed, together with all the Casks, Bags, or other Packages whatsoever wherein the same shall be contained; and the Person or Persons in whose Possession such Salt, or Rock Salt, shall be so found, shall forfeit and lose the Sum of forty Shillings for every Pound Weight of such Salt, or Rock Salt, so lodged, hid, or concealed, or the Sum of one hundred Pounds, at Election of his Majesty's Attorney General, or the Person or Persons who shall sue for the same.

Salt or Rock Salt hid to evade the Duties to be forfeited, and Officers of the Customs or Excise suspecting it to be so hid, on making Oath thereof, may be authorized by the Commissioners of Excise, or a Justice, to search for it, &c.

Penalty on Persons in whose Possession such Salt or Rock Salt shall be found.

LVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Salt, or Rock Salt, shall be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise, and any Dispute shall arise, whether the Duties due and payable thereon shall have been paid for the same, then and in every such Case the Proof of the Payment of the Duties, or that the said Salt was fairly and lawfully removed from some known and entered Salt Work, according to the Directions of this Act, shall lie on the Owner or Owners, Claimer or Claimers of such Salt, or Rock Salt, and not on the Officer who shall seize, stop, or detain the same.

Proof of the Payment of the Duties, &c. on Salt or Rock Salt seized, to lie on the Owner.

LVII. And be it further enacted, That no Salt shall be delivered free of Duty for Exportation, save and except from or out of the Warehouse, Storehouse, or Loft, or Warehouses, Storehouses, or Lofts, belonging and adjoining to the Salt Work or Salt Refinery where such Salt so to be exported shall have been made or refined, or from or out of some Export Warehouse, to be provided, entered, and approved, at and within the Ports of Bristol or Liverpool, under and according to the Directions of this Act.

No Salt to be delivered Duty free for Exportation except from Warehouses adjoining Salt Works, or Refineries, or Export Warehouses, at Bristol or Liverpool.

LVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Rock Salt shall be exported to Parts beyond the Seas, upon Payment of only the low Duty to which Rock Salt for Exportation is subject and liable by this Act, save and except such Rock Salt only as shall be delivered for that Purpose from or out of the Warehouse or Storehouse belonging and adjoining to the Salt Mine or Salt Pit from whence the Rock Salt so to be exported shall have been taken; and all such Rock Salt, which shall be delivered for Exportation upon such low Duty as aforesaid, shall be carried or conveyed immediately from such Warehouse or Storehouse so belonging and adjoining to such Salt Mine or Salt Pit as aforesaid, to the Port from whence the same is intended to be exported,

No Rock Salt to be exported on the low Duty, except delivered from the Warehouse adjoining the Mine from whence taken, and such Salt shall be conveyported, and shall be there put on board the Ship or Vessel in which the same is intended to be exported to Parts beyond the Seas, and shall not be landed, or put or deposited in any Warehouse, Storehouse, or other Place in Great Britain, except in case of unavoidable Necessity, after the same shall have been so delivered for Exportation as aforesaid, on Pain of forfeiting all the Rock Salt so landed or put into any Warehouse, Storehouse, or other Place, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

No Rock Salt shall be delivered Duty free, except from the Warehouse adjoining the Mine whence taken, to be carried to an entered Refinery, where it shall be conveyed directly.

LIX. And be it further enacted, That no Rock Salt shall be delivered free of Duty, save and except such Rock Salt only as shall be removed from and out of the Warehouse or Storehouse belonging and adjoining to the Salt Mine or Salt Pit from whence the same was raised or taken, for the Purpose of being carried or conveyed, under, subject, and according to the Rules and Regulations hereinafter in that Behalf provided, to some known and entered Refinery of Rock Salt, and such Rock Salt, so delivered free of Duty for the Purpose aforesaid, shall be carried and conveyed directly from the Warehouse or Storehouse, from whence the same shall be removed as aforesaid, to the Salt Refinery at which the same is intended to be melted and refined.

Rock Salt may be taken out of Warehouses Duty free, for making Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glass, on Bond.

LX. Provided always nevertheless, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be deemed or construed to extend to prevent any such Maker or Makers of Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glass, as is hereinafter mentioned, from taking any Rock Salt from or out of any such Warehouse, free of Duty, for the Purpose of making Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glass, on giving such Bond or Security as is hereinafter in that Behalf prescribed.

Makers of Salt, &c. to give previous Notice to the Officer of Intention to deliver Salt for Exportation, curing Fish, or to be sent to an entered Export Warehouse, specifying certain Particulars.

LXI. And be it further enacted, That when and so often as any Maker or Makers of Salt, or Refiner or Refiners of Rock Salt, or Proprietor or Proprietors of any Salt Work, shall have Occasion to deliver any Salt from his, her, or their entered Warehouse or Warehouses, or Storehouse or Storehouses, or Loft or Lofts, either for immediate Exportation, or to be used and employed in curing and preserving Fish, or to be sent and conveyed to some entered Export Warehouse, provided under and according to the Directions of this Act, for keeping Salt for Exportation, at the Port of Liverpool or Bristol, he, she, or they shall give previous Notice in Writing to the proper Officer of Excise, under whose Survey such Warehouse or Warehouses, Storehouse or Storehouses, or Loft or Lofts, shall be, by the Space of two Hours, of his or their Intention so to deliver Salt as aforesaid, and shall specify in such Notice the Day and Hour of the Day when he, she, or they intends or intend to weigh and deliver such Salt, the Quantity he, she, or they intends or intend to deliver; and if it be Salt intended for immediate Exportation, he, she, or they shall specify at what Port or Place such Salt is intended to be shipped, and by what Conveyance the same is to be carried to such Port or Place; and if such Salt is intended to be removed to any such Export Warehouse, to what particular Export Warehouse the same is intended to be removed, and what is the Name of the Owner or Proprietor of such Export Warehouse, and by what Conveyance the same is intended to be removed to such Export Warehouse; or if the Salt so to be delivered as aforesaid shall be intended for the Purpose of curing or preserving Fish, then such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, Proprietor or Proprietors as aforesaid, shall specify in such Notice the Name of the Fish Curer or Fish Curers to whom, and the Place to which the Salt is to be conveyed or sent, and by what Conveyance the same is to be removed.

If the Flat, &c. in which Salt specified in any Notice is intended to be removed, be incapable to receive the whole Quantity, the Weighing or Delivery may be discontinued, on giving a Declaration to the Officer of the Cause, &c.

LXII. Provided always nevertheless, That if the Flat, Boat, or Vessel, in or by which the Salt specified in any such Notice is intended to be removed or conveyed, shall be found incapable, either from the Want of Water or other unavoidable Circumstance, to receive, take, or convey the whole Quantity of Salt so specified in any such Notice, then and in such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for such Maker, Refiner, or Proprietor as aforesaid, to discontinue any such Weighing or Delivery, upon giving to the proper Officer of Excise a Declaration in Writing, specifying the real Cause of the Discontinuance, and the true Quantity of Salt which shall have actually been weighed and delivered in pursuance of any such Notice as aforesaid.

Before Salt shall be delivered Duty free, or Rock Salt on the low Duty, for Exportation, Bond to be given that it shall be duly shipped and not clandestinely disposed of in Great Britain.

LXIII. And be it further enacted, That before any such Salt shall be delivered free of Duty for immediate Exportation, or before any Rock Salt shall be delivered for Exportation upon the low Duty to which Rock Salt is subject and liable upon Exportation, the Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners thereof, or Proprietor or Proprietors of the Salt Mine, Salt Pit, or Salt Work, from whence the same shall be so delivered, shall give sufficient Bond or Security, to be approved of by the Commissioners of Excise, or the Person or Persons who shall be appointed or employed by them for that Purpose, in treble the Amount of the Duty by this Act imposed for or in respect of Salt, or Rock Salt, for Home Trade or Consumption, for all the Salt and Rock Salt so to be delivered for immediate Exportation, that all such Salt and Rock Salt so to be delivered for Exportation, and every Part thereof, shall, the Danger of Enemies only excepted, be duly shipped and put on board the Ship or Vessel in which the same is intended to be exported beyond the Seas, and that no Part of such Salt, or Rock Salt, shall, before the shipping thereof in such Ship or Vessel, be sold or delivered for Home Trade or Consumption, or otherwise fraudulently disposed of in Great Britain.

How such Bond shall be discharged.

LXIV. And be it further enacted, That such Bond or Security as aforesaid shall be cancelled and discharged upon the Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners of the Salt, or Proprietor or Proprietors of the Salt

Work from whence the Salt, or Rock Salt, was so delivered as aforesaid, producing to and leaving with the proper Officer of Excise a Certificate under the Hand of such other Officer of Excise as shall be authorized or employed to give and grant the same, testifying that all and every Part of the Salt, and Rock Salt, mentioned in such Bond or Security, had been duly shipped and put on board the Ship or Vessel in which the same was intended to be exported, under, subject, and according to the Rules and Regulations hereinafter in that Behalf prescribed: Provided always, That such Certificate shall be produced to and left with such proper Officer of Excise within two Months next after the Day on which such Salt shall have been so delivered out of the Warehouse or Storehouse, or Warehouses or Storehouses, belonging to such Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors as aforesaid.

If on the Arrival at Liverpool or Bristol of Salt delivered for Exportation from thence, it cannot be taken on board, the Proprietor, upon Notice to the Excise Officer, &c. may deliver it into an Export Warehouse, and, on Certificate from the Officer, the Bond shall be cancelled.

LXV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if on the Arrival at Liverpool or Bristol of any Salt, (Rock Salt excepted,) delivered for the Purpose of being shipped for Exportation from thence, the Ship or Vessel in which the same was intended to be exported shall have sailed from thence, or if for Want of Stowage or other Cause such Salt cannot be received or taken on board such Ship or Vessel, then and in such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for the Proprietor or Proprietors, or Owner or Owners of such Salt, upon due Notice in Writing given to the proper Officer of Excise within twelve Hours after the Arrival of such Salt, and upon a due Observance of, Conformity to, and Compliance with the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, and Provisions provided and established for and in respect of the warehousing of Salt in any entered Export Warehouse at the Ports of Liverpool and Bristol, to deliver the Whole of such Salt, if the Whole cannot be received or taken on board such Ship or Vessel as aforesaid, or such Part thereof as cannot be received or taken on board such Ship or Vessel, into any such entered Export Warehouse; whereupon and in every such Case the proper Officer of Excise, upon being satisfied that the Whole of such Salt, or such Part thereof as hath not been duly shipped and exported to Parts beyond the Seas, has been duly delivered and secured in such Export Warehouse, is hereby authorized and required to grant a Certificate, testifying what Quantity of such Salt has been so shipped for Exportation, and what Quantity thereof hath been delivered and secured in such Export Warehouse as aforesaid; and if the whole Quantity of Salt specified in such Certificate shall correspond and agree with the Quantity specified in the Bond given on the first Delivery of such Salt from the Warehouse, Storehouse, or Loft belonging to the Salt Work where such Salt was made, and if such Certificate shall be produced to and left with the proper Officer of Excise within the Time limited in such Bond or Security for the Production of the Certificate mentioned in the Condition of such Bond or Security, then and in such Case such Bond or Security so given as aforesaid shall be cancelled and discharged; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Previous Notice to be given the Officer of Intention to deliver Salt from Export Warehouses, specifying certain Particulars.

LXVI. And be it further enacted, That when and so often as any Owner or Proprietor, or Owners or Proprietors of any such Export Warehouse as aforesaid, provided and entered for the Purpose of laying, storing, and keeping Salt therein at the Port of Liverpool or Bristol, for Exportation as aforesaid, shall have Occasion to deliver any Salt from or out of such his, her, or their Warehouse, he, she, or they shall give previous Notice in Writing to the proper Officer of Excise under whose Survey such Warehouse shall then be, by the Space of six Hours, of his, her, or their Intention so to deliver such Salt as aforesaid, and shall specify in such Notice the Day and Hour of the Day when he, she, or they intends or intend to weigh and deliver such Salt, and the Quantity thereof which he, she, or they so intends or intend to deliver for Exportation, and the Name of the Ship or Vessel in which the same is intended to be exported, and of the Master thereof, and to what Place such Salt is intended to be exported.

In June yearly the Officer to take an Account of Salt in Export Warehouses, and the Proprietor to forfeit 10s. for every Bushel deficient, One-sixth to the Officer, and the Remainder to his Majesty.

LXVII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the proper Officer of Excise of the Division in which any such Export Warehouse, provided and entered for the Purpose of laying, storing, and keeping Salt for Exportation, at the Port of Liverpool or Bristol, shall be situate, once in every Year, that is to say, in the Month of June in every Year, to weigh and take a particular Account of all the Salt remaining in any such Warehouse as aforesaid; and if upon weighing and taking such Account it shall appear that the whole Quantity of Salt duly delivered out of such Warehouse, since the Day on which the same was first entered at the Excise Office, or since the last preceding Time of taking such particular Account as aforesaid, added to the Quantity of Salt then remaining in such Warehouse, shall fall short or be deficient of the Quantity of Salt actually delivered into or deposited in such Warehouse, since the Day on which such Warehouse was first entered as aforesaid, or since the last preceding Time of taking such particular Account as aforesaid, added to the Quantity of Salt which was taken and established as the Stock of Salt in such Warehouse at such last preceding Time of taking such particular Account as aforesaid, then and in every such Case the Proprietor or Proprietors of any such Warehouse shall, for such Deficiency, forfeit and lose at and after the Rate of twelve Shillings for every Bushel of Salt so deficient, one sixth Part of which shall be to the Officer or Officers who shall discover such Deficiency, and the other five Parts to and for the Use of his Majesty; but if instead of a Deficiency there shall appear to be an Increase or Surplus of Salt upon so taking such particular Account of, and balancing the Stock of Salt in any such Export Warehouse as aforesaid, then and in such Case such Increase or Surplus shall be deemed and taken to be Part of the depending Stock of Salt in such Export Warehouse, and shall be carried forward, accounted for, and established as Part of the Stock of Salt of such Export Warehouse at the next subsequent Time of weighing and taking the particular Account, and balancing of the Stock of Salt in such Export Warehouse as aforesaid.

Increase of Salt, on taking such Account, to be deemed Part of the depending Stock.

LXVIII. And

Before Salt is delivered Duty free for curing Fish, Bond to be given that it shall be duly delivered to the Fish Curer.

LXVIII. And be it further enacted, That before any such Salt shall be delivered free of Duty, for the Purpose of curing or preserving Fish, the Maker or Makers, or Refiner or Refiners thereof, or Proprietor or Proprietors of the Salt Work from whence the same is to be so delivered, or the Merchant or Merchants for whose Account or on whose Order the same shall be delivered, shall give sufficient Bond or Security, to be approved of by the Commissioners of Excise, or the Person or Persons who shall be appointed or employed by them for that Purpose, in treble the Amount of the Duty of the Salt so intended to be delivered for the Purpose of curing or preserving Fish, (in which Bond or Security the Master or Owner of the Ship or Vessel in which the Salt is to be carried or conveyed shall join,) that all such Salt, and every Part thereof, shall, the Dangers of Enemies only excepted, be duly delivered into the Custody and Possession of the Fish Curer or Fish Curers, for or to whom the same is to be consigned or sent, and that no Part of such Salt shall, before the same shall be so delivered into the Custody or Possession of such Fish Curer or Fish Curers as aforesaid, be sold or delivered for Home Trade or Consumption, or otherwise fraudulently disposed of in Great Britain.

How such Bonds shall be discharged.

LXIX. And be it further enacted, That such last-mentioned Bond or Security shall be cancelled and discharged upon the Maker or Makers, or Refiner or Refiners of the Salt, or Proprietor or Proprietors of the Salt Work where the Salt was so delivered, or the Merchant or Merchants for or on whose Account or Order the Salt was so delivered as aforesaid, producing to and leaving with the proper Officer of Excise a Certificate under the Hand of such other Officer of Excise as shall be authorized to give and grant the same, testifying that all and every Part of the Salt mentioned in such Bond or Security has been duly delivered into the Custody or Possession of the Fish Curer or Fish Curers for whom the same was intended, or to whom the same was consigned or sent, and that Bond or Security has been given by or on the Part of such Fish Curer or Fish Curers, that all the Salt sent or consigned to him, her, or them, and delivered into his, her, or their Custody, shall be used and employed in curing and preserving Fish: Provided always, That such Certificate shall be produced to and left with such proper Officer of Excise within three Months next after the Day on which such Salt shall have been delivered out of the Warehouse or Storehouse, or Warehouses or Storehouses, belonging to such Maker or Makers, or Refiner or Refiners, Proprietor or Proprietors as aforesaid.

Before Salt shall be delivered for Removal to any Export Warehouse, Bond to be given that it shall be delivered into it.

LXX. And be it further enacted, That before any Salt shall be delivered for the Purpose of being removed to any such entered Export Warehouse at Liverpool or Bristol as aforesaid, the Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners thereof, or the Proprietor or Proprietors of the Salt Work, from which the Salt shall be intended to be delivered, shall give sufficient Bond or Security, to be approved by the Commissioners of Excise, or the Person or Persons who shall be appointed or employed by them for that Purpose, in double the Amount of the Duty by this Act imposed for or in respect of Salt for Home Trade or Consumption, for all the Salt so to be delivered as aforesaid, that all the Salt so to be delivered as aforesaid, and every Part thereof, shall, the Dangers of Enemies only excepted, be duly removed to, and delivered into such Warehouse at Liverpool or Bristol, to which the same shall be consigned or sent, and that no Part thereof shall be delivered for Home Trade or Consumption, or otherwise fraudulently disposed of in Great Britain.

How such Bonds shall be discharged.

LXXI. And be it further enacted, That such last-mentioned Bond or Security shall be cancelled and discharged upon the Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners of Salt, or Proprietor or Proprietors of the Salt Work from whence the Salt was removed as aforesaid, producing to and leaving with the proper Officer of Excise a Certificate under the Hand of such Officer of Excise as shall be authorized to give and grant the same, testifying that all and every Part of the Salt mentioned in such Bond or Security has been duly removed to, and delivered at, and secured in the said Warehouse to which the same was sent or consigned: Provided always, That such Certificate shall be produced to and left with such proper Officer of Excise within three Months next after the Day on which such Salt shall have been first delivered from the Warehouse, Storehouse, or Loft, belonging to the Salt Work at which the same was made.

Salt delivered to be removed to an Export Warehouse may, on its Arrival at Liverpool or Bristol, be immediately shipped for Exportation, and on Certificate from the Officer the Bond shall be discharged.

LXXII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if on the Arrival at Liverpool or Bristol of any Salt delivered upon Bond or Security for the Purpose of being removed to any such entered Export Warehouse as aforesaid, the Proprietor or Proprietors, or Owner or Owners of any such Salt, shall be desirous of immediately exporting the same, or any Part thereof, in lieu and instead of first putting the same into such Export Warehouses as aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful to and for such Proprietor or Proprietors, or Owner or Owners, upon duly observing, conforming to, and complying with all the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, and Provisions provided and established for or in respect of the exporting of Salt, immediately, and without putting the same into such Export Warehouse, to ship the Whole, or any Part of such Salt, for Exportation to Parts beyond the Seas; whereupon and in every such Case the proper Officer of Excise, upon being satisfied that the Whole of such Salt, or such Part thereof as hath not been delivered and secured in such Export Warehouse as aforesaid, has been duly shipped and exported to Parts beyond the Seas, is hereby authorized and required to grant a Certificate, testifying what Quantity of such Salt hath been so shipped for Exportation, and what Quantity thereof hath been delivered and secured in such Export Warehouse as aforesaid; and if the whole Quantity of Salt specified in such Certificate shall correspond and agree with the Quantity specified in the Bond or Security given on the first Delivery of such Salt from the Warehouse, Storehouse, or Loft belonging to the Salt Work where such Salt was made, and if such Certificate shall be produced to and left with the proper Officer of Excise, within the Time limited in such Bond or Security for the Production of the Certificate mentioned in the Condition of such Bond or Security, then and in such Case such Bond or Security so given as aforesaid shall be cancelled and discharged; any Thing in this Act to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Before Rock Salt shall be delivered Duty free to be refined, Bond to be given that it shall be delivered at the Refinery, and not sold before for any other Purpose.

LXXIII. And be it further enacted, That before any Rock Salt shall be delivered free of Duty, to be melted and refined at any entered Refinery in Great Britain, the Proprietor or Proprietors of the Salt Mine or Salt Pit, from whence such Rock Salt is to be delivered, shall give sufficient Bond or Security, to be approved of by the Commissioners of Excise, or the Person or Persons who shall be appointed or employed by them for that Purpose, in treble the Value of the Duty of the Rock Salt so intended to be delivered for the Purpose of being melted and refined as aforesaid, that all such Rock Salt, and every Part thereof, shall be duly delivered at the entered Refinery to which, and into the Custody and Possession of the entered Refiner or Refiners for or to whom, the same is to be consigned or sent, and that no Part of such Rock Salt shall, the Danger of Enemies only excepted, before the same shall be delivered into the Custody or Possession of such Refiner or Refiners as aforesaid, at and on the said Refinery, be sold or delivered for any other Purpose, or otherwise fraudulently disposed of in Great Britain.

How such Bonds shall be discharged.

LXXIV. And be it further enacted, That such last-mentioned Bond or Security shall be cancelled or discharged, upon the Proprietor or Proprietors of the Salt Mine or Salt Pit, where the Rock Salt was so delivered as aforesaid, producing to and leaving with the proper Officer of Excise a Certificate under the Hand of such other Officer of Excise as shall be authorized to give and grant the same, testifying that all and every Part of the Rock Salt mentioned in such Bond or Security has been duly delivered at the entered Refinery at which, and into the Custody or Possession of the entered Refiner or Refiners for whom the same was intended, or to whom the same was consigned or sent: Provided always, That such Certificate shall be produced to and left with such proper Officer of Excise, within three Months next after the Day on which such Rock Salt shall have been delivered out of the Warehouse or Storehouse, or Warehouses or Storehouses, belonging to such Proprietor or Proprietors as aforesaid.

Rock Salt delivered Duty-free for refining, or upon the low Duty for Exportation, and Salt Duty free for Exportation or curing Fish, shall not be removed respectively in any Flat, &c. in which Salt of any other Description or for any other Purpose shall be put, on Penalty of Forfeiture.

LXXV. And be it further enacted, That no Rock Salt, which shall be delivered Duty free, for the Use of, or to be conveyed to any Refinery of Rock Salt, shall be removed in any Flat, Barge, Boat, or other Vessel, or in any Waggon, Cart, or other Carriage, in which any Salt of any other Description, or any Salt, or Rock Salt, for any other Purpose, shall be put or laid; and that no Rock Salt, which shall be delivered upon the low Duty for Exportation, shall be removed in any Flat, Barge, Boat, or other Vessel, or in any Waggon, Cart, or other Carriage, in which any Salt of any other Description, or any Salt, or Rock Salt, for any other Purpose, shall be put or laid; and that no Salt, delivered Duty free for Exportation, or to be used in curing and preserving Fish respectively, shall be removed in any Flat, Barge, Boat, or other Vessel, or in any Waggon, Cart, or other Carriage, in which any Salt of any other Description, or for any other Purpose, shall be put or laid; on Pain of forfeiting all the Salt, or Rock Salt, which shall be found so removed or removing, contrary to the Directions and true Intent and Meaning of this Act, and the same, together with the Package containing the same, shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise.

Previous Notice to be given to the Officer of Intention to ship Salt or Rock Salt for Exportation, specifying certain Particulars, with Bond that it shall be duly exported.

LXXVI. And be it further enacted, That before any Salt, or Rock Salt, shall be put into, or shipped on board of any Ship or Vessel, in which the same is intended to be exported to Parts beyond the Seas, the Shipper or Exporter thereof shall give at least six Hours Notice in Writing to the proper Officer of Excise of his Intention to ship the same, specifying in such Notice the Quantity of the Salt, or Rock Salt, to be shipped, the Name of the Ship or Vessel in which the same is to be shipped and exported, and of the Master thereof, and the Port or Place to which the Salt, or Rock Salt, is to be consigned or sent, and shall also, before such Salt, or Rock Salt, shall be shipped, give sufficient Bond or Security, to be approved by the Commissioners of Excise, or the Person or Persons who shall be appointed or employed by them for that Purpose, (in which Bond or Security the Master or Commander of the Ship or Vessel shall join,) in treble the Value of the Duty on Salt for Home Trade or Consumption, for all the Salt or Rock Salt to be exported, that all and every Part of such Salt or Rock Salt shall, the Danger of the Seas and Enemies only excepted, be duly and truly exported to Parts beyond the Seas, and that the said Salt or Rock Salt, or any Part thereof, shall not be unshipped or relanded in any Part of Great Britain.

Such Salt and Rock Salt shall be weighed and shipped in the Presence of the Officer, who shall grant a Certificate, specifying the Quantity and Species shipped, &c.

LXXVII. And be it further enacted, That all such Salt, or Rock Salt, shall be weighed and shipped, and put into or on board of the Ship or Vessel in which the same is to be exported in the Presence of the proper Officer of Excise, who is hereby authorized and required to attend the weighing and shipping of such Salt or Rock Salt, upon the Receipt of such Notice, duly and legally sent or delivered to him as aforesaid; and if the Salt or Rock Salt so shipped and put into or on board such Ship or Vessel, shall be Salt or Rock Salt that shall have been sent or brought immediately from the Salt Work at which the same was raised, made, or refined, then it shall and may be lawful to and for such Officer, and he is hereby authorized and required, upon seeing and being satisfied that all the Salt or Rock Salt sent or brought immediately from the Salt Work for Exportation as aforesaid, has been or is duly shipped and put on board the Ship or Vessel in which the same is intended to be exported to Parts beyond the Seas, and that Bond or Security has been legally given for the due Exportation thereof, to give and grant to the Party authorized to receive the same, a Certificate under under his Hand, specifying the Quantity and Species of the Salt or Rock Salt so shipped for Exportation as aforesaid, and also the Name or Names of the Person or Persons from whom the Salt or Rock Salt was brought or sent, together with the Date and Number of the Permit with which the same was accompanied, and the Day on which the Salt or Rock Salt was so shipped as aforesaid.

Salt (Rock Salt and Foreign Salt excepted) for which the Duties have been paid, or secured to be paid, may be exported upon certain Conditions.

LXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons who shall have paid, or secured to be paid, his Majesty's Duty due and payable for any Salt, (Rock Salt and Foreign Salt excepted,) or who shall buy or be lawfully entitled to any Salt (Rock Salt and Foreign Salt excepted) from the Person or Persons who actually paid his Majesty's Duties for the same, to export from any lawful Quays, and in the lawful Hours, any Salt (Rock Salt and Foreign Salt excepted) for which all the Duties shall have been paid, or secured to be paid, to any Parts beyond the Seas, by way of Merchandize, upon the Terms and according to the Directions hereinafter mentioned; (that is to say,) the Person or Persons so intending to export such Salt as aforesaid, shall give six Hours Notice in Writing of the Time and Place of shipping such Salt, unto the proper Officer of the Port or Place where such Salt shall be intended to be shipped, who shall thereupon attend, and see the same weighed and put on Shipboard; and the Exporter or Exporters of such Salt shall cause all such Salt to be weighed and shipped in the Presence of such Officer accordingly; and shall also, before the shipping thereof, give sufficient Bond or Security, to be approved of by the Commissioners of Excise, or the Person or Persons appointed or employed by them for that Purpose, in treble the Value of the Duty intended to be drawn back, that all and every Part of the Salt so intended to be exported shall, the Dangers of the Seas and Enemies only excepted, be duly exported to Parts beyond the Seas, and shall not be unshipped, unladen, or laid or put on board any other Ship or Vessel in Great Britain (Shipwreck or other unavoidable Accident excepted); and the Exporter shall make Oath before the proper Officer of Excise of the said Port or Place, (which Oath such Officer is hereby authorized and empowered to administer,) that he believes the Duty upon such Salt has been fully paid, or secured to be paid; and the said Officer of Excise being satisfied that all such Salt has been duly and fairly shipped and exported, shall, within one Month after the Exportation thereof, give to the Exporter, or his Chief Clerk or Manager, a Debenture, expressing the Quantity of such Salt so exported as aforesaid, and that Oath has been made that the Duty has been paid for the same, and also that Bond or Security has been given for the due Exportation thereof; and such Debenture being produced to the Collector of Excise of the Port or Place from whence the Salt was exported, such Collector shall forthwith pay or allow to the Person or Persons so exporting the same, or his, her, or their Agent or Agents, a Drawback or Allowance of the Duty before paid for such Salt so exported; and if such Collector shall not have sufficient Money in his Hands to pay the same, the respective Commissioners of Excise in England or Scotland are hereby required and enjoined to pay the said Drawback or Allowance out of the Duty on Salt.

Officer to give the Exporter a Debenture, expressing the Quantity of Salt exported, &c. on Production of which to the Collector of the Port, he shall allow a Drawback of the Duty.

No Certificate for cancelling Bonds, or Debenture for obtaining Drawbacks, shall be made out upon Exportation of Salt or Rock Salt, or upon Delivery of Salt for curing Fish, until it shall have been verified on Oath, that it has been duly exported or delivered.

LXXIX. And be it further enacted, That no Certificate or Debenture for cancelling or discharging any Bond or Security, or for obtaining any Drawback or Allowance of Duty, shall be made out upon the Exportation of any Salt, or Rock Salt, or upon the Receipt or Delivery of any Salt to be used or employed in curing and preserving Fish, until the Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors, Exporter or Exporters, of such Salt or Rock Salt, or one of them respectively, or his, her, or their known Agent, shall have verified upon Oath, before the proper Officer of Excise, that all the Salt, or Rock Salt, for which such Certificate or Debenture shall be required, has been duly and fairly exported to Parts beyond the Seas, or duly delivered into the Custody of the Fish Curer to whom the same was consigned, as the Case may be, which Oath such Officer of Excise is hereby authorized and empowered to administer.

No Certificate or Debenture for Repayment of Duty for Salt, or for cancelling Bonds given in respect of Salt or Rock Salt exported to Ireland, &c. shall be granted, until a Certificate be produced of its being duly landed.

LXXX. And be it further enacted, That no Certificate or Debenture for the Repayment of Duty for and in respect of Salt, or for cancelling or discharging any Bond or Security given in respect of Salt or Rock Salt exported to Ireland, or the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Sark, Alderney, or Man, shall be given or granted, until a Certificate shall be produced under the Hands and Seals of the Collector, Comptroller, and Surveyor of his Majesty's Customs, or any two of them, belonging to the Port in Ireland, or of the Isle of Man, or from the Register of Certificates, or other Chief Officer of the Customs in the said Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Sark, or Alderney, at which such Salt or Rock Salt respectively shall have been landed, certifying that such Salt or Rock Salt has been duly landed there.

If Salt or Rock Salt shipped for Exportation, shall be unshipped or put in any other Vessel in Great Britain, it shall be forfeited with the Vessel.

LXXXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Salt or Rock Salt which shall be entered or shipped for Exportation, either free of Duty, or upon the low Duty to which Rock Salt for Exportation is subject and liable, or for the Purpose or with Intent to obtain the Drawback of any Duty, shall be unshipped, unloaded, or laid on Land, or put into any other Ship or Vessel in Great Britain, (Shipwreck or other unavoidable Accident excepted,) then and in every such Case, over and above the Penalty of the Bond directed to be given by this Act, which shall be levied and recovered to his Majesty's Use, all the Salt or Rock Salt which shall be so unshipped, unloaded, or laid on Land, or put into any other Ship or Vessel in Great Britain, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited, together with the Package containing the same, and also the Ship or Vessel from or out of which, and the Ship or Vessel into which such Salt shall be taken or put, and the same respectively shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise.

LXXXII. And

If any Person make Oath that Salt intended to be removed was received into his Custody with a Permit, he shall be entitled to a Permit to remove it Coastwise.

LXXXII. And be it further enacted, That when and so often as any Dealer or Dealers in, or Seller or Sellers of Salt, or any other Person or Persons, shall have Occasion to send or remove Coastwise, any Quantity of Salt received from any entered Salt Work, such Dealer or Dealers, Seller or Sellers, or other Person or Persons respectively, upon making Oath before the proper Officer of Excise of the Division or Place from whence the Salt is to be removed, (which Oath such Officer is hereby authorized and empowered to administer,) that all the Salt so intended to be removed was received into his, her, or their Custody, with and under a legal Permit, and that he, she, or they believes or believe that the Duty for and in respect of such Salt has been duly paid, or secured to be paid, and upon the Delivery of a Request Note, according to the Form by this Act directed, shall be entitled to a Permit to accompany such Salt so to be removed or sent Coastwise as aforesaid.

Masters of Vessels conveying Salt or Rock Salt from one Place in Great Britain to another, shall, before landing it, leave with the Excise Officer a Permit for the same, and make Oath that he believes no other has been put on board.

LXXXIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Master or Commander of any Ship or Vessel in or on board of which any Salt or Rock Salt shall be carried, or transported, or conveyed, from one Port or Place in Great Britain to another Part thereof, shall, before he shall begin to unship or land any Part of the Salt or Rock Salt, in or on board of such Ship or Vessel, produce to and leave with the proper Officer of Excise, who shall be appointed or employed to receive the same, a true and authentic Permit, or true and authentic Permits, for such Salt or Rock Salt, and shall make Oath before such proper Officer of Excise, (which Oath such Officer is hereby authorized and empowered to administer,) that to the best of his Knowledge and Belief, no Salt or Rock Salt hath been laid on board of, or put or taken into his Ship or Vessel since she departed or sailed from the Port or Place at which the Salt or Rock Salt mentioned in such Permit or Permits was shipped, and that he verily believes no Salt or Rock Salt whatsoever hath been laid on board, or put or taken into such Ship or Vessel, save and except such as is mentioned and specified in the Permit or Permits, then and at the Time of making such Oath produced to and left with such Officer as aforesaid.

Such Masters when required by an Excise Officer, to cause the Salt or Rock Salt intended to be unshipped, to be weighed, and an Account to be taken.

Penalty of 100 l. for refusing to produce Permits, &c.

LXXXIV. And be it further enacted, That every such Master or Commander of any Ship or Vessel, in or on board of which any Salt shall be so carried or conveyed from one Port or Place in Great Britain to another Part thereof, shall, when he shall be thereunto required by any Officer of Excise, cause all the Salt or Rock Salt intended to be unshipped or delivered, to be justly weighed out of such Ship or Vessel in the Presence of such Officer, who shall be permitted to take a true Account thereof; and if any such Master or Commander shall neglect or refuse to produce to and leave with such Officer as aforesaid, such Permit or Permits as beforementioned, or shall refuse or neglect to make such Oath as aforesaid, or to weigh out of his Ship or Vessel all the Salt or Rock Salt in and on board of the same, in the Presence of such Officer as aforesaid, such Master or Commander shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Masters before they remove Salt or Rock Salt out of Flats, &c. to produce a Permit, and if required weigh such Salt in Presence of the Officer, on Penalty of 100 l.

LXXXV. And be it further enacted, That every Master or other Person having Charge of any Flat, Barge, Boat, or other Vessel in which any Salt shall be laden, before he shall take or remove any Part of such Salt or Rock Salt out of such Flat, Barge, Boat, or other Vessel, for the Purpose of laying or putting the same in or on board of any Ship, or of any other Flat, Barge, Boat, or other Vessel, shall produce to the proper Officer of Excise of the Port or Place where such Salt shall be intended to be so removed out of one Vessel into another, a true and authentic Permit for such Salt or Rock Salt, and shall, if thereunto required by such Officer, weigh or cause all such Salt or Rock Salt to be weighed on such Removal as aforesaid, in the Presence of such Officer; and if any such Master or other Person shall refuse or neglect to produce such Permit or Certificate, or to weigh such Salt or Rock Salt when thereunto required as aforesaid, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Salt and Rock Salt imported from Scotland into England without Certificate of the Duties being paid, to be forfeited, with the Vessels, &c.

50 l. Penalty on Persons in whose Custody found, &c.

LXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That all Salt and Rock Salt which shall be brought or imported from Scotland into England, without a legal Certificate under the Hand of the proper Officer of Excise in Scotland, testifying that all the Duties due and payable for or in respect of such Salt made or procured in Scotland have been duly paid, shall be forfeited, together with the Package containing the same, and also the Ships, Barges, Boats, and other Vessels, and the Waggons, Carts, or other Carriages, and likewise the Horses and Cattle employed in importing or bringing, or removing or carrying the same, and the same respectively shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise; and the Person or Persons in whose Custody or Possession any such Salt or Rock Salt shall be found, or who shall be concerned or employed in so importing or bringing, or removing or conveying the same, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall forfeit the Sum of fifty Pounds.

No Salt or Rock Salt shall be removed from Scotland to England by Land, on Penalty of Forfeiture, with the Waggons, &c.

Penalty on Persons concerned in bringing it.

LXXXVII. And be it further enacted, That no Salt or Rock Salt shall be brought or removed from Scotland to England by Land, on Pain of forfeiting the same, together with the Package containing the same, and also the Waggons, Carts, and other Carriages, and the Horses and Cattle used or employed in removing or bringing the same; and the same respectively shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise, and the Person or Persons concerned in so bringing or removing the same, contrary to the Direction of this Act, shall forfeit, for every Pound Weight of such Salt or Rock Salt so brought or removed, the Sum of forty Shillings, or the Sum of one hundred Pounds, at the Election of his Majesty's Attorney General, or the Person or Persons who shall sue for the same.

Masters of Vessels importing Salt or Rock Salt from Scotland into England, shall, before unshipping it, leave with the Officer of Excise a Certificate that the Duties have been paid, and make Oath that it is the identical Salt mentioned therein, and that no other has been put on board, and shall pay the Duty, &c. on Penalty of 100l. and Forfeiture of the Salt and Vessel.

LXXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That the Master or Commander of every Ship or Vessel in which any Salt or Rock Salt shall be brought or imported from Scotland into England, shall, immediately on his Arrival at the Port or Place to which such Salt or Rock Salt is consigned, and before he shall presume to unship, unlade, or land any Part of such Salt or Rock Salt, produce to and leave with the proper Collector or Officer of Excise of such Port or Place as aforesaid, a legal Certificate under the Hand of the proper Officer of Excise in Scotland, testifying that all the Duties by this Act imposed for and in respect of such Salt and Rock Salt, made, or raised or taken from any Mine or Pit in Scotland, have been duly paid, and such Master and Commander as aforesaid shall make Oath before such Collector or Officer of Excise as aforesaid, (which Oath such Collector or Officer is hereby authorized and empowered to administer,) that such Salt and Rock Salt, intended to be unshipped or landed at such Port or Place, is the identical Salt or Rock Salt mentioned in such Certificate as aforesaid, and that no other Salt or Rock Salt has, to his Knowledge or Belief, been put or laden on board of his Ship or Vessel, since the Salt or Rock Salt mentioned in such Certificate as aforesaid was first put on board, and shall satisfy and pay to the said Collector or Officer of Excise, all the Duty by this Act imposed on Salt and Rock Salt brought from Scotland into England, with such Certificate as aforesaid, and shall forthwith weigh, unship, and deliver all such Salt or Rock Salt in the Presence of such Collector or Officer as aforesaid; and if such Master or Commander as aforesaid shall neglect or refuse to produce to and leave with such Collector or Officer of Excise such Certificate as aforesaid, or to make such Oath as aforesaid, or to pay and satisfy the Duty in the Manner hereinbefore directed, or shall neglect or refuse to weigh, unship, and deliver all such Salt and Rock Salt in the Presence of such Collector or Officer as aforesaid, every such Master or Commander shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, together with all the Salt and Rock Salt so brought and imported as aforesaid, together with the Packages containing the same, and also the Ship or Vessel in which the same shall be brought or imported as aforesaid, and the same respectively shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Customs or Excise.

A Drawback of the Duties to be allowed on British Salt used in making Oxiginated Muriatic Acid for bleaching Linen, under certain Provisions.

LXXXIX. 'And whereas Salt is an essential Ingredient in preparing and making Oxiginated Muriatic 'Acid, which is commonly made use of in the bleaching of Linen and Cotton: And whereas the granting 'an Allowance or Drawback of the Duties now payable on British Salt, for such Salt as shall be used, 'employed, spent, and consumed in the preparing and making of such Oxiginated Muriatic Acid for the 'Purpose aforesaid, will greatly promote and encourage the Manufacture of Linens and Cottons in this 'Kingdom:' Be it therefore enacted, That the whole Duties now payable on Salt of English Manufacture, shall be drawn back and allowed for all Salt of English Manufacture which shall be used, employed, spent, and consumed in making any such Oxiginated Muriatic Acid in England, and also that the whole Duties now payable on Salt of the Manufacture of Scotland, shall be drawn back and allowed for all Salt which shall be used, employed, spent, and consumed in making any such Oxiginated Muriatic Acid as aforesaid in Scotland, upon the Production of such Certificate as is hereinafter provided and directed: Provided always, That no such Drawback or Allowance shall be granted for any more or other Salt than shall be actually mixed and mingled with Vitriolic Acid, Manganese, and Water, in the Presence of the proper Officer of Excise, and in the Proportion of at least twenty Pounds Weight of Vitriolic Acid, twenty Pounds Weight of Manganese, and ten Pounds Weight of Water to every fifty-six Pounds Weight of Salt; nor shall any such Drawback or Allowance be granted to any Person not being an actual Bleacher of Linen or Cotton, nor unless every such Bleacher, intending to claim such Drawback or Allowance, shall make due Entry in Writing of every Workhouse, Warehouse, Storehouse, Room, and other Place, by him, her, or them respectively intended to be made use of, in or for the preparing or making such Oxiginated Muriatic Acid as aforesaid, at the Office of Excise within the Compass or Limits whereof such Workhouse, Warehouse, Storehouse, Room, or other Place respectively shall be situate: Provided also, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Officer or Officers of Excise, from Time to Time, and at all Times, by Day or Night, upon his or their Request, to enter into and upon all and every the Workhouses, Warehouses, Storehouses, Rooms, and other Places, respectively made use of by any such Bleacher or Bleachers for the making of Oxiginated Muriatic Acid, and by weighing, gauging, or otherwise to take Account of all Salt which shall at any Time be therein, and of the State of Operation and Manufacture of such Oxiginated Muriatic Acid.

Officer not to be obliged to attend the Mixture of Salt at Bleaching Grounds oftener than once in seven Days, nor unless he receive previous Notice &c. If the Bleacher shall not mix Materials within Half an Hour after the Officer attends, the Notice shall be void.

XC. And be it further enacted, That no Officer or Officers of Excise shall at any Time be obliged to attend the Mixture of any such Salt and other Ingredients, at any such Bleachers as aforesaid, oftener than once in every seven Days, nor shall any such Officer or Officers be obliged to attend the Mixture of any such Salt and other Ingredients, except he shall previously receive due Notice in Writing from such Bleacher by the Space of forty-eight Hours, specifying the particular Day and Hour when such Mixture is to be made, and the Quantity of Salt intended to be mixed and mingled; and if such Bleacher shall not actually begin to mix and mingle all such Salt and other Materials and Ingredients as aforesaid, as he or she shall at any Time intend to mix and mingle for any particular Operation of Oxiginated Muriatic Acid, in the Presence of the proper Officer of Excise, and within such Half an Hour after such Officer shall attend in pursuance of any such Notice as aforesaid, such Notice shall be null and void, and no such Officer shall be obliged to attend again without a fresh and like Notice in Writing as aforesaid.

XCI. And

XCI. And be it further enacted, That upon such Officer's attending and seeing any Quantity of Salt, not less than one Bushel, mixed and mingled in the Manner aforesaid, and upon receiving or having received an authentic Permit for such Salt, and being satisfied that the full Duties for all the Salt so mixed and mingled have been duly paid, he shall give and grant to the Bleachers, entitled to receive the same, a Certificate specifying the Quantity of Salt so mixed, mingled, used, and employed as aforesaid, and upon such Bleachers producing to the proper Collector of Excise such Certificate, and making Oath before such Collector, (which Oath such Collector is hereby authorized and empowered to administer,) that all the Salt mentioned in such Certificate has been duly and bona fide used, employed, spent, and consumed, in making such Oxiginated Muriatic Acid as aforesaid, for the sole Purpose of bleaching Linen or Cotton, and that he or she verily believes all the Duties due and payable for Salt have been paid for all such Salt so used, employed, spent, and consumed, as aforesaid, and that no Drawback or Allowance has been obtained or received for or in respect of such Salt, the said Collector or the Commissioners of Excise shall thereupon pay or allow to such Bleacher as aforesaid, out of any Money in his or their Hands arising by the Duty on Salt, the Amount of the Duty paid for the Salt specified in such Certificate, deducting at the Rate of seven and an Half per Centum, in consequence of the Increase in the Weight of the Salt, by the Moisture of the Air.

Officer on seeing not less than a Bushel of Salt mixed, and receiving a Permit for the Salt, to grant a Certificate to the Bleacher, which, on Production to the Collector of Excise, and Oath as to certain Particulars, shall entitle him to an Allowance of the Duty, deducting 7½ per Cent.

XCII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person or Persons who shall intend to receive any Salt into his, her, or their Custody or Possession, free of Duty, for the Purpose of curing and preserving Fish, shall, before he, she, or they shall be permitted to receive any such Salt free of Duty, make Entry in Writing, at the next Office of Excise, of his, her, or their Name or Names, and Place of Abode, and of the Number and Situation of his, her, or their Warehouse or Warehouses, or Storehouse or Storehouses, for storing and keeping Salt; and no Person or Persons shall be allowed or permitted to receive into his, her, or their Custody or Possession any such Salt free of Duty, before he, she, or they shall have made such Entry in Writing as aforesaid, nor until he, she, or they shall have provided a good and secure Warehouse or Storehouse, or good and secure Warehouses or Storehouses, for storing or keeping such Salt as aforesaid: Provided always nevertheless, That no such Warehouse or Storehouse shall be deemed or taken to be a secure Warehouse or Storehouse within the Meaning of this Act, unless the same shall be approved of in Writing, by and under the Hands of the respective Surveyor or Supervisor of Excise of the Division or District in which such Warehouse or Storehouse shall be situate; any Thing in this Act contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Before any Person shall receive Salt Duty free for curing Fish, he shall make Entry of his Name, Abode, and Warehouse.

Warehouse to be approved of by the Surveyor or Supervisor of the District.

XCIII. 'And whereas many Inhabitants of certain Parts of the Coast of this Kingdom, which are 'thinly inhabited, are employed in the taking and salting of Herrings, and being unable to provide them-'selves with proper Cellars or Warehouses for the keeping of Salt, and at the same Time depending on the 'said Fishery for their Subsistence, have been heretofore allowed to receive into their Custody Salt delivered 'Duty free, for the Cure of Fish;' be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or the major Part of them for the Time being, by special Warrant or Warrants under their Hands, upon such Terms and Conditions, and under, subject, and according to such Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions as they shall judge expedient, to authorize the Commissioners of Excise in England and Scotland respectively, to permit Salt to be delivered free of Duty for the curing and preserving of Fish, to any Person or Persons intending to take and to salt Fish, and residing at any Place or Places, the Inhabitants whereof, although not provided with such Cellars or Warehouses as aforesaid, have usually been, before the passing of this Act, allowed to receive Salt for the Purposes aforesaid into their Custody, although such Person or Persons may not be provided with such Cellars, Warehouses, or Storehouses, or have made such Entry thereof as is required by this Act.

The Treasury may authorize the Commissioners of Excise to permit Salt to be delivered Duty free for curing Fish to Persons not having Warehouses who have been heretofore allowed to receive it.

XCIV. And be it further enacted, That all and every Fish Curer or Fish Curers, and all and every other Person or Persons whatsoever, before he, she, or they shall be allowed or permitted to receive into his, her, or their Custody or Possession any Salt free of Duty, for the Purpose of curing or preserving Fish, shall give Bond or Security, to be approved of by the Commissioners of Excise, or the Person or Persons who shall be appointed or employed by them for that Purpose, in treble the Value of the Duty of all the Salt which he, she, or they shall have received, or had in his, her, or their Custody or Possession by the Space of one Year immediately preceding the Time of giving such Bond or Security, or in case such Fish Curer shall not have had any Salt in his Custody for the Purpose of curing Fish in the Year immediately preceding, then such Fish Curer or Fish Curers shall give the like Bond or Security in treble the Value of the Duty of all the Salt he, she, or they shall declare to be his, her, or their Intention to receive within one Year immediately succeeding the Time of taking such Bond or Security, or in the Sum of fifty Pounds, at the Election of the said Commissioners of Excise, or of the Person or Persons who shall be appointed or employed by them as aforesaid, that all the Salt he, she, or they shall receive, and every Part thereof, shall be really and truly employed, spent, and consumed in curing and preserving Fish, or delivered over to some other Fish Curer or Fish Curers for the Purpose of curing and preserving Fish, and that no such Salt shall be employed, used, or disposed of in any other Manner or Way, and also that he, she, or they will duly and regularly, once in every Year, that is to say, in the Month of May in every Year respectively, deliver to the proper Officer of Excise, whose Duty it shall be to receive the same, a true and particular Account, Before receiving Salt Duty free for curing Fish, Bond to be given that it shall be so used, and that in May yearly an Account of the Quantity received and used shall be delivered to the Officer of Excise, &c.

Account, specifying the exact and true Quantity of Salt which he, she, or they shall have had or received into his, her, or their Custody or Possession free of Duty during such Year, the true Quantity of such Salt actually employed or consumed by him, her, or them, in curing and preserving Fish, and the true and just Quantity of every distinct Kind and Species of Fish respectively by him, her, or them cured and preserved with such Salt, and likewise the true Quantity of Salt delivered over to each and every other Fish Curer or Fish Curers, with the Name or Names of the Person or Persons to whom such Salt was delivered, and the particular Time or Times when the same was so delivered to each and every of such Fish Curer or Fish Curers, and that he, she, or they will produce to and weigh in the Presence of the proper Officer of Excise, all the Salt he, she, or they shall have in his, her, or their Custody at the Time of making out and delivering to such Officer such Account as aforesaid.

Fish Curers to verify their Accounts on Oath, on Penalty of treble the Value of the Salt received within 12 Months.

XCV. And be it further enacted, That all and every Fish Curer and Fish Curers, and all and every other Person or Persons who shall receive into his, her, or their Custody or Possession any Salt free of Duty, for the Purpose of curing and preserving Fish, shall verify such Account to be by him, her, or them made out as aforesaid, on Oath before the Officer of Excise whose Duty it shall be to receive the same, which Oath such Officer is hereby authorized and empowered to administer accordingly; and if any such Fish Curer or other Person or Persons as aforesaid shall refuse or neglect to verify the same, he, she, or they shall, for every such Offence, forfeit treble the Value of all the Salt delivered into his, her, or their Custody or Possession, within twelve Months last preceding the Time when such Account as aforesaid shall or ought to have been made out and delivered as aforesaid.

Bonds to be renewed on Delivery of such Accounts, on Penalty of Forfeiture of the Salt in Possession.

XCVI. And be it further enacted, That the Bond or Security directed by this Act to be given, by all and every Fish Curer, and all and every other Person or Persons who shall receive into his, her, or their Custody or Possession, any Salt free of Duty, for the Purpose of curing and preserving Fish, shall be renewed at each and every Time that such Fish Curer or Fish Curers, or such other Person or Persons as shall have or ought to have delivered to the proper Officer of Excise such Account as he, she, or they is or are directed by this Act to make out and deliver; and if any Fish Curer or Fish Curers, or other Person or Persons, shall neglect or refuse to renew such Bond or Security as aforesaid, at such Times as aforesaid, he, she, or they shall forfeit all the Salt in his, her, or their Custody or Possession, and the same, together with the Package containing the same, shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise.

Before Salt from any Salt Work shall be delivered to any Fish Curer, he shall give Notice to the Officer of Excise, to see it weighed and warehoused, who shall grant him a Certificate, specifying the Quantity, &c.

XCVII. And be it further enacted, That before any Salt sent or brought from any Salt Work or Salt Works shall be delivered into the Custody or Possession of any Fish Curer or Fish Curers, such Fish Curer or Fish Curers shall give two Days Notice to the proper Officer of Excise to attend and see the same weighed and delivered, and shall weigh and deposit the same in his, her, or their entered Warehouse or Storehouse, or Warehouses or Storehouses, in the Presence of such Officer of Excise, who, when and so soon as he shall be satisfied that all and every Part of the Salt originally brought, sent, or consigned from the Maker or Makers, Refiner or Refiners, or Proprietor or Proprietors thereof, to or for such Fish Curer or Fish Curers, shall be, or is actually delivered into his, her, or their entered Warehouse or Storehouse, Warehouses or Storehouses, shall give and grant to such Fish Curer or Fish Curers respectively as aforesaid, a Certificate under his Hand, specifying the Quantity of such Salt received into the Custody or Possession of such Fish Curer or Fish Curers, the Day on which the same was so received, the Name or Names, and Place of Abode of the Person or Persons to whom delivered, and the Name of the Person from whom brought or sent, and also the Number and Date of the Permit with which such Salt was accompanied.

Penalty for selling or giving away, or using for any other Purpose, Salt delivered Duty free for curing Fish.

XCVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Fish Curer or Fish Curers, or other Person or Persons into whose Custody or Possession any Salt shall be delivered, free of Duty, for the Purpose of curing or preserving Fish, shall sell, deliver, or give away, any such Salt, except to some other known and entered Fish Curer or Fish Curers, under, subject, and according to the Directions of this Act, and that for the Purpose of curing and preserving Fish, or shall use, consume, or employ any such Salt for any Purpose, except for the curing and preserving Fish, or shall suffer or cause any such Salt to be so sold, delivered, given away, used, consumed, or employed, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, every such Fish Curer or Fish Curers, and other Person or Persons shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of forty Shillings for every Pound Weight of Salt so sold, delivered, given away, or used, consumed, or employed as aforesaid, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, or the Sum of one hundred Pounds, at the Election of his Majesty's Attorney General, or the Person or Persons who shall sue for the same; and in Default of paying such Penalty, such Fish Curer and Fish Curers, and other Person or Persons so offending as aforesaid, shall be committed to the House of Correction, there to be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding six Months.

Salt received Duty free for curing Fish, may be delivered to other Fish Curers on Notice to the Officers of Excise.

XCIX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Fish Curer or Fish Curers, who, under and according to the Directions contained in this Act, shall have received into his, her, or their Custody or Possession any Salt free of Duty, for the Purpose of curing and preserving Fish, to deliver any Part thereof into the Custody or Possession of any other known and entered Fish Curer, provided Notice thereof be given in Writing to the proper Officer of Excise of the Division or Place from which the Salt shall be sent, within forty-eight Hours next after such Salt shall be so delivered, specifying in such Notice the Day when such Salt was delivered, and the Names and Places of Abode of the Fish Curers, from whom and to whom the same shall be delivered, and that such Notice be signed by such Fish Curers so delivering and receiving such Salt.

Fish Curers receiving Salt from other Fish Curers, to be charged with all so delivered, &c.

C. And be it further enacted, That every such Fish Curer or Fish Curers, to or for whom any Salt shall be delivered by or from any other Fish Curer, shall be, and he, she, or they is and are hereby charged with all Salt which shall be so delivered as aforesaid; and if any Dispute shall arise whether any such Salt shall have been delivered into the Custody or Possession of the Fish Curer to whom the same may or shall be alledged to be so delivered, the Proof of the due Delivery of such Salt shall lie on the Fish Curer or Fish Curers sending or delivering the same.

Permits after their Expiration, to be delivered to the Officer of Excise on Demand, on Penalty of 50 l.

CI. And be it further enacted, That all and every Person or Persons by whom any Permit or Permits which shall be granted in pursuance of this Act shall have been received, and in whose Possession any such Permit or Permits shall at any Time be, shall, upon Demand thereof made by any Officer or Officers of Excise, after the Time limited in or by such Permit or Permits for the Removal of any Salt or Rock Salt specified therein shall be expired, deliver such Permit or Permits to the Officer or Officers of Excise who shall demand such Delivery thereof; and if any such Person or Persons shall neglect or refuse to deliver any such Permit or Permits to any Officer or Officers of Excise who shall demand such Delivery thereof, the Person or Persons so offending shall, for each and every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Commissioners of Excise may forbear to put Bonds in Suit.

CII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Commissioners of Excise in England and Scotland respectively, to forbear, if they shall see Cause so to do, to put in Suit any Bond by this Act directed to be given or entered into, upon such Terms and Conditions as to the said Commissioners shall seem meet.

Fish Curer to produce to the Officer all cured Fish for which he intends to take Credit in his Account, who shall take an Account thereof, and which Fish shall be marked in his Presence, or, if in Barrels, he shall brand the same.

Names, &c. of Fish Curers to branded on Barrels.

Fish produced in Barrels not so branded, or Fish not marked, to be forfeited.

CIII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Fish Curer and Fish Curers shall produce to the proper Officer of Excise, well and perfectly cured, all such Fish which he, she, or they shall have cured, and for which he, she, or they shall intend to take Credit in his, her, or their Account, directed by this Act to be made out and delivered to the proper Officer of Excise yearly; and such Officer shall, upon such Fish being so produced to him as aforesaid, take an exact and particular Account, by Tale, Gauge, Weight, or otherwise, of the Quantities and Species of all the Fish which shall be so produced to him, and shall enter such Account in a proper Book to be kept by him for that Purpose, and such Fish Curer or Fish Curers, if the Fish produced be dried or unpacked Cod, Ling, or Hake, shall immediately, and in the Presence and to the Satisfaction of such Officer, punch one Hole in and through the Tail of each Fish, but if the Fish produced be Herrings or Pilchards, or wet Fish, or other Fish packed in Barrels or Casks, then such Officer shall burn or brand each of such Barrels or Casks in some conspicuous Part thereof with the Letters B. F.; and all and every such Fish Curer or Fish Curers, before any such Barrels or Casks containing any Fish so cured as aforesaid, shall be produced to such Officer as aforesaid, shall burn or brand with Iron on every such Barrel or Cask of Fish, in large, legible, conspicuous, and permanent Characters, his, her, or their Name or Names, and the Date of the Year when the same shall be produced to such Officer; and if any such Fish Curer or Fish Curers shall produce any such Fish in Barrels or Casks not so marked with his, her, or their Name or Names as aforesaid, or shall refuse or neglect to punch one Hole in the Tail of every such Fish as aforesaid, he, she, or they shall forfeit all the Fish so produced, which shall or may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise.

If on taking an Account of Stock of Salt a Deficiency shall be found, the Fish Curer to forfeit 12 s. per Bushel, one-sixth Part to the Officer and five sixths to his Majesty.

CV. And be it further enacted, That if on weighing, taking Account of, and balancing the Stock of Salt in the Custody or Possession of any entered Fish Curer or Fish Curers, in the Month of May as directed by this Act, there shall appear to be any Salt deficient in the Quantity which such Fish Curer or Fish Curers shall have received or had in his, her, or their Custody or Possession, free of Duty, in the Year last preceding, making an Allowance for the whole Quantity of Salt which such Fish Curer or Fish Curers shall have legally and truly delivered into the Custody or Possession of any other Fish Curers, in the Course of such last preceding Year, and also making an Allowance, at and after the Rates and Proportions hereinbefore specified, for the Salt employed and consumed by such Fish Curer or Fish Curers in such last preceding Year, in curing and preserving the Fish cured, preserved, and produced within such Year to the proper Officer, then and in such Case all the Salt so deficient shall be deemed and taken to be Salt illegally disposed of, or misapplied by such Fish Curer or Fish Curers, and such Fish Curer and Fish Curers shall, for every Bushel of Salt so found deficient as aforesaid, forfeit and lose the Sum of twelve Shillings, which shall be paid and applied by the Commissioners of Excise in Manner hereinafter mentioned; (that is to say,) five sixth Parts thereof to the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the remaining sixth Part thereof to the Use of the Officer or Officers of Excise who shall discover such Deficiency.

Treasury may authorize the Commissioners of Excise to permit foul Salt to be sold for manuring Land in Places where it has been so allowed.

CVI. 'And whereas it sometimes happens that Part of the Salt employed in curing Fish, after having 'been repeatedly applied to the Fish, becomes so foul as to be entirely unfit for that Purpose, which Salt 'hath heretofore in certain Places and under certain Restrictions, been used in the manuring of Land;' be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or the major Part of them, for the Time being, by special Warrant or Warrants under their Hands, upon such Terms and Conditions, and under, subject, and according to, such Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, as they shall judge expedient, to authorize the Commissioners of Excise to permit any entered Fish Curers residing at Places where, immediately before the passing of this Act, foul Fishery Salt was allowed to be sold for manuring Land, to sell such of their Fishery Salt for the sole Purpose of manuring Land, as, from having been repeatedly applied to and used in the salting or curing of Fish, shall have become so foul and impure, as to be utterly unfit to be again used in or applied to the Purpose of salting or curing Fish: Provided always, That if any Person, whether a Fish Curer or not, shall be convicted before any one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace residing near to the Place where the Offence shall or may be committed, of wilfully and knowingly selling, disposing of, or using any such foul Fishery Salt, or of suffering any such foul Fishery Salt to be sold, disposed of, or used, for any other Purpose than that of manuring Land, or of selling or disposing of or using any Salt for the Purpose of manuring Land, except such Salt as, by such repeated Use and Application as aforesaid, shall have become so foul, dirty, and impure, as to be totally unfit to be used or employed in salting or curing Fish, every such Person shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of one hundred Pounds, and shall for ever afterwards be excluded from the Privilege or Benefit of selling or using any foul Fishery Salt for manuring Land; any Thing in this Act to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Penalty for selling, &c. foul Salt for any other Purpose than manuring Land, or Salt not foul for that Purpose.

Bonds taken for Salt for curing Fish, and Certificates, not subject to Stamp Duty.

CVII. And be it further enacted, That no Bond or Security given or taken for Salt, to be used or employed in curing and preserving Fish, nor any Certificate made out in relation to any such Salt so to be used or employed in curing and preserving Fish, shall be subject or liable to any Stamp Duties; any Thing in this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Persons legally entitled to Ling, &c. British taken, or Beef or Pork salted in Great Britain, may export the same:

CVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Fish Curer or Fish Curers, or any other Person or Persons who shall be legally entitled to any dried or wet Ling, Cod, or Hake, or Salmon, or White Herrings, or full Red Herrings, or clean shotten Red Herrings, or dried Red Sprats, or Pilchards, or Scads respectively, which shall be British taken, to export, from any lawful Quays and in lawful Hours, any such Fish as aforesaid to any Parts beyond the Seas, by Way of Merchandize, upon the Terms and according to the Directions hereinafter mentioned; and also to and for any Person or Persons who shall be legally entitled to any Beef or Pork salted in England with Salt, for or in respect of which the Duties by this Act imposed shall have been paid, or who shall be legally entitled to any Beef or Pork salted in Scotland wholly with Foreign Salt, for or in respect of which the Duty by this Act imposed shall have been paid, to export such Beef or Pork from any lawful Quays in England or Scotland respectively, to any Parts beyond the Seas, upon the Terms and according to the Directions hereinafter mentioned.

Previous Notice of Intention so to export to be given to the Officer of the Port, who shall take

CIX. And be it further enacted, That the Person or Persons so intending to export any such Fish, Beef, or Pork as aforesaid, shall give six Hours Notice in Writing of the Time and Place of shipping such Fish, Beef, or Pork respectively, to the proper Officer of Excise of the Port or Place where such Fish, Beef, or Pork respectively shall be intended to be shipped, who shall thereupon attend, and by Tale, Weight, or Gauge, take an Account of the Quantity, and Kind or Species of the Fish, and also of the Beef or Pork so intended to be shipped, and shall see the same shipped or put on Ship Board accordingly; and the Exporter or Exporters of such Fish, Beef, or Pork, shall weigh or otherwise assist such Officer in such Manner as to such Officer shall seem most expedient, in taking Account of and ascertaining the Quantity, Quality, and Species of such Fish, Beef, or Pork respectively, and shall ship the same in the Presence of such Officer; and the Exporter or Exporters of such Fish, Beef, or Pork shall, before the Shipping thereof, give sufficient Bond and Security, to be approved of by the Commissioners of Excise, or the Person or Persons to be by them appointed or employed for that Purpose, in treble the Value of such Fish, Beef, or Pork, that all and every Part of such Fish, Beef, or Pork respectively, so intended to be exported, shall (the Danger of the Seas and Enemies only excepted) be duly exported to Parts beyond the Seas, and shall not be unshipped or laid on Land, or put on board any other Ship or Vessel in Great Britain (Shipwreck or other unavoidable Accident excepted); and the Exporter shall declare, upon Oath, before the proper Officer of Excise of the said Port or Place, (which Oath such Officer is hereby authorized and empowered to administer,) the Quantity, and Kind or Species of Fish intended to be exported, and that the same, and every Part thereof, is well and perfectly cured, and also well and fairly packed, and in good and merchantable Condition, and that no Part thereof is for the Ship's Use, and that he believes the said Fish was British taken; or if it be Beef or Pork intended to be exported from England, then such Exporter shall declare, upon Oath as aforesaid, that he believes the same was salted with Salt for or in respect of which the Duty by this Act imposed has been paid, and that no Drawback or Allowance has been claimed for or in respect of such Salt, and that no Part of such Beef or Pork is for the Ship's Use; or if it be Beef or Pork intended to be exported from Scotland, then such Exporter shall declare, upon Oath as aforesaid, that he believes the same was salted with Foreign Salt, (without any Mixture of British or Irish Salt,) for or in respect of which all the Duties by this or any other Act imposed has been paid, and that no Drawback or Allowance has been claimed for or in respect of such Salt, and that no Part of such Beef or Pork is for the Ship's Use; and the said Officer of Excise being satisfied of the Truth of such Oath or Oaths, and that all the Fish, Beef, or Pork respectively has been duly and fairly shipped and exported, shall, within one Month after the Exportation thereof, give to the Exporter, or his or her Chief Clerk or Manager, a Debenture, expressing the Quantities and Species or Kind of such Fish, Beef, or Pork respectively as aforesaid, and that the same was well packed and shipped in a good and merchantable State and Condition, and also that Bond or Security had been given, before the shipping thereof, for the due Exportation of such Fish, Beef, or Pork respectively, and such Debenture being produced to the Collector of Excise of the Port or Place from whence such Fish, Beef, or Pork was exported, he shall forthwith pay or allow to the Person or Persons so exporting the same, or his, her, or their Agents, the Bounty by this Act granted upon the Exportation of such Fish, Beef, or Pork respectively, and if such Collector shall not have sufficient Money in his Hands to pay the same, the respective Commissioners of Excise in England or Scotland are hereby required and enjoined to pay the said Bounty out of the Duty on Salt.

an Account thereof, and see the same shipped, &c.

Exporters before shipping to give Bond that the Articles shall be duly exported, and to make Oath to certain Particulars.

Officer to give the Exporter a Debenture, expressing the Quantity, &c. which, on Production to the Collector of the Port, shall entitle the Exporter to Bounty.

CX. And be it further enacted, That no Certificate or Debenture for cancelling or discharging any Bond or Security given for the due Exportation of any Fish, Beef, or Pork, or for obtaining the Bounty by this Act given or granted, shall be made out upon the Exportation of any Fish, Beef, or Pork, until the Owner or Owners, or Proprietor or Proprietors of such Fish, Beef, or Pork, or one of them respectively, shall have verified upon Oath before the proper Officer of Excise (which Oath such Officer is hereby authorized and empowered to administer) that all the Fish, Beef, or Pork, for which such Certificate or Debenture shall be required, has been duly and fairly exported to Parts beyond the Seas, and not relanded in any Part of Great Britain.

No Certificate or Debenture for cancelling Bonds for Exportation of Fish, &c. or obtaining Bounty, shall be made out till after Oath of their having been exported.

CXI. And be it further enacted, That the Exporter, Owner, or Proprietor of any dried Cod, Ling, or Hake, which shall be presented to any Officer or Officers of Excise for Exportation, with Intent to obtain, or for the Purpose of obtaining, the Bounty by this Act granted on the Exportation of such dried Cod, Ling, or Hake, shall, in the Presence, and to the Satisfaction of such Officer, punch a second Hole in and through the Tail of every such Cod, Ling, or Hake, and that no Bounty whatever shall be paid or allowed for or in respect of any such dried Cod, Ling, or Hake, which shall not, at any Time when so presented to such Officer as aforesaid, have one Hole, and not more than one Hole, punched in and through the Tail of each and every such Cod, Ling, or Hake, or of which any Part of the Tail shall have been cut off, save and except by punching out one Hole as aforesaid.

On presenting dried Cod, &c. to the Officer for obtaining Bounty, a second Hole to be punched through the Tail, and no Bounty to be paid for any that has not one Hole when presented.

CXII. And be it further enacted, That when any Beef, Pork, or Fish, packed in Casks or Barrels, shall be presented to any Officer or Officers of Excise for Exportation, with Intent to obtain, or for the Purpose of obtaining the Bounty by this Act granted on the Exportation of such Beef, Pork, or Fish, it shall and may be lawful for such Officer or Officers of Excise, and he or they is and are hereby required and enjoined, before the shipping of any such Beef, Pork, or Fish, so packed as aforesaid, to brand, burn, or mark, every Cask or Barrel thereof in such Manner, and with such Mark or Device as the Commissioners of Excise, or the major Part of them for the Time being, shall direct and appoint.

Officer to brand Casks containing Beef, &c. for which Bounty is claimed, before shipt for Exportation.

No Certificate or Debenture for obtaining Bounty upon Fish, &c. exported to Ireland, &c. to be made out until a Certificate be produced of their having been landed there.

CXIII. And be it further enacted, That no Certificate or Debenture for obtaining any Bounty for any Fish, Beef, or Pork exported, shall be made out or granted upon the Exportation of any such Fish, Beef, or Pork, to Ireland, or to the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Sark, Alderney, or Man, until a Certificate shall be produced under the Hands and Seals of the Collector, Comptroller, and Surveyor of his Majesty's Customs, or any two of them, belonging to the Port in Ireland, or the Isle of Man, or from the Register of Certificates or other Chief Officer of the Customs in the said Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Sark, or Alderney, at which such Fish, Beef, or Pork respectively, shall have been landed, certifying that such Fish, Beef, or Pork, has been duly landed there.

If Fish, &c. entered for Exportation, be unshipt in Great Britain, they shall be forfeited, with the Vessel.

CXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Fish, Beef, or Pork, which shall be entered or shipped for Exportation, for the Purpose, or with the Intent to obtain any Bounty by this Act granted, shall be unshipped, unloaded, or laid on Land, or put into any other Ship or Vessel in Great Britain, (Shipwreck or other unavoidable Accident excepted,) then and in every such Case, over and above the Penalty of the Bond which shall be levied and recovered to his Majesty's Use, all the Fish, Beef, and Pork, which shall be so unshipped, unladen, or laid on Land, or put into any other Ship or Vessel in Great Britain, or the Value thereof, shall be forfeited, together with the Packages containing the same, and also the Ship or Vessel from or out of which, and the Ship or Vessel into which such Fish, Beef, or Pork as aforesaid, shall be taken or put, and the same respectively shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise.

Justices at the Quarter Sessions or the Commissioners of Excise, may receive Applications respecting Salt or Rock Salt lost through Stress of Weather, &c. and grant Relief.

CXV. 'And whereas it may sometimes happen that Salt and Rock Salt may be lost or destroyed 'through Stress of Weather and Storms at Sea, or by the casting away, sinking, or stranding of the Flat, 'Boat, Barge, or Vessel, in which the same may be transporting from one Place to another;' be it therefore enacted, That in case any Salt, or Rock Salt, for which the Duties by this Act imposed shall have been paid, or which shall have been delivered upon Bond free of those Duties, shall be lost or destroyed through Stress of Weather or Storms at Sea, or by the accidental or unavoidable casting away, sinking, or stranding of any Flat, Boat, Barge, or Vessel, in or on board of which any such Salt, or Rock Salt, shall be removing or transporting from one Place to another, it shall and may be lawful for the Owner, Proprietor, or Shipper of such Salt, or Rock Salt, to make Application in Writing for Relief to his Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding, Division, or Shire, nearest to which any such Accident shall happen, at the Quarter Sessions of the Peace, or to the Commissioners of Excise at the Chief Office of Excise in London, or any three of the said Commissioners, and thereupon it shall and may be lawful to and for such Justices of the Peace at the Quarter Sessions, or Commissioners of Excise, or any three of such Commissioners respectively, to receive and admit such Application, and to examine all Parties touching the Matter contained therein, and upon due Proof of the Fact by two or more credible Witnesses, one of whom shall be the Master or Mate of such Flat, Boat, Barge, or Vessel, if such Master or Mate be living at the Time, such Justice or Commissioners respectively are hereby authorized and required to grant their Warrant, directed to the proper Collector of Excise, authorizing and requiring him, in case the Salt, or Rock Salt, lost or destroyed shall be proved to be Salt, or Rock Salt, for which the Duties by this Act imposed shall have been paid, to allow to the Maker or Proprietor of such Salt, or Rock Salt, out of the Duties on Salt which shall next become due and payable from such Maker or Proprietor, the full Amount of the Duties proved to have been paid for such Salt, or Rock Salt, which shall be so proved to have been so lost or destroyed as aforesaid; and if the Salt, or Rock Salt, which shall be proved to have been so lost or destroyed as aforesaid shall be Salt, or Rock Salt, which shall have been delivered upon Bond free of Duty, or Rock Salt which shall have been delivered upon Bond for Exportation upon the low Duty to which such Rock Salt for Exportation is liable, then and in every such Case the said Justices of the Peace or Commissioners respectively shall, as to such Salt, or Rock Salt, so lost or destroyed, grant their Warrant, authorizing and requiring such Collector of Excise as aforesaid to cancel or vacate the Bond which shall have been given at and for the Delivery or Shipping of the Salt, or Rock Salt, which shall be proved to have been so lost or destroyed: Provided always, That such Bond shall be and remain in full Force and Effect as to all the Salt and Rock Salt to which the same shall relate, which shall not be so proved to have been actually lost or destroyed, and which shall not be particularly specified and mentioned in the Warrant of the Justices of the Peace or Commissioners of Excise as aforesaid: Provided also, That no such Application for Relief as aforesaid shall be sustained or proceeded upon, or any Warrant granted, unless the Proprietor or Shipper of any Salt, or Rock Salt, which may be so lost or destroyed as aforesaid, or some Person on his, her, or their Behalf, shall give Notice in Writing to the Commissioners of Excise at the Chief Office in London, or to the Collector of Excise of the Collection nearest to where the Accident may happen, within one Month after such Accident shall have happened, nor unless it shall be specified in such Notice when and where the Loss shall have happened, and by what Accident it shall have been occasioned, nor unless the Names and Places of Abode of the Maker or Refiner, and of the Proprietor or Shipper of the Salt, or Rock Salt, the Time when, and Place where the same was shipped, and the Place to which the same was consigned or intended to be removed, and also the Quantity of Salt, or Rock Salt, actually shipped, shall be specified in such Notice, and also whether it was Salt for which the Duty had been paid, or which had been CXVII. And be it further enacted, That all and every Perſon and Perſons, before he, ſhe, or they ſhall preſume to begin to make or manufacture any Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glaſs, ſhall from Time to Time make true and particular Entry in Writing of every Workhouſe, Warehouſe, Storehouſe, Room, and other Place, and alſo of every Utenſil and Veſſel by him, her, or them reſpectively intended to be made uſe of, in or for the making or keeping Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glaſs, or any Materials proper to be made into Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glaſs, at the Office of Exciſe, within the Compaſs or Limits whereof ſuch Workhouſe, Warehouſe, Storehouſe, Room, and other Place reſpectively ſhall be ſituate; and if any ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall begin to make any Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glaſs, without firſt making ſuch Entry, he, ſhe, or they ſhall, for every ſuch Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, together with all the Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glaſs, and all the Materials proper to be made into Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glaſs, together with all the Utenſils and Veſſels uſed in making the ſame, which ſhall at any Time be found in any Workhouſe, Warehouſe, Storehouſe, Room, or other Place uſed in or for the making or keeping of Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glaſs, whereof no ſuch Entry ſhall be made.

Duty impoſed on Licences for making Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glaſs, by 22 Geo. 3. c. 39. to ceaſe from Oct. 10, 1798.

CXVIII. 'And whereas, by an Act made in the twenty-ſecond Year of the Reign of his preſent Ma-'jeſty, certain Licences are authorized to be granted for making Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glaſs, and 'for or in reſpect of each ſuch Licence a Duty of five Pounds is by the ſaid Act impoſed: And whereas it 'is expedient to repeal the ſaid Duty;' be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the tenth Day of October one thouſand ſeven hundred and ninety-eight, the ſaid Duty of five Pounds, by the ſaid Act impoſed for or in reſpect of each ſuch Licence, ſhall ceaſe and determine, and no ſuch Licence ſhall hereafter be granted.

No Rock Salt to be delivered for making Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glaſs, or ſtored, but in Preſence of an Officer, who ſhall make an Entry of the Quantity, &c.

CXIX. And be it further enacted, That no ſuch Rock Salt ſhall be delivered out of or from any Warehouſe belonging to any Mine or Pit, from which the ſame ſhall be raiſed or taken, for the Purpoſe or under any Pretext of making Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glaſs, or ſhall be afterwards delivered at ſuch Work or Works, for the Purpoſe of making Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glaſs, or ſtored or depoſited in any Warehouſe, Storehouſe, or Place, belonging thereto, or uſed therewith, but in the Preſence of the proper Officer of Exciſe, who ſhall make and keep an Entry in Writing, containing the true and real Weight or Quantity of the Salt ſo delivered at ſuch Salt Mine or Pit, and brought in or delivered to or at ſuch Alkali Works as aforeſaid, together with the Day on which the ſame ſhall be brought into or delivered at ſuch Alkali Work or Works reſpectively as aforeſaid; and which Entry ſo to be made at ſuch Salt Mine or Pit as aforeſaid, ſhall alſo contain the Name of the Maker or Makers of Glaſs reſpectively to whom the Rock Salt therein mentioned was delivered, and for the Uſe of what Work or Works for the making of Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glaſs, and to whom belonging.

If Rock Salt brought to any Work for making Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glaſs, be leſs than ſpecified in the Permit, the Maker ſhall be anſwerable.

CXX. And be it further enacted, That in caſe the Rock Salt ſo brought in to be uſed, ſtored, or depoſited, at any ſuch Work or Works, for the making of ſuch Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glaſs, ſhall be of leſs Weight or Quantity than that ſpecified in the Permit which ſhall accompany the ſame, the Maker or Makers of Mineral Alkali, to whoſe Uſe or on whoſe Account the ſaid Salt was ſo delivered at ſuch Salt Mine or Pit as aforeſaid, ſhall be anſwerable for the ſame.

Penalty of 100l. for using Rock Salt delivered to Glass Makers for any other Purpose than making Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glass.

CXXI. And be it further enacted, That in case any Maker of Glass, to whom or on whose Use or Account any such Rock Salt shall be delivered at any such Salt Mine or Pit, and secured as aforesaid, or in case any other Person or Persons shall use the same, or any Part thereof, or any Acid Materials to be produced therefrom, after being used in the making of such Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glass as aforesaid, for any other Purpose than that of making Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glass, the Person or Persons so offending in the Premises shall forfeit and lose the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

Officers may enter Workhouses, &c. of Manufacturers of Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glass.

Penalty of 50l. for refusing them Entrance.

CXXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Officer or Officers of Excise to enter into all and every the Workhouses, Warehouses, Storehouses, Rooms, and other Places made use of by any Manufacturer or Manufacturers of Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glass, made from Rock Salt, Brine, or Sea Water as aforesaid, either for the Purpose of making, storing, or keeping the same, or of storing or keeping any Rock Salt, Brine, or Sea Water, for the Purpose or under Colour of making the same; and that if any such Manufacturer or Manufacturers shall, upon due Request or Demand made by any Officer of Excise, in the Day-time, or in the Night in the Presence of a Constable or other lawful Officer of the Peace, refuse to permit such Officer to enter and come into any such Workhouses, Warehouses, Storehouses, Rooms, and other Places, he, she, or they shall forfeit, for every such Offence, the Sum of fifty Pounds.

Duty not to extend to Glauber Salts produced in making Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glass, and expended in making the same.

CXXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend, to lay or impose any Duty on such Glauber Salts as shall be made or produced by any Glass-maker in any of the Processes of making Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glass as aforesaid, and which Glauber Salts shall be truly and bonâ fide expended and consumed in making such Mineral Alkali, or Flux for Glass.

Owners or Occupiers of Brine Springs in Long Benton may make Mineral Alkali therefrom, on making Entry of their Workhouses, &c. at the Excise Office of the District.

Penalty for not making such Entry, 100l. &c.

CXXIV. Provided always nevertheless, and be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for all and every the Owners, Proprietors, or Occupiers of certain Springs of Brine or Salt Water in the Parish or Township of Long Benton in the County of Northumberland, to make and manufacture Mineral Alkali from the Water or Brine of the said Springs, at their Works or Manufactories already erected or begun to be erected within the said Parish or Township, and also within the Parish of Newburn in the County aforesaid, upon the Terms and Conditions, and under, subject, and according to the Rules, Regulations, Restrictions, and Provisions in that Behalf hereinafter contained, provided, prescribed, settled, and established; that is to say, that all and every the said Owners, Proprietors, or Occupiers, shall from Time to Time make true and particular Entry in Writing of every Workhouse, Warehouse, Storehouse, Room, and other Place, and Utensil and Vessel by him, her, or them respectively intended to be made use of in or for the making or keeping such Mineral Alkali, or any Materials proper to be made into Mineral Alkali, at the Office of Excise within the Compass or Limits whereof such Workhouse, Warehouse, Storehouse, Room, or other Place respectively shall be situate; and if any such Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors, or Occupier or Occupiers, who shall make or manufacture any Mineral Alkali from such Water or Brine as aforesaid, shall neglect to make any such Entry, he, she, or they shall, for every such Offence, forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds, together with all the Mineral Alkali which shall at any Time be found in any Workhouse, Warehouse, Storehouse, Room, or other Place, by him, her, or them used in or for the making or keeping of Mineral Alkali whereof no such Entry shall be made; provided also, that such Owners, Proprietors, or Occupiers, do and shall from Time to Time pay and clear off all such Duty as shall become due and payable for or in respect of the Mineral Alkali which he, she, or they shall from Time to Time make or manufacture, at such Times and under such Penalties as in this Act in that Behalf prescribed.

Duty for the Mineral Alkali made, to be paid according to this Act.

Officer of Excise may enter such Workhouses, and take an Account of the Mineral Alkali making or made.

CXXV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Officer or Officers of Excise from Time to Time, and at all Times by Day or Night, upon his or their Request, to enter into and upon all and every the Workhouses, Warehouses, Storehouses, Rooms, and other Places respectively made use of by any such Owner or Owners, Proprietor or Proprietors, or Occupier or Occupiers, for the making or manufacturing Mineral Alkali from such Water or Brine as aforesaid, and by weighing, gauging, or otherwise, to take an Account of all the Mineral Alkali which shall at any Time be making or manufacturing, or made or manufactured therein.

Penalty of 500l. and Forfeiture of Salt, on such Owners or Occupiers making Common Salt, or Glauber Salts, or having in their Custody more than a certain Quantity of each.

CXXVI. And be it further enacted, That if any such Owner, Proprietor, or Occupier shall at any Time make or manufacture any Common Salt, or any Salts called or known by the Name of Glauber or Epsom Salts, or shall at any Time knowingly have in his, her, or their Custody, or in any House or Place to him, her, or them belonging, any Common Salt exceeding the Quantity of two Bushels, or any Glauber or Epsom Salts exceeding the Quantity of one Pound, the same shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise, and such Owner, Proprietor, or Occupier, shall also forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds.

CXXVII. And

CXXVII. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall extend, or be construed to extend, to the Manufacture of Kelp, Barilla, or Flux for Glass, made in any Part of Great Britain by the Incineration of Marine or any other Plants.

Act not to extend to Kelp, &c. made from Plants.

CXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That no Person whatsoever, being a Maker or Refiner of Salt, or Rock Salt, or Proprietor of, or in anywise interested or concerned in any Salt Mine, Salt Pit, Salt Refinery, or Salt Work, shall, during such Time as he shall be a Maker or Refiner of Salt, or Rock Salt, or be so interested or concerned in making Salt, or a Proprietor of, or in anywise interested or concerned in any Salt Mine, Salt Pit, Salt Refinery, or Salt Work, act as a Justice of the Peace in any Matter or Thing whatsoever, which shall anywise concern the Execution of the Powers or Authorities given or granted by this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament now in force or hereafter to be made, relating to Salt; and if any Person or Persons shall, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, presume to exercise any such Powers or Authorities, or to do any Act authorized by any such Act or Acts of Parliament, to be done by any Justice or Justices of the Peace, all such Acts so executed or done by such Person shall be null and void to all Intents and Purposes.

No Person concerned in any Salt Mine, Salt Refinery, or Salt Works, to act as a Justice in any Matter relating to Salt.

CXXIX. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where by this Act it shall or may be necessary to ascertain or settle the Value of any Salt, or Rock Salt, such Value shall be deemed and taken to be according to the best and highest Price at which Salt, or Rock Salt, (as the Case may require,) shall sell for in London.

The Value of Salt or Rock Salt to be taken at the best Price at London.

CXXX. And be it further enacted, That any Person or Persons who shall be convicted of wilfully taking a false Oath in any of the Cases in which an Oath is required to be taken by this Act, shall be liable to the Pains and Penalties to which Persons are liable for wilful and corrupt Perjury.

Persons taking false Oaths to be liable to the Penalties for corrupt Perjury.

CXXXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall counterfeit or forge, or cause to be counterfeited or forged, any Certificate or Debenture, in any Case in which a Certificate or Debenture is by this Act required to be used, given, or granted, with Intent to defraud his Majesty of his just Duties, every Person so offending, and being thereof duly convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall for such his, her, or their Offence be transported as a Felon or Felons for the Space of seven Years, in such Manner as Felons are appointed to be transported by an Act made in the twenty-fourth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to authorize the Removal of Prisoners in certain Cases, and to amend the Laws respecting the Transportation of Offenders; and if any such Offender or Offenders shall return into Great Britain before the Expiration of the said seven Years, he, she, or they so returning shall suffer as a Felon or Felons, and have Execution awarded against him, her, or them, as Persons attainted of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

Persons forging Certificates or Debentures to be transported for seven Years, as under 24 Geo. 3. ft. 2. c. 56. and if they return, to suffer as Felons without Benefit of Clergy.

CXXXII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall knowingly or willingly give any false or untrue Permit, in any Case in which a Permit is by this Act required to be used, or given or granted, or shall knowingly or willingly accept or receive any such false or untrue Permit with any Salt, or Rock Salt, removed or to be removed as aforesaid, or if any Person or Persons shall fraudulently alter or erase any such Permit after the same shall have been given or granted by the proper Officer of Excise, or if any Person or Persons shall knowingly or willingly publish or make use of any such Permit so counterfeited, forged, false, untrue, altered, or erased as aforesaid, every Person or Persons so offending shall, for each and every such Offence, severally forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds.

Penalty of 500*l.* for giving or receiving false Permits, &c.

CXXXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall resist, oppose, molest, obstruct, or hinder any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise in the due Execution of this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament in force at the Commencement of this Act, or thereafter to be made, relating to Salt, or Rock Salt, or of any of the Powers or Authorities by any such Act or Acts of Parliament given or granted to any such Officer or Officers, or shall by Force or Violence, after any such Officer or Officers shall have seized any Salt, or Rock Salt, forfeited by any such Act or Acts of Parliament, or any Ship, Vessel, Boat, Horse, Cattle, Cart, or other Carriage, forfeited by any such Act or Acts of Parliament, for being made use of in the Removal, Carriage, or Conveyance, of any such Salt, or Rock Salt, rescue or cause to be rescued any such Salt, or Rock Salt, Ship, Vessel, Boat, Horse, Cattle, Cart, or Carriage, or shall attempt or endeavour so to do, all and every such Person or Persons so offending shall, for each and every such Offence, for which no Penalty is particularly provided by this Act, severally forfeit the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

Penalty of 200*l.* for obstructing Officers of the Customs or Excise, or for rescuing Seizures.

CXXXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons whatsoever shall give or offer to give any Bribe, Recompence, or Reward whatsoever, to any Officer or Officers of the Customs or Excise, to connive at or to permit any Salt, or Rock Salt, to be run on Shore, or to connive at any false or short Entry of any Salt, or Rock Salt, or shall give or offer to give any Bribe, Recompence, or Reward whatsoever, in order to corrupt, persuade, or prevail upon any such Officer or Officers, either to do or perform any Act or Acts, Thing or Things whatsoever, contrary to the Duty of such Officer or Officers, in the Execution of this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament in force at the Commencement of this Act, or thereafter to be made, relating to Salt, or Rock Salt, or either of them, or to neglect to do or perform any Act or Acts, Thing or Things whatsoever, belonging or appertaining to the Business or Duty of such Officer Penalty of 500*l.* for bribing or attempting to bribe Officers of the Customs or Excise.

or Officers, in the Execution of any such Act or Acts of Parliament, or to connive at or conceal any Fraud or Frauds, relating to the Duties on Salt, or Rock Salt, or not to discover the same, all and every such Person or Persons so offending shall, for each and every such Offence, whether such Offer or Proposal be accepted or not, forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds.

Arrears of Duties repealed, Penalties incurred before Commencement of this Act, Drawbacks &c. to be adjusted by the Commissioners of Excise.

CXXXV. And be it further enacted, That all outstanding Arrears of the Duties by this Act repealed, which shall have arisen or been charged, on all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, which shall have been incurred or adjudged in relation to any such Duties, before the Commencement of this Act, shall be paid to, and shall be received, distributed, and accounted for by the Commissioners of Excise in England and Scotland respectively; and all legal and just outstanding Claims, for or in respect of any Drawback, Discount, Allowance, or Bounty, which shall have arisen or become due in relation to any such Duties before the Commencement of this Act, shall be adjusted, settled, paid, and accounted for by the said Commissioners of Excise in England and Scotland respectively, out of any Money in their Hands arising by the Duties by this Act imposed: Provided always nevertheless, That no such Claim, for or in respect of any such Drawback, Discount, Allowance, or Bounty, shall be allowed or paid, unless the same shall be made within six Months next after the Commencement of this Act.

Recovery and Application of Penalties.

CXXXVI. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, imposed by any Act or Acts of Parliament in force immediately before the passing of this Act, and relating to the Duties on Salt, and not recovered, and also all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures, imposed by this Act, shall be sued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated by such Ways, Means, or Methods, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, may be sued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated, by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland respectively, and that (save and except in such Cases where it is otherwise expressly directed by this Act) one Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture shall be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them who will inform, discover, or sue for the same.

Duties to be carried to the Consolidated Fund.

CXXXVII. And be it further enacted, That all Monies arising by the said Duties by this Act granted or imposed (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted) shall from Time to Time be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, and shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund.

Application of the Duties.

CXXXVIII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, out of the Monies arising from the Duties on Salt hereby granted, the Sum of one hundred and one thousand five hundred and fifty-five Pounds, being one fourth Part of the Sum of four hundred and six thousand two hundred and twenty Pounds, the annual Average Produce for six Years, ending the fifth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, of the said Duties on Salt, shall Quarterly, on the fifth Day of January, the fifth Day of April, the fifth Day of July, and the tenth Day of October, in every Year, during the Period of ten Years, be set apart from the Remainder of the Monies arising from the said Rates and Duties, and that the said Remainder of the said Duties shall, during the said Period of ten Years, be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer, distinctly and apart from all other Branches of the Public Revenue; and that the said Remainder of the said Rates and Duties so paid into the said Receipt, or so much thereof as shall be sufficient, shall be deemed an Addition made to the Revenue, for the Purpose of defraying the increased Charge occasioned by any Loan to be made or Stock created by virtue of any Act passed or to be passed in this Session of Parliament; and that there shall be provided and kept in the Office of the Auditor of the said Receipt, during the said Period of ten Years, a Book or Books, in which the said Remainder of the Monies arising from the said Rates and Duties shall, together with the Monies arising from any other Rates and Duties granted in this Session of Parliament, for the Purpose of defraying such increased Charge as aforesaid, be entered separate and apart from all other Monies paid or payable to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, upon any Account whatever.

From Oct. 10, 1798, Officers of the Excise may exercise such Powers as were given to Officers of the Salt Duties by Acts in force before passing this Act, and which are not hereby repealed or altered.

CXXXIX. 'And whereas, by several Acts of Parliament in force immediately before the passing of this 'Act, and relating to the Duties on Salt, certain Powers and Authorities were given to the Collectors and 'other Officers of the Duties on Salt, and such Collectors and Officers respectively by the said Acts were 'authorized and required to make Seizures of Salt and other Articles forfeited by the said Acts, and to do, 'perform, and execute divers other Acts, Matters, and Things, for the Purpose of regulating the Collection 'of the Duties by this Act repealed, and for preventing and detecting of Frauds relating thereto: And 'whereas it is expedient that such of the said Powers and Authorities as are not repealed, revoked, or al'tered or controlled by this Act, or not repugnant to any of the Provisions herein contained, be given to, 'and in future exercised, practised, and put in Execution by the Collectors and Officers of Excise, and the 'Officers of Excise should be authorized and required to make such Seizures, and to do, perform, and ex'ecute all such Acts, Matters, and Things, for the regulating the Collection of the Duties by this Act im'posed in lieu of the said Duties so repealed, and for preventing and detecting Frauds relating to the said 'Duties by this Act imposed;' be it therefore enacted, That, from and after the tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, it shall and may be lawful to and for the respective Collectors and other Officers of Excise, and such Collectors and other Officers are hereby authorized and required to make such Seizures, and to exercise, practise, and put in Execution such of the said Powers and Authorities respectively as are not repealed, revoked, altered, or controlled by this Act, or not repugnant to any of the Provisions herein contained, and to do, perform, and execute, all such Acts, Matters, and Things for the regulating the Collection of the Duties by this Act imposed, and for preventing and detecting Frauds relating thereto, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as the respective Collectors and other Officers of the Duties on Salt by this Act repealed might have done immediately before the passing of this Act; and that all and every Person and Persons who shall obstruct, molest, impede, let, or hinder, any such Collector or other Officer of Excise in the due Execution of any of the said Powers or Authorities, shall, for every such Offence, be subject and liable to such Penalty or Penalties respectively, as are in and by the said respective Acts imposed for such Offence committed on any Collector or other Officer of the Duties on Salt.

Act not to repeal or alter any Acts in force immediately before passing it relating to the Duties on Salt, except so far as hereby repealed or altered.

CXL. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be deemed or construed to extend, to repeal or alter any Act or Acts of Parliament in force immediately before the passing of this Act relating to the Duties on Salt, or any of the Clauses or Provisoes therein contained, save and except the said Duties, Drawbacks, Discounts, Bounties, and Allowances respectively by this Act expressly repealed, and save and except so far as any such Act or Acts, or the Clauses, Provisions, Powers, or Authorities therein contained or granted are repealed, revoked, altered, or controlled by this present Act, or repugnant to any of the Provisions herein contained, but that all and singular the said former Acts, and the several Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Powers, and Authorities therein contained or granted, and the Pains, Penalties, and Forfeitures incurred, or thereby imposed or provided for any Breach or Non-observance of the same, except as aforesaid, shall remain and continue in as full Force and Effect as if this Act had not been made; any Thing herein to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

His Majesty may direct the Commissioners of Excise to pay to the Commissioners and Officers of the Duties on Salt, Allowances not exceeding their Salaries and Emoluments.

CXLI. 'And whereas the Commissioners and Officers who, before and at the Time of passing this Act, 'were employed in the Collection and Management of the Duties for and in respect of Salt, are or will be 'by this Act deprived of their Employments, and the Salaries and Emoluments arising therefrom; and it 'is expedient that some Compensation should be made to such Commissioners and Officers respectively for 'the Loss of such their Salaries and Emoluments;' be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by Warrant under his or their Sign Manual, to direct, during Pleasure, the Commissioners of Excise to pay to such Commissioners and Officers respectively of the Salt Duties, out of the Revenue of Excise, such yearly Allowances as his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, shall judge fit, so as no Allowance to any such Commissioner or Officer of the Salt Duties respectively shall exceed the yearly Amount of the Salary and Emolument of which he or they is, are, or shall by this Act be so deprived, and so as the Whole of such Allowance do not exceed the Sum of twenty-one thousand Pounds.

All Powers of 12 Car. 2. c. 24. and other Excise Acts, to extend to this Act.

CXLII. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Powers, Directions, Rules, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, which, in and by an Act, made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service and Purveyance, and settling a Revenue upon his Majesty in lieu thereof, or by any other Law now in force relating to his Majesty's Revenue of Excise, are provided and established for managing, levying, collecting, mitigating, recovering, adjudging, or ascertaining, the Duties thereby granted, or any of them, (other than in such Cases for which other Penalties or Provisions are made and prescribed by this Act,) shall be practised, used, and put in Execution, in and for the managing, raising, levying, collecting, mitigating, recovering, and paying, the said Duties upon Salt and Rock Salt hereby granted, as fully and effectually as if all and every the said Powers, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in this present Act.

The Lord Mayor and Aldermen of London, and the Justices in General Sessions, to set the Price of Salt sold, and not intended for Exportation.

CXLIII. 'And, for the preventing of Exactions upon Sale of Salt in this Kingdom, and to have the Rates 'and Prices thereof ascertained,' be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the City of London shall and may and are hereby required, when and as often as they shall think necessary, to set, ascertain, and duly publish, certain reasonable Rates and Prices upon all Salt to be sold or exposed to Sale, and not intended for Exportation, in the City of London and Precincts thereof, and the Bills of Mortality; and that the respective Justices of the Peace for the respective Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Cities, and Places, in Great Britain, shall and may, and are hereby required, as often as they respectively shall think necessary, at the several and respective General Sessions of the Peace, for the respective Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Cities, and Places, wherein they are or shall be Justices of the Peace, to set, ascertain, and duly publish, certain reasonable Rates and Prices upon all Salt to be sold or exposed to Sale, and not intended for Exportation, within the respective Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Cities, and Places, wherein they are or shall be Justices of the Peace, and that the Lord Mayor of London, and the said Court of Aldermen, in the Court of Aldermen, and the said respective Justices of the Peace of the respective Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Cities, and Places aforesaid, at the several and respective General Sessions of the Peace for the said respective Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Cities, and Places, wherein they are or shall be Justices of the Peace, shall and may, and are hereby required from Time to Time, (if necessary,) at the several and respective General Sessions of the Peace for the said Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Cities, and Places, by Writing, duly made and published, to alter and correct the Rates and Prices of all Salt to be sold and exposed to Sale, and not intended for Exportation, in the said respective Places; and the Rates and Prices which shall be so set, ascertained, altered, and corrected, are here-

CAP. XCI.

An Act for raising the Sum of Three Millions, by Loans or Exchequer Bills.—[29th June 1798.]

" Commissioners of the Treasury may raise 3,000,000*l.* by Loans and Exchequer Bills, before Oct. 10, 1798, in like Manner as is prescribed by the Malt Act of this Session concerning Loans, &c. Certain Clauses, &c. in the said Act relating to Loans or Exchequer Bills, extended to this Act. Exchequer Bills so issued not to be received again in Payment of any Taxes, nor exchanged, before April 5, 1799. Principal and Interest, with Charges, to be repaid out of the first Supplies granted next Session. Bank of England authorized to advance the said Sum on the Credit of this Act; notwithstanding the Act 5 & 6 Gul. & Mariæ, or Cap. 1. § 3. of this Session."

CAP. XCII.

An Act to revive, continue until the tenth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, and amend an Act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to His Majesty additional Duties on Distilleries in the several Parts of the Highlands of Scotland therein particularly described, for a limited Time, and for regulating the Duties on Distilleries in the respective Districts in Scotland; and for granting to His Majesty certain additional Duties on Spirits distilled for Consumption, and a Duty on unmalted Grain used in Distillation, in Scotland; and for altering and amending certain other Acts of Parliament for the Regulation of Distilleries in Scotland.

[29th June 1798.]

'Most gracious Sovereign,

37 Geo. 3. c. 102. recited.

'WHEREAS an Act was made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty Additional Duties on Distilleries in the several Parts of the Highlands of Scotland herein particularly described, for a limited Time, and for regulating the Duties on Distilleries in the respective Districts in Scotland; which was to continue in force until one Month after the Commencement of the present Session of Parliament: And whereas by two Acts *, made in this present Session of Parliament, the said recited Act was further continued until the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight: And whereas it is proper and expedient that the said first recited Act should be revived and further continued, and that the same should be explained, altered, and amended, and that certain additional Duties should be imposed upon British Spirits distilled in Scotland for Consumption in that Part of the Kingdom, and now in the Stock, Custody, or Possession of any Distiller, Dealer, or Retailer, and also upon all Spirits that shall be distilled for that Purpose before a certain Period, and that a Duty should be imposed upon all unmalted Grain used for Distillation in Scotland, and that certain Regulations and Provisions should be made for better securing the said Duties, as well as the former Duties upon Spirits, and upon Licences for distilling Spirits, and for the preventing of Fraud and Evasion thereof:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said first recited Act, and all the Duties thereby imposed, and all the Powers and Provisions therein contained, (except as hereinafter excepted and altered,) shall, from and after the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, be revived, and the same is hereby revived, and shall continue in force until the tenth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine.

* Caps. 11. 31.

Recited Act revived, and continued until April 10, 1799.

A further Duty of 1s. Excise to be paid upon every Gallon of British Spirits found, on the first Survey upon or after June 13, 1798, in the Stock of any Distiller in Scotland;

II. And be it further enacted, That there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, a further Duty of Excise of one Shilling for and upon every Gallon English Wine Measure of British Spirits, raw, rectified, or compounded, of the Strength of one to ten over Hydrometer Proof, and so in Proportion for any higher or lower Degree of Strength, which shall have been distilled for Consumption in Scotland, and which shall be, or shall have been found, on the first actual Survey, by the proper Officer of Excise, upon or after the thirteenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, in the Stock, Custody, or Possession of any Distiller, Rectifier, Compounder, Dealer in or Retailer of Spirits, in any Part of Scotland; to be paid by such Distiller, Rectifier, Compounder, Dealer, or Retailer, over and above the Licence Duty on the Capacity or Content of the Still, which has been paid, or become payable, by any Distiller, for or in respect of the Distillation of such Spirits.

and upon every Gallon which on, and from and after that Day, until April 10, 1799, shall be distilled for Consumption in Scotland in the Lowlands, or certain Parts described in 33 Geo. 3. Cap. 61. and 37 Geo. 3. c. 102 not exceeding the Quantity hereinafter (§ 13) limited to be distilled between July 5, 1798, and April 10, 1799.

III. And be it further enacted, That there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, a further Duty of Excise of one Shilling for and upon every Gallon English Wine Measure of British Spirits, of the Strength of one to ten over Hydrometer Proof, and so in Proportion for any higher or lower Degree of Strength, which on, and from and after the said thirteenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, and until the tenth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine exclusive, shall have been and shall be distilled in any Part of the Lowlands of Scotland, for Consumption in Scotland, or shall have been or shall be distilled for such Consumption within certain other Parts of Scotland particularly described in the hereinafter mentioned Act of the thirty-third Year, and in the hereinbefore recited Act of the thirty-seventh Year, of the Reign of his present Majesty, not exceeding the Number of Gallons hereinafter limited and restricted to be distilled on and from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, until the said tenth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, by or from each Still within the Boundaries therein mentioned; such Duty to be paid by the Distillers of the said Spirits, over and above the Licence Duty on the Still, which shall have been or shall be paid, or become payable, by such Distillers, for or in respect of the Distillation of such Spirits.

IV. And

IV. And be it further enacted, That the said additional Duty by this Act imposed on British Spirits, as being found in the Stock, Custody, or Possession of any Distiller, Rectifier, Compounder, Dealer, or Retailer, shall be paid in Manner following; that is to say, one fourth Part on or before the fifth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, one other fourth Part thereof on or before the fifth Day of November one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, one other fourth Part thereof on or before the fifth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, and the remaining fourth Part thereof on or before the fifth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, on Pain of forfeiting double the Amount of the said additional Duty not so paid; and that the said additional Duty by this Act imposed on British Spirits, which shall be distilled from and after the passing of this Act, until the said tenth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, shall be paid at the same Times and in the same Manner as the Licence Duty on the Still is payable or paid by the Distiller, for every next subsequent two Months in the Lowlands, and three Months in the Highlands respectively, on Pain of forfeiting double the Amount of the said additional Duty not so paid.

Additional Duties to be paid at certain Times, on Penalty of double the Amount.

V. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, the Officers of Excise, and each and every of them duly constituted and appointed, shall be, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, and have Right by Night or Day to enter into and continue in every Stillhouse, Storehouse, Warehouse, Cellar, or other Place made use of by any Distiller, Rectifier, or Compounder, in any Part of Scotland, for making or keeping Wash or Spirits, and by gauging, measuring, or otherwise, to take Account of the Quantity of Wash and of Spirits in the Stock, Custody, or Possession of every such Distiller, Rectifier, or Compounder, and also of the Quantity of Wash and of Spirits which shall from Time to Time be brewed, or made, or distilled, rectified or compounded, by any such Distiller, Rectifier, or Compounder, and to enter such Account, as well of the Wash as of the Spirits, in a Book or Books to be kept by such Officer or Officers for that Purpose.

Excise Officers may at any Time enter Stillhouses, &c. to take Account of Wash and Spirits.

VI. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, no Spirits that shall have been found in the Stock, Custody, or Possession of any Distiller, Rectifier, or Compounder, or that shall be afterwards distilled, rectified, or compounded by any Distiller, Rectifier, or Compounder, shall be sent out of such Stock, Custody, or Possession, or shall be removed from the House, Building, or Work wherein the same were made or manufactured, rectified or compounded, or shall be carried from one Place to another, by Land or by Water, without a Permit, granted and signed by the proper Officer of Excise of the Division, and specifying therein the Quantity, Quality, and Strength of such Spirits, and the Package thereof, the Person from whom, the Person to whom, and the Place where the same are to be sent, and limiting a reasonable Time within which the said Permit is to be in force, on Pain of forfeiting all such Spirits as shall be sent out, removed, or carried, or found removing or carrying, without such Permit as aforesaid; which said Spirits, with the Casks, Vessels, and other Packages containing the same, and also the Vessels and Boats, Horses, and other Cattle and Carriages made use of in the Removal or Conveyance thereof, shall and may be seized by any Officer or Officers of Excise, and shall be forfeited and lost, any Law, Custom, or Usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding; and if any licensed Distiller, Rectifier, or Compounder shall send or carry, or knowingly permit or suffer to be sent or carried, any Spirits from the House, Building, or Work wherein the same were made, manufactured, or rectified, or compounded, without such Permit as aforesaid, every such Distiller, Rectifier, or Compounder shall, over and above the Forfeiture of the said Spirits, forfeit and lose a Sum equal to the Duty chargeable or charged upon such Spirits, in Proportion to the Quantity and Strength thereof.

No Spirits to be removed without a Permit, on Pain of Forfeiture, with the Vessels, &c. and a Sum equal to the Duty.

VII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, every licensed Distiller in Scotland shall be required and obliged, and he or she is hereby required and obliged, to make and deliver to the proper Officer of Excise of the Division in which his or her Distillery is carried on, Weekly and every Week, a true Return or Declaration, in Writing, signed by him or her, of the respective Quantities of Malt, and of unmalted Grain, used by such licensed Distiller at every Mash and of the Quantity of Spirits produced therefrom, which said Declaration or Return shall contain the true Number of Gallons and Strength of the Spirits distilled in each Day of such Week, on Pain of forfeiting the Sum of two hundred Pounds, for every Neglect or Refusal to make or deliver such true Return or Declaration Weekly and every Week, as aforesaid, and the like Sum for every false Return or Declaration that shall be made by any such Distiller.

Licensed Distillers to deliver to the Excise Officer a weekly Return of the Quantities of Malt and unmalted Grain used at every Mash, and of the Quantity of Spirits produced therefrom, &c. on Penalty of 200l. for Neglect, or for making a false Return.

VIII. 'And whereas it is reasonable that all Barley, Bear, or Bigg, or other Corn or Grain which 'shall be used unmalted or raw, for the Purpose of Distillation in Scotland, should pay the like Duty as 'Malt now pays;' be it therefore further enacted, That, from and after the tenth Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, the Officers of Excise, and each and every of them, duly constituted and appointed, shall be, and they are hereby authorized, empowered, and required, from Time to Time, to measure and take an Account of the exact Quantity of all the Malt, and also of all the Barley, Bear, or Bigg, or other Corn or Grain unmalted or raw, which is to be used for the Purpose of Distillation, by any licensed Distiller, in any Part of Scotland, before the same or any Part thereof shall be ground down or put into the Mash Tun, and to charge the same Duty for and upon every Bushel of such Barley, Bear, or Bigg, or other Corn or Grain unmalted or raw, as is chargeable or charged upon Malt in Scotland, which Duty shall be paid by every such Distiller, at the same Time, and in the same Manner, and under the like Provisions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as the Duty upon Malt is payable or paid by him or her, if he or she is a Maker of Malt, or if such Distiller is not a Maker of Malt, at the same Time, and in the same Manner, and under the like Provisions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as the additional Duty upon Spirits by this Act granted, is hereinbefore directed to be paid by such Distiller; and if any licensed Distiller in any Part of Scotland shall, from and after the said tenth Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, grind down, or put into the Mash Tun, any Malt, or any Barley, Bear, or Bigg, or other Corn or Grain unmalted or raw, before the same shall have been measured, and the Account thereof taken by the proper Officer of Excise as aforesaid, he or she shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of one hundred Pounds.

From Aug. 10, 1798, the Officers of Excise to take an Account of Malt and raw Corn to be distilled before ground down, and charge the raw Corn with the same Duty as Malt.

Penalty of 100l. for grinding down Malt, &c. before an Account is taken.

Licences for distilling in the Lowlands, or for rectifying in any Part of Scotland, granted or renewed upon or after Oct. 10, 1798, to be in force till April 10, 1799, (exclusive,) and the Duty to be paid by Instalments.

IX. And be it further enacted, That every Licence for the distilling, making, or manufacturing of Low Wines or Spirits, in the Lowlands of Scotland, or for the rectifying, compounding, or mixing, of any Kind of Spirits, in any Part of Scotland, which shall be granted or renewed upon or after the tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight inclusive, shall be and continue in force from the said tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight inclusive, to the tenth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine exclusive; and that upon or previous to the granting of any such Licence, the Person or Persons applying for the same shall, before he, she, or they be entitled to such Licence, pay down in Advance, in ready Money, to the proper Officer of Excise appointed to receive the same, one third Part of the full Sum payable under such Licence, from the said tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight inclusive, to the tenth Day of December following, exclusive; and shall, on or before the said tenth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, pay down in ready Money, in Advance, one other third Part; and shall, on or before the tenth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, pay down in ready Money, in Advance, the remaining third Part of the said full Sum, payable under such Licence, from the said tenth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight inclusive, to the tenth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine exclusive.

Licences may be granted for Stills in the Highlands, within the Limits described in the recited Acts of 33 and 37 Geo. 3. from July 5, 1798, to April 10, 1799, on Payment of the same Duty as imposed by the latter Act for a Year.

X. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland, to grant Licences to all Persons applying for the same, and duly recommended and qualified to erect, keep, and work, Stills in the Highlands of Scotland, within the respective Counties, Parts of Counties, and Limits, particularly specified and described in the before recited Acts of the thirty-third and thirty-seventh Years of the Reign of his present Majesty, from the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight inclusive, until the tenth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine exclusive, and no longer, upon Payment of the same, and no higher Rate of Duty for or in respect of such Licences to which Distillers, in the said respective Districts, were subject and liable under the said last recited Act, for the whole Year, between the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, and in the same Proportion according to the Time for which the said Licences shall be granted and in force; that is to say, for the Time between the said fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight inclusive, and the said tenth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine exclusive.

Licensed Distillers to be deemed as distilling from Barley, &c. of the Growth of the Places mentioned in the recited Acts, &c.

XI. And be it further enacted, That every Distiller to whom such Licence as is hereinbefore last mentioned shall be granted, shall be considered, deemed, and taken, as carrying on his or her Business of distilling or drawing off Spirits from the Barley, Bear, or Bigg, of the Growth of the several and respective Counties, or Parts of Counties, in the said Acts mentioned, under the several Conditions, Regulations, Provisions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, which were contained and enacted in the said last recited Act of the thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, hereby revived and continued, except in so far as the same is altered or amended by this present Act.

Compositions for Duty on Malt settled by § 11. of 37 Geo. 3. c. 102. to cease from July 5, 1798, and the same Duties to be paid as by Maltsters.

XII. 'And whereas by the hereinbefore last recited Act of the thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of his 'present Majesty, it was enacted, that when the additional Composition Duty, after the Rate of six Pounds 'and ten Shillings, imposed by that Act, should be paid by a Still of forty Gallons, such Duty should be held 'to be a Composition for the Duty on dry Malt to the Extent of five hundred Bolls Linlithgow Measure, or 'three thousand Bushels, and no more; and when the additional Composition Duty, after the Rate of four 'Pounds, imposed by that Act, should be paid for a Still of forty Gallons, such Duty should be held to be 'a Composition for the Duty on dry Malt to the Extent of four hundred and fifty Bolls Linlithgow Mea'sure, or two thousand seven hundred Bushels, and no more; and when any such Composition Duty should 'be paid for any Still of a lesser Size, the like Proportion should be observed as to the Quantity of Malt for 'which such Duty should be held to be a Composition: And whereas it is expedient to discontinue the said 'Exemptions from the Duty on Malt;' be it further enacted, That, from and after the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, the said Exemptions shall cease and determine, and be altogether discontinued and abolished; and that, for and upon all Malt which shall be made or used by any Distiller paying the Composition Duties hereinbefore mentioned, there shall be paid by such Distiller the same Duties to which any entered Maltster shall be liable by the Laws of Excise.

XIII. And

XIII. And be it further enacted, That when the Licence Duty after the Rate of nine Pounds shall be paid for or upon each Gallon of a Still of forty Gallons Content, such Duty shall be held to be the Licence Duty on the Spirits manufactured in such Still, from and after the aforesaid fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, until the aforesaid tenth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, to the Extent of two thousand five hundred and thirty eight Gallons English Wine Measure of Spirits, of the Strength of one to ten over Hydrometer Proof, and no more; and when the Licence Duty after the Rate of six Pounds and ten Shillings shall be paid for or upon each Gallon of a Still of forty Gallons Content, such Duty shall be held to be the Licence Duty on the Spirits manufactured in such Still, from and after the aforesaid fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, until the aforesaid tenth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, to the Extent of two thousand two hundred and eighty-four Gallons English Wine Measure of Spirits, of the Strength of one to ten over Hydrometer Proof, and no more; and when any such Licence Duties shall be respectively paid for any Still of a lesser Size, the like Proportion shall be observed respectively as to the Quantity of Spirits for which such Licence Duties shall be held to have been paid; and that for and upon all Spirits which shall be manufactured from such licensed Stills between the Days aforesaid, over and above the respective Quantities aforesaid, there shall be paid by every such Distiller a Duty at and after the Rate of three Shillings for each Gallon of such surplus Spirits of the Strength aforesaid, over and above the said respective Licence Duties.

Licence Duties on Stills to be held to be the Duty on certain Quantities of Spirits manufactured therein, between July 5, 1798, and April 10, 1799; and for every Gallon above those Quantities, a Duty to be paid of 3*s*.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That the Licence Duties imposed upon the Capacity or Content of all Stills used in Scotland, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be held, deemed, and taken as the Licence Duties on Stills for six Working Days in the Week only throughout the Year for which such Licence shall be granted, exclusive of Sundays; and that if any Distiller or Distillers shall work or charge any Still or Stills on the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday, that is to say, that if any Still or Stills shall not be completely discharged and worked off at or before Eleven of the Clock on Saturday Night, and shall not continue silent or uncharged till One of the Clock on Monday Morning following, or if any Still or Stills shall be found charged, or at work, or filled with any Thing other than Water, between the Hours of Eleven of the Clock on Saturday Night and One of the Clock on Monday Morning throughout the Year, then every such Distiller or Distillers shall forfeit and lose the Sum of five hundred Pounds for each Offence, and for every Time any Still or Stills shall on Sunday, or between the Hours aforesaid, be so worked or charged; any Custom or Usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Licence Duties to be taken as the Duties on Stills for six Working Days in the Week, and if worked on Sunday, the Distiller to forfeit 500*l*.

XV. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons now licensed by the Commissioners of Excise, to erect, keep, and work, any Still or Stills for the distilling, making, or manufacturing of Low Wines or Spirits in the Lowlands of Scotland, for Consumption in Scotland, to deliver up his, her, or their Licence or Licences to the said Commissioners, or to the proper Supervisor of the District or Officer of the Division, to be vacated at any Time after the passing of this Act, and before the tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, on giving to the said Commissioners, Supervisor, or Officer, at least ten Days previous Notice, in Writing, signed by such Person or Persons, of such Intention, whereupon, and at the End of the said ten Days, the said Commissioner, Supervisor, or Officer, shall, and they are hereby respectively authorized to vacate the same, and every such Person or Persons shall be entitled to a Return of a Part of the Licence Duty paid thereupon for the present Year, in Proportion to the Period of such Year then unexpired, and shall be, and they are hereby fully indemnified, freed, and discharged, from any further Payment of Duty for or upon such Licence or Licences during the Remainder of the said Year, and from any Penalty, Forfeiture, Action, Suit, or Prosecution, for or by reason of his, her, or their having discontinued to work any Still or Stills under the Authority of such Licence or Licences, after the same shall have been delivered up and vacated as aforesaid.

Persons now licensed to distil in the Lowlands Spirits for Consumption in Scotland, may have their Licences vacated before Oct. 10, 1798, and receive a proportional Return of the Duty.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons licensed by the said Commissioners of Excise, to erect, keep, and work any Still or Stills for the distilling, making, or manufacturing of Low Wines or Spirits in the Lowlands of Scotland, for Consumption in Scotland, or for the rectifying, compounding, or mixing of any Kind of Spirits in any Part of Scotland, between the tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, and the tenth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, or for any Person or Persons licensed by the said Commissioners of Excise, to erect, keep, and work Stills in the Highlands of Scotland, between the fifth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, and the tenth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, to deliver up his, her, or their Licence or Licences, to the said Commissioners, or to the proper Supervisor of the District or Officer of the Division, to be vacated upon the Condition hereinafter expressed, and at the Time or Times hereinafter particularly mentioned; that is to say, every such Person or Persons intending to deliver up his, her, or their Licence or Licences, to be vacated, shall give to the said Commissioners, Supervisor, or Officer, one Calendar Month's previous Notice in Writing, signed by such Person or Persons, of such Intention, before he, she, or they shall be entitled to discontinue the working of his, her, or their Still or Stills, licensed as aforesaid, and thereupon the said Commissioners, Supervisor, or Officer, shall, and they are hereby respectively authorized to vacate the said Licence or Licences, but not sooner, or at any other Time or Times than at and from the End of any two Calendar Months in the Lowlands, and of any three Calendar Months in the Highlands of Scotland, for which said two Months or three Months respectively the Licence Duty has been actually paid in Advance by such Person or Persons, and in that Case the Proportion of the Licence Duty payable for or in respect of such Still or Stills, for the unexpired Time of his,

Persons licensed to distil in the Lowlands for Consumption in Scotland, or to rectify in any Part of Scotland, or to distil in the Highlands, may, within certain Periods, on proper Notice, have their Licences vacated, &c.

his, her, or their Licences, during which the working of the said Still or Stills shall be discontinued, shall not be charged or chargeable upon, or payable or paid by such Person or Persons who shall have given such Notice as aforesaid, and ceased to work the said Still or Stills from and after the Time specified in such Notice; that is to say, only at the End of the two Months or three Months respectively hereinbefore mentioned.

On or before July 20, 1798, Distillers in the Lowlands for Consumption in Scotland, may have their Licences vacated in Part, and an Abatement of Duty made.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, and on or before the twentieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons licensed as aforesaid, as a Distiller or Distillers, or Maker or Makers of Spirits, in the Lowlands of Scotland, for Consumption in Scotland, to deliver in his, her, or their Licence to the said Commissioners, or Supervisor, or Officer of Excise, to be vacated in Part by ceasing, from and after the said twentieth Day of July one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, to work one entire Still where two or more Stills have been entered by and licensed to such Distiller or Distillers, or by ceasing to work two entire Stills where three or more Stills have been entered by and licensed to such Distiller or Distillers, and to continue to work the other or others of such Stills, or by reducing or lessening the Capacity or Content of any Still or Stills at present licensed as aforesaid, by cutting down the same to a lesser Capacity or Content, or by substituting a Still or Stills of a lesser Capacity or Content in place of any Still or Stills at present licensed, upon previous Notice, in Writing, signed by such Distiller or Distillers, being given, on or before the Day aforesaid, of the Intention to cease working one or more Still or Stills, and to continue to work the other or others of such Stills from and after that Day, or to reduce or lessen the Capacity or Content of any Still or Stills at present licensed, or to substitute a lesser Still or Stills in place thereof; and in either of these Events it shall and may be lawful for such Commissioners, or Supervisor, or Officer of Excise respectively, and they are hereby required to indorse the same on the Back of such Licence, specifying, in such Indorsement, the Content of such Still or Stills respectively, and distinguishing such as is or are intended to be worked from such as is or are not intended to be worked after the Time before limited, or the Content of such Still or Stills as is or are intended to be reduced or lessened, or changed as aforesaid, and also the Content of such Still or Stills as shall have been reduced, or lessened, or substituted as aforesaid, and to redeliver such Licence to such Distiller or Distillers, or Maker or Makers of Spirits, with such Indorsement thereupon, and which Indorsement on such Licence shall be deemed to vacate such Licence in such Part only as relates to the Still or Stills which shall cease to be worked, or shall be reduced, lessened, or changed, as aforesaid; and an Abatement of Licence Duty shall be made on such last-mentioned Still or Stills only, from the Day or Days on which the said Still or Stills shall have ceased to be worked, or shall have been reduced, lessened, or changed, as aforesaid.

No reduced Still of less Content than 40 Gallons to be used for distilling Wash or Low Wines.

XVIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Still so reduced, lessened, cut down, or substituted as aforesaid, shall be used or employed either for the distilling of Wash or of Low Wines, unless the Capacity or Content thereof, including the Head, shall, after such Reduction or Change, be at the least forty Gallons English Wine Measure or upwards.

If a Distiller discontinue working a Still before April 10, 1799, he shall take it down and demolish the Furnace, and deposit the Head and Worm with the Excise Officer. Penalty of 200l. for Neglect, or for using the Body of such Still before licensing again.

XIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in case any Distiller shall, after the passing of this Act, and before the tenth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety-nine, discontinue the working of any licensed Still or Stills under any of the Provisions and Conditions hereinbefore enacted and contained, every such Distiller shall immediately take down the said Still or Stills, and demolish the Furnace or Furnaces thereof; and shall also deposit with the Officer of Excise of the Division in which such Still or Stills was or were worked, the Head and Worm of the said Still, or Heads and Worms of the said Stills, to be by him securely kept until the same shall be again licensed to be worked; and if any such Distiller shall neglect or refuse to take down the said Still or Stills, or to demolish the Furnace or Furnaces thereof, or to deposit the Head or Heads, Worm or Worms, of such Still or Stills as before directed, or shall use or employ the Body or Bodies of such Still or Stills in the distilling of Low Wines or Spirits before the same shall be again duly licensed for that Purpose, every such Distiller shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and lose the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

Commissioners of Excise in Scotland may authorize, between Oct 10, 1798, and April 10, 1799, Persons in the Lowlands to distil Wash, Low Wines, or Spirits, in Stills containing 40 Gallons.

XX. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of Excise in Scotland, and the Officer or Officers acting under them, or by their Authority, for the licensing of Stills, to grant Licences to any Person or Persons in the Lowlands of Scotland, between the said tenth Day of October one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight inclusive, and the said tenth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and ninety nine exclusive, to erect, keep, and work, one Still of a Content or Capacity in the Body thereof and exclusive of the Head, not less than forty Gallons English Wine Measure, for distilling, making, or manufacturing Wash, Low Wines, or Spirits.

But no Licence to be granted within that Time for a Wash and a Low Wine Still together, unless the latter contain a Fourth of the former.

XXI. Provided always, That no Licence shall be granted to any Person or Persons in the Lowlands of Scotland, between the Time aforesaid, to erect, keep, and work, a Wash Still and a Low Wine Still together, unless the Low Wine Still be of a Content or Capacity in the Body thereof, and exclusive of the Head, not less than one fourth Part of the Content or Capacity of such Wash Still.

XXII. 'And

XXII. 'And whereas Contracts may have been made for the Sale of British Spirits before the same shall 'have been charged or become chargeable with the Duty by this Act imposed;' be it therefore enacted, That in all Cases where any Spirits, whereon the Duty by this Act imposed shall be charged, shall have been, after the said thirteenth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, or shall be delivered in pursuance of such Contracts or Sales, it shall be lawful for the Distillers, Rectifiers, Compounders, Dealers in or Retailers of such Spirits, delivering the same, to charge so much Money as shall be equivalent to the Duty by this Act imposed in respect thereof, in Addition to the Price of such Spirits; and such Distiller, Rectifier, Compounder, Dealer, or Retailer, shall be entitled by virtue of this Act to demand, and be paid the same accordingly.'

Where Spirits chargeable under this Act have been contracted for previous to the Duty, it may be added to the Price.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall obstruct or hinder any Officer or Officers of Excise in the Execution of any of the Powers or Authorities to him or them given or granted by this or any other Act or Acts of Parliament relating to Spirits, the Person or Persons so offending therein shall, for each and every such Offence, severally forfeit the Sum of two hundred Pounds.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies arising by the Duties by this Act imposed as aforesaid, (the necessary Charges of raising and accounting for the same excepted,) shall, from Time to Time, be paid into the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, and the said Money so paid in as aforesaid, shall be carried to and made Part of the Consolidated Fund, and shall be managed and applied in the same Manner as the Duties granted by the said Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, are thereby directed to be managed and applied.

Duties to be paid into the Exchequer, and carried to the Consolidated Fund.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That all Fines, Penalties, and Forfeitures by this Act imposed, shall be sued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated, by such Ways, Means, and Methods, as any Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, is or may be sued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated, by any Law or Laws of Excise, or by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, and that one Moiety of every such Fine, Penalty, or Forfeiture, shall be to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him, her, or them, who shall discover, inform, or sue for the same.

Recovery and Application of Penalties.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Powers, Directions, Rules, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, which, in and by an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, intituled An Act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite and by Knight Service and Purveyance, and for settling a Revenue upon his Majesty in lieu thereof, or by any other Law now in force relating to his Majesty's Revenue of Excise upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, are provided and established for managing, raising, levying, collecting, mitigating, or recovering, adjudging, or ascertaining, the Duties thereby granted, or any of them, shall be practised and put in Execution in and for the managing, raising, levying, collecting, mitigating, recovering, and paying the Duties hereby granted, as fully and effectually as if all and every the said Powers, Rules, Directions, Penalties, Forfeitures, Clauses, Matters, and Things, were particularly repeated and re-enacted in this present Act.

12 Car. 2. c. 24. &c. to extend to this Act.

CAP. XCIII.

An Act for ascertaining the Duty payable on Taxed Carts.—[29th June 1798.]

'Most gracious Sovereign,

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, for repealing the Duties on Carriages, and imposing new Duties in lieu thereof, the Duty imposed on Carriages, commonly 'called Taxed Carts, is also repealed; and it is expedient to place such Carriages under the Regulations, 'and subject to the Duties hereinafter mentioned;' may it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That there shall be charged, raised, levied, and paid, unto and for the Use of his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, for and upon every Carriage with less than four Wheels, to be drawn by one Horse, Mare, or Gelding, which shall be built and constructed wholly of Wood and Iron, without any Covering other than a Tilted Covering, and without any Lining or Springs, or any Ornament whatever, other than Paint of a dark Colour for the Preservation of the Wood or Iron only, and which shall have the Words "A Taxed Cart," and also the Owner's Name and Place of Abode thereon, and the Price of which (Repairs excepted) shall not have exceeded, or the Value whereof shall not at any Time exceed, the Sum of twelve Pounds Sterling, the Annual Sum of one Pound and four Shillings; which Duty shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, accounted for, and applied in the same Manner, by the same Persons respectively, and under the like Rules, Directions, and Provisions, and to the like Uses as the Duties on Carriages imposed by the said recited Act, are directed to be raised, levied, collected, paid, accounted for, and applied.

Cap. 41. of this Session.

An Annual Duty of 1*l.* 4*s.* to be paid for every Taxed Cart of a particular Construction, &c.

II. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize any Person to set up or keep any Carriage as a Taxed Cart, on Payment of the Duty hereby granted, who shall be liable to be assessed to the Duties granted by the said recited Act on Carriages in respect of any four-wheeled Carriage kept or used by him or her, or to the Duties thereby granted on Male

Persons liable to Duties on a four-wheeled Carriage, or two Male Servants, to pay for Taxed Carts as for Carriages with less than four Wheels, under c. 41. of this Session.

Male Servants, in respect of two Male Servants retained or employed by him or her; but every such Person who shall keep any such Carriage shall be liable to, and shall be charged for the same at the Rate prescribed, and according to the Directions contained in the said recited Act, in respect of Carriages with less than four Wheels, therein mentioned. Schedule B.

Persons occupying Farms or carrying on Trade, and making a Livelihood solely thereby, and Ecclesiastics not possessing 100*l.* per Ann. shall pay for Horses used only in such Carriages as for Horses not kept for riding.

III. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any Person occupying a Farm, and making a Livelihood solely thereby, or any Person carrying on a Trade, and making a Livelihood solely thereby, or by such Occupation or Trade jointly, or any Ecclesiastical Person not possessed of an Annual Income of one hundred Pounds or upwards, whether arising from Ecclesiastical Preferment, or otherwise, shall keep any such Carriage subject to the Duty hereby granted, every such Person shall be charged in respect of the Horse, Mare, or Gelding, used for the Purpose of drawing such Carriage, at the Rate prescribed by the said recited Act for Horses not kept for the Purpose of riding, or of drawing any Carriage charged with Duty by the said Act: Provided always, That such Horse, Mare, or Gelding, shall not be at any Time used by such Person for the Purpose of Riding, or of drawing any Carriage chargeable with Duty by the said recited Act.

Carriages to be marked with the Names of the Owners, &c. and produced upon Demand for Examination.

IV. And be it further enacted, That every Person to be rated and assessed for such Carriage as aforesaid, shall mark or paint on a Black Ground in White Letters, or on a White Ground in Black Letters, on the Outside of the Back Pannel, or Back Part of such Carriage, or in case such Carriage shall be constructed without a Back Pannel, or any Back Part on which such Letters may be marked or painted, then on the Side, or on some conspicuous Part of such Carriage, on the Outside thereof, his or her Christian and Surnames, and the Place of his or her Abode, and the Words "A Taxed Cart," in Roman Letters, and in Words at full Length, each of such Letters being at least one Inch in Length, and of a Breadth in Proportion, and shall, upon Demand being made, produce such Carriage, so marked or painted, to the Assessor or Assessors, Surveyor or Surveyors, Inspector or Inspectors, of the said Rate or Duty, or at any Meeting of the Commissioners for putting this Act in Execution, or to any two or more of them, to be examined by them, or any or either of them, respecting all or any of the Particulars above mentioned; and if any Person or Persons shall have or keep any Carriage as aforesaid with less than four Wheels, and such Carriage shall, in respect of the Price thereof, or for any subsequent Addition, (Repairs excepted,) have been charged (the Proof of which shall lie on the Owner or Owners of such Carriage) at any Sum exceeding twelve Pounds Sterling, or if the Value thereof shall appear to the said Commissioners, on Examination, to exceed the said Sum of twelve Pounds Sterling, or if such Carriage shall be built or constructed in any Respect contrary to the Provisions hereinbefore mentioned, or shall not be so marked as aforesaid, or if such Person or Persons shall neglect or refuse, upon Demand being made, to produce such Carriage so marked to the Assessor or Assessors, Surveyor or Surveyors, Inspector or Inspectors, of the said Rate or Duty, or to the Commissioners as aforesaid, for the Examination of them, or any or either of them, every such Person or Persons shall be liable to, and shall be charged at, the Rate prescribed according to the Directions contained in the said recited Act in respect of Carriages with less than four Wheels therein mentioned; and the said Surveyor or Surveyors, upon Notice thereof, shall certify the same in Writing, under his or their Hand or Hands, to any two or more of the Commissioners for putting the said recited Act in Execution, in order to have such Carriage charged at the Rate prescribed by the said recited Act, in the Assessment made or to be made for that Year, and any two or more of the said Commissioners shall thereupon cause the Assessment to be rectified or made according to such Certificate, and the said Rate and Duty to be levied and paid accordingly.

If the Value of such Carriage shall be more than 12*l.* or it shall be constructed contrary to this Act, &c. it shall be charged as a Carriage with less than four Wheels (under c. 41. Schedule B), and the Surveyor shall certify the same, that it may be so charged in the Assessment.

Carts used wholly in Husbandry or Trade, not to be subject to Duty on account of riding therein when laden, or of conveying their Owners to Church, &c.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to extend to subject to the said Duty any Cart whatever which shall be kept truly and without Fraud to be used wholly in the Affairs of Husbandry or of Trade, by reason of the Owner or any of his or her Servants riding thereon or therein, when laden, or when returning from any Place to which, or when going to any Place from which, any Load shall have been or shall be to be carried in such Carriage, in the Course of Husbandry, or for the Purpose of Trade, or for conveying the Owners thereof, or their Families, to or from Divine Service, on Sundays, or for carrying Persons going to or returning from the Election of Members to serve in Parliament, in case such Carriage shall not have been used for any Purpose of riding thereon or therein, save as aforesaid.

All Carriages with less than four Wheels let out to Hire, to be subject to the Duty under c. 41. of this Session.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That any Carriage with less than four Wheels, of whatever Construction the same may be, which shall be at any Time lent or let out to hire, shall be subject to the Duty imposed on such Carriages by the said recited Act; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Carts charged with Duty hereby granted, not liable to the additional Duties under c. 16. of this Session.

VII. And be it further enacted, That no Person assessed for any such Cart as aforesaid, to the Duties hereby granted, shall be charged in respect thereof with the additional Duties granted by an Act, intituled, An Act for granting to his Majesty an Aid and Contribution for the Prosecution of the War.

VIII. And

VIII. And be it further enacted, That in case any Cart, built and constructed according to the Directions of an Act passed in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, shall have been assessed to the said additional Duties granted by the said Act, for granting an Aid and Contribution for the Prosecution of the War, as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for executing the said last-mentioned Act, and they are hereby required to hear and determine any Appeal against such Assessment; and in case such Cart shall, in the Judgment of the said Commissioners, be entitled, in pursuance of the Provisions of this Act, to be exempted from any Assessment to be made by virtue of the said Act, for granting an Aid and Contribution for the Prosecution of the War, then the said Commissioners shall cause such Assessment to be vacated, but so as not to annul any Payment already made on any such Assessment, nor to impede the Collection of any Arrears fallen due before the vacating such Assessment: Provided always, That no such Appeal shall be heard or determined but after ten Days Notice to the Surveyor or Inspector of the said Duties; and every such Inspector and Surveyor receiving such Notice as aforesaid, is hereby authorized and required to attend the Determination of such Appeal; and in case either the Party, or such Inspector or Surveyor, shall be dissatisfied with the Determination of such Commissioners, they respectively may demand a Case, in like Manner as under any Act or Acts of Parliament with relation to Assessed Taxes.

If any Cart, built according to 35 Geo. 3. c. 109. shall have been assessed to the additional Duties granted by c. 16. of this Session, the Commissioners may, on Appeal, cause the Assessments to be vacated, &c.

Appeals not to be heard till after ten Days Notice to the Surveyor, &c.

CAP. XCIV.

An Act for the Regulation of the Provisional Force of Cavalry, raised by virtue of two Acts * of the last Session of Parliament.—[29th June 1798.]

* c. 6, 23.

'WHEREAS his Majesty hath been graciously pleased, in pursuance of two Acts, passed in the last Session of Parliament, for raising a Provisional Force of Cavalry, to communicate to Parliament his Royal Intention to cause the said Cavalry to be drawn out and embodied: And whereas it may be expedient, at the present Conjuncture, to draw out and embody the Provisional Cavalry of some of the Counties, Ridings, and Places, and to continue the same embodied for such Time as Circumstances shall appear to require, and to cause the Provisional Cavalry raised in the Rest of the Counties, Ridings, and Places in England, to be assembled for the Purpose of being trained and exercised, and afterwards embodied, if Occasion shall require:' May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Lieutenant of every County, Riding, or Place, or in case of Vacancy, or in the Absence of the Lieutenant, any two or more Deputy Lieutenants, to whom his Majesty's Warrant for the Purpose of embodying the Provisional Force of Cavalry raised in such County, Riding, or Place, shall be directed, shall as soon after the passing of this Act as conveniently can be done, cause to be prepared by the Clerk of the General Meeting of Lieutenancy, or by the Clerks of the several Subdivision Meetings, Lists containing the Names and Places of Abode of all the Persons enrolled to serve in the Provisional Cavalry of such County, Riding, or Place, by virtue of the said Acts, distinguishing whether the said Persons were enrolled as Substitutes, or as Persons appointed or ballotted for the Service required by the said Acts, and when any such Persons shall be enrolled as Substitutes, then also the Names and Places of Abode of the Persons in lieu of whom they are enrolled to serve, which Lists the said Clerks shall make out and return within ten Days from the Time of receiving any Order for that Purpose; and the said Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants shall also cause one Duplicate of such Lists to be transmitted to the Receiver General of the Duties on Horses arising in such County, Riding, or Place; and that the said Lieutenant and Deputy Lieutenants respectively shall appoint the Place and Time of assembling for the Purpose of being embodied, and cause the same to be made known, in such Manner as is directed by the Militia Laws for assembling the Militia, to the Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs, or other Officers of every Parish and Place, and by them to the several Persons enrolled by virtue of the said Acts, and also to the several Persons appointed or ballotted to provide for the Service thereby required, which Notices the said Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs, and other Officers, shall cause to be affixed on the Doors of the Churches or Chapels belonging to their respective Parishes and Places, or where there is no Church or Chapel, then on the Door of the Church or Chapel of some adjoining Parish or Place; and such Notice shall be deemed a sufficient Notice to every Person enrolled, and also to every Person appointed or ballotted to provide for the said Service by virtue of the said Acts; and the Persons who are enrolled shall attend at the Time and Place mentioned in such Notice, and those Persons who have been appointed or ballotted as aforesaid shall provide for the said Service according to the Directions of the said Acts.

Lieutenants of Counties, by his Majesty's Warrant, shall cause to be prepared Lists of the Persons enrolled in the Provisional Cavalry, and Duplicates transmitted to the Receiver General of the Duties on Horses; and shall appoint the Place and Time for embodying them, and make the same known to the Constables, who shall cause Notices to be affixed on the Churches, &c.

II. And be it further enacted, That the said Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs, or other Officers, shall, before the Day appointed for assembling such Cavalry, make a Return on Oath, or solemn Affirmation, to be taken before any Justice of the Peace of such County, Riding, or Place, of what they shall respectively have done in the Execution of this Act, in pursuance of any Order from the Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants as aforesaid; and if any Person enrolled in the Provisional Cavalry cannot, at the Time appointed for assembling the same, be found, or shall be dead, or enlisted in any of his Majesty's Regular Forces, or serving on board any Ship or Vessel in his Majesty's Navy, the said Constables, Tythingmen, Constables shall make a Return on Oath of what they have done, and if any Person enrolled cannot be found, &c. return the same.

ingmen, Headboroughs, or other Officers, shall make a Return thereof upon Oath, or solemn Affirmation, to the best of their Knowledge and Belief.

If the Deputy Lieutenants be dissatisfied with the Value set by the Proprietor upon any Horse, it shall be valued by two skilful Persons, and the Price, not to exceed 25l. to be paid by the Receiver General, if the Horse die, &c.

III. And be it further enacted, That if any Mare or Gelding provided for the said Service, under and by virtue of the said Acts, shall, at the Time of embodying such Provisional Cavalry, be approved according to the said Acts, such Mare or Gelding, in case the Deputy Lieutenants there attending, shall be dissatisfied with the Value set upon the same by the Proprietor thereof, shall be forthwith valued by two skilful Persons, to be named by the respective Deputy Lieutenants, according to the Price at which the same might be sold, such Price not in any Case to exceed the Sum of twenty-five Pounds, which Valuation shall be duly entered, by the Direction of the Officer commanding such Provisional Cavalry, in the Books provided for the said Provisional Cavalry, and a Certificate thereof given, by the Officer commanding such Provisional Cavalry, to the Person who shall have provided such Mare or Gelding; and if any such Mare or Gelding shall die, or become unfit for Service, and it shall be thought expedient, that another Mare or Gelding should be provided for that Service, according to the Directions of the said Acts, and an Order should be made for that Purpose, then the valued Price of the same shall, on Demand, and on a Certificate of Conformity to the Provisions beforementioned, under the Hand of the Officer commanding the said Provisional Cavalry, be paid to the Person or Persons providing such Mare or Gelding, by the Receiver General of the County, Riding, or Place, where such Person or Persons shall reside, out of any Monies in his Hands, arising either out of the Monies raised by virtue of the said Acts or this Act, or out of the Duties on Horses, or other the Duties receivable by him as such Receiver: Provided always, That if the Proprietor of any Mare or Gelding so provided shall be dissatisfied with the Valuation to be made as aforesaid, such Person may appeal to the Deputy Lieutenants at any Subdivision Meeting to be holden according to the said Acts, and the Deputy Lieutenants there present, or the major Part of them, are hereby empowered and required to hear and determine such Appeals, and their Determination thereupon shall be final.

Proprietors dissatisfied with the Price may appeal to a Subdivision Meeting.

Deputy Lieutenants shall consider the Claims, not exceeding 10l., of Persons enrolled as Substitutes, and on Proof of Contract, certify the Number of Persons entitled to receive Money to the Receiver General, who shall pay it to the Commanding Officer, &c.

IV. And be it further enacted, That in the several Counties, Ridings, and Places, where the Men enrolled as Provisional Cavalry shall be embodied, any two or more Deputy Lieutenants of the County, Riding, or Place, for which such Men shall have been enrolled, shall, as soon as may be, take into Consideration the Claims to be made by any Person or Persons for any Sum or Sums of Money, not exceeding ten Pounds, in respect of each Person so enrolled as a Substitute, on his being embodied, and shall examine into the Fact of any Contract being entered into for that Purpose between such Substitutes and their respective Principals, and shall receive Evidence thereof, either by the Registry of such Contract, or a Copy thereof, or by the Production of such Contract, or where no such Contract shall have been registered nor reduced into Writing, then by the Oath of the Parties, or by the Testimony of any credible Witness or Witnesses, which Oath the said Deputy Lieutenants are hereby authorized to administer; and the said Deputy Lieutenants shall, on Proof of any such Contract to their Satisfaction, certify to the Receiver General of such County, Riding, or Place, the Number of Persons entitled to receive any Sum of Money by virtue of any such Contract, for and in respect of any such Person serving as a Substitute, specifying the Amount of the Sum to be paid to each Person, and whether the same, according to such Contract, is to be paid to such Substitute, or the Person providing such Substitute; and such Receiver General is hereby required, within ten Days after the Receipt of such Certificate, to issue and pay to the Officer appointed to the Command of such Men, the several Sums of Money due in respect of each of such Substitutes, according to such Contract so certified, which Commanding Officer shall forthwith pay the same, according to the Terms of the several Contracts so certified as aforesaid.

Where Classes have agreed to defray their Proportions of the Expences of Men and Horses, or where any Person shall have borne the Whole and no Allowance has been received, the Subdivision Meetings shall certify the same to the Land Tax Commissioners, and the Parties, while they continue so to pay, shall be exempted from any Assessment in respect of Men and Horses raised by any other Persons, or any under 37 Geo. 3. c. 6 & 23, or this Act.

V. And be it further enacted, That where any Persons classed to raise Provisional Cavalry shall have mutually agreed with, or made themselves liable to each other, to defray and bear their respective Proportions in the Expences of raising a Man and Horse, or Men and Horses, and of cloathing such Man or Men, and providing Furniture and Extra Keep for such Horses, or where any Person shall have defrayed and borne the Whole of such Expences, and such Persons or Person shall not have rendered any Account thereof to the Deputy Lieutenants, nor demanded or received any of the Allowances authorized by the said Acts, for and on Account of the Provisional Cavalry, it shall and may be lawful for any two or more Deputy Lieutenants, and they are hereby required, at any Subdivision Meeting, upon Proof thereof by Affidavit made before any one or more of the Justices of the Peace of the County or Riding, or Magistrates of the Peace, within which such Persons shall have been classed or appointed, to certify the same to the Commissioners of Land Tax for the District within which such Persons shall have been classed or appointed, and the Person in whose Favour such Certificates shall be made shall thereupon and from thenceforth, during the Continuance of the Payment of such Expences, be freed and exonerated from the Payment of any Assessment made, or to be made, for and on Account of Allowances paid or to be paid in such County, Riding, or Place, in respect of any Men and Horses raised by any other Persons in such County, Riding, or Place, and from all Assessments to be made in that Behalf under and by virtue of the said Acts of the thirty-seventh Year of his Majesty's Reign, or this Act: Provided always, That if any Assessment shall have been made upon any Person or Persons hereby declared to be freed and exonerated therefrom, such Assessment shall, as far as regards such Person or Persons, be void, and the Sums so assessed shall be struck out of the Assessment upon such Person or Persons as aforesaid, and shall be added to the Assessments upon the Rest of the Persons liable thereto in the same Subdivision.

VI. And

Justices may determine Disputes touching Proportions of Expences of Classes.

VI. And be it further enacted, That if any Dispute shall arise between any Persons in any Class or Classes, that shall have entered into such Agreement as aforesaid, touching the Payment of any Proportion of the Expences of such Class or Classes in raising and providing such Man and Horse as aforesaid, or the Cloathing, Furniture, and other Articles directed to be provided by the said Acts or this Act, it shall and may be lawful, on Complaint thereof made to any Justice of the Peace for the County, Riding, or Place, within which such Persons shall be classed, for such Justice to hear and determine every such Complaint, and to examine upon Oath every such Person, or any other Witness or Witnesses, touching the same, and to make such Order for the Payment of the Proportion of the Expences of such Class, to be borne by such Person or Persons as to such Justice shall seem just and reasonable; and in case of Refusal or Non-payment of any Sums so ordered to be paid by the Space of fifteen Days next after such Determination, such Justice shall and may issue forth his Warrant to levy the same by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Person or Persons, rendering the Overplus to the Owner or Owners, after Payment of the Charges of such Distress and Sale.

If Cloathing for Men, or if Horses or proper Furniture for them be not provided, a Sum equal to the estimated Allowance to be forfeited by the Defaulter.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person appointed to provide any Man or Men for the Service required by the said Acts, or if any Person chosen by Ballot to provide any Man for the said Service, shall not cause to be produced to the Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants, or to the Officer appointed to have the Command of the Men when ordered to be embodied, suitable Cloathing for such Man or for each of such Men, or a Mare or Gelding fit for Military Duty, for the Use of such Man or of each of such Men so to be provided by him or her, which shall be approved of by the Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants, or by the Officer or Officers to be appointed to command such Men as aforesaid, or proper Furniture for each of such Mares or Geldings, according to the Directions of the said Acts, every such Person shall forfeit and pay, for his or her Default in not causing to be produced proper Cloathing, a Sum equal to the Allowance estimated, or to be estimated by the General Meeting of Lieutenancy to be made to any Person for providing Cloathing, in respect of such Part thereof on which any Default shall have been made; and for his or her Default in not causing to be produced a Mare or Gelding fit for Military Duty, (and which shall be approved of as aforesaid,) a Sum equal to the Compensation settled or to be settled by the Deputy Lieutenants of the Division to be made to any Person ballotted to provide a Mare or Gelding in the Case where such Person shall not have been possessed of any Mare or Gelding at the Time of the Ballot, or where the Mare or Gelding provided shall not be approved of; and for his or her Default in not causing to be produced proper Furniture for such Mare or Gelding, or for each of such Mares or Geldings, a Sum equal to the Allowance estimated, or to be estimated, by the said General Meeting of Lieutenancy to be made to any such Person for providing such Furniture according to the said Acts; which Sums shall be severally adjudged by the Deputy Lieutenants according to the said Acts, and assessed, levied, and paid in Manner herein directed.

His Majesty may disband the embodied Provisional Cavalry of any Place, and their Horses, &c. shall be delivered up; but all Persons shall continue liable to serve when his Majesty shall think it expedient.

VIII. And be it further enacted, That whenever his Majesty shall think it expedient, it shall be lawful to disband the embodied Provisional Cavalry of any County, Riding, or Place, and for that Purpose to cause the said Cavalry to be marched to any Place or Places within their respective Counties and Ridings, to be there discharged from actual Service; and every Person shall, at the Time of his Discharge, deliver up the Mare or Gelding, Arms, Furniture, and other Articles, which shall have been furnished under and by virtue of the said Acts, to such Persons as shall be appointed by the Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenants to receive the same, such Part thereof as shall have been furnished by Individuals, in pursuance of the said Acts, to be received to the Use of the respective Persons furnishing the same, and the same shall be forthwith delivered to such and the same Persons respectively furnishing the same, if any shall be there attending at the Time of such Discharge; and the said Persons so to be discharged, whether such Persons shall have served as Principals from being appointed or ballotted for such Service in pursuance of the said Acts, or as Substitutes, and also the Persons appointed or ballotted, and who shall have provided such Substitutes as aforesaid, shall, notwithstanding such Discharge, continue liable to perform the like Services whenever his Majesty shall think it expedient to order the Provisional Cavalry to be embodied, and shall in all Respects, after such Disbanding and Discharge, be considered as Persons enrolled in the said Provisional Cavalry, and liable from Time to Time to the like Services as any other Persons enrolled in the Provisional Cavalry are liable to, in virtue of the said former Acts or this Act.

Persons enrolled in Provisional Cavalry not embodied, who shall consent to receive Bounty, may be trained, and subjected to Mutiny Act in certain Particulars.

IX. And be it further enacted, That in such of the Counties, Ridings, or Places in which the Provisional Cavalry raised therein shall not have been ordered to be embodied, all Persons enrolled therein, who shall, at any previous Muster, consent to receive the Bounty hereinafter mentioned, may be called out for the Purpose of being trained and exercised for such Space of Time, and at such Time or Times in the Year as shall seem expedient to his Majesty; and it shall be lawful for his Majesty to cause the Men to be so trained and exercised by Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company, under such Officers and Non-commissioned Officers as shall be appointed under the Regulations of the said Acts; and during such Time as the Provisional Cavalry of any County, Riding, or Place, shall be assembled for the Purpose of being trained and exercised, all the Clauses, Provisions, Matters, and Things, contained in any Act of Parliament which shall be then in force for the punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, shall be in force with respect to the Provisional Cavalry so assembled, and to all the Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Private Men of the same, in all Cases whatsoever, but so as no Punishment shall extend to Loss of Life or Limb.

Persons enrolled, appearing at the Time and Place appointed for Exercise, shall be entitled to two Guineas above their Pay, which the Receiver General of the Land Tax shall pay to the Commanding Officer of Troops.

X. And be it further enacted, That every Person enrolled in the Provisional Cavalry of any County, Riding, or Place, who shall appear at the Time and Place appointed for Exercise, according to the Directions of this Act, shall be entitled to the Sum of two Guineas, over and above his Pay, to be allowed during the Exercise, and the Receiver General of the Land Tax for such County, Riding, or Place, is hereby required, on Receipt of the Certificate of the Commanding Officer, of the Number of Men attending such Exercise, as hereinafter is directed, to pay to the Captains or Officers commanding Troops respectively, the said Sum for the Use of every Person of the said Cavalry so attending, and one Guinea of each Sum so received by any Captain or Officer commanding any Troop, or so much thereof as he shall think proper, shall be laid out in the Manner he shall think most advantageous for the respective Persons of the said Cavalry, and such Captain or Commanding Officer shall forthwith pay the other Guinea of the said Money to the Persons respectively, and shall, before the Expiration of the Time appointed for such Exercise, account to such Person how the first-mentioned Guinea hath been applied and disposed of.

Notice of the Time and Place of Exercise shall be sent by the Clerk of the General Meeting to the Chief Constables to forward to the Constables to affix it on the Church Doors, and the Provisional Cavalry, properly furnished, shall attend accordingly.

XI. And be it further enacted, That whenever his Majesty shall have appointed the Time or Times of assembling the Provisional Cavalry of any County, Riding, or Place, for the Purpose of being trained and exercised, Notice of the Time and Place of such Exercise shall be sent by the Clerk of the General Meetings of Lieutenancy to the Chief Constables or other Officers of the said Hundreds, Rapes, Lathes, Wapentakes, or other Divisions, with Directions to forward the same to the Constables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs, or other Officers, within their respective Jurisdictions, who respectively shall cause such Notice as aforesaid to be affixed on the Doors of the Churches or Chapels belonging to their respective Parishes, Tythings, or Places, or (where there shall be no Church or Chapel) on the Door of the Church or Chapel of some Parish, Tything, or Place thereunto adjoining; and all such Provisional Cavalry, being furnished with such Cloathing and Horse Furniture as is directed by the said Acts, and also with a Mare or Gelding fit for Military Duty, shall attend at the Time and Place of Exercise according to such Notice.

Provisional Cavalry may be billetted as the Militia.

XII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful to quarter and billet the Officers and Private Men serving in the Provisional Cavalry, at the Times when they shall be called out to be trained and exercised, in such Houses and upon such Persons as the Militia may by Law be quartered and billetted during the Times of their annual Exercise.

Persons ordered to be trained may be ordered by his Majesty to be embodied, &c.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That the several Persons enrolled as aforesaid, who shall not be embodied, but shall be ordered to be trained and exercised for the Time herein mentioned, whether such Persons shall attend such training and exercising or not, be liable to be embodied whenever his Majesty shall think fit; and that the Persons appointed or ballotted to provide for the Service required by the said Acts, in the County, Riding, or Place, where such training and exercising shall be ordered, shall at all Times, when not ordered to be so trained or embodied, also be liable from Time to Time to the like Services as any other Persons enrolled in the Provisional Cavalry are liable to in virtue of the said former Acts or this Act.

If within a limited Time a sufficient Number of qualified Officers shall not be found, his Majesty may appoint Officers of the Army, or retired Officers from it or the Militia, or East India Officers, though not qualified.

XIV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if, within twenty Days from the passing of this Act, a sufficient Number of Officers respectively qualified in the Manner required by the Laws relating to the Militia, shall not be found to accept Commissions in the Provisional Cavalry, it shall be lawful for his Majesty to appoint for that Service any Officer or Officers of the Army, whether on Full or Half Pay, or any Person or Persons who have had Commissions in the Army or Militia, and have retired therefrom, or who have served in any of the Land Forces of the United Company of Merchants trading to the East Indies, and who have either returned therefrom or are resident in Great Britain with the Leave of the said United Company, although not duly qualified as aforesaid, as to his Majesty shall seem fit.

Receiver General shall advance any Money legally directed to be paid, and certify the same to the Commissioners for executing Cap. 41. of this Session, which shall be assessed as herein mentioned.

XV. And be it further enacted, That, from and after the passing of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Receiver General to advance, out of any Monies in his Hands as such Receiver General, and pay to any Person or Persons entitled to receive the same, any Sum or Sums of Money directed to be paid on Account of the said Provisional Cavalry, either by the said Acts or this Act, on delivering to him or his Deputy a proper Certificate under the Hands of any two Deputy Lieutenants or Justices of the Peace, or any of them, authorized to Act as Deputy Lieutenants in the Execution of the said Acts or this Act; which several Sums so to be advanced by such Receivers General, they shall from Time to Time, as such Advances shall be made, cause to be certified under their respective Hands, or the Hands of their respective Deputies, to the Commissioners for executing an Act of the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for repealing the Duties upon Male Servants, Carriages, Horses, Mules, and Dogs, and for granting to his Majesty other Duties in lieu thereof; and all such Sums so certified shall, by force and virtue of such Certificate, be assessed on all and every the Persons liable to the Duties on Horses used for the Purpose of riding, or of drawing any Carriages mentioned in the said Act of the present Session, in proportion to, and according to the Number of such Horses for which they shall respectively be charged by any Assessment to be made under and by virtue of the said Act of the present Session, (except the Persons composing any Class, which shall, by Contract or Agreement, defray and pay the Whole or any Proportion of the Charges attending the Service required from such Class, as to all such Sums of which such Class shall have defrayed and paid its just Proportion as aforesaid,) which Assessments shall be made by adding the Proportion of such Sum so advanced to each Person's Assessment of the Duties on Horses; and all Sums of Money already advanced by such Receivers General, or any of them, in pursuance of the said Acts, and not before assessed, shall, as soon after the passing of this Act as can be done conveniently, by virtue of the like Certificates, be assessed and levied in like Manner; and all such Sums as shall be so certified before any Assessment for the present Year shall have been signed and allowed, shall be added thereto at the Time of making such Assessment; and the Sums so assessed shall be raised, levied, and paid, together with and as a Part of the Duties charged on such Horses; and in case any Certificate shall be transmitted by such Receivers General after the Assessments to be collected in the present Year shall be signed and allowed, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Division where such Assessments are made, and they are hereby required to amend the same, by adding the Proportion of such Sums to each Person's Assessment, and by amending the same accordingly; and the Sums so added from Time to Time shall be collected on the Days of Payment for the Year in which such Assessments shall be so amended, ensuing the Time and Times of making any such Amendments, by even and equal Portions, so that the whole Sums advanced by the Receiver General, and certified in Manner aforesaid, in any Year, shall be fully collected and reimbursed to the Revenue in the Year in which the same shall be so certified; and all Assessments made or to be made after the Year when any Sum or Sums shall have been advanced by such Receivers General, shall be valid and effectual; and all such Commissioners, and Persons acting under them or by their Authority, in making such Assessments, or in collecting, paying, or receiving the same, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, shall be and are hereby freed and discharged, and indemnified from all Actions and Suits whatsoever, and from all Damages for whatever they shall do or cause to be done in pursuance of this Act, and for whatever they shall have done or caused to be done, according to the true Intent and Meaning hereof.

Money already advanced by the Receiver General shall be assessed in like Manner.

If Certificates be transmitted after the Assessments for the present Year shall be allowed, they shall be amended, and the Sums added collected.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That the like Allowances shall be paid to the Clerks to the Commissioners, and to the Collectors and Receivers, for the Monies assessed, collected, and received by them, in pursuance of the said Acts of the last Session or this Act, as they are entitled to out of the Monies assessed, collected, and received for the said Duties on Horses, and that such Allowances so made shall be deemed an Advance made by the respective Receivers General, which they shall certify in the Manner before directed, and which shall be reimbursed to them out of the Monies to be assessed, raised, and levied, by virtue of this Act, in the subsequent Assessment.

Allowances to be made to the Clerks to the Commissioners, and the Collectors and Receivers.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That whenever any Sums of Money shall be adjudged by the Deputy Lieutenants to be paid to any Clerks, Constables, or other Officers, for their Care and Trouble in and about the Execution of the said Acts of the last Session of Parliament, or either of them, or of this Act, or to any of the Surveyors to be appointed to execute the said Act of the present Session of Parliament, or who have been appointed to execute any Act or Acts relative to the Duties on Houses, which were repealed by the said Act of the present Session, for their Pains and Trouble in executing the said Acts of the last Session of Parliament, or either of them, or this Act, which Rewards the said Deputy Lieutenants are hereby required to allow to the said Surveyors, according to the Rules prescribed by the said Acts with respect to other Officers, the same shall, after Payment thereof, be certified to the respective Commissioners before mentioned, who shall cause the same to be assessed, levied, paid, and received, as other Sums are hereby directed to be assessed, paid, levied, and received.

Rewards to Clerks, &c. for their Trouble, shall be certified to the Commissioners, who shall cause the same to be assessed.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Persons who shall have enrolled themselves subsequent to the fourteenth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, or may enrol themselves before or on the first Day of August next, in any Volunteer Corps of Cavalry raised or to be raised under the Authority of any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, voluntarily to offer themselves at any Time on or before the said first Day of August next, to serve during the present War for any Subdivision of the County, Riding, or Place, where such Corps shall be formed, on the Conditions mentioned in this Act, instead of the Provisional Cavalry appointed to serve for such Subdivision; and every Person belonging to any Troop or Corps of Volunteer Cavalry already formed, or which shall be formed under the Authority aforesaid, at any Time before or on the said first Day of August next, (being, together with such Mare or Gelding as shall be furnished by or for him for that Service, first approved of in the Manner directed by the said Acts of the last Session of Parliament, or either of them,) may be enrolled in pursuance of this Act to serve during the present War, under the Command of such General Officer as his Majesty shall appoint, for the District in which such Corps shall be formed; and in every Case where the Number of Men so enrolled subsequent to the said fourteenth Day of January one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, or to be enrolled as aforesaid for any such Subdivision, shall, on or before the first Day of August next, amount to three fourth Parts of the Number of Men directed to be raised for the Provisional Cavalry of such Subdivision, the Lieutenants or Deputy Lieutenants acting for such County, Riding, or Place, shall forthwith certify the same to his Majesty's Privy Council, and the said Council are hereby empowered, in such Case, to cause the Men enrolled in the Provisional Cavalry of such Subdivision, by virtue of the said Acts, and also the Mares and Geldings provided for that Service, to be discharged by Proclamation or otherwise, as the said Council shall think fit, and to suspend, within such Subdivision of such County, Riding, or Place, the further Execution of the said Acts of the last Session of Parliament, so far as respects the Service required by the said Acts,

Persons enrolled in any Volunteer Corps of Cavalry, since Jan. 14, 1797, may offer, by Aug. 1, 1798, to serve during the War for any Subdivision of the County, on the Conditions mentioned in this Act, instead of the Provisional Cavalry; and where the Number so enrolled shall, on or before Aug. 1, 1798, amount to Three-fourths of the Quota of the Subdivision, the same shall be certified to the Privy Council, who may order the Men and Officers of the Provisional Cavalry to be discharged, &c.

Acts, in all Things except as to the assessing, raising, levying, and paying any Sum or Sums of Money, which the Receiver General for such County, Riding, or Place, shall have certified, or shall from Time to Time certify to have been advanced by him, in pursuance of the said Acts or this Act: Provided always, That no such Volunteer Corps shall be liable to be called out, except in case of actual Invasion, or of the actual Appearance of the Enemy on the Coast, or of the Danger of Invasion being deemed imminent, according to the Provisions of an Act, passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to enable his Majesty more effectually to provide for the Defence and Security of the Realm during the present War, and for indemnifying Persons who may suffer in their Property, by such Measures as may be necessary for that Purpose, and under the Circumstances therein mentioned.

Volunteer Corps to be called out only in case of Invasion, &c. under Provisions of Cap. 27. of this Session.

Volunteer Corps offering to serve instead of the Provisional Cavalry, shall be entitled to an Allowance at the Rate of three Guineas per Ann. for three Years per Man, for providing Cloathing, &c.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That every such Volunteer Corps of Cavalry which shall offer to serve instead of the said Provisional Cavalry, in pursuance of this Act, shall be entitled, on an Application in Writing being made by the Commanding Officer of such Corps to the Secretary at War, in the Manner to be hereafter mentioned, to an Allowance, after the Rate of three Pounds and three Shillings for each Person enrolled in the said Corps, per Annum, for three Years, to be applied in providing Cloathing and Accoutrements, and for Extra Expences, unless such Corps shall have previously received the like Sum out of the Monies voted by Parliament towards defraying the Charge of Cloathing and Accoutrements for sundry Corps of Volunteer Cavalry for the Year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, or so much thereof as, together with the Sum received out of the said Monies, will make up the like Sum at the Rate aforesaid, which Sum shall be paid in Advance by the Receiver General of the County, Riding, or Place in which such Corps shall be formed, on the Application in Writing of the Commanding Officer of such Corps, certified by any two or more Deputy Lieutenants of such County, Riding, or Place, to the Secretary at War, specifying the Dates of the Formation of such Corps, and the Enrolment therein of each Person for whom this Sum may be claimed, and of the Sum to which he may be entitled in pursuance of this Act, and stating the Sums (if any) already received by such Corps out of the Monies voted by Parliament as aforesaid, which Certificate, being transmitted to the Commissioners for the Affairs of Taxes, with the Approbation of the Secretary at War indorsed thereon, shall be a sufficient Authority to the said Commissioners to direct the proper Receiver General to pay such Sums as may appear due by such Certificate.

Sums advanced by the Receiver General shall be reimbursed by Assessment.

XX. And be it further enacted, That all such Sums which any Receiver General shall advance to such Volunteers in pursuance of this Act, shall be reimbursed by Assessment, within the Period of three Years, from the fifth Day of April next before the passing of this Act, in the Manner before directed; and that the Proportion of One-third of the whole Sum to be advanced, as nearly as a Computation thereof can be made, shall be levied in each of the said three Years.

Men may be enrolled before Aug. 1, 1798, in the Fencible Cavalry, and accepted in lieu of Men to be provided for the Provisional Cavalry, &c.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person appointed to provide a Man or Men for the Service of the said Provisional Cavalry, or any Person ballotted to provide a Man for that Service, or if the Persons composing any Class having agreed with each other to provide for such Service, shall, at any Time before the first Day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety-eight, produce or cause to be produced to the Commanding Officer of any Corps of Fencible Cavalry, raised to serve in Great Britain during the present War, or to any Officer appointed by his Majesty, or by such Commanding Officer, with the Approbation of his Majesty, one fit and able-bodied Man for each of the Men so directed to be provided, who shall cause himself to be enrolled to serve in such Fencible Corps of Cavalry within Great Britain during the present War, then the Service of such Men so enrolled shall be accepted in lieu of the Service required by the said Acts; and the Persons appointed or ballotted to provide for such Service, and also the Class agreeing to provide for such Service, shall, on the Certificate of such Commanding Officer or Officers, to be appointed as aforesaid, of the Enrolment of such Fencible Men, be discharged from any further Service under the said Acts, either by providing any Men or Cloathing, or by furnishing any Mares or Geldings, or Furniture for the same, and also from any Charge or Expence to be incurred in respect of the said Provisional Cavalry, at any Time after the Date of such Enrolment; and if any Person shall be charged with any Sum or Sums of Money incurred after the Date of such Enrolment, it shall be lawful for him or her to appeal therefrom, in like Manner, and under the like Terms and Conditions as such Person may by Law appeal from any Overcharge in any Assessment of the Duties upon Horses.

Persons offering to serve in the Fencible Cavalry shall take an Oath, which may be administered by a Deputy Lieutenant or Justice.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That every Person offering himself to serve in any Fencible Corps of Cavalry, in lieu of the said Provisional Force of Cavalry, shall take the same Oath as may have been taken by the Private Men of the Corps in which he may enter; which Oath may be administered by any one Deputy Lieutenant or Justice of the Peace in any County, Riding, or Place, where such Person shall be enrolled.

If in any Place the Provisional Cavalry shall not be discharged before or on passing this Act,

XXIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if in any of the Counties, Ridings, and Places aforesaid, the Provisional Force of Cavalry raised therein by virtue of the said Acts, shall not be discharged in pursuance of this Act, before or on the passing of this Act, no greater Allowance shall thenceforth be made to any Person or Persons towards discharging the Expences of providing any Mare or Gelding for that Service, than shall be allowed by the Lieutenant and two Deputy Lieutenants, or by three Deputy Lieutenants, at a General Meeting of Lieutenancy to be held for that Purpose, and that such Allowance shall in no Case exceed the Rate of two Shillings weekly in respect of each such Mare or Gelding.

no more than 2s. per Week shall be allowed for each Horse.

XXIV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person enrolled to serve in the said Provisional Force of Cavalry raised by virtue of the said Acts, shall, when ordered out to be embodied, leave a Family unable to support themselves, (or shall, when ordered out to be trained and exercised, be compelled to leave his Home, having a Family unable to support themselves,) the Overseer or Overseers of the Poor of the Parish, Tything, or Place where the Family of such Person shall dwell, shall, by Order of some one Justice of the Peace, out of the Rates for the Relief of the Poor of such Parish, Tything, or Place, pay to such Family the following weekly Allowance; (that is to say,) A Sum not exceeding one Shilling for each and every Child born in Wedlock, and under the Age of ten Years, and a Sum not exceeding one Shilling for the Wife of the Person so enrolled and serving as aforesaid, whether he shall or shall not have any Child or Children; and in every Parish, Tything, or Place, where the Money arising by such Rates shall not be sufficient for the Purpose aforesaid, a new Rate shall be made from Time to Time for raising Sums sufficient for that Purpose.

Weekly Allowance out of Poor Rates to be paid to the Families of Provisional Cavalry Men when embodied or leaving Home to be trained.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That if any Person shall have provided a Mare or Gelding for the said Service, who at the Time of the Order made for providing such Mare or Gelding shall not have had any Mare or Gelding fit for Military Service, which shall have been accepted, and if in consequence of such Refusal such Person shall have provided and kept an additional Mare or Gelding beyond the usual Number kept by, and then actually charged upon him or her, then such Person shall be exempted from any Charge or Assessment on Account of such additional Mare or Gelding to any Rate or Duty imposed by any Act or Acts now in force, either for granting to his Majesty any Duty on Horses, or to the additional Duties granted to his Majesty by an Aid and Contribution for the Prosecution of the War; and such Person shall be liable to be charged to the said Duties in respect of the Horses, Mares, or Geldings kept by him or her, exclusive of the Mare or Gelding so provided for the said Service.

If a Person has kept an additional Horse for Military Service, he shall be exempted from Duty for him.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That in every Case where the Provisional Cavalry shall be embodied, all the Duties granted by the Acts before-mentioned, in respect of the Mares or Geldings provided for that Service, shall cease from the Day of Payment next after the Date of the Order for embodying the same; and every such Exemption shall continue in force during the Time of the Cavalry being embodied.

The Duties for Horses provided for the Provisional Cavalry shall cease from the Day of Payment next after embodying.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That the respective Commissioners for executing the said several Acts shall cause the Assessments in respect of any Mares or Geldings provided for the said Service, to be rectified according to the Directions of this Act.

Assessments to be rectified.

XXVIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person who shall have found, or shall hereafter find a Substitute in the said Provisional Cavalry at any Time, with the Consent of two Deputy Lieutenants or Justices of the Peace of the County, Riding, or Place, acting for the Subdivision in or for which he shall have so found such Substitute, to change such Substitute, and procure another Person to be enrolled in lieu of such Substitute, and thereupon the Person previously enrolled as a Substitute shall be discharged from the same; and every Person so enrolled in lieu of the Person discharged as aforesaid shall be duly cloathed and accoutred, and serve in the said Provisional Cavalry, in like Manner as the former Substitute would otherwise have been cloathed and accoutred, and have served in the same.

Substitutes may be changed.

And that every such Account so hereby required from any Baker or other Person making or who shall make Bread for Sale within the said City, or the Liberties thereof, or the Weekly Bills of Mortality, shall be so as aforesaid prepared and delivered before the Hour of Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon of the Saturday whereon the same is to be delivered, and every such Account hereby required from any Baker or other Person making or who shall make Bread for Sale, without or beyond the Limits of the Weekly Bills of Mortality, but within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, shall be so as aforesaid prepared and delivered before the Hour of Five of the Clock in the Afternoon of the Saturday on which the same is to be delivered.

Clerk of Cocket Office to provide Blank Forms of Accounts, and no others shall be used, &c.

II. And be it also enacted, That, for enabling and compelling the said Bakers and other Persons to prepare such last-mentioned Weekly Accounts more accurately, there shall be, from Time to Time, provided by the Clerk of the Cocket Office, and kept at the said Office, a sufficient Number of printed Forms of such Accounts, with Blanks ready to be filled up, similar to, or to the like Effect as the Form hereinbefore prescribed for the same Weekly Accounts, and that all such Bakers and other Persons from whom such Weekly Accounts as last mentioned are hereby required, shall, at all proper and seasonable Times, on Application to the said Office, be supplied with such and so many of the said printed Forms, as they respectively may stand in need of, on paying a reasonable Price for the same, not exceeding the Rate of one Shilling and Sixpence per Hundred; which printed Forms so to be provided and obtained as last mentioned, shall alone be made use of by every such Baker and other Person for every such Weekly Account; and that every such last-mentioned Account shall be marked and distinguished by such particular Letter and Number, to be printed or written at the Top of every Weekly Account to be delivered by every such Baker or other Person, as the proper Officer for the Time being at the said Cocket Office shall mention and direct in that Behalf, and so as that such Accounts may be distinguished, not only by the proper Names of the Bakers or other Persons who shall have prepared the same, but also by particular Letters and Numbers to be allotted to them respectively, and so as that each Weekly Account of one of such Persons may be marked and known by A. 1, of another by A. 2, of a third by A. 3, and so on in a regular progressive Series of Numbers, up to A. 100, beyond which B. 1, B. 2, B. 3, et cetera, are to be used for the like Purposes up to B. 100, and so on in like Manner alphabetically throughout the whole Alphabet, if need be, each Letter being used for an hundred Persons only, and that jointly with Numbers from Number 1 to Number 100 inclusive.

Bakers who have not purchased any Meal or Flour within the preceding seven Days, to deliver in an Account as herein specified.

III. And, for preventing the unnecessary summoning and molesting of Bakers in the Case next hereinafter mentioned, be it also enacted, That when any Baker or other Person from whom Weekly Accounts of the Meal and Flour to be bought by him are hereby required, shall not, for the Term or Space of seven Days next preceding any Saturday, buy any Meal or Flour for the Purpose of or fit for making Wheaten Bread, then and so often as the Case shall happen, every such Baker or other Person, not having during such seven Days bought any such Meal or Flour as last-mentioned, shall and is hereby required, upon the said Saturday immediately following the same seven Days, to prepare and deliver, instead of such Weekly Account as aforesaid, and at such Time and Place as is hereinbefore directed concerning such Weekly Account, one of the printed Forms hereinbefore directed to be used for such Baker's Weekly Accounts, containing the proper Letter and Number at the Top thereof, and the Word "None" written in the Column intituled "Number of Sacks," and specifying particularly, and in Words at Length, the Street or other Place or Places, and Parish or Parishes, wherein such Baker or other Person shall then dwell and carry on his Business, and otherwise filled up in a sufficient Manner, and signed by such Baker or other Person.

§ 9. of recited Act, prescribing the Oath to be taken by Bakers, repealed; and the Oath following to be taken.

IV. And be it also enacted, That so much of the said Act of the thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, as prescribes the Oath or Affirmation thereby directed to be taken by Bakers or other Persons making, or who shall make, Bread for Sale, and the Manner of administering such Oath or Affirmation, and as inflicts a Penalty on Bakers and other Persons omitting to take the same, shall be, and is hereby repealed; and that instead thereof, every Baker making, or who shall make, Bread for Sale within the City of London, or the Liberties thereof, or the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, shall, within one Calendar Month next after the passing of this Act, or within one Calendar Month from the Time when he shall begin to make Bread for Sale within the Limits aforesaid, take the following Oath, or (being one of the People called Quakers) affirm, as hereinafter mentioned; (that is to say,)

Oath.

'I A. B. do swear, [or affirm,] That the Accounts which I shall hereafter deliver, or cause to be delivered, at the Cocket Office in the Mansion House, in the City of London, of and concerning the Meal or Flour (made of Wheat) which henceforward shall be bought by or for me, shall, to the best of my Knowledge and Belief, contain the whole Quantity, and no more, of the Meal or Flour (made of Wheat) really and truly bought by or for me, within the Period to which such Accounts shall respectively refer, with the Names of the Sellers or Persons of whom the same shall be bought, and with the just and true Prices respectively, without Collusion under any Pretence whatsoever, and shall be, to the best of my Judgment, conformable in all other Respects to the Directions of an Act, passed in the thirty-eighth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for amending an Act, made in the thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, made in the thirty-first Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the due

" making of Bread, and to regulate the Price and Assize thereof, and to punish Persons who shall adulterate " Meal, Flour, or Bread, so far as the same relates to the Assize and making of Bread to be sold in the City of " London, and the Liberties thereof, and within the Weekly Bills of Mortality, and within ten Miles of the " Royal Exchange;" and I do further swear, That I will not use, or cause to be used, any Allum or other ' pernicious Ingredients in the making of Bread or Rolls to be sold by me.'

Which Oath (or Affirmation) the Lord Mayor of the City of London for the Time being, (whether such Baker shall reside within the said Lord Mayor's Jurisdiction or not,) or any other Justice of the Peace within whose Jurisdiction such Baker shall reside, is hereby authorized and required to administer, upon being duly applied to for that Purpose, and to grant a Certificate thereof, to be registered in the Town Clerk's Office of the said City, and every such Oath or Affirmation shall be so administered, certified, and registered, without any Fee or Reward to be demanded or paid for the same; and in case any Person shall carry on the Trade and Business of a Baker, or shall make Bread for Sale within the said City, or the Liberties thereof, or the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, without taking the said Oath, or affirming as aforesaid, conformably to the Directions of this Act, every such Person so offending shall, on being convicted of such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Pounds.

Lord Mayor or a Justice to administer the Oath, and to grant a Certificate, to be registered in the Town Clerk's Office.

5*l* Penalty for making Bread without taking the Oath, &c.

V. And be it further enacted, That the General Return or Account, by the said Act of the thirty-seventh Year of his present Majesty directed to be prepared every Monday by the Meal Weighers of the City of London, or by such other Persons as the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the said City shall appoint, of and concerning the Quantities, Sorts, and Prices of Meal and Flour made of Wheat, shall, from and after the Commencement of this Act, be prepared from and by Means of the Weekly Accounts of Meal and Flour hereinbefore directed to be delivered as aforesaid; and every such General Return or Account shall contain the Quantities, Sorts, and Prices, and Average Price, of all such Meal and Flour made of Wheat, as shall have been bought by the Bakers and other Persons making Bread for Sale within the said City and Liberties, and Bills of Mortality, and within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, within the Term or Space of the seven Days next preceding the Saturday which shall have last elapsed at the Time of preparng such General Return or Account, or the Quantities, Sorts, and Prices, and Average Price, or so much of the same Meal and Flour as shall be mentioned in the said Weekly Accounts of Meal and Flour for those seven Days only.

Return required by § 2. of recited Act to be prepared every Monday by the Meal Weighers, shall be prepared from the Weekly Accounts of Meal and Flour, and shall contain certain Particulars.

VI. And be it likewise enacted, That if any Baker or other Person making, or who shall make, Bread for Sale within the City of London, or the Liberties thereof, or the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, or any Meal Weigher of the City of London, or other Person or Persons who, in pursuance of the said Act of the thirty-seventh Year of his present Majesty, or of this Act, shall be appointed by the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the said City to certify and return the Quantities and Prices of Meal and Flour made of Wheat, shall in anywise neglect, omit, or refuse to make, deliver, or leave, any such Account or Return, or printed Form filled up and signed as aforesaid, as is by this Act required or directed to be made, delivered, or left by him, her, or them respectively, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, or shall designedly or knowingly make, deliver, or leave, or cause to be made, delivered, or left, any false Account or Return, or printed Form filled up and signed as and for any such Account or Return as is required by this Act; or if any Constable or other Peace Officer shall refuse or neglect to observe or obey any Warrant in Writing which shall be delivered to him, under the Hand and Seal of any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, or to do any other Act requisite to be done by him or them, for carrying this Act, or any of the Powers or Authorities hereby given, into Execution; then every Person so offending in any of the Premises shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence, on being convicted thereof, any Sum not exceeding ten Pounds, as the Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, before whom any such Offender or Offenders shall be convicted, shall think fit and order.

Penalty on Bakers and Meal Weighers for not making Returns, or making false ones, and on Peace Officers for Neglect of Duty.

VII. And be it further enacted, That if any Baker or other Person making, or who shall make, Bread for Sale within the City of London, or the Liberties thereof, or the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, shall at any Time corruptly, or in order to evade this Act, have or receive, directly or indirectly, of or from any Person of whom he shall have bought, or shall intend to buy, any Meal or Flour, any Allowance, Payment, or Gift in Money, or otherwise, by way of lessening the Price or Cost of such Meal or Flour, or so as that the actual Cost thereof shall be thereby in reality or virtually made less than what shall in such Weekly Account as aforesaid be set forth as the real Price of the same Meal or Flour, then and in every such Case, as well every Person so corruptly making, allowing, or giving such Allowance, Payment, or Gift, as last mentioned, as also every Baker or other Person so having or receiving the same, shall for every such Offence, on being convicted thereof, forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding twenty Pounds, nor less than five Pounds.

Penalty on Bakers for receiving, and on Persons selling Meal or Flour, for giving any Allowance so as that the Cost shall be made less than stated in Weekly Accounts.

VIII. ' And whereas, by an Act made in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting ' to his Majesty additional Duties on Salt, the Price of that Article is materially increased, by reason where- ' of the Bakers would be considerably injured, if some Allowance were not made to them on Account of ' such additional Duties;' be it therefore enacted, That, from Time to Time, when and so often as the Court of Mayor and Aldermen, or the Lord Mayor of the City of London for the Time being, shall, in setting the Assize of Bread in Execution of the said Act of the thirty-seventh Year of his present Majesty, and of this present Act, think proper to use or be guided by the Average Price of Wheat, they or he shall, immediately

Cap. 43. of the Public Acts of this Session, (ante, p. 755.) recited (And see c. 61. p. 821.)

In setting the Assize of Bread, 5*d.* per Quarter to be added to the Average Price of Wheat, and 4d. per Sack to the Average Price of Flour, as an Allowance for the additional Duty on Salt.

immediately before setting such Assize, while such additional Duties on Salt shall continue, but no longer, add to what shall, by Means of the then last General Return or Account of Wheat, appear to be the then Average Price per Quarter of Wheat fit for the making of Wheaten Bread, the Sum of Five-pence on Account of the said new Duties on Salt, so as to increase such Average Price Five-pence per Quarter; and shall then, in setting the Assize of Bread, make use of such increased Average Price or Sum instead of the real Average Price, in such and the same Manner, in all Respects, as if the same were the real Average Price of Wheat, according to the then last General Return or Account of Wheat; and that, from Time to Time, when and so often as the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen, or Lord Mayor, shall, in setting the Assize of Bread in execution of the same two Acts, think proper to use or be guided by the Average Price of Flour, they or he shall, immediately before setting such Assize, while such additional Duties on Salt shall continue, but no longer, add to what shall, by Means of the then last General Return or Account of Meal and Flour, appear to be the then Average Price per Sack of Flour, fit for the making of Wheaten Bread, the Sum of Four-pence on Account of the said new Duties on Salt, so as to increase such Average Price Four-pence per Sack, and shall then, in setting the Assize of Bread, make use of such increased Average Price or Sum instead of the real Average Price, in such and the same Manner, in all Respects, as if the same were the real Average Price of Flour, according to the then last General Return or Account of Meal and Flour made of Wheat.

When the Average Price of Wheat or Flour returned does not agree with any of the Prices specified in the Table annexed to 37 Geo. 3. c. 98. an Account of the Differences to be kept at the Cocket Office till they amount to half an Assize, and then the next Assize to be set accordingly.

IX. 'And whereas in setting the Assize of Bread in Conformity to the Directions of the said Act of 'the thirty-seventh Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, it frequently happens that the Average Price 'of Wheat or of Flour returned does not agree with any of the Prices specified in the Table affixed to the 'said Act from which the Assize of Bread is directed to be set, and the Assize is then set from the Price 'in the said Table nearest the said Average Price returned, by reason whereof the Assize and Price of Bread 'is at Times higher than by the said Act is intended, to the Injury of the Public, and at other Times not 'so high, to the Injury of the Baker;' for Remedy whereof, be it enacted, That whenever there shall be any Difference between the Average Price of Wheat or of Flour returned, and the Price from which the Assize of Bread shall be set, the Amount of such Difference of Price shall be entered in a Book to be kept at the Cocket Office aforesaid for that Purpose; and when and so often as it shall appear that upon such Differences being added together they amount to a sufficient Sum, either in Favour of the Public or of the Baker, to make a Variation in the Price of Bread of Half an Assize, then and so often the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen, if the said Court shall then sit, and if such Court shall not then sit, then the Lord Mayor of the said City for the Time being shall, and they or he are or is hereby required to make such Addition to, or Deduction from, the Average Price of Wheat or of Flour returned, and in setting the then next Assize of Bread, either to lower or to raise the same one Half an Assize, as the Case may require, accordingly, as the Difference between the Average Prices of Wheat or of Flour returned, and the Prices from which the Assize shall have been set, appears to have been in Favour of the Public or of the Baker.

Such Parts of any Acts as impose a Penalty on Bakers not marking Loaves, repealed within certain Limits, and such Loaves to be marked as herein specified.

X. Penalty for Neglect.

No Baker to be liable to Penalty for Deficiency in Weight of Bread, unless ascertained within 24 Hours after baking.

XI. And be it further enacted, That no Baker or other Person making, or who shall make Bread for Sale within the City of London, or the Liberties thereof, or the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, shall be liable to any Punishment for or on Account of any Bread which shall be found deficient in Weight, nor shall the same be liable to be seized by reason of such Deficiency, unless the Weight thereof be duly ascertained within twenty-four Hours after such Bread shall have been baked.

No Baker or other Person to

XII. And be it further enacted, That no Baker or other Person or Persons who shall ask, demand, or take, for any Bread which he, she, or they shall sell, or expose to or for Sale, within the City of London, or the Liberties thereof, or the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, any greater or higher Price than such Bread shall be ascertained to be sold for or at, by the Court, Magistrate or Magistrates, or Justices, authorized by the said Act of the thirty-seventh Year of his present Majesty, or otherwise, to set the Price and Assize of Bread within their respective Jurisdictions; and that no Baker or other Person who shall make any Bread for Sale within the same City or Liberties, or Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, shall refuse or decline to sell any Loaf or Loaves of any of the Sorts of Bread which, in pursuance of the same last-mentioned Act, and of this Act, or of any other Law, shall be allowed or ordered to be made, to any Person or Persons who shall tender ready Money in Payment for the same, at or for the Price such Bread, by the Assize which shall have been set in respect thereof, shall be fixed at, or ascertained to be sold for, when any such Baker, or other Person who shall make Bread for Sale within the said Limits, shall have any Loaf of any such Bread in his House, Bakehouse, Shop, or Possession, to be sold, more than shall be requisite for the immediate necessary Use of his own Family or Customers, and which it shall be incumbent on such Baker or other Person who shall be complained of for refusing or declining to sell any such Bread, to prove, before the Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, to whom any such Complaint shall be made, if thereunto required by the Party or Parties who shall make any such Complaint, upon Pain that every Person who shall be convicted of any such Offence, shall forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding forty Shillings, nor less than ten Shillings, as the Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, before whom any such Offender or Offenders shall be convicted, shall think fit and order, every Time he, she, or they shall so offend, and be convicted.

or

ask more for his Bread than the set Price, nor to refuse to sell to any Person who shall tender Payment for Loaves in his Possession, more than necessary for the immediate Use of his Family or Customers.

Penalty for Offence.

XIII. Provided always, and be it likewise enacted, That no Person shall sell, or offer to Sale, within the City of London, or the Liberties thereof, or the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, any Bread of an inferior Quality to Wheaten Bread, at a higher Price than Household Bread shall be set at by the Assize, on Pain of forfeiting for every such Offence, on being convicted thereof, a Sum of Money, not exceeding ten Pounds, nor less than forty Shillings.

Penalty for selling Bread inferior to Wheaten at a higher Price than Household.

XIV. And be it also enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices of the Peace, within the Limits of their respective Jurisdictions, and also for any Peace Officer or Peace Officers, authorized by Warrant under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, of any such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, (and which Warrant any such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, is and are hereby empowered to grant,) at seasonable Times, in the Day Time, to enter into any House, Shop, Stall, Bakehouse, Warehouse, Outhouse, or Ground, of or belonging to any Baker, or other Person making, or who shall make Bread for Sale, within the said City, or Liberties, or Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, and to take with him or them, to his or their Assistance, one or more Master Baker or Bakers, and to search and examine whether any Allum or other Ingredient shall have been mixed up with or put into any Meal, Flour, Dough, or Bread, in the Possession of any such Baker or other Person, whereby any such Meal, Flour, Dough, or Bread, is or shall be in anywise adulterated, and also to search for Allum, or any other Ingredient which may be intended to be used in or for any such Adulteration or Mixture; and if, on any such Search, it shall appear that any such Meal, Flour, Dough, or Bread, so found, shall have been so adulterated by the Person in whose Possession it shall then be, or any Allum or other Ingredient shall be found which shall seem to have been deposited there in order to be used in the Adulteration of Meal, Flour, or Bread, then and in every such Case it shall be lawful for any Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices of the Peace, or Officer or Officers authorized as aforesaid, respectively, within the Limits of their respective Jurisdictions, to seize and take any Meal, Flour, Dough, or Bread, which shall be found in any such Search, and deemed to have been adulterated; and all Allum and other Ingredients and Mixtures which shall be found, and deemed to have been used or intended to be used in or for any such Adulteration as aforesaid, and such thereof as shall be seized by any Peace Officer or Officers authorized as aforesaid, shall, with all convenient Speed after Seizure, be carried to some Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices of the Peace, within whose Jurisdiction the same shall have been so seized; and if any Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices of the Peace, who shall make any such Seizure in pursuance of this Act, or to whom any Thing so seized under the Authority of this Act, shall be brought, shall adjudge that any such Meal, Flour, Dough, or Bread, so seized, shall have been adulterated by any unwholesome or improper Mixture or Ingredient put therein, or shall adjudge that any Allum or other Ingredient or Mixture so found as aforesaid, shall have been deposited or kept where so found for the Purpose of adulterating Meal, Flour, or Bread, then and in any such Case every such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices of the Peace, is and are hereby required, within the Limits of their respective Jurisdictions, to dispose of the same as he or they, in his or their Discretion, shall, from Time to Time, think proper.

Magistrates or Peace Officers by their Warrants, may, at seasonable Times, search Bakers Premises, and if any adulterated Flour, Bread, &c. be found, it may be seized and disposed of.

XV. And be it further enacted, That every Baker or other Person making, or who shall make, Bread for Sale within the said City or Liberties, or the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, in whose House, Shop, Stall, Bakehouse, Warehouse, Outhouse, Ground, or Possession, any Allum or other Ingredient or Mixture shall be found, which shall, after due Examination, be adjudged by any Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices of the Peace, to have been deposited there for the Purpose of being used in adulterating Meal, Flour, or Bread, shall, on being convicted of any such Offence, either either by his, her, or their own Confession, or by the Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, forfeit and pay on every such Conviction, any Sum of Money not exceeding twenty Pounds, nor less than five Pounds, or shall, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals of the Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, before whom such Offender shall be convicted, be apprehended and committed to the House of Correction, or some Prison of the County, City, Borough, or Place where the Offence shall have been committed, or the Offender or Offenders shall be apprehended, there to remain and be kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding six Calendar Months, nor less than one Calendar Month, from the Time of such Commitment, as any such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, shall think fit and order (unless the Party or Parties charged with any such Offence shall make it appear, to the Satisfaction of the Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, who shall find or seize any such Allum or other Ingredients or Mixture, or before whom the same shall be brought, that such Allum or other Ingredient or Mixture was not nor were brought or lodged where the same was or were found or seized with any Design or Intent to have been put into any Meal, Flour, or Bread, or to have adulterated therewith the Purity of any Meal, Flour, or Bread, but that the same was or were in the Place or Places in which the same shall have been so found or seized as aforesaid, for some other lawful Purpose); and it shall be lawful for the Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, before whom any such Offender shall be convicted, and he and they is and are hereby required to cause the Offender's Name, Place of Abode, and Offence, to be published in some Newspaper which shall be printed or published in or near the City of London or the Liberty of Westminster, and to defray the Expence of publishing the same out of the Money to be forfeited as last mentioned, if any shall be so forfeited and shall be paid or recovered.

Penalty for obstructing any Search, or the Seizure of any Flour, &c. or Ingredient to adulterate it.

XVI. And be it further enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall wilfully obstruct or hinder any such Search as hereinbefore is authorized to be made, or the Seizure of any Meal, Flour, Dough, or Bread, or of any Allum or other Ingredient or Mixture which shall be found on any such Search, and deemed to have been lodged with an Intent to adulterate the Purity or Wholesomeness of Meal, Flour, Dough, or Bread, or shall wilfully oppose or resist any such Search being made, or the carrying away any such Allum or other Ingredient or Mixture as aforesaid, or any Meal, Flour, Dough, or Bread, which shall be seized as being adulterated, or as not being made pursuant to this Act, he, she, or they so doing or offending in any of the Cases last aforesaid, shall, for every such Offence, on being convicted thereof, forfeit and pay such Sum not exceeding ten Pounds, nor less than five Pounds, as the Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, before whom such Offender or Offenders shall be convicted, shall think fit and order.

If any Baker shall make it appear that any Offence for which he shall have paid Penalty, shall have been occasioned by the wilful Default of a Servant, the Magistrate may order his Servant to make Recompence, &c.

XVII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if any Person making, or who shall make, Bread for Sale within the City of London, or the Liberties thereof, or the Weekly Bills of Mortality, or within ten Miles of the Royal Exchange, shall at any Time make Complaint to any Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices of the Peace within his or their Jurisdiction, and make appear to him or them, by the Oath of any credible Witness, that any Offence which such Person shall have been charged with, and for which he or she shall have incurred and paid any Penalty under the said Act of the thirty-seventh Year of his present Majesty, or this Act, or any other Act concerning the Assize and Price of Bread, shall have been occasioned by or through the wilful Act, Neglect, or Default, of any Journeyman or other Servant employed by or under such Person so making Complaint, then and in any such Case any such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, may and is or are hereby required to issue out his or their Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, or respective Hands and Seals, for bringing any such Journeyman or Servant before any such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, or any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace acting in and for the County, City, Division, or Place, where the Offender can be found; and on any such Journeyman or Servant being thereupon apprehended and brought before any such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, he or they, within his or their respective Jurisdiction, is and are hereby authorized and required to examine into the Matter of such Complaint, and on Proof thereof, upon Oath, to the Satisfaction of any such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices of the Peace, who shall hear such said Complaint, then any such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, is and are hereby directed and authorized by any Order under his or their respective Hand or Hands, to adjudge and order what reasonable Sum of Money shall be paid by any such Journeyman or Servant to his Master or Mistress, as or by way of Recompence to him or her for the Money he or she shall have paid by reason of the wilful Act, Neglect, or Default, of any such Journeyman or Servant; and if any such Journeyman or Servant shall neglect or refuse, on his Conviction, to make immediate Payment of the Sum of Money which any such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, shall order him to pay by reason of such his said wilful Neglect or Default, then any such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, within his or their respective Jurisdiction, is or are hereby authorized and required, by Warrant under his or their Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, to cause such Journeyman or Servant to be apprehended and committed to the House of Correction, or some other Prison of the County, City, Division, or Place, in which such Journeyman or Servant shall be apprehended or convicted, to be there kept to hard Labour for any Time not exceeding one Calendar Month from the Time of such Commitment, as to such Magistrate or Magistrates, Justice or Justices, shall seem reasonable, unless Payment shall be made of the Money ordered after such Commitment, and before the Expiration of the said Term of one Calendar Month.

Persons forswearing themselves guilty of Perjury.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That if any Person who shall take any Oath by this Act directed to be taken, or be examined on Oath by virtue or in Execution of this Act, shall wilfully forswear himself or herself, or shall at any Time afterwards wilfully break any such Oath, every such Person shall be subject and liable to be prosecuted as for Perjury, by Indictment or Information, according to due Course of Law, and if convicted, shall be liable to the Pains and Penalties which Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are subject and liable to.

Certain Provisions of 31 Geo. 2. c. 29. to extend to this Act.

XIX. And be it also enacted, That the Clauses, Provisions, and Directions contained in the Act of the thirty-first Year of the Reign of King George the Second, Chapter the twenty-ninth, for empowering Magistrates to hear and determine Offences against the said Act in a summary Way, and summon and examine Evidences, and convict Offenders, and for recovering Penalties, and otherwise punishing Offenders, and for authorizing Persons thinking themselves aggrieved to appeal to the Justices at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and the Clauses and Directions in the same Act contained for protecting and indemnifying Magistrates and other Officers under the said Act, shall respectively (except in the Cases herein otherwise provided for and directed) extend and relate to this present Act, and, so far as the same are applicable to the Purposes of this Act, shall be exercised for putting this Act in Execution, and for enforcing the Provisions and Directions thereof, in such and the same Manner as if the same several Clauses were herein contained and at large re-enacted.

The Privileges of the present Laws relative to making of Bread, &c. to extend to Persons putting this Act in Execution.

XX. And be it further enacted, That all Magistrates and other Persons whomsoever, shall be entitled to and have all such other the Privileges, Protections, and Indemnifications, in all Respects whatsoever, for what they shall lawfully do in putting this Act in Execution, as they are entitled to and have by the Laws already enacted, and now in being, relative to the making of Bread, and selling or exposing the same to or for Sale, for putting the said Laws in Execution.

No Certiorari, &c to be granted to remove Proceedings.

XXI. And be it further enacted, That no Certiorari, Letters of Advocation or of Suspension, shall be granted to remove any Conviction or other Proceedings had thereon in pursuance of this Act.

Limitation of Actions.

Persons convicted under this Act not liable to other Prosecution.

XXII. Provided also, and be it likewise enacted, That no Person shall be convicted of any Offence under this Act, unless the Information in order for such Conviction shall be exhibited within fourteen Days after the Offence committed, except in Cases of Perjury; and that no Person who shall be prosecuted to Conviction for any Offence done or committed against this Act, shall be liable to be prosecuted for the same Offence under any other Law.

Application of Penalties.

XXIII. And be it also enacted, That all Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act inflicted, or such of them, or so much thereof respectively as are not or is not hereinbefore directed to be otherwise applied, shall, when recovered and paid, go and be disposed of in such and the same Manner as in and by the said Act of the thirty-seventh Year of his present Majesty is expressed and directed concerning the Penalties inflicted by that Act.

Act not to prejudice the Rights of the City of London, &c.

XXIV. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That this Act, or any Thing herein contained, shall not extend to prejudice any Right or Custom of the City of London, or the Practice there used, or any Right or Custom of any Lord or Lords of any Leet, to set, inquire, and punish, the Breach of Assize of Bread within their respective Leets, or Views of Frankpledge, or the Rights of any Clerk or Clerks of the Market in any Place.

Commencement of Act.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That all and every the Directions, Regulations, Powers, and Authorities of this Act, shall commence and take place, and be had, done, executed, and performed, immediately from and after the second Tuesday next after the passing of this Act, unless otherwise especially directed by this Act.

Cap. lviii.

An Act for obviating and removing Doubts respecting the Holding of the Adjournments of the General Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace in and for the County Palatine of Lancaster; and for authorizing the Justices of the Peace acting in and for the said County to hold an Annual General Session, and also a Special Session, for the Purposes therein mentioned.—[21st June 1798.]

'WHEREAS the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County Palatine of Lancaster have been for divers and very many Years last past usually holden at the Towns, Places, and Times, and in the Manner following; (that is to say,) The first Quarterly Session, commonly called The Epiphany Session, at Lancaster on Tuesday in the first Week next after the Feast of the Epiphany, according to the present Style or Computation of Time used in this Kingdom, by Adjournment at Preston on the Thursday following, by further Adjournment at Wigan on the Monday following, and by further Adjournment at Manchester on the Thursday Sevennight (but now and of late Years on the Wednesday Sevennight) after the Commencement of the said Session; the Second Quarterly Session, commonly called The Easter Session, at Lancaster on the Tuesday next after Low Sunday, by Adjournment at Preston on the Thursday following, by further Adjournment at Ormskirk on the Monday following, and by further Adjournment at Manchester on the Thursday Sevennight (but now and of late Years on the Wednesday Sevennight) after Low Sunday; the Third Quarterly Session, commonly called The Midsummer Session, at Lancaster on the Tuesday in the first Week next after the Feast of the Translation of Saint Thomas the Martyr, commonly called Thomas à Beckett, by Adjournment at Preston on the Thursday following, by further Adjournment at Ormskirk on the Monday following, and by further Adjournment at Manchester on Thursday Sevennight (but now and of late Years on the Wednesday Sevennight) next after the Commencement of the said Session; and the Fourth Quarterly Session, commonly called The Michaelmas Session, at Lancaster on the Tuesday in the first Week next after the Feast of Saint Michael the Archangel, by Adjournment at Preston on the Thursday following, by further Adjournment at Wigan on the Monday following, and by further Adjournment at Manchester on the Thursday Sevennight (but now and of late Years on the Wednesday Sevennight) after the Commencement of the said Session; and have so continued to be holden, to the great Benefit of the County at large, and the convenient Administration of Public Justice: And whereas, in Addition to the said four General Courts of Quarter Sessions so holden by Adjournment as aforesaid, it has been found expedient that a General Sessions of the Peace should be annually holden at a central and convenient Place in the said County Palatine, for the Purpose of transacting the General Business of the County at large: And whereas the Town of Preston being such central and convenient Place in the said County, a General Session of the Peace, called The Epiphany Session, hath been for some Years last past annually holden there for the Purpose aforesaid, by Adjournment from Manchester to the said Town of Preston, to the great Convenience and Advantage of the County at large: And whereas the Legality of the said Adjournments of the said General Courts of Quarter Session hath been attempted to be called in question: And whereas it is expedient that all Doubts regarding the Legality of such Adjournments should be removed: And whereas it is expedient, that in the Lieu and Stead of such Annual General Session, called The Epiphany Session, so now holden by Adjournment from Manchester to Preston as aforesaid, a General Session for the said County Palatine should be annually holden on the Thursday next after the Feast of Saint John the Baptist, for the Purposes hereinafter mentioned; and that the holding of the same, as well as the holding of a Special Session for the Purposes in that Behalf also hereinafter mentioned, should be fully established and confirmed; but such Doubts cannot be effectually obviated, nor the holding of the said Court of Annual General and Special Session be fully and effectually established and confirmed without the Aid and Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please your Majesty, that it may be enacted,' &c.

"General Quarter Sessions originating at Lancaster, and all Adjournments adjudged to be legal and valid. § 1. Justices empowered to hold an Annual General Session at Preston, § 2.; at which is to be transacted exclusively all Public Business of the County at large. § 3. But the Gaol not to be removed from the Castle of Lancaster. § 4. In case of Vacancies in the Public Offices, in the Nomination of the Justices, &c. the Salaries of which are payable out of the County Rates, or in case of any unforeseen Accident, a Special General Session may be assembled upon previous Advertisement by the Clerk of the Peace, of the Nature of the Business intended to be brought forward at such Special Session. § 5. In case of Non-attendance of the Justices or their Neglect or Refusal to adjourn, the same to be deemed to be adjourned to the next usual Place of holding. § 6. Quarter Sessions authorized to levy such Rates as shall be made at the Annual General Sessions. § 7. Justices at the Annual General Session empowered to increase the Treasurer's Salary out of the County Rates. § 8. Expences of the Act to be paid out of the County Rates. § 9. Cap. lxi.

An Act to explain, amend, and enlarge the Powers of an Act, passed in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty *, intituled, An Act for widening and improving the Entrance into the City of London, near Temple Bar, for making a more commodious Street or Passage at Snow Hill, and for raising, on the Credit of the Orphan's Fund, a Sum of Money for those Purposes.—[21st June 1798.]

* c. 126.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the thirty-fifth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for widening and improving the Entrance into the City of London, near Temple Bar, for making a more commodious Street or Passage at Snow Hill, and for raising, on the Credit of the Orphan's Fund, a Sum of Money for those Purposes; the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, were empowered (among other Things) to make a convenient 'Street, Way, or Passage, from Temple Bar aforesaid, to the East Ends of Wych-Street and Holywell 'Street, in the Parish of Saint Clement Danes, in the County of Middlesex, by erecting Dwelling Houses or 'other Buildings, so as to form a straight Line from the North End of Temple Bar to the North East Cor-'ner of Wych Street aforesaid, and by taking down all the Houses and Buildings between such straight Line 'and the South Side of the Street called The Strand, and leaving the Ground then covered therewith open,

35 Geo. 3. c. 126. recited.

'for the Accommodation of the Public, and were thereby also empowered to take down the Parish Church 'of Saint Clement Danes, and rebuild it in a different Position, if they should think the same necessary or ex-'pedient for the Purpose of widening and improving the Street on the South Side of the said Church, and 'to fit up some other Place within the said Parish for the Performance and Hearing of Divine Service, in-'stead of the said Church, until the same should be rebuilt; and the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, 'in Common Council assembled, were thereby also empowered to borrow and raise, in the Manner therein 'expressed, the Sum of one hundred thousand Pounds, upon the Credit of the Fund called The Orphan's 'Fund, to be applied to the Purposes of the said Act: And whereas considerable Progress hath been made 'in carrying the said recited Act into Execution: And whereas the taking down and rebuilding of the said 'Parish Church of St. Clement Danes would be attended with much unnecessary Expence, Inconvenience, 'and Delay, which might be avoided, and a sufficient Enlargement of the Street on the South Side of the 'said Church effected, by permitting the said Church to remain in its present Situation, and taking down cer-'tain Houses on the South Side of The Strand aforesaid, and at the West End of the Place called Saint Cle-'ment's Church Yard, whereby a considerable Saving of Expence would be made, and the Communica-'tion between the Cities of London and Westminster greatly improved, and rendered commodious; but as 'the same cannot be done without the Aid and Authority of Parliament,' Therefore, upon the Petition of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, may it please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, and they are hereby fully authorized and empowered to widen, and render more commodious, the Way or Passage along and through that Part of the said Street called The Strand, which extends from the West Side of the House called George's Coffee House to the North End of the Street called Arundel Street, in the Parish of Saint Clement Danes aforesaid; and for that Purpose to treat and agree for and purchase all the Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, situate on or near the South Side of the Strand, from the said House called George's Coffee House, to Arundel Street aforesaid, and being within the Distance of one hundred and twenty Feet in Depth, Southward, from the Front or Fronts of any of the Houses immediately adjoining upon that Part of the South Side of the Strand; and also to treat and agree for and purchase all the Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, situate on or near the West End or Side of Saint Clement's Church Yard aforesaid, between the Strand and Holywell Street aforesaid, and on the North Side of the Strand, from the South West Corner of the said Church Yard, and on the South Side of Holywell Street, from the North West Corner of the said Church Yard, now or late in the several Occupations of Miss Curtis, Master Hayes, Master Stilfox, Master Lambert, Master Filts, Miss Wickens, and Master Hobson, or such and so many of the same Houses, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, as they the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, in Common Council assembled, shall deem necessary or expedient to be purchased; and upon Payment of such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be agreed upon for such Purchase or Purchases, or as shall be adjudged or assessed in the Manner hereinafter referred to and expressed in the said recited Act, to cause such Houses and other Buildings, or such or so much thereof as they shall deem necessary, to be taken down, and the Ground whereon such Houses and Buildings now stand, and the other Ground so to be purchased, or any Part or Parts thereof, to be laid open, so as to make a commodious Way or Passage round the said Church, and also to erect and build such and so many Dwelling Houses and other Buildings round the South and North Sides and West End of the said Church, leaving a public Way or Passage, not less than fifty Feet in Width, between the intended Railing to inclose the Church, and the Fronts of such last-mentioned Dwelling Houses or other Buildings, according to such Plan or Plans, and of such Dimensions, as the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, in Common Council assembled, shall think fit and direct.

Common Council empowered to widen the Strand from George's Coffee House to Arundel Street:

And for that Purpose to purchase certain Premises on the the South Side of the Strand;

and to cause Houses, &c. to be taken down;

and to build other Dwelling Houses, &c.

"The Chancellor and Council of the Duchy of Lancaster empowered to sell and convey three Houses near "the West Corner of Essex Street, to the Corporation. § 2. The Purchase Money whereof is to be paid "to the Receiver General of the Duchy, and applied under 19 Geo. 3. c. 45.—§ 3. Essex Chapel and the "Crown and Anchor Tavern not to be purchased without the Assent of the Owners. § 4. Occupiers of "Houses on the South Side of the Strand not to be dispossessed until an equal Number of Houses shall be "erected and covered in on the North Side. § 5."

Certain Ground to be conveyed to the Churchwardens of the Parish of Saint Clement Danes, whereon the Common Council are to build Vestry Rooms, &c.

VI. 'And whereas, for the avoiding of Uncertainty and Dispute, it is proper in case the Buildings now 'called and used as the Vestry Rooms and Alms Houses of and belonging to the said Parish of Saint Clement 'Danes, (which Vestry Rooms are also used as Court Rooms for the Duchy of Lancaster,) should be taken 'down in Execution of the said recited Act, that the Scite of the Buildings intended to be erected and built 'instead thereof should be distinctly marked out, and not subject to any Variation or Alteration, unless by 'the mutual Assent of the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, in Common Council assembled, and 'the said Inhabitants of Saint Clement Danes, in Vestry assembled;' be it therefore enacted, That before the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, shall take down any Part of the said Buildings now used as the Vestry Rooms and Court Rooms of the said Parish and Duchy, or the said Alms Houses, the said Mayor and Commonalty, and Citizens of the City of London, or their Successors, shall, at their own Costs and Charges, to be paid out of the Fund arising by the said recited Act, fully and effectually convey and assure, or cause or procure to be conveyed and assured, unto the Churchwardens of the said Parish for the Time being, and their Successors, (who shall and are hereby declared to be a Corporate Body for such Purpose,) in Trust for the Use of the said Parish, the Freehold and Inheritance of and in all that Piece or Parcel of Ground, situate on the North Side of and adjoining to that Part of the intended new Street or Passage from Temple Bar to Wych Street, which will be nearly opposite to the North West Corner of the said Parish Church of Saint Clement Danes, and extending in Length from the Front of the intended Buildings (to form Part of the Circus) on the North Side of the same Street or Passage, home to the South Wall of Clement's Inn Hall, and being in the Front, and also at the Rear, and every other Part thereof, not less in Width than the Vestry Rooms and Court Rooms now belonging to the said Parish; and that on the Front of the said Piece or Parcel of Ground, where it will adjoin the said intended Circus, Street, or Passage, there shall be erected and built, at the Expence of the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, to be paid out of the Fund arising under the said recited Act, a good and sufficient Building or Buildings, of not less Dimensions than the present Vestry Rooms and Court Rooms, to be used as Vestry Rooms and Court Rooms for the said Parish and Duchy, and upon the Rear or Back Part of the said Ground, or under such Part of the said Building as can be conveniently used for such Purpose, (after allowing a Way the Width of the said Ground, to the Burial Ground hereinafter mentioned,) there shall also be erected and built, at the Expence of the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, to be paid as aforesaid, proper Alms Houses for the Use of the Alms Women of the said Parish, in lieu of the present Alms Houses intended to be taken down; such Vestry Rooms, Court Rooms, and Alms Houses, to be for ever then after used in such and the like Manner as the present Vestry Rooms and Alms Houses of the said Parish are and have been used, and to be thenafter sustained and kept in Repair by the said Parish and Duchy, in like Manner as the said Vestry Rooms and Alms Houses now are.

Proviso as to Alterations in the Plan thereof, &c.

VII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, and the said Inhabitants of the said Parish of Saint Clement Danes, in Vestry assembled, may by mutual Assent make such Alterations and Variations in the Scite of the same intended Building or Buildings, and in the erecting thereof, as to them may seem meet, subject to such Provision as to an Increase in Expence, as in the said former recited Act is mentioned; or the said Inhabitants may accept a specific Sum in lieu of erecting such Vestry Rooms, Court Rooms, and Alms Houses, to be paid by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, to such Person or Persons as the Inhabitants of the said Parish, in Vestry assembled, shall direct and appoint, to be laid out by them the said Inhabitants in the erecting of the said Buildings.

" For preserving Uniformity in the Elevation of the Vestry Rooms, &c. (if built) with the adjoining " Buildings. § 8. Common Council empowered to build on, or otherwise make use of, Part of the pre- " sent Church Yard, leaving a Way round the Church. § 9. The Church of Saint Clement Danes to be " inclosed with Iron Railing, Gates, &c. § 10."

Common Council to provide certain additional Burial Ground for the said Parish.

XI. And be it further enacted, That the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, in Common Council assembled, shall find, provide, and set out, for the Use of the said Parish of Saint Clement Danes, so much Ground for a Burial Ground, as shall be equal in Quantity of Superficial Feet, to such Ground as shall be taken by them from the present Church Yard or Burial Ground, of and belonging to the said Parish and Parish Church of Saint Clement Danes; such Ground so to be set out for that Purpose to be situate on the East Side of and fronting the intended Scite of the said new Alms Houses, and to extend Northward up to the South Wall of Clement's Inn Hall before mentioned; and that the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, shall at their own Expence, to be paid out of the Fund arising by the said recited Act, procure all the said Ground so to be set out in lieu of the Burial Ground which shall be taken away, to be consecrated as Burial Ground for the Use of the said Parish of Saint Clement Danes, and shall also enclose such Part of the said Ground as shall lie on the East Side of the said intended Alms Houses, with an Iron Railing, to be placed before the Fronts of the said Alms Houses, leaving a Passage in Front of the said Alms Houses, and shall also make and leave the said Ground proper for a Burial Ground, and shall fix and put up a proper Gate as an Entrance thereto, at such Place as shall be pointed out by the Churchwardens of the said Parish, with a Lock and other necessary Fastenings to such Gate.

" Not to apply any Part of the present Church Yard, &c. to the Purposes of this Act, until other Ground " is provided in lieu thereof. § 12."

Graves in the Church Yard to be disturbed as little as may be, and Grave Stones to be refixed, &c.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That in effecting the intended Improvements near the said Parish Church of Saint Clement Danes, the Graves in the Church Yard shall be as little disturbed, and as little Damage shall be done to the Grave Stones in and about the said Church Yard, as reasonably may be, and that such Grave Stones as shall be necessarily removed on Account thereof, shall be refixed at the Expence of the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the said City of London, to be paid out of the Fund arising by the said recited Act, in such Part or Parts of the present Church Yard as shall remain to be used as such, or in the New Church Yard or Burial Ground to be provided, as shall be most fit: Provided always, That whenever it shall be necessary in pursuance and execution of this Act, to open or disturb any Grave or Graves, or any Burial Vault in the said present Church Yard, it shall be lawful for the Relations and Friends of any Person or Persons whose Corpse or Corpses shall have been interred or deposited in such Grave or Graves, or Vault, with the Consent of the Rector and Churchwardens of the said Parish for the Time being, or the major Part of them, to remove such Corpse or Corpses to any other Place or Places set apart for the Burial of the Dead, and afterwards, if they shall so think fit, to bring back the same, and deposit such Corpse or Corpses in the said new Church Yard or Burial Ground, as soon as the said new Church Yard or Burial Ground shall be made fit for the Burial of the Dead; any Law, Ecclesiastical Canon, or Usage, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding; and such of the Corpses in the Graves or Vaults so to be opened or disturbed, as shall not be removed as aforesaid from the present Church Yard, shall, at the Expence of the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, in Common Council assembled, to be paid out of the said Fund, and as soon as conveniently may be after the said new Church Yard or Burial Ground shall have been made fit for the Burial of the Dead, be taken out of the present Church Yard, and placed in the said new Church Yard or Burial Ground, except the Bodies in such Vaults or Graves as shall be finally closed up.

" Common Council empowered to take down the South Portico of the Church of St. Clement Danes within " four Years; delivering the Materials to the Churchwardens. § 14. Indemnity to the Rector for Tythes. " § 15."

For appointing a Stand for Hackney Coaches between Temple Bar and Saint Clement's Church.

XVI. ' And whereas it is expedient that there should be only one Stand of Hackney Coaches allowed ' to ply for Hire in the open Streets, Ways, or Passages, made or to be made from Temple Bar, Westward, ' to the End of Arundel Street, and from thence Northward to the East End of Wych Street, and from thence ' Eastward to Temple Bar, as hereinafter mentioned;' be it therefore enacted, That no Hackney Coach shall hereafter stand or ply for Hire between Temple Bar and Arundel Street, and Wych Street, or between Arundel Street and the East End of Wych Street, except in a single Row of Coaches in the Middle of the wide Street between Saint Clement's Church and Temple Bar; such intended Stand of Coaches not to extend Westward, within seventy Feet of the East End of the said Church, nor to extend Eastward beyond the third House to the East of the Entrance into Passgrave Place, and that a free and uninterrupted Space or Distance of two Yards, at the least, shall be left between each and every of the Coaches on the said Stand, upon pain that the Owner or Driver of every Hackney Coach which shall stand or ply for Hire between Arundel Street and Wych Street, or between those last-mentioned Streets and Temple Bar, except as hereinbefore is excepted, or at a less Distance, one Coach and Horses from the other than is hereinbefore specified, shall, for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding twenty Shillings, to be levied, recovered, and applied, as by the several Acts of Parliament now in force concerning Hackney Coaches, or any of them, are directed; any Law, Statute, Custom, or Bye Law, to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

" The Costs and Expences of passing and executing the Purposes of this Act, to be paid out of the Monies " arising under the former Act. § 17. Powers, &c. contained in the former Act, for making good Defi- " ciencies in Taxes and Rates, are to extend to the Premises aforesaid. § 18. Clauses, Powers, &c. of " the former Act, extended to this Act. § 19. Power of purchasing limited to seven Years from the " passing of the former Act. § 20."

Improvements to be carried into Effect within ten Years from the passing of the former Act.

XXI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That if the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, in Common Council assembled, shall not within the Space of ten Years, commencing and to be computed from the Time of passing the said recited Act, carry into Effect, do and complete the several Objects and Purposes of this Act, that then and in such Case this Act, and all the Powers and Authorities hereby given, shall from thenceforth cease and determine.
